Shri Mataji: Absolutely. I will appear before you like tongues of flames, you see the tongues of flames are there. Absolutely, you see, it is all explained. You see, My father, who was a very learned man, told Me “Without realisation you can't understand Christ at all; neither, nor Bible." So I said “Why especially?" “Because" he said “Bible is written in a very mystic way. The reason was, at that time, the people were not at all prepared and they had to say things in a mystic manner and they shortened the whole thing." Because, I mean, whatever Christ did, was only a three and half years work, you see; in that time, He had to fight with these disciples, because they could not believe Him, they were fishermen, how could He tell them about these things? They could not believe Him till He got resurrected, can you imagine? And then they believed, they still fought quite a lot. I mean, they are quarreling as to the Immaculate Conception... very difficult people, very very difficult. John was the simplest of all, I tell you, very difficult, his revelation has a lot of sense in what he says. These people have just said what they saw, but part of it and part of it they have missed... I do not know how far they have understood, whatever it is, but it is true, this is what they said of the Tree of Life, is this Tree of Life.

Lots of things are there, but in a very mystic manner, but all that thing opens out, because once you get the key you know that.

So many things. Best was, I must say, a very great poet, William Blake, was a real prophet, because he has talked of Sahaja Yoga; He said that England will be Jerusalem, now really in England; now I have been together for about twelve years; that the first light will be lit in [UNCLEAR] Hills where I stayed first, then our ashram is in Lambeth way and it is in ruins, absolutely in ruins so. It is written that foundation will be made in the ruins in Lambeth way. Then he said that in those days, “Men of God will become prophets and the prophets will have powers to make others prophets." This will be the speciality of those days.

So beautiful in the book Milton, called Milton it is written this.

I must say that such a modern poet like him has seen these things through and has prophesized most surprising.

One of your... I think she was an American lady who was prophesizing, she prophesized about My birth and all that... most surprising, Jean Dixon “Mother will be born in India" she said in 1924, I am born in 1923.

I mean, so many things like that have happened. But despite all that what is the best is not to believe anyone, but to believe yourself, that is the best way, it is. And no use having blind faith, no use, better have it.

Question: What is the way of telling what is true and what is false, in terms of all the literature and all philosophies and all the writings. What is the in which you can tell the truth from falsehood?

Shri Mataji: First of all, you see, you cannot judge so rationally, but logically you can find out who is a true master, like, we can say, Khalil Gibran. Khalil Gibran is, no doubt, because he talks of the meeting, not of the suffering, but of the meeting, of the joy and everything. Like that you can judge it logically, a little bit.

A person who is realised will just feel the vibrations of the book, immediately. I mean, they will just not look at it and run away, you just feel the heat.

Sometimes you get blisters from some books, you will be amazed, some books give you blisters. The other day we went to a library, because they had a library in that church, united church and I ran away from there, I said “There are no good books in this, only one or two are there" [UNCLEAR]. You can get blisters also from them.

So you will yourself know, once you get your realisation, you yourself can judge it.

Question: He has read about Kuṇḍalinī, but he also had an experience in which he felt energy above his head and in the literature, it refers to certain Chakras above his head, he is wondering if it is Kuṇḍalinī which he experienced in this energy above his head.

Shri Mataji: You will see, when you see your Kuṇḍalinī, all right? Whatever it is you will see that, what happens. Kuṇḍalinī is actually in that state, but on your head is Grace, is the Crown; from the Crown it comes down. The Grace around us, you see, the All-pervading Power comes down as grace. But Kuṇḍalinī has to rise and you have to be collectively conscious and we can feel that, we will find out.

But whatever it is, you should get your realisation and fix it up for yourself and you will know everything, all right? That is very important. There is nothing unknown in Kuṇḍalinī Yoga, which is the real Kuṇḍalinī Yoga, where you become the Spirit, then nothing is unknown, you know everything. You have no doubts left about it, you can find out everything. That is what should happen to you. In any case, whatever it is will see. I mean, I know all the permutations and combinations somehow. All right, now should we? I would request all of you to you to come a little further, it would be a good idea.

Sahaja Yogi: Come right up to the front if you would because Mother can see you clearly...

Shri Mataji: Now, we are all wearing shoes, but if you could take out for a little short time would be help us, because this Mother Earth is very helpful some times, for a little short time, maybe it might work out better. Is it very cold down below? Is it? You can put your feet on the shoes, you can take out, because it grips on your feet a little bit. Just put on the shoes. I mean what I am saying... yes, just, yes.

Also the shoes you know, there are some times the belts are very tight. If they are very tight, you can loose them a little, it helps. Of course there is nothing physical, but...

Now, all of you have to do it, because it is not proper some people you see just think they can do what they like, it is not proper, is not being just or fair to us and to all others. Because even if there is one person of that kind of a thing that he drags because it is a collective happening, is a collective happening.

So if you are not interested you can go away, but if you are interested there is nothing but just you have to put your hands opened and close your eyes. That is all you have to do, But if you are not interested it is better that you go, before you disturb others, in a simple way.

Put your hands towards Me like this, all of you and close your eyes, just close your eyes. Be comfortable, be very comfortable, sit comfortably. With hands just like this, like this.

Close your eyes, please close your eyes.

Now you have to put your right hand, keep your eyes closed, right hand on your heart, right hand on your heart. Right hand on your heart on the left hand side, yes, just in your heart, because in your Heart reside the Spirit.

Now you ask the question `Mother, am I the Spirit?' You ask within your heart but sincerely. `Mother, am I the Spirit?' sincerely you must ask. Thrice you must ask `Mother, am I the Spirit?' Ask in your heart `Mother, am I the Spirit?' Ask this question, it is a very fundamental question.

[Aside:] Put down [Shri Mataji is referring to the Sahaja Yogi close to Her].

Some of you might get a little bit Cool Breeze flowing with that, some, not all.

Now you put your right hand, remove it from the heart, put it on your stomach, on the left side, only again on the left side. Left side is peace, in this Guru, the left side is peace. Now you have to say, you have to ask Me `Mother, am I my own Guru?' Now this you have to ask ten times. `Mother, am I my own master? Am I my own Guru?' Keep your eyes shut, do not open your eyes; it is very important because Kuṇḍalinī won't rise above Āgñyā, if your eyes are open. Little lower you have to put your hand, little lower and say `Mother, am I my own Guru?' Now, without feeling guilty, without feeling guilty, again I say without feeling guilty, you put again your hand on your heart and say `Mother please forgive Me if we have done any mistakes in our seeking, please forgive us' say three times. And do not feel guilty! Feeling guilty is absurd, because I am talking to you about the Ocean of Love, He is the Ocean of Compassion, He is the Ocean of Forgiveness; and whatever little mistakes you have committed should not give you any guilt.

Now you have to forgive others, Best thing would be to say Lord's Prayer, if you know, three times.

Now put both the hands towards Me and say, close your eyes and say `Mother please give Me Selfrealisation.' This you have to ask because this is your freedom, I cannot challenge. Put both your hands, say like this. Like this, as I am showing you. Just put both the hands and say `Please, Mother, give me my Self-realisation.' Because you are free. If you do not ask, I cannot force it all. You have to ask for it, I have to respect your freedom. Say three times. [Puts Her Sahasrāra close to the microphone.] You start feeling the Cool Breeze in your hands. If you are not feeling that, please put your right hand on the head and see if there is a Cool Breeze coming or hot, maybe heat. Higher, higher than your head.

And just move your hand and see if there is a cool draft coming in. If you have been smoking or something... on top of your head, on top, raise your hand higher. Maybe some heat is coming out.

Keep your fingers straight! Do not bend them or make them stick. Straight. And your neck also straight. Sit very comfortably in a straight manner.

Now put your hands again towards Me, it will work out, it will work out in everyone. You got it! [Shri Mataji blows into the microphone.] Done. You can see each other also, if you are feeling it you can see others.

You can see each other head. One hand towards Me.

[Shri Mataji works on people.]

Contents: 1981-10-17*, Public Program, Day 1, Seekers are the Highest Creation, Heartwood Community Center, Santa Cruz, CA, U.S.A.

[Introduction by Gregoire MISSING.] I am very fortunate and very happy that I could come to Sant Cruz.

I can see what I am facing is the Ocean of Love, the seekers of Love, the people who are seeking the Truth. Gregor has told you all these things, because he is very earnest, he is very concerned, he knows you are seekers and this is why he has told you in these words, so don't be frightened, there is nothing to be frightened about that.

You are seekers and you are a special category. In the eyes of God, seekers are the highest creation that He has created. You are the highest of all. To Him it does not matter who are rich, who are in power, who is leading a life of so-called success; it does not matter to Him at all, He does not understand that, He does not know that.

Christ has said that these people if they want gold let them have; they have bars of gold and leave with it. But “If they seek Me, if they love Me” then these people who are seekers today are going to enter into the Kingdom of God and He will eat with them, they will seat at the same table.

You are respected because you are seekers; you are loved, because you are seekers. And you have survived despite all the attacks on you, these are all attacks. You are [UNCLEAR], you are simple, you were innocent at that time when attacks came in. Now gradually you are discovering that it was an attack.

Everything, everything that you did was just to put you down. And one person who was negative of that kind would come forward and assert and use all the negative forces to push you down.

To Me you are My children. To Me, I do not think what you have done, because you did not meet Me that time. I take the load upon Myself.

I did come to [UNCLEAR] last time, they said “There are a lot of seekers settling down in Santa Cruz” they did tell.

I wanted to come and see you here that time only, but the experience I had of the people who were there, I thought “They are not just seeking God, but they are seeking ego or superego” sort of seeking into a new style of life, a new style of understanding, because they have found out that material life is of no value, is not going to give them joy.

At that time, when I said that you are thinking all these things how can you pay for it? And nobody could understand these things, it was very difficult to talk to them, that “It is spontaneous, that it is your own right that you have to get it. You have been seeking for ages now, not only in this life time. You have been saints in many lives and now you are born here to seek it." It is so simple as that, it has to happen, it is your nature, that's what you are; you try anything else, you won't be satisfied till you found out the Truth.

But that time nobody would listen to Me, it was a very funny situation and I ultimately decided that let them find for themselves to begin with. When they will find it out, they have to reach the right conclusion.

Because there is one problem in the seeking, that you have to seek in your own freedom, in your own glory of your own choice. Because if you are to be liberated, it has to be a free choice. A person is not free, he says, he isn't [UNCLEAR] or he is hypnotized or he is overpowered by others. He has not freedom at all of any kind, such person is useless to enter into the Kingdom of God. If you are to become the King, then you have to have that basic freedom in yourself [UNCLEAR].

But freedom does not mean ego by any chance, it never means ego. If you think: “I like it, I love it, I do it” that is not the Spirit. You are not seekers of ego, I must tell you very frankly, you are not, you are seekers of Truth, of Love, of Joy. For ages you have been seeking that, joy is the result. When you get to that position where you become your Spirit, your Ātmā, you should be in joy, not... telling about it, not talking about it, but enjoying it. And that has to happen to you. It is a happening that you are built-in for ages now.

Today in general I will tell you what you are really and what you have to expect, to become what, nobody has told you about it. They said “All right, come to us into a new age"; “All right” people said “Let's go! Join it!" Somebody said that you will get this and you join it.

William Blake, I must say, was one of the greatest prophets of modern times. For you, Western people, he said that “The men of God" that is you people, you are people of God, you are not of this [gross] level. If people do not understand you that does not mean that I do not understand, I know you, what you are. I know what it is, I can feel it, I just feel that. He said that “Men of God will become prophets and these prophets will have powers to make others prophets." This is what we have to expect within ourselves.

[Aside:] Don't worry about her, she has a problem here [indicates the center Heart]. She will be all right.

So you have to become the prophet and you have to make others prophets. Now this is the point you should judge: have you become the prophet? what is a prophet? Prophet is a person who can feel the All-pervading Power around.

Now I said that there is All-pervading Power of Love, I say that. Oh you also sing the song, they say “Yes, there is All-pervading Power." Many people also feel that they are feeling it, but it is not true. We have to be honest to ourselves because we are seekers, we should not cheat ourselves; because this is ego that makes you cheat. This intelligence is the worse thing. Gregor himself told Me one day that “I find my intelligence is trying to cheat me." Very intelligent way.

So one has to be very careful to understand that you have to become that. You are the loser, you are the loser. Nobody else.

If you play around with your ego, you are the loser. Or with your superego, your conditionings, mesmerism, hypnosis, or your ideas of having a kind of life... all that. Could be a great barrier to be the Spirit, which is a different thing... all together is beyond this.

So when you become the Spirit, what happens to you, what should you except? Of corse it is true that there is this power around us, this All-pervading Power is there.

Now if I say there are lots of plays going on here, there is music going on here, everything is there, you won't believe, If I bring the television and say “This is the one which is going to show you” you will say “Oh"; I mean, you know it, but in India, if I take to a village who has never seen a television, will say “This box?" How can I do it? But you put it into the mains and a fantastic thing can happen, it catches all that.

In the same way, when you become that, when you get... just it is little breakthrough, is just the plugging into the mains, just that, you are all ready for that, just that. And a fantastic thing happens.

First you start feeling it all around, first thing.

Now not jump into ego then, that's not the end of it. You first start feeling it around.

Then you start understanding that your centers are on your fingers.....

Contents: 1981-10-18*, Public Program, Day 2 (morning), Heartwood Community Center, Santa Cruz, CA, U.S.A.

Last night I was really very happy to meet you all and I was thinking how I could reach you so spontaneously.

It is a great thing to cherish the moments of meeting you. I went into your beings, to your problems yesterday. That Gregoire has said that you all have got mostly the left-sided problem not so much the right side, means ego is not so much there as your left-sided problem. And the left-sided problem is the problem that comes to you because of certain mistakes you have committed in your seeking.

So doesn't matter, it can be worked out. The basic of the left-sided problem comes because I think you didn't get the love of your parents also in your childhood. One of the biggest problems is that of the mother's problem that you didn't feel that security when you were a child, to begin with. It's mother's side. Left side is the mother's side. The another thing could be that when you went into the society they tried to create diffidence in you by their own norms and ideas about life, you see their idea of successes is very different from the idea of a seeker. Because for a seeker the only success he can have is when he has found out the truth. See that's what he is seeking. And if one child is born who is a seeker in a family who don't know what a seeking is, they are just seeking money or something else like that which is very superficial and nonsensical for a seeker. The diffidence grows in him gradually in the sub conscious and he starts thinking that are we mad? Or is there something wrong with us? Or are we something strange people? What's happening to us? So how is it that we are so much different from the rest of the people who are madly doing other things and so much involved and we do find them funny.

So the left side starts getting accumulating that diffidence within yourself. Then you find some friends who are with you or find people who talk the same language of the thing that they are seekers, they have to seek and they have to seek something. But the another diffidence that starts afterwards when you become a group or sort of, this whole thing becomes known to the people who are selling in the market. We can say who are in the market. Who are just trying to mobilize their money into new channels, wherever they can make some money, you see.

So if these people when they come to know about such a group, which is still uncertain, does not know, How to go? Where to go? What to do? You see it's a very vulnerable society.

Very vulnerable society because there is nothing established. They don't know what to do? If they realise that these people are wasting their time, that the people who are doing other seeking like money and all those things, they understand that but they cannot also understand what they should do.

So it's a very vulnerable, a very risky type of a life they lead. And in that risk the first hit comes when they give up their parents, you see. Because when, they are because of the parent's attitude towards them, they have to give. And the parents in America, I was surprised, are really not at all kind to their children. They have only rights, they have no duties, I feel. I mean it's just the other way round you need. They have no duties for their children. They are rich people, they don't look after your, I mean their needs, nothing. It is something surprising, the other day somebody told Me that a story that if the son is having a party or something, I mean enjoying himself with his friends. Then if he puts the music little loud, the mother in the other house would ring up the police and call... and ask the police to arrest this fellow. I mean this is the country I can't imagine. In India, on the contrary if the mother if she knows that boys are going to have the party she will go all out, prepare something nice for them and how to make them happy. And she would disappear from there so that their age group should enjoy themselves. I mean this is a very common practice in India.

So many such things you know have crawled up because of, I think war. I would place it in one of the things is war. Because of war your parents got disturbed and they got upset. Let's also give them some praise about it. All right so they were all very much frightened and disturbed and their nerves were broken. Let's take it like that. Now whatever it happens, then they also, the material advancement, so-called, through your industrial development came through. All right. That also puts such a pressure on them. I mean if somebody has a TV you must have TV. If you don't have a TV then you are a gone case. If you have some plastics then you should have some plastics. They have some nylons you must have some nylons. You see this competition was in accumulating these things all the time and the machines they were trying to create more and more of this nonsense because they are hungry things. And so they were consuming all the Mother's earth and converting it into all these nonsensical things, which now is a big mountain and it is a big problem for you to how to dispose them out? And the other thing, the people in the households were trying to compete with others in this kind of a nonsensical pursuit. You see the whole thing was a chaos for you, because you are born with a different, different awareness within you because you are awakened to a fact that material things are not going to give you joy. And this is what was difficult for you to convince your elders. And the elders also got into the funny ideas of Freud, I should say and all the people started writing books about nonsensical things, how to treat their children, how to behave towards them. It's something absurd I can't believe. It's shocking when I hear. I mean there was a girl in Switzerland. She told Me that my child who was only one and half month or something like that died, died in his bedroom. I said, in his bedroom? I can't understand what is that? She said we don't let children sleep with us. I mean I can't understand. You just can't understand how can you leave? I mean you can't sleep, your children are not with you. You just can't sleep, you are so worried. And this is something you see from the very childhood if you are left in another room, you feel... I mean you must be frightened.

And I don't know what must be happening to you. I mean when I give you realisation I am even worried about you. What' going to happen to these children who, are born realised. I have to leave somebody here to look after you, to consolidate it, to manage it, to make you go otherwise you might be frightened.

It is really, it is so. With this one feels very much disturbed and whom to blame? You see, you cannot blame anyone. The whole thing, you can say, it was to be like this.

So accept it as it is. But it has harmed you on the left hand side.

So to begin with, in your psyche, I would say, the problem started from the right from the time with them. Now you to clear that with your choice. You decided to be born to these parents. You thought them to be sane people. May be your mistake. And then you took your birth in this great country which has also got some great disadvantage no doubt which I will tell you now what is the greatness of this country is, why you were born in this country.

And then thirdly, that you have to live with your own nature, you could not take to the nature of other people and the difference between the two, the gap was so great that you just couldn't manage it, you see and you have to get out of it and once you are out of your home you are absolutely vulnerable to these people who are attacking you. Because you are not yet matured enough to face them. You are quite young. And you are suddenly attacked. Your innocence is attacked. Then now you should not do this to your children. That is very important. But, now the children are going to be very powerful people. And look at the matured ones sitting here, just like the great grand old mothers. You see. They are watching the things like, when I went back, these two boys, one without a shirt and one with a shirt standing there.

I said what you are doing here. They said we are looking after all the crooks who are trying to go inside.

And we are protecting You from them. These two little things. One was so big... they put all their toys there to fight, you see, all the crooks that are going in they are all standing there both of them.

So it's like that. You see, this great children are to be born, no doubt but in between is your generation which is a very important generation for Me because you are the foundation of that great kingdom, the kingdom of God.

So you are also very important so the first thing you have to do as I said to say that `Mother I am not guilty.' Do not take anything upon yourself. Say that `Mother I am not guilty.' You don't blame yourself for anything. Alright first thing.

Secondly is that the left side gives you a kind of a diffidence, it's such a vicious circle you get a diffidence, all right? Because of diffidence you do not get your realisation, maybe. Even if you get you realisation you go little bit coming little bit going, you see all the time and you get more diffidence. Then the vicious circle starts. The diffidence again stops your feeling the vibrations, again you get into diffidence, you start blaming yourselves and hating yourselves again it goes in a very bad vicious circle.

So the first and the foremost thing for all of you is to have complete confidence into your faith that you have to seek something beyond. For say this is the first faith you should have. That you should seek something beyond and whatever you are doing, you are doing in this, may be mistaken. Doesn't matter. But your aims were correct. Your aims were perfect and your aims were correct. All right! Now the second thing you have to know in yourself that you are not all these things like the worldly things you see but you are the Spirit. You are the Spirit. Now believe that you are. Do not have diffidence because you have failed so far, doesn't matter whatever has happened. Ultimately if you find it, you find it.

So second thing you have to know, second thing you have to know that you are the Spirit. This is the second point and I was, gradually, yesterday strengthening your left side of which you are not aware.

Perhaps you think that you are very egoistical.

Some people think like that and that this is the ego. But mostly this whatever ego you had is also finished because the way they were bumping at it, you see so it is hurting and it may become a guilt within you... “Ooh I should I have not done this, I should not have done this, I should not..." No use worrying about these things. No use going back onto it.

So because of this you see the left side, which is a very important side in Sahaja Yoga, is affected and it starts right from the Swādhiṣhṭhān. In the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra. As I have told you that I am going to tell you about your Chakras but more relating to the left side. Left side, as Gregoire has written a book Advent in which he describes it as the sin against the Mother. And the right side it says the sin against the Father.

Not the mother who has given you the birth, but the Shakti, the primordial Mother. The power of God's Love. Sin against Her is the left side and the sin against the Father is the right side.

So countries which are developing now like India, you see, they are trying to develop into your style they are going to have plastics and nylons and everything. Then they will take to drugs, then they will become hippies and then this will happen and, then I have to give them realisation. Before going all this circle they are not going to listen to Me. They don't want to short circuit it. You see, so them go along with it. They are now developing. All these countries are developing they should come and see you and meet you and know what development has given you. This kind of material... you are understanding so well, but they will not. If you tell them they can't believe.

You will be surprised when I go to India I have to take nylon sarīs for them. Though we get very beautiful silks in India and they don't think much about it. They think, why don't you bring some nylons for them.

So this is what it is. You see they don't understand. And this is the thing I told you that Kuṇḍalinī is in India but they are not awakened. You people have realised the value of matter. You people have realised that matter doesn't give you the joy. You have to go beyond it, specially nylons and plastics.

At least this much you understand. But you go to any sophisticated Indian family they will give food in stainless steel. Though they may have glass they think, Ooh stainless steel is great, you see. All the rich people will take out their stainless steel. Even if they will have silver they think stainless steel is great.

Can you imagine? So, this is the state in this they are, while you have reached that state where you do realise the aesthetics, the aesthetics of the matter. Aesthetics of the matter you understand.

So you have in one side, on the right side, you have achieved quiet a lot, I should say and it should be confident on that style at least that you understand the worthlessness of all these man made things. That something so great to achieve that you want to have something that is God made. Once you come to that point you should also know that if you have to have realisation it cannot be man made it has to be God made.

Now the left side is important here so I will talk about left side. But you should not feel hurt about it because I have to point it out to you to understand the mistakes and the things which should not be repeated. But the right side mistakes are committed as I told you in the people who are developing.

So I will mention you to do that part what happens to the right side when we commit mistakes on the right side. What we do is, we don't believe that there is God who is your Father. You forget that there is Father above you. And He is the one who is going to look after.

So you don't have to worry so much about earning money by any crooked method or by any means without any values to earn money. To be worried about money, to be worried about your well being is absurd. Kṛiṣhṇa has said, “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham." He said you get your Yoga. If you get your Yoga then you get your kshema, which means your well being. The other day somebody asked Me what is the way to Lakṣhmī?, is first to get your Yoga. Why didn't he say kshemaYoga? He said, “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham"... first Yoga! First you get united with your Divine force and then your well being is looked after. It is looked after. Even if I tell you the stories of that you won't believe to what extent it looks after your kshema also. You don't become Mister Ford because that's madness. You become a person who is provided for, who is looked after and who never feels the dearth that there is no money with you. That's what is, kshema is. In which your health improves, material things improve, everything improves once you have got Yoga which is promised by Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa six thousand years back. I am not saying something new, it was said about six thousand years back.

So you become a realised Soul. By becoming realised Soul you realise that your Father God almighty is the richest man in the whole world. He has everything. From where does it come? It comes from Him. Riches that we think are riches not really riches. The one He gives you, the one He provides you are miraculous. These are miraculous things and when it happens.

I will give you one example for you. Like in London you see we didn't have any place for the boys to live and girls to live in and they want to form an ashram. There was a lady who bought a place because she had sold her place, she bought a place, dilapidated, ruined place in Lambeth way. Of course you will be surprised that William Blake has said, because I laid the foundation there and he said it that the foundations will be laid in Lambeth way. He said that England is going to become Jerusalem and he said in Lambeth way the foundations will be laid. Imagine this William Blake and his prophecies. I stayed first in Surrey Hills. He has written that the first beacon will be lit in Surrey Hills. Can you believe this man, how good he was in prophesying? Whatever it is, this ashram could only provide rooms for very few boys and girls and big problem for them.

So they said Mother we have to have some more places to live and what are we to do? I said, all right, now you pray for it. Just ask. And a boy came up with an idea that we should form a co-op.

So they were not willing to form a co-op. They said Mother it takes ten years to get a nice place in co-op. It's useless. I said if you say so just go ahead.

So they formed a co-op. Can you believe within one month's time they got a huge building, with fifteen large bedrooms and big halls and all that for them to stay paying only 70 pounds for the whole building, in one week, can you imagine? Then after a month they got a huge big, very-very big hotel with all things there, beds and linen and cutlery and crockery and everything that you could think of paying only 70 pounds per week for all, such a huge big thing. There about twenty-five people can easily live and they have got halls and basements and this and that.

We had sixteen marriages on the Kṛiṣhṇa ashtami day. And all these newly married couples stayed in that hotel very nicely, paying nothing, because they didn't have to pay there. But these boys... I don't know what they did among themselves. But this is what it is. This is the truth. And, such beautiful atmosphere in that place. Everybody enjoying the Pure Knowledge and the pure love.

Now, we are on the left hand side and when I will discuss about the Chakras. I'll be dealing, pertaining more to the left side. And not the right side, which is the side which we say, is all material well-being or say how do you get your physical well being. You also get your physical well-being through this.

Now as you see here, the first Chakra is very important. Because you see the connection is established in the left hand side, is a very, very important center, is the center of your innocence. The first thing God created on this earth was innocence. And this innocence is embodied in a deity whom we call as Śhrī Gaṇeśha. This deity was created long long time back, much before anything started on this earth. The omega and the alpha you can call it. And He incarnated on this earth as Lord Jesus Christ. I was told that I have to be careful because there are many people who just don't believe in Jesus Christ. This is a very big conditioning of people because they are born in families who don't want to believe in Christ.

Whether you like it or not He exists, not only He exists but He is the only one who can really give us the path from here.

So the first one is the center of our innocence. And this center of innocence was kept there at a position where it manifests in the gross, our pelvic plexus, which looks after the excretion of the body. As there are four, we can say the petals of this subtle center, in the same way there are four sub-plexuses for the pelvic plexus. I don't know how many have done medicine here. But the pelvic plexus has got four excretory sub-plexuses. One of them is responsible for sex. Now the idea of sex that has come to us is from people like. Mister, say, Freud. Now look at his life. What sort of life he led. He had bad relations with his own mother. He is a perverted fellow. Secondly, see, look at himself. In his own life he should see the light of a person. Then secondly that he had cancer for years together and he died with cancer.

So, physically he was nonsensical, mentally he was a pervert. Yes! I mean you must see the person whom you try to follow. Alright? So, it's so logical. Now, you see his life as it is. He taught you, “Oh that if you try to condition yourself about sex and if you marry someone and you're married to one person and then you are attached to conditioning of the society." But he was half baked. Because you are not on your left side, see, if you say that, what's wrong if I do this? What's wrong if I do that? What's wrong if I do that? If you go on like this, then you forget the other side. Which is the ego. Which is the ego side. And then the ego side develops and then you can become a mad person. Then your sex can be a problem. Today the sex of modern people is such a problem. We should face it. Perhaps you do not know that what a percentage of American young people are impotent today. They are impotent. The more you become impotent a viscous circle is created and to you sex becomes so important that you think you have to become just a sex point. No more a human being but a sex point. All the time you talk of sex, sex, sex, sex. What is the need? It is such a subtle thing. Every animal knows, everyone knows. Nobody is given education about it. In India we never talk about it, we are producing much more children than you are producing here.

That's also another reason why we produce more children is. The load has to be borne on us, because children don't want to be born here. The conditions are so bad. In England two children are killed. Two children. Can you believe it? It's allowed. Two children are killed every week by parents. I mean I can't think of one parent in India, who will do that. One! And we have poverty and we have everything. But no mother can kill her own child even if she had twelve children, she wouldn't mind. Mind is not the thing, she loves them. She can't afford to lose even one child. I mean it is another extreme we have, like we can even sell our country for our children sake. We are to that limit. You see, some of the people are so attached to their children that they don't mind. For their children's sake, they can sell their country and that's going to another extreme. But, I must say that children would like to be born in India, not here.

So we are carrying the load upon our self. But, the main thing is our sex ideas are really being conditioned by this so-called deconditioner. When they say do not condition yourself, actually they decondition you, they think, but they are conditioning you much more by saying “do this, do that." You see, sex you don't have to run away from that. You don't have to get out from that. Not at all. But sane ideas must be developed about sex and you have to lead a very good married life. Married life is the blessing, blessing of the Goddess on you. It is Gṛuhalakṣhmī. The way you treat your women, the women treat you. The way, I mean it's a reaction. You see. The men treated them so shabbily the women are becoming mad here. I must say they are getting mad. You can't live without men. How can you live without them? It's impossible. You see if you think you can live without men, you are sadly mistaken. It's a wrong idea, you can not. And men can't live without women. Now you might say there are people, I was amazed also, another amazing thing that I heard was that 65% people in California are homosexuals. It's something shocking. It's another thing. Because it's perversion. Now why it happens? I had a boy in New York who came to Me who was like a boy, he had mustaches and everything, but talking like a woman, you know. I said what's wrong with your... First I didn't understand, you know, then they told Me, “Mother he is something like that it is that and that." I said “all right." But actually he was possessed by a woman. He was possessed by a woman. I removed that possession and he said “now I look like and feel like a man" and he started walking in a different way all together. He changed his gait and everything and he was walking in a different way. Just imagine it was just a possession of a woman on him.

So he was behaving like a woman and he was seeking a company of a man instead of a woman, which he should seek. That's the normal thing to do and he became abnormal. Now when they became abnormal nobody is there to protect it, nobody is going to tell them that this is abnormal. This is nothing that you should say this is insane, this is illegal, nobody is going to listen to you... if you tell human beings this is wrong they will sit on your head they will never do it. Never tell them this is wrong.

Tell them, this is right, go ahead with it and they suffer they will come back. This is the way our modern society is working towards it. All right! You want homosexuality, permit it. You want killing, permit it.

Whatever you want you do it. They have a feeling behind that that, once you allow them to do what they like, either they will be finished completely once for all. Headache is gone, or once they realise, they will come back to normal. I think this must be the basis for everybody not going into it and finding out that 65% people are suffering from such an absurd thing which is not at all joy giving. It's never joy giving. It just ego pampering. Because some women told Me, “Mother these men are so dominating and they are so horrid and that's why we should not have anything to do with them." “All right." “And they try to push us here and there and they try to harass us so we have nothing to do with them. We'll have ladies together." I said, “That's not the way. You should know how to handle them. They are very sweet. Oh! They are extremely sweet, you should know how to handle them. They are like children. Absolutely like children. But you have to be a real mother to understand them." They are so sweet you can't imagine.

They are extremely sweet and good people. Same about men, I would say, that the way they see the women are sort of dominating them and all that. There are ways of handling the women of that kind also You can manage that. You see you have forgotten the sweet methods of romance. See now the romance depends on the ring you wear. If a woman is wearing a particular type of ring that man falls in love. She changes the ring the love is finished. These kind of artificial ideas if you have about your relationship with each other, if it is the hair you like, if it is the eyes you like and all that, it will it will not last. But the feeling that we belong to each other, just we belong to each other and we have to love each other, then you don't see this difference in each other. You don't' find this disturbing. Not at all. I mean you need not be with the husband all the time but you enjoy the separation and then you enjoy also the meeting. It's not that if you are away from him you are posted… not at all. It is a very sweet thing that happens to you and can happen to all of you when you are realised. Once you are realised, you come to s normal position that the whole thing normalises. You see because that is the absolute point. That's the thing that takes away all your imbalances, all your problems and you really know what is love. What is enjoyment? This Gregoire, is the one who came here with all kinds of nonsensical things here. Today he was telling to Me other day that “Mother you are the Master... Master of fitting all the pieces together in a very nice integrated manner." And, it's true that it is the Spirit in you that... just brings back everything, that all looking so ugly and so disintegrated into one beautiful full and all the romances that you have heard of. Now I mean such a romance for his wife, he is so romantic that nobody can believe that he a modern man. A modern man is not supposed to be romantic about his wife he can be romantic about anybody else's wife, but not his wife.

So this is the absurdity of our ideas about love. This is [UNCLEAR] of our own. Why not enjoy your own thing it's like enjoying somebody else's thing. Like in India, you see supposing you get an Indian, he may be a thug. He can come to your house and run away with your things, you know. May run away with all your things, that you have collected. But if you get another one, a Western man in the house, he will run away with your wife only. You don't know what he will do. He will talk very sweetly and run away with your wife and he will say “Oh! I have done such a great thing, she loves me." And he is not bothered as to the whole system of your family is finished. The whole thing is finished. Like we had one boy, a journalist, he was twenty-six year old and his friend was 24 year old and he invited the friend to his house.

I mean the friend, he came to the house. His The mother was forty-eight years old and she ran away with the friend. And four children were left behind and the father didn't know what to do. She had a divorce and she got the house divided. The children are thrown to places. I mean this is absurd. How can you do it? And she came to Me, “Oh! I'm in love with him, Mother." I said, “This little boy, who is younger to your son. How can you be in love? Are you mad?" She must be mad to believe in such a thing. And the fellow was interested in her money, perhaps, maybe. I don't know what he was interested. But they were in love, supposed to be in love. I don't know what sort of a love is this one. See how can you be in love with your great grand children. It's absurd. You know this is so absurd, you see, this eighty year old people trying to copy with you. Going in a pub and dancing like you with their shaking hands and everything shaking and collapsing next moment. What is there to compete with these young children? You are grown up, you are matured, you are sensible, you are sane. You enjoy that. It's so funny thing, you see. In these, modernity, we have gone very much away from reality. That's why we are away from joy and enjoyment.

All right so this is it, that sex is to be used for its right purpose and to be used at its right point, means at the Mūlādhāra. Christ said one thing. He said, it is written, “Thou shall not to commit adultery." I say, “Thou shall not have adulterous eyes." Because He knew this would happen and He is placed at that point where He controls thoughts. Nowadays we have started doing sex with our eyes, this flirting business.

What do you get out of it? Looking at this girl. Looking at that girl. Looking at this girl, that girl, what are you getting? Your eyes are ruined. Your attention is ruined. You're finished and [UNCLEAR] up.

And by the time you have seen twenty girls. You will sit down and say “Aah! This is the best way to age." And then you go to beauty clinics and try to look younger. See what is the need to look at these girls like this; they are all your sisters. Have purity in your heart. There is no need to waste your attention so much. There is no need to waste your attention. For an Indian we will be looking at the thing and you will be looking at the women or the men. You finish your choice at a point. You finish it and enjoy it. Even in Guru shopping you do the same thing. You have come to Me now, I have told you the truth.

But tomorrow another Guru comes in, let's go and have a look. If you have that kind of a frivolous idea about yourself Sahaja Yoga is not going to work out in you. You have to settle down with it. You have to work it out. Your Spirit is to be completely uncovered and is to be brought into complete consciousness of it. You should really become the master. Unless and until you are master you should not give in and don't go to these people just to look at them because you spoil your attention.

So doing sex with your thinking leads you to impotency. If you have to eat food with your mouth and if you start eating with your nose, the mouth will be finished because it is frozen and the nose will be finished too and you won't be eating either. Whatever things have to do, whatever ways you should allow that organ to work out that thing.

So that's why the spontaneity in sex is lost. You think about it, plan about it. How can you plan, I just can't understand. You plan about everything that is so spontaneous and that's why there is such a problem. And people talk here as if sex is something out of the blue. It is there, it exists and you don't have to learn about it. It is all there. And to talk about it, is also it is not necessary. It is your own private. It's absolutely private and sacred thing between you and your wife. That's all. Nothing beyond, nothing before. It's a very sacred thing. The more sacred it is the more you enjoy it. I have known people in India who are 90 years of age and still very potent. One gentleman came to tell Me that, Mother, my wife has died and I am till... I don't know. I said it's all right. How do you manage? I told him how do you manage? He said I am living, in her separation I live. That's how they live. And they manage themselves. While here the people at a very young age just become exhausted and finished.

So we have to understand that in Sahaja Yoga, you try, it will work out. It works out. Also gradually your attention will be stationed. You will be very much in the center and you will definitely get your innocence in such a beautiful manner, just like your innocence. Can you believe? Completely you become so innocent and so simple that you are amazed at yourself. Your innocence is there as far as money is concerned, no doubt still you are intact on that point. On that point Indians are not. You are innocent as far as material things are concerned. For example you don't mind giving all the money to these horrible Gurus as long you get your realisation. But there I think the innocence is not stupidity. How can you give money for your realisation? I mean it's a simple thing. You must understand you cannot pay money for your realisation, one thing you must understand. Anybody who says, now I have got vibrations, some people go to someone and feel heated up. Then they want to get heated up more and more and more. This heat is coming from that man and is going to increase your heat all the time and it is going to increase and increase and increase and your Chakras are going to be ruined completely by this manner. It has to be reduced. It has to come to the cooling point and you must feel the cooling point. If you cannot feel the cooling point then you must know that this man is absolutely wrong. When you are feeling heat here, now for example, it is because the cleansing is taking place. Once the cleansing is over the Cool Breeze must flow in and you must feel the Cool Breeze. Now some people might feel absolutely cold, just like frozen, that's also not a good sign that means you are left-sided.

Some of you may feel that kind of a thing. It's not the feeling. It's the cold, is the point. It is the feeling of the Cool Breeze, is a breeze like feeling that you get. From My photograph also you will get. That's the way you have to judge yourself. You judge yourself, establish yourself, keep your Chakras clean and you will be amazed how you become a master of the whole art. You will be able to give realisation, each one of you to thousands of people.

So now in the second Chakra when we come, I would say the Chakra of your seeking. And we call that as the second Chakra, because the third Chakra comes out of it. Is the Chakra in which you seek. It starts from very very beginning when you were a human being you did not realise that you came to this stage in thousands and thousands and thousands of years. First of all, as any animal, what you do is, to seek God in food. You just seek food. You are seeking food and want to eat and the whole thing is at Nābhī level, is, at this point where you are just seeking the food. How to nourish yourselves? How to look after yourselves? The second seeking later on starts.

Some of the animals start becoming more alert by understanding that you have to be more intellect, so they start seeking in power. They want to power other animals and slightly overcome them so that they can eat them, so they seek in power. Then the seeking goes even subtler and subtler, that they start seeking in money, as human being starts seeking in money, possessions and things. Animals don't have possession, thank God. Because possessions means head ache. You have to have insurance, you have to have this, you have to have that.

So the human beings start getting the possessions and all these things and they start really into this seeking.

But the last and the foremost seeking is of the very evolved, is the seeking of the Spirit, the seeking of God. This is the real thing that should happen to us. When you are at that point, at that point of maturity then this happening takes place.

Now the other center that is coming out of that one is... actually it's not shown here. But it comes out of that, actually comes out of here, is the center that is called as Swādhiṣhṭhān, is the center by which you think, you organize for the future. You think. You organize for the future. You work out your action through it. Like we think, think, think, think all the time, what we do is nothing but think. I mean planning is such a curse that we don't do anything about it, we just plan and keep it in the book. Oh! we have planned it. They think we have planned it, it's done already. It's not so. Now this thinking gives a realm of future into which we are entering. When we start thinking, we do not know how we imbalance ourselves.

In this area... this area... resides the principle of the Primordial Masters, as Gregoire has told you.

Now, when you start thinking, this center, the one you see, which is the yellow coloured center, transforms the fat from your stomach for the use of your brain. Now people are so much against fat these days that it would be really dangerous to talk for it. Now from where are you to get the replacement of your brain cells? Tell Me, if you are not going to consume any fat and it is your livers are out.

So whatever fat you take, you take any amount of fat, you will not have any weight, try, because that fat is the reserve for your brain which thinks all the time. You have to... You know... Do you know that this brain is made of fat cells? Do you know this or not?... Is nothing but fat cells. In Sanskrit it's called the medh. And the whole thing is called medhi, even the brain. Even your nerves are made of the fat cells. Now when you don't take it, any form of fat, any form of fat whatsoever, I mean I am told that lots of butter is lying here wasted. I don't say that you eat the mountain of it, no, no. What I am saying if you don't take it at all any fat, then what you do is, to make your body starve for the fat that is needed. For one of the purposes is the brain and for your nerves. If you don't take fat in the body you will be a nervous person.

What is the supplement for your nerves? What are you going to supply? That's why you find, you see, mostly to make it out a Westerner and an Indian is very easy. You make them stand before any calamity.

All right? Indian will be silently watching. The another would be going indoor completely The will say, Aah! Ooh! Ha! Ha! Everything will be coming out or the eyes will be twisting, the nose will be going up and down and ears will be going out like that. They will all be nervous. The reason is your nerves do not have any sustenance in it. That's lost because you just don't take any fat, take little bit, not I'm not saying the mountains. You see, if I say something, you may jump into the mountain of fat. That's not the point. Not at all. But just to avoid completely the fat is a wrong idea. Creates an imbalance. Now this poor center has to do double job. Firstly it has to supply the fat to the brain, secondly it has to look after your liver on the right hand side, when it moves to the left hand side your pancreas, your spleen, your kidneys and the uterus.

All these things this poor thing has to do. Now if you are thinking, thinking, thinking all the time then it is trying to find out all those fats whoever it can get from everywhere to supply in the brain. Alright.

And if, it does not get that then it is a dangerous thing. But even if it gets it, then it is creating a problem for the other organs which it has to look after. That's how people get diabetes. You don't get diabetes because you eat sugar. It's a wrong idea altogether. I don't know for why the doctors have started this kind of a thing. For example, in India people take sugar at least half a kilo of sugar per day in the villages.

At least minimum. They eat more sugar than they eat rice. Take it from Me. But nobody has diabetes.

Why? Because they don't think. Whatever sugar they take is used for their liver. Now if you do not give your liver any sugar, now ask anyone, how the liver acts. Liver is the one that takes out all your poison.

Now this poison is to be taken out of the liver by water. Now if you take the water and drink on top of that, what happens that the hydrogen becomes heavier. I mean there's H3 added to it and the whole system of H_2O which has to be neutral becomes like this and you can't receive any heat into it.

So the whole heat which is the poison, accumulates in the liver, you get all kinds of liver problems. All kinds of liver problems. Practically most of the Western people have liver problems. But they don't know it, till they discover it. Till they are absolutely on the verge of something very fatal, they do not discover about liver. Now this hydrogen which pulls it down, you see, becomes like a arrow doesn't receive anything from the liver, the heat and such a person never gets any temperature. Even cancer acts the same way. In cancer also, the H goes down very much though it's a left-sided problem, which I'll tell you. But same thing happens that the heat of the body cannot be taken out by water.

So the water becomes a heavy water, you can say. But after realisation, the hydrogen goes up like that. And you receive all the heat and people who have bad liver feel terrible heat on the right hand side.

Now you have to take carbohydrates to neutralise that heat. You have to take carbohydrates. If you don't like sugar, eat rice, I mean if there is some sort of a thing on your head. This also is an enterprise, I must tell you, these food stores are also another enterprise which is very, very subtle. Very subtle enterprise.

You see, as you had another enterprise of the Gurus. Then you had a holiday, you see.

Some idea must have come. Then this hip... what you call it, singers, musicians, the four of them, Beatles. You know the one who created them, Beatles. His uncle had told Me the story. How he did it. It was all manoeuvreing, to begin with and that manoeuvreing makes people mad. And that madness is still on. You see people go on into that. It's all autosuggestion and all those things they work it out, their psychologies, you see.

And they know how to manoeuvre people and how to dominate. They know. And they manoeuvre it. They work it out on your weaknesses like you do not know about food. Now some of the health foods I ate, it was not for human beings, it was for buffalos, I felt. Really.

Some of the foods were so hard and so harsh, I got such a pain in My stomach I said now this is not for human beings, this is for buffalos. You are not buffalos. You are human beings, you have to eat food which is digestible to your stomach. Of course that doesn't mean you should use this white bread. Of course that is not the thing, which makes your liver completely sort of or you can say the intestine sluggish. But you should not eat all the harder, of such a hard things like everything you cut because you want to preserve the vitamins. You will cut everything and eat everything like that. Japanese are the worst. Japanese are the worst. I mean there is nothing that they don't eat. They eat everything that you could think of. I mean you can't eat the food the way they eat. First thing they served Me on a very special banquet, where the princess was there and all that, was a shell with all these moss around it. You see, for us Indians as it is, a little fussy about these things and My daughter said “what is in there?" And they said, “Live thing." I said “Live?" We were all frightened, what is “live." They said oyster or something which live inside. And the poked it and it started doing like that and you see... oh God how do you eat it? And the Japanese just twisted it out and ate it off, you see. And they eat everything wrong. There was a boy who was eating peanuts. I said what are you eating and he said I am eating these frogs. He was just peeling them up and eating them nicely. Can you imagine? This is the way they eat their food which is not meant for the human body. You have to cook, but your women are so busy with liberation, they don't cook. They don't cook. You should learn to cook, to handle your husbands. You see, if you know how to cook, it's very simple.

In our Sahaja Yoga center, we teach them how to cook, because if you know cooking you are the master.

You see, people are, men are really so simple... I cook very well. I'm an excellent cook I should say. But a gentleman came to see Me, he was a German and he told Me that there was one chairman of a cart...

Catherine, that she told Me, if you want to eat the best chicken, ask Mrs. Srivastava to cook, that's My another name. And, She is an excellent cook. I was surprised that this reputation all over that I cook so well... chicken. And he came all the way, you see and he brought the chicken with him. And he came all the way to cook with Me and to eat it and he was a very big man also himself and I was amazed to see that just to learn, how to cook the chicken. He said my wife doesn't know how to cook. Just imagine how helpless he was. All men are helpless as far as food is concerned. If you give them good food, you see, they may say oh! we can eat whatever we like. But it's not so. If you know their taste and things and if you know how to handle them, it's very easy to handle them. Like, somebody told Me Indian men are very great cowards. I said “why?" Because they don't know how to cook, that's why they don't divorce.

[UNCLEAR] to say such a thing. It's not that. They are very wise. Process of changing every day a wife, you see. One wife is, she knows all about your habits, she knows everything, she knows how to cook for you. It's a good idea to carry on very well as companions. Every time if you change, God knows, she may come as a shrew, she may come as anything. You may lose your head with somebody, another will break your hand and another will break your leg. It's better to know one and handle her for this lifetime.

So next time at least you don't face that type. It's very simple and wise way of living together, to understand that in one lifetime, only if you live with one person you develop that love, that attention, that understanding because human being basically are very good. If you live with somebody for two days, you will just see the superficial things of that person. That may not be good.

So to get to the depth of a person, it's necessary you live with that person with a loving care, you see that person and you will discover how beautiful that person is.

He is so beautiful sometimes that you are surprised at yourself. The other day I had to go for something to a hospital. I mean, I never go to a hospital, but something happened and doctor said after My life You must do this, You must do that. And My husband couldn't see that. You see, he was so upset. He has never seen Me like that.

So he went back to his office, he put his head like this and he was sitting there didn't do any work or anything. When he came back, I was angry with him. I said what do you mean by not being here, I was here and there were other people. But actually I knew what he was doing.

So I went I told him, I know you ran away, you coward, you couldn't stand here. He said it's true. You know, I couldn't see it. And then his secretary told Me he was horrid. He wouldn't talk to me, he wouldn't allow me to do anything. That's what happened.

So, to understand a man is such a great thing... to love. I don't know if you realise that. It's such a great thing to love. To give. It's much greater than to have.

Giving, I don't know if you've tried or not. All My life, I have done nothing but giving. And I think I feel so happy about it. The real source of happiness lies in giving only. Not in taking anything. It's such a great thing to give. Give. Give. Give. And you'll be amazed you'll have no dearth of it. That is what one has to understand. But to think about what things I should preserve, what things I should give. What is there to think? If somebody likes, have it. Doesn't matter. It works out.

Now, the second center, is also of the Lakṣhmī center, because, you asked Me to how to get the Lakṣhmī.

Now this is the center of Lakṣhmī, because Lakṣhmī is the deity of this center. And the deity actually, who is the male side of it, is the one who is the kinetic side. The power is the potential side and the kinetic side is the male side.

So, Lakṣhmī is the power of Nārāyaṇa. Nārāyaṇa is the deity, whom you call as Viṣhṇu.

That's why Viṣhṇu only incarnates. Because He comes for our seeking. He incarnates. He incarnates to give us our higher awareness. Always the Viṣhṇu incarnates for the aspects of the human kind. And that's how we have been evolving one after another. For example, when Noah's ark was built, it was Viṣhṇu who came in the form of a dolphin fish and saved that Noah's ark. And that's how, we were saved. Then, a tortoise form it came in, to make the fishes come to the shore and start crawling on the Mother Earth.

Like that, a leader is always born and that leader is the aspect of God, is the incarnation. Now, many may say we don't believe it.

So many are like that “we don't believe it. Don't believe in that. Don't believe in that. We believe in this and we believe in this." How can you say that? First of all know that you say this because you are conditioned for something. You have a fixation. When you say I believe in it or you say you I don't believe in it, you have not reached your absolute awareness. Have we? How can we judge? You cannot judge.

So, you have to become that. Once you become that, put just your hands and ask the question `Was Viṣhṇu an incarnation? Was it the aspect of incarnation that gives us our realisation?' You'll start getting more breeze and more breeze. And then you'll know that it is so. But this fact about Viṣhṇu, that He exists, you will only know after your realisation. When you raise the Kuṇḍalinī and if the Kuṇḍalinī stops at this point of Nābhī, then you have to take His name. If you don't take His name, it won't rise. That's why the mantra is a very big science. To know first of all how the Kuṇḍalinī is moving.

You can say the mantra is like, give it very gross example, is like a toll that you pay at every point.

So, when you go up to a gate, now you have to pass through that. Then you pay a toll. But somebody gives you a mantra before realisation, it has no meaning. Because you've not started moving as yet, your car has not started moving as yet. How can you pay the toll?

Whom are you paying the toll? You're just paying the toll to the Guru, who is nonsensical. You have to go to that point where your Kuṇḍalinī has stopped. Which you can see yourself and feel it. And then at that point, you have to raise the Kuṇḍalinī higher by saying that particular mantra. Then at higher level and at higher level. How the mantra is to be said there is a science. This all can become yours in no time at all. In within one month's time you all will be experts of Sahaja Yoga. Take it from Me. When I went to Australia, I was hardly there for a month I think and within fifteen days, see these people from television and all that they came to see Me.

And they said “Are Your disciples all scholars?" I said “Not at all. Who told you that?" “Oh they know so much!" I said, “Because they have become knowledge now." You start learning from others when you start giving Kuṇḍalinī awakening and all that. You start learning what's happening. Where is it going, how it is working out, how to manoeuvre. Unless and until you start driving the car, how will you become the master of the car? In the same way, you have to know everything, working it out. Not thinking about it. Then people start analyzing. How can this be? How can that be? It's not analysis, is actual working.

Actually you work it out. Things flows from your hand and you're amazed. Oh God, the Kuṇḍalinī is rising! Yes. You can see it's come up. You can give realisation. Those who got realisation yesterday, today they can give realisation. What do you say to that? You are that fantastic. You are that fantastic.

That know, that you should not be shifty people. They say that Americans have very, very shifty people.

And be careful of this character.

So everybody has a sign. Like that, you have a sign that you are shifty.

While English are hard nuts.

So, be careful. Do not be shifty. Settle down on your own Spirit. Work it out. Learn about it and fix it up.

I'm happy to see Michael has come all the way from Los Angeles. I was sorry I couldn't ring you. The other day I was feeling very sorry. And to see you here I was so heart-contended and I was so happy that you have come here to work it out. You see, that's how it should be. Alright.

So, we then go, I mean there is so much to be said about every center. And you know that I've given at least 500 lectures in London alone. And there are tapes of My lectures. These are available. I mean we don't make any profits as usual, but you must also not exploit us by taking the free tapes. You should pay for the tape itself.

Alright? Buy some tapes and you can get the tapes from these people. We'll send you. You can copy it and give it to others the way you want to spread it. You can use. There is no restriction on anything, but one thing is definite that you should not sell it at the profit. As I do not sell it for the profit, you also don't sell it for profit. There is no exploitation of the disciple and no exploitation of the poor Guru who is standing before you. Now, before we go to this another center which is very important within us. It's the center; I don't think I'll be able to finish it today, the whole thing. But at this point I'll stop. And tomorrow I'll talk about this two other centers and the Spirit. Alright? Tonight. I'm sorry. Tonight.

So, this center is, the center of heart. Here the Jagadambā, the Mother of the Universe resides. The one Who is alone. She is alone. She does not have any male deity with Her. She is alone. She is the Mother. And She looks after the people who are struggling in this ocean of illusion. She is the one who is the protector.

She incarnates. It's said that She has incarnated 1,000 times. She has incarnated many a times. Now this Jagadambā is the one who resides there at that point. And when you are a child, say about twelve years of age, She creates the antibodies in the sternum bone. And these antibodies spread into the whole body and protect you from the outer problems. Now, those people who have the problem of this, especially in ladies, comes from insecurities in life. If you're insecure, then you get the palpitation and such women at the extreme can develop breast cancer. If you can re-establish this, breast cancer can be cured in no time.

Now the other centers which are important, this is of the Father and the Mother on both the sides.

Now the Father, is on the right hand side, is the one by Śhrī Rāma. Śhrī Rāma and Sītā who came on this earth, They are not standing in the center, so you can see very clearly that They are not worried about the evolution part of it. But, They came on this earth to establish the right conduct of a person especially in the political and the economic field of life. How to be an ideal, a philosopher or you can say a benevolent king? He tried to establish the symbol of that, Śhrī Rāma. And those people who suffer from father's problem, supposing the father has died very early, they have this problem. And the symptoms of that is you get asthma. You develop asthma. If you have any problem of the father, if your father has died early or if your father is torturing you or if you have no respect for your father, if you are a bad father, I mean, the fatherhood itself, when it is challenged, you get these problems and asthma develops. Asthma, what you call that a breathing trouble, problems. It could be with the combination of that right side heart and also Viśhuddhi, but mostly it is the right side heart. It could come by the Viśhuddhi. Now, the left hand side is the Mother's thing is the Pārvatī, is the wife of Sadāśhiva, which resides there in Her form as the Mother Annapūrna or She is the one, giver of food. She gives you food. When She is in you, you find that if you cook for two people it will last for as many as who want to eat that. It's like that. This is the deity that comes when it is awakened. It works out. Now when the, this Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra is the one by Brahmadeva and Saraswatī. Those who are students for them it is essential to get this, because they are the Gods and Goddesses of your arts like music, dancing and all those things. Also, they give you the power of truth, in the sense that, if you have a good Swādhiṣhṭhān, then if you say something it comes out true. Your vāṇi, means your tongue, your vāṇi your voice, your tongues that you speak becomes the truth. Is the power of this one. With the Lakṣhmī Tattwa as I told you, you get your affluence wherever you go, you bring affluence. You go to any house people get affluence. You touch anything people become better off. All the problems go out and if you have problems on this, whatever you may try, you'll never get rich. It will be always a problem and you'll have sort of losses and things like that.

So the left side Viśhuddhi is the Viśhuddhi... uh... [Nābhī] which you catch very often here, because of drugs. Now I must warn you that left side Nābhī gives you also problem with money. Always with money.

Because if you have got left side problem, the Lakṣhmī just disappears. She just disappears. If you go more on to the left hand side it is even worse.

So alcoholism and all these things take you to a state where you start losing money and you can become very much poor with that.

So the poverty comes in with that kind of thing. The right side Nābhī is the one that gives you liver problems and gives you a very dominating nature, may be, or a temperament by which you get very much active. Left side Nābhī has another very serious problem, which is a very serious one. Where if your spleen gets affected, for example people who are very jerky type, having their food then they are running to the work. This can happen to the people who are right-sided also, because they are very speedy people. They are working. And then they want to eat the food at the same time, think about something. They will attend to many things at the same time. And this spleen has to look after all the emergencies and has to supply the blood cells. Because of this kind of a frantic temperament of a person, what happens is the spleen becomes fatty. And then, the serious disease like blood cancer comes in. Moreover this is nothing, because there is an anti-Christ, who has come in this country, settles down here. He is a Hitler, sick, sick, sick, who gives you also blood cancer.

So, it's a very serious thing and all these things only takes place when you are not aware of it. You do not know. It can be cured completely with Sahaja Yoga. No doubt. It can be cured by your Kuṇḍalinī awakening. That's the only way you can cure. Sahaja Yoga. There is no other way out. But you have to first of all know how to manage your Kuṇḍalinī. How to raise it. But the first thing you have to do is, to give up some of the fixations you have. Because it's a new venue you are entering into. And like any scientist you should keep yourself open, absolutely open and see for yourself and know for yourself that you have to understand everything, everything in such a way that it should be logical. It should be logical and through your vibratory awareness, not by your thinking. First you have to understand it and logically you'll see it is true.

So, it is you who judge yourself. It is you who understand everything. It is you who grow. And it is you the one who grows seeds, also thinks.

So I give it to you, all these things to happen to you, within your own wisdom and in your own freedom. All these things should be done. But just now I won't say `Don't do this and don't do that.' You'll just give up. Just like that. Because once you find your Spirit you'll never bored. You have no time. You are enjoying yourself so much; you have no time for anything. Even for smoking you forget. That's how I am a very tricky person. I said no use telling them, `Don't do.' Otherwise they will never come to My programs. Let them come and then I'll manage. Then you'll start really saving money on these nonsensical things, nonsensical habits that you've got. You want to get rid of them, just works out.

So for the time being I think today it's alright. But in the evening time, I'll tell you all the rest of it. And we have got luckily here two persons who are here to stay. She was in London and Michael was with Me. Who are deciding to stay in Santa Cruz. It is she who brought Me here. It is she who gave all these ideas. I mean it is now her responsibility to see that you all are put on to the right path and that without challenging your ego, she should do it, because it can be dangerous also. Because she is one of you and so you may not like it, her telling you something.

So don't mind. You'll become like her also. Don't feel that there is something aggressive about her. That is very important. Because with Me it's alright, because first of all I am a Mother and also I am something different. But for her you will think she is just like you.

So doesn't matter. You'll become like her. And you can also give Realisation to many. Thank you very much. May God bless you.

So, any questions? I'll answer these.

Sahaja Yogini: You were talking about the second Chakra the one that is green here.

Shri Mataji: No. The one that is yellow colour, which gives us, you see, the path of ascent. That it goes round. It's like a lotus. Have you seen a lotus stem which has got a stalk? The stalk is in the third Chakra. It comes out of there. And it goes round all over, supplies energy [UNCLEAR] everywhere. It can bend down.

So this is the Chakra which is flexible one. Swādhiṣhṭhān. Which is actually the Star, Star of David. Star of David. It's the one which Moses and all these, things they have built it up all that.

This crossing of this represents the crossing of Moses, the river that He crossed. Of the sea, you can say.

All that is represented here. Because the Sea of Illusion, you cross. It's the work of Moses Himself. It's Star of David.

Sahaja Yogini: Will You explain the difference between self-consciousness and Self-realisation?

Sahaja Yogi: The difference between self-consciousness and Self-realisation.

Shri Mataji: I don't know what is self-consciousness. But Self-realisation and Self-knowledge is the same. But self-consciousness what I learnt, My own Indian English, I would say is that you are very conscious of yourself. That you are very particular about your body and your mind. There is another word for that in English language. Is that vanity? Something. That's different. Self-knowledge, Ātmā boddha, knowledge of the Self. One by one alright. One here, one there. Alright?

Sahaja Yogini: Last night I went home I would feel like vomiting. [UNCLEAR]. And then I went to bed to go to sleep. It was terrifying.

Shri Mataji: Why? What happened?

Sahaja Yogini: Well, I was having nightmares.

Shri Mataji: The first day you may have. Because you see, there are spirits around. They will try to dissuade you.

Sahaja Yogini: We came... an image of my mother [UNCLEAR] and she was killing herself.

Shri Mataji: Your mother?

Sahaja Yogini: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: It can be anything. You see, what happens sometimes when you sleep, I mean you must have had first of all very deep sleep. That's when it happens. But when you come out of that sleep sometimes, you pass your subconscious area in the beginning. And, that impression that you awoke in your sushupti, that means in your deeper sleep you are not there. But you just remember what you've seen in your present subconscious mind. See and you touch that. But afterwards you get rid of that. No problem. It happens.

Sahaja Yogini: Also I want to ask you a question about you said last night about drinking. And people become alcoholic, are they possessed by negative forces?

Shri Mataji: They could be very much.

Sahaja Yogini: OK.

Shri Mataji: Because you see, they go to the left side. You see, if you drink, you go to the left side.

You are in a vulnerable state. Then, because you enter into an area, which is unknown to you is the collective subconscious. And people can attack you, you see. It is possible. Like Michael himself could tell you after Realisation, he started seeing... the way they were there. He could see them. And then he could fight them better because if you become something else then you can fight them better you see. Otherwise they are in you till you become mad, you don't know. They are there.

Sahaja Yogini: Also, is that all passed on from mummy to child?

Shri Mataji: Very much. Very much. Very much. No doubt. You see you share them even from your friends sometimes. That's what people don't know when they deal with other psyches and things like that, they don't know that there is a way of protecting yourself from this. You have to protect. It's very subtle. They are just like diseases. They spread and they can attack you. They can get into you. It's very simple. It happens. Like I said, he and Evan, they just announced their marriage. And she had been to some clairvoyance and all that. They were all in her. She didn't know. She got her Realisation alright.

The day the marriage was announced, they couldn't bear it. That happiness of his wife, you see. They all came back. She got so possessed; she started looking like a mad, talking like a mad. It was a big problem.

They had to come to London to get it alright....

Yes they are there. You can fight it out. No, not difficult. [UNCLEAR] get rid of it.

So just don't worry, alright? It will be alright.

So this gentleman, what have you to say?

Sahaja Yogi: Yesterday You talked about your body is a temple of Gods and I noticed that You were drinking Coca-Cola. What is that You like about it?

Shri Mataji: It's perfectly alright. You see, I can even take poison. No problem. You don't compare yourself with Me, alright?... I have to take poison also, I am so [UNCLEAR].

So don't compare yourself with Me. But this Coca-Cola is not so bad, as people talk. I can tell you. It used to be very bad. Before that they were making, about say two years back, I couldn't take that. But there is something wrong with it. I think it is some sort of a... also I feel, I don't know, but maybe some sort of a enmity. It's sort of an enmity that it is very popular. Maybe people are trying to say something. But nothing goes wrong with Me when I take it. If it was poisoned, I would know that it is poisoned. But something's so wrong with it. Because see, I don't know whatever they give Me, I eat, drink, I don't mind. But of course not the alcohol. Even if I take alcohol, nothing will happen to Me. But I would not take it. Because I don't need it at all. I'm already in the Spirits. I don't need it. But now, I would take it. I don't think there is wrong with this Coca-Cola. It used to be bad once upon a time. I would say about a year back or so. I never liked it. But now I don't mind because, it's something they add in it [UNCLEAR] it's some sort of a...

Sahaja Yogi: Too expensive to put cocaine in it now.

Shri Mataji: Now I don't think they put cocaine, oh very much they must be putting cocaine...

Sahaja Yogi: They used to.

Shri Mataji: Huh... now this is it. Alright.

So there's nothing wrong with it... That's it. Now how many questions?

Sahaja Yogi: That one that fellow over there.

Shri Mataji: Of course now this one is... first of all which one is bad. Because the seventh Chakra is the Chakra which has got 1,000 petals as shown here. When you cut the brain in the transverse section you can see it's like petals, petals of lotus. It is said in the Bible that “I will appear before you like the tongues of flames." And these are the tongues of flames. Of course all the Chakras look like tongues of flames. Very silent. Very peaceful. Very soothing. But seeing is not the point. `Being' is the point. If you see them, it's no good. You have to become. And becoming is that, you feel the whole thing coming out of your head. And these have the light. But you need not see them. There is no need to see the auras. Only when you are disintegrated, you see the auras. When you are integrated, you never see any of auras. It's being experimented. People who take drinks and all that, their auras goes like that shaking.

But a realised Soul, if you take the photograph of a realised Soul, there will be no aura around it. But, if you are disintegrated, for example if you are taking LSD you might see aura around Me, around everyone.

That's not good. That means you are not there. You are in the supra conscious area, where you are seeing the elements that are surrounding. But once you are integrated by your Realisation, all these seven Chakras get integrated. In Sanskrit, there is a very good word for integration it is `samagra' means, `agra' is the hole in the needle.

So all the needles have holes and the thread goes through that.

So all the Chakras get integrated when you get your Realisation. But actually this area has got all the Chakras. Now I'll show you where they are. This is the Āgñyā as I told you. This is the Āgñyā. Āgñyā Chakra. This is the window of the Āgñyā Chakra. But inside the brain it is, Āgñyā Chakra.

Then, you got the Viśhuddhi Chakra here, which becomes as the Primordial Being. Here as the Virāt.

Then is the Heart Chakra here. Then is the Nābhī Chakra here. You can feel it. If you have bad Nābhī you can feel the pressure. It's here. Here. It's here. At the back, here the whole is the Swādhiṣhṭhān. And here, at this point, at this point, in the center is the Mūlādhāra Chakra. Now, you will be amazed when you get diabetes, why should you have your eyes weakened. What is the reason? The reason is when you get diabetes; your Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra becomes weak, as I showed you there, that you get diabetes there, down below by the Swādhiṣhṭhān's exertion. It presses on, it presses on, in the center of the Mūlādhāra.

Mūlādhāra is here in the center, which controls your eyes. I mean eyes is the same as the power to the eyes. The light to the eyes. And once it starts oppressing it, you start losing your eyes. Your eyes are no good. Even if you're possessed. If you're possessed, also same thing will happen to you. You will have your eyes, but there will be no light. You can't see. All these things can be cured through Sahaja Yoga.

It's very simple. The methods are very simple. Which you can learn yourself. You can cure others. You can become the masters.

Now about the Spirit. As I told you, the Spirit resides in your heart. It is the reflection of the aspect of God which you call as God Almighty or Sadāśhiva. Because God is one. But one person now, I'm one, but I'm a wife, a grandmother, I'm your Mother. I'm doing so many things. These are aspects of God. And God has got firstly, the aspect of love. By which He creates the power of His love, which is called as the Primordial Mother or the Ādi Shakti. It is the same aspect, is represented in you as the Kuṇḍalinī. You'll be amazed that even, even the Greeks knew about it. Because they called this bone as sacrum. Means the sacred bone. That means they knew that it was a sacred power there. Even, Athena, `Atha' in Sanskrit means Primordial. And if you see the photograph of Athena or her statue, I've been to. I was so surprised.

In Greece that they all speak [UNCLEAR]. And She had this snake in Her hand representing the energy.

When we see the snake, it is the energy. Not the devil or anything. But it's an energy. It moves like this and so she has the snake and also all the Chakras in her hand and she's standing with a dress like that.

That is Athena. It's very interesting. That place, the Delphi and all that was so much revealing. And, that Delphi, they said is the Nābhī is the navel of the whole universe. Which is true also. And lots of things, I saw there, which I've talked in a tape you can see for yourself. Now this Spirit is the aspect of God which is a witness, the God that witnesses the play of His love. The first of all is the state where we call it, it is Parabrahma, where everything is just silent and sleeping. When we are sleeping, nothing exists for us. In the same way the whole thing like Parabrahma, the abstract, sleeps. Then, it comes to Its awaken state. Then It wants to, It gets the desire to create, out of love.

So, this power of His love spreads around Him, accumulates and forms another entity called as the Holy Ghost or you can say the ParaShakti or you can call it also as the Primordial Mother. She is the Holy Ghost. Now, when the breath takes place, there is a sound. And this sound is the logo, as you call it, the Spirit, that is the sound, is the Divine integrated sound, not one sound. And that one is called as Omkāra, which is the child, which is the child of this couple and that's how you get the Son of God.

Now the Spirit in us, which is represented, is that son of God within us, which is the part of the, we can say God Almighty's reflection within us. Which is the child in our heart, is the Spirit; is the abstract, abstract form of that Power, which is all-pervading, is the Spirit. Now, this is the combining thing. It has both the things. You can see that because it is from the combination of these a child is born.

So on one side it is the reflection of the God Almighty. On the other side, it is the connection with the All-pervading Power, which is the power of His love.

So it is connected on both the sides.

So the Spirit is in your heart which decides, is alert all the time and knows all about you. In Gītā it is called as “Kshetragñya" the Lord of the field. He knows all about you and He knows what you're doing. It just is a witness. It doesn't involve into the play of what you're doing. It's just watching the whole drama, as long as It wants to.

Otherwise, when It is now fed up or does not want to enjoy anymore, It just disappears. When It disappears, you do not exist anymore. This Spirit has got the nature of, as Caesar told you in the morning, Sat-chit-ānand.

`Sat' means that when you become the Spirit, you become the truth. Now, what is the truth? Truth is this All-pervading Power. You start feeling it. You start feeling the truth. Now, this truth is absolute.

You get connected to it. Your attention gets enlightened. And whatever you know through your attention by paying attention to it, means through your vibratory awareness, is the truth.

You put ten children together and ask them to feel that person, who is facing Me. They will put up the same finger. That means something wrong with his truth. Because you become the subject. It's not subjective but you become the subject. You start feeling, everybody feels the same. Now you have seen these people who have come to help Me from Australia, Switzerland and England and all these places.

When you come to Me, they say the same thing about a person. He is catching on this, he is catching on that. Everybody catches on the same.

So this All-pervading Power is a complete organization of delivering truth to you. You ask any questions whether it is true or not, you will know on your vibratory awareness.

Of course in the beginning you have to develop the sensitivity. Once you are sensitive to it, you can find out the truth.

So, the `sat' that part means the brain gets enlightened. Your central nervous system gets enlightened. That means Spirit gives light into central nervous system and you start feeling It through It. First time it comes into your consciousness. Whatever people may tell you, that this is the way we give Self-realisation and all that, just don't believe it. You must know that, you should have, you should have the sensitivity of feeling that Spirit. And that truth which is common to all of you, that it cannot be denied. Truth is only one. It cannot be hundreds. Once you are realised, all of them talk the same. There is no difference. But the problem is human beings know how to make a pickle out of everyone. That's the specialty of human beings. Anybody who came on this earth, who are the realised Souls, said the same thing. There is no difference whatsoever. But everybody started fighting about it. Like, the real flowers appear on the tree when they are living, they are beautiful, fragrant and they know each other. There is no difference between them. But somebody will take out one, another will take out another and say “this is mine... this is mine." Then they are dead. Then they say this is it. When Christ lived nobody recognized Him. They crucified Him. Even disciples, till He got His Resurrection. Then what's the use? Nobody recognized Him. All the great people when they came here, nobody recognized them.

Christ has said “Whatever you've done to Me will be forgiven, but not to the Holy Ghost." Because the Holy Ghost has to give you your Realisation. And when you get your Realisation, you have to recognize It. If you don't recognize, that will not be forgiven. After Realisation you have to recognize. If you do not recognize, He said it won't be forgiven.

A very, very great understanding is needed to understand what is today, Such a precarious time. The last judgment has started.

So many great people are taking birth.

So many crooks are taking birth to harm you. It's happening. How will you judge yourself? How will you judge? Are you going to report on a, what you call, a balance? Your Kuṇḍalinī is going to be awakened. You yourself will judge. Not necessary for anybody to judge. You yourself will know whether I am catching on this, whether I'm catching on that.

Today one of the Sahaja Yoginis said “Mother I'm catching on the right Heart." Alright. We'll work it out.

Another will say, “I'm catching on my Āgñyā." Yesterday somebody was telling Me “Mother please take out this bhoot from my Āgñyā." The Āgñyā means ego. They can feel it. They can see it and they judge it because they are out of it. The Spirit gives you the truth and you like it because the vibrations flow. You feel so peaceful and so happy and joyous. And you can feel others. When the vibrations are not there, you feel what's wrong with it? We should put it right. And, you can feel others. When the vibrations are not there, you feel what's wrong with it? We should put it right and when you know the method, how to do it. You want to do it and you want to feel that. The joy of the Spirit. Though really felt in a big way comes later on, but it starts trickling in. People give up all kinds of habits automatically. I don't tell them. They just give up. The will power is so great that whatever you want you can give up. There is no problem with it.

So many people who used to take drugs, the druggists and chemists I used to call them, when they came to Me, some of them came in coma. They just came out without any difficulty.

Because if you discover your Spirit, you just do it. A transformation has to take place within you. If that doesn't happen, it is no religion, it is no God. It has nothing to do with your Kuṇḍalinī. And when it takes you become so empowered, that nothing can dominate you. No habit can dominate you. No Guru can dominate you. No ideas and fixations and all these smaller things will dominate you. But you become so powerful that you start emitting light to others. And people can see that light in you, that confidence in you. Now the `Chitta'. Chitta means attention. Your attention becomes enlightened.

I am very happy to see that so many of you did feel the realisation and you felt the Spirit. And that's why today I am going to tell you about the Spirit as well as about the two other Chakras which we have left out. [Short pause.] The center that is called as Viśhuddhi Chakra is placed at the point where your neck joins the thoracic body. You'll be amazed that in the Universe, America represents this center. We developed this center within ourselves when the human beings in their evolution raised their head up. That time, these two powers that I showed you yesterday, the power of action and the power of desire, these two cross each other. And it started developing a kind of an institution, like a balloon we can say, as a by-product of using these two powers. By your action you developed your ego, by your conditioning you developed your superego. These two institutions met at the point here on top of your head at the fontanelle bone area when you grew up up to the twelve years of age. Actually, that's the main time, that is the main time very important in a human development. It's starts very early though, that the fontanelle bone area which is very soft in a child, starts getting calcified. Now, by these as I told you, you became an egg or a separate entity, or we could say as one Mister X and Y and Z and you developed your own independent existence.

Now the importance of this center is, that because of this center, we have taken the responsibility upon ourselves. You know that America is known for taking responsibility of the whole world. [Laughter.] At least they talk. They are responsible for the peace of the world, they are responsible for the fraternity of the world, for the collectivity of the world. I mean, your presidents have even said that, poverty anywhere is threat to prosperity everywhere.

[Returning to the Hotel after the, Public Program, Kay McHugh gets out of the Hotel's car, says paranams and goodnight to Shri Mataji and bows down.]

Shri Mataji: You must come.

Kay McHugh [just in a dress and with a handbag]: But I haven't got anything to wear, Mother.

Shri Mataji: You must stay with Me. You can wear some of My clothes. Come along.

[Kay McHugh runs back to the car, grabs her handbag and proceeds upstairs with Shri Mataji. In the hotel room after some chatting and before going to bed, Shri Mataji reads the Hotel magazine.]

Negativity, I don't want to destroy negativity; after all, I created it. I want you the become so powerful that negativity runs away in your presence. If you can do that, I won't have to destroy it.

Contents: 1981-10-26 Shopping and Lunch (Naraka Chaturdashi Day), Hong Kong, China

[After ordered breakfast, Shri Mataji and Kay McHugh get ready to go out.]

Shri Mataji: Will I need My shawl.

Kay McHugh: I don't know, Mother, it's looking cloudy, so perhaps You may.

[Shri Mataji looks out and to the distance and gives a bandhan to the clouds.]

Shri Mataji: There, now I've cleared it up a little bit. But, I'll take it [the shawl]. Here you carry it.

Kay McHugh: What a day to carry Your shawl, Mother, because it's Shālivāhana New Year day [45 hours before Diwali Padwa Day].

Shri Mataji: You've got it.

[After lunch while shopping in an Emporium, during the lunch somewhere clinks Her glass with Kay McHugh who was born on that day:] Happy birthday.

Shri Mataji [after buying several items]: How much do I flowe them? Oh, I need some Hong Kong money.

Kay McHugh: [lents it to Shri Mataji].

Shri Mataji: Now you must remember to tell Me to pay you back when we get to London because I can't flowe people money in this lifetime, otherwise I'll have to come back and pay you back in another life.

Kay McHugh: That's all right with me then, Mother. [Laughs.]

Shri Mataji: But, [laughing again] do you realise how difficult it is for Me to incarnate?

Contents: 1981-10-27 Talk to Sahaja Yogis (Diwali Day), Lakṣhmī Principle and Relationship between Men and Women, Ashram, former Hotel, Bramham Gardens, Earl's Court, Kensington, London, UK

[Shri Mataji holds a baby in Her lap.] You are very happy [laughs]. What's that? What is happening to you? You are very happy. All the joy. Really. All are catching here, all they [baby is sucking left Viśhuddhi finger]. Left Viśhuddhi. Ah, all right, take him. Have they come? [Asks about some people if they have come] and we have to wait for Gavin also. [UNCLEAR].

Come along. Hallo. How is Magda? He's come? Good, good. May God bless you. You are all looking so nice, eh? Both of you really looking very nice. Not very cold outside, is it? No. Since I've come I think the temperature has come up. It was very cold, was there? [UNCLEAR].

Very happy. You can take him now. Better come. Better come. How are you, all of you? Happy? Magda?

Sahaja Yogini: Very happy to be here, Mother.

Shri Mataji: America was difficult, not so simple, I knew that. But we've done it, I mean we've got centers now in New York, got centers in, what's that place, is... Santa Cruz, then one, maybe in Santa Monica we might get one and one in Los Angeles, one in... Maybe Vancouver, I don't know, maybe they are about to have it one there, eh? Like that. The only place we didn't do was San Francisco.

Oh this sarī, looking so nice. This is all the spring colours are there, this sarī.

[Shri Mataji talks with Sahaja Yogis about sarīs and people who have not yet arrived.] And Houston of course, Houston was such a big success. For the first meeting there were forty-five people.

[UNCLEAR] Santa Cruz we had lots of people. Next time I think we will do much better because I met a man who is very, very influential person, extremely influential. See he knows all the Congress men, this thing, that thing and he is an Indian.

They said if this man does something then something will happen. I met him and he was very nice and he said that “you should have come earlier and you should have let me know of the complete program and I would have put You on all the medias and everything, I'll work it out." He said “that next time when You come give me at least one month, two month notice and I'll put You up." Because to go to these media it's very difficult, you have to pay a lot of money just to get into it.

[Shri Mataji welcomes more Sahaja Yogis arriving.] Are you recording? Turn around then...

[Shri Mataji talks to yogis about going to India.] So anybody trying to come? Are there any plans? In England? Not good news eh? France people are different, but from England, those who are coming. [To some Sahaja Yogi:] Why don't you come? Yes you should, I say, would be a good idea. Would be good idea for you. What about you Katherine? Alright. Marcus, what do you think? You should try, would be good idea. All left-sided people [laughs] it's a good idea. What do you think about, Felicity? Where is she? You have no money? You can go to Australia?

Sahaja Yogini: [says she is working and will go to Australia]

Shri Mataji: You see, going to Australia will be no... for you. I mean, India is a place where one should go. Australia is another Western country. Try.

Specially when you go through those villages it is very pure land, people are very pure there. Isn't it, don't you think so? It helps a lot. Very simple people and meeting them, you see, many problems can get solved. And what about you? You'll try? [Shri Mataji asks more Sahaja Yogis.] Yes, I think you can manage. It's an experience, I said, you feel the atmosphere, here people are so competing, we are simple people living, simple lives, not competing, they don't think so much, you see.

Their style is very slow-paced and you have to keep pace with them.

[GAP]... and after we stayed there only for three days, we didn't want to stay there. We ran out. Kalutara is a good place we went. But this time we'll have another route, some other places we can go to. Raulbai has gone to Baloda and she wants you all to go to Baloda also. Instead of going by plane, why don't you go by train from Bombay [Mumbai] to Delhi? So you can do many other places on the way.

You can go to Baloda, you can go to Amarabad or something. Is always good, because we leave your vibrations in all these places. You can also go by bus if you want to. You can have two buses hired and it takes about two days to get to Delhi, two days. Two or three days at the most. But I mean, you'll vibrate those places, you'll go around, would be good idea.

Good, good, very good, very good, very good. [Laughter.] [A child is massaging a lady's forehead.] She's treating all her Āgñyā and Sahasrāra. She takes out like that also you know, like this... that's how they do it. [Then Shri Mataji takes a baby in Her lap.] Should we start now.

But today I want to tell you about the celebration of this night called as the Lakṣhmī Pūjā, is the day when they worship Lakṣhmī.

So one has to understand that Lakṣhmī represents the power by which we evolve. Is the power by we are redeemed, redeeming power; by which we improve from baser self to higher self.

To begin with, you see, is the Lakṣhmī form. First is the Lakṣhmī form.

Now this Lakṣhmī came out of the great churning called as Amṛutmanthan, for which 'll give you another lecture some other time. But this Lakṣhmī that came out of the churning represents our seeking into our own well-being.

So, first of all we have basic seeking like food; in the animal stage we seek food. And, with that seeking only we developed into sometimes very cunning animals, sometimes very ferocious animals and sometimes very timid animals because they could not find food so they had to hide; and sly animals.

So the food was the beginning, I should say, of this Lakṣhmī Tattwa. But when She becomes actually the Lakṣhmī, then She has a form that suggests that the Spirit of Lakṣhmī is for the total well-being of human beings, total well-being. Now, totality is different from partly because in evolution, you see, you grow partly till you reach a stage where you really achieve your total well-being.

And now, you know that without Realisation your well-being has no meaning.

So She has arisen out of the sea, so She is Miriam, you can call Her. She is Marie, She is Marie. That's why Christ's Mother's name was Mary because She came out of the sea. People, I don't know if they think about it, why She was called Mary of all the things. Why this name Mary? Now, this power which came out of the sea, because the whole thing, the seeking started in the sea first of all, as you know.

It had to be in the sea because first the animals were born in the sea only. Becomes, when She comes out of the sea, becomes a Rājalakṣhmī and a Gṛuhalakṣhmī.

Rājalakṣhmī is the one where collectively, collectively you enjoy your well-being, collectively, on the right hand side, you can say. Like, we have some places which are for public usage here, public well-being.

And, Gṛuhalakṣhmī is the one which is for the individual, individual well-being.

So, we have the essence of Lakṣhmī and then we have, when we evolved, we started having our homes, houses, our own family, our own private life, our this thing.

So, we had Gṛuhalakṣhmī. And then we started having collective, like we can say the Queen represents here Rājalakṣhmī. The Queen represents here the Rājalakṣhmī of England. She is a symbol of that. Our Queen here is the symbol of that Rājalakṣhmī. You know, the word Rāj means the kingdom or you can say the royal, royal side of the, regality.

So, when the Lakṣhmī is a regal Lakṣhmī, She is for collectivity.

So, the Queen doesn't live for herself, she lives for all the collective being. In the same way, this RājLakṣhmī is the One that is for all of us. For example, this place we got here is through the blessings of RājLakṣhmī. She gave us.

Her power gave us this place to live because you are all Sahaja Yogis. You are the epitome of the evolution, you are highest people in the evolution, you are the ones who are looked after by God, you are the most important people.

It's true! And you must be provided for. You should have no problem of money, you should have no problem of housing, you should have no problem of anything.

So, it is She, the Rājalakṣhmī who gives you all these thing. Then you have your wife as Gṛuhalakṣhmī.

So we have to have a wife as Gṛuhalakṣhmī. These two things one should understand very, very clearly because we confuse them. Wife is the Gṛuhalakṣhmī, is the one, she is the goddess of the household. Now she has to be the goddess also, I mean she just doesn't become goddess just by becoming. You have to become again. You have to become the goddess. And, the Goddess of the Gṛuhalakṣhmī is, we can say, that the deity of the Gṛuha, of the house, is a Gṛuhalakṣhmī.

Now, this deity must become one with the housewife. Then the blessings of the Lakṣhmī essence is of well-being comes to you. If she is not the Goddess, you will always suffer.

You will always have problems; you will always have all kinds of untold miseries. It is Her blessings which brings you solace, peace and redemption, redemption is the word, of anything.

So, that's why the left Nābhī is very important as we know and that is always bad in the West.

So, I would say that the whole society is responsible for spoiling that because housewife is not respected.

First of all, we should blame our society. Our housewives are not respected. Housewife is the one who is a dedicated wife even placed higher than Yatis –'ascetics'. Yatis are the highest evolved you can say, Avadhūtas, are the highest evolved seers. And, a dedicated wife has got more powers than even a Yati, it is said so.

And, even Kṛiṣhṇa was little worried about that. Everybody had to worry! So, the dedicated wife, you see, the Gṛuhalakṣhmī, is such an important thing because she is the essence of this well-being which is peace.

I think I have so far never talked to you about peace. And, peace is only achieved through the Gṛuhalakṣhmī, through your proper adjustment of your spleen I should say. Because spleen is the giver of the blood cells, all right? It creates the nutrition for the whole body. If there is no peace in that area within us the whole system can go out, because that's the nourishing center within us, that's the nourishing center. And that center which nourishes also peace, you see, the peace. You must have heard this “Ya Devī, sarva bhūteśhu śhānti rupena samsthita” the Goddess that is the Shānti which is present in every human being as peace.

So this peace is only possible if the housewives realise their importance, bear it upon themselves, are forgiving and are redeeming the family life. They have to redeem the family life and where this gets spoilt the whole system goes out. See, America I went, I found all of them have got left Nābhī, all right and they are very violent, very violent, extremely violent.

And what I felt that in the beginning the society neglected the housewives. The institution of housewife which is the Goddess. And now the women cannot forgive them. Because the women cannot forgive them, you see, it has become a big struggle there.

The children have become violent. I mean, if the housewives are not all right, there will be always violence.

I'll give you the example in India. We have in the north and the south two types of system. Because in the north the Muslims ruled and they had the system of keeping the women in the Purdah system and all those and lot of prostitution and all those ideas came through those horrible Nawābs who ruled in the north. In the south, it was the other way round because they kept to the Dharma and all those things and they wouldn't accept this kind of a nonsensical ideas. They looked after their women. Even the people of the north sometimes say that the, I mean, the south people are very sort of henpecked, whatever you say, say Maharashtra downward.

Now, because of that there's so much of difference in the law and order system in that same country.

For example, in Maharashtra if you are going by bus in the night anytime, two o'clock, you have seen nobody plunders you, nobody is bothered. The bus is going through. You can live here, stay here, nobody steals anything. The servants in Maharashtra are so good. They will never touch your things. I mean, you can leave the keys with them. They will do all your house up and they will never touch anything, your money, anything they cannot touch. They will never touch.

Same about, say, any funds or anything like, we can say our Sahaja Yoga funds, never a problem in Maharashtra. The Pūjā funds and all that, all these things they understand.

But the main thing is the housewife in Maharashtra is an important thing, very important.

So, in the house she is the lady and the lord is outside. Whatever she says, goes. But when it is the other way round, everything goes upside down. It can never be blissful.

But that doesn't mean that the women should also say outside as well as inside. I mean, the women should not interfere with the husband's work in the office, should not dominate there like so many these women, like Chiang Kai-Shek's wife did and all these people did. That's not necessary. She should be a support, but in the house, she is the one who should be respected. She must be respected in the household otherwise there cannot be auspiciousness; there cannot be peace. And, peace is the gift of Gṛuhalakṣhmī.

Now, some people may say, “It's all right. They are not having a good time. The wife is bad but she's got money." Money is not Lakṣhmī. This confusion must be absolutely removed from your mind.

The last time, I explained to you what Lakṣhmī is. But you can go through again that tape if you want to. But I'll tell you first in short.

That Lakṣhmī has got four hands and She stands on a lotus. And, She is a body with a, which is, I mean, not a slim type of a body, but She has a substantial body. But She stands on a lotus. Means, wherever She lives, you see, She doesn't show Her presence by staying. She is so, so beautiful that She adjusts Herself even on a lotus. She doesn't exert Her weight like cheap women do. Anywhere they go, they'll say, “Oh, I don't like this and I like that. And, I would like to have this. And, I would like to sleep in a place like this. And, I like this type of thing." So, the first quality of a woman with the Lakṣhmī is adjustment. No one feels her.

When she is there, nobody feels. Only thing they can feel her fragrance like a lotus.

I mean, that's the sign of a woman who adjusts herself. She is not bothered about her own life, but she is bothered about others.

Now, we had a very funny incident. We had a lady from Germany and I told them that, “It's better that the girls should wait till the boys have their food, look after them and then the girls can have their food you see. It's better." And, she felt insulted.

On the contrary, it is invariably done in India, invariably. That the woman will always wait till the husband finishes the food, because she can look after him better. I mean, it's a privilege. It's more matured that you can look after your husband; that you can look after your children. It's your job; you are responsible for it. You are the lady of the house, you are supposed to do it.

Like, Hema told Me that here nobody asks you for food or anything. Everybody is eating whatever they want to eat. They go and eat anytime they want. They will eat anytime and they go on eating and eating and eating. Nobody asks that, “You come and have food or drink." That's done in India.

So, she said, “I waited for a day. Nobody asked me. Then, I said I better take something for myself." So, the ladies have to take up upon themselves that they invite people, ask them to eat and cook for them specialties. You see, this is the job of a woman. She has to develop these qualities, the womanly qualities of feeding men, looking after them when they come to their house. She should not make faces and try to show “This is my private house. Nobody come in the house." She should be the one who's welcome more than the husband should. She should be! She should be the one who people should feel closer to, like the brothers and sisters of the husband, all relations. She should be the one who should give that feeling of security, of peace and of welcoming. It is her job. Then she becomes the Lakṣhmī.

So, the well-being is not only that you have money.

So, what happens with that, to the well being part of it? That, She has in one hand; hand is like this.

That means that with one hand it should flow, remember, it should go. She must give, she must give, she must give. And she should not demand at all. Others should say that “You must have this." For example, I'll say that for the last, I think, four years C.P. is trying to buy one solitaire ring for Me because I gave away all My diamonds to My daughters. Try, try... cannot do it, just try, just try, he won't realise it, no, not this time, next time, this time, that time, I'm just...

Because, you see, I know He wants to buy. That's sufficient for Me. Isn't it? So, I'm postponing it, that, “It's all right, we'll do it. Now you have to have a house." Like this.

So, the demanding, you see, that “Give me this", there's no need. Let the men start seeing that, “Oh, She doesn't have it. She should have it." It is they who should do it and the women should never demand.

It's a sign of bad manners actually according to Sahaja Yoga. You should never demand for anything.

You should have forbearance; you should be able to bear it. Not with a sort of a big martyrdom, “Oh, I'm bearing up and all that." No. But with the understanding that you are grown up and you are matured and you are supposed to bear.

Now, the responsibility on men also is there that when she is giving they should allow her to give, you see. But I find it's the other way round here. It's that the women are not so generous as the men are. It's the other way round in India. Women are, you see, if they find somebody has come to their house, they secretly go and cook something and pass it on, they let their husband not see. They feel that satisfaction of Annapūrnā. You see, the feeding, that feeling of feeding your own child. That feeding somebody else who has come, you see, from the backdoor [UNCLEAR].

Very sweet it is, very sweet you see! It is something they, I think, they are brought up that way [UNCLEAR].

So, it's such a nice thing that you can feed somehow. Or, if somebody is coming then they know what that person eats.

So, they will cook it very sweetly and keep it and then when the person comes in they'll put forward, it should be given.

So, the man has to hide his money because the wife will be giving away. It's the other way round.

But when the woman starts becoming selfish and self-centred and worried about money and all that, then it's a wrong thing. She should not be extravagant about herself. Like, going to some place, buying something expensive for yourself, then going somewhere and buying something expensive for yourself. But doing for your husband, doing for your children, doing for others and automatically they do it. They are anxious to do it. Just start thinking on those lines. But now for men, they must also understand that they have to have that too.

You see, this ego-oriented society is very stilted one. If you just say, “All right, do what you please.

You'll have this money, you spend this money." Then the men you see, they can just take it for granted, ego-oriented you see, they can just take you for granted and say, “All right, then don't give her anything." So, when the mutual understanding is not there, when there is an imbalance then these things come up. But in Sahaja Yoga we should understand. You have to look after your wife, her needs, everything.

You have to give her due respect. You are never to insult her in the presence of others. It's absolutely forbidden. But the women also should know how to respect their husband, not to be provocative and use all their cunning against their husband. You see, I have seen people sit down and plan out how they will insult their husband, use what means.

This is absurd, you have to love your husband. You have to really love him and forgive him like you would forgive your own child in the same way. But the husband also... it's a very mutual thing. I cannot just tell something to the women and not to the men. It's absolutely essential that men must respect their women as Goddesses, as Goddesses. But women have to behave like Goddesses. They behave like street women then a competition starts. The man behaves like a street man and the woman behaves like a street woman. Then they behave like Soho people and then they behave like... I mean, it goes on, competition.

But if you have to synthesize, is to bring to the balance, then both of you must decide that you can only enjoy if you have proper balances among yourselves.

One person goes one way, another person goes that way. There's no end to it. There's no end to it and the chariot will never move forward, you see. Both the wheels have to be balanced realizing that without this wheel the another cannot exist.

So, this is as important as the other. But they will say that, “I am important." No. “She is important if I have to exist." Or, she has to say, “He is important because I have to exist." It's such a mutual thing.

So to get to Gṛuhalakṣhmī point I must say that the woman should behave like a Gṛuhalakṣhmī, with her dignity. I mean, it is really in-dignified even to ask something.

Why? What is to ask? It's all your own whenever you want you just get it. Try to develop that glory within you. And, the men respect their women as, really as Gṛuhalakṣhmīs, is very good. Respect them, look after them and know that the deities, once they are identified with your wife, you will have no problems.

Now, on the other hand She has one hand of protection. Then the Lakṣhmī gives protection. Always gives protection to everyone, even against the husband. Even against the husband, She protects. Say, for example I'll say, My own sister-in-law was such a Lakṣhmī like that, we have My own sister-in-law was like that.

And, if My brother was little... because they were much older than us, you see, if he was hard on us.

So, she used to come out with the protection. She said, “No, how can you say that to them?" So sweet she was, you can't imagine. And, then the brother, I mean, My own brother, you see. She would say that, “No you can't do this to your sister." Same thing with Me. My own sister-in-law was more attached to Me than to My husband for the same reason because I would always protect her against even the husband. Though he is her brother, I mean, naturally they are very close to each other, naturally. But you should protect their interest to that extent.

Then protect your servants, protect those who come to your house. That is her duty. If she does it, she can do it very well.

Now, I will give you one of the examples in My own lifetime. I was in Delhi and that time this trouble had started of what you call the partition. And, many people ran helter-skelter. And, once I was just sitting outside My father's house, I was knitting. Because Kalpana was to be born and I was knitting outside.

And, a lady came to Me and she said, “We are refugees, we have no place to go. And, will You be able to give me some place in Your house?" I said, “All right." It was a huge house of My father. I said, “It is such a big house. And, we have a room which is outside which you can use and also, you can have a kitchen there and a bathroom. You can stay there." She said, “We have a friend and my husband. Can we stay here?" I said, “All right." So, we arranged for their stay there. And, it so happened that people in My family didn't like it very much. Especially My brother, you see, My husband told him that, “I wouldn't like this lady to be here. God knows, what sort of a lady she is." And, My brother said, “Now, if She has said it, if my sister has said it, I can't say anything; but She is the one who has to decide about this house.

So, it is Her job to decide.

So, I can't say anything." So, they all kept quiet about it. And, they stayed over.

And, this man, her husband's friend, was a Muslim. And, there was a big riot in Delhi. Very big riot! And, so many Hindus, you see, like these Jansanghis and fundamentalists, they had formed a horrible group which was killing many Muslims also.

So, from the servants and all that they must have known that there is a Muslim staying in this house, you see.

So, they came to My house, about five, six of them with clubs and this and that.

So, these people got frightened.

So, I told this Muslim, I said, “You go and hide in My room. I'll go and face them." Went outside.

So, they said, “We've heard that there is a Muslim in Your house." I said, “No, there isn't." Because that's not their right to know.

So, I said, “There isn't any Muslim in this house." They said, “We'll have to go and search." I said, “You cannot. If you have to go, you have to kill Me and then go." Now, they saw My big Tikka and all that. I said, “You cannot get inside the house. If you have to go, I'll stand here. You cannot go in My house at all. You cannot enter." So, they left.

They knew there was a Muslim otherwise I would not protest so much. But because I was protecting they could not say anything, just went away and the fellow was safe. Then this lady became a very big, well known actress in India. She did lots of things I mean. I mean the whole thing then changed.

But what I'm saying that a housewife has to protect. The Lakṣhmī has to protect. The man who has money must protect.

See, they must have people in his Āśhraya, means in his protection, like servants you can have. Servant's families.

Some people treat their servants very badly and they are very, very, very... they ill-treat and that's not the way a Gṛuhalakṣhmī needs to be. Or, anybody, say some students are staying in the house, or some children are staying, some say you have some people in the house, like lodgers you can say. Or, Sahaja Yogis now staying say with people who are to be looked after, with women. They have to protect them always from others. That is the job of a Lakṣhmī. The mother has to protect her children. Whatever may be the wrong with the children but she has to protect her children against all the rest of the people.

Of course, not in wrong things. I mean, she should not tell, I mean... always, I have to tell the other side of it because you might say that “My child has gone and beaten somebody else." So that's not good, that is not protection. What I'm saying if the children are under any peril or any trouble, it is the Lakṣhmī who has to protect. This is a job of the Gṛuhalakṣhmī.

Right side is the Rājalakṣhmī. The Rājalakṣhmī is the, we can say, the queen of a place.

Now here the queen and king is one. But what I'm saying where the king and the queen are two different.

Then the queen of the thing has to have that dignity. Thank God, our Queen is quite a Rājalakṣhmī. I must say I am very happy with her. She has that dignity and she has that sense and she is a sweet lady.

And, she is really a good person. Thank God! You have a good lady. And, this Diana also is another realised Soul who is coming now. Will be another blessing for you! So, it is her well-being, you see, her I should say the essence of well-being permeates that peace, that happiness and that's a good thing.

If supposing a man is a president is there and his wife is a very funny woman like this Kennedy's wife was. There can never be peace. Neither in the society nor... because wherever she'll go, she'll create a problem, you see. She'll go to a society, she being the first lady everybody will try to follow her. You see, here also, you know that when Queen Elizabeth had some sort of a problem on her neck, she had some sort of a patch or something.

So, she started using a collar. And, everybody had that Elizabethan collar, you see, all this thing like whatever problems, say, Victoria had and she made a dress, others had to wear the same types of dress.

So, all the collective patterns and fashions and all those things come through this first lady.

So, the first lady is the Rājalakṣhmī. And, one has to respect that Rājalakṣhmī as the woman, is the queen. Now, for example, this country is already cursed because seven queens were killed in this country. I mean, already cursed I must say. It's a horrid thing. I mean, how did people allow any one king to be doing that! Seven of them is too much, is already a curse then.

So this kind of a thing is, we can go to a point with these things. At the most you can arrest, all right, at the most. I mean these are not of course, good women. I was telling you about those who are like that.

For example Mao's wife, they thought was not so good and all that. But one should not humiliate because if you humiliate them then you are humiliating that principle of Rājalakṣhmī.

And then to put them in prison and then to kill them like this and wash their dirty linens on the street.

Means, there is no dignity at all about it, you see. One has to keep the dignity, the serenity of a Rājalakṣhmī.

And, that Rājalakṣhmī is very important for England because we are missing in Rājalakṣhmī nowadays.

And, that Rājalakṣhmī comes through the activity of the people. And, if you are inactive, Rājalakṣhmī will go down.

So, we come to the point that we have to be active. We have to be active producing more wealth.

You see, not like taking out the wealth from here, putting to something else but we should produce more wealth.

Now, how do you produce more wealth, we should see that. By changing forms, by anything we should get to it that we should produce more wealth.

For example, if Sahaja Yogis think that, “All right, I'm not going to work and I'm going to sit at home and I'm just going to be, say, sort of a dish washer." That's not the way. Sahaja Yogis have not only to work, but to work according to their deserving. Apart from that, they should improve. Like you see somebody, “Oh I'm all right, I can paint a little bit but if it is comes to something better painting then I think I'll have to get somebody else." That means at least you don't know even painting. You have to, in activity, you must know that you must perfect that profession. All the Sahaja Yogis must have a profession which is perfected. It's not like this that “I'm, I'm just a waster." All right, accepted the situation, “I'm a waster, sitting like a waster and doing no activity." Only, then the problems like the ones we had come up that you start earning money out of women, or do sort of useless things like swindling and telling stories, taking out money.

So wasters are not allowed in Sahaja Yoga. Anybody who tries to be a waster will be thrown out.

Never justify your inefficiency, inadequacy or incompetence. You have to be first class, competent people in every respect.

There should be no diffidence in you. If there is diffidence you are no good for Sahaja Yoga.

So, not that you should get after the money but Rājalakṣhmī. Means, there should be complete activity of your complete manifestation of all your qualities.

Try to improve, try to improve. That doesn't mean you run a rat race, like a mad cap, nothing of Sahaja Yoga. Not that. It doesn't mean that. I have to warn you there. But you should not be just a waster, you see, that you don't have to pounce here and like a beggar you are moving about. This is not proper.

Try to improve your conditions, try to improve your techniques, try to improve your competence and understanding of the whole subject.

Whatever you take up, take up this or that. Get into it and work it out, sort it out. You should become... you can do it with Sahaja Yoga.

This is one of the big problems we have of Sahaja Yogis, do you know this? One of the biggest problems! Because nobody is impressed by you, nobody is impressed. They think some loonies have gathered around Me. Nobody is impressed. Everybody looks like a confused personality, you see, walking like this.

They think that Mother must have mesmerized them and they are all moving like a wave to this and that.

So, today on a Diwali day we have to say that we will become more competent, experts in whatever we are doing. We have to be! We have to be people with impressions.

Now, what impresses people in this world? Only two things. Either... in the beginning, in superficiality, only two things can impress in superficiality. Because firstly they are superficial. When they will see us they'll see our first impression. First, they will see what are you. I mean, if you look like a drunkard nobody is going to follow you. If you are look like a hippie, nobody is going to follow you. Nobody has any faith in hippies, I must tell you very frankly, anymore.

It's an individual system, it works on... You cannot be leaders. If you have to be leaders you are not to be hippies at all. Which hippie has been a leader so far you tell Me? Of course, this, now this thing is dying out. This thing is dying out. We should think about it seriously.

Now this hippyism was just a craze, it's dying out. Then another craze came in, dying out. That another craze! We are not crazy people. We should know our goal, how we have.

We have to impress people. Now, only we can impress them superficially because in the beginning people just see superficial side.

So, the first thing is that we should be such that we should have competence.

We should say, for example, if you have to make speech, you should know how to make speeches.

Now, people when they speak either they cannot impress or they go on like mad, they put down their heads and say something. That's not the way. You must practice it.

Go to the sea, go anywhere in the open say loudly. You can go, say for example, to this Hyde Park [laughter] and say loudly what you have to say. Say it loud, practice it. Say how you say.

Practice it. Overcome your defects. Do not enjoy your defects, it's not the way. Now, no more time left for that kind of a thing. Because you see there's no impression of people on others. They are not impressed by you.

You see with Me whatever is impressed is all right. But you have to become the Gurus, you have to become the leaders. And, the impression should be on people that you are people who are smart at it, you know the job, you know how to speak, how to present Sahaja Yoga and do it in a way that's congenial, loving, affectionate and not like a volcanic stuff also.

Sometimes, you see, people get very volcanic with others. That also. With complete poise and self-control.

Self-control.

This is only achieved through self-discipline. You must discipline yourself and do not waste yourself; must have self-esteem.

This is one of the biggest lacking in Sahaja Yoga today. There's no impression on people. And, this is what one has to do in your dressing up, how you talk to people, how you behave, that's very important in the outside.

But inside if there's all the time you harp upon it, “Oh, I can't do it. This is not for me. This much I can do." Then you have not been kind to yourself and to anyone else.

So, come up to it. I would say everybody must come up to it. Now, forget those days of taking to drugs and sitting down. Whom are you going to impress with the drugs, tell Me? The another thing that impresses people is hypocrisy which we cannot take. If you are a hypocrite, you see, wear a Bhagwa –‘saffron’ dress, have a Chilam –‘pipe’ in the hand and go round and you say, “Oh ah, I'm chosen by God." Go on sing that way. That you can't do.

So, the whole thing is: both the things, the Nābhīs are for our well-being which is manifested outside as well.

I mean, it's all right we should have a good hotel to live in. All right, given! Have you got the eliteness of living in a hotel? Let's see. Just put a question to yourself. You asked for a hotel, you've got a hotel, all right. Have you got that eliteness or how are you behaving? Just think of it.

In this hotel, supposing somebody has to live, for example, XYZ. He will have a particular type of eliteness. Isn't it? Even sometimes I find the bags you carry are so dirty, filthy, dented, holes in it.

Somebody might think that somebody is running away from this hotel, something is taking away. The rags and things should be given up and thrown away. Now, I hope there is one word like throw, which is not used. I'm sitting down I've never come up to see anything.

But the throw part of it is less. Throw away all nonsensical things like rags and other things which you think is very good looking but is not. Please throw it away.

See, for example, some of sweaters and blankets and things that people carry are horrible. Colour should be smart. The... everything should be smart. You should not look a ragged person. I mean, how are you in Rājalakṣhmī state? One has to see the Rājalakṣhmī standing.

You see, there is no need to show that we are beggars. That's only good for the people who are hypocrites. Not for us. You see, beggars are normally not beggars, they are hypocrites.

So, they beg.

They earn money.

In India, you will be surprised some of the beggars have got huge, big buildings on Marine Drive. They own it and still their profession is begging.

So, they are not really beggars, they are hypocrites, you see.

They make money like that.

So, why should we be dressed up like that? Moreover, if you dress up like that, the other side will follow and that is the bhoot that will sit on you because they want bhootish people to look at. You see, they won't sit on a person who is properly dressed, who has got properly done his hair and who is taking bath and all that. They like filth, they like dirt, they like dirty smell and if you have all these things in you they will be just on top of your head, walking with you wherever you go. They like such things. You see like you put something filthy you'll find all the flies come down there. You see, simple thing. Anything you put filthy there will be all the worms getting inside that. It's like that.

So, the way you are, that's how it works out.

So, for your Rājalakṣhmī, for your Gṛuhalakṣhmī it is important that you should have self-control in your behaviour how you talk. When you talk if you talk like a cheap person or like a person who is dosed with something then nobody is going to be impressed. How you behave is very important. How you sit, how you talk. The other day Nima, you see, they asked Nima to speak and Nima said, I've never spoken and she was quite nervous. But Gregoire said, “You should tell us about our defect." And she said really something very sensible. She said that “I have so many defects and we, Indians, all have defects but what I find about you people is that, that before Mother when you behave the protocol is missing. You take it for granted. It's all right, She is Mahāmāyā and all that, but there also” what she said that “for us She is just like a setting we had that this is the Goddess. The tradition of Goddess is there. And, we found Her like a diamond, we put Her in the setting.

So, it's just done. We have no problem. But sometimes, I find the way people walk before Her, just like horses. The way they talk and all those things are surprising. Their behaviour is surprising. I can't understand how you can do it when you know She is the Goddess. Of course, She is!" So, in that case, I would say once this Rājalakṣhmī business comes up, then you will understand the respect, because once you respect yourself you start respecting others also. And that you are all saints, you have to respect each other in the same way. You should really call each other... I mean, if it is in Hindi language, I would say, you should call `thou'. Because we say it to elder people like that, “Please be seated. Please be..." With great respect talk to each other.

It will impress others. Instead of that, in the program you find somebody slapping each other, holding each other's hair and shouting. What will they think? What saints, from where these new type of saints have come? Saints have to respect each other. They come to your house, offer them some nice seat to sit down. You must see how the saints respect the saints. That respect should be there among yourselves, the oneness, the understanding. Without respect you cannot have any rapport. And, to have a rapport, there should be equal level of understanding that, “As I want respect, others must be respected." You should be respectful and to be respected.

Both things should be done. This is the Lakṣhmī's thing is. And today now the light, the light is there.

Light is a very important thing. From the very beginning, you see, when a man discovered the fire, the fire was used in the Gṛuhalakṣhmī state where the food was cooked and the fire cooked the food and was used. You see the warmth of the Mother, you see, was shown through that hearth that she used in the house to warm up her children, to give them food and all that. That stage. Then it became in a, say, in any collective thing, it is expressed as lights, you see. If you have to celebrate say your Republic Day or your Independence Day we put the lights on, or we have fireworks, you see. To express ourselves that way is in the Rājalakṣhmī.

Now the Mahālakṣhmī. Mahālakṣhmī is the evolutionary state. In the evolutionary state, when the evolutionary state starts, then the Mahālakṣhmī starts asserting Herself and that comes when your wellbeing is established fully. I mean, if you are still worried as to how to get a cup of tea for yourself, you cannot get to Mahālakṣhmī state.

So, once that is little bit established and you feel that peace within yourself and that dignity, then the Mahālakṣhmī's power starts acting on you. And the Mahālakṣhmī power is that it really makes you the light. You have now become the light. Don't have to have any lights. You are the light. When you go anywhere, when people see you they take guidance from you. They use you as a torch which guides them.

They will come and consult you and ask you how to do it. It is you who are the light.

So, this is what it is. One has to know that Mahālakṣhmī Tattwa is represented here as the light. And, you see these lights when enlightened, even a small light, how it reacts and how it shows. And now, you have become the light, you see. Even this light can do it. You see, I put My hand to it and it recognizes and knows that because it is now enlightened. It is put before the Photograph, it's enlightened. It works that way. Now what about you? You are the light now; you are the Diwali of God.

Diwali means the, the rows of lights.

So, you are going to make this beautiful mansion of God full of Diwali light. You have entered into the kingdom of God and you have to enlighten it.

So you are the decoration of God on one side, you are the glory of God and also, on the other side you are the guide, guidelines, you are like the torches, you can say, you are like the, what you call them, which are used by ships those...

Sahaja Yogis: Lighthouse.

Shri Mataji: Lighthouses? You have to become lighthouses.

So that people see you, you stand out, a light see. Like that you have to be. And, for that you have to have self-discipline. Put your will power.

Put it. Will power! Put it down. How can I not do it? Now, in this place I'm going to start within say two-three days after this Diwali, a morning session.

Say, about, we can start about five o'clock every morning or five-thirty every morning. You have to have your bath before coming here. Say, five-thirty or five o'clock? Will that be all right? Your Mother gets up at four-thirty whatever may happen. You have to change your habits. You have to! Get up in the morning. You know, by getting up in the morning you finish off so much of work because in the night what do you do? Lay, gossip, waste your time! But if you say that, “Tonight let me sleep late and tomorrow I'll get up early." You'll never. First get up early and then you will sleep early. The other way round! You see, you have to see your mind how it works.

So, get up in the morning, have your bath then sit down for meditation. It's quite a warm room. Have your nice hot bath; sit down for your meditation for about an hour or so. Meditate. You will feel so nice, after sometime you cannot sleep after four-thirty.

Now, look at My system. I mean, whether I am in America or whether I am in India and when I get up at four-thirty. How do I manage? I've no watch, nothing like that. I just get up at four-thirty. I've tuned Myself to the sun. You are tuned more to the moon. I have tuned Myself to the sun.

When the sun comes at this angle I have to get up because that is the time vibrations have to flow.

All over the world, at four-thirty in the morning all the vibrations, the best time, flow in the purest form.

That's why all the seers, get up very early in the morning, have their baths and sit down for meditation.

It's too much I know, especially for English men but you have to train up yourself. You will do it; you will like it if you do it like a festival. See today is a festival day, let us get up and have a nice bath and have a nice soap, you see, perfumed one and nice things. You will enjoy, you see. Bath should be a ritual. But should not be all the time because I see Regis sitting there quite happy. [Laughter.] Like Indians also, they bathe too much. That is not necessary. Too much not, but once. And, then if you sit at home for about an hour or so the house is lighted.

I could get this place lighted in the morning, you come here, you will be amazed that if you develop this habit you can do such a lot. Because in the evening you are tired and you cannot do many things and you are absolutely fagged out, you see, so you will sleep early.

And this is English saying: “Early to bed and early to rise." Not Indian, is it? [Laughter.] And, that's what we have to do. And, you will be amazed you'll do thousand and one things, thousand and one things if you get up early in the morning.

So, we are going to try that after Diwali. I'm going to announce those who can try with Me can do it. And, I used to sleep sometimes at two o'clock, two-thirty, mostly at two. And, get up at four-thirty, finish My bath. Everybody was still sleeping and I didn't want to disturb them. Then, at about eight o'clock I would say, “Now will you please get up?" While Gregoire you see, the day he had to leave, was saying, “Oh, it's already two o'clock. There are only three hours." I said, “Gregoire, you better sleep now. Worrying about it you won't sleep.

So, better sleep." “How will I wake up? What will happen?" At five o'clock, I just said, “Now." I got up four-thirty. Five o'clock, “Five o'clock." And, they all got up. Ask him. And, it's very easy to do it, you see. It's very easy. You need not keep like Me till two o'clock. Then but if I keep awake then in the daytime I sleep for an hour or so. I make up. But then you will feel sleepy, go off to sleep. In the night, it's a waste of time to keep awake. It's really waste! What do you see these dirty pictures in the TV? After nine o'clock, is there anything worth seeing? Nine-thirty, ten at the most! Then all filth is there. You'll feel healthier, you'll be much better off.

Harry has improved very much with this kind of thing. And, morning time you don't think much, you really meditate. It's a very good thing.

So just I'm giving one thing for your understanding that let us work it out something or towards self-discipline. Very important.

See, the ego doesn't allow you to have a discipline. It'll say, “Oh, What's wrong?" That's the way we have to put our ego down.

And self-discipline will give you really, I tell you, self-control. Self-control is very important. And, that self-control is only possible if you really know how to develop it, inculcate it and become yourself.

It's a beautiful analogy given in Kaṭha, Kaṭha Upanishad that, you see, the body is like a chariot. It says body is like a chariot and the charioteer is the buddhi and the Spirit is the master. The charioteer is the buddhi, is the intellect. Buddhi is better word than intellect is, you see. I mean, you can call the wisdom, wisdom. Now, the senses are like the horse. Senses are like the horses. They are running here or there, hither-thither and all that, you see.

And, the controlling of it, the reins are in the hand of the buddhi; in the person who is handling is the charioteer, is the wisdom or the intellect within us. The intellect has to control the senses and the reins are to be controlled. Now, when you allow these senses to go wherever it likes, you see and you do not control it, then you are neither here nor there. You'll say, “I know, I know, I know." What part knows, what part goes wrong, where are you? And, then why are you doing it? “I know I should have been. I know it's very bad. I know." Why? If you know, it should be your knowledge; it should be your complete being of that kind. If you know it's done. Knowledge should be one with your behaviour. I mean, I know this is white. All right.

Then I treat it like white or do I treat it like black? If I know this is the fire, I don't put My hand there.

I say, “I know it is fire; do I put hand there?" So, to control our sense organs, we have to have our buddhi, our mind, quite intact and put in the hands of the Self where `I' doesn't do it. That `I do it; I, I', all that. Spirit doesn't like it.

You have to have a very disciplined mind which should improve your methods of everything, of talking, doing things. I mean, you must improve. All the time, you have to improve. If you reconcile with yourself then it's finished; then the whole thing is settled down.

So, that's how you progress and you grow better and better with it.

And, today's day is a very great day for us because the saints are celebrating Diwali. I'm celebrating My Diwali enlightening light in your hearts that you enjoy your own joy and your own beauty; that you are now the Spirit. Enjoy it. That you are there. Now, you are in the kingdom of God. No doubt.

I mean, even if you don't do anything anymore, you will be all right there. But you should not take it for granted. You have to come forward because your Mother needs your help. You have to stand up. You have to rise. You have to come up. You have to become the leaders of tomorrow.

So, you have to work it out. And, not just be talkers and thinking big and saying big, big things and even if I ask you to wash a spoon you cannot do it. What's the use? So, you are tomorrow's citizens. You are the ones who are going to impress people. I expect you to have an understanding about what you have to achieve, but don't sit down and plan because planning means you will never do it. You will sit down, plan, “Tomorrow morning I'll get up in the morning, I'll do my meditation." Write it down in a book and three days you will never get up because you have already written it down; you have planned it. [Laughter.] You have planned it. The planning is done, why should you do it actually? It's done; you have done it; in the diary it's all there. That's what planning is.

Planning is you sit down, “All right, so what should we do?" Sit down... this... then this... then this... [more laughter].

Nothing happens. What happened? Everything in the planning! Who is going to revise it and see it is done? And, that's how mentally we have a satisfaction.

“Oh we've done it, you see, all of us sat together, we had a big committee meeting. We You all talked, talked, talked. We decided this, Mother. We have decided on this and decided this." What have you achieved? Nothing! How is it? What have you decided? Achieve! That is what it is.

That's not planning.

So, you do not plan, but just get up tomorrow morning. All right? Try that. Do not plan because planning is the one that fixes you up not to do a thing and that has led to this kind of a chaos in this country and everywhere else. Just a plan. Plan for what? Now, is there any question? We have to have now collective understanding also that we have to do some programming: every Saturday, Sunday I should be free after the... Saturday, Sunday if not, we can have it during week days.

After the 24th, I'll be quite free. But even before that, you see, we can have it on Saturday, Sundays.

Now, there are two Saturday, Sundays in-between. You can plan something if you want Me to go somewhere, you want to have a meeting anywhere or here or if people want to meet Me, we can do it.

But we cannot get Caxton Hall on Saturday, Sundays. I cannot go on week days.

So, get some hall where I can go there.

Some school hall or something on a Saturday, we all can meet.

There are two Saturdays we can use or Sunday, anything that you want to.

A school hall will be all right on a Sunday, Gavin. And, you can advertise in the papers about it. Now, this, for example, I'm going on the 20th.

So, there are two Sundays now where we can meet. All right? And when I go and I come back then also we can meet on week days. Then, I can meet on week days.

But before that I can meet, meet you on any Saturday or Sunday, there are hardly two Saturdays Sundays. To arrange it there or if you want we can meet in Chelsham Road, in the ashram. Anyway.

So, any problem, anything you can tell Me. Now again we are having a Pūjā in any case, on this Sunday.

Thirtieth. Friday. Thirtieth. Friday. Alright.

So next Sunday you can have a meeting if you want to. On the next Sunday you can have a meeting.

Now, what about Brighton? How are they? What meeting are they having today? They are having a regular program?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother. We are having programs on Tuesdays and Thursdays and now we started Fridays at...

Shri Mataji: Where? In the house or in the?

Sahaja Yogini: No, we have a public meeting every Tuesday in Brighton Hall and we also started another public meeting on Fridays and we have a meeting at a house on Thursday.

Shri Mataji: I would suggest that public meetings, whatever you people have, should be on a Saturday and a Sunday. Would be better if you can get a hall. Because, you see, week days, we have programs here.

Isn't it? For the time being it's all right because Saturday, Sundays now we'll be having, these two Saturday, Sundays but normally. You know, Friday is a Pūjā now. If you have a meeting you should consult people here also, because then they would like to come for the Pūjā. Now, this Friday, you all should come for the Pūjā. All right? We can have some music.

Sahaja Yogi: What time will You have the Pūjā on Friday?

Shri Mataji: Pūjā we should start say about... about... It has to be evening time.

So, whatever time suits you people. But after that, I mean, you have to have some music or something we can have.

After that. Seven is alright, because all of you will be working. We can even have it on Saturday if you like.

inform all the people in Cambridge, everywhere, you see and then what we can do is to, I can stay over and next day already I go Saturday so that people stay over there and I can talk to them Saturday.

So if any personal problems are there I can solve it out. Or else, if you have the Pūjā on Saturday evening it should be better idea. [Hindi.] Let us have it on Saturday evening. Thirty-first? Is it?

Sahaja Yogi: Halloween.

Shri Mataji: Eh?

Sahaja Yogi: Halloween.

Shri Mataji: Hallo...?

Sahaja Yogi: Halloween, Mother, it's a festival... [Laughter.]

Shri Mataji: Eh?

Sahaja Yogi: Halloween is the abbreviation of the term Hallow's eve, because November 1st is supposed to be All Saints' Day. November 1st, so the last day of October is Hallows' eve, it's called Halloween. It's supposed to be the night when all demons and witches fly through the sky... it's like that Mother...

[Shri Mataji pulls a shocked then an amused face.]

Shri Mataji: Then we should do it on a Sunday day! [Laughter.] Sahaja Yogis: They tour as dress up as ghosts, spirits, witches and carry lanterns.

Shri Mataji: Very bad.

Sahaja Yogi: It's supposed to be the night when the spirits, the dead come out.

Shri Mataji: Then the fourteenth... then we should have it on a Sunday day, let us have it on the Sunday, Sunday. I would not like to do that day.

Sahaja Yogi: Sunday is reputed to be All Saints' Day Mother, the day of all the Saints, November 1st.

Shri Mataji: Yes. Good. That's a good day. We can have All Saints' Day plus Diwali day. Saints' day, it's good! So we'll have it on Sunday.

So Sunday we can have the Pūjā, I mean, we have to have Pūjā then in the morning and, we can have morning Pūjā and then I can stay over and in the evening we can light the lights and all that and have some fireworks and things.

Sahaja Yogi: Fireworks?

Shri Mataji: Hm. We can have some music. The whole of Sunday we can spend together. There.

Alright? Keep it Sunday. Sunday I'll be there. Sunday.

Sahaja Yogi: What time is the Pūjā, Mother?

Shri Mataji: Then Sunday should be about, we should start at 10, you see? Because we have sufficient time then. Ten o'clock, would that be alright? For all of you? What time will you get up Sunday? Sahaja Yogis: Four thirty, Mother! [Shri Mataji laughs.]

Shri Mataji: It's so simple, you know, I don't know why people find it so difficult. It is just matter of self-discipline, just matter. I know everybody has this problem.

Even Indians now, young people have this problem. They are taking it from you people. They are becoming now more westernized and they can't get up early.

But even you see, My husband, he cannot sleep after 6. We are brought up like that, our generation was brought up like that. A lot of self-discipline, because we were born at the time when we needed our independence, you see, so we had to become like military people, you know, we had to really look after [UNCLEAR] things. We are very well disciplined that way.

So it's a good day. Sunday we'll have it on Saints' day. Alright? And this day with all these witches and all that it should be finished, it's all nonsense, they are not to be taken too easily.

It must have come from since long I'm sure, in this country, where people were indulging into nonsensical things, see they were barbaric people.

Barbaric people always go to these things, you see. They must have done it and still that is continuing.

Sahaja Yogi: Halloween has come because of All Saints' Day. Spirits are frightened because of the next day.

Shri Mataji: See it's like Naraka Chaturdashi we have. That is the day all the devils are put in the Naraka. Only yesterday was that day. [Laughter.]

Sahaja Yogi: This is a tough week for bhoots, Mother. [Laughter, Shri Mataji laughs.]

Shri Mataji: But that's why Diwali. That's why the light. That's why you have to have light, you see? After the 14th day, then the 15th day they celebrate Diwali. That is the darkest night.

Sahaja Yogi: Which night is that, Mother?

Shri Mataji: That is tonight, that is the darkest night. And then tomorrow is the day that is the first day, see? It is celebrated as the New Year. For many people. Not in Maharashtra they celebrate from My own dynasty, that they do. But in the North [India] they celebrate first day tomorrow. And the second day is the Brothers' Day, when brothers and sisters tie the... that we can do also in the Pūjā. The brothers and sisters they tie the thing. Where is your husband, he has not come?

Sahaja Yogini: He's not well, Mother.

Shri Mataji: What's the matter? [Back problems.]

Shri Mataji: When did this happen? When did this happen?

Sahaja Yogini: The day before yesterday.

Shri Mataji: I know why. Now tell him not to use his hands too much.

Sahaja Yogini: He was trying to shut a window.

Shri Mataji: Tell him that I came to know about it and I knew it was going to happen that way.

Alright? Tell him not to use his hands.

So, can I take your leave now? Today's happy. Happy Diwali to you.

Sahaja Yogis: Jai Shri Mataji.

[Then Shri Mataji discusses with Gavin problems of organization of journey to India.] [Then Shri Mataji talks to a lady in Hindi and says]: Women should not become horses.

[Then a card is given to Her with a present.] Thank you very much. Lakṣhmī and Gaṇeśha. Good.

Sahaja Yogi: Happy Diwali. From everybody.

Shri Mataji: What's that? Sweet! What is it? [Reads name of shop.] What is that? Something expensive? [Pulls angry face. Laughter.] Too much. This is too much.

Sahaja Yogi: This is from all of us.

Shri Mataji: This is too much.

Sahaja Yogi: No, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Is it for Lakṣhmī?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Too much.

Sahaja Yogis: Bolo Śhrī Nirmalā Shakti Mātājī Śhrī Nirmalā Devī ki! Jai!

Shri Mataji: I would like to wear this now. Can you take it out? [UNCLEAR]. This is a big Halwa.

May God bless you. [UNCLEAR].

[Shri Mataji puts on the necklace.] Good. Thank you. It's all right, eh? Thank you.

Sahaja Yogis: Very beautiful.

Shri Mataji: Thank you very much. We shouldn't do all this, you see, otherwise I'll be considered as other Gurus.

[A Sahaja Yogini brings flowers.]

Shri Mataji: Thank you very much. Thank you. Now, these flowers must be put, you have to put them somewhere. Thank you very much, thank you. Very kind of you. But why go to... they are very expensive people.

Sahaja Yogis: It's just the vibrations. It has very good vibrations.

Shri Mataji: I know. I have so many things, I have never worn a chain all My life. It was a good idea. Now you have really chained Me. [Laughter.] Chained with your love.

Sahaja Yogi: And you chained our hearts.

[Shri Mataji laughs.]

Shri Mataji: How are you now? All right? Child: [UNCLEAR Yeah/Yes].

Shri Mataji: Good, good. How are you? How is the Baby?

Sahaja Yogini: It feels good.

Shri Mataji: [Laughs.] Hmm. Yeah. How to keep the flowers. Hallo! We give a Bandhan. Really I have forgotten. What was that about? Hmm? [To the Baby:] No, no, no, nolu, nolu, hoho. Hoho, oh ho. [Everyone laughs.] Oh. Oh. Oh. Haha.

Haha. [Everyone laughs.] Aha. Hā? Aha, hā...

Baby: Hm. [Everyone laughs].

Shri Mataji: He like it. [Baby breezes loudly.] Yesterday's picture upset Me so much, I couldn't sleep the whole night. Horrifying, in one city there are three thousand children on the list who are battered and out of which every week six are killed. Can you imagine? Six are killed every week, I mean shameful it is, I tell you. I used to think in the whole of England. It is only in one city. In Birmingham I think it was. Three-thousand children on the list and every week six are killed.

Sahaja Yogi: Now what use to work for the NSPCC Mother? The national, that is the national society for the prevention of cruelty to children.

Shri Mataji: Ah, where?

Sahaja Yogi: And my wife used to work for them and...

Shri Mataji: Where was that?

Sahaja Yogini: In London but it [UNCLEAR] country.

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR] here to London [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: In London it is a?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: It's hor,...

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... just imagine!

Sahaja Yogi: There branch is all over the country, Mother and they cannot called and they were on one point a million pounds in that because they cannot call with all the children they have to care for.

Shri Mataji: Yes and they showed some children, it's such a mess I tell you. Why I just couldn't sleep last night, the whole night I couldn't sleep.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Some of the cases, Mother, which is horrifying. Children who have been taken by their mothers and there was a picture of one child who had been burned with the bars with an electric fire. The mother had taken the child and done this to it. Others were they had boiling water pulled on them. One child who had a father who had taken a cigarette on the child, had marks all over its body.

This, I mean and that is not rare, I cannot say that is...

Shri Mataji: Where I told you, how can they do it? What sort of parents these are? They are off their heads completely. Completely off their heads I tell you. One there was one girl, she battered the boy so much and then the boy was recovered and all that, so sweetly came back to her, loved her and kissed her, you know, he had forgiven here completely, such a sweet thing and how can they do it? I just can't understand.

Sahaja Yogi: When one hears about it, Mother. Nay. You look at small children who are cracking, I mean these children are cracked.

Shri Mataji: So small as that! Another Sahaja Yogi: Now children like this, children weeks old even, Children smaller then Greg, yeah as nice as...

Shri Mataji: Where have they done that?

Sahaja Yogi: [breezes loudly.]

Shri Mataji: But why do they do it?

Sahaja Yogi: Not feeding them, starving them in cases where the children have been starved.

Shri Mataji: But why, why do they, what do they say, what is the reason?

Sahaja Yogini: They don't know the reason, they say it's emotional things but they don't, [UNCLEAR] like the husband told her [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: If the husband is left, you know, the woman left to call the children and quiet often is that point [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But in one case yesterday the husband he was looking like a Rākshasa, I tell you. And it was the husband who was beating the child. And he was put in jail and came out and another child was to be born and they said the wife cannot stay with it.

So he said, why not I have seen people breaking the rips of the children and they are still there. And why Me of all the thing? Horrible! It's real hell I tell you.

Sahaja Yogi: And they get away with the mother in many, many cases. Ah there is one parent,...

Shri Mataji: This is the maximum here I believe. In America they don't have this much. I don't know how they,...

Sahaja Yogi: They have it, but... I mean the scale how much is going on in this country is...

Sort of a crime.

Shri Mataji: What happened to people, are their hearts frozen?

Sahaja Yogi: It's because, in most cases resent of the child, the parents might resent the child, so they hate them at the end. The child is vulnerable, you know, people who have hate feelings in them, they have a small child, who is defenceless and they take it out on the child. This is...

Shri Mataji: Oh God. Oh God, [UNCLEAR what is it]? I couldn't sleep the whole night, I just couldn't bare it, but I don't know. I used to think two children in the whole week in England was too much for Me, but it's in one place? And in one place! [Baby breezes loudly and makes a little noise.] [To the Baby:] Better. You get enough, you are pet enough. You are pet enough. Isn't it? You are pet enough. Ah, aha, ah. How much better? Hm. Hm.

[Baby breezes loudly and makes a little noise.] He is holding his head.

Sahaja Yogi: Hm. He is, he is trying to sit up [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hm. [Baby breezes.] He is all right now. He is all right. I have cooled him down on the head. I have cooled him down.

[Baby breezes loudly and makes a little noise.] This is on the increase, that's the main point.

[Baby makes some noise.] Must be possessed I think this people! They have no heart.

Sahaja Yogi: So I just can't understand how someone can do it. I mean, looking at my son, my daughter, I don't understand the matter how angry I feel, when I could be made very angry, I could see a wrong somewhere, I mean many times I felt hate, but I mean how can you take out on tiny children.

[Baby breezes loudly.] I did not understand [Shri Mataji laughs to the baby] how anger you feel, you know the child, the children,...

Shri Mataji: I mean, you see, I feel more, I agree with this people the way they are behaving than anything else. How can children be born here? Just [UNCLEAR think it]! What a place it is.

[Baby breezes loudly.] [To the baby:] It's all right. Now better? All right? How much is that? Gail, if you go and ask that boy, that while cleaning My room, please open the window, because you see hermetical I felt for three days. [Laughs.] You are better. You still off? Who is the [UNCLEAR]? Really? [Everyone laughs.]

Sahaja Yogini: Come on Greg.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeahh!

Shri Mataji: It's all right now, have it.

Sahaja Yogi: Ah! Ah! Another Sahaja Yogi: Mister [UNCLEAR] just come back from shopping.

Shri Mataji: Oh I see.

Sahaja Yogi: And then ah, Shri Mataji [to the baby]: Hello! Hello! [Laughs.] Now, lalalalala there. Not there. Not there. Not there. Not there. You are all right.

Now the dilatation of the people have taken place... it's all right...

[To the baby:] Yes! Yes! What has happened now, are you all right? Are you all right? You want to come now? Now come, you want to come to Me, ah? First you were crying, now you want to come to Me. You felt very cool and nice? Did you? [Laughs.] How are you? All right? [Laughs.] Now you are laughing, now you are laughing, now knowing, otherwise he didn't know before. Ha? What was it? You want to come to Me? [Laughs.] Trying to come to Me? All right? How many children have I to carry now in a program? [Everyone laughs.] Like jail, [UNCLEAR] she goes on crying till I take her. And now, oohohh. [Everyone laughs.] So, let's, ah, I want to have something practical. You'll have it. Please sit down. I didn't? [Everyone laughs.] [To a Baby:] Hello! Hello! It's better now. A little caught up on the left, I don't know why. Left side. Ah, you don't go to any psychologist or anyone, nothing like that, never? You don't go near... the tradition is not then, may seem [UNCLEAR] but it is tradition and if you, if you had the tradition, like We have in India, to their fitted just like [snaps], that's what happens. Once they get their realisation they know it is realisation, like you must say it that day, isn't it? He said, it's like a setting we have got, We just find the diamond that is settled there. That's the thing We see there and ego comes up and the rigid because they can't accept Me as anything, but as Christians you can talk to them that Christ has said, I'll send you a Comforter and a Councillor and a Redeemer. You should say these are the three qualities Mother has. She is a Comforter and She is also a Councillor and She is a Redeemer. She has redeemed so many people. And these three qualities are nothing but Mahākālī, Mahāsaraswatī and Mahālakṣhmīs, they are the three qualities.

So He said it in His own style and that's how We interpreted in our own style but this is what it is. And if that is so, then why to reject? I mean, Christ has said that, nothing against Her will be tolerated.

Sahaja Yogi: Seems to be like You mentioned recently, some people will come and then they might have a stomach pain or they might have a problem and they and they come and You make them well again and they go away and then the next year they come back and they say, Mother we don't believe, but make us well. It is it people are coming to You... [Shri Mataji laughs.]... for a little while... Do you made to feel happy? And... but you know well... thanks!... and close your mind again [Shri Mataji laughs a lot].

Shri Mataji: That's typically Western you know?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes. People go away and they think about it. They shouldn't stay in it and enjoying it, they go away, they think about it.

Shri Mataji: What can you think? You see, they didn't get well by thinking. What we should do, give them a big

Mantra is: Don't think! Don't think! Don't think! [Sahaja Yogis laugh.]

Sahaja Yogi: Like the children.

Shri Mataji: I think that would be a good idea. You see, so many people have come, I tell you and so many have got their realisation, but how many have stayed is the point. Actually, in Sahaja Yoga it is easy to get realisation, no doubt, but to maintain it and to rise is not so simple as you think it and We have to work it out. Ah though Kuṇḍalinī helps you a lot, but still you have to work it out. In the Vedas you should see these people are called as, human beings are called as Paśhus. Paśhus means the ones which are under bondage. Actually the animals name is the same, Paśhus.

So they are under bondage of their problems like temper, lust, greed, hatred... They are under the bondage of all these things, under the bondage of their senses. Now when they are realised, then their eyes open. That's called as [UNCLEAR], their eyes are open. Now so they get a new category of people, you see now they start feeling the collective. That's called as Samāsitī –'collective'.

So the individual which is bound is opened out, but after that, you see, that's not the only Shakti, the power on which one can live. You have to develop other powers which are under line and the power underlying us is to get over this first bondage is and that getting over is also sort of manifes-, it is many fold. When you start getting over it, you don't realise how many powers you have got. You have got the power to enter into the body of another person, otherwise how do you know, what another person has got? You see your Aura can enter into another personality and can feel another personality, the vibrations of that person, imagine! You have a power to enter it, otherwise how can you find out anyone. Now think of a person who is not realised, can you find out what's wrong with him? But we take it for granted, we don't realise it it's such a big power you have got. A Siddhi, to enter into the body of another person by which you can feel that person, you can know about that person, you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī, you can give Realisation. Imagine! All these Siddhis, you got all Siddhis in one shot. And people used to work so hard for it and do it. Now if you are made to work very hard for it, then maybe you may realise the value of that. You see but there is no time. Like, ah, he was telling Me, David Brawl, that if you put a big photograph somewhere it could be cheap Mother, but if You consider it and We asked people, put your hands towards, see if the Cool Breeze is coming? I said, but what it is? There will be no identification with ah, with Me and then that's not going to work out. See, they have to know that I have done it and they have to identify. This is the condition.

[The baby breezes.] Better now? Feeling better? So now how many are there coming from that area?

Sahaja Yogi: There are four, there are four of us who regularly come to meetings, with myself.

Shri Mataji: But there you can have a program.

Sahaja Yogi: We are going to, Mother and...

Shri Mataji: Where is this park, where resides this, this...

Sahaja Yogi: Queen's Park. It's North London, it's few miles from Hampstead.

Shri Mataji: Away?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes. It's between here and Hampstead.

Shri Mataji: Between here and Hampstead?

Sahaja Yogi: Hmm, north of London.

Shri Mataji: Is it?

Sahaja Yogi: Hm.

Shri Mataji: Ah!

Sahaja Yogi: It's west of Hampstead.

Shri Mataji: It's a, say these region to expecting a religion, how can you expect Rajneesh to be there? Now We have Christ.

Sahaja Yogi: Because this, they are really, I don't know else, the west as a whole seems to be very mentally orientated, very mentally orientated.

Shri Mataji: I [UNCLEAR May] not. Yesterday only there was a another BBC program about what is the death of a man and all that. He said, one side is definitely mechanical in a man, but another is something like morality. You see, We didn't say it so, We couldn't explain everything, so he said that there is something like morality.

Now, what we can do is to, Philip, what should I tell you the practical side, the meditation. All right? Let's see what this meditation is, what We have to do on a meditation.

The first thing we have got is the left side, you see, is the Mana-Shakti, is the power of your emotions.

All right? Now, emotions are connected with your right side, also, Prāṇa. Say for example if you are emotionally disturbed.

Just now we got disturbed, so our Shvāsa, our breathing also increased and we felt the whole body was sort of, say reacting and the, we were feeling the reaction of the Prāṇa, right side also. That it was trying to express itself. Like we started the tears, is the water element and all that came in and the whole emotion was so much pouring out and with that our Prāṇa was also involved.

Say for example if you are frightened, if you are frightened...

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR It's all right].

... if you are frightened too much then what happens? [Aside:] This is all right.

If you are frightened than also you get your breathing very fast, isn't it? So it is connected.

[Aside:] Yes, come in, come in! So it is connected. If you are frightened it is connected, with your Prāṇa, in your breathing and your whole system is connected with your emotions, physical system.

If you cry too much, or if you weep too much, or if you are a sad person, that shows on your face, your Viśhuddhi Chakra also shows and not only Anāhata but also Viśhuddhi. Then also your Āgñyā goes out.

So all the Chakras reflect the left side in such a way that physical manifestation is also there.

So it proofs that both are very much connected.

So to, if you have to, somehow or other, dissolve these two sides within us, the left and the right side, because if you do not dissolve it you are left half way here, so you have to dissolve these two things. And to dissolve these, what should we do? What can we do, in meditation?

[Aside:] Can you suggest? Say we have got Prāṇa and Mana. Now Prāṇa represents the right side and the Mana Shakti is the left side. All right? These two have to be dissolved, in the air, means dissolved. Now how do we do it? To dissolve these two things, they are connected with each other. After realisation, not.

So before meditation We give ourselves a balance, all right? Which side is more resided left at the time.

Supposing you are emotionally, at that time, disturbed, then you put your right to the left. If you are that time disturbed on the left side, ah, I mean disturbed in that sense that if a left side is frozen, then you raise your left side and give yourself a balance before meditation.

Now let us see, which side is less, first of all. Put your hands like that. Are you all right? Getting Cool Breeze? Getting it? [UNCLEAR May/On] [UNCLEAR this side not]. All right. Better? Are you getting in this side? Now, something moving? Cool breeze is coming now? Is there a Cool Breeze? Is it? There is Cool Breeze in your hand? Are you feeling it? All right.

So once you have given yourself a balance then the best thing is to pay attention to your emotions, to Mana Shakti. Watch them. You can enlighten your emotions by thinking of your Mother. All right, just enlighten them. Just She will solve the problem. Whatever are the problems in the Mana, all right? So once you get connected with those emotions and you start looking at them in your meditation you will see these emotions are rising within you and if you try to put these emotions on your Mother, as put at the Lotus Feet of your Mother, they will start also dissolving those emotions and they'll become sort of, ah, expanded. Expanded, you see.

You will extern that in such a way that, you will feel you are in control, these emotions. You are in control of them and by that controlling those emotions your emotions, which are expanded, enlightened, are powerful. And these emotions, when you feel that way, then the cause of those emotions can be solved. For example just now you got emotionally stirred up because I talked about, say, these children.

Naturally, anybody would be. Now when you are stirred up with that you put that problem and those feelings that are rising in you, that those waves of feelings that are coming at the Lotus Feet of your Mother.

So they get touched, say by that power you can say. Then these emotions become enlightened and when these emotions become enlightened they have a power to solve the problem. Do you see the point? As if they had reached the shore where they got the light and this problem can be solved. Because now you are not in an individual self, you are in the expanse, you are in the Samashti and because you have entered into that position, that's why you have got these powers of entering to another person's body, to see the vibrations of another person, to raise the Kuṇḍalinī. Otherwise you could not have done it.

So for you it is very easy to [UNCLEAR weep] because I am also sitting here in Person.

So easy to put these emotions just there so that they get enlightened and your wish is fulfilled, because emotions are nothing but wishes. These are unfulfilled wishes. Now how they do it otherwise is also this way that you take up these emotions and put them, so that is, these emotions are actually, the left side, as I said, is the desire.

So the desire is taken, any desire and is put in the Prāṇa. Now how do you put it on the Prana? That you control your Prāṇa, that's why they do Prāṇāyāmas, you see? Like you sit down now, very comfortably, now you have a desire, you put your attention to that. Attention is very important, you see? Now this attention is to be put onto the Prāṇa, so the emotions are there and then bring those emotions and put them into your attention, means they are now, you are aware of them.

Now what you do is to watch your breathing. See now, try to reduce your breathing, reduce it. In the sense that you have breathed out, wait for a while, then breath in, for a long time. Then you breathe out.

So in one minute your breezing will be less than normal. All right? Try that. Breathe in, now with the emotions, keep the attention on the emotions, you see?, so that the connection is established.

Hmm. Better? You see the Kuṇḍalinī rises? Now when you are breathing you find that there is a space in-between, which you just leave it vacant. Breathe in! Now leave it vacant. Now breathe out. Now leave it vacant. Breathe in. Keep it there. Then leave it. Keep outside. Now breathe in. Now start breathing in such a way that you stop your breathing.

Your attention should be on the heart, or could be on the emotions. It's better? Keep the breathing inside for a while, then bring it out, then outside for a while. Then again, then you'll find that for a while you will not breathe. Hmm. You see, you settle down. The layer takes place between your Prāṇa and your Mana. Both the Shaktis become one. Now at this stage when you are silent, now you think of your intellect, it's lost. Now just think of it, it's lost, it's no more there.

So what is happening, actually that this layer, the attention goes into the intellect and enlightens the intellect.

Aha, now see, the thought is not there, try to find your intellect within yourself! Now see! See, where is my intellect? Try to find it! It's not there, it's not working. Again try it! It is working, but it has become the samashti, has become the collective now. Ha! See now! Did you follow that? There is no thought.

This exercise will give you this thoughtless awareness, establishes in you the thoughtless awareness. There is no thought.

So the second lesson, all right? May God bless you! Hmm. Yesterday I told you about the physical side, is how to physically achieve the balance by doing all these movements and all that and there is also raising your Kuṇḍalinī like that and how to put certain Chakras in places. Like first of all the Mūlādhāra, which is very important, Mūlādhāra Chakra, for that the exercise, as I told you, has to be with both the feet... Can We try that again? Just to put both the feet together... Now I tried to pull it towards yourself. No, no, with this, now, holding it, yes, towards yourself and push the thing down... Yes... [Everyone laughs.] Now, the other way round, the other way round you can do it, is to push it downward and pull your, with the hands, you push it down. Yes now, push it up, the, the heels, yes, now, push it towards yourself, again, again. Now put it down on the sides.

[Sahaja Yogis laugh.] It is stiff, I must say. All right, again. Now I tell you one, you may try another thing for this, is to put your, one foot across and one foot like this, that's it. Push it, ha... now it's better, that way... now push it up. It is this one, upward, just push it how much you can, push that down... yes... push one down and one push up, it is better... now the other one you do the same way... push that down at the center, ha... now push that up... with one hand you can push that up, with one hand you can push that down... would be a better idea... now like this, like this, like this... just try, now ah... hold it from the sides, hold it from the sides, like he is holding... no, no, that ha-, that, put it down, your hand, yes. Now hold it this foot with the left hand, with the left hand, it doesn't go that side, [laughs] it's [laughs] like the way he is sitting... all right, it's all right. Now push it, push it down, this one and push that up, push that up and push this down. Now the other one you try, now the other one you try, again.

Hmm. Can you? No, no, no, that one down now. Which one was, yes, correct, correct. Now this is the other way, ha. Just push that one down, as much as you can. Push this down. Now you will see it will little bit opened out. Now see yourself, is it opening out? Now put it, put it down again. See, is it better now for sitting. Better? Now see now, is it better? Like it! [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] It's better now.

Sahaja Yogi: Now [UNCLEAR] here.

Shri Mataji: Sorry. Yeah. You see, gradually it will work out, gradually it will work out for you people, because you are not used to it, not, so at this age also it's rather difficult, but it will work out, gradually that,... You sit like that! From now, if she sits like this, you see, from the very childhood, than she can never sit like that.

Sahaja Yogi: Jane?

Shri Mataji: Can you sit like that?

Sahaja Yogi: Does you understand?

Shri Mataji: Let's see. Let's see. If, can see?

Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji is sitting before you...

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi:...

So be like [UNCLEAR] go meditating.

Shri Mataji: Ha good, you can do it, you are good, excellent, she is good. Ah, that's better.

Sahaja Yogi: They are very subtle, Mother.

Shri Mataji: They are subtle, but you see, that's how you grow up and then when you do not, you give up this habit, as you start sitting on a chair, then you give up the habit and then the chair becomes, you see,...

Sahaja Yogi: But the way she was sitting, I cannot sit. Only she was sitting [UNCLEAR] like that and she sits right [UNCLEAR like that on the floor]...

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Sahaja Yogi:... and she has legs out there. [Shri Mataji laughs.] It's just [breathes loudly]. It's really strange [UNCLEAR] legs.

Shri Mataji: Children are very subtle. Now then, this is one thing I told you how to improve your Mūlādhāra yesterday, all right? Now the second thing was about the Swādhiṣhṭhāna, you have to hold both the legs together, like this. Try to push it together.

So, now, push it like that. Hold the hands and just turn, just try to take out the heat of [laughs]... turn it... [laughs more, then the Sahaja Yogis laugh loudly]. He is tall, is he? See that! [Laughs.] Now, is all right, now you turn on, on the water like this here. The tall people are [laughs] rather difficult.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Like the thin ones legs, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Yes, now see, that's how, now you'll see, your Swādhiṣhṭhāna will improve. Hmm, just more. You see? Now let us see, now put your hands towards Me, that's it. You see? It improves.

Swādhiṣhṭhāna improves like that. Then I told yesterday about, how to raise the Kuṇḍalinī of others with a light in your hand. Now you don't have lights today, but you can take some lights. There are some lights, you can take from that, some candles, all of you. You can get some plates, but the doors are closed now. You can get it from upstairs, also get Me a glass of water.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR Mother, we have provided some water, but this is not chilled].

Shri Mataji: Here! All right. Thank you, thank you very much. [Eats something.] Hmm.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Is it a good idea...].

Shri Mataji: You like that? Another Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR I just can't...].

Another Sahaja Yogi: Is it a [UNCLEAR] decision to like this position not?

Shri Mataji: Is she bringing some plates?

Sahaja Yogi: Is it a good idea to sit in the lotus position, Mother?

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: Is it a good idea to sit in the lotus, lotus position? [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I don't know, I don't want, it's too much, sometimes. For meditation you shouldn't do it. For exercise is all right, but not for meditation. In meditation: Sahaj-asana. Sahaj-asana is when both the legs are absolutely spread out as much as you can. Very much like that, very comfortable. It should be a comfortable position. That is the [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, we have to go.

Shri Mataji: Hmm. You have to go now?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: All right... I must say,...

Sahaja Yogi: We have to go now.

Shri Mataji:... what, ah, David [UNCLEAR Browled] told Me that if you go to these people, TM people they take three years to make you into a teacher and they make a real showman-ship out of that, a real showman-ship.

Baby: Papey!

Shri Mataji: Bye Bye! Bye Bye! So don't worry, it will work out, we'll have to train you up to have a real Guru-style and behaviour.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes. We have a meeting in Queen's Park...

Shri Mataji: Ha?

Sahaja Yogi:... coming soon. We have a meeting pretty soon. The Hampstead meeting, is it the twelfth?

Sahaja Yogini: But we can't have the hall in Hampstead next Thursday, so I projected they had one in Queen's Park next Thursday.

Sahaja Yogi: So is it...

Shri Mataji: All right.

Sahaja Yogi:... the following is out there.

Sahaja Yogini: The twelfth.

Sahaja Yogi: The twelfth.

Sahaja Yogini: The twelfth. Oh it's twelfth, sorry.

Sahaja Yogi: So what the meeting, the Hampstead meeting is moving to Queen's Park for one evening.

Shri Mataji: Oh they are good. But you must advertise and must make some hand-bills. These people will go...

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Na?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: That's on Thursday, when?

Sahaja Yogi: That's Thursday the twelfth, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Twelfth, I can't see Thursday.

Sahaja Yogi: Two weeks from tonight, two weeks from tonight.

Shri Mataji: I wouldn't be there. In two weeks I won't be there. Next week I will be...

[GAP]...

So seekers. One type is only for themselves, they are seeking, you see, as long as they get their realisation.

But some have this Guru Principle in them, they do it for the whole, you see? But most of them are at that level, we have got it now, it's all right. But even for yours sake you have to come to the meetings. Everybody cannot be thought all these things, you see, but they have to come to the meetings, even for their own sake I am saying, even for sickness. They are cured, but they can be again very sick or something else.

So even for sickness they have to come, to the meetings they have to come. But the people who will work out from the angle of being useful to others will be less in number. This All-pervading Power itself is the one that is in a principle is the collective compassion and if you are not that, then you have not achieved much. You have to do for others, if you are doing only for yourself then it's of no use.

Did you take the candle now? How are you? With a candle? All right? Better now.

[GAP] And this is all because of this hippy-business I tell you. All these drugs, it's a horrible thing, it's a very bad thing, one has to work it out. First of all it makes you extremely lazy I say and insensitive.

Insensitivity is the first thing. You see, you can be very, very dirty, filthy, you won't feel it. Others feel it, but you don't. Hippies in India are so obnoxious, the Indians are frightened.

I heard two of them, they came when I was in Bombay [Mumbai], no, in Delhi, first time. Now they are lost, I don't know where they have gone. One of them was [UNCLEAR Archie] from Sweden or something, I don't know. And they were smelling so bad, absolutely smelling! They don't wash their hands, they have no sense of cleanliness, nothing. And for anyone to live with a person like that it's absolutely [UNCLEAR], they are just like primitive people. Even primitive one are much more clean.

They can't go to that limit.

And when it becomes a group, then God save others! I mean they don't want to see this, when they are Hippies they don't want to see it. Till they come to Sahaja Yog' they will not even be able to know that it is so. You agree with Me? It's a very funny cult I tell you. And they all group together and they justify each other, I mean from one extreme to another extreme. [UNCLEAR Over-meticulousness, over-, over-cleanliness,] over-this thing and [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Superiority is also...

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: Superiority as well. It's a kind of Ego, I think.

Shri Mataji: Hm? They think so, they think our whole mind is in the spirit, we are not material things, they think. I mean it's all connected. Look at the nature, how clean it is. How cl-, who cleanses it? You go in any forest, any place, it's all very, very clean. Who looks after that, who washes it? And these, this is so unnatural, absolutely unnatural behaviour to live like animals, worse than animals it is.

They don't take their bath, ah, it's all there.

[Aside:] But there...

They will have lots of psychological problems, I tell you. Because if you take abnormally something, thinking which is a good thing, you develop such terrible problems psychological. It's a ego stuff, it's a ego stuff I think. I went to this Santa Cruz and the way people were there some of them, horrifying! One fellow came, he took out most of his clothes and he was smelling like that, his mouth was smelling, his body was smelling, just like a tiger I should say. Tiger is better, just I can't understand, he is a human being, educated fellow.

And We went to have lunch with some persons, it was before Santa Cruz, we went that, do you remember?, that place We went to, for lunch... I was sitting on a, on a bench, you see and the whole thing was so stinking, because somebody has set there. We had to change the urge. How, one must get rid of it, one must develop sensitivity to it.

Untidiness, I can't understand, look at God, God is so tidy. He has made His Nose, His Eyes, everything so nicely, isn't it? And they are not spiritual. I can tell you, [UNCLEAR this way is also with stomach], because I have seen now Hippies, they can be very, very materialistic. They are very worried about their belongings, they are very miserly, they can live on others money, they'll rob their, they can do anything, because they have no self-respect.

So I mean one should also see the bad things of this cult. The good thing is there, because they are not aggressive, maybe like the other side is, but there another side is horrifying. Like two types of devil, right-sided I call as [UNCLEAR] you see and the left-sided as Rākshasas. And they can become Rākshasas! And they can do any kind of [UNCLEAR] thing, any kind of [UNCLEAR] thing.

Some of them are indulging into horrible things in India, horrible things.

Rajneesh has got all that lost, that kind. Gutters, absolutely gutters, as the worms in the gutters don't feel anything dirty they don't feel. You see Rajneesh has this thing now, he has got the film, you won't be eat, able to eat your food for three days. Everything done on mass-level! You see, when I am saying all that it is coming up.

Now another thing is, they dress up also like that, in rags. They dress up in rags, you see, like beggars on the street and their clothes will be absolutely what you can call them dirty, anti-clean, I don't know what to call, what colour. And this is just laziness, simple laziness I tell you. And they wear something angora because they don't want to exert at all. Lazy lumps! But the bhoots are there of the same style and they catch hold of it. I would say all the hippies must throw away all their clothes, most of them which are like that, it will help. It will definitely help.

You have many like this?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Throw them away! Just throw them away! Please don't keep them. Try to select clothes which are more clean-looking, all right? You can have only three or four, need not have many, throw away the rest of them! I mean the whole tendency is towards that, they think they look like saints, while wearing this nonsense, they are just like beggars in India. Our Indian beggars dress up the same way. I can understand, because they want to beg, so they wear such clothes that excites pity, you see, so very dirty clothes, they'll wear some kinds of rags, they'll have thorn clothes, but here the very well educated go in for that, for what? Also, may be, that they want to show that, you see, they are very humble people, maybe that. Or to excite the pity of others... It's a masochist this style of behaviour. They just to excite, everybody should feel, oh what a poor thing. The whole behaviour is like that, they are too intelligent and they work it out, I tell you. I was amazed, hair never combed, never properly done, little lices in their hair, horrible! And big beard... I mean, do you think God likes such people. This is a mis-understanding, these people.

Prophets, which Prophet was like this, I don't know. I have not known of any Prophet who looked horrible like this. And I don't know, which one they are saying. The very best thing is all of them should use oil. That's the best thing. Let them start using oil. Oil the body, oil the head, oil! Then these bhoots will run away. That Santa Cruz crowd was... We had a, we had a gentleman, a Sikh gentleman with Us, who was extremely upset, you know, that why should Mother come to this crowds. He said, I should not put My Foot down there, this one, you remember? He was very upset, it's all [UNCLEAR] and they should not have brought Me there.

And very ill-mannered, extremely jerky type and there is no fines about it, there is no, I mean, sophistication. I don't say it should be artificial, but we are human beings, we cannot be like animals, you see, the way the animals like it. When they slap, they rememb-, they were, remind Me of a bear. Have you seen a bear slapping? [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] And when they, it just comes, [Sahaja Yogis laugh] stands before you, can you do like that? Finished! [Laughs.] Turned down! No mental activity! When they clap also they [claps] go on like this, you see? Just like [Sahaja Yogis laugh] a monkey, just like a monkey, [claps all the time] you know, looking at one side. They don't know what they are doing.

It's idiotic I tell you. [Laughs.] Every way! I mean they are seekers, that's why they are important, but how can seekers go about like this in a group and all these mad people must understand, they'll become lunatics, really. They are in for it, because all the lunatics will jump on them. I have seen certain lunatics with those pants, you know, baggy pants, exactly like hippies. If you put a hippy and a lunatic you won't be able to [UNCLEAR]. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] I mean there is no difference at all, in any way! That's what's happening in Santa Cruz, you know? One lunatic came in, he looked like a hippy [Sahaja Yogis laugh] and now see, how he was, I said now, you are not getting realisation, I am sorry, it doesn't matter, it works on. He said, no, it's has to work out now. And we didn't know he was wearing a wig, you see? Took out the wig and there was a big bald head below that. He said, you better give me now. But We some or another tried to get rid of him and he went at the back of it. And then the [UNCLEAR goat] was standing there, there was some sort of a dog, I don't know what happened and he just hit [UNCLEAR] [snaps with the fingers]. Went into that! He was a mad man, he was absolutely mad, but among all the hippies he was lost, We couldn't make out that he was mad. He came from a lunatic asylum, from a mental hospital and We could not, they said if you tell him, he went to the police, what is there, they'll put him in the mental home. Because they all hippies looked the same, how are We to make out, who is mad, who is not? And another one took out all his clothe and sitting in such a funny manner, I didn't know how to look at him.

All strange people, you know? I mean you are seekers, you must have self-esteem. But they don't take their bath, imagine, they don't take their bath! God cannot like people who do not take their bath. It's a simple thing I must tell you. Even, nobody will like, you tell Me Jeremy, supposing somebody is smelling, will they like it? You see. Only Rajneesh may...

So one should pay attention to ones own being. After all, if you have to go to God, I mean, supposing you have to go to the temple, the women will wear their best sarīs, as you have to present yourself to God, to show that gratitude, that we are so happy, that you have given us this world. But if you go like this, like beggars, what does it mean? What does that mean? That there is no sense of gratitude in your heart...

And they'll wear all their ornaments, if they have to go to the temple, they'll take their silver out, put everything, decorate all the offerings in that silver Thali like that and carry it... It looks so beautiful, going to a temple. A woman going to a Temple in India is so beautiful. She takes out all her things, combs her hair nicely and [UNCLEAR goes]. The best sarī you should wear. We do in the church, I mean, most of the ladies and men go there just to see the clothes only. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.]

Sahaja Yogi: And the bhoots.

Shri Mataji: I [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: And the bhoots Mother.

Shri Mataji: And the?

Sahaja Yogi: And the bhoots.

Shri Mataji: And the bhoots. That's what it is. But at least, thanks God, people will wear proper dresses. Otherwise if the hippies go to the church, I think the bhoots will run away. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] It's a very funny cult! I mean, I want to condemn it out and out, absolutely! The cult is wrong, all the Sahaja Yogis who are coming from that, just throw it away. Like as We say Catholicism or any kind of, ah, fanaticism is wrong, in the same way this fanaticism of hippyism is absolutely wrong. Is going to destroy you all completely and is good for nothing.

Felicity is another person who is gone into this nonsense. Worst is Jane, worst is Jane. The person who was really come out of it, among girls, is Maureen. Really come out of it! Even the dress and all that. Pamela, see Pamela, look at her! You don't know when she is sane, when she is insane. It's true.

Untidiness, is the sig[n], untidiness is the sign of a person who is untidy inside. It's very nice to say, we are spiritual, the spirit is so clean. It doesn't require anything, I mean even if I don't take bath for three month you won't have any smell, know that, but I enjoy bathing. Every flower bathes in the dews, the dew that drops in, waits for it.

You understand now? It's very abnormal, it's very abnormal, it's a horrible thing, is, I mean it's like doing TM. There you pay for it to get a bhoot. And in this you just become a bhoot without paying. That's the only difference. I mean if children see you, the hippies, in their real way, they would run away. But I didn't say all these things before, but I didn't want to frighten people, because they get angry if You say that. It's a fact, I tell you. But why are you not to [UNCLEAR assume] that, I don't understand, what is again? I mean you have to be thankful to God, or not? How the flowers come out in their better, best dress, the whole nature comes out in such a beautiful way, even if they have ripped up all their flower, their, their leaves during autumn, still they look so beautiful. Even when it is so great, it is so nice.

This hippies look just like walking devils, I tell you, sometimes. Like the dead bodies have come out of their, walking, ohohoo, like that. Horrible! Better tell people in Brighton, all right? It's important. As sooner they take to proper dresses, the better it would be. Otherwise the bhoots won't leave. Bhūts are just standing around, you see, who have got it. First of all take drugs, dress up like a bhoot, is it?, become lazy. Only thing you have to put “welcome bhoots!" [Shri Mataji laughs, Sahaja Yogis too.] Otherwise you are that, absolutely! That bode is not there, otherwise everything signifies to that.

So you all must take up a vow, that you not become dress up like bhoots, we dress up properly and live properly.

I don't know what has harmed more then what, I can't say that Gurus have harmed you more or this Hippy-ism has harmed you more, or... because it's so mixed up, I will say. Psychologically that Felicity has the problem. Look at this [UNCLEAR Anna]! She is a eternal problem, eternal problem, what shall I do with her, you all tell Me. Today again a letter has come from Don.

Sahaja Yogi: She has the solution in her hands, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: She has the solution in her hands, Mother.

Shri Mataji: But that's what, they are insensitive, not? Here she came, she used all her methods to create a pity for herself, I achieve. And they have no privacy of any kind. See, she discusses everything about her husband, with everyone, it was too much. And then these peoples were frightened back, you know, especially, another reason sympathizing with her and Steve came and told Me, Mother that, you know, she is insane, is going to commit suicide... [Shri Mataji laughs.]... and she is going to, she, she doesn't want to stay in the upper part of the building because she may commit suicide.

Actually Hippies like to stay in a, just like a snake you see, inside some sort of a thing. I said, really? Now you better tell her, that is on the fifth floor and when you look about to commit suicide, let us know.

They'll all watch you falling down. If you want to see, have your fall down, but to inform us, before you drop down, because we don't want to be involved with any police case. They don't want, they don't mind getting into police or anything. Anything is all right, you see, getting there, doing a great revolutionary work by smuggling these drugs into the country. And when I told this Pat, I asked Pat, what is happening so long. [Shri Mataji laughs.] She said, Mother I told her, you better jump, Mother has said. She said, ah? [Shri Mataji laughs.] I couldn't tell her. [Shri Mataji laughs.] [UNCLEAR], Mother said so, She says, Mother said, you better jump, would be a good idea and We want to see that. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] She never jumped, never, not even once. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] And this fellow was, then, he was about to get her troubles, Pat, helping around, one case. Then she got after Don and they are not sympathies, he, he, he thought that, poor Lady we must help. When they came to see Me, I said, Don I would like her to die, no doubt. I saw him in the meeting, I saw him very sick. I said I have to go and see some Ladies in the Hotel. They have come from India, just take Me in the car. I sat in the car and such heat coming out from his body. I said [snaps], what have you been doing? Thin down, absolutely! He said, I am been looking after Anna. I was so angry with him! Now she wants to come back again to [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: She has been in [UNCLEAR Fullment], through about.

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: She has been in Fullment for a time, Fullment mental hospital.

Shri Mataji: That's the place for her. [A Sahaja Yogini laughs.] She should be there. But how is she out?

Sahaja Yogi: She is out now.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Yes, she is back in home.

Shri Mataji: She is back?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR], yeah.

Shri Mataji: She will be back now and she has got now a house given by the council.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: She should settle down there.

So she says that I'll go to hell if I do not do Sahaja Yoga.

She should do Sahaja Yoga, but not to come to [UNCLEAR]. I don't want others to suffer on account of her.

Somebody has to tell Don that they should keep away from her and let her stay in her council house.

Say, Mother tells her. And she really play games about you. She makes the whole thing look so difficult.

I mean she is a seeker, this is the worst part, to see the seeker. And has been a seeker for ages, I mean, that's why I love her so much. I went to a place to cure her and everything but this bhoot comes into her and she again wants to do the same thing. It' hard to save her, if she doesn't want to get rid of the bhoot, then... Has you got the keys?

Sahaja Yogini: No, not yet Mother, [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm.

Sahaja Yogini: Just you see mother.

Shri Mataji: Hmm.

Sahaja Yogi: Is there an exercise that we can do for Viśhuddhi?

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: Is there an exercise that we can do for Viśhuddhi?

Shri Mataji: Right side?

Sahaja Yogi: No, Viśhuddhi.

Shri Mataji: Which both?

Sahaja Yogi: Well, both, yeah.

Shri Mataji: Just yesterday I told that, exercise is one of them is to raise your Kuṇḍalinī up. And lying with your head, you put both the hands straight, as much as you can. Let's see. No, not like that.

Move it... Hmm... now go straight, straight, straight... put both the hands here, hmm, there and now do it, ha. See, they are not straight hands. Put them straight, ha. Now, now... can't do it. It's better now? Just put it straight. Better now. You are doing better. Now still it's [UNCLEAR stout], hands are [UNCLEAR]. Hmm, now see... see your vibration. It should be better.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR I can't say].

Shri Mataji: Another one is to lock your hands behind, like this. Yes... put it down... head. It's good, it's very good, it's all right. Push your hand a, head back, Anna, in the center. You have thinned down, have you got liver?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR Fasting for three days].

Shri Mataji: Hmm. Get some sugar. You very much thinned down. What are you worried about? Ah? Do you worry about something?

Sahaja Yogini: Not really.

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogini: Not really.

Shri Mataji: Your brother is better now? He too has the same hippy-problem, is it?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes. It's true.

Shri Mataji: That's it. Now such an [UNCLEAR intended] fellow, it's wasted. Now are you better now?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Hmm? Ah, better? It's much better, the sun has also come up. You see? It has been nice enough for since I have been here. They are saying tomorrow it will rain, I said, [UNCLEAR I can't see]. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Has he come?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes Mother, he has just come.

Shri Mataji: He has got the key?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Just call him in one minute.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Sahaja Yogi: Rajendra!

Shri Mataji: And now finish it off. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] When the women do it and it looks nice, beautiful and they know how to do it delicately. It is a job of the women. That's why the men here are not marrying, you know? They don't need the women any more. Look at the woman is there just to fix her breakfast, to do everything for her, make her tea, fix her breakfast, take her clothes for the laundry, I think iron it, I don't know. [Sahaja Yoginis laugh.] Next thing they will, they will be wearing a tie.

[Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Going too much, I mean it's should not be that. The woman must be kept as a woman, that doesn't mean she is dominated, in anywhere, that's her job.

What's the job of a woman is [UNCLEAR to do it] you should be proud. I mean, you are supposed to be house-proud women once upon a time, I don't know this word came from England only. House-proud.

It's gone or what? Nowadays men are house-proud. But I can't understand cutting the grass outside men can do it. But I can't understand, why should they wash the utensils, they should never do that. Now what do they do women here, I don't know what do they do? If they find anything untidy, now how can you bear it, for any woman? Right side, you see. She wants to see things [UNCLEAR] everywhere.

Actually these movements are make you really unisex, you can't make out man and a woman and there is no differentiation at all. The beauty is lost. It's minimum of minimum, these differentiation should be, there a man should be a man and a woman should be a woman, minimum of minimum. [Laughs.] What is so difficult? And then the bhoots come on to a man of a woman and on a woman of a man and they get all these perversions.

Better now? [UNCLEAR If he] was saying he may like to go. You are saying that parents have been very nice and they found a shop for you. All the lady-like things go away, horrible. And those rags and things within, just throw them away, really! And they are never washed! They are so dirty!

Sahaja Yogi: Is this unisex they...

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: Is this unisex [UNCLEAR things/selling...], Mother? Is that unisex thing, Mother?

Shri Mataji: Unisex?

Sahaja Yogi: Hmm. This fashion is on the King's Road where they have all these shops, than this bus goes up King's Road, you see...

Shri Mataji: You see, the shops I can don't blame for excessive demand, demand, then come out for everything, you see, if you say ladies dresses for man, all right. You'll have that. [Sahaja Yogis laugh, Shri Mataji too.] Anything you want! You see, shopkeepers you can't blame, because all the shopkeepers are there because of the demand, you see, whatever demand is there.

Contents: 1981-11-01 Diwali Pūjā (5th day after Diwali Day), The Mahālakṣhmī Powers and the Powers of Water, Chelsham Road, London, UK

Today I told you about the importance of Lakṣhmī principle within us and the three processes through which we pass. First is the Gṛuhalakṣhmī. Actually, this is celebrated mostly on the thirteenth day of the moon, where they say that the housewife has to be given some present. And the best thing she can have is a some sort of an utensil.

So people give her some utensils, actually it's a very mutual thing, because if you give an utensil, she is supposed to cook for you. It's a very sweet way of suggesting that you cook something for us.

Then the fourteenth day is very important, because that is the day the Goddess as a power, as a power, because it was Kārttikeya who killed Narakasura, the devil. And he was one of the worst of all, could not be killed.

So Shiva and Pārvatī were married for this special purpose to produce this powerful Shaktiputra, means the son of the Shakti, known as Kārttikeya. And He was just born to kill this horrible devil, called as Narakasura. And He killed. That is the day, fourteenth day. It is something like Halloween, that day.

Because that is the day they opened the gates of hell and put all the devils into hell. And that's why that day one has to rest in the morning time as long as possible.

So that let all the devils be put in nicely because some of them might be hanging around still. It's better to allow them to get out. I mean in the realm that you are you do not feel much their existence. But if you were in the realm of subconscious area or collective subconscious, people see even some of the spirits and also can feel their existence, they see the black spots and all that.

So that day is very dangerous, but because Narakasura was killed, people celebrated. That celebration is expressed next day, which that day is the day of Diwali they say. That is the day they also worship Lakṣhmī, because they think that that's the day Lakṣhmī was born on this earth from the sea as I told you last time.

Then the day of the New Year comes in afterwards, because in India in the north, that's the time people finish their crops and they found that day was very good to celebrate the New Year. And, that is actually more, sort of, we can say is a social thing in India, we need not use that, what ever suits us. You can have your own New Year. Because in the south, say in Maharashtra they have another New Year, as I told you where Shālivāhana in his dynasty started another calendar and they celebrate that.

So all these things are nothing is rigid about anything, one must know. Nothing is rigid. Rigidity comes from ignorance. It's all for you, for your joy and happiness. The whole festival system is for your happiness and not for the happiness of the time or date. It's for you, so it should be adjustable according to your needs and understanding. And also according to your national way you live. They should be no addiction to any particular type of culture, a particular type of ideas. It's all for you. All these festivals are for you, not for Gods. They don't have these festivals. It's only for you people these festivals are there.

And when you celebrate them, that's only for your joy and your happiness. And that's how you should celebrate in a way that gives you the greatest amount of happiness. And the festivals, all the festivals of the world must be celebrated. The more you are festive, the happier it is. Why miss the chance, you see.

So as Sahaja Yogis you can celebrate, you can't put yourselves in [UNCLEAR John/yawn/lawn].

So as a Sahaja Yogi you don't belong to any particular caste or community anymore now, you belong to universal caste. Once you start belonging to the universal thing, then you can celebrate all the festivals of all the religions. And have the best of it. All the year out, you can celebrate all the festivals. Know about them, the more you know, the better it is. And have all kinds of sweets, whatever you use, whatever type you use, in whatever areas and countries and cultures. And that's how we have to be more festive.

Now the last day is very important, is a very universal day I should say, called as Bhaiya Dooj, this day, or they call it also in Marathi Bao Dijum, different names. The brothers and sisters day. Now the brothers' and sisters' relationship has to be very, very strong. And the purity of that relationship is to be maintained. It is not necessary that you should be born as brothers and sisters, not necessary. But you are born, because if you are realised Souls you are born as brothers and sisters.

So that purity must be maintained in the society of Sahaja Yoga. Very important, that we should try to develop this situation that brothers and sisters are something very pure. Their relationships are very pure. And they should not be at all challenged. It is so much so that even if you call somebody your brother, he is your brother and the more you develop this relationship, the better your left Viśhuddhi will be. Because left Viśhuddhi is the relationship with God as a brother or with a Goddess as a sister.

So, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa's sister, as you know was born to Nand and Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa himself was born in a prison.

So there was an exchange that took place. They had to replace Her in His place. And then when Kamsa, the uncle of Kṛiṣhṇa, tried to kill that girl, She went into the sky and like a lightning She said that “Your killer is still living in Gokul, is still there." So this lightning that we see, is representative of that power, which we call as Viṣhṇumāyā, is the sister's. If your sisterly feelings towards women are good and strong, your left Viśhuddhi will be very good.

It has many other qualities. For example a person, who has a very good left Viśhuddhi, is a very confident person. Not only that, but whatever he says comes out true. Even by mistake, he says something, it comes true. It's a very powerful center left Viśhuddhi is. Such a person, whenever he speaks to, say, criticise something or to cut down something or to be against something, then it has the power to crash all that he doesn't want. See like, you can say Christ, His left Viśhuddhi is expressed through His relationship with Mary Magdalene.

When He stood up and said that “Those who have not committed any sin can stone her” so this is His power. The sin of the people just crashed them completely; they were finished, because the sin was there. And the sin was of left Viśhuddhi. There was no purity. And when there is no purity, the person who is so pure says such a thing, all these people lost their powers; they couldn't even stone.

Now this sister of His was born later on as Draupadi and that to very near the place we have been to, Vani, you know, where we saw. Gavin do you remember when we were going to Nagpur? Near Vani she was born, that place and there's a very big temple of that. She was called as Draupadi and you know how Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa tried to save Her chastity. Now people, I have heard, are trying also to say things against Mary Magdalene and against Christ and all kinds of things. This is the sign of the decadence of our brains and of our morality that we cannot see purity in any relationship. We cannot see any purity in any relationship.

So we as Sahaja Yogis have to develop more of that. Instead of that what I find that people, specially in the West, try to think whom we are going to marry whOm These relationships are established, is wrong. There is no need to go on organizing marriages and playing these games of romance and all that. If marriage has to take place, it will take place. But don't spoil the atmosphere. There are some people who are just like barbers, who try to organize marriages you see and take a great pride in arranging marriages with this one to that one and that one to that one. Is not a desirable thing; one should not do it. There's no virtue in these things, is to organize marriages all the time. When the marriage time comes, it takes place.

Now at the time of Mohammed Sahib a big question arose, because there were very few men and many, many ladies of all age groups. And they didn't know what to do, how to save these girls because so many men died in the war.

So then they asked, “What to do now at this juncture in a position, when such a catastrophe is there and so many women are there and very, very few men?" Then He said, “All right, you can marry four or five wives and you can marry in any age group." Because if you have to live with Dharma, means marriage, means collective sanction, not without marriage.

So He said, “All right, you can even marry five times, but you must marry, without marriage you cannot live." And that is why He was particular that every person should be married and should have no relationship without marriage, was sin. Instead of that now Muslims think that it is there right to marry five persons.

I mean, when the men are more and women are less. Is a wrong thing. You have to find out the solution.

And at that time the relationship between even the sisters and brothers had to delimit, because there was a big problem.

So He said, “All right, the children born of the same parents cannot marry, but cousins could marry” that time.

Now that time is changed, all right, it's not that time. We are not on war, there is nothing happening like that. There is no such problem.

So let us develop now our pure relationship of brothers and sisters.

Actually, first time when we had this Diwali function, I asked people to find one sister for yourself. Every gentleman must have one sister, to find out one. And then that is the day, I said, let us start this way that next time when we meet on another day called as Rakhi Pūrnimā, that you tie the rakhi in the hand, the same brothers and sisters.

In India also we did like that and it worked very well. But there the relationships are so strong. Once Dhumal, you see, I think tied it to Raulbai. And now even if I say something to Raulbai, he doesn't like.

It exceeded to that extent. It's so sweet you know. And even Dhumal's wife respects Raulbai as an elder sister. It's very sweet. Like that many relationships are established. And next year I think Raulbai became the sister of one of our trustees, who was no more there. And she always carried on all that relationship and they also, I mean imagine. The whole thing is that, that relationship is so special, so close and so pure.

And such a relationship one should develop with a lady, any woman or any friend you want to have.

One should remember that it cannot cross a certain limit, there has to have a Maryādā. Otherwise they will become brothers and sisters and then they marry, it's not possible.

So we have to have the boundaries; that is very important. In Sahaja Yoga we have to have Maryādās and boundaries. And one of them is this: that once you call somebody a brother or a sister, is absolutely pure relationship. Little further we'll go with that and that the relationship with a, as I have told you before, that with your, say, husband's younger brothers is just like that they are like your younger brothers, all of them, husband's younger brothers or younger Sahaja Yogis than your husbands, are. The other way round is for all the ladies, we can say, all the men, their wives, elder ladies, elder to your wives, are like sisters, elder sisters.

I mean this relationship is so sweet and gives you a certain amount of understanding how much distance is kept with whom, with whom to be free and with whom to have the distance. And this must be maintained with such a beautiful way that this purity is not corrupted. You keep to pure standards. This is the nourishment of Sahaja Yoga, is the nourishment of your growth, purity. Purity is the most important thing for us, purity in every way. If you are pure, you will not do anything that is fake, that is, we can say, that is not pure.

So first of all you'll be pure yourself and you'll accept purity, you'll appreciate purity, you will be sustained by purity. Any impurity will not collaborate with you or try to compromise with you. That's why purity is your Mother's name. You know that My name is purity. And this purity is such that it pures everything, it just purifies. The purity should be such that it should purify, otherwise that purity has no meaning. For example, a soap purifies, all right. But you don't purify the soap. Do you clean the soap? I mean some crazy people might be. I know some people, who even wash the tap and also the water. And that's why, that's why this water, which is the purifier, water is the purifier, water purifies us physically.

And also our poisons are driven out of our liver also by water. Water is a very great element in removing all problems. You use water for so many things; you know how it works it out.

So this Lakṣhmī, which is purification, was born out of water. That's why She was called as Mary as I told you. And I'm also called as Nira, meaning born out of water.

So one has to understand that today's message is that we inculcate purity. We should not cheat ourselves. It is easy to cheat, but we should inculcate purity within ourselves as a matter of our own maturity, as our own decoration, as our own beauty and not just because it's a laborious thing or it is a very hard thing, not like that. It should be achieved with great pleasure and happiness. How do we like to have a bath or to be clean and to be presentable? In the same way we should try to clean our thoughts. Just by paying attention to them, we can clean them. Thoughts must be made clean. First of all why have thoughts at all. But even if you have, have clean and pure thoughts. Even if you have to have, don't have thoughts full of arrogance, aggression or of fear.

Some people think that if you have thoughts of fear it's a very good thing; `Oh I'm frightened, I am afraid.' It's impurity. Why should you be afraid? That means your left Viśhuddhi is catching. There's no need to have any fear of any kind; no need to have any fear of any kind. If you have to have fear that means there's something wrong. If you believe that God is above all, you are a realised Soul and that God is going to look after you, that He is your father, that He's open His gates to you, what is there to be afraid of? Many people think that way that if you have the fears, you are humble. Humility is different from a frightened person. It's absolutely a [UNCLEAR] it has nothing to do with humility.

So to be humble is different and to be frightened is different. For Sahaja Yogis it is very easy to find out through their vibratory awareness what is fear and what is humility. As humility will give you vibrations and fear will catch all your left side.

So our purification of our mind comes through certain methods of understanding ourselves. First of the understandings one has to have is that we are born in a family, born in a society, born in a so-called religious sect or what.

So all these fixations have put into us certain amount of impurities. Which may give us ego, superego, anything it might give us.

So to keep it pure and simple is: take to water element as much as you can. It helps both ways, it helps ego, it helps superego. Take to water element. And that is what Lakṣhmī is. Lakṣhmī is the one that gives you the Mahālakṣhmī Tattwa. From the Lakṣhmī only the Mahālakṣhmī's principle comes in. And this is after the purification through the Lakṣhmī process.

Christ has said, “If you want I can give you gold, gold parts, you can live with it. But those who love Me will only enter into the Kingdom of God. And I will eat with them” means those who are pure only I will eat with them. I will not eat with people, who are impure.

He was so, I mean, every, all the incarnations are aware of it, that they have to be with the pure people and they have to help the pure people. But He so clearly said it that if you want Lakṣhmī, you can have it, that's money. But that's not Mahālakṣhmī, so from Lakṣhmī to Mahālakṣhmī state. You've already got your realisation, you do not know how much you have got it already. You are already having the Mahālakṣhmī principle within you. And what is the Mahālakṣhmī principle? That's the point. Can I ask this question? What is the Mahālakṣhmī principle within you?

Sahaja Yogi: It's all for the Spirit.

Shri Mataji: No, no. But you have a power. You have got Mahālakṣhmī's powers within you, do you know that?

Sahaja Yogi: The pleasure it gives you.

Shri Mataji: The pleasure? No, no, no.

Sahaja Yogi: The power of giving realisation.

Shri Mataji: Go ahead still, little more, more. Pleasure is not a power. Pleasure is what you enjoy.

But you have a power of Mahālakṣhmī.

Sahaja Yogi: Sustaining power.

Shri Mataji: That's no power. Power means, you have that power to do something.

Sahaja Yogi: The power to spread Sahaja Yoga.

Shri Mataji: That's rather vague, particular one.

Sahaja Yogi: Power to give realisation.

Sahaja Yogi: To evolve.

Shri Mataji: But to evolve is your own. Power is what you do to others. The whole thing I told you just now. Is to purify. You have the power to purify. How do you cure people? By purifying them.

All right? Now just think how you purify others, by talking to others you can purify them. By touching others, you can purify them. By looking at them, you can purify them. One person who is a realised Soul, purifies the whole atmosphere. The atmosphere is purified. Since I've come, it has been warm enough.

You purify everything. You purify this light, do you notice that? You've awakened the light. Now what other powers you have?

Sahaja Yogi: To raise the Kuṇḍalinī.

Shri Mataji: That's awakening. See Kuṇḍalinī is many powers, is many-folded. You purify yourselves, others and yourselves.

Some more powers are there. Now come along, let's have it. You all have those powers and you are not aware of them this is the best part of it. You can't follow it. Now let's have it.

Sahaja Yogi: Power over time. Arranging time to suit yourselves.

Shri Mataji: That's not a power of Mahālakṣhmī. That's another one I'll tell you who does that.

Sahaja Yogi: Balance. It gives balance between ego and superego?

Shri Mataji: That's true. That is one of them. But that is Guru power. That is the Guru's power.

Balance comes from Guru. See Mahālakṣhmī is water, so now you tell Me.

Sahaja Yogi: To cleanse.

Shri Mataji: That's done now, the cleansing is done. Water is water.

Sahaja Yogi: Satisfied.

Shri Mataji: Now coming to the part. It quenches the thirst, the spiritual thirst. You can quench the spiritual thirst of people, tremendous power, because when you give realisation that the seeking is over.

All right? Then another one now come along. What other qualities? Think of the water, nourishment, you nourish. You give spiritual nourishment to people through your power; even if you are standing there you are nourishing others. Then dissolvement, you dissolve their ego and you dissolve their super ego. All these powers you own after realisation. Just think of it. What else?

Sahaja Yogi: Divinity.

Shri Mataji: That's very vague because divinity is how to relate it to water. People won't understand it, so let us put it other way round. What is it?

Sahaja Yogi: Cool.

Shri Mataji: You become a cool down person very good, very good. You become cool, cool personality.

You have cooling effect, water has.

Sahaja Yogi: You carry others. You can carry others.

Shri Mataji: You can, very gentle and also drown some of them. Drown into the love, into the ocean of love, all right. But you can also push them with two running jumps, all right. That also can be done.

It has another very great quality that water permeates into the smallest particle. It goes the roots, I mean suck into the roots So Mahālakṣhmī power you just see the roots of the person. You just know where the problem comes from, just, actually it is the awareness, it is the intelligence, suck the truth part of it which gets enlightened. And you understand that now where is the problem, you just go near the root and you suck and you can be easily sucked, you permeate. You see, when you are sitting near a person then you tell Me, “Mother, this is catching at the back, the person doesn't know." You have permeated. Your personality has permeated into that person. He doesn't know. You have permeated into that person and you are feeling the roots, where is the problem. The water is flowing into that being. The Divine water is flowing into that being and the obstruction is felt through that Divine water and you can say that this is catching that is catching.

So permeate, permeating and the another one is the glistening of the water is so your glistening your skin becomes very radiant.

And the last of all is the reflection. A person, who sees you, sees his own reflection. He gets frightened.

This happens sometimes. I don't mean anything bad to anyone but people are unnecessarily frightened of Me because they see their reflection.

So when they reach you they see their reflection can be very aggressive because they see their reflection. They can be very hard on you because they see their reflection and if it is clear-cut water, then you see the depth of that person. If you are clear-cut Sahaja Yogi you feel the depth clearly and they can see through, the spirituality. These are the qualities of water. If it is enough, more of that I would say specially in My body the water I have as buffer because it protect the Chakras. If I don't have water in the body I may have problems.

So it acts as buffer also it soothes your epidermal cells; you can say it soothes your blindness. You see, if you don't have moisture it's all being [UNCLEAR blindness/dryness] in all. It soothes everyone and there are other types of powers of water, which we know about when it comes out of your eyes it expresses your compassion, your love, your emotions. That is the only thing out of all the elements which expresses emotions, water power.

Water has other qualities also which many people know hydrostatics water, the pressure. It was the pressure and a person who exists like a Sahaja Yogi will definitely put a pressure on others. He will not, he will not aggress but there will be a pressure and pressure. And another person if he receives one then he will gets the advantage of you, but if he doesn't want to receive it then he feel pressurize and feels little bit dominated. You may be aware of your family people at the beginning they feel a pressure because the body achieves a kind of a weight and that's how the Guru Tattwa is formed out of you. And if there is fault in Guru Principle then the weight is even more.

So today for water should really know that the water is a very holy thing and in our Pūjās also we use specially this dignifies the Kuṇḍalinī that means the Kuṇḍalinī is the water jar the carrier of Aquarius. And this is the age of the Aquarius.

So how important is this water and the water is the carrier of Divine Love, is the best carrier. And this is the time of Aquarius means the Kuṇḍalinī is made of Divine water.

So the whole idea of celebrating today the Lakṣhmī's day is to understand that in us She has become the Mahālakṣhmī. By that we have so many powers of which we are not aware, I mean we do not know that we are realised Souls.

Some of us, we do not know and that we have those powers within us that we can permeate into others. We can project our personalities to others. We can find out what's wrong with them. We can find out about ourselves.

We can go into ourselves, we can go into, our permeation is like water is moving, is flowing all the time.

And this is a very important thing that we should be aware of: our powers that we have achieved.

Then we will start respecting ourselves then the Rājalakṣhmī comes in and then the GṛuhaLakṣhmī comes in and everything comes with in when we become aware of what we have achieved of our selfesteem, of our dignity.

So it gives us dignity, Mahālakṣhmī gives us dignity. And that's how we start understanding the value of human dignity. We should have also the idea of human dignity that we cannot insult human dignity, like people who are nagging others all the time. It's against or all the time asserting themselves about something making everybody's life miserable. It's against human dignity. You have to decorate another human, you have to make it beautiful, you have to make it enjoyable and happy, make everyone happy, not to nag all the time. And if you nag that's not a GṛuhaLakṣhmī; that is not a Gṛuhalakṣhmī. You should not nag, `Do this, do that, stand up, what are you doing, stand this side, do, go that side.' It's all a nonsense. You leave the person to be; the human dignity is the most important thing.

But respect everybody. And that's possible because now you have the Mahālakṣhmī principle. Those who do not have the dignity also will get it from you because you are dignified now.

If you have sense of dignity, you will never insult other's dignity. Small, small things we insult like, “Why did you put the soap here, why did you do this, why did you do that?" And the another side is that others have no dignity so they go on doing things just like animals. Both things are wrong. But one must respect and respect brings the best results I have seen. That's the best result, once you respect and love and then the trust is grown and one should keep the trust. That's how the human dignity is grown in a Sahaja Yogi. We must respect every Sahaja Yogi because we are all saints, to respect each other, absolutely respect because you are all saints. I don't know you realise what I am saying.

Each one of you is capable of giving realisation to the whole world, each one of you and if we realise then we must respect ourselves and respect others. Do not talk frivolously about others, make fun. And specially your Mother, you can't take liberties with Her. That is something one has to know and the rest is important. It is very important that one has to know about it. The other day I was correcting somebody.

So Hugh said that “You are a very lucky person that Mother is correcting you; you are very lucky that She is correcting you, telling you something, because you are naive you see, that is why you start taking liberties." First of all you must respect the divinity of your Mother. That's very important. And that gives you the greatest dignity. I am telling you this because unless and until you do that, your growth cannot come up.

So that is a very important point and like in India supposing somebody is going to a temple or they come to, for example, today She has come or somebody has come they will better, they will wear a nice dress. You see, you are going to a temple and all the ornaments they will wear, everything they will wear.

That is the day they have to present all their dignity.

So one should not come with dishevel hair or things like that. That is not a good thing because all these things are important, how you respect. You have to be dressed [UNCLEAR] because these things Some people say that oh [UNCLEAR we live on/you see] [UNCLEAR we don't need to be tidy] because we are the spirit.

Spirit is the most tidy thing. It tidies everything. It tidies everything. It goes into proper synthesis, proper concord, a complete, beautiful music is created. How can a chaotic person be called spiritual man? You cannot, anybody who is chaotic, their house is chaotic, their things chaotic, you must know there is something bhootish in them, absolutely. But you should not be other way round, that you are so particular you eat others' heads. That's another side.

So both things should not be done. And I go on insisting on this point because it is very important for ego-oriented people because they can become anything.

The other day I was going on King's Road and I was surprised what sort of dresses people are wearing and they think that “whatever we wear, we are." That means you must be monkeys, you wear such dresses and go about. If you believe in that then you should be decent people, there should be decorum about it.

So today we have learnt about Lakṣhmī grows in to Mahālakṣhmī but it is not that when you grow into something the rest of it is finished, is not so, that some people think that they become spiritual personality now Lakṣhmī Tattwa is not there, is not true. You have to be decent person, properly dressed according to your status in life, the way you live. There should be no, what you call, hypocrisy about it, no hypocrisy.

By doing any nonsensical thing, like some people think becoming a primitive or anything, you will impress others. You will never impress, you see. It's beggar's thing, see, doing beggary you will get some beggars bhoot into you.

So we are not to be beggars, neither we have to be a sort of dandies, but we are Sahaja Yogis, dignified people.

We have our own self-esteem and we live with our own dignity and that's how we should be pure, transparent, honest, within ourselves we should be honest, absolutely honest. Water is so honest with itself. We put anything to the water it will show. Put any colour into it, it will show. Put any mud it will show. You have to be so honest, honest to yourself. And the whole thing should work out to be a personality and be congenial, beautiful, permeating, no doubt but very beautifully enlightened because Mahālakṣhmī Tattwa itself is enlightenment in our awareness. Such a person cannot be an idiot. If there is an idiot he is not a Sahaja Yogi, definitely he is not. Idiotic person cannot be a Sahaja Yogi, nitwits, absent-minded, all that has to go away. If you have to be Sahaja Yogi, you cannot be, `Oh, I know, I know, I know.' All that nonsense is not be there, should not be there. Your lakshanas or what do you call, [UNCLEAR seed tops] you can say, what do you call lakshanas, the way you can make out a Sahaja Yogi, should be a Lakṣhmī putra.

[MISSING.] That doesn't mean that. He gives with generosity, known by his generosity. He is not known by how much he grabs, does he? [UNCLEAR He is a king], giving. Then he should be cool personality. He should not be frozen. He should be cool personality, not hot, tempered. Those who are hot-tempered, I have seen people, you see, they first take to violence. I mean violence is something out of question for Sahaja Yogis, no question. If somebody beat you also you are not to beat him back. We have ways to beat them but you are not to beat them back. You are not to resist them, but if you are a Sahaja Yogi you have no business to be violent to anyone, even with your tongue.

Some people are more with the tongue provocating them.

You must know that you must correct all these points. It is important because tomorrow if you are going to show to the world what Sahaja Yoga is [UNCLEAR Not Me].

So we have to dedicate ourselves to our purification, to our glorification because water glorifies, gives you glory. You are all looking so nice and glistening on the face and I can see the Ganti Rupena Samasthita. He said that “Ya Devī Sarva Butheshu Ganti Rupena” the glistening, the light and that's there I can see you in you all. It has already come but it should be inside also. And that person who is a realised Soul one doesn't have to [UNCLEAR vow/bow] for it. You can just give realisation. You don't have to tell anyone people just know the way it is.

So many points we have covered today. I hope you will again listen to them because, see, Mātājī's lecture goes from one ear and comes out from the other. And God has way of localizing it. I hope you people will take these tapes and listen to them everyday one by one and also act, not planning in the paper or in the ear. But it should go in the heart. That's how we are all going to mature beautiful children. I'm just counting now again C.P. will be elected for four years. Then I have to go then hardly three years it will pass away and I won't be able to go so much in UK. The responsibility, such a lot on new people. I hope we celebrate some more Diwalis together.

May God bless you!

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, may I ask you a question?

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes, please, please.

Sahaja Yogi: We are often told not to resist violence and that's all right when someone's being violent to you.

What happens when someone's being violent to someone else, what do you do then?

Shri Mataji: What's it?

Sahaja Yogi: If someone's being violent to someone else, what does one do then? Does one stand by and allow it, or what does one do?

Shri Mataji: Give them a bandhan. We have our ways of combating these things. Give them a bandhan, give them a bandhan like this [ark], raise their Kuṇḍalinī.

Sahaja Yogi: Thank you. Though it is no worry for me, it's all right for me [UNCLEAR] but what about a child...

Shri Mataji: Watch the joke.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Alright?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, thank you.

Shri Mataji: Let them fight: what can you do? Let them decide among themselves, see? Other Sahaja Yogi: What about military service in the developed countries, Mother?

Shri Mataji: What [in an ironic tone; everyone laughs]. What did he say?

Sahaja Yogi: He's asking about military service.

Shri Mataji: That stupid thing you have to do [laughs]. Because you are born in a stupid country like that [laughs]. It was your own stupid decision [general laughter] that you took birth. Such a stupidities you have to do according to your country. In India we also have to do certain stupidities. But is not this kind, but another type.

So, if you are born in a stupid country like France, you better do it. Another is Switzerland, has got this... nobody has attacked this Switzerland so far, you see, but still they are having this military thing, because they are robbing people of their money and having those banks, so they have to show they have a military to protect the money.

Sahaja Yogi: We have an alternative, we can write to the government and for...

Shri Mataji: No, no, better give them a bandhan, no use writing. Again mental. Beat them with shoes. Your government is changing now.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Much changed.

Sahaja Yogi: Well...

Shri Mataji: Much better now.

Sahaja Yogi: Maybe yes.

Shri Mataji: Much more sensible, alright?

Sahaja Yogi: Alright.

Shri Mataji: Now, pray for other governments. It's all working out. All these stupid things are around, what to do? Have you to go now for military service?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, maybe, Mother [UNCLEAR].

Another Sahaja Yogi: [suggests civil service].

Shri Mataji: I would suggest one thing. See, when, if you have to do military service or anything, it doesn't matter. You are not killing anyone there, is just a mockery. Is like a drama! So no harm. Do your meditation, do everything. There's no seriousness about it, it's all mockery going on. Take some holidays! [Laughter.] You people take it so seriously: you are not going for war! There will be no war, anymore. Let them do all the mockery.

Any other questions? [Pause.] It has steadied down quite a lot. The water power is rising behind your back.

[Long pause.] Now.

So now should we have the Pūjā. Now today's Pūjā, you must inculcate your Mahālakṣhmī Tantra. All those powers must be substantiated, that's why this Pūjā is done. Right? I have already explained to you what is Mahālakṣhmī Principle is and all these powers must be arisen in you.

Good.

Is this permanent? [Maybe referring to the camera.] [UNCLEAR.] There must be Mahālakṣhmī Stotra somewhere. I can't understand English.

Sahaja Yogi: [starts reading.]

Shri Mataji: Correct! Then who'll wash today? How many are new people today who have not done the Pūjā? Let's see how many, must be many. Susan, you have not done? You have not done. All right, then come along. I think you all have to come forward. Kumkum [UNCLEAR] with the kumkum. Ram, you keep somebody there, handy, who does all the kumkum.

Ram, I think you can handle the things, you know all that? Keep that handy here, so the one who has to read is different from one who has to do. Now who can do it? [Hindi.] [UNCLEAR] and Chaya can manage, I think. Yes, I'm sorry.

[Recitation of names.]

Shri Mataji: You won't translate? Gavin: I don't have the translation of these, Mother. This is the obeisance to MahāGaṇapati and we are taking the names of all the Devas...

Shri Mataji: And then you can read what in English they are [UNCLEAR].

Gavin: Yes, also. [Recitation of names in Sanskrit continues.] [Shri Mataji tells people to rub Her feet hard.] Gavin: So we make the dedication. On 1st November, in the winter season, in the 20th night of the moon, when the sun is in Scorpio and the moon is also in Scorpio, we do this Pūjā on behalf of all the Sahaja Yogis, in this ashram, the first center of our Mother in London...

Shri Mataji: In the whole world!

Sahaja Yogi:... The first temple of the living Deity in the whole world.

Shri Mataji: First time.

Sahaja Yogi: By the Thames river and the Vale of London.

Shri Mataji [to a person doing the washing]: Your hands are required, not Mine, alright? Your hands are to be washed now. Now see your vibrations. See, are they better? Better now? Alright. Now you see [UNCLEAR]. Better idea.

Gavin: According to all religious scriptures, all of us with all our families pray for well-being, for spiritual well-being, for victory, fearlessness, longevity, health, wealth, for nullification of all baddhas of the Sahaja Yogis, to be the master of eight siddhis...

Shri Mataji: See, see the master of eight siddhis. Now that I must tell you some time, some other time. Hm.

Gavin:... to get peace to all on two legs and on four legs. We pray for help, satisfaction and for all auspiciousness. For all those who are handicapped. For the emancipation of all people, to get them the highest knowledge. And whatever is our power, whatever is our knowledge, whatever offerings we could get through meditation or by whatever means, of sixteen types, we surrender in the Pūjā. Also to the seat of the Mother, to the Aquarius, the conch and the bell, we do Pūjā to all of them.

Shri Mataji: Now see your vibrations. Better.

Gavin: We request all the rivers to cleanse our body. And above all we worship Mahāgaṇapati and request Him to continue this Pūjā without any hindrance.

[Washing of Feet continues.]

Shri Mataji: Take out this water. [UNCLEAR]. Good, wash it hard.

Sahaja Yogi: Now we make the invitation. O Goddess, who has all the Sahaj [UNCLEAR] and Puruṣhas in her, who has a thousand eyes, who has a thousand powers, we request You, we invite You very humbly to be present for this occasion of Pūjā.

Shri Mataji: Good. Now see your vibrations. Alright.

So. [UNCLEAR].

[Shri Mataji keeps people coming to wash Her feet, blesses them, works on them and gives advice on their caught up Chakras etc.] Alright? [Laughs.] Answer is there. Alright? May God bless you. I was saying that that's how you solve your problems. Ah. Done. Good [laughs]. May God bless you. Ah. Come along. Now, are you alright? Put your right hand like this. Right. It's all right. [UNCLEAR]. What's the matter with you? They have a problem in the, say, see, it's too much use of their power. We have to make her eyes... we have to know when to say, what to say as well. Alright. May God bless you. Better? Alright.

[Her hands are lifted up and open with the palm upwards.] And for that both the hands should be out for Mahālakṣhmī.

So that you come in the center. That's how you ascend also. Is the evolutionary.

[Elements are offered. Butter is put on Her hands.] I hope you are all taking little butter, all of you. After all, see, brain is made out of fat. If you don't have any fat, what will happen to your brain and to your nerves? You see, those who are not eating butter at all is a wrong thing. You need not eat with colour and all that, but you must have butter.

[She shows Her hands smothered with butter.] Look at that. [UNCLEAR] heat. Can you believe it? Butter is melting still [UNCLEAR]. Can put some water.

[Honey, milk, sugar are offered on Her hands.] Still the striking of the depth is not there. I sometimes say is like somebody has teeth but they don't have channa to eat. And some people have channa to eat they have no teeth. It's very complicated [laughs].

You have the depth, you are seekers, you are just there, but you don't have the faith, you see, you do not have the background of the faith. The kind of faith you have is only if you are mesmerized, they... it's a sensationalisation. If somebody makes you jump where you are sitting, you'll be very happy [laughter].

All upsetting things.

Lakshan, there must be a word for lakshan. Lakshan...

Sahaja Yogi: Distinguishing marks.

Shri Mataji: No, lakshan is the one which is symptom of a disease. But a good thing what is it? It's a sign.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, distinguishing sign.

Shri Mataji: Distinguishing sign. Yes, we can say...

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The word lakshan means spontaneity, the word lakshan is spontaneity. Is spontaneously you can see that, so the sensitivity has to be there. I went to an Indian shop in New York [UNCLEAR].

It's quite some time. And everybody was calling “Mātājī, Mātājī” the shopkeeper came and touched My feet.

So he said: “I can see it from Your face, the light is there. I know You are the Mātājī." Just like that he called his brother and he was about to call all the shopkeepers... [Laughter.] Very easy.

May God bless you.

[Offering of elements continues.]

Shri Mataji: Ah, better.

[Bangles are offered. Then a ring is offered.]

Sahaja Yogi:... this is Your crown jewel. This is the symbol of London also.

Shri Mataji: Hold the, so that... Open it, open the sarī. Hold it that side. Hold the border, that's all. Hold both sides, the border. Just hold it, all of you.

Now will you please read the Mahālakṣhmī Stotra. Hold it. Bit further. Hold it, hold it properly.

Come along, come along, where are the women, come along.

All Sahaja Yogis and Sahaja Yoginis: Om Twameva sākṣhāt, Śhrī Mahālakṣhmī. Mahāsaraswatī, Mahākālī, Trigunātmika, Kuṇḍalinī sākṣhāt, Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt, Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt, Shri Mataji, Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Om Twameva sākṣhāt, Śhrī Kalki sākṣhāt, Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt, Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt, Shri Mataji, Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Om Twameva sākṣhāt, Śhrī Kalki sākṣhāt, Śhrī Sahasrāra Swāminī Moksha Dāyinī Mātājī, Śhrī Nirmal ā Devī namo namaḥ.

[Pink sarī is put on Shri Mataji.]

Shri Mataji: I never had a pink one, see? It was time, because Lakṣhmī wears a pink. Try.

[UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All the Devīs you have sent to America. That's very kind. All of them are there. Really.

Sahaja Yogi and

Sahaja Yogini: They are declaring independence from us [laughter], from their mother country.

Shri Mataji: Yeah...

Sahaja Yogi: How can the Viśhuddhi be on its own?

Shri Mataji: No, the worst part of it is, you see, they are helping these Ireland people, that's the worst part. Just imagine. These Ireland people are off their heads, they don't know what they want. And killing people and violence, everything like that. There should be no violence if they are Catholics.

So many innocent people are killed every day. Under any, any name, violence has no place in God's style, you see. Cannot be violent for anything.

[To a Sahaja Yogi:] You'll have to make the list of the people who are coming to India.

Gavin: Some people from Houston want to come, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Really? [Sahaja Yogini decorates Mother's hair with flowers.] Now you see how difficult is the task of ladies, you see? You realise.

Gavin: Yes, Mother...

Shri Mataji [later in the Pūjā, to Sahaja Yogis]: Now this will create romantic feelings for your wives, alright? For all of you. The Gṛuhalakṣhmī today, you are worshipping the Gṛuhalakṣhmī. [UNCLEAR].

Two of you can do... two of you can try and two of you can try. Come along [UNCLEAR]. Let's call anyone of the Swiss people [UNCLEAR]. Andre, yes, Andre, come along.

Gavin reads: “Mother, You are the comforter who kills everything that is dead in us. Mother, You are the counsellor who gives us our own knowledge. Mother, You are the redeemer who has given us the second birth. Mother, You are the fulfilment of every prophecy and every prayer. Mother, You are the wholesomeness which cleanses every wrong. Mother, You are right discrimination by which we have become enlightened. Mother, You are the integration, by You God's creation has been threaded together.

We bow to You who are auspiciousness, we praise You who are love. We give thanks to You who are compassion. We prostrate before You who are all-seeing, all-knowing and all-doing. We are Your children.

Let us never be separated from You, whether it be by Your illusions or by our own limitations." [Shri Mataji miles.] Take off My Feet everything.

[UNCLEAR] it improves also. [UNCLEAR].

Can you take it without ash? You better be careful there [UNCLEAR]. Come along.

So many photographers, see. We have to have an exhibition of photographs.

May God bless you.

[Some Sahaja Yogis go to Shri Mataji.]

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, I'm from Scotland.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, I'm from Australia. Please destroy the race of Ockers, nasty people in Australia who ignore..., they drink beer and go to the races and elsewhere...

Shri Mataji: Well, what else? Also racialism.

Sahaja Yogi: Racialism.

Shri Mataji: And also the curse of Gurus...

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, please, remove the curse of Gurus and racialism from my country, Australia. And give this country the blessings of Mahālakṣhmī.

Shri Mataji [does Namaste]: May God bless you. [Takes a bandhan.] So now for the whole world you can ask that “Remove the curse of the negativity and bless them with the principle of Mahālakṣhmī."

Sahaja Yogi: All of us?

Shri Mataji: All of you.

[Sahaja Yogis repeat.]

Shri Mataji: May God bless you.

So we have to do a lot, all of us have to do it. You are My hands, you are My eyes, you are My ears.

You have to do. Whatever you are asking for, you have to do yourself. I can just give you power, but you have to move your hands, you have to move your tongue, you have to do everything.

If you don't move your tongue and if you do not talk to people about it, how can I help it? So this is what you have to do, is to know that whatever you ask for, not only to pray, but also to use your instrument.

May God bless you all.

Now what's all that? [UNCLEAR]. [A Mahālakṣhmī picture is offered.] The Vahana is the elephant. The elephant is Vāhana, is Her conveyance, is the elephant. Because it is the sign of dignity, of Her majesty. And also is the wisest animal, very wise animal and very forgiving, extremely generous. That signifies GajaLakṣhmī day. Rājalakṣhmī is a belonging, you can say, of the Goddess. Gaja is this.

[Pūjā continues with Ār.ti].

Contents: 1981-11-03 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Attention through Meditation or You Must Grow Fast in Sahaja Yoga, Ashram, former Hotel, Bramham Gardens, Earl's Court, Kensington, London, UK

[To a Sahaja Yogini:] The tape about how to meditate, that is important. How to meditate and that day I... did you hear My tape about it `How to meditate.' Now... has to translate?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But you took the tape with you? so you tell them how to meditate is important and...

quieten yourself within, that is very important, is to first of all quieten yourself, your thoughts.

So how through breathing a Sahaja Yogi can stop his thoughts, through controlling the breathing. Now the thing is one has to know that now you are realised Souls, first thing... one has to actually believe it and if you are that then there are many things which must change and the one thing we have to believe with full confidence that we are now transformed. Now translate it to them.

Sahaja Yogini: [starts to translate in French language.] Now if you become aware of it, then you will know that you have got power to transform yourself as well as transform others.

So you must have faith, now faith doesn't mean blind faith, but faith based on your own experience.

Now once you realise that whatever you want or think you can do, that your relationship with the Divine is not imaginary anymore, but is actual and that Divine is dynamic, it understands and it acts, it is much easier to change.

Now, this faith is not yet established in many Sahaja Yogis in the West. If this faith could be established by even logical conclusions, then you can start experimenting with yourself. And you will be amazed how much powers you have got. It is a vicious circle. If you do not practice what you have got, you lose it and you become definite and you then don't practice and then you become more definite, then you become just like any other ordinary human being.

So one should know you have powers that every negative should be afraid of you. Even your presence can frighten them, because Spirit is insurmountable, that is one thing that people do not know that you cannot be overcome, because it has its own freedom, of its own. If this faith becomes absolutely one with your being, you just become compassion, then you know how to love others and respect others and respect the human dignity; but this happens at a later state, at a higher stage, more in the Western society.

You see first they want to know how much they can aggress others, or how many people they can impress others, or how much they can gain themselves. But one should know that it is a power that is compassion, that is love, that is forgiveness and that is one should achieve how many people you can love and how many people you can bring together. How many things you can give away. How many things you can throw away. How much you have got rid of your fixations and your, what you can say that, your sort of self consciousness, you see, how much you can get rid of your self consciousness.

All this vanity just drops out, should drop out. Because vanity is the biggest barrier. And you yourself become your own reflection, your own reflector and you can see clearly what you are in Sahaja Yoga and what you were and what you have to be. And then you can ascend with the help of your love for your Mother and it happens that you can grow very fast.

And one thing you must remember that you are made into a lamp.

So you don't have to anymore seek, just grow your light to others.

So in one way you increase your light so that you help yourself and just to help others. Your growth has no meaning if it cannot help others.

Now, for example, if you put the fire on, the fire does not burn itself, it burns others; also the fire gives light. Now you are the fire, you are the light and you are the controller of fire or the light. You are the one who can become, if you want to, with the fire or the light. You have power to become whatever you like. When it is necessary to be fire you have to be fire, when you have to become the light you have to become the light. But it is better to try to become light first, then become fire.

Even the fire that burns is of no use, none likes it; but if you can become the fire that cooks and nourishes others, digest the food, in the sense that it helps to cook and make the food so must that it become digestible. If you become that good, then it is definitely useful.

But the fire that burns you have been, that you must give up, you must become the fire that cooks, because you are changed and in that change you have achieved the power to use this fire for cooking food for others. Everything that you had so far was used for a wrong purpose, for the destructive side, for the negative.

Now the same thing after enlightenment is for the betterment, for the well-being, for the sweet feelings, nourishing support of others, because it is enlightenment, like the light illumines the road and darkness is dispelled, you are no more confused, you know where exactly you have to go, you get discrete. Discretion becomes part and parcel of your being, so enlightenment gives you an absolute discretion.

Now, for example, appreciation of art. You start appreciating any art which gives you vibrations.

Now in the West the appreciation of art comes that you see there is a big space left and [UNCLEAR] somewhere, they cannot understand and appreciate the exuberance of joy, of the common [UNCLEAR] people. Everything has to be such that one can write a book on that, everything that creates thought.

On the contrary art is such it should stop your thoughts.

So this is what one should understand that when you have certain ideas about art, they come also from your own fixations, your own education.

Education, most of it, is ego-pampering which comes from ego-maniacs: they say “this is right this is right this is good” but they don't teach you how to enjoy spontaneously.

So the spontaneous appreciation of something in art is not what you certify with your ego or some people think they have a power by which they can certify; but is the sensitivity that makes you enjoy the creation of that art.

Now, for example, in the West I feel they like most of the art which is really like beggars art I would say. For example, I went to buy the tiles and the most expensive were just like beggar's style: Worn out, colourless, insipid; and that they said is the most elite. The trouble is their ego makes them so conscious that they want to hide their ego, so they feel shy to express their exuberance or their thankfulness to God.

Because if you say you are happy, then you have to thank God for that. And they do not want to thank God.

So they want to live like miserable beggars, just to overcome their ego.

The sign of health is exuberance.

Then in art they start showing [UNCLEAR] and dirty filthy things absolutely filth, I mean any saintly person would vomit.

So they show if not of beggaring, they show what you call the filth and the dirt. If you go to hell, you will get all of these there directly, all these. I mean you can live in the gutter there it is just the same, the worm in the gutter.

Sometimes I feel they are practicing if they are going to hell, how to be insensitive, because they will have to face this filth there.

And that is why one has to cut off these things. It is like somebody eating the filth and saying “what's wrong?" But if you ask “why do you do it?" So he can say that of course I have to go to hell, so I must practice I may have to eat it all my life.

So such a negative person if you ask “Why you want to go to hell?" He says “That is the only solution for me, I am waiting for it." So, gradually, they are becoming not only animals, but some fear worms those who have lost the sensitivity against [UNCLEAR]. And then when they will go to hell they will say “why should we go to hell?" But there is no compromise. I must tell you very frankly. There is no compromise, no grace there, no compassion, but very hard judgment, so we should prepare ourselves in such a way that we should enter into the Kingdom of heaven and should not be unsettled. We should try to become the Will of God and not our own will. Then the joy will be complete. Otherwise [UNCLEAR] incomplete joy in life, it is just like playing games. But that time we cannot play games you see when we are judged, not only but you have to get your positions as Sahaja Yogis in the Kingdom of God. But you have to become the instruments, the great instruments of God.

So you are not entering into the Kingdom of God to be some part benchers or sitting in the corner somewhere, but you have to take positions and you have to do it quick. If you still have desires `I want this I want that,' and you weep for that, it will not work out. And if you have still fears, still it will bring you down.

You must change your facing. Now you are facing the public. First you were a part of the public, now you are facing the public, so you have to change your image outside and inside, otherwise you are neither here nor there. This is the problem with Sahaja Yogis, that they do not understand that there is no way you can return back in a position where you can say that I am not realised. But now you are realised and you have no excuse: you must grow, you must become what you have been given, otherwise you will be thrown away, just like rejected [UNCLEAR] cannot be sold any more.

So in Sahaja Yoga there is a tremendous happening that is taking place, as if I have put you in the furnace and I am working out everything that is possible under the sun and you should come out in really flying colours. But if you do not accept your position, you may fail. It is your freedom which is also enlightened and you can go faster to hell than you could go before.

So it is essential that you calm down and be peaceful and take your position.

Those who are frightened, who are diffident must change. Those who are aggressive, hot tempered must change. Ego-oriented must change. Superego-oriented must change. Come in the center, not go from one extreme to another extreme. You have to become universal, universal personality.

Like I was getting very good tiles for the same price as marble, maybe the marble was not, may not be such an expensive marble, but the tile and the marble had the same price.

So if I buy the tile, some may like, the value of tile maybe like say French, I mean some French, because they agree, they must find out faults, but still if there are ten French, two or three may like a particular tile, but marble everybody will like, because it is marble. They will not see the value, but they say “it is marble." What is the difference? One is spontaneous from God, whether it is the same value or this is all human beings. Everybody who wants to see will not see the value, but will see it is marble.

So whatever is spontaneous, which is natural from God it has its own intrinsic value, it does not change with different countries, different whims or different periods of time. It is eternal.

So if you do something spontaneous, it cannot be appreciated to them, because artists were never appreciated when they lived; but when they died they were appreciated, after many years. Same about the saints. But now you have so many saints in this world that they can appreciate saints.

But are we appreciating each other? Are we understanding that we are all saints nobody is higher or lower. If the saints cannot appreciates saints, then who else is going to appreciate. Because you are saints, you are a creation of spontaneity of your Mother. Everyone is a piece of art, is so beautiful. We do not actually appreciate ourselves to begin with. We only appreciate few people, “I like this and I don't like that” but every piece is a source of joy.

If you start appreciating each other, then I have some hopes that the spontaneity is being appreciated, that human beings have become eternal beings. They have sensitivity for eternal things and not for temporary things. Like the marble has an eternal value, the Spirit has the eternal value. But you should be able to feel that eternity, that enjoy that eternity. This is what it is, we are eternal life in the eternal life, we have entered into the eternal life and only the things that are spontaneous have eternal life, everything else perishes. If you deal with anything with temporary skills you are not yet a Sahaja Yogi, no doubt about it.

So one has to develop that sensitivity that does not come from your rationality and your so-called education and so-called reasoning. But only through surrendering, through surrendering to spontaneity.

I hope people will break their barriers of ego in the west and enjoy the eternity. Once you start doing that, you will get more and more Sahaja Yogis. Because those who are coming are not so sensitive and the ones who are there in charge are also not so sensitive, so every waves that comes in returns back, it does not absorb, or it is not absorbed; that is how in Sahaja Yoga one has to grow very fast if you have to attract other people, because spontaneity is the only thing that is the capital we have got. We have no other capital to catch. Only this spontaneous love, other fake people have got money and other superficial things to attract, we have only this. This has to grow.

May God bless you all.

Now if you have any question, you can ask.

Question: What are the characteristics of Leo?

Shri Mataji: Leo is a very generous man. He has a heart of lion. It can face difficulties and can be very dignified. You see a lion or a tiger both are kings of the forest. And in the area where lions live, tigers can't live. I mean climatically, because tigers like colder areas and lions like the hot areas.

So both have the same characteristics of a king.

First of all they will eat when they have to eat, they do not eat like beggars, all the time, being afraid whether they will get it tomorrow or not. Like a beggar will gobble everything you see whenever he gets a chance, because he is not sure about the future. And they will kill the animals, particular animals only which they have to overpower.

For a lion will not eat a rabbit, never. But only the one that he can overpower, for which he has to struggle which has to own. And the killed he will eat, with dignity. And he is very frugal in his eating and leaves most of the kill for others, to enjoy. And it will leave that spot and go away. And he makes others quite fearless so that they should not feel embarrassed how to eat in the presence of the king.

They are very wonderful animals, both of them. And when a tiger or a lion dies in a forest, everyone weeps, becomes a silent place, because their king has died. They want that he must eat also and they do not mind if a tiger kills an animal. And he is very fatherly and such he is a very good husband. He is not undignified in married life also. He is not like a stupid dog runs after every bitch. He lives with lioness only. They are very dignified couple and they know the value of their own children and they bring them up as lions.

But a lion, as a human being, could be dangerous also, if he does not allow his qualities of lion humanized. Because lion has long nails you see.

So for human being where he could be little abrupt, that he may do something that may disturb people or he may hurt without his knowledge and he may also sort of assert pressure, put a pressure or create jealousies.

So one has to be careful because of his propensity and his personality. He should not make others [UNCLEAR] and frightened. In the nature animals are spontaneous. A lion behave[s] like a lion; he cannot behave like a scorpion or like a snake. But a human being can be everything.

So if you go to the spontaneity of your own character, then you can develop a personality which is supporting your growth. But if you get enveloped or pulled down or you can say engulfed by your own sign [zodiac], then you cannot become a Sahaja Yogi. Because after realisation you are becoming universal and none of your sign really hold you back, but give you a special colour in the cosmos. It should never create any discord, it should give you concord, that it is good.

The signs drop out, because Spirit is not bound by any sign. No stars, nothing can bound it, so it maybe a person who is a Leo may not progress so much as a person who is Gemini. It depends on you desire to be the Spirit.

He is like Kārttikeya and Gaṇeśha having a bid from their Mother saying that She is giving a prize to the person who is going around the Mother Earth.

So who goes around the Mother Earth first. Now Kārttikeya has a Vāhana which is, you know, a very fast moving bird, that is peacock which can fly; while poor Gaṇeśha has only the little mouse.

So Gaṇeśha is the one who catches the Principle and he says that “Nobody is greater than my Mother. So if I go around my Mother only three times I'll be [UNCLEAR]." So he went around his Mother only and while Kārttikeya was flying. And when he came back, he found already Gaṇeśha has got the present.

So when you become the essence, you become the reality and then all unreal things like your signs, everything dropout.

Say a flower becomes the fragrance, then fragrance is what flower is, but you do not see the flower anymore, you just feel the fragrance.

So you have to go to the essence of everything. That is what people do not understand. Is called as Tattwa, the principle. If you become the principle then nothing is as important. Whatever may be your sign. I have seen people with very good sign just go down like that.

I have known of some Leos who were very ego-oriented, some Aries who were very good at organizing and they just went straight down; and some simple people who were not very much great according to their horoscopes, they have become very great Sahaja Yogis.

So do not depend on your sign so much, you can get ego orientation or depression. Both are against Sahaja Yoga. Alright?

Question: What do you think about dogs?

Shri Mataji: Good, good. Dog is very good. Dog is a disciple and he knows his Guru. He knows every bit of his Guru. All the deities inside the Guru. Every mood, everything. But that knowledge it gains. It knows what pleases the Guru and as soon as the Guru comes home, he will express all his joy. He will give up everything and run to [UNCLEAR], expressing the joy.

So many things one has to learn from a dog.

They are wonderful things, they are beautiful. You better keep the dog.

I have a dog too. It is with My daughter now. When I go to India, when I go to My daughter's place I wear a very ordinary sarī, because I know as soon as he hears My voice, he come jumping and jump all over Me, lick Me and also show his anger because I have left him and eyes will have tears, even he may tear My sarī; and when I am coming and filling My bag, then it goes and sits and sulks and does not eat food for eight days. I mean I go every second year but he is not forgotten even My voice.

All dogs now for his species is outlet, his name is Deepak, means the light. He is absolutely white, is a spitz style, from Germany that kind, but it is a Japanese dog, big for his own breed, I have a photograph somewhere.

Dogs have a capacity to love. I have taught this dog how to do Pūjā, he use to touch My feet and he would never lick My feet, he will lick My sarī but not My feet. And he knows how to use W.C., can you believe it? All such things he knows. You can teach him so many things. He is used to discriminate even the footsteps of every person in the house. And he never liked nudity of any kind. One Yugoslav lady came with a short, not very short with a frock and legs showing and he started barking at her, she did not [UNCLEAR... She wasn't mannerly like that].

So I have to give a towel to cover her legs, while she was talking to Me.

And also these religions in India, we have dotis and if they show their knees... you must cover below your knees for him. If he would have come to France, I am sure he would have gone mad. Even in a painting if he saw the legs [UNCLEAR] he would bark to the painting and he could not bear any sleeveless, or these translucent dress people wear. And he was Japanese actually, but he was very particular and very kind to children.

So many things they have. In India they say they have eighteen paws of something, the number of paws, then he is a saint. They have sixteen normally, but if they have eighteen nails means they are saints, something like that, some sort of myth. But My dog has the vibrations and such a sense of respect and protocol. And he himself you know, if anything is given to him with love he would eat otherwise he will not. He's the vehicle of Guru Tattwa the master, so the disciples are the vehicle of a Guru. You have to be able to to bear My power otherwise My powers are useless.

Question: How to develop self-confidence without developing ego.

Shri Mataji: In Sahaja Yoga you do not rationalise anything and you do not think about it, that you work it out. And the work is so simple that people really don't take to it. Like yesterday I received a letter from Australia that two people felt that they were getting heart attack.

So they didn't know what to do.

So they put My shoes on top of their heads. And they got alright. It's a fact.

So in Sahaja Yoga whatever is to be done it's not to be done mentally, that's one thing people don't realise. Everything we do mentally. But what you have to do is to feel your vibrations on the photograph. You may think you are diffident, you may not be. You may think you have ego, you may not be.

So now you see on the photograph itself. Forget about judging yourself mentally. Mentally. Mentally, forget. Put your left hand towards the photograph. See if there are vibrations coming in. Then put your right hand towards the photograph.

See if the vibrations are coming in. Now if in both the hands the vibrations are the same, you are in the center. If there is disparity then you adjust it, just by giving a bandhan. As if your body, yourself has become a tool into your hands. Like all this is dead and you are the living master and you know how to screw what, screw to turn. By all this [UNCLEAR] by Nirmalā Vidyā you become the Spirit and then you don't think. All these Vidyās may look very serious sometimes. But it helps, it definitely help.

Definitely works. And for that reason you must become experts in Nirmalā Vidyā. Then you ou don't become ego or superego, you become the Spirit. All right? The science of Divine laws. Because reality, the living reality is your power. And ego and superego are myths, are dead things So you know how to manage. You become separated from yourself and you know how to alright come along it's ego all right go down, now you come... now do it like that put right... it's like that. Like she's catching on the right Viśhuddhi, she just put her hand there, not putting aside, you don't feel condemned about it. It's all made easy and simple. Without difficult [UNCLEAR]. Actually children are very simple.

My granddaughter she was hardly two years and then when we went to the airport she was very busy like this like this like this and she was doing it [bandhan] very fast, so My daughter asked “What are you doing?" So she said I'm tying this airport. She's always busy. And as a child of three years she use to draw the all of Bombay [Mumbai] with one pencil really [UNCLEAR]. My daughter said “but how can you do it with one line" so she said “only one line passes through all of them." The essence you see. She was hardly three years. Look at this Aniky, she is at My feet as if children are near the chocolate. Look at Olympia [laughs] she's [watching Me] because she has a little liver problem. And all the children want to be there to wash My Feet and then they take out all your Āgñyā problem. For them It's all a play. Nirmalā Vidyā is a play for them because they are spirit. There is nothing so serious. French are unnecessarily so serious.

What have they achieved out of their seriousness. [UNCLEAR] Filth. There is nothing to be serious about. But out of the mud only the lotus is born. Is complete there. That's how this lotus has to come.

And Sahaja Yogis in France are going to be like lotuses, then will they are going to make the all place fragrant. I am sure of that. Very important because that's the hell sometimes I feel. You all have double responsibility. Such a beautiful city, such a beautiful country. God has given you everything so beautiful. I don't know how human beings are making a mess out of everything, like bacteria, they'll spoil everything, it's like fermented grape juice. What's another question? You get lotuses...? Must try... Bring some lotuses from India, some seeds. It's not difficult to grow... they can grow in very cold weather, from lake called Mansaroo at very high altitude where you get... and lotuses. It may grow. All right? So you have double responsibility.

Shri Mataji: How are you, Harry? Harry: Very well, Mother.

Shri Mataji: What did you do there? Harry: Well we stayed... Warren and I was there for the last week and we had a few programs. After Warren stayed at the hotel, same hotel that You were in and then he came and he stayed at the Doctor Worlikar.

He stayed there for two days. And then we had two meetings there, one on a Thursday and one on Sunday.

Shri Mataji: All right.

Harry: And mainly Indians, the Indians came, all of them. And Warren made a tape for them.

Shri Mataji: Eh? Harry: Warren, he made a tape for them. He described all about the Chakras and how to raise the Kuṇḍalinī and the doctor wanted to know about the medical side of it.

So he explained everything on the tape. And they have decided to have regular meetings on Thursdays at his home. Plus, the only two Americans interested were Michael, Michael and Roger.

Shri Mataji: And in Santa Cruz? Harry: Yeah, well, in Santa Cruz the Indian man, Ravi. His American wife...

Shri Mataji: Indian man? Harry: Indian man, Ravi and his wife was white. She was Danish. We had a meeting there on Thursday. But we tried to get a hall. But he couldn't organize a hall.

So and I phoned the old gentleman, the old gentleman who spoke with a hoarse voice and we could not get a... he said that before that to get a meeting in a savings place. But we tried there but we couldn't get one.

So the only place we had the meeting was at the Sikh's place, Mister Singh's place. You know there was a Sikh gentleman...

Shri Mataji: You are saying about what? Harry: Santa Cruz.

Shri Mataji: No, that Sikh doesn't stay in Santa Cruz.

Harry: Yeah, but seeing that we couldn't get the place in Santa Monica...

Shri Mataji: So you went to Santa Cruz.

Harry: Yes. No, we went to the Sikh's place. He lived in...

Shri Mataji: Santa Monica, you're telling.

Harry: Yeah. Well, we could not get the place in Santa Monica, so the Sikh said we could use his hotel and we had a meeting there and about ten other persons turned up and they were interested.

Shri Mataji: Out of ten, how many were Indians? Harry: Well, at that meeting there were about two couples.

Shri Mataji: Indians? Harry: Yes.

Shri Mataji: So the rest of them were six Americans only.

Harry: Yes.

Shri Mataji: How were they?

Harry: Well, they weren't very good because they, they, You see they went to a lot of Gurus.

Shri Mataji: Ah? Harry: There was one gentleman, the man who had the cirrhosis, he was very keen. And Michael and Roger.

Shri Mataji: I think there it will work out, Santa Monica. Other, because you had not place, nothing, all problems, you see? Harry: Yes.

Shri Mataji: So Michael is going to work it out?

Harry: Well, Michael was, he said that he couldn't get the place to stay and he got very angry and he said that it was Warren's fault...

Shri Mataji: What? Harry:... that he left Santa Cruz because he had problems with his Mom He went there to stay.

Shri Mataji: Ah? Harry: He went to stay with his mother.

Shri Mataji: Who? Harry: Michael, when he came back from Santa Cruz he went to stay with his mother.

Shri Mataji: Michael is the one who was with...

Harry: Yeah, the one who came to Santa Cruz, on his own and then drove with You to San Francisco.

Shri Mataji: Um.

Harry: Well, he returned and he stayed one night with his mother and then his mother told him that he has to leave.

So he could not get anywhere to stay.

So he went to stay with another American and the other American told him that he couldn't stay there, too.

So when I phoned him, he was very angry and he said it's all Warren's fault that, that he told You, so he's going back to Santa Cruz.

So he has gone back to Santa Cruz with his...

Shri Mataji: Such people, they have no money, they have this, they have... It's all right.

So, Santa Monica, who's going to do that? Harry: Well, nobody at the moment, because on Thursday we had the meeting at the Indian's place and he was not going to...

Shri Mataji: but what is happening to this, ah, she is going to stay in Santa Cruz? Harry: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Do you see her?

Harry: Well, I haven't heard from her, Mother, since she left with You.

Shri Mataji: So, Santa Cruz she might be having. Santa Cruz they are having.

So Santa Monica is finished like this?

Harry: Well, except the Indian man there with the white wife. He'll probably start meetings, but he was saying he cannot allow Americans to go to his home. Because he wasn't sure what sort of people they are and they might come to his house and, and, you know see things and when he's not there they can come and trouble his wife.

Shri Mataji: Bharkar.

Harry: Yeah, Bharkar. And then he says that for the Indians, the people that he knows, they can have regular meetings. But unless he knows the Americans, they can't come to his home.

Shri Mataji: You see, all hippies. Horrible. And they go to the houses and they eat like gluttons and they take away things. It's true what he says. Look at this Michael. Now, why should he blame anyone if there's no room or something. I mean, Sahaja Yoga is not supposed to give you places. What he said is true, also.

So then why doesn't he arrange, Bharkar, some general public place? Harry: Yeah. He was talking about having a temple, the place where the Indians, you know, the Indians who are living there they have a meeting hall. So, Mister Pradhan, Subhash Pradhan, he said that they will try to organize a meeting.

Shri Mataji: But then there will there, they won't allow Americans to go there?

Harry: Yes, it's a open hall. You see, it's a temple in the main building where they have their meetings and they have small rooms on the side.

So they can hire the small rooms.

Shri Mataji: Then that's all right. In a meeting in Santa Cruz, there were four hundred and fifty hippies facing Me. And the Indians who were with Me got frightened. They're very ego-oriented. And ultimately one of them hit Gregoire.

So either they are very over formal people, Americans are, they'll wear their dark suits, hundreds of darks suits, you see, yards of them. Or they will be absolutely like this.

Very dangerous. Very violent.

So he said he'd manage something, Bharkar?

Harry: Yes, but he said it depends upon the other Indians.

Shri Mataji: Uh? Harry: It depends upon the other Indians. It all depends on Doctor Worlikar now.

Shri Mataji: Doctor? Harry: Worlikar, the immunology man. It all depends on him.

Shri Mataji: So you write to Doctor Bharkar that Mother was asking about it, to take the help of Doctor Worlikar, because he works in Santa Monica. And he has got the addresses, has he? Harry: Yes. Well, I left the addresses before. I kept the addresses and I phoned to all the people.

Shri Mataji: But where are the addresses now? Harry: Well, I have a photostat copy with me here in London and I left the original with Mister Singh.

Shri Mataji: So write to Mister Singh and to Mister Worlikar, Doctor Worlikar and to Bharkar. That they should try to arrange something. They can have program at Singh's place. He won't mind, it's over there.

Harry: Yes.

Santa Maria Maggiore [Referring to the marble displaying huge circles:] See, they are like Chakras What are these wooden boxes? Sahaja Yogis: [places to confess sins].

Shri Mataji: Really? San Pietro in Vincoli [In front of the statue of Śhrī Moses by Michelangelo:] Look how He put the hand on the Void, how the right Nābhī, the right knee was not covered to show the place of the Void and the Nābhī.

Only one thing is inaccurate, he should have Egyptian chappals on His feet and not Roman ones.

Lady [to Shri Mataji]: So you are like us. Do you believe that Jesus is really in the holy bread?

Shri Mataji: If you really believe that He is there, then He is. [Lady is a bit troubled.] Yes of course, I believe in all that you believe. Of course, I believe in the Virgin Mary, but you should not feel guilty.

Lady: It is not easy not to feel guilty after what had been done to Christ.

Contents: 1981-11-28*, Public Program, You Are the Spirit, Town Hall, Hampstead, London, UK

It is such a pleasure today and great fortune that here, where William Blake lived and He sang those songs of the greatness of this country, the future that it has to be, the dreams He saw, have now come to shape, that we are here to celebrate His anniversary. Things go beyond words, you cannot express yourself. Many people do not understand Him because He wrote it, according to them, in abstract language, or in the language that He understood. But I am happy that Sahaja Yogis understand Him so well and the prophesies that He made about England. People used to [UNCLEAR rebuke] and ridicule it.

Even today they can't believe that Jerusalem can be built in England. They cannot believe that people who have been all their lives, for ages together, thought of nothing but materialism, can take to spirituality to this extent that it becomes Jerusalem and that the whole world comes to pay homage to this Holy Land.

That this becomes the Holy Land. In fact, He dreamt, He wished it, because He knew the value of this land. This land has been touched by Christ's feet. Since long, people knew about Kuṇḍalinī. Even if that is lost, for history it remains. And He knew about it, He spoke about it. In His lifetime, maybe, people never understood him, they must have thought that He's really a madman, or something, a fantasist, or some sort of a poet, He doesn't understand.

But what He wrote, every word of it, is the truth. Such a great soul should live in Hampstead, itself is such a blessing. With such people, even if they write or not, they leave their mark. Their ascent becomes the milestone for the people who live there: their aspirations become different, their priorities become different, the change is so subtle; is to be seen, to be felt, to be understood. And very sensitive people only can be born in such places.

Of course, there could be very bad people also, who counteract, but the sensitivity of the atmosphere attracts such souls to that place who are sensitive. You can see from His poems that He was absolutely authoritative. He knew the authority, He had the authority. He talked like a man with complete authority.

He had no doubt, [UNCLEAR He/Truth] has no doubts. He just said, “This is going to happen” and, like a great warrior, that He knew that one has to fight the negativity, one has to fight only dark problems. The Spirit has to fight all the time the matter. And that's how He talked, spoke, wrote as a warrior would do, because He started the fight when He was born, hundred years back. And to Me He's very great, because He said all these things; He prepared the stage for Sahaja Yoga. Because He wrote all these things, we can say that this was all said. Because human beings are such, unless and until it is said before, [UNCLEAR] will ask, “What is the reference for what you are saying?" You have to give reference for everything, you see, whatever is written, according to them, is scripture, it's the last word.

Whether the book is published in any crack list, doesn't matter [UNCLEAR]. It is such a great thing He's done, but He's not done it for any material things, or for any fame, or anything that is [UNCLEAR] popular.

But He's done it for something that He's very concerned with and that is the awakening of human beings. That is their second birth, that is the knowledge of the Self. These words cannot come from a man who's a weakling, who is a doubting fellow, who doesn't know where he stands, he's confused, he's a drunkard or he's an alcoholic sort of a [UNCLEAR] or a madcap. They cannot. And it cannot come from an egoistical man [UNCLEAR], a man who dominates others, who believes in robbing other countries and going to other countries and rob them and go to another house and rob them. Not from them. It comes from a person who knows the value of the soil on which he's born, the spiritual value, not [UNCLEAR to steal]. And it's so subtle, so subtle, every word is so subtle, that it's like a channel, it's like a channel. You are specially blessed because such a great hero was born in this country. And, wherever I go, in My series of lectures, at least in one lecture I always mention Him.

He has gone into great detail, just like Mārkandeya, another great poet in India, who was born thousands of years back. But He realised that this country is the heart of the universe and here the [UNCLEAR gentleman...]. Nobody could have thought hundred years back [UNCLEAR], even less. Even thirty years back, nobody could understand from the Spirit, even, I would say, ten years back. People have suffered to call this as the Holy Land. It is the Holy Land. You can see that, because so many people have got realisation. And you are the ones who [UNCLEAR have to make it]. This is the heart. Whatever the imagery, whether right or wrong, it's all calculated.

So they don't understand at this point, because they don't know it is the heart. Heart of the universe. If you do wrong, all right: the whole world does that.

You can see that, among all the Western countries, you are the wisest. That's what Blake has told, I don't know how far [UNCLEAR] they believe, it's English, even Arabs. If you say it is English, they believe.

How far it is true for them. And the values that He cherished, the dreams that He saw and the aspirations He had were so great that one has to know that there must be something in this land that works out. He was not mad, in any way. Nowhere, no poet in any country has written like that. It was given clearly a chance, the authority, that means you must circulate. Circulate with the heart, that circulates, caters, looks after the whole body. And, once it collapses, the whole body collapses. Not so. The English heart has to become the heart of William Blake and not the chicken-hearted one, or the aggressive one, or the hatred-filled [UNCLEAR], or the [UNCLEAR]. Because the blood flows through you. He realises, He understands the quality of an Englishman is very, very great.

In the heart resides the Spirit. Sahaja Yogis know this, that, till a certain stage it resides in the heart.

So, it's a very, very great position you occupy, so that you people become aware of its importance.

Also, that you are the [UNCLEAR], the important sense of the heart. Heart doesn't think, doesn't, is [UNCLEAR absolutely] love. It's love. When you think, you must know you're not Englishmen as described by Blake. But if you love, you are. And love doesn't mean [UNCLEAR] love, or carnal love, or all kinds of ideas of love, charity work. It means the love of the Spirit which is awakened within you, it just emits it. It just emits. It doesn't think, it just emits; it doesn't think that whether it should give to the black or the white; whether it should give it to the rich or the poor. It just loves. It flows. And that is why one should get realisation in England. Very important. Without realisation, you cannot grow, you cannot give, you will never understand the value of giving. You will never enjoy giving. You will never know the beauty of generosity unless and until you become the Self. You are the center of the heart. It's a most important position, as I told you, it's the most vital particle of [UNCLEAR].

And the one who is the heart has to be like a lion. He roared, actually roars, if you read these things, like a lion He roars. He has to be like a lion. And not to be frightened, like English language is, `I'm afraid.' It starts with `I'm afraid,' and ends with `I'm afraid.' What are you afraid of? Every person is afraid of you. What are you afraid of? You have to change your language. You have to speak like, Sahaja Yogis have to speak like William Blake. The way He spoke, about His great country, about the soil in which He was born, about the people who will be born here, who will be Sahaja Yogis, He has described them so well: that men of God will be born on this soil. Men of God. Special. The chosen ones. Not those who have branded themselves as chosen. Most of the chosen ones are going towards the hell only. But the really chosen ones will be born on this soil. And they will become prophets. Not only that, but they'll have a special power to make others prophets. He saw it. At that time, He could see that you all are going to become prophets and that you all are going to make others prophets. Like one enlightened light can light another. He could see so clearly. What a clear heart He must be having! What a clear vision He must be having. What a clear brain He must be having. To receive all this information about [UNCLEAR you].

So you have to become. Is the point. You may be God's people, but you have to become a prophet.

Unless and until you are a prophet, what's the use of choosing you also, what's the use of your being born? You all have to become prophets. And, to become a prophet, Kuṇḍalinī has to be awakened, you are to be realised and you'll get these special powers of realisation. People can't believe it that, in Sahaja Yoga today, if you get realisation, you can give realisation to others. When I went to Rome the people had this doubt, I felt, when I said that, “Next moment you can give realisation to others." And they just could not believe it, that they can feel the Kuṇḍalinī, they can give realisation, it's too much to believe, isn't it? It's too fantastic.

So, the last day, I said, “All those who have felt the Cool Breeze can stand behind the people who have not felt the Cool Breeze." They are very nice people, I must say, these people in Rome, because I think they have reached the conclusion of complete frustration with their seeking. So they stood up behind each [UNCLEAR other/of them]. And they were amazed. They could raise the Kuṇḍalinī; they could give realisation. They said, “Mother, we got realisation only yesterday” some of them. “That's all right; you could have done it yesterday, but today you are doing it now." “You could have done it immediately, but this is what it is. Fantastic." So there is no place for you to have any doubts; don't waste your energy in doubts. You have done that before. Bit too much. Now the time has come for you to get your realisation, to get enlightened, to understand. But there are still people who are on the fence and they are neither this way nor that. And Christ has described them very well. He said, “I don't mind hot or cold." I mean, the people who get the Cool Breeze, of course they are first class. Even those get hot, are all right, because they would like to get rid of their hot. But the half way I don't like. I'll spit them out of My mouth. The ones who go three steps forward and four steps backwards; such people are really a headache to Sahaja Yoga, I tell you. If they get out, it's much better. Half-hearted people in Sahaja Yoga are of no use, which was told by Christ, long time back, but I don't know if people really realise what they're like. And this is the problem I have faced in this country a bit too much. The maximum in this country, to be very frank. The ego is of a subtle nature, such a subtle nature, in this country, every country has a different type. Like we can say in Spain it is like the bullfighter. In Rome it is the artists;

they think they are great artists, [UNCLEAR you see], they have a sense of beauty. [Oh,] all sorts of things.

But, in this country, you must know what sort of an ego you people have. Is thinking that, “Nobody could be better than us. We are the topmost people." You see, that upper, what do you call it, upper lip? Stiff upper lip. I mean, they themselves laugh at themselves, it's a good idea. But it's true; I have seen it. That stiff upper lip is the point; that doesn't make you to smile, laugh, I mean, even if you certify that you can smile now, they would not. That sort of a thing, this makes you very insensitive. As if the ego comes down from there and settles down on the lip. [UNCLEAR It/They] cannot, there's no wobbling on the lips, nothing. What, such a terrifying face sometimes. [UNCLEAR] You find that.

It takes nothing to smile, to be congenial. We are all human beings, we are not dogs, that we should bark at each other. That we should be frowning... that we should frown at each other. First thing we have to learn, that we are the heart sense and that we have to love. Without love, you cannot be called an Englishman, according to Mr. William Blake. I don't say anything, because I don't want to be hanged. According to Him.

So, first of all, let us know if we can really love ourselves. That's the biggest problem. The first disease He did not know. Perhaps William Blake did not know what I will have to face. I wish He had written all that. The first disease the people have here, apart from the upper lip, is left Viśhuddhi, means guilt. They may be Catholic or not, does not matter. But they have this built-in guilt within themselves for nothing. First of all, you must give up your guilt. I think He did not know, William Blake did not know that people will develop this, because at that time they were not like that.

And this is such a big problem, which I have been facing, since I came to this country. You know, first four years, I was struggling with people who had [UNCLEAR done different things]. And the problem they had that, I said, “Why do you take drugs? What is there to be living this way for? For what are you living? I should call [UNCLEAR you spirits/your Spirit?]." So they take spirits, you see. English language [UNCLEAR]. You can say it is the Spirit in the heart, you can say the spirit you drink. Or the spirit, that is what we call a bhoot in the Indian language, means a dead one, dead soul, a dead person.

So this is the advantage and that's how they were indulging into spirits. But the problem with them is, it was such a vicious circle that, if you tried to correct them, they would recede into themselves and get into [UNCLEAR dilemmas/damage]. And say that, “We are good-for-nothing, useless people." All right. Then I would encourage them, say, “No, no, you are wonderful people in the universe. You don't worry." [UNCLEAR This,/Praise] that, every sort of a [UNCLEAR pamper]. Then they would become ego-oriented; it was impossible.

And the story of people who are always described in a mathematics paper, you see, when they give you in the, say, seventh standard, sixth standard, you get a question like this: `A house was to be built and in that village one Mr. A came to work, he did only 1=16 of the work and he ran away. And another came in, who did only 1=50 of the work and ran away. And then the third one came, who did only the 1=100 of the work and disappeared.

So when will the work be finished?' Never! Is the answer. If you have all run away and those who are escapisists [escapists], how can the work be finished with these people who always escape? Simple answer is never. You may calculate it, go on calculating it, your answer is never.

Is the [UNCLEAR point]. If you want to escape the situation, if you want to escape yourself, if you want to escape the present, you will never reach there, where you have to reach. And you are never going to be satisfied with yourself; you are not going to be happy, either.

So you have to face it; you have to face it, as it is and stand up. That's what He said, that, “You bring the arrow to Me, I'll face it." Like a brave man you have to face it and not to become, `I'm afraid.' You are not escapers, you are Sufis.

Inside, outside, you are [UNCLEAR pedigree/very good]; you are the Spirit. And, if you are the Spirit, why should you escape yourself, I just can't understand. Just face it and the Spirit will shine. Just face it with that bravery, face it! And you will be amazed that you are really beautiful. No doubt about it. You have to just see, because you are the Self of the heart. But it won't be an exaggeration if I say, in the body, everything depends on the heart. If you fail, the responsibility will be yours. You've a very big responsibility and a very sweet one. Because heart doesn't think, thinking is madness; it loves; it loves and enjoys itself. It's such a sweet work you have to do; for that you start from yourself. First of all, love yourself, which is a very difficult thing for people to love themselves. The hatred starts from within, you hate yourself and then you start hating everyone and it's very common to say, “I hate you” second moment, “I love you." God knows what they mean. But the main thing is that they do not love themselves. If they start loving themselves, understanding the value of themselves, if they have the proper esteem, the self-esteem, within themselves, that's the time. The time has come, which was prophesized.

So, I really pay My all, homage, I should say, if you allow Me, or, I should say all My love to the great Son of this country, William Blake, today. And, as a homage to Him, you all should decide within yourself that you are not going to be soldiers, carrying the swords with the shaky hands, or you're not going to be afraid of the horses on which you have to ride. You have to decide that you have to be brave people. But bravery never means aggression, it never means aggression. And that's why that kind of a bravery can only come into people whose Spirits are awakened.

So very happy today, to see these beautiful happenings that He described, coming to reality. I can see that coming down.

So many poets have dreamt about their country, every country. But no-one has dreamt like William Blake, where He said positively that this will be [UNCLEAR the] Jerusalem. Means, the holy land of Jerusalem will have to come down. If the people have that kind of a heart, that kind of a poem, the Gods will have to come down. If you have that kind of a reception. All the Divine has to go down.

But let us see if we have that heart or not. I hope, there are some new people today; they may not understand many things that I am saying, just like as you do not understand William Blake. But let realisation work it out. Have patience, we have to have patience.

And do not doubt yourselves. Actually, mostly the doubts are with yourself, not with Me. If you have no doubts, that you are born at a very great times, you will not doubt. It happened in Rome; the people in Italy didn't doubt Me at all, didn't doubt Me at all, not even once. And they saw Me in dreams, before I'd reached there, imagine! So sensitive. They said, “We knew, Mother. We saw Your photograph, we saw in the dream, we saw Your photograph." And they told Me how many times they had dreams. I mean, wonderful people, I should say! Some people say that Italians are horrible people. But I somehow or other get the cream, I think. Such wonderful people they were and they all got realisation. In this country, I have struggled for eight years and the number may be the same.

So this is what it is. We have to little bit accelerate, the heart is rather lethargic. But lethargy has to be overcome and has to be done with love. I'm sure you have had some introductions before and now all the people who are Sahaja Yogis here are so many in this Hampstead; they have to be really rejoicing today. That what William Blake has said in those days, we've seen happen. Those Sahaja Yogis who are still not up to the mark should also today take a vow that they will go all out to see that they come up.

May God bless you! Now, if people have any questions, they can ask them, because there are some new people, I think.

Would be a good idea. I [UNCLEAR] that so many types of people are here, that I don't know how many languages you will have to translate, but later on, you can translate. They're all catching right now. All right. [UNCLEAR Doesn't matter]. [UNCLEAR]. People are [UNCLEAR from] Portugal are here, so what they'll miss you will speak, isn't it? In this lifetime only I have learnt English and that not so well.

If there are any questions, for five minutes and then we can have the realisation.

You can all put your hands towards Me, like this. I'm sorry, you have to take out your shoes, because of the cold weather, maybe, you don't have any proper things here? Put your hands towards Me, just like that.

Now, the first thing is, that you all are going to get your realisation, not to get frustrated, in no way and you are not to do anything, just keep quiet, close your eyes and put your hands towards Me. That's all. Simple as that. You are not to do anything, no effort at all. Just leave it. And it will work out, I'm sure, so don't worry about it. Please keep your eyes shut. That's important. Because, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises above this Āgñyā Chakra, it dilates the pupil before it pierces [UNCLEAR through].

So, it's better that you keep your eyes shut. It will help you.

You will feel a Cool Breeze in your hand. Now, there's no autosuggestion, or anything, if you don't feel it, you don't feel it. If you feel it, OK. That is the breeze of the Holy Ghost. You can ask the question, `Is this the breeze of the Holy Ghost?' and you'll get it. Cold wind of the Holy Ghost in this cold weather.

Can you feel it? Close your eyes, it's better, because very subtle, it's a subtle thing. And we live on a gross plane.

So it's a subtle thing; best is to keep your eyes shut, so that you can feel it better. And pay attention to your fingertips, where you'll feel it.

Stretch the hands a little bit. Stretch them a little bit, not much.

So keep comfortable. You may ask a question, in your heart, `Whatever Mother is saying about William Blake, is it true?' That's a simple question [UNCLEAR to ask/for now]. Put the fingers towards Me; don't push them towards yourself.

Towards Me; stretch, stretch your fingers. Just ask the question, simple question. Now put your right hand on your heart and ask the question, `Mother, am I the Spirit?' Ask inside; ask three times. Please ask three times. `Mother, am I the Spirit?' Now put the same hand down below, on the stomach, on the left side and say, `Mother, am I my own Guru? Am I my own Master?' Ask it.

Now put the hand much higher, towards the neck, on the left side and say, `Mother, I'm not guilty,' say it thrice. Say it thrice, please, all of you, `Mother, I'm not guilty at all.' Now, put your hand on your head. On the fontanelle bone area. And now say, `Mother, please give me my Realisation.' Because it is your freedom to ask for it. If you don't ask for it, I cannot force on you. I cannot force. Your freedom is to be respected. Just say `Mother, please give me my Realisation.' On top of your head, here, on the fontanelle bone area, where the children have a very, very soft bone. Just ask, `Mother, please give me my Self-realisation.' It's your own, but you have to ask; nobody can force it on you. Say it thrice. Now, lift your hand up there and see if there's a Cool Breeze coming out. Or a hot, maybe some people who are new might get hot, little bit.

So, put both the hands towards Me and see if the Cool Breeze is coming out. Even the new people.

Keep your eyes shut. Don't think about it; don't think. By thinking you are not going to get it.

May God bless you! All right? Viśhuddhi. Don't feel guilty, please don't, at first I said that you are not to feel guilty.

Now you better say it eight times.

[Long silence.] Ah, better. All right, are you feeling the Cool Breeze? Good, enjoy yourself. Are you? Are you feeling the Cool Breeze in the hands? Those who are feeling the Cool Breeze can open their eyes, slowly, but do not think. You can watch Me without thinking. Otherwise, better is to keep them closed. If you can slowly open them. You just watch Me without thinking.

Contents: 1981-11-29 Marriages and Śhrī Gṛuhalakṣhmī Pūjā, Marriage is Meant to Give Joy, Brompton Square, London, UK

Marriage is an auspicious occasion, is the most auspicious occasion in the life of human beings. It is auspicious, that's why it's joy giving and the vibrations flow with that auspiciousness all over the world.

The joy of Sahaja Yogis today in England, London should spread all over the world.

Marriage is meant to give joy, is meant to give cheerfulness, happiness and all the blissful things that we can think of achieving through our combination with two human beings, we can say. It's a very close and private relationship which has to be respected. It is not to be in any way dishonoured or indiscreetly squandered away. Those who cannot respect their partners in life will never be respected anywhere else.

Those who ill-treat or in any way try to spoil the image of their partners are harming themselves.

Try to understand each other, decorate each other, not correction, but decorating. Like an ornament, when added to a personality decorates that person, in the same way, try to decorate another person.

So the decorum and decency of life comes from this auspicious relationship. That must be maintained. Marriage is the bondage that keeps the society in its own beautiful bondage of Mother's grace.

Give up all your old ideas, all your so-called modern methods by which we have ruined our married lives. If you cannot enjoy your own wife or your own husband, there's nothing in this world you can enjoy, because the relationship is the most intimate and very sacred.

So you have to forget that you live independently, now you live as one person, one personality, supporting energy, complimenting each other in complete concord. This creates that peace which we are talking about.

If the marriages are not successful of two persons, how do we expect the whole nation to live happily? Think of it. At this level, the seeds of peace are sown.

So we have to be sensible people, that's the main part of marriage is: how far we are sensible about it. It's easy to get into Tantrums, get into tempers, to get into some sort of an indecent, indiscreet habit. But the person who is sensible never crosses a certain limit of that decency. Once you cross it, it is very easy to cross again. That's what today when we read about Rāma is that He is a Maryādā Purushottam. Maryādā is the boundary in which one has to remain.

A woman has to remain in her boundary and a man has to remain in his boundary.

Now to think that the woman is dominated by man or man is dominated by woman comes from a kind of a complex and this complex must be given up. You are complimentary to each other. You decorate each other. Never talk ill of your husbands and never talk ill of your wives. This is the key of having an exclusive married life. If you start talking of each other to others, that exclusiveness, that trust is finished.

So you have to trust each other. The trust in God, children imbibe when they start learning from their parents how they trust each other.

So you are the nest where the tomorrow's great children are to be born, to be established and to grow as great saints.

So it is such a great occasion that nine marriages have taken place. Nine is a very auspicious number for Me. There are nine planets, there are Nava Durgās. Nava Durgās are there. Nava Durgās are the nine forms of Durgā. Nine forms of Mother. And that is something so great today has happened. It's a very good day and all of you should understand the value of Sahaja Yoga marriages. You have to create a model marriage for all the English, for all the Americans, Europeans and also Indians. Because Indians learn from you all these things. If you have model marriages, they will go in for model marriages also.

So it is important for people who live in England to understand the depth of this occasion and the esteem of what you mean to the whole universe and to the peace.

The enjoyment is your own, is exclusive. But in Sahaja Yoga, it is so collective, you could see that. It is so collective, you have so many brothers and sisters and we are all enjoying the joy of you couples who have joined together as husband and wife.

So one has to understand that marriage should not make you narrow minded or selfish or in any way cut off from others. All relationships are beautiful in their own forms. Like you have brothers and sisters, you have mothers and fathers, you've got Sahaja Yoga and you have got the children. All in their own form should be given what they deserve, what they have to have, what the right thing is to be done.

Marriage gives you now a lever to be Dharmic, to be moral. This teaches you how to respect the chastity of others and your own chastity. We have to teach ourselves. You know how much damage has been already done by having bad marriages, divorces. We have to teach ourselves, we have to bear up a little bit, we have to educate, re-educate and improve ourselves and not to say that `I am such and such, what can I do?' You have to bring glory to the system of marriages because it is the system established by God Almighty, is not established by human beings, is a wrong idea. It is established by God Almighty to have an auspicious occasion where such an auspicious thing is taken, the sacredness of this is to be maintained and has to be done in such a way it is a very decent relationship. All the culture, all the beauty of gracious living flows through happy married life. Not vulgar, not showing, not cheap, but a dignified, enjoyable, cheerful, welcoming, giving companionship.

I am sure you all realise the importance of it and I am sure you all must have prepared yourself for this occasion. And I would like to see among all of you, who really shows the complete acceptance of your partners as part and parcel of your being and the graciousness with which you handle them. I bless you all. You are all saints and saints have married here. All the angels and all celestial beings must be singing praise of you.

So be careful and assume, assume your positions as in Hindi language, we say biraji, to assume that position in your full esteem and glory.

We all are with you all the time to help you to sustain your relationships. All of us must see that we sustain their relations, make them feel the sweetness of married life. All the teasing and all that should add up to their relationship and the whole enjoyment of their companionship should flow to us as the ripples flow towards the shores and again are repelled back into the ocean, in the same way, it should be such a give-and-take and such a beautiful thing. For that, the key of married life is purity.

Purity is the only way you can keep your married life absolutely all right. Whatever has happened in the past, just forget it. Now starts the new life. After this, don't hide anything from your wife or from your husband. Everything must be told, it should be straightforward life, absolutely a straightforward life, extremely pure. And this purity, everyday practiced will be seen very soon in life, that marriages always elevate a person. But purity is the key of married life. And I hope you will remember those words. Try to keep your mind pure. Do not suspect your wives, nor deceive, vice versa.

Keep a very straightforward relationship and learn how to be that way, your children will learn from you and there's no time taken now for the whole world to be transformed, once we learn this trust. Not in money alone, but in every way, a trust, a complete trust. As you trust yourself, you must trust the other, who is not other anymore.

So those who have been married before, those who are married, who are going to get married and those who are married today, for all of them, I bless you with a very deep enjoyment of this understanding, the joy of your purity, the beauty should flow all your lives, eternally.

May God bless you all.

[Shri Mataji wears a highly inflammable synthetic nylon sari, blue and white and walking around amid the rubble and dust directing the work.

Someone had left a blowtorch burning, pointing into the middle of the room. Shri Mataji walked in towards the blowtorch and did not appear to notice it. As she passed very close to it, the flame leapt right out of nozzle and went completely around Shri Mataji two or three times, at the height of her knees, forming a blue ring of fire a few centimetres away from the sari, then back into the torch. While all this was happening, Patrick Anslow gets horrified and take a dive across the room to move the torch. He lands in an undignified heap on his stomach in a pile of chalky dust at Shri Mataji's feet, having grabbed the blowtorch in order to point it away from Her. Then he realises what had happened and looks up in amazement to find Shri Mataji smiling down at him:] I am the fire, how could it hurt Me? The fire is just doing Ār.ti to Me.

Contents: 1981-12-00 Quote on Doing Things, Brompton Square, London, UK

[While painting with a brush:] In whatever you do, do it with all your love, attention and understanding.

Contents: 1981-12-07 House Warming Pūjā, Brompton Square, London, UK

[Shri Mataji talks:] So today is the day of celebrating a very different type of things is the House of your Mother that is called the Mūlādhāra itself, Moodha. And it is the Gaurī [UNCLEAR] till you get your realisation.

To come to England itself was really very [UNCLEAR righteous] and exciting, because this is the heart, here I had to come and work it out. And at this day, when We see so many of you, who are the cells, cells of this heart, who are awakened, who are so united, you all know each other, you understand each other, work together, pump the blood of love, it is really the most happiness-giving, you can say joy-giving thing, or the greatest fulfilment of My desire.

I see you here working like small children, playing about, joyous, happy, giggling. Helping each other.

Learning how to be one with each other. I really feel the blessings of God has come down on this earth.

You know that heart is the most important organ in the personality of the universe. And the human beings have to become aware of that point, who live here. That we have to live together, work together. If in the heart, even if there is one muscle tries to stand out it can feel immediately instant death. Instant death.

So all of you who are awakened have a very very special responsibility.

Now, I have noticed there are two types of people, as we know that. Left-sided and right-sided. And the third type which are the combination of both. And the fourth type who are in the center. We have to belong to the fourth type. And here, one sees how on the physical level we combine both the thing. One side is too much organizing and too much of thinking. Another side is lethargic, laziness, all these things are there. The net result of both is that you cannot produce any results. If you plan too much, if you think too much, you end up with it you are so fagged out to do anything. And the left-sided never get up to do it.

So ultimate result is that you achieve nothing. Even on the physical, the material, the mundane type day-to-day life.

So, when you are in the center you witness, you start witnessing. When you steady yourself in the center. Because some people are such that they start on the left, go to the right, they become so egooriented that it's impossible to deal with. But if you stay in the center, that's the fourth side, is staying in the center. Turīya is the fourth dimension. If you could stay on that then you become a witness. And that's the point where you start sucking the joy of every moment. Every moment, of everything, of every work, of every friendship, of every relationship, of every understanding.

You'll see some people who'll be here who'll develop tremendous respect and friendship with others.

Because they'll discover lot of qualities, lot of talents, lot of beauties in other people. There's no other way we can find out, I mean this is the greatest way one could provide, is to work together and to understand each other, appreciate each other's worth. And this will help us again to work out Sahaja Yoga. It was like a festival throughout I felt about the whole thing. And so blessed with so many children, helping Me here. The work doing is not so important as your self, steadying in the center. That's the main point.

It's not what work you do, what work you furnish, that's not so important. It's the steadiness within you, with which you do the job of whatever you do. It's the enjoyment of sharing with each other is the main point, is a training here.

I hope we'll have another chance again some time, maybe in India when we build our ashrams. Or maybe in England when we build our ashram here, I hope so. Then we'll have again the same opportunity to work together for joy sake. Not for anything, just for joy, for your steadiness. To be steady in the center. To put the attention in the center. Without steadying it you cannot ascend. Everybody seems to have gained, I felt when I saw them, they are much better now.

So we have to give up our misidentifications with our previous styles of life, previous type of living, previous type of executing any work and we have to understand that we are not to plan. This house is built for Me. I'm the power behind the whole universe, so you don't have to plan, you just start off. But once you start planning then you depend on yourselves, which is a very limited thing. You just start planning and you are left behind. Just get to it. When you start thinking of any problems and all that, then you are lagging behind. Just start off and everything will come forward, you'll find everything it will all be there just before you, before your eyes.

Like the other day they said we don't find a wood we need very much of a particular thickness. And they were trying to sort of reduce the thickness by rubbing it with some very, very harsh type of noisy stuff, which nobody could bear.

So, I just said, “What, what kind of a thing you want? See ahead of you." And just in front of them was lying that same type of wood that they wanted. Just ahead of them. It was just there. You see how it's happening? What's working out? It's the Hanumāna who works out many things for you. It is the Gaurī who is to be adored. And it's the duty of Hanumāna to help you out. He plays tricks with you. Always, you see he is the one who makes you think, he makes you plan, he makes you everything and then topples you down. You see, that is his style, always. And he has made mischief with so many people like that. You see, he made them think, plan, plan, plan, plan and ultimately they find all plans fail.

So, if you are too organized, you'll never enjoy. You have to enjoy each other's company, you have to enjoy all little little things there are. If there is everything perfect, or absolutely sort of a machine-like, when you go on tick-tick-tick-tick-finished, there's no enjoyment. You have to lose your way somewhere.

You have to find something out. You have to go about, you have to ask someone. Like making mistakes also is important.

Sometimes if you make mistakes, like somebody makes mistake by putting the thing in an angular way, a decoration in an angular way and it turned out to be a very beautiful thing, you see.

So making mistakes is also good. This is what I'm trying to show to all of you. By mistake also, if you are driven to someplace you might find something very great.

So, our time is never wasted. Wherever we are, we are. We are never lost. We are never lost for anything. Time stops for us.

So once you understand that we are not to worry about these things, which the people worry. We are not to worry about things for which people just give their lives. We are here for joy. And joy will come to us, whatever it is.

So we should seek joy, happiness, friendship and this is a very, very good opportunity. Luckily the builder ran away, I was very happy. I wanted to have this opportunity, some opportunity where all of us could get together and work together and have some nice time together.

It's really very enjoyable. I enjoyed it thoroughly and I hope we'll have more chances to do that.

The more you are in collectivity and in the blessing state, the better it would be. Always in your other lives, in your other things also. Because you are realised Souls. You are saints, you are different people from others. You have the help of the Gods, all the angels are helping you, everybody is helping you. But when you depend too much on your understanding, on your planning, then you go out. Then you cannot, then you can never enjoy the planning of God, the help of God, the complete drama. You suddenly find, oh God, it's there, all done for you. How beautiful it is done, how things working out. It's very interesting.

This house is a very, very old, old, old, old house, you see. And even if such an old house can be made so beautiful, what about human beings? They can, all become very beautiful, glorified and very active in Sahaja Yoga. Very active. The whole thing that you are experiencing of the joy of recreating something that is already within. Whatever God has created, human beings as such it's all in a mess. I feel human beings are in a mess. And they are to be recreated, they are to be improved, they are to be worked out.

For that, who is going to work it? It's you. You are the ones who have to do it. I can create [UNCLEAR houses/houses after houses], I can create universes, as you know that. But I have to use you. You are the channel, without you I just can't do it. And that's why you have to be very, very alert. Very alert and attentive as to how you go about.

Now, today is the first days for the housewarming ceremonies. And another is the birth of Christ. I won't be here, I'll be in India. We'll celebrate in India the birth of Christ actually. It should be more celebrated here than in India, but somehow or other you always have snowy Christmas. Which was not there at the time of Christ, when he was gone, there was no snow, you see. But in England, it's a special blessing that you have snowy Christmas. And this time I hope you'll enjoy all of you a nice Christmas of great warmth and love among yourselves.

Christ came on this earth with a very, very great message for all of us. And He has done so much, you can see that without His awakening we cannot get realisation. You have to pass through Him, He has made this place. To create the Āgñyā Chakra in that beautiful way and to keep it alive and to give enlightenment is a very difficult thing. It's a very funny plug into which you have placed Him. Because of the modern style of life people become against Christ. It develops your ego and goes against Christ. If you develop your super ego, of course it goes against Christ.

So both the things, ego or super ego, both the things are to be looked after by one person. Both contrasting things are to be looked after by one person.

It's too much. And these both things, those both problems we have.

So, then, when we are born on this earth, we are born in innocence. Which is also so rare because of the way we live, the way the fashion is you can say, the way the ideas are. But you all have to be against it, absolutely against it. Collectively, if you oppose these ideas, you'll stand for Christ. You must write to all the churches, all the people. What have you done? What have you done to our people, where is the morality behind it? There is no morality, people are so immoral. How can they become saints? This is not the way, to just have just church buildings and run the Soho land for the church. Church is owning the Soho land. Can you imagine? All these things you must oppose and you should say, “We'd like to know why, why should you, when Christ has said, `Thou shalt not have adulterous eyes.' What about the chastity part of it? When are you going to look after?" All the Christian nations are just the opposite of Christ principles. And so you all have to prepare yourselves, talk about it.

So there should be no more silence. There should be no more silence. Public opinion is a very, very big thing in the modern times. That's the very, very big thing you have got and silence is to be abhorred.

Absolutely. Because people who are doing wrong have a conspiracy of silence. They conspire and then they keep saying that “all right, doesn't matter." Democracy, as far as Chile is concerned, all right. But as far as Argentina is concerned will be this way. It's like that. You see, you keep a silent mouth. Whatever is not bad for us is good, that's how. And then, “Don't say anything, don't say anything." Sahaja Yogis have to be extremely bold and extremely outspoken and they have to say that this is all wrong, absurd.

It is not for us. Not that they are uncomfortable, but they are against life, against Christ, against our emancipation and this has to be given up.

And today we must vow that now as your house is settled down, your backbone is strengthened, you have to take a vow that you will stand for Christ. And for His great morals and for the great things He said, that we have to be. And we have to tell people, `What are you doing? This is wrong. You cannot do it.' They are more vocal when it comes to something degrading, like drinking. If you don't drink they'll say, “Why don't you drink?" They will force you. “Why don't you drink? You must drink, you must have this." But when it comes to morality, nobody dares anything. We don't discuss religion, very good. This is the silent conspiracy. We don't discuss religion, because if you discuss we are not religious.

So people have to speak about it. All of you have to speak. Then only your left Viśhuddhi will be all right. Now the only guilt that will be working in the Sahaja Yogis will be that for Sahaja Yoga we are not doing anything.

You must speak. You must talk about it. You must give realisation. Move your hands, move your legs.

You have to walk across for God's work, so even if you have to beg you have to do that. This is God's work. All of us have to do that, God's work, with all dedication, with all surrendering and with all love and enjoyment.

So, may God bless you all.

I'm very happy. C.P. is very much thankful to you and he also wants to say a few words to you. He might come after the Pūjā. He said, “I would like to address to them." He's so surprised and he said, “These are really transformed people, I can see they are transformed. They are not normal human beings." You see, we can [UNCLEAR].

So it's nice to get a certificate from a person who has not said. He said, “I see now, I have seen them before." Specially he saw Marcus long time back and today Marcus he says is so different he says, “Everybody seems to be so much changed and so much different that I'm amazed how human beings can be transformed." He says it's visible from their faces how they are happy with each other, how they are satisfied, how they are kind to each other and all that. He was very much surprised how they are so friendly and how they are so generous and all that. He was really surprised. And how they laugh and enjoy he was really surprised. He told Me that. At least ten times he has told Me, “That really surprises me how you could transform these people into such beautiful thing." So it's really a big certificate I think from him because he normally doesn't give certificates like that.

So I was really very much enamoured and just to make your Mother very happy, he's bought two sarīs for Me. They, which you will see later on, he has bought two gold things for Me, just to glorify the Mother of so many children. The wise men bought presents for Christ's Mother. You see in the same way I felt today, the way he brought sarīs for Me and gold for Me and all that. Not for anything off his personal but in the way he saw that Sahaja Yoga has worked out. He was very surprised.

So may God bless you.

This one is made by some Indians and it's very good. It is made by hand, you see, that's what is wrong, I found out. It's all made by hand. Because if it is not made by hand you'll find those joins somewhere, you see, there are no joins in that.

So, they have made of course, two different things, but then they have tried to molds, these are molds and then they have put it together. Ceramic.

All right, so should we have the Pūjā now? [Sir C.P. talks:] Brothers and sisters, we are Sahaja Yogis, Sahaja Yoginis, we are friends. It's very difficult to speak before a gathering like this. But all I can say is I am, I regard myself as very greatly privileged to be a part of this boundless family that I see here. You know I am serving, myself, the United Nations system and the United Nations system is based on idealism. On the belief that all human beings are of one family.

But that is the basis, that is the philosophy, that is the foundation and we have to make that work. But we, those who are so privileged to serve that system, have to work in such a way that this philosophy is realised. That is one thing, the way of the United Nations. It's a very, very hard, long way.

But what I have found myself is that, in the world of today, the problems that we face are not problems of material well-being, science, technology, evolution, they have all brought within our reach the resources which Mother Earth makes available and all of us can be happy. All of us can be reasonably well-off.

And yet we are not. Is it because technology has not advanced, is it because our knowledge of science is inadequate? No, there is only one major element. That major element is the human element.

It is the human being, human being at his best that can make this world a happy place for all of us.

In other words, if mankind has to live and has to survive, you know we are living in a dangerous world, in a nuclear age. If mankind has to survive, he can survive only on the principle of love. On the basis that there is a great human evolution, spiritual evolution. Spiritual evolution does not mean that you get away from materialism. It means that the perspectives are right. That the prime importance is given to the spirit. It is spiritual evolution which alone can make people feel that they are one, that they are part of the family. Now the message that you are giving to the world, that is a message which the world needs.

It needs a new Messiah, some one who will tell the world that we are all one. But if we are all one in reality, we must be not from just our lips but from our hearts. We must sincerely believe that we are one and if that message can get across then all human beings will survive and mankind will be at peace with itself and will be happy.

And when I see this family, my idealism gets greatly strengthened. Because in you I see a wonderful gathering of people. From all parts of the world, speaking different languages, professing different religions.

And yet being together as if for ever and ever you have been together. As if you belong to one family.

The way I have seen you all, for example, here in this house or anywhere else, working together as if it is a festivity, it's not work. No matter what the problems, facilities none, implements very few. But with marvelous spirit.

It is that spirit which is within you, which fills me with emotion, with sentiment, with feelings of admiration. And I feel there is still hope for mankind. What you are doing is a practical demonstration of human nature, when it is developed, when it is at its best.

You know there have been philosophers, all kinds in this world. Philosophers often have said, human nature is essentially nasty and brutish and short.

So said [UNCLEAR Jack Hobbes] I don't agree with that at all. You may look at something and propound a philosophy, but your understanding of it is totally wrong. There are others who have held that human nature must be seen at its best if you want to know what human nature is. And I'm not trying to please you, but honestly when I see you and your faces, enlightened, kind, noble, I feel really elated. And it is this which fills me with strength. Gives me strength, because in my own work, which is at a much lower level, you are at a very high level, I get strengthened by it. But there are ever so many frustrations in workaday life. When I come to you, I'm near you, I feel that there is hope for mankind and we can all look forward to a better future.

Now, this Lady has been with me for many, many years. We got married decades ago. And She has been a source of great strength to me as a wife, but I know in what affection and respect you hold Her.

And this relationship again is a fantastic relationship. I can assure you that She always helps for everyone.

Everyone, not just now. We have had, for example, relations in our family. My own daughters and the children of others living with us. She always taught, in reality, all of them to be the precisely of the same.

And today, She probably belongs to me 0.1%, She belongs 99.9% to all of you.

So I am happy about this because I want to see this kind of relationship develop, become a reality. Where all of us can say mine and thine and ours together. And this is the way you are.

What can I say to you on this occasion? I want to express only my genuine joy, admiration and a prayer.

That the Almighty may strengthen this spark of Divinity within you. That you may be the forbears of a new message for mankind. Your messages for mankind, they don't begin with millions. They always begin with a few, but a growing number. And your strength of will, your determination, will prevent a new [UNCLEAR]. You do not know what perilous days we are passing through. That's on one side, but there is on the other side another movement which, to my way of thinking, is the movement that the world needs today.

So may I end my words, by expressing my very sincere gratitude. Not only for what you are doing, but much more for the new [UNCLEAR message] that you are [UNCLEAR delivering/building]. As a citizen of the world, I pray that your efforts may succeed and you may have glorious success. Please remain strengthened, firm in your belief. The work you are doing is what the world needs. And in the spirit of humility which I see around you, idealism, joy, mutual love. Please carry on and regard me as a part of that. Small part of that endeavour. And thank you again for giving me this wonderful opportunity to be with you all this evening. I am delighted that in this humble abode we are all together and we are making a beginning. With joy, with this wonderful togetherness. And I'm too full now of emotion to be able to say more.

May God bless you all.

A Merry Christmas, a Happy New Year to all of you.

Thank you very much. [Applause.]

Contents: 1981-12-12 Conversation with Sahaja Yogis, Brompton Square, London, UK (date not sure)

Shri Mataji: I think these people might have taken it... Ask them.

Sahaja Yogi: I have asked them Mother, I just asked them... And he say no... I can't physically get hold of them searching it.

Shri Mataji:... must be somewhere.

Sahaja Yogi: You said you saw it in the morning in the...

Another Sahaja Yogi: Yes in the Mother's room...

A third

Sahaja Yogi: Grazyna was tidying up... she could have put it in plastic bag also.

Shri Mataji: If it's in My room...

Sahaja Yogi: Is Grazyna there?

Shri Mataji: May be something like here.

Sahaja Yogi: See I can get it.

Sahaja Yogi: Grazyna!

Shri Mataji: Fergy!

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother

Shri Mataji: Chop it off now.

Sahaja Yogini: There is no material now.

Shri Mataji: No but chopping off.

Sahaja Yogini: None needs chopping off.

Shri Mataji: No material? What do you want?

Sahaja Yogini: We need some light, lights.

Shri Mataji: Alright as soon as it comes here...

Shri Mataji: Where is it?

Sahaja Yogini: Ah Nick! Nick and Verana are...

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: They are downstairs.

Shri Mataji:... if you want to do something up there...

Sahaja Yogi: We have to know exactly where the door is.

Shri Mataji: The door is here.

Sahaja Yogi: Let me just push it in one inch. Hold the frame.

Sahaja Yogi:... We don't have any frame.

Shri Mataji: This frame is there. You have frame. Frame is there. This will hold. It will hold the...

here...

We have another one. Not this one. We have another one. Very simple one. That's just for show there... doesn't hold it. Just for the show because the actual one is very simple. Then it should be left a little space on top also for the beating to be.

Sahaja Yogi: Do you want `beating' on the top...

Shri Mataji: You have?

Sahaja Yogi: No we have just mirror going against the ceiling on the top it has to be on the other.

Shri Mataji: It has to be there if you are putting...

So you have got the building... I'll show you.

[Sahaja Yogis singing: la-la-lalalalalalala Glooooooooooria.] [Song `Mother and child'.]

Shri Mataji: Shoes taken out... Are you all well? Better?

Sahaja Yogi: Satisfied Mother.

Shri Mataji: What are you feeling now?

Shri Mataji: It will go away. Ha. How are you?

Sahaja Yogi: Well Mother.

Shri Mataji: How are you?

Sahaja Yogi: Got Pain here Mother.

Shri Mataji: How are you? Alright? How are you? [Sahaja Yogis stand with hands open.]

Shri Mataji: Eating all the bhoots.

Shri Mataji: Nani!... that paper... one of the...

Somewhere

Sahaja Yogi: Weren't there some rolls left there? I thought there were some left downstairs?

Shri Mataji: Forget it. We get it by Monday. If you show him he can get it on Monday... telephone to them.

Sahaja Yogi: We just want cutlery.

Shri Mataji: They don't have not anymore in the stock.

Sahaja Yogi: Oh really?

Shri Mataji: Put up... in the heart, in the heart.

Shri Mataji: Where?

Sahaja Yogi: Where does he reside? Shri Mataji [showing the stomach]: In the stomach.

That is the bhur bhuva swaha... takes away all your... swallows everything.

Sahaja Yogi: Swāhā?

Shri Mataji: Swa-ha.

Sahaja Yogi: What does it mean Mother?

Shri Mataji: Swāhā bhur bhuva swaha is the essence of Agni: swaha.

Sahaja Yogi: Essence of agni?

Shri Mataji: Swāhā means swallowing power or the burning power... all that burns... swaha...

Sahaja Yogi: That's why we are doing this... swaha?

Shri Mataji: Bhūr means this Mother Earth then bhuva. Bhuva is all that is created all this universe that is created. Swāhā is power to burn, all that is burning which burns down. It's in the stomach. This Power for...

Sahaja Yogi: So it's an aspect of Lord Viṣhṇu?

Shri Mataji: Viṣhṇu's aspect. Rāma's brother Lakshmana.

Sahaja Yogi: Agni?

Shri Mataji: Yes it's the one and he is the one who actually is like a serpent in the stomach he stays always where Viṣhṇu resides that's his brother Sheesha. He was Arguṇa.

In his next life as Viṣhṇu he was Arguṇa. Sheesha is the snake representing the Agni the stomach you see. You any problems you get that kind of pain you know that's...

Better now? Better? Little on this side.

Mm... put this... virus This one. Not them you can see all of these sitting there photographing Shri Mataji: It's all going to be a historical report whatever you say.

You must come forward.

Some of you are hanging there come forward. Come along... we are taking your tapes how you call them, the pictures.

Sahaja Yogi: Videos

Shri Mataji: Videos, come along.

Sahaja Yogi: We have free lunch tonight.

Shri Mataji: Just come that side.

Everybody is waiting for an invitation. Come along. Left behind. Yes. Quite nice I did not understand why you people take too much soup but now coming here I know it is so cold that you want to have something hot all the time.

These two come along this side. Better. Left. Here.

For a while now... How many lots you have brought?

Sahaja Yogi: Er three Mother.

Shri Mataji: So we have to get wall out... I don't know how many.

Sahaja Yogi: What about all those Crakes Mother?

Shri Mataji: They have to be brought also but I... to do the rest of it there must be some more.

Sahaja Yogi: More furniture upstairs Mother, more crakes suitcases there.

Shri Mataji: That's all? Boxes?

Sahaja Yogi: Downstairs. There is a lot of furniture.

Shri Mataji: There is a lots of them downstairs.

Sahaja Yogi: A large table, a very large table

Shri Mataji:... table for the dining...

Sahaja Yogi: Settees.

Shri Mataji: Sittings?

Shri Mataji: You see tomorrow when he has put the tape at work then we can get furniture move furniture from mom gardens... but at Linda's place we have sent some furniture Now your hearts will be badged and how chiseling will be done. We are doing the chiseling you see.

When you are chiseling something I am chiseling there something else.

So don't say that if we have to take out the paper plaster you have to take out... to take too this is nothing but conditioning not only victorian but this conditioning of ages. That's only victorian that's what? a hundred years at the most... old conditioning there, all your forefathers they have left lots of things and all that kinds of problems you have developed because you came to this country, some of you lived in this country, all sorts of things... and your hearts get broken very easily so I have to make a solid fibre glass heart. [Laughter.]... arrange it should be nicely skirted so there is no harm so that nobody gets hurt it's all building up and what is the essence of it, that you should be able to enjoy, to be able to enjoy yourself, your own building, your own house, yourself, if you do not enjoy, what is the use of building your house, isn't it? you can not enjoy your own house. I don't know if it will be alright upstairs.

Shri Mataji: I am going away... on the 20th I have to leave so may be next weekend we will never each other, this is the last weekend and I will be back in Australia

Sahaja Yogi: Maureen is asking when will you go to France?

Shri Mataji: Futuristic...

Sahaja Yogi: To arrange things before leaving...

Shri Mataji: Is it that won't be that much? I'll be going in May. I think. May. In May I'm going all Europe. America we should keep it in September? Not earlier, may be end of May. To be on the safe side, nobody wants you in august anywhere.

So May June July, may be September, October I should go to Wisden October we should keep... In May I should work in London I should say, by that time I am sure you... going to be important year 82... I have to see what the English Sahaja Yogis are going to do now. It is written down so that you will be chiseled out here so that you can go across everywhere to do Sahaja Yoga. That's written by... Blake, I am not saying that... is something that will go like that I think ah? you have to chop out you see and see just like we are tidying the whole house just in the same way comes from first floor to second, go on tidying up and everywhere in the country you can go, talk about it, say things, you have to now start talking, the silence is not going to help you at all. Till little children grow up better they already have started talking, like Olympia will go out and say, pthhhetha. The way she was behaving coming to Me that day. Every time you said something she was like that [bending her head] happened the most similar last time. All the time: also tatatatatat and then little this girl Aniki, I feel for her very much, she stood up there: somebody came and touched My feet, she said: “She is not at all alright, not alright." Till they grow up, we have to prepare the ground for them and for everybody else. Basics are to be alright, that's important otherwise you have to again open it and again correcting it so you get so fed up and if you have to read all the things you don't like it isn't it? So at least wherever you are you hold on to it like a peg being put there, don't fall back If you fall back then again I find it difficult to raise you. Now most of you have gained a lot I must say from all over... Denis should have come today I wanted to see him the only person who is left out, Wendy might come on Tuesday she seems to be better... and another is David Backster. He could come and see Me before I leave, it would be a good idea, another one who has turned out to be a medium. Journalists poor things they must be already mediums already. Yesterday they were telling about some journalist who went to Omeni, a lady and she completely embarrassed him, he said that why are you wearing such a dress? Or something to her... she was wearing a long cape so she said if you don't like it I take it out. She took it out it was said so embarrassing, he ran away you are Brahmachari... it was too much for her and I am told she went to Gaddaff. Why? he was horrible...

she went there and the photograph she was even afraid to take the photograph... she made lots of fun of him she must be herself a funny woman if you do all that.

So those who are coming to India? I don't know how many are there going from London

Sahaja Yogi: About 20.

Shri Mataji: twenty from London?

Sahaja Yogi: From England.

Shri Mataji: England. But from Switzerland?

Sahaja Yogi: May be Tierry, yes, Tierry may come.

Shri Mataji: Of god! Not him! Oh... Indians get after his life, he won’t like it, who else?

Sahaja Yogi: somebody called Janvier, Jeanaville and Marie Matier might come.

Shri Mataji: He is coming for a short time.

Sahaja Yogi: Martin.

Shri Mataji: And these three teachers who came elderly ladies.

Sahaja Yogi: They are coming.

Shri Mataji: They were great when they came to Rome and they said our lives are completely changed... they have come directly, but what time will they reach here.

Sahaja Yogi: See everybody should come on the same flight from paris. They are all told to come for that flight.

Shri Mataji: And from Paris?

Sahaja Yogi: From Paris it's Marie, Anique, Alexander, Natalie, William and Dominique also Dominique you know from Paris?

Shri Mataji: Yes I know.

Sahaja Yogi: Benua may be coming, Robbert and somebody called Madeline.

Shri Mataji: And did they give you the letter from that fellow whose child what's the name?

Sahaja Yogi: Oh yes.

Shri Mataji: He is very interested in Sahaja Yoga. Now this Ubal. When is she going now?

Sahaja Yogi: They are going back to Australia after Christmas.

Shri Mataji: Oh I see.

Sahaja Yogi: She may get posted he is may be going to come to London.

Shri Mataji: That's good.

So how many are coming from America also?

Sahaja Yogi: At the present we have not got anyone left.

Shri Mataji: But Michael?

Sahaja Yogi: I could not get through him on the phone to trace him, I will try again tonight

Shri Mataji: Really? Why not I have given him the letter?

Sahaja Yogi: There is no telephone line. He does not have telephone.

Shri Mataji: Why not send him a telegram? Did you read the letter, the second one?

Sahaja Yogi: he is very keen on going to India.

Shri Mataji: You should say we have reserved the seat or something, alright? Ask Inesh to reserve a seat.

Better? So who else? Please stop the...

Now I am going away who is going to cleanse? Now you have to cleanse yourself... all of you. Look you see he is sitting here. Can you see better? He's there.

Now put your right hand towards that. It's fire isn't it? Holiness of this fire he was the Mother of Brahma... and one of the greatest yogis you can think, he had to go with Rāma for fourteen years. fourteen years he went to jungle with him because he was said to forest exile and there he had no wife, for fourteen years he was without a wife. Rāma had a wife he had no wife. The wife was left behind and one of the sisters of Rāvaṇa, Rākshasa, she came to entice him. He got so angry with her for that that he cut her nose... I think you are a very beautiful woman you'd better go and wash the feet of my wife. And so powerful he was, so powerful and he could never bear a single word said to Rāma against Me... He was getting to big tempers for that. See how it is lit. He is happy now is burning One of the things you can see how things can be sure that fire which is a purifying force it's a purifier, purifies everything, if gold has something wrong it goes burning it anything that is wrong he burns it. In Sahaja Yoga we use fire also. This is Lakshmana is the Sheesha. The story about him is like this: his daughter when he was with Viṣhṇu Sheesha's daughter was called as Sunucha and she was taken away by a Rākshasa called as Neguṇa [he was a son of Rāvaṇa] and he was very unhappy about it and this Neguṇa married this girl... funny situation, so Lakshmana wanted to get back his daughter to save her.

Contents: 1981-12-25 Christmas Pūjā, Chelsham Road, London, UK

[Tape begins with Christmas carols sung by the Sahaja Yogis.] I wanted to be with you people in a Christmas day, but it never happened before. It has so chanced that I have to be Here with you today and on the New Year.

Something good has to happen I hope next year, some good luck has to come.

Christ's work was very unique. [UNCLEAR The whole thing/Working] was a very unique thing, was planned in such a manner. [UNCLEAR Because] He was to be born in a place, it was very humble, very humble place. Because He came to teach us humility. The word `teaching' in English language means telling about it, talking about it. But when I say `teach' I mean create, you activate [UNCLEAR things/with human life/humility].

Actually He came, on this earth first of all, to create a space within us, at the Āgñyā Chakra, by removing the hurdles of the ego, hurdles of the ego. He had to talk of humility that time, because Roman's were ruling and they were very arrogant, very crude, uncouth, underdeveloped, we should say not at all evolved. Like, you can say some of the animals, which came, into being and were thrown out of the evolutionary process later on because they were useless, too aggressive or too big for their size or some sort of a thing like that.

In the same way Roman's were. If you see their body, even now painted sometimes, you find that it was not like a human body, it was like some animals you see, the muscles and all that was very grotesque.

There was no softness, no roundishness, on their faces.

So, this ego of Roman's affected everyone whom they ruled because when you have somebody as an ideal before you and always people see who dominates them and they... such person becomes their ideal.

So you start imbibing that kind of a character within yourself.

You see somebody who's condescending, you also become suddenly condescending. You see somebody who is very egoistical and tries to show off, you also put up airs. You can see this everyday happening, that a boss comes in who is a very, very airy person, everybody in the office is like that. And that's how Romans affected the people in those days by creating their own ideals, people thought they are the ideals, they are the best, because they had produced results according to them. They were so powerful, they thought this was the power. And that's why they followed their methods many people who were not even Romans.

The another humbler group was affected because they were hurt, their ego was hurt.

So they became equally violent in the sense that they were so touchy that you could not say anything to them, they would just come and [UNCLEAR bark] you. Frightened people. This kind of character, is, very dangerous also, because that gives you some sort of very bad diseases can give you leprosy, people develop leprosy with that kind of character, if you develop a barking temperament of a nature by which you just jump at people.

Nerves become absolutely sort of shattered [UNCLEAR with/away] and the leprosy is the disease of the nerves.

Those people who always keep themselves under such strain and jump at every person who comes along are very dangerously placed as far as their nerves are concerned and then a horrible type of virus you know that which creates leprosy attacks these nerves, can attack because they are very vulnerable, these kind of people who jump onto others. That's why there was so much leprosy in that small little place there were so many lepers because their nerves were shattered.

In those circumstances, Christ was born. But He was not only born just for Romans or for anyone, but He was born for the whole world. Because ego had started growing in human beings at that time and had developed quite a lot as far as the Romans were concerned. And that demarcated the way human beings were going on.

So they had to be controlled first of all and Christ had to come at a time where a balance was to be established.

So the first thing that was said about Christ throughout in all these music and songs you have heard now is that `Peace on Earth'. He came to create peace on earth. That's only possible when you are in balance, first of all, secondly when you are realised. Both things should be there.

If only you get your realisation and there is no balance in you, there cannot be peace. But peace never means in any way is a personality that recedes back, runs away from situations, escapists, which does not want to face the reality, never means that.

Christ is pictured very differently from what He was. He was the strongest personality, the healthiest man [UNCLEAR who here] and He would not stand any nonsense, nobody could take liberties with Him.

But He would not Himself take liberties with others, of course no question. Extremely compassionate, extremely kind but very powerful. This is the balance.

So He came on this earth to create peace within our minds. On this earth there is no peace, why? What's wrong? It's only the human beings are not peaceful. [UNCLEAR When is this peace going to be settled] within yourself? Who is violent? Human beings are violent to each other. Ego developed subtler ways and subtler ways, then provocative ways started coming up also from the superego. Sly methods from the superego.

The conflict started. And at that time to overcome that conflict, the best thing was to create a space in Āgñyā, in the center, in thoughtless awareness. That's how Christ had to come on this earth.

The birth is very, very symbolic. Because He's nothing but Chaitanya, He's nothing but the Word as you call it, Logos, I don't know what all words you have got in language.

The Shabda as they call it, the Omkāra was to be born in this way, because He had no body. And the subtlest of subtle He had to be. Because the work was very subtle, Sukshma, that's why He was born like that.

It's very poetic to see Him lying down in a manger for people, that look at the King of Heaven should...

[Aside.] So the, story of His birth was very interesting tale. [UNCLEAR Was a] symbol that He came in a humble place, because people were so proud of their money, so arrogant because of their power that they had. Even today all the Christian nations are like that.

Surprisingly, Christian nations should be so arrogant and so power drunk and think no end of themselves because they're afraid. Think of the Christian nations being very poor, do you think they would have had racial problem? They don't have racial problems with Arabs. Not at all. As simple as that. No problem with Arabs. They have no race, Arabs have no race, they've money, money race. Those people who hanker after money are only bowing down to money. They have no respect for anything else but for money. Those who have money and think of money are another lot which is going to go out of the circulation of evolution.

They are going out already.

The second lot is the one which was like Romans. They had a Paul, they all finished because they were power drunk. They drank away, their civilization completely finished off and they're out. You've seen Portugal, you'll be amazed, it's happening there. The ego of Portuguese was so great you can't believe that that country is a desolate country, there's nothing now, big-big, huge big buildings which you see and you know they must have been rich once upon a time. And there's nothing left with them except for their antique shops which are never open.

This kind of a ego is again revived and that revival came up, imagine in the name of Christ. Imagine.

They purchased people to be converted as Christians. They [UNCLEAR] gave them money, is all money, money propositions, money enterprises going on. Jews the same, then the Christians the same.

He was born in a manger. For a little child to be put in a manger by the Mahālakṣhmī, it's too much.

See how symbolic it is Mahālakṣhmī, it's not Lakṣhmī, but Mahālakṣhmī to put the child in the manger, no place, we have at least Chelsham Road [Sahaja Yogis laugh], Warwick Road, Bramham Gardens, Brompton Square.

But the child was born and was put in the manger, the humblest thing in this world is a manger, the humblest of all, a crib, the highest is put in the manger.

So, what do we do? We think we should also sleep in a manger, we become like Christ. There are people who believe in such nonsensical things. They think that, you see, if they have all the money, they drink and do all kinds of things you see. I met one man one day, was all drunk lying near a church saying: “I'm Christ, I'm Christ." Must have got this idea that He's lying there because He's very humble. This kind of ridiculous caricature of the whole beautiful symbol is followed everywhere.

So the arrogant and the egotistical might say that: “Why, if He was the King, why was He born in the manger? Why was He kept in the manger?" Everybody will have their own concept. Even there are people in India, who are stupid people not wise, who say that He must have done lots of bad Karmas to be born like that. Because to them, Karmas give you more money. [UNCLEAR].

God is not so unintelligent. If you do good Karmas you become men of God. You become seekers.

You get the blessings of God by your good Karmas. You become religious people. Not moneyed people who can go to pubs and waste their lives. This is the idea they have got that by doing good Karmas you become rich and become even worse for next life.

Some people may believe like that. But He never did any Karmas. He was in [UNCLEAR a Karma/inakarma] Himself.

So no question of His punishment and all that, [UNCLEAR] it was just a drama but very symbolic it is.

Now see, a little child put in the manger, no comfort, can there be a comfort in a manger? Think like that. All the Christian nations are after their comforts. Aren't we? What we think is uncomfortable, should be comfortable. Christians should never seek comfort, that is one of the messages of Christ's birth.

If they seek comfort then they are away from Christ. Because He was born in a manger. No comfort was provided for Him. But that doesn't mean that you should assume some sort of a funny habitation, it doesn't mean that also, I mean I have to tell the other side of it you see. Copying Him is not the way. Is not the way by copying Him that you will become Christ but by imbibing His qualities within you.

I've known people who live in a pigsty but once they get to a better life they want everything else.

So imbibing the quality of humility and adjustment. Humility and adjustment. Anywhere you're put, anytime. Very particular about time, if somebody has to come at ten o'clock and if he has to do a job, if it is... he's delayed by five minutes he starts breaking all the heavens, just can't bear it, can't bear it five minutes he has to wait and if he has to wait ten minutes he's out for a pub, finished, he cannot be...

pacify himself unless and until he takes a drink This is the situation of a volcanic human mind.

So the peace has to come. How? If you seek comfort you'll become lazy lumps. You'll sleep off, you'll be lotus-eaters, but if you [UNCLEAR not] seek comfort then peace will come. Because for our own comfort for our own selfish comfort of this body we torture everybody else.

The other day only I was telling that only in the Western countries it is there, not in India. If somebody's sleeping even till twelve o'clock you cannot wake up that person, is a irreligious act, I mean in India anybody who sleeps after six o'clock he'll feel ashamed of himself to be sleeping that time, he'll be apologetic the whole day and he'll say that: “Oh, God, I'm sorry I slept." It's regarded as sinful to sleep so late as six o'clock in the morning. I mean any country like that.

So comfort has no end. There's no end to it. Comfort crawls upon you, what is comfort? Let us see, very simple. In Christ's symbolic life is very deep significance is this that comfort is nothing but the matter overpowering the Spirit. Do you see that point? If you're sitting on a chair then you can't sit on the ground. If you're sitting on a sofa set you can't sit on a chair. If you are sitting on a velvet then you cannot sit on an ordinary thing. Is the matter always over powering the Spirit and He was the Spirit, what does it matter to Him whether straw or anything? It is insurmountable, nothing can displease the Spirit of these material things, [UNCLEAR with the matter other wise will take] [UNCLEAR away/over].

That is the thing is one has to understand that He was the Spirit and if you have to become the Spirit first of all try to give up your comforts, lash your bodies a little bit, I'm sorry on a Christmas day I have to say that, because He was also lashed that way. If you see on the day He was born, for a mother to put the child in a crib that was a manger is too much of a sacrifice. How much you want to do for your children, you see, dress them up properly, do this, do that. [UNCLEAR If] the child was to be put in the manger, was put in the manger just for you people to learn that comfort crawls on the Spirit. We always seek the comfort. This one thing is a message to all of us. If you seek the bath... your room, “I must have a bathroom attached to that." Again comfort. “What about my wife, where is She going to sleep?" She'll sleep as others are sleeping. And you will sleep as you, you are as... others are sleeping.

Nobody is going to die, of that be sure, I can assure you. Sahaj Yoga is very hard thing that way you see, very few people die once they come to Sahaj Yoga [Sahaja Yogis laugh].

Some of them should.

[Sahaja Yogis laugh more.] But they don't, they continue, they go on giving realisation, they go on doing everything, still they continue. Escape all the accidents, escape all the problems and they continue. But this is a short time, which must be used, it's a very, very concrete thing I wanted to tell you today. It's nice to talk of Christ's birth, be happy about it, sing songs, go into a mood like that, but really I tell, you it's a very symbolic thing for all of us to know that He slept, in a manger.

And the another symbolicism is that what did we offer Him? What did this world offer Him at that time? The another symbolicism is that they offered Him a manger. Are we going to do the same to our Mother? This is one thing one has to know. Manger is, after all is alright it doesn't catches anything, it has no left Nābhī, right Nābhī, nothing [Sahaja Yogis laugh]. It doesn't have all these problems. There are no thorns, there's no Āgñyā, there's nobody screwing up into your stomach, suddenly feel, “Oh God don't want to see” so you are the thistles in that manger which have to be soft to give comfort to Christ, you have to become so soft and so sweet, so clean and pure, because a new babe is going to be put in the manger. You are the kushas is the thistle. And for a yogi the kushasana is the one who sits on the kusha only. So He was a yogi [UNCLEAR He] came on the kusha alright, but now what about you? To receive Him in the manger, this is the manger. The Mother is preparing the manger to make the child feel very happy and comforted, the thistles. Adamance, obstinacy, harshness, ugliness, all must be [UNCLEAR broke/cut/curbed down/worked out]. It's very symbolic, it's very symbolic I must say His birth, why, why one should think why was He born like that? People might give any amount of interpretations, but I know because I've done it. I'm trying to soften you, I'm trying to mold you, sometimes I have to be harsh with you, sometimes I have to be angry with you, sometimes I have to tell you off, just now there are some who are catching so much on the Void, that My stomaching is screwing up. It's alright with Me, `cause I'm supposed to be that, I'm so fortunate that I have to face all that.

What about Christ within us? You're not going to be happy with yourself, with your being, with your Spirit, unless and until you create a manger of very soft thistles. You yourself you're not going to enjoy, you think that by justifying your egos, by justifying your arrogance, by justifying all that you are doing to each other, some people are busy making money out of Sahaj Yoga, some people are busy deceiving others, some are telling lies, some are creating problems, some are beating wives and some wives are provocating husbands, what is all this going on? We are creating a beautiful manger for Christ, to create the peace on earth. We have to be peaceful, to be peaceful one has to be humble, this is the message of Christ, humble.

If you become humble peace will come. Humble is a good word, I don't know if it explains what it means.

Humble means not asking for your own comfort but comfort of others. When others are before you, that is humility, is not, “Thank you very much” you kill somebody and then tell to the dead person, “I'm sorry I killed you” finished. In English language is over, once you've said, “I'm sorry” finished. “Yes, I know” and the another is “I know." “Why did you do it?" I know. Finished. If he knows then it's alright. Then there's no punishment.

You don't know, you are all Spirit, so beautiful, you are to be chiseled out, alright, that's My job. You are to be cleaned out, that's My job, alright, Kuṇḍalinī awakening is My job, agreed, but maintenance, is yours.

On the contrary sometimes I feel, because I do all this, the maintenance, is very, very poor. Like in India I see some people try to help us, by giving us money you see. We didn't earn the money ourselves, you see, somebody donated money and they built some wells, all are dilapidated and finished, free gift, nobody wants to look after it. It's human nature.

If you don't work hard for your maintenance and just leave it to Mother, “Oh, She will cure us, let us continue what we want to do, She's coming after all, She's going to look after us, we'll lag behind." That's why My presence can be sometimes in a way not so fruitful. My presence in England, is good up to a point and afterwards it should not be there for sometime.

I love you very much you know that very much. England is My heart, you have to be Here and this Christmas I wanted to celebrate with you and the New Year with you just out of My own desire, but I have to make you understand that you have to work harder and harder to keep yourself clean, get rid of your problems, come up, do not say, `That, yes, it is like this Mother.' All the time you are reporting to Me, “Still Mother I'm catching, see now this is happening” as if it's a boastful thing to say. I will get alright, I have to be alright, now Mother has gone let Me show Her when I come back.

When I once went to Bombay [Mumbai], Raulbai did not come to see Me for seven days and She was in Bombay [Mumbai] She had arrived to see Me.

So I asked them, “What's the matter, is She keeping alright is She alright? Then why didn't She come to see Me?" I was thinking what's the matter with Her.

She came to see Me after seven days, She said, “Mother I'm sorry I didn't come to see You because I was caught up this time, I wanted to cleanse myself before showing My face to You." So, cleansing is to be done, maintenance is to be done, raising of the Kuṇḍalinī, collectivity, collectivity, look after each other, you have to only support Sahaj Yogis and not others, outsiders, they are outsiders, they are not us, we are Sahaj Yogis and those who try to support others are no more Sahaj Yogis, they get out of Sahaj Yoga would be better for us. Whatever we are, we are among ourselves, outsiders are outsiders, we have to love each other, we have to respect each other, as saints. Nobody has to say anything harsh to each other, no, be kind, loving, affectionate, curb down your tongues, be humble, humility, humility is the thing one has to be. Write it down with big words, be humble, be humble, be humble. And when you become humble, such peace will reign and you will feel so nice, being humble, there's nothing wrong.

Christ has gone to this extent to say that somebody slaps on this face you turn the other, be humble, with Romans there was no other way out, there was no other way out, also, He preached humility, throughout, He preached humility, you be humble to each other, that's all. You need not be humble to others, because no one can now torture the saints, it's over, that situation is over, but you be humble to each other. Humble in your demands of life.

That doesn't mean that you should become people...

[Aside:] Just Keep it there. Ah...

... just that you become people of a strange characters, you see, that doesn't mean that, should be decent with decorum, as Christ was when He was born. But you should be humble, try to mold your bodies, make them lighter in the sense that you can sit anywhere, you can move anywhere, you can lie everywhere, you are all young people, adjust yourself.

If somebody has one room you should say, `Alright, doesn't matter, I can live in the corridor, don't worry.' But, they will be first jumping, I've seen that, to the room which has the attached bath. How many of you have rooms with attached baths, let see? Raise the hands, living in the ashram. Better give up. Better give up. See now? Better give up. All of you give up your rooms and stay in rooms which are shared. Now it's alright for you not to share because you're husband and wife, but need not ask for attached bath.

Comforts, are to be given up for others, not for you, you should make others comfortable, not yourself.

Sometimes I'm surprised at human beings how they allow others to eat anything, the way they are selfcentered, it's something surprising, but after Sahaj Yoga, you change, you enjoy giving comfort to others, saying comforting words to others, sweet things to others, you enjoy that. Christ was given the crib of a manger and He came to comfort you, to give you peace and He came as a Savior, can you imagine the contrast? You are the saviours of the whole universe now, as He was Savior. But, you cannot be selfish, you cannot be comfortable, you have to be like Christ, He used to live wherever He [UNCLEAR liked] lived in forest, He lived anywhere. Just working hard for people, He would never even have His food sometimes, He lived under all circumstances, under all conditions, He never asked for any comfort, nothing, He was a carpenter, He never even used a... glove. Here you must have gloves. You must have socks, you must have shoes, you must have a shaving this, He never shaved even, that doesn't mean you grow your beard [Sahaja Yogis laugh], but He was a very clean person. He lived with a minimum of minimum, that's what one has to do, is to reduce [UNCLEAR].

You know, I have everything that one can think of, but I can live with the minimum of minimum, I can live with two sarīs and sometimes with one. You should be able to live with minimum of minimum, that's the point is. And that is what one has to learn from His life is that we are the saviours today and saviour lived just like a humble person, very elite in His behaviour, very dignified, He was not behaving like a beggar going, `Heh, heh, heh,' like that, some of them you are like that also, you go about like this, when you talk like this you go about [makes hand gestures like a beggar would] that's not the way, with dignity, with your magnificence, with your gravity, you move about, actually those who are really great, those who are the real emperors, do not need anything, [UNCLEAR hah] what can dominate them, tell Me? If you are the emperor of this world, if you know you are the queen of this world, what is more important, what comfort can dominate? What material thing can charm, such a person, because that person is above, that's bādshah, that's the king, that's the real sign of a king, king of heaven, not of England, or of anyplace, but of heaven and that's what you are, you are the citizens of that kingdom, to you these things should be absolutely useless, the beauty of the matter should be seen, not the possession of it.

Beauty is the comfort, not what you feel in the body like, having comfortable things, beauty's so comforting people do not know, how comforting is the beauty and that I'm sure while we are celebrating His birth today, we glorify Him, by accepting a kind of a martyr Spirit, a Spirit in which you are dedicated, in which you do not demand anything, but you give, you do not ask for anything, but you give. Even today I received letter from people saying that, “Please I want a job can you help Me, will You pray?" All sort of things like that. It can be any sort of nonsense [laughs]. Of course, I mean, one can have all that kind of thing, but ask for one and that is the Spirit and once you ask for that, that's the highest of all, you've asked for. Then you don't want anything else, enjoyment is complete.

So to celebrate His birthday and to rejoice in that is to rejoice in our adequacies, if you're adequate you do not hanker after your inadequacies, don't you? If you're complete, if you're full, if you are satisfied you do not hanker do you? So enjoy your adequacies, your completeness, your fullness and your complete satisfaction, enjoy that. Ultimately, all these things lead to some sort of a satisfaction, of course, I don't know if you get any satisfaction out of that, but the real satisfaction that is within you, is the Spirit, [UNCLEAR you] enjoy that. This is for yourself and for others you are a comfort to others, it's not that anybody who talks to you will come and complain that, “Mother, he has bitten me. I had a meeting with another scorpion, he bit me. I touched somebody and he hit me." Comfort, you're a thing of comfort only, believe Me you are. Comfort.

So those who comfort others do not bother about their comfort, the shepherds, simple people, in this cold, imagine they were outside and they saw the vision of the angel, it can only be seen by people who are humble, who are leading a humble life, He appeared to them and the another was vision to the wise.

So only the humble people and the wise people, wisdom, common sense and wisdom, those who are not wise can never understand Me, can never understand Me, those who are intelligent and intellectuals are not wise people at all, they're stupid, you know that they're stupid people. Wisdom.

So the three wise men and the shepherd is another great symbolism, those who will understand Sahaj Yoga. Simple people.

Shepherds. And another are the wise. Only the wise can understand the star.

So many must have seen the star. Wise men from the east. It's true. Eastern people are much more wiser than other people, no doubt about it. But why? Let's see why they are wiser. Eastern, are wiser, up to a point.

In your body, there is east and west if you see. East is left side and west is right side. Eastern are the left-sided, nearer the heart. But not the easternmost are Japanese, horrible people, Japanese horrible, then all these people who are selling you these drugs and all that, they're worst of all, but those who know and are left-sided, the combination, of knowledge and love, knowledge and compassion, if there is no love, if there is no compassion,

I mean you just can't talk to that person, He's like a stick, I mean in a dried stick what vibrations can I give you just tell Me? A dried stick straight forward dried stick you see. What vibrations I can give to a dried stick? There should be some sort of a greenery in it, isn't it, little bit at least? If it is too much of water also it is spoiled, can be rotten, but if it is a dry stick straight forward, you know what I mean, dry sticks are, then how can you give vibrations to such a person? You cannot.

You cannot [UNCLEAR raise] such a person.

So, first thing is love and wisdom comes through love, wisdom doesn't come through intelligence, it comes through love. When you love someone, you get the light of wisdom. By thinking you can never become wise, you can become stupid, absolutely stupid, but by loving you can become very wise. And I see Sahaj Yogis suddenly say something extremely wise, something great, suddenly, [UNCLEAR they] something they say so sweet and so nice, I said, “That's it” the heart is opened out, the fragrance of wisdom comes from the heart and that is symbolic, that three of them came and they were who? Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśha. They came to see Christ, Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśha. See the vibrations. Because They only can recognize, not ordinary people, Romans, no.

So They came.

So we have to be humble and we have to be wise. Wisdom is such a... such a diamond, it has so many facets that I cannot describe to you in this short time, one day I'll talk about wisdom.

But it's all common sense, so sweet, so beautiful, where to say what, how to change the subject, where to assert more, where to handle the situation in a strong way, is to, where to be a gentleman and where to be uncouth, where to shout at people and where to be quiet and humble and sweet. All such a judgment you see, is all that is wisdom, you see, is a center of gravity and to achieve that you have to give up your extreme behaviour, obstinacy is the first thing to be given up, for all wisdom, obstinacy.

To have a son like Christ is such a great boon, I mean so confident you feel adhara, complete rapport is there, no problem of any kind, to have a son like Him, completely obedient, absolutely 100% obedience and humility and understanding of your being. No problems. You are all My sons too and made after Him, after the same pattern as I made Christ. I'm proud of you My children, come up to it and you have an example already created for you, before you is Christ, see Him, what a support it was, I never had any complaints of any kind, no [UNCLEAR upset], He would never be upset, no question, He would never tell Me, `I'm upset,' never, this word doesn't exist in the dictionary of wise. You are [UNCLEAR], how can you be upset, when you are set once for all. This word must go from the dictionary of many Sahaj Yogis who use it, problems and upset. You solve the problem, give the solutions. No problems, only solutions.

That's the way a son should be to a mother, that She can depend on him, absolutely, no problems there, nothing, I mean you have a son born like Christ, what is there to worry about anything? Even the one word He said:

“Behold the Mother." It's a mantra. Is the greatest mantra that I use.

When your attention is Here and there I just say that mantra to you, as a command it is and so humble, so humble. Behold, `behold' doesn't mean look, no, it's a very humble way of addressing, `behold,' it's something glorious, something great, behold it, accept it, understand, it was such a mutual understanding of support and love that should increase between us. No secretiveness, no formalities, no exclusiveness.

No exclusiveness, all enjoyments must be together, now all your ideas of having separate enjoyments must be given up for a change.

Holiday is when you are in the company of your... no more holidays... Sahaj Yogis. All these things must be given up. This is all against Christ's behaviour. He never had a holiday, never, this is a holiday.

Holiday comes from the word holy day, everyday that is spent, every minute that is spent in the company of Christ it's a holy day.

So they must have brought it down, Christ to Spirit and Spirit to spirits and spirits to other things.

I'm sure he did... I mean that way human beings are very great at deriving at right points you see and jumping into ditches directly, so they must have done it so sweetly, beautifully, that's what it is wisdom, wisdom, all the time, wisdom.

Wise man is never cunning, never sharp, it's something I cannot describe also. And who is the wisest of all is Śhrī Gaṇeśha who is the embodiment of wisdom, ask Him for wisdom, He gives you the wisdom to do anything, ask Him for wisdom.

Today I just think of how many Christmas I must have passed I've never talked about Christ so much, with that intimacy, such a relationship, such a relationship of, so near and so far, because He knew who I was, that awe that respect, that humility, is hard to find in any disciple, even in a disciple in your own son, is so close, but complete understanding. That oneness has to be developed, gradually we are all developing it I know, but these are the days of speed and we have to speed up a little more in the right direction.

So now, as desired by you, we have a white Christmas outside [Sahaja Yogis laugh Shri Mataji smiles] and as you have desired that “Wash Me and I shall be whiter than snow" is being blessed. Think of all the nice things we have done together and that we're going together... do it later on, that's how you solve your past and future problem and Christ came on this Earth to expand your present.

So Christ who is the present Christ, today, who is born in you, is to be looked after, is not the Christ of the Bible, but a Christ of your heart, which is born within you is to be looked after.

Bible is so symbolic that is will take years and years for people to understand it it's too symbolic, but, at least you can understand it, but other human beings cannot understand it, so one has to only understand through your own Spirit, that is the Christ born within you, which must be looked after, put Him in a very soft heart, if you have thistles, He's a collective being, if you affect the collectivity, then He's affected, look after Him.

So they say Merry Christmas is enjoyment for joy, out of peace comes the joy, light of joy, happiness, I wish peace for the whole world, the whole nation, to understand to give up all the strides, all the false battles, for money and for power, all wrong ideas that they are different from each other and come under the banner of Sahaj Yoga and enter into the Kingdom of God, where they're invited with all respect and love.

I wish peace to all of them, to all the countries, all the human beings, in their families, in their hearts, with their children, with all of them, let there be peace, let their heart emit peace, their tongues speak with peace, their eyes see nothing but peace, all this has to change, tremendous change has to take place, the whole universe has to take a different turn, all that is hatred, hateful, ugly, has to vanish and the peace has to prevail, which is not the peace of the dead but peace of the living, that has to come of the wise.

I bless all of you to be the channels of that peace, to be beautiful channels of that peace, to be glorious channels of that peace, to be great children of your Mother, who is so proud of you.

May God bless you.

There's a mantra for the Goddess. Yah Devī sarva bhooteshu, shanti rupena samstitah. Oh Goddess who resides who all this creation, created, all that is created as peace.

So you have to seek peace that is your Mother. We all say that mantra. Gavin you say it: Ya Devī sarva bhooteshu shanti rupena samstitah, namastasai, namastasai, namastasai, namo namaḥ. You say it once and then they should say it thrice.

Is a prayer.

[Sahaja Yogis take the mantra three times]. [Shri Mataji does Namaste with Her hands].

And then another one is kshama rupena samstitah, this is the mantra because the peace can come only through humility and forgiveness, kshama, that's why Christ is kshama. You say that for Christ.

Hmm... Better? So now all this is too much for Christmas, at the most you can wash My hands and this and [UNCLEAR that], let's sing and you can handle the Pūjā [Shri Mataji voice drifts away].

So, Pūjā's over, you can just wash My hands. [Shri Mataji takes off Her watch.] All these presents are to be opened near the tree or something, this is the tree, tree of life [UNCLEAR].

It's the giver of everything, giver of all the gifts, it's this tree of life, it's the Kuṇḍalinī, so symbolic you see? So symbolic. The egg of Easter, this tree of, I mean it's so symbolic. I wish your Kuṇḍalinīs were as beautiful as that tree. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.] Giver of all the gifts. It's called as Kalpator, in Sanskrit.

Alright, so, we can do that [UNCLEAR portion/washing].

Sahaja Yogi: Just taking water.

Shri Mataji: With the hands.

Sahaja Yogi: He's just bringing the water.

Shri Mataji: Is there a towel? [Shri Mataji takes the towel and puts it on Her lap].

[Pūjā continues].

[At the end of the Pūjā the leader stands in front of Her.]
Leader: Mother, You are the Comforter.

Shri Mataji: That I am.

Leader: Mother, You are the Counsellor.

Shri Mataji: That I am.

Leader: Mother you are the Redeemer.

Shri Mataji: That I am.

Contents: 1981-12-31 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, New Year's Eve, Chelsham Road, London, UK

So the New Year is coming and it is due, expected to be a very dynamic year for Sahaja Yoga and Sahaja Yogis. Everything new becomes stale and never becomes new again, so whatever has gone has gone, be [let] bygones, be bygones. There have been very sweet memories sometimes, sometimes rather unhappy also but, on the whole, we are growing, all of us are realizing, coming up. We've done a good job of building up ourselves into a new way. New Sahaja Yogis have come up, I think, now, who have got rid of their lethargy and their petty-mindedness, their jealousies, their slyness, their slumber and narrow-mindedness.

All these things have to be buried in the past. They are of no use to us. It's a load we carry for nothing at all.

Today it happens that I read a very nice letter which was lying with Me which I didn't read, which was sent by Gregoire to Warren. It really touched My heart. He was concerned about the jealousies that people suffer and the way he said there that this jealousy is the most sticky stuff and most ugly thing and it comes up as something as a challenge to your love, challenge to your understanding or something like that and then he started explaining it. This explanation is all rational. In Sahaja Yoga there is nothing like jealousy. It doesn't exist. It doesn't exist in the Kingdom of God, something called `jealousy' because all are part and parcel of one Person.

So, one person becomes important, another less important, it's only for the time being. For example, when you are smelling a flower, naturally the nose is more active than the eyes but when you are seeing the flower then the eyes are more active.

So, it is not necessary that, at this moment, when somebody is more active, doesn't mean that he is closer to God and another person who is inactive is not. Everybody is [close] but some people are active at a point, some people are active at another point. Or some people are closer, some people are a little away, but they are all part and parcel.

So this is one of the things one has to understand that there should be no jealousy.

On the contrary, if you find somebody who is spiritually higher, you must try to understand and appreciate him, especially a person who is wiser than you, somebody who speaks wise things. If you hear somebody saying something wise, try to note it, appreciate it, enjoy it; you'll like it.

Sometimes even the children say something nice, young people can say something nice.

What's happening to the people? Are they coming? From? They have still left their hire and dry.

Were you to take a thing for them? Somebody had to go back? Is it Norman? Norman has gone? Where is Norman?

Sahaja Yogi: All the people... either made their way here or to the hotel.

Shri Mataji: About six people are left out.

So we could have brought,

Shri Mataji: Yes. And they were trying, two of them tried to, three of them tried to squeeze in our this thing [car], you see. One of them was Graham [Pottinger] and this and that. But I told Graham to get down. I said, “These others are left out so come with them." I don't know, they might come by...

Sahaja Yogi:... we can phone them first before they,

Shri Mataji: Phone is, they are outside the house now.

Sahaja Yogi: Oh they are outside are they?

Shri Mataji: They could all come in. I mean I don't know.

Sahaja Yogini: It's only about twenty-five minutes on the Underground Mother.

Shri Mataji: I know that! But you see the habits, English habits are there, still lingering.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah, they might stand there. We could go out and get the...

Shri Mataji: Let's wait for a while and see. Let us wait and see, you see. Let's wait and see I hope you get it. I hope you get the thing, they come back. I told them to come together, all of them. They must be jumping into it, they'll be here. Alright.

So the first thing is of jealousy, which I don't understand.

Some of you think that I like someone more than the other. To be very frank, I have no idea of liking and disliking, I don't understand that.

It's no question [of that]. It's a very different mechanism you are dealing with: that person who doesn't get involved into anything, doesn't get entangled into anything. Only thing what I am trying to do is to disentangle you. If I was an entangling type how can I disentangle? If I was the person who has to purify you and if I am the person who cannot purify you then what's the use of My being there? So the person who tries to purify has to be pure himself. Supposing there's a soap and the soap is the one that gets dirty, then what's the use of such a soap? In the same way, I never get entangled with anyone. That's My name, is Nirmama. To Me, `mama' is not there, nobody is Mine. Everybody is Mine.

So this should get out of your mind as to Nirmama.

I think we'll wait till 10-15 minutes because poor Graham, also, I asked him to get out for those people and to bring them along. He'll be able to do that.

Sahaja Yogi: We can go in the van Mother if they are not here...

Shri Mataji: Just wait, just wait. You can give them about twenty minutes more.

Sahaja Yogi: Did they say there were expecting the van?

Shri Mataji: No they did not. They'll come. Alright.

So we have to bury this useless thing called jealousy. And it can be a very serious thing. It can happen very serious with people. I have seen people, they got jealous, then they got after another person, then they got after Sahaja Yoga, then after Me. And this jealousy, one should not allow to crawl into you.

Some people are more congenial sometimes, are more nearer Sahaja Yoga, sometimes they are more helpful, sometimes they are more useful, sometimes they have to be there.

Sometimes they need Me the most of all.

Some of them are lost people.

Some of them are really possessed and badly off so sometimes that's why I look after them more. It's My own whim. I cannot say, I cannot justify. Maybe that some person is very good [so] I look after, maybe that some person is very bad, that's why I look after.

So one should never have any jealousies with each other. Only you must have understanding that your Mother has to work for all of you and has to improve you, cure you [and] do something about it. One thing we have to bury is the jealousy that is within us. We bury something and something comes out very well and what is that [which] comes out of this jealousy? Is that we have to better ourselves. The outgoing jealousy should leave within us. “Oh, am I jealous of a person?" Then, “What's good in that person? Let's see." Now, this is not outward. Sahaja is not outward. If a person is outwardly like this, outwardly, that's not it's so inward. If I correct somebody, I correct that person because the vibrations of that person are not alright. You see, such a person can be extremely sweet also to talk to, a very sweet type, could be extremely harsh, could be anything; but the vibrations of that person has to be alright. I have to gain nothing out of you except that your vibrations should be corrected.

So, you should not have any misidentification with yourself; that some people are very dynamic, so they think they can do what they like.

Some people think they are very sort of receding type so they think they can do what they like, all is wrong. First of all you should not hit collectivity.

Are you coming from Bramham Gardens? No? He's not come.

For a mother if some children are left behind, her heart is there, all the time she thinks they are left there, they should be [here]. That's the main thing is, you see, not for one person. Like just thinking about your own son or thinking about your own wife, thinking about your own husband is not the point.

All of you are dearer to Me, dearest to Me but I belong to no one, I'm a hopeless case! You just give Me up! I belong to no one. No one can possess Me. I cannot possess Myself, how can you possess Me? I am beyond possession. Then if it is so, there should be no jealousies, there's no question of jealousy or in any way feeling jealous of each other. Only the beauty of enjoying others should be there: somebody has some great qualities, enjoy that quality in that person, you'll imbibe it. In Sahaja Yoga, whatever you enjoy you imbibe, do you know that? Whatever you enjoy you'll imbibe, just like that. You should be able to enjoy it.

Now supposing you enjoy creating rifts in people, creating problems in people, you will have that yourself! Supposing you enjoy saying harsh things to others, you'll imbibe that, in the sense that you will have more of that [because] whatever you want, you will have it. Christ has said, “If you want gold, you'll have gold." Many people who came to Sahaja Yoga went away in the search of money, promotions this, that, they got it. “You will have gold." “But those who are dearer to Me, will have food with Me. They will sit next to Me on My table." This is what you should ask for. This is what you are for, not for having more gold, for more money, for more this, for more that, but that you are part and parcel of his company. Now, somehow, I know every one of you, somehow, I don't know how! [Laughter.] I know every one of you. How far you are with things, I know, there's no need to justify them, no need to say, `This is not so. That is not so.' I know everything. I should know otherwise how will I give you something substantial? I have to give you something very, very substantial and for that I have to know what you need and when I know, I love you. Unless until you love someone, you cannot know so much about a person. I know your beauties and I also know your ugliness, I know your tenderness, I know your harshness. I know all the extremes that you are, that you have been, that you are and you will be.

So it is many-dimensional knowledge of a person.

[With] some of you I expect a bit too much because I think you are capable, because I know your past.

I work very hard on you, you know that and I'll work, I'll continue to work, every year, but '82 is a very remarkable year, where you people should now work hard for Sahaja Yoga. I have already given some idea as to how to work it with Gavin, I have talked to him. Gavin knows how we are going to work it out in a systematic way; how to attack a particular village, or a particular district, or wherever you have to go there, how to go propagate, how to establish it. Wherever there is soft ground you should settle down, not in the hard ground. The hard ground will never yield any produce.

So don't go on working on a hard ground. Put your attention to this fact that, `What can I do for Sahaja Yoga?' Take out your attention from yourself. For example, supposing a person, now there are presents all being tied up. Supposing a person wanted a particular present, take it like that. Of course, Sahaja Yogis are not that low type but still, supposing take the lowest of lowest, like children.

So, you don't get that particular one. Now, to do all this with all the work I have been doing there, to select that and to arrange all that, isn't it tremendous? So, whatever Mother could do in that hurry and scurry, with everybody's name and all that, it is quite a lot to She has done and if She has done that, one should appreciate the love that Mother wants to bestow upon you and it's all symbolic. But somebody can sit down and start saying, “Oh, I should have had this. Why didn't She give me this? Why didn't She do that. I should have..." You see, it is not anything that one has made or anything, just to give somebody something, that way; in a small way, I am saying.

But even in this small way, you are worried about yourself. You have to worry about Sahaja Yoga: what's going to happen to Sahaja Yoga? How is it going to come up? What have you to work it out? What we have to do? How many Pūjās do we have to arrange? How do we have to do it? Not about yourself. “How should I improve myself?" That point is also, forget it! What we are going to do to propagate Sahaja Yoga, we have to see. Not to go to personal life, “My husband and wife quarreling” with them. I mean, I've had enough of it! I mean, I am not here to settle your marriage disappointment. All these nonsensical things, you forget now. Of course, if you have a good marriage, it helps Sahaja Yoga, no doubt. It helps because you get children which are good. If the husband/wife are not alright, you might get very horrible children which may be possessed from the very childhood and be very difficult, they will be realised Souls but will be very difficult children.

So it is important that we should dedicate ourselves to Sahaja Yoga today, to `ring out the old' [a reference to a very deep poem by Alfred Tennyson] and bring out the new which is dedicated to Sahaja Yoga, not to your personal life, not to your personal likes and dislikes but [to] what will happen to Sahaja Yoga. And to be sincere about it, be sincere about it. Many people who organize go off their heads, I've seen it, somehow. You give them something to organize: they are about to land up in a lunatic asylum.

You give them something to organize, make them the leader, finished! It happens like that. It goes off the head.

Somehow or other, you see, there's a crack in the head.

So the cracked head then starts behaving in such a funny manner, that you can't imagine how far one can go! You have to organize, you have to become right-sided, you have to work hard, no doubt, but you need not be right-sided. If you work with right hand you don't become right-sided, do you? You don't develop your ears, nose on one side, do you? [Laughter.] Do we? No you don't! I mean, really, still the nature keeps the body alright, I must say, because some right-handed people should have a right side development, or the left hand should have a left hand development, should be there, but it's not. It keeps nature alright. Nature keeps the face alright, everything alright. It keeps it you there.

So one has to know that, when you are trying to bring in something new in yourself, in the new year say, let's talk of the new things, then whatever is old and outgoing should be sent away, it should be thrown away, otherwise the new will never come! It will shift from here to here, here to here, the bhoot passes on.

come! I have been all the time thinking about you! Come along, come along.

So today is the list of not feeling guilty and thinking what all old things, old rags you had upon yourself, throw it away! Change yourself! You see, obstinacy should not be there. People are very obstinate, they don't want to change, they don't want to forget, they don't want to forgive. Give up that obstinacy! Obstinacy is not the nature of your Spirit. If you are the Spirit you'll never be obstinate. Have you ever seen Me being obstinate, ever? You said, “Mother, sit here." “Alright." You said, “Sit there." “Alright." Did I say, “No, I am going to sit here alone."? Never! Never I do that way. You say, “Mother, will you eat this?" “Alright” even if I am very, very full I say, “Alright." Sometimes I should put down My foot but I do not, but I say, “It's alright, whatever you say is alright." So you should also not be at all obstinate.

There should be not obstinacy. There should be no fanaticism. It's all a play going on, so just play this way, that way, that way, this way, just enjoying your Self.

So this is one thing that, if you are obstinate, you cannot become a new person. To become a new person you have to give up your obstinacy, completely. Once you give up your obstinacy you will be very happy to change and you must change, you must come as a new person. Every minute, every second you changing.

So I just....

Hello, Athena [a baby], how are you? Her eyes were glistening as soon as she saw Me! Now, as far as Sahaja Yoga is concerned in England, I think it has taken good roots. Propagation has to be done, it has to be publicized, it has to be talked about. People are to be told you have found it. Go and see people who are seekers. Whatever level you are, supposing you are dealing with a particular type, say a lawyer is there, a lawyer should meet all the lawyers, a psychologist is there, should go and see the psychologists. You see, at your level, whomsoever you meet, you should talk about it to others that, “This is what it is, we have found out, why don't you get hold of it?" And you only get hold of those people who are really seekers? But you must talk now and that is what is another, get out of your shyness. That is very important to get out of your shyness. Talk to people. But I have seen people, when they talk about Sahaja Yoga, instead of bringing a good name to Sahaja Yoga, they bring a bad name, because when they talk, they talk in such a way as if they have reached heaven! That's not good. We have to say that, “We are just the same. We are just the old eggs and we are just trying to talk to you because we have found something." So others are not hurt.

So for that you have to remember the past now, that, “We were like this and if somebody had talked to us like this, we would have been hurt. We have to remember our past." Remembering the past just for your own manoeuvreing, that's all, not that, as a part and parcel of you, but just for your manoeuvreing, how to deal with others. Unless until you remember your past, you will not know how to deal with others and you won't have compassion.

So that is what we have to see, the importance of the past.

The future at this present moment is that '82 is a great year, that's all, not more than that. You don't have to think about '83 because even if you start doing it in '83, '82 will be silent. “We'll do it in '83, Mother. What do you think?" [Laughter.] “I think” “I believe." “It would be a better idea to do this in '83. What do you think Mother?" Suggestions! “I have a suggestion to make. Supposing we do it in '83?" Why not today? Why not now? Ask a question, “Why not?" When such a thing comes, why not now? And then, whatever you do, you do it fully, completely to the finishing point. Like P.S. has been very good with you when we were working in that house. You were chiseling the house and I was chiseling you. You were building the house and I was building you. It was very good, interesting, very nice.

Some of you have really gained a lot, really gained a lot. You have really become very dynamic, very beautiful, very Sahaja.

Quite a lot of you done that, I know that and it is really very appreciative, work that you have done, anybody can see that very clearly. You are being described by Blake that you will be the Golden Builders.

Clearly, is all done by the golden painting. But in that you have to learn certain things, like now they are painting it, alright. The painter goes up to paint. He takes a place to sit down on top. When he comes out, painting is there, but with that [also] all the mismanagement [mess] that was done is still there. The painter has finished the painting [but] still the scaffolding is there, the seat is there, the thing on which he was sitting, the cushion, is there, all the chairs that were removed that are there, all the carpet that was disturbed is there and just the same. It takes hardly ten minutes to put it right.

So this is the future, this is the future. The future is that, when you do something, see that the future is sealed of that person. See that the situation is sealed again. [If] you give realisation to somebody, see that it is fixed! So remember the past for your manoeuvreing and remember the future for sealing it up, so that it is not lost in the future. This is importance of looking into the future.

Experience of the back or the past should give you manoeuvreing, should give you idea as to what is to be done. And when you do something in the present, you must compensate for the future, in the sense that, at that moment, you must do some things by which the future is not ruined. This is how New Year's celebration should be, that, '82 is important, in '82 whatever we have learnt from the past, we'll remember, we'll not do the same mistakes. Not only [that] but also we will remember whatever past has taught us. We'll have compassion for the people who have been like us. We'll have love for them, we'll have understanding, we'll do whatever is possible to bring them up. We'll have concern, we'll not just be just Sahaja Yogis, you see, sweet-talking Sahaja Yogis, but we'll do something about them.

So many are lost in intellectual pursuits, so many are lost in financial pursuits, so many are lost in political pursuits and so many are lost in so-called service pursuits. All of them belong to some category and you had belonged to one of these categories, so you have to think of them, try to bring them out, do something about it. Have a wider personality. When you have a small personality you think of your wife, yourself, nothing more than that, or your children at the most, but when you are a wider personality you just think, `What will happen to the people who belong to this clan?' who belong to, say, Catholicism, those who belong to Judaism, those who belong to Methodist Church and to, to Jamaicans and to...

like that! Have a wider personality. Don't worry about yourself. I have known people who will come and ask, “Mother, where should I find my keys?" “Mother, where should I put my basket?" “Mother, where should I stick my nose?" [Laughter.] “What should I do about my luggage?" “What should I do about my travelling?" All nonsensical things they'll come and ask Me! I'm not here to give you all that. Every small thing they will ask.

Now if you tell them, “Why are you doing it?" “You said it." I didn't say that you ask Me every time you have to raise a finger. “Mother, may I raise my finger. May I close my eyes? May I smile?" [Laughter.] It's not that. You are people, who in My eyes are saints, you can decide for yourself, of course. You are saints. You have to assume. You don't know you are saints. Assume you are saints. This assumption must come to you on this great auspicious day, that you are saints. And saints have to decide for themselves and they have to do wise things. They do it by themselves because they are saints! If they fight, quarrel amongst themselves, then this is stupidity, absolute stupidity, it doesn't behove. He is here to solve the problems of others. What am I to tell you anything? You are saints, that's all I say. If you ask Me any question the answer is, “You are saints, do what you like!" Whatever you want you will have. Whatever you say it will happen. Whatever you ask for it will happen. Whatever you will imagine will work out. But you will imagine something good, you will say something good, you will do something that is Divine. You are so great. You are made like that. You are that. Assume, assume that power that you are a saint. How can you say something nonsensical? Nirmalā Vidyā is at your disposal, it's at your complete command, complete Nirmalā Vidyā. Imagine the Nirmalā Vidyā nobody had except for you Sahaja Yogis have. Nobody had. Even Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśhwar never even had it. Can you believe it? They have their own powers but you have Nirmalā Vidyā. And now what do you want more? And then you ask Me, “Mother, should I wink?" or whether, “Should I smile?" This is too much! First of all you belittle yourself and belittle Me also. Behave in a confident manner, in a proper way and if I say anything, do not start going into conclusions and things like that, no! Understand that `Whatever Mother is saying is not for me, for others, maybe. And if it is for me I should correct myself.' Simple thing! `If it is for others, why should I worry?' `If it is for me, then thank Her very much and I must correct myself, finished!' It's as simple as that.

A day should come when I don't have to talk, you have to talk. I should say so, that I should listen to all your wise talks as I listen to children when they tell Me something, they are so wise; in the same way I would like to listen to you people talking all wise things, nice things about each other, loving, not frightened of anyone, very happy with each other, behaving like great gentlemen and great gentle-ladies and being very much in love with each other, looking after each other, not to be sullen and sulking and stupid faces, but charming... `charm' I won't use [that] word because `charming' can be horrible, I have heard that before, I would say. But, faces that are lit up with joy, happiness and of giving; such people I want to see. Such people you should be there, loving, affectionate, good people, smiling. That should be so. That is what is Sahaja Yoga. Those who do not want to join in are absolutely free to go out, actually they are thrown out.

So, to stick on to Sahaja Yoga is difficult. It is better to understand that to be a Sahaja Yogi is a difficult thing, to be a non-Sahaja Yogi is the easiest.

So, this is what you have been seeking, which you have got, which you are. You should assume it.

And be happy and joyous and do not upset others, do not disturb others, don't say harsh things because Nirmalā Vidyā stops at the left Viśhuddhi. Be kind to others and understand [that], if you need any correction, I am there to tell you. Up to a point, I'll tell, after some time, I'll not say. Once the children are grown up, Mother doesn't say anything. She just sits down and watches the beauty of her children who are so grown up, so matured, so beautiful.

I hope that time will come in My lifetime and I will be able to see such beautiful people around, that they are grown up, they understand how to behave and how to be nice and good.

So, for today's New Year, let us vow within ourselves, that the selfishness or the self-centeredness or the smallness in you is finished. Now the drop has become the Ocean. Live like an ocean and like a lion.

Don't roar at others, I mean [be] generous and don't be afraid of anything. Everything is taken care of, but believe that everything is taken care of.

Sometimes you might feel you are let down, sometimes you'll feel, “Oh, this should have happened." Do not desire for anything! Whatever is your desire is not correct, that's all. If the desire is correct and is deserving, it will happen, hundred per cent [guaranteed]! So all the best and the greatest year and happiness and joy.

Feel your responsibility, understand each other. And now I'm going. Tomorrow I'll be gone, so-called.

[Laughter.] Don't worry about anything else but worry about the Sahaja Yoga. That has to be established all over the world. Very great work one has done. Of course, I mean, you can't say that one has done as much one can do, but you can do much more. You can become very dynamic and you can do it. Try to think of ways and methods of doing it.

May God bless you all.

So now with all this green and blues... should we start giving presents now?

[Some Sahaja Yogis who lived in one of the two Lambeth ashrams were making curtains for Shri Mataji's bedroom. Linda Williams asks if she could bring her sewing machine to the house at 48, Brompton Square and sew them on the spot.] No, you must do them at Lambeth. It is in the poem.

[This refers to a poem of William Blake, where there is a bit about preparing the furniture in Lambeth, at the Nightingale Lane and Chelsham Road Ashrams: “Prepare the furniture O Lambeth..... The curtains... wrought into lovely forms..... For comfort."]

Quote 1: [Shri Mataji hands Magda a small bottle of “very good varnish" and asks her if she could varnish a little wooden bedside cabinet. Magda looks at the cabinet and thinks that the bottle is probable enough for the cabinet When the cabinet is varnished, Shri Mataji returns inspecting:] Good job! It is really good varnish isn't it Magda? [Shri Mataji joins in the varnish, getting a brush for Herself:] How about we varnish this chest of drawers as well? [Magda thinks that soon they will need another bottle to finish the chest of drawers.] [Every piece of furniture receives the same loving attention from Shri Mataji. And each time a project would be finished, Shri Mataji says:] What a wonderful varnish! [Once everything is done, Shri Mataji hands over the little bottle of varnish to Magda. As she puts it down on a piece of paper, a little bit of the dark liquid bubbles out of the opened top:] Maybe we praised it a bit too much! [Smiling:] You see Magda, whatever you praise, increases.

Quote 2: [Similarly, with a tin of brown liquid to clean the marble in all the bathrooms:] Oh, we must have praised the polish so much, it has overflowed.

Contents: 1982-0000 Talk to Western Sahaja Yoginis, Switzerland from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 20 (Mar-Apr 1984), pp.33,38

Now, this is in the West. Now, the women are intelligent and the women of the west being intelligent and educated have developed a kind of a very complex situation around themselves. These things have made them a kind of a man without manliness and that is why their whole behaviour becomes extremely odd.

Sometimes I just don't understand, but now I've started understanding, that the way the women are, they want to dominate men. But they don't understand that by dominating you cannot create good relationship.

Now, to dominate a man one way could be just to go on behaving like a man, you see, pushing him around and all that, saying, “Don't do this. I don't like it. This is not good. That is not good." But that is not so sophisticated.

So, the other way is to all the time talk about the miseries of your past. “I am like this. This is wrong with me." All the time she's sick. All the time she's miserable. All the time she's insecure. All the time she's so dependent, she needs her husband. She wants the attention of the husband.

The husband must look after her. Ultimately, I think the husbands must be getting absolutely fed up and running away from the wives. And that must be why the prostitution is so strong here, because at least the prostitute tries to please the husband and not to make him miserable, because she has to earn her living.

And I think it is just the other way round in India. There the men will fuss. The men will say, “This is not good." They will say, “We are sick and you must look after us” and all that. They don't say that we have to look after you. They say that you have to look after us. And the women think that, because they are their wives, they are their Shaktis and they have to bear it upon themselves and give them the joy.

Now, the women here have another very bad capacity, in Sahaja Yoga I have seen it, that they always say that the negativity attacks, all the time, for any rhyme and reason. Like just now somebody told Me that when you have a child you feel more attacked by negativity because you are on your own. Imagine! When you have a child you have such a great company of your child. I mean, for an Indian mother, as soon as she is pregnant she feels the happiness. When the child is born, she feels the company of the child.

For her nothing more is needed than that her own child is there and then, through her child, she learns how to love other children.

But here even when the children are born they put the same nonsense on them. “Oh, how bad is my husband, he has done so much to me and how bad is this world and how bad was my mother..." And this is how they try to dominate the children, making that child absolutely miserable. That is how we get to these `Les miserables'. From where it has come?, the sources are here.

Now, if they are uneducated they are even worse, because they have a complex. If they are less intelligent there is another problem. They try to play all dirty tricks with the husband and with other people. If their husband has any relationship with anyone they don't like it. It is most surprising, isn't it? Like friendship; or if the husband wants to talk to some other men, not women of course, women you can have some objection, but I can't understand, that they don't like friends of the husband, to come in the house. It is the other way round in India. The husband's friends are very much welcomed and looked after by the wife and there is a sweet relationship between them and they call her the sister-in-law. It is very sweet.

But here it is just the other way round. They just abhor all the relations of the husband and this is something most surprising because the husband is not single. All his relations are part and parcel of him.

He is obliged to them, related to them, or he is attached to them and if she really loves the husband, then she should accept the other relationships also.

Then, all their lives they have lived like this, by making, I would say, a show that they are miserable and they continue with it after they are married. And in Sahaja Yoga also, I have seen the way they behave.

Towards any calamity an Indian woman will stand up. She is the one who will stand up, at the time of calamity. Otherwise she will not show. She is not on the scene. Nobody will know there is a woman working, she is not the one who will talk first.

For example, if My husband and I are sitting and there is an interviewer, he will say that this woman is deaf and dumb, she doesn't talk. Really, many people who have seen us together say, “We never knew about you. Your husband never said a word about you." You see, like that, it is very common, woman just keeps outside. People didn't know that I could be Mātājī because those who had known Me otherwise had never seen Me talking, because you are not supposed to talk when your husband is talking, you just keep quiet.

Here it is the other way round. If there is an interviewer, the woman will talk first. The man will be sitting like a big mouse, looking round and opening his mouth a little bit to say something.

The aggression of these women is very subtle. They come up with such sinister questions, anything they say has a sting and then you get fed up of such a person and that is why there are divorces.

The men of the west are much better than Indian men. They are not dominating. They understand the value of women. They have given so much freedom to them. They have given them so much prestige and honour. But if you give something to women, they should be capable of bearing it up, isn't it? What is the use of giving everything equal to them when they have no capacity to bear it? That is why it is such an imbalance, I find, for women the way they are so sinister about the whole of life.

Life is beautiful, full of joy, happiness, bliss. Morning until evening if you go on making somebody miserable then you are against life. You are against God. This they must realise. The whole thing is that they have got equality without evolving themselves up to that point.

It is rather like the Arabs. They got the Cadillacs. First they were on the camels or on the donkeys, then they became rich Arabs and they had Cadillacs. Now, by sitting in the Cadillac you don't become a cultured man.

You see, in the same way if the women are suddenly made to feel, oh, they are equal, this, that; they have not developed that panache, as you say in your language. They haven't developed that sophistication.

So the inferiority works out and they go on pinching the men all the time. Every word and the tongue also doesn't have that sweetness.

But in our Sahaja Yoga we have seen some very great Sahaja Yoginis, who are really senior women, I would suggest. Like you can say..., a solid woman, very solid woman, very solid woman and she understands things very well. Like... she is a good wife, no doubt, she makes her husband happy.....

is another one. See, these people have that sweetness about their husbands and I have never seen them telling Me about their miseries or thinking about their past or anything. Never. Never.

Always they said we were happily married.... told Me, “we were happily married." Her husband was a Russian and they had a problem because of the war, but she never said that my husband made me miserable, or this thing, that thing. Never. I never heard them saying like that. And even if that is the case, or something is there, you should be happy. Even if, say, your husband is a bad man, he is not a Sahaja Yogi, you should be happy.

In Sahaja Yoga it is compulsory that you should be happy, you should be joyous and you have to be joyful. There is no place for people who are miserable. If they try to go on with this they w ill have to get out of Sahaja Yoga. Take it from Me. All of them w ill be thrown out. If you do not want to come up you will be out for good.

So, it is a challenge for all the Sahaja Yoginis in the West that you must be joyous. You must be happy people.

Now, you see that in any case like this they build up their ego very subtly. If you just say that, “No, that is not good” immediately they start crying, you know they are upset. Men don't know what to do, because these women have picked up their own images and they want to do whatever they think and if men see something more than they do and say, “Do this, this would be better” they are finished.

They get identified with these things.

So, you can't say that they are left-sided, but they are egotistical.

And in this ego there is a sinister attitude by which they make the men and woman and children miserable.

So, this must be stopped now. Anymore of this misery is to be stopped in the West. Nothing. What is this misery you have got? You should go and see the women of India who are smiling and laughing. They have children to look after. They have ten, eleven, twelve children to look after. They have no money.

Early in the morning, at four o'clock, they have to get up and take their bath because of conditions in India. They cannot laze out like you do. And then they go to the well, fill the water and bring it home.

You see, beautiful, see their faces shining. They come home, put the food down there, slowly wake up their husbands, put things for his bath, look after their children, clean the house. By the time the children are up they see the clean house, you should see how much they work hard. And you will not know that they are working. Absolutely silent. You have seen how these women used to cook. Did you ever hear any body outside? As soon as people are coming they are serene. They are looking after them. They are intelligent, I mean, [UNCLEAR] is an income tax officer, do you know that? [UNCLEAR] is an income tax officer. They are officers, but how do they behave? Have you ever seen them anywhere in anyway asserting themselves? Never.

In India education is very strong. Most of the girls in India are at least graduates, actually, at least.

But there is no ego about it. They understand their position as wife and as a woman and they know that they are the ones who are the source of joy and they have to give that joy to others. Here the women don't understand how much they can give joy. After all your Mother is a woman and if She can give so much joy why shouldn't you be able to? And this is what it is. I just don't understand, such a great potential, such a great source just cut.

Just cut. That is why, you see, the motherhood is lacking, nothing else but the motherhood. The women are all right, nothing wrong with them, it is the motherhood.

Even a little child in India, see our Anupama is hardly now six years old. She came to speak in My ear, “Who is this baby here sitting smiling?" I said `his name is Macchindranath." “Ah I this is Macchindranath!" She is a six year old girl, she doesn't know how to carry, you remember, she took the baby. Then she wanted to give him something to eat. If you have any child bring it home. These two girls will look after it, give food to it, they will look after it. They are just all the time, you know, nursing the children. Even to the grandfather, “Now, can I feed you?" Grandmother of course, but to the grandfather! “Can I feed you? Would you like to have this?" I take My bath, I come out and she is there with the powder to sprinkle on My feet and to wipe them with the towel. All the time they are running up and down. You can't imagine how motherly they are, to Me. To Me, they are motherly. To their grandfather they are motherly.

Early in the morning, this Shumi was about two and a half years old, very small, so early in the morning she used to see the grandfather sitting there. She used to go into the room, take his newspaper, just hardly used to walk, you see and his spectacles and bring them to him.

What does it take? But if the attention is all the time to extract others, it comes from some sort of very sinister idea. It is very repulsive. It is not that I have seen it once, but when I talk to them, I really feel very disgusted sometimes. And I feel, oh God, these women when they marry what will happen? And when they marry, I see. And that is why the men here don't know what to do. You see, if you have any problem, a woman has to bear it.

Indian women have great courage. Like when the war started in India, a woman, who was a widow and a queen, she rode on horse herself, she tied her sarī, she took her child at the back, she was a queen and jumped from the fortress about a hundred feet down and she fought the British. She died, of course.

The British killed her. But the Britisher himself, the general, wrote that, “We won the battle, but the victory and the glory was that of Lakṣhmī Bai." Not only that but there are many women like that. Wondrous. But they would only show up if there is a calamity. When things reach the cusp of just drama, that time they come up. Otherwise they are quiet.

You see, that kind of thing should be the womanhood. I mean, if I have to tell you about Indian women, I will have to give [UNCLEAR you] a big lecture. Really. And you have seen how they behave, how dignified and how sweet and... I must take My hat off to them. They are mature in the womanhood in the best possible way, the potential of women.

See they worked so hard. If you remember a little girl who was married and she invited us for breakfast, about three years back, a little one, very small. We had gone to a canal and she said, “Tomorrow, Mother, you come and have breakfast at my place” and I said, “No, it is too much. We are so many people, about thirty five people. How will you feed us?" And apart from that the other leaders were also there. “Oh, I will manage” she said and when we went there she gave us such a nice breakfast. And all the neighbouring women, you see, they got up at 4 o'clock, did everything and all of them in really great joy, that Mother is coming to our house and they were so enamoured about it.

That is called as `fondness' in India. There are no words for joy here. There are no words for different joys, but it is this fondness of people and they were feeling obliged that we were eating. And I ate and ate. I said, “No, I am too full, I can't eat any more” and they said, “Mother, you didn't like anything, or what?" and giving and giving.

So sweet. And so many, I think I told them thirty five, there were fifty.

Arranged like that also and in a small little house, they arranged in front of the thing. Very silent, very silent. Very efficient, because of the efficiency, you see, of love, that they could manage it. It is so, sweet and little, little things they do.

It is so much energy that goes in.

So nice. And this time I am going to write even to the Poona ladies, that they should arrange our food, not in the Rajwade Karyalaya and you will see how they w ill arrange it. They will get all the best vegetables of the market, the best chickens of the market and the best of everything and do the best that they can, put all their heart into it. “The saints are coming to our house, the saints are coming to our house." The beauty is this and despite this, many people think that Indian women are very much suppressed because of their goodness. They don't mind. They say our goodness cannot be suppressed. Goodness is a thing that is more important than suppression and oppression and all that. They don't take to all these nonsensical ideas. Not at all.

It is so nice. And then the husbands feet attached. You see, My daughter, now she receives her husband's phone calls practically every day from Saudi Arabia. Look at My husband. Now, he is an old man of sixty-five years. If you leave it to him he will telephone to Me ten times. I tell him don't telephone all the time, but he will go on telephoning. You see, that is the source, so you want to talk and you want to have something.

But here it is the other way round, they want to extract from you. What is there for men to give? It is women who have to give. Women have to give. They don't realise their potential and they go on eating somebody's head all the time. How can they love him? They cannot.

And that is what I think of when I tell Indian men to marry Western women. They shudder a bit, because why should they make themselves miserable? Just think, if they know about Western women as they are.

So, this must change. We are Sahaja Yogis. We have nothing to do with Western ideas of women and all that. I don't know, whatever book I have read about Western women, about the heroines and all that, they were never like this. This is something else I am seeing actually from what I have read.

Question: Could Western women imitate Indian women?

Shri Mataji: Also they should, but there is no need to imitate, because you are Sahaja Yogis. You get it spontaneously. Just accept that. Now accept that. Whatever is the past is past. You can do it.

Our job is to make everybody happy and joyous. That is it. That is our job. That is the source we have got. We are the source of joy. Accept this situation. We are the source of joy, of confidence, of love and affection and kindness and gentleness. Then, once in a while, if the husband does wrong you have a right to tell him. He will never mind it. But all the time if you go on coaxing him he will say, “Oh, this permanent, mundane, every day." This needed saying. Even Australian women should be told. This is very common. But they are very sweet, ah! Don't trouble the girls, if they don't trouble you, then you shouldn't trouble them.

You just become, you just become and more than anything else becoming is a very silent experience. It's the joy. It's the silence. It's the experience of all those things that are indescribable in words, which in all scriptures have been spoken of in so many ways but which cannot be put, in fact, into words.

But some people with no self-esteem, even when they get their Self-realisation, they just disappear. Can you imagine?

Contents: 1982-01-25 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Open Your Heart, Seminar, 4th Session, Lonavala, Maharashtra, India

It is such a pleasure to meet so many Sahaja Yogis from all over the world and to be able to talk to them.

They understand Me the best, in this whole world. It's impossible to have a rapport with a person who is not a Sahaja Yogi. Even if you give them realisation, if they have not become Sahaja Yogis, then it is very difficult to make them understand the subtleties of their own being also. Today, as we are all Sahaja Yogis here, I would like to tell you about the growth of the being on the subtler plane.

All the time, as we have been doing anything, we have been thinking what is to be done, “What is to be done to be realised?" was the first question people asked Me, when they were not realised. “What should we do Mother to get realised?" Then I had to tell them, “Nothing, just spread your hands towards Me and it will work out." It's true, it works out that way. Now after realisation, you have to do something, as they say. But still what have you to do? Again, the question comes in, “What should we do for this, to remove this Chakra, that Chakra; what is the technique, what is the thing?" The trouble with Sahaja Yogis as they are today, they are all technocrats already. They have done so much of technical things, that it is better that they should forget about technique and worry more about spontaneity. The technique is so much, that the technique has killed the spontaneity and a balance has to be struck between technique and the spontaneity.

First you get your realisation by spontaneity, Sahaja. Then you have to have, naturally, by temperament you are technocrats, want to have a technique, the Tantra, the mechanism, how to work out the mechanism. Thank God, we are not so bad now, otherwise, normally I have seen, I was giving lectures and people were giving bandhans to them and raising their Kuṇḍalinī, all mad people around and others who were newcomers would be frightened at such Sahaja Yogis that “What is the matter with these people? They are so abnormal." And if you tell them that you should not do it, you should just listen to the lecture, they would say, “No, no, Mother, we were catching, so we were trying to put ourselves right." Now one has to realise that you have to become subtler. Then again the question, “How to become?" How to become subtler is the problem. For example, today, there was a question of having a Pūjā in the morning time, today. They said that there is a Sūryagrahana, means the eclipse of the sun and if today is such a great date, that if you do the worship or the Pūjā you get blessings of thousands of such Pūjās on an eclipse day of the sun. Now, if you look at it, it looks very fine, good, yes it's true, it is written in the astrological survey and all that, is a very great thing and we start following it. You being Sahaja Yogis, you must attack it from a subtler point. That is how your wisdom will also become subtler; your attitude also will become subtler. To attack such a question from subtle point of view, we have to first of all know that we are Sahaja Yogis. No technique is needed, just see your vibrations on this question, to begin with, it's very simple. Subtler things are the simpler things; gross things are complicated, it is very simple, very simple equation. Simple thing is to feel the vibrations on this point, whether today's Pūjā, is it really worth something or not. You'll be amazed that your right side will become hot on this point.

So, this intellect, which is now being enlightened, prabuddha you have become, you must use it in a subtler way. Why, that for Sahaja Yogis, it is not necessary to do the Pūjā today? You have already become thoughtless, so I will not ask you to answer the question. The reason is, as you are all technocrats, you are right-sided. This was all right thousands of years back, when the Vedas started and the Vedas have given us the science. All the excitement about Vedas was all right at that time when they worshipped the Sūrya or the right-sided things, in Greece, these things reached such a height that all the Gods had to fall just like human beings and become just like human beings. For them now, everybody has weaknesses; every God has a weakness. This weakness one has, that weakness another has, they don't understand Gods anymore in Greece. They just think that they are some sort of entities with all the weaknesses of human beings burdened on them.

So, this right side movement has been bit too much, since the time of Vedas. Worshipping of Sūrya has been too much; you have worshipped too much. It was so much so, that Christ had to come on this Earth and tell people that you better forgive. His advent should have made people more in the center but it did not. On the contrary all the Christian nations went onto right side and we Indians are also following you out.

So, we are very right-sided people. All the Sahaja Yogis today are, 99.9 percent are, right-sided, even Indians are. The Bhakti people are lost; they are not yet here. They are another mad people. They are going to this Pandhari temple, praying to God, they are in the churches, they are in the temples, they are in the mosques, everywhere they are lost.

So, those who worship the moon, worship the Bhakti , the so-called love of God, are lost to Sahaja Yoga for the time being. More the intellectuals are here. Because they really lead others into another... they sound more sane than the other. But this movement towards the right is over-done.

So now, to bring Sahaja Yogis to normalcy is to bring them to the left side, as they are today, as they are today. That's why I took you down to villages, where people are very simple, very loving, very affectionate. With right-sided people, the brain is so wobbly that you can't bear any discomfort, you can't bear any discomfort. If there is any discomfort, you just can't bear it because all your energies are spent in your brain activity, which is useless and thoroughly rubbish, absolutely, creating nothing. But it makes you so tired that a slight discomfort in the body makes you very, very upset and you can't bear any physical discomfort. Now we Indians are so enamoured by your progress that we are also trying to follow your footsteps and with a double march.

Under these circumstances, one has to think of those people who really love God. There is Bhakti , there is devotion... they don't think, they don't worry; they are blindly following God. They know there is God and they said, “We will meet God sometime." Whatever mistakes they are creating, as you have committed mistakes with your right-sided behaviour, with the left side also, they are committing lots of mistakes, no doubt. But they are to be brought in. You have to meet them and they have to meet you.

They'll have a good effect on you, I know they will have. To become the moon now, is not so easy, because once you have become the sun, rather difficult, you have gone a little ahead. But to become the moon, you have to develop that Śhraddhā, that faith, that non-thinking faith, that love.

One may ask, “From where do you start when you sit for meditation?" I asked Modi what were the questions. “From where to start and where to end?" It's all again technique, only one technique I would prescribe for you people, every group requires a different type of a technique, you see, the kind of problems they face, is that you start with your heart and end there only. It starts from your heart, from your Ātmā and ends in your Ātmā. Just give up talking about it, just start feeling your heart; just start feeling your heart, opening it out, not your mouth so much as your heart. What do we do when we love? What is the sign and symptom? I don't know, in the West, if that glimpse of love is also there or not. But you can see in this country, still, say a mother, if her child is sick. I've known My own mother, when My brother was very sick with typhoid, for twenty-one days and nights she did not sleep a wink, she did not. If you have seen that kind of love, then you can understand what wonders... she never thought of her comfort, nothing, what time she slept, what time she got up. She didn't think of her food, nothing. She was just wanting that her son should be alright. Now, they said that twenty-one days he has to be sick whatever it is; if you try to cure it earlier, then it will have a relapse on him or some problem.

So, twenty-one days, really I've seen, that she didn't eat any food. She didn't know what she was eating; anybody who offered her food, she would eat little bit and then she would not; she had no desire left but to see that her child is cured. How much can we sacrifice for Sahaj Yoga? Then I'll give you another example, which I've seen Myself in My childhood. Now Indians are very different people, but I have seen very great Indians in this country. When the Britishers were here, they were another type of Britishers also, now you don't find them anywhere. Only thing, that Gandhiji said that you'll get swaraj, you'll get independence. Swaraji is actually, swa means your Spirit and the reign of the Spirit. But when he said swaraji, he meant political independence. And how much people sacrificed for that, which they did not enjoy themselves. In My own family, My own father who had houses, cars, everything. He was a titleholder, he used to get his clothes stitched from England, everything was taken away from him, everything that he had, everything. And we stayed in very ordinary huts on the soil itself.

There was nothing between us and the Mother Earth. But what we felt, that our father was doing it for such a great purpose, we were very proud of it. We never felt we were sacrificing anything; we were very much respected everywhere and people offered us free things but we would not accept. Such pride that we are doing it, such a great thing, for our own country, for our countrymen, for such a wider interest.

In Sahaja Yoga, you don't have to sacrifice anything. Neither money, nor your sleep, which is very important, nor your comforts, nothing. Everything you get cheap, you see this blessing. And what is promised to you is swaraj in the real sense, is the domain of your Spirit. The liberation of the highest type is promised, which you have achieved. And sacrifice is zero. You can't even sacrifice your time. On top of that, some people think that they are obliging Sahaja Yoga, specially Me. It is the absurdity of the whole thing. It was not definite also that we'll get independence at that time, nothing definite. They went to jail, My mother went to jail five times, with eleven children in the family, only we and our relations, everybody, staying in the house, all still not educated. Now we are other way round; today's politicians are busy making money, it is just the other way around system; other way around, it is just the other way around. I mean, I can't understand from where these people have come.

So, you don't have to sacrifice anything, nothing is to be sacrificed. Always, you get a added advantage in this way or that way, you are blessed every moment. Count your blessings. And then, one should start understanding that these blessings are for us to become more loving, more generous and sacrificing.

The idea that we are sacrificing itself is a ego-oriented idea. What do you sacrifice? What do we have, to sacrifice? I mean, supposing I say “I am sacrificing” it's nonsense, because that's My nature. I have to jolly well do it, can't help it, I can't run away. If I run away from you, My vibrations will make Me, bloat Me like this, I won't be able to even walk. I have to give. In the same way, you have to give realisation.

If you think that “In my house, Oh, I do lots of meditation Mother, I give exclusively, I am exclusive", finished. You cannot go further. You may have your own conception that you are going further with it, you are absolutely wrong. I allow you to continue with your myths. That doesn't mean that it is true.

People ask Me, “How many times should we attend the program? How many times should we meditate?" Every moment.

You have to take responsibility of Sahaja Yoga now. You have to become responsible for it in your own way. You have to do it because you are doing it for the greater good. The more you think of the greater good it is doing, the better it would be for you. All these are the qualities of the left side, heart, the Ātmā.

Ātmā is all the time giving, it cannot receive. That is why it is untarnishable, it is unsurmountable. Who can surmount it?, because it is the king of itself. Nobody can dominate, nothing; no material wealth, nothing can dominate it, it is above.

So, to get to subtler life, “Take to spiritual life” they say. But spiritual life means what, they don't understand. And `spirit' in English language, it is such a misnomer that for three things they use one word `spirit', can you imagine?, For the dead, for the spirit that they drink and the Spirit that, so-called, exists within them. It is absurd isn't it, to give such a name, one name to the three things, which are absolutely contradicting each other? So, to get to subtler life, one has to get to the Spirit, to the subtleties of everything.

Now, I'll give you a concrete example. You need not pull your ears for that, see to the subtleness. In Pune, people wanted to give you some presents. They said, “What should we give?" I said, “Give them the soil of Maharashtra." Every particle is vibrated here, clay of Maharashtra. Last time if you remember, they gave you a[n] incense burning, what we call, Dhupat in Marathi. I don't know what you call in English, there is no name for such a thing, but you know what they gave you. This time I said give some symbolic and I chose that for you. I wanted to see your reactions. What reactions you will have. It was chosen with a purpose. It is a very important thing you are taking with you. Is a very important thing, is vibrated clay from Maharashtra, it's a very great thing. Though in Pune, people are very miserly, agreed; they always make a mess of many things, agreed; but the soil is vibrated, is Puṇyas there. And out of that soil, I wanted to find out something that would be symbolic. I Myself went before the Pūjā to select it. Now, what you have made out of it is not so satisfactory. That is the most important thing, you are taking from here. All other things are of utility of a very gross nature. You may try; you can put a plant in it which will give vibrations.

So, I was told that they were asked to send it by ship. It is very wrong. But if I give you a silver thing, you will carry it with you, will you send it by ship? Nothing to pull your ears for.

But to get to subtler things is to understand the subtler values of everything. It cannot be weighed or understood through money. Because in the West, you know, people buy everything as an investment, everything. I don't know how they don't buy even their nose for an investment. Everything, they must be standardized, because it should have a resale value. I mean, imagine to have everything which is salable, means there is no feeling for that thing. They would buy even a certificate the same way; even the bed they sleep in, everything should be salable, resalable I mean. And this is the curse of that country. In this country, it is not so. For them, silver need not be so much standardized and gold need not be so much standardized. Gold they may like to have pure gold because it is good for vibrations. But such standardization in these things, it's all right for, say, bathroom pipes you should have standard; but for these small-small things there should be no standardization. Because they do not feel the vibrations.

If you start understanding things that have vibrations, then you will be amazed that the things, that they look so insipid, so useless, not resalable at all, you can say worthless, you can call it from all our standards absolutely worthless, could be so much useful. Like one hair of Mohammed Sahib, imagine one hair of Mohammed Sahib; shroud of Christ... shroud of Christ, but that also they are selling now, they are making money out of that also. I mean, thanks to these Western people, everything is saleable.

So, once you start going to the subtler side of the physical things, not only aesthetic, aesthetics are also salable, but things that cannot be sold: you cannot sell your spirit. They should be the most precious things for you, which is the most precious energy for you. Our values are changed. We are different people.

Which is the most precious energy for us?, is the living energy. The synthesized energy of all the energies is the living energy. But we believe in money energy or destructive energies or atomic energies, electrical energies, now petrol energies and all these points will be hit, to understand that you have to do without them.

So, the greatest thing for a Sahaja Yogi is the living energy and the sign of living energy is that it grows and discards all that is useless for it. It knows how to work it out. In the same way, a Sahaja Yogi should know what is important, what is unimportant. You are judged every moment, naturally, because you have entered into the judgment of God.

This understanding of becoming subtler comes through love. What is love, is hard to describe. You can only enjoy it. I enjoy it, when a villager brings something so simple and makes Me eat that. Like the small little fruits called ber were given to Śhrī Rāma. Śhrī Rāma Himself was born on the right side.

Great example for all of you is Śhrī Rām who was on the right side, who works the right side. When He was born and He was a child... He is a Sūryavanshi, He is the son of Sūrya. I mean Sūrya, everything comes from the Sun to Him. When He was born and was a little child, He asked His mother that “I would like to have the Moon." He started crying and nobody knew how to satisfy. He said “I want to have the Moon." They gave him any toys, he'd throw away. They said, “What a child it is, funny thing... He wants to have the moon, now how to get Him the moon?" They did not know how to solve the problem.

He said, “Somehow you get Me the moon. I don't want to eat or anything, I want to have the moon." Here the moon represents the Ātmā, the cooling capacity. He asked for the moon. You are all on the right side, so ask for the moon. Ask for the Spirit. And they didn't know how to satisfy this Śhrī Rāma, who was the incarnation of Śhrī Viṣhṇu, asking for the moon of all the things, not for anything else. What is so important? So, the mother has always a intuition. She brought a... it's a, it's a Rāmāyaṇa, it is a beautiful drama. She brought a mirror and showed Him the moon in the mirror. He said, “Now you can get the moon here." So sweet! And He was satisfied. Even the reflection of that can satisfy. You are like the mirrors and I want to see the reflection of moon in you.

The love we talk of, is to be subtler. It becomes really subtler when you really enjoy. Like giving something to someone is one of the ways of judging it. When you start to enjoy giving, not taking, just giving, then you should know on material level you have felt, you have touched that shore of subtlety on material level only. On emotional level you can, in India, I mean, everybody loves their children, I mean it's a bit too much, going too far. I mean, they can even sell their country in the name of their children.

It is going too far, their wives, I mean, it is a trip, their husbands, is a bit too much. The other side is in the West, where they don't believe in all this nonsensical love. In between, the subtlety of love is that love a person, not with any reasoning, with any way of gain or any relationship whatsoever, just emit love.

Whether you are recognized or not, just emit love is the subtler way of loving. That love cures people, that love comforts, that's the comforting side, it comforts. To begin with, we should see to the comforts of others. Self-indulgence is against that love. People would like to make My bed. All right, they love Me I know. But it must permeate to others. They love Me and second they love themselves. That's no good.

Between Me and them there is a big gap. All that is filled by others. Who are the others?, Are the Sahaja Yogis. We would never make a bed of another Sahaja Yogi, out of love also, very difficult, it's too much. But to find out the faults with other Sahaja Yogis, “You got up very early, you opened the tap bit loudly, I couldn't sleep." This is a very common complaint. “They banged the door early in the morning, they made a noise." Because your brains are out now, with thinking. You are so much strained here that you can't bear any sounds anywhere. I mean, people can only live in a churchyard happily I think, if that is the situation. While in India, you see, we don't mind any kind of noise anywhere. I mean, as it is, wherever I have stayed there has been a railway station around. We could hear all the shunting, everything going on and I enjoyed really all that.

So, when we start comforting others, to give comfort to their physical body, to their mental body, that is also a very farfetched thing. Because to say comforting things, to say beautiful things to others, is regarded, I don't know what. In the West it is very hard to find people who can find out words to say sweet things to others. Same in India, specially in Maharashtra. Marathi language can be very harsh.

Speak sweet words; say something sweet; be kind and nice. It is so nice to hear that you are sweet to each other.

When people come and tell Me that “Such and such Sahaja Yogi came and comforted me and was very kind” I really feel Sahaja Yoga is working in a big way. I feel it in a very big way. You may have thousands of them, what is it? There is no quality there. Try to mold your Viśhuddhi in a proper way, otherwise you will have Viśhuddhi troubles, I must say. Try to use language which is extremely sweet. It doesn't mean hypocrisy, no. You are great inside, you want to love. But there is a barrier of your ego.

When your light of love passes through that ego, it gets falsified, it gets ruined, it gets spoilt and then you say harsh words to others. Try to be sweet, through your Viśhuddhi Chakra. Once you start doing that, you will develop your witness state very well. Because, first of all, you witness yourself, which is trying to be nasty to others and enjoy that nastiness. There is a Hitler sitting in your Viśhuddhi and that Hitler you start seeing, “All right, Mister Hitler." It wants to say something very harsh, you see, because that appeals to your ego, which we call as intelligence. You see our misidentifications are, you see, “You are very intelligent, very sharp." That's only ego, one of the agents of ego.

So try to be sweet in your tongue.

It is very easy to make fun of people for small things here and there, anything making easy. In Maharashtra, people are known for such a thing, how to make fun of everyone. But when we start making fun of others, we also become a target of fun. English also are like that, very much. Everyone, I should say, but English are quite special, to make fun of everyone. Of course, Sahaja Yogis are now realizing. Everyone has their own style of dealing with things. Like, I would say Americans are, they have no respect of themselves, no respect for themselves. I mean, they have no respect at all, for themselves or anybody else's life or any... They have no respect of any kind. Indians are hypocritical, very hypocritical people. Like that, everybody has problem.

Now you have become Sahaja Yogis, you are no more English, Indians, Americans, nothing. You are Sahaja Yogis. You belong to a great, very, very great organization of God. And Sahaja Yoga is the place where you have to learn, in every way. For Indians have to learn how to be honest and English have to learn how to love. Americans have to learn how to be self-respecting. All of us have to learn, give up what we had, our identifications and have to become subtler and universal and people of such values that anybody who sees will say that in America Mother has created Abraham Lincolns, in Russia Tolstoys, in Maharashtra Shivajis. I'm too ambitious, I should say; but I see reality in you and reality in Myself. On that basis, I say, one has to create people of that special quality which they have sterling qualities, sterling qualities, spiritual qualities which are so subtle, so beautiful, so sweet, so understanding. And still, just like steel, nobody can budge them from their own principles, Tattwas. That is what it is, so simple as that.

And then you start enjoying your love, enjoying your virtues, enjoying everything and having compassion for others.

Then you don't catch; you catch because you don't have compassion. In compassion you'll never catch, never. A mother never gets a disease from her child. She never gets a disease from her child, it's a fact.

Child may be a tuberculosis patient or could be any patient, she never catches because she loves.

In the same way, when you really love, you'll never catch anything. Then what is the question of what is to clear, where to clear, what to do, what does it matter? You are just flowing your heart. At this moment, My children, My Sahaja Yogis are at that level that they can completely open their heart without any fear. It's a very different stage you have reached now; you are at a different stage. Just assume your powers. Know that you are that. Just open your heart.

Like, the other day I saw somebody, he was caught up very badly from all the sides, not Sahaja Yogi, somebody else. And I asked him, “How did you manage to get so many bhoots into yourself?" Every, every Guru you name, he is there. I said, “How did you manage?" He said, “I have a very open heart." “Oh God” I said. I said, “It's like an open window in a dirty place. You get every smell, every mosquitoes and bugs walking into it." So, the fear of opening your heart to that extent, comes from that, from that experience. But now, you are at such a stage that, open your heart. There should be no fear; there will be no problem, material problems are not difficult to be solved. Like, somebody was taking My photograph which was in a silver frame and she was rather worried because the customs may stop her not taking. Of course, photograph they can't stop, but maybe the silver frame. And this gentleman told Me that he was taking it with him with a frame, silver frame and he thought people will object. But as soon as they saw the photograph they said namas-kār to the photograph, forgot about the frame.

So many problems can be solved, material problems, is so simple to be solved, so simple. Is the easiest to be solved, physical problems also. I have known of some Sahaja Yogis who have been in Sahaja Yoga six, seven years. But still they are frightened about their body, their physical body, the troubles they have had and this and that. If they can just leave that fear, they'll get out of it. It is such a vicious circle built in. And the same thing works out with our open heart surgery, as we call it. We are afraid that our heart will be again be caught up into nonsensical things, so we don't want to open our heart. That fear I can understand. But now you are Sahaja Yogis, finished. Ask all these people to get lost. All these fears, you should ask them to get lost.

When you discover that you are the Spirit, you are that powerful Spirit, just try to steady. How it feels happy. It's very simple. When do you feel really happy? Is when you give something, not to Mātājī only. To Me you are, I know. If I take something from you, you will feel very happy about it, I know.

But to somebody else; give some love, comfort. What a great power this voice and this vāṇi has, that you can comfort others by saying good things. Can you imagine what a power God has given you? Without spending a single pi, you can comfort others, only by saying good things. If you say mantra, you'll comfort them more in a subtle way. If you instill love of God within them, it is even greater. And the joy of that is so much because the Spirit is joy. The more you open it out, the more light comes in, more it works out.

So give up that fear which is placed within you in your experiences. Now, this is a new experience of a new life, where your energy comes from the Spirit, which is love. In one word it is love. And in three words, it is truth, it is attention and it is joy. All put together it is love. When you mix them up, it becomes love.

And that is what you have, it's the great power of love. Through your attention you love others, even attention is sufficient. To be attentive... see, I needed a handkerchief, all right. That's true. I needed a handkerchief. I forgot. I mean, usually I forget all these things. Then they felt the need, “Mother needs just a handkerchief." They brought the handkerchief; a very simple action, you know, but the attention is on Me. With little things like handkerchief you can comfort people. For a Sahaja Yogi, even to give a handkerchief, itself is so vibrated, itself.

To win over other people is also this way: to be kind to them, to give them. But to give them realisation is the highest thing. Now, when you become subtler and subtler, you will see that you will not have sympathies with people who are afflicted, not sympathies, but you will have love for them. There is a big difference between sympathy and love. When you have sympathy means what? You share pathos.

Pathos. If you want to share pathos, share. Very good idea is to share pathos. But if you want to share joy, you will not have sympathy, you'll have love. You want to share your joy of your Spirit with another person, so you may talk to that person in a way that may not look so much pleasing and falling at his feet, and, you see, this is the work of politicians or business people, not yours. You are not seeking any business out of them; you want them to come to realisation.

So, you have to say things which are wrong very firmly. With a real firm hand you have to say, “This is absolutely wrong, absurd." You have to convince on that point, on that if you go on saying, like this, like that, it will never go into their heads because they are bhoots and you have to hit them hard. That is also love.

So, love is the strongest thing and the sweetest thing. Is such a beautiful combination and the one who has the wisdom, that subtler wisdom, can only achieve it. Now again the mind will work, “How to do it?" So, I think all of you should put this word `how' into the sea. There is another very good word in English language, which you should use: “why not!" That's the way you can assure yourself, ascertain yourself, work it out that way into complete placing of God. You have to just pass those blessings to others, that's all. Nothing more is to be done, just pass that light to others. For that, what you need is a man who has accepted love as his career, a man who worships love, a person who thinks love is above all.

So today, to save the Sūrya from grahana, we extend our love to Him and ask Him to create love in the hearts of people who worship Him. Those who worship Sūrya, must know that Christ resides in that center, who was nothing but love. All His life He loved. He sacrificed Himself because He loved you so much that He wanted you all to get into the kingdom of God. He sacrificed Himself at the altar of God's forbidden territories. He made it possible for you to go there by sucking your ego and superego. He is the messenger of love who was born on the Sūrya.

So, to do the greatest justice to Sūrya is to decide today that you will take up love as your worshipping, as your Pūjā.

May God bless you all! Any questions? Yes.

Question: What about the Australians, Mother?

Shri Mataji: They are rather safe people, but they have to be deeper. They still are under a shock, I would say that they think that they are away from the whole world, separated and they have to get into deeper ways of life. They are loving people compared to other countries, no doubt, but one has to go deep down, deep down. You have to be very deep, very deep. You should know that Australia was once placed between Africa and India. I am going to Perth, the African side and then to Indian side which is Sydney and all these places. But you must not be satisfied with all the Western culture you have imbibed, the Western things you have, you are not in the West, you are in the East. Because you are not on the West, if you try to follow them, it's just mimicry, it's very superficial.

So, not the Sahaja Yogis I am saying, but otherwise, the people, Australians are very superficial people. They drink much more than the Scotland people drink, I mean in every way, they are very, very too much and that's how they are wrong.

So they have to get to the subtler side by developing deeper understanding into the aesthetics of life, into the beauties of life, the beauties of language, all right? This is how if they go about, it would be wonderful place. English are very developed that way. They have lots of beauties, understanding of beauties, this thing, that thing. But they have become, sort of, they think they are the wisest of all, they are stupid.

And they think they are the wisest. Australians, on the whole do not think they are the wisest, but they should know they can become the wisest. Because you live on superficial level, you see you think that everything should be tackled on superficial level, that's not the point. You can be the wisest. As English could be, you could be, anybody could be. And as it is the Mūlādhāra, you should be the first to become the wisest. Maybe that the message of Sahaja Yoga should start more from Australia.

So, go deep into yourself. Depth must be developed.

They are still very fond of the sea and the sun, this they will do all their lives, there's no need to worry about anything like that, it's nothing important. The sea is within you, the sun is within you, the Ātmā is within you, everything is within you. Try to enjoy within. Give up the idea of going to the nature for it or anywhere, it's within yourself, it's all within. That is what I mean that if you look at things superficially, you take it from other people, now the craze of going out is finished in England, practically people don't move out that way. Or they don't go to the sea also to that extent. But, still in Australia, you have to learn all that. Instead of learning the hard way, it's better to do it in a shorter way, is to become deeper and deeper. Cut down your activities, become deeper, meditate more than going to the sea. Sea visits are bit too much I think, also the sun bathing is also too much, is all very superficial. They all have liver problems, you shouldn't go to the sun anymore, you should actually shut all your houses and sit down inside and meditate. What a problem we have of liver.

So, do not treat any question superficially because God has given you, basically you are made of wisdom.

You know, the whole soil has wisdom in it. But where is it, do you find it anywhere in Australia? It's hard to find wise people, isn't it? Sahaja Yogis can't talk to other Australians, poor things. The reason is, you are following other people who are not all right. Follow yourself only. Go deep down, is wisdom there, lot of wisdom. Find out yourself, because you are wisdom, you will give wisdom to the whole world, it's all like that you know, everywhere upside down conditions. In Australia, it should be wisdom personified; they are the most unwise people. They will always support the wrong type of people in their diplomacy. I mean all sorts of unwise things they do. Why? Because they have not gone to their own depths of finding out their wisdom. Like Maharashtrians have got Kuṇḍalinī, they are sleeping. They are busy with this movement of going to this temple, for one month they will walk down to that temple and worship Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa there. They don't want to see. And to add up to it, they take lot of tobacco in different ways.

You see, even they use manjan, a kind of a powder made out of tobacco to rub their teeth, can you believe it? I mean teeth, which is Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa's place. They rub it with this finger nicely and go to worship Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa there in the temple, absurd people. They take a little bit of this tobacco, to make it stronger, mix it up with a kind of a chuna, what you call, calcium carbonate kind of a thing and put it here near these gums which is also Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa and go on singing for one month, not eat any food, do anything and go there and get their heads broken by these horrible Brahmins there. And this is Kuṇḍalinī's place, just imagine.

Same in Europe which is the liver, which is the Nābhī. And they are the people who drink and eat.

They consume more food than anybody else in the whole world can consume. You go to Spain, you are amazed, they can devour everyone. Then Americans, they also eat a lot. But Americans are, as I told you, they have no self-respect. No self-respect. They'll give you five rupees and tell you hundred times, we have given you five rupees, five rupees, it is horrible. Those who do not have self-respect cannot respect another person. And they themselves can be parasitic, very parasitic, extremely parasitic people.

There was an organization who wrote to [UNCLEAR], he was so angry with them. They said, “Mother is such a rich lady, why shouldn't She pay for Her travel to America and also pay for their halls? We'll give Her food." So [UNCLEAR] got very angry. I said, “No, tell them also I will pay for My food and yours also." And also get some nice presents for you. It's all right. And they asked Me that, I went to a church and they said, “No, no we have to give You some money after all." I said, “Why?" They said, “It is a custom to have a collection." I said, “No, please don't have." They had a collection, it was I think three dollar and two cents, three dollar, two cents they collect. I mean, no self-respect of any kind.

They think whatever they do is all right, so ego-oriented, horrible. Always support wrong nations, always support wrong policies. Like they'll support Argentina, Chileans who are horribly oppressive people. They have killed thousands and thousands of their civilians, simple people and just they are autocrats. All the Germans have reached there and the Germans are teaching them the fascism, the fascism is going to grow in these countries and take over these so-called peanut people. But they will support them and not Cuba, because it is communism. All right, communism is bad, democracy is good, what are you doing as democrats? You are supporting autocrats, always support wrong things. Made a mess in Vietnam, made a mess there, everywhere. They don't know how to witness things properly. But they had Abraham Lincoln, so for that you have to excuse the whole country, but you can't live with one Abraham Lincoln.

These days Indians are horrible. I mean, you can kill somebody here and can pay some money and get out of it. This is what it is. The politicians put money when they want to have money, so all wasters, all useless people are supported by business people here. The business people give money, the politicians fight elections and the whole is under the control of few business people who are miserly, horrible, absolutely useless, self-indulgent people. And these politicians take over, they are wasters, brieess lawyers, wasters, useless people who have no brains, they become ministers, it's such a mess, everything for money. Anybody who is intelligent, cannot have much money, is a fact. It doesn't go hand in hand. A person who is a worshipper of Saraswatī doesn't get so much Lakṣhmī. Always, you will find. You talk to a businessman, immediately you know, something is little loose. That's true with Americans also, little loose. And if you talk to an intellectual, you find something very tight. This is the problem. And because of this, the money-oriented people in this country are stupid people.

So you have to play into the hands of stupid people.

Now, this is the country where the Yogeshwara lived. Great saints lived, they didn't care for all the styles and all that. What is the need for Indians to have all these styles, they should live well, they should be clean, neat, they should not be insipid, because Lakṣhmī stays here. But the way they are becoming modern, you see, wearing nylons and having stainless steel in the house. For them, when I told them that I am going to make huts for your ashram, they were little bit [UNCLEAR]. We are not going to have cements, I know Australians hate cement. We are not going to have cement, that's one thing I am sure of.

We can have stones, but no cements. You see, our ashram is going to be an ideal for everyone. It cannot be like any other.

So don't try to give Me examples of other ashrams. I am not going to take any hints from anyone. We are going to live in beautiful huts, very comfortably under the protection of Mother's love.

So, any other questions? From Australians, I had to drag in everybody, because I don't want anybody to feel hurt. Never scold one person, scold at least ten then it's all right. I am not going to say anything to him. Now what is it, what is the other question? Question: What is France, Mother?

Shri Mataji: I have already told you, France is a drunkard. And all the drunkards have no values left in them. They have no values about morality, no values at all. I mean, they are drunkards you see, no chetanā, they are not aware, they are not human beings, they are drunk. That's what they are. They are drunkards and they are supposed to be the Nābhī, the liver. Imagine, liver being drunk, horrible. But you don't run away from France, all right? I know why he asked this question, they all want to run away. If you are a real French, you have to look after French people; it's your duty, you are duty bound. If you are a Brahmin, you have to correct all the Brahmins, if you are Maratha, you have to correct all the Marathas.

If you are really that, if I am an Indian, I have to correct Indians. I have to correct them; I have to bring them to the right path. Or should I also help them to go to hell? We have to look after them; they are your own people. To pull them out, even if you have one little bit of a sarī in your hand, you can pull out the whole sarī. Keep your grip there. That is wisdom. Nobody has to get out from anywhere; you settle down everywhere, I have settled you down for some purposes. Don't have to shift; there is no need to shift. Nobody has to shift.

Question: What about South America, Africa, China?

Shri Mataji: You see, I would suggest that all these countries are their part and parcel. But, as it is, we have many centers in our body, isn't it? Not only seven. But we have to concentrate on first of all the seven major ones.

So let us concentrate on these seven because we can operate also there, those we have already got. Once you start working in those countries, I will talk about that also. Because at their back, I shouldn't say anything. When they will be here, I will tell all about them. Africa is, God save them. I don't know. As it is they were very good, but you people went and put your ideas into their heads.

So, they are lost cases, absolutely lost cases. I don't know. They have such organized religions and for primitive people, if you give them any organized religion; like Indian Christians are. They are one of the worst people we can think of, the Jews, Indian Jews, Indian Muslims, they are extremely fanatic, I mean extremely fanatic. Even you all Christians become Sahaja Yogis, the Indian Christians will not.

For them, dog of the missionary is also to be worshipped, yes, this is the case. That's why I took My birth in that community.

So this is what is. You have gone and converted them into Christianity. And there are, others are Muslims. They are very fanatic you see. A new Muslim eats lot of onions they say, because Indians don't eat so much onions you see, so he eats more onions to prove that he is a Muslim.

That's what it is. And you have harmed them very much by giving them Christianity, so-called. I hope they will realise that things will work out. We are working through Algeria; Algeria is taking shape, but it's a autocratic country, all sorts of things are there. Let's see, we have to depend on Sahaja Yoga and Sahaja Yogis. Sahaja Yogis more than anything. All right? May God bless you all! Question: What is Anādi and Anahada? Shri Mataji [replies in Hindi]: When you become the Spirit, then nothing should be visible to you.

You become that. When you come inside this, then nothing outside will be visible to you. The seeing of colours, when there is a movement to the right side of the Āgñyā, then you see start seeing the colours.

The hearing of the sound or Anahada, that is talked about, this is also to be understood. The hearing of Anahad does not happen through these [external] ears. When the ears inside us open, the sound of that is like the sound of sweet music. And that which is heard by external ears is not Anahad, it means that there is a problem of some kind. What this means is that either you have done lot of worship, for example, like chanting of the Gāyatrī mantra, then you will hear that sound, because by chanting of the Gāyatrī mantra, your movement is to the right side. Movement to the right side generates heat in you. Because of this heat, your nerves start getting dry. And when the nerves of the ear and nose become dry, because of this drying, these type of sounds start coming. That is entirely physical and there is no joy in it. But when Anahad is heard internally, then in a way, it is not heard, but it is felt, for all things the rhythm manifests itself. It is not heard. Because of that a type of peace is felt within, a type of rhythm is felt within. Like when you hear some music, you start walking with a kind of a rhythm. In the same way, when the music inside starts, then it is not visible to you, but it actually happens in you. The rhythm starts manifesting in your talking and speaking, sweetness manifests. This is the difference. [UNCLEAR]. Colours also should not be visible. Nothing should be visible. Understood? It has to be corrected, it will happen. I will tell you, it is because of the Āgñyā Chakra. It will happen by correcting the Āgñyā Chakra.

[In English]: She asked Me a question that you hear Anahad noises. She hears noises in her ear.

Contents: 1982-01-26 Pūjā, 33rd Republic Day Celebration, Lonavala, Maharashtra, India

Sahaja Yogis and Sahaja Yoginis: Śhrī Nirmalā Devī ki Jai, Mātā Nirmalā Devī ki... Jai, Ādi Shakti Nirmalā Devī ki... Jai... Mātā Nirmalā Devī ki... Jai.

Shri Mataji: Before that I know that people think this time, this. But we have to go according to the auspicious time. Isn't it? Because to get maximum effect.

So we have to start Pūjā later. I also went for bath afterwards.

So this is what it is. One has to understand that when you start the Pūjā is very important. [Marathi.] Aā...

seventeen past eleven. I didn't see this. I didn't see this book.

Sahaja Yogi: Uh this ah, this pratipadha is the first day of Navarātri... Maghi Navarātri we call which is auspicious week.

So the first day starts at eleven seventeen and ends tomorrow morning eleven thirty three.

So we are starting just in time.

Shri Mataji: You see if you see a watch it would be all wrong because that is how I had to go for My bath also after [UNCLEAR pick up My clothes]. [Marathi.] I never read this book, see this, see where they described. I know it is.

So you can tally it also. You see it is easy to see the watch and walk. You see if you give up watch and do it in auspicious time half of your problems will be solved.

Again it's a great day. It's a day of our independence of this great country and also the national day of Australia. It is such a great thing to be independent and free. The worst thing is the slavery. Today we celebrate our freedom from that slavery that we had for three hundred years. But slavery does not go easily only by celebrating our independence day. It has to go completely from our minds. And one has to realise that we are really independent people now. We are independent it does not mean that we are abandoned people. Those who have not paid anything to achieve this independence cannot understand also the value of this independence. The slavery is in our mind still lingering on. Indians are now more westernized, anglicized than they were ever before. Before independence as they had to struggle out of it they protested. But when we became independent we started thinking that we should also imbibe all the bad qualities from the West.

So this is also a kind of a slavery which is very subtle. Also the people who ruled us are still carrying on with the idea that [they are] still ruling us. Is all imaginary. Both things are imaginary. They don't exist anymore. As far as we are concerned in India, we have to know that this independence was granted to us through God's grace. We have won it through non-violence and truth and granted to us, for us to achieve our spiritual ascent. To become spiritually enlightened and find out from our root what truth has been laid for us. Now we have to judge within ourselves as Sahaja Yogis, how much slavery is still there in our minds. If somebody writes something a Sahaja Yogi is not supposed to believe it because now he is bestowed with the blessings of his Kuṇḍalinī. He has his vibratory awareness to judge everything and see for himself that whatever he is doing, he is doing in an absolute way. Unless and until the country achieves its absolute freedom we have to still say that it is still under the pressures of slavery. This time it may not be the slavery of other people but it could be the slavery of your own Shadripus, your six enemies. We have to fight them. In Sahaja Yoga the greatest enemy now we have to face is our own ego. Even when they get realisation, even when they get vibrations, even when they are realised, they do not understand that it is all God's grace that it has happened. The ego stands in between and tries to give ideas. This is the worst thing for a Sahaja Yogi. Because now you have become a different person and you should develop a personality which can suck in more vibrations. If you were not so Anglicized and if you had read about Devī Māhātmyam and all that you would have recognized Me much more. But because of your education you cannot recognize Me.

So you have got realisation. Now better recognize Me. It is very difficult for people to take to truth. Because truth, people don't want to accept. And this ego business comes in between you and your truth. This ego separates you from truth and creates problem. What is the meaning of Pūjā? There is no need to think about it. If your ego is less you can feel it on your hands, in your being and after a Pūjā you will feel very much relieved. But a person who is an outsider will think, this Mother is very ego-oriented. She wants to do... asks people to do Her Pūjā... because they cannot feel anything out of the Pūjā. Only you who are realised and who are now settled down as Sahaja Yogis are the people [who] can understand what is the meaning of Pūjā is.

But even among you I know there are snakes in the grass. I know them, all of them. But they will remain snakes all their lives and they will remain snakes even when they die. One has to realise that it is for your benefit I allow you to have the Pūjā. It's not very comfortable for Me. It's different if the Devatās have to do the Pūjās as the deva because very simple people they are. They know Me too well. The understanding is simple. For them it's a great pleasure to do the Pūjā. It's a great privilege to the Pūjā. It's a great blessings that they can do Pūjā. But to you it is your great ego which goes on telling you stories.

So some people who are still on that low level still continue with their low level ideas. You have to come up a little to receive the blessings. I have nothing to gain from you. You have to gain from Me. Actually for at least three years when I started My work I didn't want even to talk about Ādi Shakti. But if you want to talk about Me to anybody don't tell them what you have discovered. We have an inner circle and outer circle.

And be careful about people who belong to the outer circle. Do not include them in the inner circle. They can never understand what Pūjā means. Only those who have come up to that point should be allowed in the Pūjā. You don't have to pay for it. You don't have to exert for it. Its only I exert. But you have to receive it.

Some people will be like that. But you have to go forward into a dedication and understanding of Sahaja Yoga. In England, when I went there, I was very much worried about starting the Pūjā.

So when the people came down here they saw that Indians were worshipping Me and all that and they started the Pūjā. Still for people to understand that why My hands or feet should be washed with a particular type of a mixture is rather vague. But for other Western people it is absolutely impossible to conceive because they have not known anything about the Devī. They have not know a word about the Devī. This knowledge is only in this country. I think in Greece also. In Greece people had this knowledge.

So once you have discovered a new source of Shakti [power] you have to understand that this is the way it has to be done. There's a protocol. This is the method, is discovered not by Me but by saints and seers. It is the seers who have written down about Me. I have not written down anything about Myself. Like scientist they have discovered about Me what makes the Goddess happy, what makes all the deities happy. They have discovered by using different methods, scientific research I should say or spiritual scientific ways they have discovered. As young Sahaja Yogis and new Sahaja Yogis you have to accept their verdict and you have to see what they have said works out or not. And if it works out one has to know that it is only for your benefit and for the benefit of the whole humanity I am sitting in flesh here for you to do My worship. I do not want to say anything which means claiming something or boosting or something. Like when Christ said something they crucified Him. You can't crucify Me. You can't. You try, your level best, you can't. I know that. I don't want to say something that will make your ego come up like a snake and hold a hood on your head. This is the only consideration I have. That's why I don't want to say much.

The seers have said about Me. Now you have seen the difference in terms and signs of a Goddess.

So to become purer and purer first of all allow all these negative thoughts to be away from your mind. Any such thought comes into your mind you say no, not this, not this, not. All these six enemies attack you through thought only. There is no other way out. First it comes as a thought then it can become a physical pain, it can become a mental agony, it can become anything. But if you are in your thoughtless awareness then they cannot attack.

So try to develop your thoughtless awareness, in your meditation.

So this is the first step towards your freedom, liberation. From these six enemies must get out. These six enemies are still waiting at the doors and they will get hold of you. Even if there is a mine of gold here and if you do not know the method, how to extract the gold out of it you will remain poor. First you must recognize and then you must know the method, how to extract. Thank God you are born at a time that most of the things are discovered about the Goddess and I don't have to tell you. It's very embarrassing. But those who have searched for you have already laid it down and it is better that you surrender your ego and take up their ways how they do it and how they have done it and what have they prescribed.

There language is not so important. What is important is what they are trying to communicate. They have given something great to you. You have to give something great to your children, to your progeny.

And what are you going to give them? There were very few people who gave such great methods and ways to you. Now you have to give your progeny the witness, witnessing of this great Mahā Yoga, the manifestation of this Mahā Yoga that you have seen with your own eyes, with your own hands feeling it, with your whole body feeling it. This is what you have to give to others. This is the most precarious time and the precarious year. In this year we can achieve a lot if you really understand at this moment the importance of getting liberation, of moksha that you have got. You have to give mokshas to other.

By giving to others only your moksha will improve. Those people who are still planning and trying to make you see a device or and an intrigue and all that is really working out for themselves. They are going against themselves. And these things are very dangerous. As a Mother I would say that anybody who tries such things can affect seven generations in a family. It's not only in one generation this finishes off.

In seven generation it goes.

So after coming to Sahaja Yog, after getting realisation you do not exist only as a angel which has fallen down but you become responsible for seven generations in your family.

So one has to be very very careful and that is why in the Pūjā we do not allow people who according to us are not up to the point.

Shri Mataji: [Marathi.] One each will do.

[Marathi.]

Sahaja Yogi: [Marathi.]

Shri Mataji: Senior people. I mean from any centre you see new people should not. Those who been very long... then... Tomorrow Modi will be finishing his ten years as a Sahaja Yogi.

So senior people. It should be new people but senior people should come. [Marathi.] There should be no formality about it. Not new people but senior people, very senior. Tell Dhumal.

Sahaja Yogi: Dhumal.

Shri Mataji: Who is from city? Ask senior people [UNCLEAR]. Who is from Pune? Senior? Yogi: Deshpande, Deshpande.

Shri Mataji: [Marathi.] Yogi: [Marathi.]

Shri Mataji: Senior most. Deshpande.

Shri Mataji: Uh?... Uh?... Uh? Yogi: From France [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: From France who is the oldest member here? From France? [UNCLEAR Anik? Anik.] Who is the oldest member from Switzerland? Uh? [Sahaja Yogis taking in the background.]

Shri Mataji: No Sahaja Yogi. Not age-wise. The one who has been the longest in Sahaja Yoga.

Mohila come along, Mohila is the... And Delhi? Venugopalan is very old from Delhi. Though now he is a Bombaite but still. He can, he can be considered. He has done such a lot of work for Sahaja Yoga. Who? Who else has come from Pune? [Sahaja Yogis talk in the background.]

Shri Mataji: Uh? Who? Sahaja Yogis: Deshpande, Deshpande.

Shri Mataji: [Marathi.]

Shri Mataji: From Canada? I mean they may not be very senior now because we have started recently anyone will do. One person has to come. Uh? She's from Canada? From U.S.A.? Uh? All those who are newcomers should be very careful, you see. You come along. Sit down. Sit down, please. Hm..

Sahaj Yogi: [talk in background.]

Shri Mataji: Uh... London? Come from London, Rustom.

[Marathi.]

Contents: 1982-01-27 Pūjā, Be Thankful to God or Attachment to Comfort, Sholapur, Maharashtra, India

In this Maharashtra, people walked miles together, singing the praise of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. They walked day in and day out.

Some people walked for two months to come to this temple of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa as [UNCLEAR Pundum/penance]. And you too will have to do a little bit of that.

So you can imagine those who must have walked day in and day out, sleeping in the open in between where there could be snakes or anything. And then taking some food on the way wherever they get it, or maybe fasting, with great penance they come to this temple, singing the praise of God.

[Aside in Marathi:] [UNCLEAR.] So these penance you also had to go through; all the Saints had to go through penances much more, much much much more than you ever had done or you could ever have done. That was just to improve the quality of your life; the quality of your life.

If you live very comfortably, then the quality of your life is not alright. First of all you do not understand the miseries and the troubles of other people. That doesn't mean you break your head with some stones or things like that. Doesn't mean that way. I have to tell you the other side of it. But one should know what people go through, through poverty. Also for achieving God's grace.

And one of the things I am assured that you will be eating very late here and I told people that no use making food for them but I just kept quiet [laughs] because, because the thing was there. But in any case being Sahaja Yogis you must have enjoyed it.

And we have organized a program by which you can go and see a temple, which was really My great desire to reach a temple like that, which will take about three hours on the train.

So 108 saints who had born on this great land of Maharashtra. And they have made their statues, maybe 1 or two maybe wrong I don't know, but most of them are there. All the historical ones are there.

So they have arranged your visit to that place, which you should see.

The quality of life has to be improved. By not showing off; it's not a showing off. You see the cunning of the ego also can be only improved if you go through some hardships there. Ego can be very much corrected through hardships. Because you are so much used to comfort and self indulgence, our ego always is supported. And `I don't like it, I like it', we decide on two points, which is a very wrong thing.

So to improve the quality of life one has to go through, troubles. People very easily in the west say “I'm fed up, I'm tired." I mean they don't even think that saying this will hurt another person. Very common. I mean I was [UNCLEAR surprised] by it. Or even to say “I hate you" is very easy. There the tongue is just not educated properly. The tongue is not educated.

So Sahaja Yoga is the new religion in which your eyes, your nose, your ears, your tongue everything, all these organs are educated; taught to say things, to hear things, to see things that are genuine, sincere, beautiful and Divine. If we could develop such organs we will be the best Sahaja Yogis.

Also one should not complain. Anybody who complains is not a Sahaja Yogi. Your Mother never complains. When I am tortured by people you know that I never complain.

So you should also not complain about anything. For physical comforts you complain is the baser thing, but even for other things one should never complain. Be thankful. Count your Blessings one by one.

The best way to understand is that we are the gainers in Sahaja Yoga. We are going to gain out of Sahaja Yoga.

So there should be only thankfulness. Thankfulness towards God that he has been kind to give us these things. That is the main thing.

If you have that thankfulness you can bear up all these troubles because it cushions you up. It gives you a cushion. And you won't feel it. Once you are in that ecstasy of thankfulness you will not feel anything.

Even the thorns of life will not touch you.

So get to that ecstasy. Such a great protection, it's such a great pleasure, it's such a great Blessing. Get to that ecstasy of feeling how God has been gracious.

You are the one of the first Sahaja Yogis from various countries. Maybe after ten years or so other Sahaja Yogis may not have the pleasure of travelling by buses. May not have all these troubles that you have had. Maybe that they might get an air conditioned, beautiful, ah what do you call it, bedroom attached bath sort of a place, maybe I don't know how they change over. And they won't have this kind of variety or anything. But you are the foundations so you are to be beaten up properly into proper shape.

[Laughter.] And brought out to that level that you can withstand all the [UNCLEAR drunks] and all the problems.

Because the new comers and poor-quality people can only be sustained by people of strong quality, loving quality, beautiful quality. And the quality of life is the purpose of this trip.

So if you still have ideas of your comfort and all that you better leave them in Switzerland, in Paris and in England or in America. Here you have come to take up in yourself the discomfort of life. Thousands are living like this in much less conditions. Why are you so privileged to have all the comforts of life? Why should you have all the comforts of life? Even Roosevelt has said that “Poverty anywhere is a threat to prosperity everywhere." In the body if there's one place which is sick you all have to suffer.

So is best in collective consciousness to feel that pain; that trouble also.

They have some other blessings. They have the blessings that they are not complicated. They are very straight forward. They're not complicated people at all. They are very simple straight forward people.

They are poor maybe, poorer, but they are very rich because they are so generous. They are so generous.

Maybe your health is better, but they look healthier. At least they manifest as elderly people, they work much harder than you do. They can withstand much longer the effects of harshness.

So we have to understand that as Sahaja Yogis it is our duty to improve the quality of our life, to see to things that are subtler and see that subtler being within us, to be that subtler being which you forget about the gross things. The gross things does not matter.

If the attention is still on the gross the quality will not come up. To become subtler give up your complications. Too many complications. Psychologists have given you ideas; everybody has given you ideas and it has all settled down in the head. Most of it is falsehood. It's not the truth. Because nobody has talked about Brahma; nobody has talked about reality.

So give up your complications, your fears, your troubles. Just know that you are the Spirit. And the Spirit doesn't suffer. Doesn't suffer. If you feel any suffering then you should say that it is not the Spirit.

The quality of life has to be improved on this tour. And they are all sorry that you suffered so much, I mean, they are much more suffering because of that than you thought that you suffered so much.

So today is another day of the Pūjā and now the time has started, your second day has started of the nine days, so we can have the Pūjā.

In India they are restricted very much. Unless and until people have achieved the state of doubtless awareness, people don't allow them to touch My Feet even, or to wash My Feet.

They are very particular. Unless and until they have reached the stage of doubtless awareness.

At that stage only they allow, while you people are especially blessed because I allow every Dick, Tom and Harry to come to the Pūjā, which is a mistake I know because it creates problems.

So one should understand that here they are very particular as far as the Pūjā is concerned. They don't allow any half-baked person to come to Pūjā; if there is slightest doubt about a person they just tell him you are not allowed. Then the person works it out for Pūjā; that he should become capable of coming to the Pūjā.

While in London or all that if I say don't come to Pūjā they will think it is a very good thing; I mean they will all disappear in the thin air. Only through Pūjā I can capture some people, but some people react and it can be very dangerous.

So all these dangerous [UNCLEAR things] that is there in the west is against Sahaja Yogis. And as it in the west it's very difficult to establish Sahaja Yoga. It's very difficult. You know the reasons. Very difficult.

Here you have seen thousands and thousands of people are getting their Realisation. The time I am spending in the west, one day spent there, I can give thousands of people Realisation here.

So it is more for you to develop wisdom and sense of responsibility. Because it's a very difficult place the west is. And if you do not want to make it a waste, then you must realise the responsibility that you have.

Still the west is in the program of Sahaja Yoga. I never thought I would be able to [do] that. But somehow it happens that I got to the west. People are seeking no doubt. But the seeking is a fashion.

The genuineness of the heart you cannot feel also much because the ego is covering it. Those who have felt it are really are gems. Actually gems there. Are really lotuses born in the mud I've seen. The quality of understanding of Divinity, of Divine life is very poor and Dharma is also very poor. We've seen it. I mean it is so.

So the responsibility of a Western Sahaja Yogi is much more than that of Indian Sahaja Yogis. To keep the life very pure, simple and dedicated. It is very important.

While the whole of India I can manage single handed, I really don't need Sahaja Yogis for that, I can tell you. But if you are from the west [laughs] and all sorts of things they will do, I mean all sorts of tricks they will play, everything they will do to trouble Me. There's no end to it.

So one has to understand what sort of lot you are facing; I mean it's like mad, it's like hell the way things are there. Just open your eyes and see for yourself.

Now you see these simple villagers. See the simple people. Today I saw some boys coming on My Feet, of about fourteen years or eighteen years. See their Kuṇḍalinīs just like a big river, just like a plain of a big river, nothing, no obstruction, nothing. No complication at all. Even old women I've seen giving bandhans to themselves so sweetly you see them.

So the responsibility is much more, much much more than here.

So be subtler. Do not complain.

Develop your subtler being. Develop your love, your heart. Open it.

I mean west may be rich. I agree. They are rich. Everything is there. You got helicopters, this, that, everything, aeroplanes. Everything outside. Inside, no riches. Very poor. They are poor. Doesn't matter.

The more you care for riches the worst it will be.

So you forget that part. And become dedicated to your inner quality of your Spirit. Which you are. You are gems, that I tell you, you are gems. No doubt.

We have to see we have to get to more people to Sahaja Yoga. It's so difficult. That imagine in a temple we had a program, can you think of one church [laughing] where we could have one program? [Laughs.] In these at least ten years to come, can you think of any church like that? [Laughs.] Such dumbfounded people! They have no idea of Divinity. Even Christ comes before them [laughs] they will keep Him out of the church. They have no sensitivity. They are insensitive people.

So your lifestyle, your quality, has to improve. And you have to take really yourself to task for it! Be kind to yourself, be nice to yourself. But do not indulge.

I am sure great people will be born in all the Western countries. Definitely. I am sure of it. Very great.

And they will really substantiate Sahaja Yoga. But you should prepare yourself to give them a complete support. Alright? May God bless you.

Contents: 1982-01-28 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Discussion on Marriage, Sholapur, Maharashtra, India

I have to talk to you about few things. Sit down.

Firstly about marriages, [UNCLEAR and/as] in Sahaja Yoga there is no force on anybody to get married, not at all. If you don't want to get married, you don't get married, at all; there's no need.

You see, this is a very ego-oriented attitude towards things.

So watch it. Be very careful. Nobody is [UNCLEAR asked/urged] to get married, nor anybody can [UNCLEAR be indulged/forced] into that, all right? One thing should be absolutely clear. Now, there is no force on anybody to marry a particular person, of any kind. Because ego-oriented people, if you tell them that, “According to vibrations and all that, that this person will be better for you” mostly people get upset.

So I am not going to decide for you.

But sometimes people say, “Mother, unless and until You decide, we don't want to decide; we don't want to marry." [UNCLEAR] I mean, you put that thing on Me. Of course, I am not here for match-making or [UNCLEAR something/anything]. What is the My ultimate interest in your marriages? What is My interest? My main interest is this, that there are many great souls who want to be born on this earth.

And as Sahaja Yogis, as their parents, they'll be very happy to be born here.

I am not interested in you, to be very frank, as far as marriage is concerned.

So this ego business, because you think that you are so important, should be given up. My only interest is that if some Sahaja Yogis in the West get married, have a good married life, there's a possibility as it is, it is very dangerous situation. People have left Swādhiṣhṭhāna, left Mūlādhāra, big problem. In the West it's such a problem, even to have a child, imagine! Even if they have the child, so such a problem to retain it. Even a problem is there to have a normal married life. It's such a horrible thing. This is the situation. Actually, you must face it.

So even if I say, `You get married" it doesn't mean that.

Now if after marriage you get into a ego-oriented nonsense, then you can really [UNCLEAR decide/be parasites]. You won't have any children. You'll have problems. Many people I've seen who accept the marriage and then they suddenly go into ego and start talking about it. Immediately they'll have problem, even for normal married life, even for normal life.

So when you are getting married, you are not obliging Me, not at all. I mean, if you do not get married, the [UNCLEAR indulge] are there and they come to Me, the great [UNCLEAR drag/dragging].

Panorama of the realised Souls, all right? I don't have worries. But if you have to say in the West, "[UNCLEAR Do you/We'll] have to have a marriage which is [UNCLEAR a/the] good marriage" then you lead a life of a good Sahaja Yogis and Sahaja Yogini and that children of that calibre should be willing to be born to you. Now they would not like to be born, if you people do not understand the real value of Sahaja Yoga.

For example, it's a funny situation in England as far as marriage is concerned. I just cannot understand.

Really, I cannot understand, that every day the husband, wife must sleep in the same room. What is the need, I just don't understand. Really, I cannot understand. They fight, fight, fight, quarrel, quarrel, quarrel. There is no intensity of love, nothing, but they must sleep together. I don't know for what they are so particular. Here it is no so. We love each other whether in absence, but that part of it is so much on the heads of all the Western people. And even some Sahaja Yogis are so mad. Indians, we cannot understand. I mean, supposing we go for a wedding, all right? There is my husband's house. They have at least hundred couples there. House is very big, all right. But we don't, we [UNCLEAR can't/cannot] get a room or anything to sleep, you see? We have to share with other ladies and the men have to sleep together; women have to sleep together. Not for one day but at least eight, ten days. But in all decency, decorum, we can share. I mean, it's something so funny I just cannot understand. I am so hopeless with that. I just don't understand why must you have a free night to your wife or husband together; just I don't understand. And next day you go for a divorce.

There was a lady you see, she came to Me and she said, “I must have a divorce with my husband." I said, “Why?" “Because his work is such that he [UNCLEAR can't/cannot] come home and we cannot have nights together." I said, “Then after divorce you will not have him at all." [UNCLEAR On which basis they think] they are correct. “So why do you want to have this thing?" I said. “Then what will you do? If you don't have your husband at all, then what will you do?" I just don't understand why it is so much in the West. I mean this is [UNCLEAR too/so] much in their brains; nonsense it is. Actually, they don't enjoy anything with this kind of a nonsense. I mean, it's like people who are absolutely haggard for spontaneous feeling for each other, I understand. To be so much frightened about this thing, to be so much upset about it, to be so much fixed about it, I just don't understand. I can understand newly, just newly married children, but even that we don't do in India so much. Even if they are newly married, I mean, you may see each other once in a while for some time because all relatives in the family, elders are there, with all this kind of living together, how are you going for a divorce? [UNCLEAR Just I don't understand]. I mean, I don't know, this side shows so much of this nonsense.

This time I went to [UNCLEAR San Sirius] and luckily on a day of a sale and it was such a crowded thing we were just pushed on to the escalator and on the escalator they were kissing each other. What was such a hurry? You see, there was no room to move. Everybody were saying, “Keep to the right. Keep to the right." And they were busy doing all this nonsense just on the passage, you know. People couldn't even move and next moment they'll go for a divorce.

So there is no intensity, there's no intensity, so frivolous, there's no feeling. You can never have feeling, enjoy it, unless and until you little bit keep away from each other. It's just, I cannot understand it, this [UNCLEAR Sirius] country. Are we not human beings or are we something different? Like My driver, own driver in My husband's office, [UNCLEAR I mean/when] he asked Me, “How do you manage with this man who works so hard?" I said, “Why? What's the matter?" He said, he said that, “What about his family? He has no time for the family." I said, “He has sufficient." “Then how do you say?" I said, “It is not how much time I spend with him but how deeply I am spending with him."

Sahaja Yogi: The driver is an Englishman [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ah! The driver was, of course, very big English and he went for a divorce [UNCLEAR also/only]. The same fellow was teaching Me lessons. He went for a divorce.

All these are false ideas, so absolutely weak personality. They are weak personalities. Come and see his [UNCLEAR great courage to do that] where is his wife, ask him. She has come here; she's not here? She's not with us. She's not going to feel bad. He's gone out. She's not going to say “Why did you leave me alone?" She's not going to say that.

Sahaja Yogi: She will never say.

Shri Mataji: She'll never say, no questions because she knows that, “My husband has gone for some work and he'll come back." What is that to [UNCLEAR be so/feel] insecure? Now I'll say about, you see, what's his name?

Sahaja Yogi: Deshpande.

Shri Mataji: Deshpande, where is his wife? She has not come? She has not come; he is enjoying your company. But I want, you see, we love each other...

[GAP] See innocence; see the innocence, the answer. Just see the answer, because they have full faith in God, you see? [UNCLEAR You have no trust in people make sense there] so they are not worried about their wives, what will happen to them and [UNCLEAR otherwise you are not going away/the wives are not worried about the husbands].

So the rest of it, what you people worry about husband, wife, [UNCLEAR you/we] cannot conceive, doesn't come into our heads.

Sahaja Yogi: We leave rest to Mātājī.

Shri Mataji: See, now. See the innocence. Can you see the innocence? Can you understand that?

Sahaja Yogi: Then nothing happens.

Shri Mataji: See?

Sahaja Yogi: Rejoice, rejoice.

Shri Mataji: Nothing happens, [UNCLEAR there is nothing wrong] just listen to that.

So simple they are; they are so simple. You won't understand this. It is, it's not proper for Me to say anything in their presence, [UNCLEAR also/you see], really. They still cannot see things, you know? After all I've said it, they are so simple, they [UNCLEAR can't/cannot] see through the things. Now these two ladies are sitting here, where are their husbands? They have been sleeping in My room for the last [UNCLEAR how many/question in Hindi] days [UNCLEAR from that].

Sahaja Yogi: Three days.

Shri Mataji: Three days. They have got their children, their husbands and nothing happened.

It's something, I just [UNCLEAR can't/cannot] understand. All these things you have to learn in this lifetime. They have to learn from [UNCLEAR Me/you] lots of things, but you have to also learn something. Look at the innocence [UNCLEAR of it/they have]. See that. Nothing [UNCLEAR falling/goes] into their heads.

Once I was there, in the evening time. Who was with Me that day? None of you. We came out of that place, from Brompton Square. About twelve o'clock in the night we were going back. And one girl and one boy came out. Not girl and a boy, quite old, I would say. The girl was about, the boy was twenty-five; the girl was twenty-two or something. He was pulling her by her hair and she was hitting him. I said, “What's this going on?" They said, “We are married." I said, “Really?" If they are married, then they are supposed to fight. When they are not married, they are supposed to love. It's a funny country. You find the absurdity? So you get out of it. This kind of madness is not good.

So one must develop a new style. It's an education. It's an education. The women must sit together; men must sit together. It's an education. We, too, have some men like that.

Some are like that. It's very funny and everybody laughs at them; very embarrassing. The husband running after the wife, or the wife running after the husband; it's very embarrassing. I mean, you are in any case married. What is there to run after? Too much ado of the wife is very embarrassing, or of the husband also is very embarrassing. Live like normal people. Now you have come on a tour, it's not a honeymoon trip, not at all a honeymoon trip. It's a trip for education. Education, [we] have to live with this group. We have to live with each other, with other Sahaja Yogis, [UNCLEAR understand].

[Talking aside with a Sahaja Yogi:] A letter? [Aside in Hindi to a Sahaja Yogi about arrangements.] So this is it.

Now for marriages [UNCLEAR no forced marriages/no honeymoons], do not take any frantic steps.

Marriage is to be done in a very normal way. There should be no frantic way. Take it easy. Nothing has to be done extraordinary, nothing. If you like somebody, you can have the marriage. If you don't get married here, it doesn't mean you won't get married next year. But don't misunderstand. And Sahaja Yoga is a training and [UNCLEAR you can live that]. When you have come here, you have not come here just to go around like tourists or to save your money by coming down here. You have come here to educate yourself, the aspects which are not recognized, how to sit down, men on this side and ladies on that.

Contents: 1982-01-30 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Prophecies of Achārya Bhujander, Sholapur, Maharashtra, India (other date 01-27)

Shri Mataji: Khandhavara, Indian [UNCLEAR..., fire], which deals with, the [UNCLEAR firemen].

Sahaja Yogini: You talk [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The median one, that [UNCLEAR beings] that, that is based on the Moon. See, the Moon is the moodiest thing. And so we, we the Indians, follow the Moon. And here they have tried to establish how astrology is so correct. And whatever is predicted 14,000 years back is also today coming up. But this is about two thousand years back. One of the great astrologers of this place, not Sholapur, but little downward, Karnataka, he described about this thing so clear-cut that, I mean, you'll be amazed, that he said that “This great Yogi will come on this Earth on the Mina Rasi, the Pisces." So I'm just on the cusp of the Pisces and the Aries, you see. But that's not so important. Then he says that gradually we'll start seeing some miracles from 1964 to 66, which he says that, maybe little bit. But he says, the real change, Mahan Mankar, in the age, the new age, he will start from 1970.

Sahaja Yogis: Ah! And by 1980 it will take its grip. All right? That time, by this new method, the new age will be formed and this, the old one, Vaivastav. You see, there's one another,... we have yugas, you see. One of the yugas will be over and that yuga is in Kali Yuga.

So that's how Kali Yuga will be finished from 1970. Will be start receding back, Kali Yuga and a new age of active Divinity will start, Kruta Yuga. New age of active Divinity, Kruta Yuga will start. That time, that time the Sun will rule in a new way, the Sun. The axes of earth will be reduced and the speed of the Earth will be reduced gradually. And that time a great Mahā Yogi will be born who will be completely Parabrahma, completely Parabrahma. That's Me.

All Sahaja Yogis: Bolo Jaganamātā Śhrī Nirmalā Devī Ki Jai!

Shri Mataji: And He, He will possess all the powers to do or not to do. I mean is Mahākālī and Mahālakṣhmī, all the powers, all the powers. Before this, people used to go into Bhakti , devotion, Gñyāna, means reading, Patanjali Yoga and then they used to get their Mokshas. But with this new method that this Mahā Yogi will bring in, the pure power within you, in your Chakras, will rise and as a result the Kuṇḍalinī Shakti will be awakened and will be enlightening. Because of these new method of Mahā Yoga you will see with your own eyes and you'll get it in this body in your lifetime, the Realisation. And you'll get the joy of Realisation. Imagine, two thousand years back. He's greater than Blake, I must say.

Sahaja Yogini: What's his name, Mother?

Shri Mataji: His name was... [Hindi.]... Bhujander, Bhujander Kaka, Kaka Bhujander. His name was Kaka Bhujander. Acharya Kaka Bhujander.

Sahaja Yogi: Acharya Kaka Bhujander. Satwachari.

Shri Mataji: Satwachari. Satwachari. You don't have to sacrifice this body. Many people, great saints, sacrificed their body in living condition. They went into a cave and shut themselves and died.

That's not necessary with this new method. And you won't die either, means you will achieve your Spirit.

And the “sākṣhātkari Santvara shabdakari ka sant” the realised Souls, the Saints who are realised, the Brahmānanda, the joy of the Brahma, by this new Yoga. And they won't have to go into Samādhi.

Samādhi is where people just sit down, go on meditating for hours together and the ants grow up on them and all that is not necessary. Just without do anything like that they will get their Realisation. And they will enjoy the joy of Brahma. The Sahaja Samādhi, this is Sahaja Samādhi, according to him.

Among millions, first one will get Realisation.

So you understand your own positions. You see, the way sometimes we flitter away our attention in nonsensical things, you realise that among millions you are one. This is written here. We flitter away our attention in useless things, like my husband, my wife, my children, this, that and that.

So it is written here that among millions one will be selected. Do you follow that point? Then the, all the human race can get over their death or their destruction by this Yoga. You'll have to lead a life, a married life, a normal life, maybe may not married but like a normal householder.

Otherwise you cannot get this Yoga [UNCLEAR]. Like if you become a big saint and a Sādhu Baba, or a Guru or something great, you cannot get it. You have to be a normal householder, maybe married, may not be married [UNCLEAR] it is not the point. Saṁsārai means living in this Earth, in the “brass tacks” as you say.

Sahaja Yogis: Brass tacks. Brass roots. Grass roots.

Shri Mataji: Grass roots. Is grass roots. But brass tacks are also. Brass tacks.

Sahaja Yogis: Brass tacks, yes. That is to be in down to the bones.

Shri Mataji: Down to the basics. I'm getting American now.

Sahaja Yogi: But it is British, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Is it? Is it?

Sahaja Yogi: I think this brass tacks is British.

Shri Mataji: And what is the American for that?

Sahaja Yogini: I'll have to think about that...

Shri Mataji: Think it over.

Sahaja Yogini: I'll tell you.

Sahaja Yogini: Nitty gritty.

Shri Mataji: Nitty gritty. Then all your diseases will disappear so fast with this Yoga that you won't need anything like a hospital. In the beginning, these great yogis, you people also, only by touching people, you can cure people. It's a fact. Like the Ardhanari Nateshwara is the Shiva that will be the state of human beings. Their old age will disappear, their body will remain as it is and they will have a body which is Divine. What a promise! So don't worry too much about your bodily comforts. All right? Then maybe some of you, if you want, you can fly in the air also, with that, with that body. Also they can become subtle and can enter into the body. That already you are doing, enter into the body of others to get them cured. That already you are doing. They will not be touched by the fire and any weapons. Also you will be able to see these subtle things with your own eyes. You can see them. This will not only happen in India, but all over the world. India is a country of great Puṇyas. That's why there are powers, which will look after the protection of this country and this country will gradually rise. He says that the third world war, that was...

[Aside:] When was that time? Sahaja Yogis: Two. We had two so far. Second World War finished in '45, Mother. Maybe there will be none. Third World War. [Sahaja Yogis laugh.]

Shri Mataji: They may have go for a Third World War and they will have to suffer for it. After that this great Incarnation will interfere and all the countries will come together with the understanding of collective oneness. And they will understand that war is so horrible. In a very big, I don't know which one, in a very big city a conference of all the countries will be held. There not the politicians, but the Yogis will direct them, Yogis. There he calls you Yogis throughout. This might be the third war we had with China, maybe.

Sahaja Yogi: The Korean War, Mother?

Shri Mataji: No, maybe China because he says that because of China's aggressive policies and the Third World War, we'll have to bear lot of...

Sahaja Yogi: Line?

Shri Mataji: No, lot of...

Sahaja Yogi: Responsibility?

Shri Mataji: No, no, you will have to bear lots of problems, you see. And these we will have to fill up the gaps in. But by true prayers we will be able to unite all the countries.

Sahaja Yogi: Could be the Vietnam War.

Shri Mataji: By the new inventions of science, the Divine Knowledge and the science will become one. With the science we'll be able to establish the existence of God and of Spirit. That is how there will be no difference. There will be coordination between the science and the..., correlationship between the science and the Spirit or, or the Divine Knowledge. Already we are getting it because, you see, on My photograph people get vibrations. It's a science, you see. On the television, mantras, all that, if you start curing through scientific methods, you're also using the science for that purpose. We can prove that these things can be carried by magnetic forces, by sound, by all these things, you see. We can prove it. Then he says that because of ignorance and because of Māyā, Yogis had to suffer a lot to become collectively conscious, Brahmayeet, to feel the Brahma. But now... and they had to do lot of penance. That was so difficult. They'll become Sahaja. This is the word, Sahaja, Sahaja-[UNCLEAR Prapta/Prabha], Sahaja.

And you have to give up anything to achieve Brahma.

In the new Yoga system, when it will manifest in the different countries, in the new age, the administration will be governed by people who have their own powers of Yoga. Depending on how far you are in your Yoga and their qualities as Yogis, that will be the determining fact. They will be able to create a society, which will completely fulfil their desires and their necessities and people won't need to have money accumulated with them. [Hindi.] The poverty and sickness will be completely finished and in their absence the country, the samada, the society will be healthy and restful and without any anger. They have described here about the China attacking India and all. These are other places but this is a quite a good thing. They have also given the name of Jacqueline Murray. She's an American lady. Jacqueline Murray.

Sahaja Yogini: M u r...

Shri Mataji: They don't spell. This woman had depicted about Me. And she had said that, she had said that a great personality will be born in India, a lady. She said about 1924. I was born in 1923. About correct. But Cheiro has said that by 1980 the new Advent will start a new age. There's a difference of ten years.

Sahaja Yogi: This is good.

Shri Mataji: There's a lady called Alice Baily. She's supraconscious, I believe.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, she is, Mother.

Shri Mataji: And in supraconscious state she, she has said that there will be a new... you see, because Indians have all their attention on Yoga, you see, so there will be a new Yoga which will come by which people will be connected to the Holy Ghost. She has said it, this horrible one, Alice Baily. There's a danger of a Third World War and is inevitable. But it may be avoided if people develop love for each other with this Yoga.

Sahaja Yogini: It's up to us.

Shri Mataji: May God bless you. There's lot of things but I've just read a part of it.

Sahaja Yogi: Let this be a prayer that it all comes true, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Yea... Now this is a... another thing, ha. What's that? This one is a tape about what Gñyāneśhwara has said about this new age, what will happen. The translation of that is with Me, but it is in Marathi. I have to translate it in English, you see. That how people will become realised and what will happen and how they will love each other and all these things He has said, Gñyāneśhwara. And this is sung in this record by a very well-known singer of India, Lata Mangeshkar. And this they want to give.

Side one is Gyāneshwari and another is Om namo Ji Addya, Addya Devī and Pasaydan, that is the second part. Now this is one they want to give it to Warren. And you can tape it and give it to everyone.

Sahaja Yogis: Thank You. Wonderful.

Shri Mataji: This is the sarī they have got for Me from Sholapur. It is in nine yards. This is a place known for its handiwork. And I wish you have bought some of these bed covers here. You get very good bed covers. It's a famous place for bed covers. This is to be kept inside. This is the one they gave yesterday [UNCLEAR], all right? Here you don't have to wear a petticoat. You have to wear that kind of a thing at the back, you see as the Goddesses wear. [Marathi.] They want to have a photograph. [Marathi.] You must send them a photograph, all right?

Sahaja Yogi: Barbara, would you make sure that you send the photograph to them?

Shri Mataji: Take their address and [UNCLEAR right] before leaving, you thank all of them with your hearts and say that you are very thankful and you have been very happy here, all right? [Marathi.] You see, all of them have spoken with such love and such feelings, that it's too much for Me to translate, you see.

So I am Myself now filled with that great feeling that firstly they are saying that you have come here. Because of that we have become aware that there are celebrations on, are on this place. And we feel that great festivities have started in our hearts. We are so very happy and we cannot express our happiness to what has happened to us. We feel we are just floating in the air. We don't know how we spent our time [UNCLEAR with all these]. And you are My brothers and sisters and their brothers and sisters and keep this fact in your heart and let it grow in your heart. And then we have done some mistakes, not deliberately, but it happened that we tried to reserve some halls but we couldn't. It's a small place. We couldn't give you a place, but you have a place in our hearts. [UNCLEAR Here] inconvenience has been passed. Three of them have been saying the same thing.

So we want to beg of you thrice that, please forgive us if we have inconvenienced you or troubled you by anything and we are very, very at fault because something had gone wrong with us, I think. We could not arrange stay for some people and the people at the lodge also ditched us and they didn't give us proper guidance. But next time we will arrange very well. Don't be angry with us. If you [UNCLEAR], if you have any anger you all should forgive.

And Dhamle father also said that we have not been able to look after you and the little girl also said that we have not been able to give you the conveniences and everything.

So you all, please forgive us and...

but we ourselves have enjoyed that you're coming and we are gainers. We gained a lot from you, learned a lot the way you have shown patience to our mistakes and also we, we cannot say that there's anything to learn from us but whatever we have tried our level best, but sometimes happens like that.

So please forgive us. And they have been asking for forgiveness.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] us from these nice words. Could we help them in any way to solve the bottlenecks in spreading Sahaja Yoga? For example, if they need some material help, in [UNCLEAR doing] together possibility of renting the halls to count a bit or a distribution [UNCLEAR], whatever.

We might you know see whatever we can help in one way or another.

Shri Mataji: All right, I'll tell them. That's very kind of you. [Marathi.] They want to also thank you for giving them a tape recorder as a present and all the, all the photographs and everything that you gave them. Their presents I'll give you in Poona because again the carrying will be a problem for you.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, more than anything, from all of us, we want to thank them for their love. Jai Mātājī.

Sahaja Yogis [together]: Bolo Jaganamātā Śhrī Nirmalā Devī Ki Jai. Ādi Shakti Mātājī Śhrī Nirmalā Devī Ki Jai. Parabrahma Mātājī Śhrī Nirmalā Devī Ki Jai.

Shri Mataji: That's all. I think you go ahead now. Finish the things and enjoy yourself.

Sahaja Yogis: Thank You, Mother.

Contents: 1982-02-01 Śhrī Durgā Pūjā (English+Marathi+English), Rahuri, Maharashtra, India

[Shri Mataji talks in English:] Today is a special day. There is a combination of two things happening.

Ādi mai English maday bolte pan Marathi boliye [First I will speak in English then Marathi].

Today is first in the morning time, at 8:50 in the morning, was a very important day that started at 8:50 in the morning, called as Ratha Saptami, is the seventh day.

And it is said that Sun travels with his seven forces, or say, seven colours in a big chariot. And today they celebrate this day as a day when Sun travels with a Divine vibrations all over the world and illumines.

So it was too early for anyone of you to do this, so till... I got up very early of course and worked out that part for you.

The second important thing which is a combination, which is a very, very auspicious thing, that you get on one day, two dates. One is Ratha Saptami, on that day you cannot do havan because it is the Sūrya already is there.

So the second thing is, [which] today we do, is a very great Pūjā of Ashtami [eighth day]: is the day when the Goddess killed nine Rākshasas together with Her eight hands.

So today is a very special day for which a very special attention is needed.

It's only at the behest of the bhaktas that the Goddess took Her form and killed all these Rākshasas.

Also with Her eight hands, She killed Mahishasura. That's why She's called as Mahishasura Mardini.

She's called as Nava Chandi, one who has killed nine Chandas, means nine Rākshasas She has killed.

So is a very important day and very vital and very deep.

It's very simple to say, “Mother, we have fixed Your Pūjā on such and such day." Nobody thinks what Mother has to work behind the whole thing, you see. You can't fix My Pūjā. It's not proper. It is I who can tell you what time is the best for you to do the Pūjā.

So it starts at two minutes past twelve.

So now we can start it and that's why I delayed My bath. But that would be too late, I started My bath little early. Then only we can do it.

So today is the day of the Goddess, a very important day that you are here.

Somehow we are having all the Pūjās of nine days and that's why I am wearing this special type of a sarī, which is to be used for Ashta Pūjā's. Vahana, is a tiger as well as a lion. Imagine where I'm staying, there is a photograph of a tiger and a lion both, in that room. You can go and see for yourself. Normally you never get these [together] but that is there, beautiful photograph, enlarged, a tiger and a lion.

So in the morning the Sūrya was very beautiful, I don't know if you saw the morning sun? At least tomorrow try to see. It's not important how long you sleep here, what food you eat, whether you get it in time and all that. You should get rid of these habits, it's very important that these regularities and all these mundane type of things, the bounding of timing and all that, you must get out of it space and time, everything. And should not go on worrying about things because you get so exhausted, without doing any work you feel exhausted. Because you are so fixed up, so fixed up that you can't get out of these habits, you see. While the Indians are not fixed up like that, they know that Mother knows the best, She will come at the time when the Pūjā has to be done.

So, one should try to understand that if I am the One then why should you worry? But I have one problem with the Western mind is that if they cannot conceive it, they start criticising.

Instead of making yourself subtler and subtler to conceive the beauty of the Divine, if you don't get it you will start criticising on any point, anything you can get hold of and you start criticising.

So that's not the way we can grow. That's why I'm telling you beforehand that this Pūjā is very important and at this Pūjā, you have to request that these nine Chandas, who are still there, should be killed and this Mahishasura also should be killed, they should be driven out. And that's how it is going to work out and it's very important. It's very important, I have to work it out Myself. You see, it's not easy just to organize a program like a, preside over something, you just come along, it is not that way. It's much, much deeper, it is much deeper significance, much deeper work has to be done.

So many things have to be worked out.

It's a very subtle thing. And the more you discuss it, the more you talk about it, you lose it, you should keep quiet and absorb it.

So today is not a day of such a mundane type, is very important in this small place, where we are sitting, we are doing a tremendous job. And you people, who have suffered the most on account of these Rākshasas, should be absolutely intensively be careful that these sinners must go out.

Something has to be done. Instead of thinking about yourself and your inconveniences, your troubles and whatever you call them which are not so important at all. [A cock crows.] You are saints and you must support all Divine work with complete understanding. On the contrary if you are so much worried about your own things, I mean you are of no use, to yourself or Sahaja Yoga.

So I would say that even some people will see that this happened, that happened. Perhaps the group is bit too big to accommodate in all these places. I always had a feeling that the group is increasing bit too much. And we didn't have any idea of so many people coming in. But doesn't matter, they are sharing, we are settled down, there's a place to sleep. And if you can understand this, you see, that these things are not important then you go to England and just sleep or you go to Australia and just sleep. I mean you have all the time to do all that. Just now you are here to become subtler and subtler.

Now the time has started and the brahmin also came at the right time.

So we have to be one with the subtleties. Sahaja Yoga is not possible if you want to see it from a gross level: you cannot understand Sahaja Yoga that way. I have already told you that without realisation, you cannot have Sahaja Yoga.

But even after realisation, if you stick on to those old things which belongs to the egg time, you will have no advantage.

So try to become subtler and subtler and don't think about it. You will relax, you will feel better, it will act. [Don't think] that you should have food at the right time, you must have this at the right time, this should be the food. This is, I mean, it's such a stuck up thing, you know. We cannot be stuck up with food, we cannot be stuck up with all these things. You are going to a level where nobody has reached. With this understanding if we become surrendered, means not to give Me anything but to get rid of your ego and your stuck up ideas which there have been, it would be a very good thing.

When you discuss also among yourselves, nobody should discuss inconveniences. I had told you that in a village it's a very difficult thing. You don't have to go to Himālayas but travelling through India is not an easy thing and I had told all of you. I live with much more conveniences and comforts than anyone of you live but I can adjust Myself much more, so you should also try to forget about it. Don't talk of your inconveniences. That will make you very gross. The one who becomes subtler and subtler can only achieve something.

[Shri Mataji talks in Marathi:] Today is Ashtami, wah [wow] and morning is Rath Saptami. Getting a Pūjā on Ashtami is a very big thing and at Rahuri My maternal home is also there. On this day of Ashtami we celebrate this day, Rāma Devī as Ashta Bhuja Devī who made great conquests, prominent conquests being the killing of the big, big bad Rākshasas, destroying them killing them. She is called as Nav Chandi, also as Chandika, Ashta Bhuja, Durgā etc. many other names are there and She has destroyed all these Chanda, Munda and others, all the nav chandas, that is why She is called Nav Chandi. She has also destroyed mahishasura and after killing mahishasura, the Gods showered praises on Her, but those bhaktas who called Her, they were all very Dharmic, Sattvik, with very good qualities. Having been very much pleased with their qualities, the Devī took incarnation.

So those qualities should be in us. What are our feelings towards the Devī. Mātājī, we have fixed Your Pūjā, just like we have arranged one program, so You please come. In many villages, Mātājī, we have kept the Pūjā at this time, keeping will not do and you cannot keep like this. If I am pleased, I will sit for the Pūjā, otherwise not, it depends on Me. You have to invite the Devī first, pacharan is there, etc etc. Otherwise the Devī will not sit [UNCLEAR] Devī is not in need of the Pūjā, you are in need of the Pūjā. She has to be pleased, when the Devī is prasannaChitta [UNCLEAR] Her children have made lot of mistakes [UNCLEAR]. Her children are still making mistakes. They have Śhraddhā [faith], some have Śhraddhā but make mistakes, in some there is no Śhraddhā at all but are superficial, they will outwardly show they are very good, seeing all these things the Devī's mind becomes saddened and feels why the Pūjā should be given to such people who do not deserve this.

So you should become sat Guṇi. In sat Guṇas, the highest quality is, Shañkarāchārya, Ādi Shañkarāchārya was asked, “Which is the greatest quality?" He said “Devī Bhakti , Mother's Bhakti ." She is Devī your Mother is the Devī. Understanding that you should do Her Bhakti . In that Bhakti there should not be any falsehood. The first quality, the highest quality, if it is seen in a human being from his heart, all his bad qualities will be destroyed, he will get light and attain moksha [liberation]. That is why Shañkarāchārya has always praised the Devī. In the beginning He has described a lot, written lots of books like Viveka Chūḍāmaṇi etc. Lastly He said that, “By only pleasing the Devī one can get everything, then why do these things? Why to do debates? Why to do discourses and break one's head? Just praise the Devī and you will get whatever one wants." His intelligence very few people have. When that intelligence comes into us, then you will get the authority. The same way without doing anything also I am prasannaChitta now and any number of mistakes you make I will forgive them all, without doing that it will not be possible because I have come with a very big heart and will forgive all your mistakes, but deceiving Me you should not do and all the time crying and repeatedly saying that, “I have committed mistakes” will also not do, then it becomes problem for the Devī.

You should ask for forgiveness from the Devī and take a vow today that hereafter we will not repeat the mistakes. Today's ashtami is called as Bhishma Ashtami, Bhishma Ashtami, now Bhishma had taken vow which you all know, that vow was never broken by him under any circumstances, therefore today you have to take a vow, this ashtami you all take vow that, because of this vow all the world will be benefited from it fruits, you should not think how will it happen, from this small place, this is a very big center, so whatever vow you take now with complete devotion and utmost faith, the fruits of which will be for the whole world, that is how you should think.

[Shri Mataji talks again in English:] Today is another day, is called Bhishma Ashtami, is the day when Bhishma, who was a great saint who took a great vow and that vow he carried out all his life. It was a great vow he took.

So today also is the day of a vow. He took on an Ashtami day. On the Ashtami day he took a vow.

So today is another day for you to take a vow.

So also you should try to take a vow and with that vow, you should be able to achieve something which has not been yet achieved.

This achievement is not only for this place, is not only for Maharashtra, it is not only for India, it is not only for the whole world, but for the whole Universe.

So you are playing a very important, vital role and one should try to improve one's quality of life, quality of personality. Unless and until you have that substantial quality, nothing is going to work out. This is what I am telling them: that you must work out in such a way that you become substantially dedicated to Sahaja Yoga. Not just for your sake, not just for your family or for your country but for the whole Universe.

So you are the seeds who are going to create that great atmosphere that will bring forth the great change that we are expecting of Mahā Yoga. It is very important to understand that so many people have talked about this and I have come across a book which was written 2,000 years back which describes about this Mahā Yoga and what is going to happen.

It's very interesting. After the Pūjā and havan, I think Mister Chauhan will translate it to you and you can understand what is about.

So let us start now.

[Pūjā starts with discussion in Marathi with Mother about who to call for doing Pūjā.] Now pay attention to Sahaja

Yoga and not to other things. That's important. You should not play about. This is important. I'm just telling, it's very vital.

[Discussion continues in Marathi].

In India, the custom is the wife has to sit next to the husband always for anything, for food, or for anything but in England is just the other way around.

Teenus couples? [Only three couples?] Because the, we would like to have couples today, alright?

There is too much liver. You should go to the river in the morning and foot soak.

Tell the cook not to put chilies.

There is no need for you to feel guilty. All of you should say Allah hu Akbar.

Why is your Āgñyā catching, better shoe beat. Put this kumkum on your Āgñyā.

The vibrations of the swayambhū are good for your Mūlādhār. Sit on the Mother Earth and pray to Lord Gaṇeśha. Sleeping on the floor would clear your catches.

Don't put too much attention on the food else your Nābhī will catch.

Your heart will not catch if you keep Me in your heart.

Always keep your attention on your Sahasrāra.

Take a bandhan before starting in the morning.

Question: How often should we meditate?

Shri Mataji: Every moment.

Question: What happens to Karma after Self-realisation?

Shri Mataji: When you become one with the Divine, all your Karmas get dissolved. Christ suffered so much; do you think he had bad Karmas? Question: What about family life?

Shri Mataji: It is not difficult to combine spiritual life with family life. It is very easy. Once you get your realisation, if you are honest; you go deep. If you are not, you fall.

Question: What about fear?

Shri Mataji: Fear can damage a lot, but it can be cured completely with Sahaja Yoga.

Question: Is love not enough?

Shri Mataji: Your love has to be Divine love that does not expect anything. It just flows. Love is limited before Kuṇḍalinī awakening and afterwards it becomes like an ocean.

Question: How does the attention work?

Shri Mataji: After Realisation just put your attention and it works. It works through the Param-Chaitanya... Not thoughts but attention should go. Thought is dead. When you work with thoughts you can only do dead work. Thoughts cannot work. Attention is cosmic consciousness.

Contents: 1982-02-03 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Dhumal's House, Rahuri, Maharashtra, India

And I hope to come also. I hope to come because Nagpur is My mother's place and all My brothers are there. When you're coming back [Marathi] and it will be instead of reaching there on the fourteenth, fifteenth, you'll reach there on the fourteenth. I don't know what My brother has decided. You may stay for two days maybe, at [Talobar] would be a good idea because it's a very, very nice [wooden] place in a forest, maybe a good idea to relax and meditate. And then we come down to again to Warda. On the seventeenth is My father's anniversary in the morning time and evening time we take a train from Warda to Delhi. In Delhi, the program will [UNCLEAR only/behold] till the twenty-fifth. But those who want to stay till the twenty-eighth can stay on because most of the people from Australia will go and I think Delhi people will agree not to have any [UNCLEAR Pūjā] till the last day of My departure, because I don't have to cope with the cold. Where, it's where I was married.

So I have to go there also, maybe for one or two days. May be, may not be; I don't know.

Whatever it is, I'm going to leave Bombay [Mumbai] on the first to reach Perth.

So you please organize the Perth people. And where I'll be there for a day. One day it's program...

Sahaja Yogi:... to rest.

Shri Mataji: Two days? program.

Sahaja Yogi: One day is to rest.

Shri Mataji: Two days? program and then I'll come to Australia. I'll be there till...

Sahaja Yogi: Seventeenth.

Shri Mataji:... Seventeenth and then on My way back, if you want to come back with Me, Europeans can come and for a day at Hong Kong just for a rest. We may not have any program in Hong Kong, but just for a rest. And then I'll come to Bombay. Maybe there I'll be there for three, four days and I'll go back to London. This is the program.

So I hope that in Australia now you will see that how people are working it out in Maharashtra and how far we are from them. Just see the distance. I mean, it's too much, isn't it? And where are we? It's a very dangerous situation. And the third war is about the break. Third war, third world war is just hanging on our heads. And it is the Western world which is going to be in the war, not we, not the Indians. No, not at all, not the Maharashtrians.

So it's a very dangerous situation, you are very precariously placed and if people do not understand the value of Sahaja Yoga today in the West, we cannot stop this destruction. And there will be a complete destruction. Of course, Sahaja Yogis will be saved. And it's so imminent and so vital that I mean, I don't know if you can go on playing about with things and all sorts of nonsensical things.

So you have to go all out, dedicate yourself to that and work it out there. It's a very big responsibility on all the Western Sahaja Yogis. It's a very, very big responsibility which has to be worked out.

So with your permission I'll have [UNCLEAR some tea/supper]. The only difficulty is in surrendering.

I mean, you do not surrender anything to Me. Actually, you take more. But the ego part is so horrible. I mean, you can see this; you can see clearly. You see, one may think no end of oneself. You see, you may be great or whatever you may be, but in the eyes of God what are [UNCLEAR human beings]? People can't get realisation the way they get here; is a fact one must accept.

So in relationship to reality and to God, what is the value of all these things? Nothing; zero. Of your achievements, everything, your ego and all that, what's the use of having all that? Isn't it? This is so, so evident, so clear-cut. Try to understand.

You can't carry your cars and your helicopters and your airplanes to God's place. You have to carry your heart.

And if you could understand this, you see, then My job is done. It is you who are going to give them Śhraddhā. It is you who are going to teach them how to respect Sahaja Yoga. It is you. How much you respect the Divine.

So get rid of your petty things. Whatever achievements there are made, are of no use inside at all; they are outward. It's a very dangerous situation and people don't realise it.

I'm not worried about India at all. Once I come back to India it will spread in one year. You have seen it. These people live under subhuman conditions according to Western standards. Just think of it. Just think of it, the joke. And everybody tells Me, “What about the poverty of India?" I mean, what is the worry about poverty? Nobody is dying out of poverty. They are healthier people. Not like many I have met in the West. Seldom, among so many, there was hardly one or two who were sick. Mental sickness is practically very little. Nobody is paranoid. What do you say? Agreed? Now as your name is, you should come up. Hm? [UNCLEAR That's a naval lion?/Marathi?] He's going to come up. And in the West they have lots of developments, kings for [UNCLEAR Indians/England]. And there are many who find [UNCLEAR no place here] so you can't bear them. “This is no good, this, that." And you have better telephones, all right. You have better communications, you have better train, better buses maybe, better hotels. But where are the Sahaja Yogis? Most of it is advertising department. You told them the story about advertising department? Have you heard the story of the advertising department? Yogis: No.

Shri Mataji: It's a very interesting one. One gentleman was a very good man who led a very good life.

So he went to Heaven. And when he went to Heaven he saw everybody is meditating there, like Sahaja Yogis. He was amazed. He said, “I was such a good man and here I thought I'll have some enjoyment of life. Here everybody is meditating and enjoying the meditation.

So what sort of a reward it is?" So he asked God that, “Let me go to hell and see how it is." “Give me the choice” you see, “I must have the choice." So He said, “All right, you go have a look. If you like it you can stay on." So he went to hell and he saw outside [short discussion aside in Marathi].

So he went down. In the hell he saw there were nice [UNCLEAR dine scenes/nice things] you see, all these that you have in England. And you see, an Indian was enamoured and was very happy to see all that. And they were all drinking, gambling. See, all kinds of things were on, complete freedom, complete abandonment and lots of other things were also going on. He was very happy. They said, “Now you can enjoy here, no problem." So he asked one of them, “Where is hell?" He said, “You see through that peephole. You see the hell." But there were many peepholes. From one peephole he saw people were thrown into dirty gutters. Then he saw the other one, they were being fried in the boiling oil. Then he saw third one where their [UNCLEAR hands/feet] were cut. All kinds of tortures he was and he was shocked. He said, “What do you mean?" “What's the problem? That is hell." He said, “Then who are you?" He said that, “We are advertising department." This story comes from My youngest brother, [UNCLEAR who/he] is ten years younger to Me. He is going to meet you there when you go to [Talobar]. I hope he comes. No wonder people are coming to India and they want to stay here. But as other governments have become very strict about visas and this and that, this government has also become, you see. They're worried that people come down here and the villagers are, you see, hiding them. This never happens. Imagine: can this happen anywhere in the world, that the people living there are hiding them? They are against the government for treating the guests like this, you see, without visa [UNCLEAR]. That's why you had that trouble about passports. Because there's a big problem and through that lounge many sneaked out, you see, into the villages.

So fellow was put into trouble.

So that's why I was very particular. But I think he's quite upset.

[Aside:] [Marathi].

These are the people who are going to sing you songs in the praise of Lord Viṣhṇu and other people and bhajans, as they call it; you know that. But you should see, it's a very fast [UNCLEAR drum/tambour].

The whole thing is such a fast [UNCLEAR] it's a very... the thing is like that, it moves very fast. It's a very fast [UNCLEAR]. You can't even play it on the tabla, this tāl, only on this, is called as Pakhwaj.

It's a thing; they call it Pakhwaj. Also in Sanskrit it's called as Mridangam. This is Mridangam.

Are you feeling cold? What about your throats? Is it better, with the thing I gave you? Better now? [Conversation in Marathi.]

Contents: 1982-02-06 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Action and Desire, Research Station, Niphad, Maharashtra, India

All things are perishable, one has to go with some thing not perishable. Desire is much more subtler than the action itself. Like the moon affects even the sea, even Sūrya, the sun, is very important. But why the moon is important because it makes you subtler. Right-sided people must achieve the moon. After getting realisation if you can see the abstract form of God and then we say after reaching your Brahmarandhra you crossover your limbic area and then you go to Aardh Bindu. Aardh Bindu is the moon. Moon is the spirit. Sun is the working part. He works and it reflects on the moon.

So you become the spectator yourself and start going into that. Only Australia is the one which I have real hopes. Where is our ascent is the main point. When it is the sixteen phase it's a complete phase.

So fifteen phases are the fifteen steps of consciousness on which human beings really built, fifteenth is the spirit and sixteenth is God, which is only absolute state. There are fourteen types of joys which you get out of this. And you cannot have a Havana on a saptami [during Navarātri]. Brahmins are the only people who are unrealised.

Shri Mataji: You are better off now? Do you get this Jaggery, the one you ate in London? Audience: Yes Mother.

Shri Mataji: You get in England? I never saw this Jaggery.

Audience: Yes Mother in Indian shops not in English shops.

Shri Mataji: In Indian but shops not in English shops.

Audience: Yes Mother.

Shri Mataji: Ha but not in English shops as such.

This jaggery is a very good thing when you come out from somewhere like dusty places or something with sore throat and you take a little bit of jaggery and drink some water. It's a very good idea. See one should take to simple medicines because if you take to antibiotics and this that nonsense then you become very weak and you have to, it has a reaction and then you have to take something else for the reaction, funny thing, it is antibiotic, it is, bio means life and it is anti life.

[People chatting and laughing.] [Marathi.] Audience: [UNCLEAR] if there is a relationship between tomorrow's Pūjā and full moon and so on.

Shri Mataji: Do I have to boast about Myself? Audience: Yes Mother.

Shri Mataji: As you know it is Parabrahma. That is the complete Divine Power and the Holy Ghost is the complete Divine. Is a complete desire of God, which has taken a form. Imagine God is just a spectator. He is not one who is going to create any thing. He is just going to destroy actually. Because if He doesn't like the spectacle, He can destroy and the desire disappears like any desire you have within yourself. The complete desiring power within you. Without which what are you? You are just watching your desire coming. [UNCLEAR].

So this desire power is the left-sided thing as you say and then first it has to complete desire. The desire becomes then action power. And action and desire put together start evolving things.

So everything is inclusive in that whether you say sun, moon, stars everything is in it.

But the moon is the desire. Ultimately when it also collapses back, first of all it works out, it evolves and then again when it is reversed, you see, then it goes back to desire, desire disappears into the spectator and the whole thing becomes Parabrahma again.

So the identification with one or the other cannot be said, it's everywhere. If It is everything how can you identify with any thing else. Moon is one of the symbols, Moon is one of the symbols. Why? Because according to Sahaja Yoga we reach the state where you touch the Sadāśhiva in the symbolic form you see or if you can say that after getting realisation if you can see the abstract form of God and then we say after reaching your Brahmarandhra you crossover your limbic area and then you go to ārdh bindu. Aardh Bindu is the moon. Moon is the spirit.

Because, Shiva also wears the moon on his head. Sadāśhiva also wears the moon on His head.

So moon is the spectator. Isn't it? Sun is the working part. He works and it reflects on the moon.

So you become the spectator yourself and start going into that.

So every symbol is the same and now why we use the moon more than the sun, about the timings, because it is the moon which is more effective in creating desire within our self. Like the moon affects even the sea. Not the sun. Sun is a constant-stuck practically; except for it changes its axis some time. And the distances between sun has not much significance with the earth, except that if the earth loses its axis a little bit more or becomes a little bit atter then may be that the speed of the earth may be reduced, so we can only control the speed.

But the moon is a subtler thing. Which acts on subtle, subtler ways because you have seen the moon acts on the tides, it acts on the temperaments, it is a much subtler thing. Desire is much more subtler than the action itself. It's a deeper thing.

So the action comes out of the desire.

So it is better to affect the desire than to affect the action. And that is why, in India people accept moon as the indicator for dates and all that but in the west people are so much time bound and for them they would not like to have these variations because they are not prepared for any such variations. For them, 12 o'clock is 12 o'clock and they are very very rigid people. Such rigid people are no good they are not living being.

So it is not one way or the other even Sūrya, the sun, is very important. But why the moon is important because it makes you subtler. And that is why one should achieve the moon as they say. Rightsided people must achieve the moon. At least they should be little bit changing their programs, little flexibility otherwise there is no gap in-between. They are running like mad. Absolutely it's a rat race.

The whole ego is created by the sun. Complete horrible nonsense. It is doesn't give them any idea to see where are they... it's such a barrier, you see. We don't try to see ourselves where are we? Now you have seen the simple villagers who live so spontaneously. Just take yourself out completely and think. Compared to them and yourself and what are they as a human being, as a quality of a person, quality [UNCLEAR individual/intelligent] thing. I mean one may think any thing of oneself but as a quality.

Like Christ Himself has said, that if you want gold I will give you gold. Gold represents right-sidedness.

If you want gold I will give you gold but you will not enter into the kingdom of heaven and you will not eat on the same table as I do. Only those who love Me, love Me, again the quality of love, will sit with Me to eat.

So, the people who think no end of themselves should value themselves at some point you see.

They should see what do we think of ourselves, you see. What is so great about ourselves, what are we in the eyes of God. All these things are going to be finished. They are nashwar. They are perishable. You are admiring perishable things and thinking that you are great, all right so go ahead with yourself. But one has to go with some thing not perishable. And actually I would say that the Western people start taking to moon calendar they will be better off. They will have some more time and they will think of auspiciousness, you see. In India it is very important to know what is the auspicious time. But what we think of is “oh 10 o'clock is 10 o'clock" like a teacher who is here now principal Sahib. He is a Brahmin, suppose to be. Englishmen, I think, must have put the hand on him, on his head. He said if the program is at 6 or no. Now there are children there who can't just do it at 6 it has to be done at 7. He doesn't know any of the children don't get the blessing or any thing but as long as it is at the time of 6 o'clock. And the time is short. What have you achieved by worshipping the time to that extent. You have neglected the one who is sitting on the sun is Jesus Christ Himself. He is at the [UNCLEAR] crossing point the [UNCLEAR]. You have neglected all that is subtle. Whatever you can see in the sunshine is the fact for you people. Nothing beyond. In the west I mean. Isn't it? It's not true.

Moon has such an influence. I read a book called as Super Nature. You might have read it also. The fellow is been dealing with some scientific experimentation. He said there were some oysters. The oysters were placed in Los Angeles, you see.

So they remove them and put them to some Ohio or some place in the center of America. Now there is no sea there for those oysters but they used to close and open according to the tidals at Los Angeles for a month. From them you could make out what is the tide in there. Then gradually they started changing and then they took to the timing of opening and closing if the moon at that time was pulling the tides of a sea which doesn't exist there in Ohio. As if there was a sea and the moon would come in and would attract this sea, accordingly these were opening and closing.

Because when there is high tide they close and when there is low tide they open.

So with that timing they were working.

So, the living things have such an effect of the moon.

So, I think Indians should become more sort of active, though they are, I think, quiet active now and they should not do any more activity. Otherwise they will become Rajo gunnies not Sattva Guṇis. Only Rajo Guṇa is no good and only Tamo Guṇa is not good. And if you become too much Rajo gunnies also what happens you get to the bad effects of moon, then you become lunatics and what paranoid and otherwise all these things come to you and you go up to that because you take to drugs all extreme left-sided stuff is from the moon.

Auspiciousness comes from not only from the sun but also from the moon. Mainly from the moon and also from the stars. Auspiciousness is a very subtle quality. Isn't it? Which you cannot see. You cannot understand. How many people in the west also accept astrology has any basis, not much. Even William Blake is regarded as a mad man. Ninety-nine percent English think like that. They are all very wise. You tell them who William Blake is, “Oh he is a mad man." For them that horrible fellow Lord who…? Audience: Byron!

Shri Mataji:... Byron!... was the most sensible person. Now how could, imagine hundred years back how could William Blake say so many things so precisely.

You haven't brought that ha? No body has brought that! Audience: Somebody might have.

Shri Mataji: Have you got? William Blake, Milton. [Marathi.] Can you go? Do you know where it is written Kensington garden thing? Audience: Marcus has got it.

Shri Mataji: Hai? Marcus knows. Into such details you see. And then think of this man 2,000 years back writing about Me that Parabrahma Itself will be arriving, awakening [Marathi]. Exact! 2,000 years back. A new method of Yoga will come up, everything being there, just imagine.

So, the people who believe in the sun and the timing with the sun, you see live in the bounds of the sun only and also the bound of the what you call the time, which is so superficial. They never think of inauspiciousness of something deeper. Their full attitude is so superficial. Whatever they see in the sun they see nothing beyond. Normally, people who come say from abroad not Sahaja Yogis because now you have become subtler, what will they see in a country and a place, “Oh God, there are no proper bathrooms." I mean they are so bathroom addicted also. I don't know but this bathroom culture is so much just get fed up and now for so many nonsensical thing so much time is wasted you see, we know that they should be house proud but to the extent people waste their time cleaning their little brass what ever they have, even a rat doesn't enter the house.

Sometimes I think what a waste of energy. But when they think that way they become so untidy that they Baba it's a pigsty, from one to another. It is something in-between one has to understand. Even to have culture you have to be in-between. Like, you must know the sun and you must know the moon. You must have both the things otherwise there will be no culture in it.

Culture cannot develop in an extreme state.

Some sort of an extreme thing might develop you see, but not the culture and the culture is the thing which supports and sustains the Dharma, sustains a human quality. That is the culture. Not the culture which does not sustain, that like, somebody told Me that it is in Western culture that the women must expose themselves more than the man can, man can. I mean that's absurd. Why should they? Just think of it. Are they prostitutes or what? But who is going to talk if I say any thing, as it is they are criticising Me. Then they will oh, brand Me something Victorian lady coming down here or something. You see the way they are giving you the idea also through this over activity of the right side are absurd ideas. They will not give you a quality that a human being should have, you see, there is no value for your life no value and no self-respect. They don't teach you self-respect.

It's a tremendous task you don't know the whole thing has to change a world. When has to come to change this. You understand Ruth? Ruth: Yes Mother.

Shri Mataji: It's a very [UNCLEAR trem...], great work one has to do in that country, I don't know. As it is, you see, people when they come to India or anything, they come to see here the poverty of India. I mean that's not your look out. That's the government's job. But they come here for that and they they get upset with it and they just go. What are you doing about it even if you are upset? It's because of you only people are poor. If you go and live with somebody for three days, the person will become poor.

Three hundred years you stick on to any country what are you going to have? Three hundred years! The aggressiveness. Look at the aggressiveness. In your country somebody comes for more than six months he will be taken to task and put in the jail [UNCLEAR]. [Laughter.] Three hundred years you lived there.

I mean, just look at yourself, what sort of temperament is this? Your aggressiveness. How can you be? Is it a self-respecting thing to go to somebody's country? Even now they are doing the same thing you don't know. Still so much aggression is there, that unless and until you Sahaja Yogis understand that this is too much of an aggression in all the developing countries. What have you done to [UNCLEAR].

All the Western people have. [UNCLEAR]. Think about it. West Africa, you see, East Africa because they have got copper in West Africa all have them have gone sitting on nicely. I mean this is not your copper. Why do you want to have their copper? Zambia, every place you go all the white skin people are there otherwise the Negroes are the worst because the copper is there.

South Africa, why are you there? I mean you have nothing to do with South Africa, you better get out. Because gold is there they think they have a right to be there. I mean imagine, thing of this, imagine if there are two neighbours, think of it, two neighbours are living because another person has bought some gold so you go to his house and settle down take all his gold. It is as simple as that. You have no right to snatch any thing form any one.

This is because of the worship of the sun the aggression. They don't see. In sun you can't see any thing actually. Your eyes are too lucent? [UNCLEAR]. It's a serious thing. One has to think. Now Sahaja Yoga is all right you are built up and you are coming up but you have to understand and ultimately you will destroy yourself, which you are up to. If the third world breaks out, thanks to your intelligence. India is not going to be affected. All the developing countries are not going to get affected. I mean what is the culture behind. There are some limits to the things also.

The movement of Sahaja Yoga in the west is so slow I mean, as if it is a train moving here, there an ant walk, crawling. Really it's a fact. Only Australia is the one which I have real hopes. I must say. And now the Australians will have the to send all the criminals from Australia to England to [UNCLEAR].

This is the situation. At least poor things Australians are still thinking in not those lines. At least Australians have never invaded any country. They have never invaded any country. Never in the history, I have not heard of them invading any country or occupying some country or going to some place for gold.

They are racialist, some of them are but they are not so aggressive as to go and settle down in a country for three hundred years, can you believe it? And they would not go, would not go at any cost, very difficult.

Think of it some guests coming in your house and settling down for three hundred hours.

Will you read that Kensington garden thing. Who is there? Is it here? Read it out, that part of Kensington garden the part “... will be purchased" that one. It is an Englishmen who wrote this but for them he is mad, really I tell you. I have talk to some English people who are in the high [UNCLEAR], who are supposed to be very well educated and top class people and they say he was a mad man whom are you quoting.

[Marathi.] Golden Builders! They have to work with the gold paint. They are in My house.

So they are called as Golden Builders.

So clearly he has given, so clearly.

Audience: Sweden born 16th century scientists who become a linguist [UNCLEAR] he said that, the other day I heard that there were many Indians and Muslims, Black and Chinese in Heaven but there would be very few Western European.

Shri Mataji: There would be or? Audience: That include American. In the heaven there would be very few Westerners.

So does India leads the way [UNCLEAR], does leads the way or you just making gesture?

Shri Mataji: You see, you must learn one thing, that those who have got the qualities of the heart, think definitely will be accepted by God. Isn't it? Have you got the qualities of heart? Not at all. Then what will God do? That's the problem is.

Audience: Will we be eliminated?

Shri Mataji: [Laughs.] Not as long as I can think of it. I can't think of elimination of any one. But, you see, if you don't take to Sahaja Yoga at all, what should we do? You decide. Should we carry all these Yankees to heaven? Audience [laughs]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: There won't be a heaven left. That's the point. Just think about it. You see they accent in life is on war. Where is our ascent is the main point. You see our westernized Indian are also doomed.

Very sad thing but they are also doomed. They think no end of themselves. No doubt westernized. But now I would say Doctor Saṅghvi who has been to Canada for years he has stayed there. He has kept his Indian style of life as well, chastity his own senses of understanding of things, everything is just the same.

Can you make out he is such a learned man inside. He has got a special honour. He was honoured on all India bases for creating a new type-variety of wheat. That wheat is after his name.

So humble can you believe it. Such a man is sitting before you. Even a garbage cleaner in England is more proud. Yes, I tell you, even a garbage cleaner is a horrible stuff. You can't deal with it. Did I tell you the story of a garbage cleaner who came to our house. We were staying in Oxted. There was a garbage cleaner who used to come and carry the garbage, you see.

So one day we had a big party or something and we had lots of garbage in the house so I told him “you please take away this" so he said “How much will you give me?" I mean not suppose to take any money. You see, but he said “How much will you give me?" How much? I said “I will give you about ten pounds." He said “Ten, I wouldn't touch it [UNCLEAR] Give me twenty pound." I said “Twenty pounds is too much." This I am telling you long time back about six years back or so.

So, Doctor Nagendra Singh, who is now the Chairman, chairman of the what you call Royal Court Judges. He is the Royal Court Judge first of all and he is the chairman of it, he was in the house imaging Royal Court Judge.

So he saw this man talking to Me very rudely so he just couldn't help it and he came out. He is a Sahaja Yogi also. Came, you see, came out and he said “why are you talking so rudely." He said “I won’t touch this garbage for ten pounds." He said that. He said that “you are not supposed to take any money." He said the laws in England are not like India. You must understand some law. You don't understand any law. And he gave a big lecture on law. To whom? To the World Judge court, who is the chairman. Without any sense of and I was amazed. You know first I was amazed then I started laughing aloud; I said “to whom is he talking?" Brainless fellow! I just [UNCLEAR].

Just think of it, I mean, I leave it to you to decide now. You better decide about the Western people.

I don't decide. That garbage cleaner, I mean, must be, I don't know. And the quality of life there is so poor they have, very poor, they have no self-respect, the way they are. The other day the lady that Phillipa, has written this book. In which she says I have been having affairs with bus conductors this that I mean, how can, how can you publish a book on such a woman, just tell Me and she is openly saying all these things. I wouldn't care for Sahaja Yoga I was doing all my things very nicely. Oh very good, has no self-respect, at all, no value for chastity, nothing I mean I just don't know there is no quality in them. It's very depressive. Isn't it some times? I think you better take to moon. Ruth are you all right? Isn't it a very sad thing? Don't you think so? Gregoire has been asking Me since long, Mother have you ruled out all the Western people? Audience: Mother, do you know somebody [UNCLEAR], I can't seem to find the place.

Shri Mataji: Marcus! He might be able to see, Marcus just see yours.

Audience: Mother, I am speaking on behalf of parents from Australia, for children place [UNCLEAR].

We would like to have a school Sahaja school and we are not sure how to go about setting this school up and what is needed as curriculum and the needs of the children.

Shri Mataji: Yes. I mean, this is what you have been tell Me now. Do you think they will accept Me in a school there? You tell Me, this is not possible, they will have to make a school here. Isn't it? Audience: You can have a private school. Have a private school in Australia.

Shri Mataji: In Australia? Audience: You can have any ideology alike.

Shri Mataji: Really? Better start.

[Audience laughs and claps.]

Shri Mataji: Just think of [GAP tape seems to beedited]

Shri Mataji: What nonsense they are teaching to our small children there you see. They are attacking innocence in every way you see the whole culture is to attack the innocence, have you noticed it? Horrifying I tell you, I feel horrified. Because you see I cannot think like Eastern, Western nonsense but what I feel are you are My children. That's the place, which is created by God. [Marathi.] They are thinking of starting a school in Bombay [Mumbai] in any case. I have already asked somebody to give Me the curriculum and all that and they said we can have an English medium school here. English medium that's all. You can have for children and I am already finding out about the thing. We have already got the land surprisingly and government may give us grant next year or something like that and build up some thing nice here.

So to begin with, we can have some children from there and some young people to come and teach so they learn how to teach Sahaja Yoga plus other things you see. You can have something to begin with and then you can go back and start your own schools there. It would be much cheaper to educate them in India but the children will have to be away from parents but what the parents and children can come together here and do something about it. What ever you think now. It is for you decide. In any case I am going to start the school. London is impossible for children. Absolutely impossible for children. I can tell you. There is no possibility of keeping them in any where pure, the television, the, every road is filled with dirty advertisement it's all fully immoral you know. Every day if you lift the newspaper you will see such horrible things that you will think you are in hell and children see everything every day how will you, it's an attack on their innocence, all the time, horrible thing are going.

Horrible things.

One boy was killed in Maharashtra. [Marathi] last four five months back. I don't know when he died, about one little boy, can you imagine one little boy and what happened actually was the man was looking after his farm and they use a kind of a called as go fund [UNCLEAR tunra] like that they have some sort of a stone put in a one rope like thing, you see, when you move it, it has its own centripetal force, centrifugal force and with that they hit, so the birds run away and a little boy was playing there, was something he entered into the field and he didn't see him and he got this thing and when he got hurt, he saw the child was running. He ran after the child and he found that the child had really died by that time. He got so frightened that he hid the body of the child, in a sort of, he dug it out and put it there but the body swell up and the body came up, the police found it out after two three days of search and the all over the places you see such a big news about this little boy being lost, this that, big such that the whole of Maharashtra, can you imagine one little boy, millions and millions of people. How many children disappear and then this fellow has to confess and he told the police, you see. For one little boy the whole country got together and started working it out. The police force came and all the police was working out for the little boy. Because the little boy is more important than an old man or a young person.

How is it the child is, the insecurity is there, what happened. I mean, in America, I don't think you can sit outside like this, in America. You will be robbed. I mean, they all told us, don't go in any of these parks after six o'clock. Even in front of our house in London, Marcus told Me only a lady was mugged in the daytime. You remember Marcus? You came up one day and told Me that a lady was mugged in front of Westminster. Just imagine. In the daytime, in the daytime. And you all find drunker sitting here and there, everywhere. Here do you find anywhere? Audience: Mother what about making a film of India, because in our countries, what they show of India is, of people dying in the street and poverty and people can't realise the beauty of this country.

So what about...

Shri Mataji: They will never believe. Try, I mean, try everything. That's the trouble with them. You are happier people, definitely. And people don't die like that. You see, if there is a famine or something, they take this ancient picture and show. I have seen. I have censored one picture India 1972 or 1973 it a no it's a 1965. I have censored that thing here you see, which one Englishman produced or so, in combination with a Frenchman or so, or some group and they took out from somewhere, we have never seen such scenes they show and when the government objected to that, they smuggled this thing out. I don't know from where, they must be paying money to people to take such pictures. I have never seen such a scene.

To begin with the scenes is like this, a lady is sitting somewhere and cooking her food and a child is just lying in the waste there, which is never done in India and a snake comes out, imagine! A snake comes out and the lady is sitting there she takes a stick from the heart hits the snake and start what you call stirring the food, stir, stir food with that stick. I mean, impossible! We never do like that. This is something like that, you see, they have ideas. They are trying to deprive India, they are frightened. I think they are frightened, that people may take to something better and give them up all of them, those who are sitting on the chairs there. Must be that, otherwise I don't know. They never see the beauty of India. You see, if Indians are generous they think that they are being sort of made a I mean, sort of, they been forced into that I mean great lords, they think they are. They never understand generosity. Actually, the time has come for them to finish off with this kind of arrogant thing, that they have within themselves and they think no end of themselves.

Audience: How?

Shri Mataji: You better tell Me. It's a very difficult situation isn't it. You all are thinking people you better think on these lines and desire for it. I can only give fulfil your desires but I don't know what desires you can ask for. That's why take to moon so the moon will work it out.

Audience: Mother, could we come back to the subject of the school in Australia.

Shri Mataji: Hai? What is it? Audience: The subject of the school in Australia. It's related to our own development isn't it really! Because as it now stands with we are spending two months in India and hopefully we are going to go home a lot stronger. When we go home, we gonna be exposed to all the negativity. Parents should be having their children in school where they have been fed a lot of garbage and a lot of time is devoted to clearing, in trying to maintain situation I am speaking grossly you know rather than developing ourselves. What Ray has said is really a very urgent need for it.

Shri Mataji: Try to do some thing about it. I mean I would love to have something like that. Try to work it out. I will be very happy; I will bless it with My heart. Try to work it out. You see, on My own I can start it here. I told these people in India in England also there is a plot of land, which is available, somebody is willing to give Me there also. But the English people are not happy about it, they said, “Mother don't have any school, because children will be exposed” isn't it? They don't want, they want all these children to come home. I mean, they are born with that ego atmosphere you see, teething that ego atmosphere. Terrific people. Even children are terrible. Like Linda's son. Horrible, you just can't control them there. I will be very happy if you start the school like that, please, I mean, I will be very happy. When our ashram is done. I mean, when we have proper arrangements for you, people can come down and can work it out, but you see, you should be made so strong that not only that, you should be able to face that nonsense but also create something new, like, you see, you have to become like lotuses in the mud and fight the worms in the mud who think no end of themselves you see it's difficult.

See you, there should be some basis isn't it? Audience: [UNCLEAR]. The Indians probably don't want us here.

Shri Mataji: [Laughs.] No, they won't mind. You don't know Indians are hiding even Rajneesh's disciples in their house. The government is having a bad time and people are angry with the government, why should we treat the guest like this? What do you mean by that. You should tell them they are like this. They say they can't be like that. They can't believe human beings could be that stupid. That man was telling Me all these stories and the gentleman, who was there, the officer, he told Me, it's very true you see, all these Rajneesh's people who have disappeared from there... And the villagers are hiding them and they are saying “don't say like that to the guest." You see they will be all right very soon they will be all right. I mean they are been told that they are immoral people even then they don't want to believe it.

They said “How can they be?" They are wearing this dress. How can they be immoral? It's a big struggle going on. Government won't be unkind to you if you want to come down here. I am sure. Whatever we talk. The ideas work out.

So we should talk about this, Ruth! Who is that? Audience: Mother, I want to ask more about auspiciousness and the difference between superstitions... [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ya. You see auspiciousness is only known after you have got realisation. Before that you don't know auspiciousness. You see, when the vibrations are the maximum that is the most auspicious time to do any thing. Through only vibrations you can know what is the auspiciousness is, Isn't it? In this country of ours you see we have so many realised Souls as you know that. That whatever they said people obeyed and agreed. Whatever they said they agreed. Even all that astrology and all that is written by people who are realised Souls in this world.

So naturally it has an effect of that. Isn't it? So the truth is auspiciousness. Like we saw a small little stone, stone is coming out of the Mother Earth. You saw that the Cool Breeze was coming out of it. You saw that yourself. That a miracle. But only when you are realised you can see that. Now people never believed that there was an English engineer, could not believe it but whatever was happening was too much for him to understand also.

So one of the saints only told that, it's a stone which is a swayam siddha means it's a [UNCLEAR] created by itself, is a thing, which is created, by the Mother Earth and you don't disturb it, leave it alone.

So they have to make a curve around that for that they could not put any wall around, you see, straight for word.

So they had to go around and they had to accept the situation but very reluctantly. He was so adamant, they were saying that he would not give up. For one year he was still struggling with it. The adamance is another point that come with the this, what you call ego. And he was filling that portion again and again and it would fall down for one year. But then when he saw he could not build it up. He gave up. And he had to go round the place. But only a saint could tell and the people believed the saint in those days and they knew who was a saint.

So the auspiciousness also is understood more by people who live in a country of atmosphere, which is filled with vibrations. I mean India has the maximum vibrations I must say and specially Maharashtra has the most. It's a fact. I tell you. It's a fact. What can you do about it? But it is not that God has favoured this place or anything like that. It is the Kuṇḍalinī. But England is the heart. What are you doing there? Imaging England is the heart and Europe is the liver. And Greece is the Nābhī. They say so, it is the Nābhī. They already are saying so it is sort of certifies us. It is said long time back that it is the navel in that oracle of Delphi.

And it's very funny thing, you see, how people can live with that kind of thing, in India, rather difficult you know, because the vibrations are so strong that you are punished immediately. People won't do somethings. One of Dhumal's relations knows for definite that in one place there is lot of gold and silver is hiding there. But this gold according to them, their forefather had looted from some people before in the war and they won't open it. They said “ba ba we don't have, our children will be killed we don't want to open, we don't want to take that gold or silver or any thing, there will be a curse upon our family. You don't want to touch that gold because we believe that if you take somebody's things like that there will be a curse upon us." This is auspiciousness and superstitions come by people who are not realised but only want to frighten people. That is superstition. But through a realised Soul whatever comes is real auspiciousness. All right. [UNCLEAR].

Audience: Is intuitions a part of wisdom?

Shri Mataji: Of course it is! But intuition for ego-oriented is a very difficult thing. They will say, “I somehow don't like it” but what, why? It's more ego, always, mostly ego. It is not easy for people without realisation to get intuition, very difficult. Intuition, that they get, is mostly is ego. You know [UNCLEAR] it's too much of identification with ego. The whole of the society is that you are pasted to your ego just like you are stamp o like that, absolutely.

So intuition can be quite confused thing. If they had proper intuitions they would not have gone to such horrible places.

Audience: Can you explain the phases of the moon, its significance?

Shri Mataji: You see, there are fifteen phases as you know and the fifteen phases and the sixteenth is complete. When it is the sixteen phase it's a complete phase.

So fifteen phases are the fifteen steps of consciousness on which human beings really built? And the sixteenth is the complete, where you really become just a witness.

So you cross the fourteenth then you get your realisation.

So the moon is never complete till it reaches sixteenth. Then at the sixteenth point it is a complete phase and that's why it is called that Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is complete because he has got sixteen phases.

Sola kalaye.

Now the first phase as we call it is first and second two phases. Now all the seven Chakras have two phases, left and right.

So seven into four or two [7 x 2 = 14](In India 'into' means 'multiplied by') fourteen phases, fifteenth is the spirit and sixteenth is God, which is only absolute state, where it never changes. It remains the same it, it's unsurmountable, it's unchanged, it's above, it is a phase which is not achievable by human beings.

So by coming to Sahaja Yoga you are moving between twelve and fourteen. How fast the growth has come. Just think of it.

Now the first phase and the second phase is the time when the matter is created. It's the first installation of the matter is the Gaṇeśha's a and the all the obstructions at that time are covered through Gaṇeśha's power, Innocence. Like that you can see in every Chakras how all the obstructions are cleared out. As the left side is the moon these phases also give you the blessings of the moon. Now the blessings of the moon are left-sided as you know and these left-sided blessings are through auspiciousness, through the positive side, one is the positive side is that you get auspiciousness. Auspiciousness is not in your hands; it's not in your hands. It is beyond.

So you get auspiciousness as a blessing in all the phases. And there are fourteen types of joys which you get out of this, which I just now I need not tell you the names, it's too much. But you can send, say ultimately you get a joy, which is called Nīrānand, Nīrānand. Now Nira is My name, you know. My short form is Nira. [Marathi.] So Nīrānand, the joy, is so much that it is completely joy and is nothing else, just joy. Purest form of joy. That is what you get at Sahasrāra. And then this joy expands it doesn't improve. Till that joy improves and after that it expands. And that's why whatever one does according to the lunar system, one does it from the spiritual point of view. I mean, you don't get any consumer service. Like you get through the sunshine, sunlight. That supposing you buy something at this time and sell at another time you might get a big profit. Material gains! That's right side. But you get spiritual gains. That's why all the spiritual things are to be done according to the moon. You follow now? Sir, it's a very big question.

One day I will give you a big lecture on that, but I think you have understood.

Question: Shri Mataji, why do they have a light phase and a dark phase?

Shri Mataji: No, Shukla paksha is the time when the moon is increasing and shukla, Kṛiṣhṇa paksha is when the moon is decreasing. At the decreasing time is not auspicious. There is no why for auspiciousness.

It does not happen. Why there is light coming out of the gas, can you explain? Because it is light, but why? It is. When the moon increases then there is auspiciousness because that represents the spirit na.

The more reflection of the spirit comes in it is on the increasing side. When it is decreasing we can say it is on the decline then it is not auspicious.

So there is Shukla paksha and Kṛiṣhṇa paksha.

Audience: Pūjā is taking place at noon!... [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What is taking place? Audience: Pūjā.

Shri Mataji: You see I have My own Pañchanga. I didn't fix it up but just works out that way, what can I do? Audience: Bolo Jagan Mātā Śhrī Nirmalā Devī ke Jay!

Shri Mataji: Even the Indians are so stupid sometimes. I fixed a Pūjā in Pune, on the first day of this Navarātri, Magi Navarātri but stupid people in Pune were so obstinate, that they didn't want to have it at that time, so they said we will have program at such and such day and I said let it be, so they had it in Lonavala and then they realised they were out. You remember once I came at the Pūjā at about 11:45 and the Pūjā was to be at 9 and you all were very unhappy about it but then I said you all consult the Pañchanga.

Audience: Last year same thing happened Mātājī...

Shri Mataji: Remember! Audience:... You came bit late so we were worried and we were stranded at Nasik itself...

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Audience:... But You said something You had to do some Pūjā at Nasik so You purposely came late.

Shri Mataji: See Nasik is the, one of the very big center of auspiciousness here. And there are horrible raksha's who are settled down there.

So I had to work it out in Nasik you see. I told them never start a program before seven in England. Always I said it, even here. But they fixed up a program at six. It is not auspicious. I will not do it. And in the morning time, not before 11. Now the daytime I need to go to the other world to look after that side, you see. I can't give you twenty-four hours, can I? Audience: Ratha saptami.

Shri Mataji: Ha that was the day rathasaptami was the day. Then the second day Pūjā we had on rathasaptami? On the seventh day? of the thing was? [Marathi.] And the second was vishwa ashtami two days were there. And you cannot have a Havana on a saptami.

So the saptami started very early in the morning and the I saw the sun because the sun is the rathasaptami.

So I saw the sun and I don't disturb it. Then ashtami we had. I don't consult any Pañchanga you know.

Audience: Because You are the creator of Pañchanga.

Shri Mataji: [Marathi.] And then you know mister, I said why did you fix up like that? But, it's a great thing to know about the Pañchanga also because there is one Sahaja Yogi called Mr. Pharke he is Brahmin, of the real type Brahmin, the [UNCLEAR cocnust] brahmin. He has a sharada of his father, that they celebrate this rites after the father's death. Very good they do that so the anorexia and all that do not happen. You are supposed to feed the Brahmins but these days Brahmins are the only people who are unrealised, it's a wrong thing but still you the mother said you must feed the Brahmin because your father had died.

So he asked a Brahmin when will you come? He said, “I will come on Thursday." He said according to Pañchanga it is auspicious, He said “are you sure?" He said, “Yes!" So, he went and consulted the Pañchanga himself and it was written it was not at all auspicious and shrādha should not be done on Thursday. This fellow, the Brahmin is booked in India You see they are also booked for eating.

Ya, they book this Brahmin for eating for sharadhas. You see, so he was booked otherwise so he wanted to do this at his own convenience.

So he said Thursday. When he went to Pharke's place he was Sahaja Yogi, he said “Now what is the Pañchanga says?" He says today is auspicious. Which Pañchanga he says.

This Pañchanga, that they use which one.

Audience: Datte.

Shri Mataji: Dattes Pañchanga, says “date's Pañchanga, are you sure?" He said “yes yes." He said “I will not even give you a cup of tea because it says it is inauspicious” he showed him the Pañchanga and said you get out from here and the mother was so angry with him. He said “nothing doing, you get out of here, I won’t even give you a cup of tea you get out of here." Then he called some Sahaja Yogis and looked for an auspicious day and fed them.

So that's how mistaking other form is.

How are you? Better? How are you? Put your right hand towards Me.

Audience: Mother, how can we increase the power of love more and more without feeling about our Chakras and not worrying about catch. I would like to know how we can develop the power of love? Others, I mean without worrying about ourselves because every moment we are thinking of us.

Shri Mataji: But in loving what is there to worry, I just don't understand. It's only your ego, which keeps you out of it. What is wrong in loving someone? Audience: I mean increase the power of loving.

Shri Mataji: Increase? Audience: what they are trying to say Mother, she would like to know what we could do to increase this power of love which you are talking about rather than concerns of our own catches and all worry about that, I think that's what she means.

Shri Mataji: Doesn't do it artificially. There is no pump. Rather a difficult thing. You have to just love. You see what are you worried about, I don't understand? You are egoistical that's why you can't love you see, what will you catch. You don't catch by loving, never. You never, because you see you are identified with something that's why you catch. Like, now supposing I told her to keep away from her.

Does Lyn love? They should do it. If they love each other they should keep away separate because they are destroying each other. Better they keep away from each other and have another type of accompany.

See because they are same type and if two wheels are going in the same direction, God knows where they will land. There is no time for them to think.

So you just love people, no harm, there is nothing can come but this is not love you see when they combine together they can't even see their own destruction.

Then there is no love. Actually it is sort of a convenience. They feel secure with each other. She has a right Heart and she has a right Heart very secure. Both of them are sharing all the miseries of the world.

Like, two drunkards sitting here, actually. If the trouble increase that means something wrong. Nobody catches; I mean we enjoy love in this country. Really enjoy love. You don't catch from people whom you love. That's one of the signs of love you never catch.

A mother, I don't know about, what Western mothers, but an Indian mother even if child has got a disease, which is very contagious, the mother is allowed to look after the child but she will never catch.

[Marathi.] Is absolute truth. You ask the doctor is sitting here, you ask her.

Audience: What about sympathic vibrations. You spoke about sympathy with some body you can catch from each other.

Shri Mataji: Then you sympathy same thing share pathy is pathos.

So you share pathos is all right.

What is there to be sympathetic? See you when you love you just enjoy the love now. What is the system [UNCLEAR]. That's Western nonsense I think, sympathy, you see it's so artificial that I can't grasp it.

I cannot sympathize with you because I have no pathos in Me. How can I share pathos? Even if somebody is too much of a sort of a you know double face sort of a person going about then I shout at that person, in love. I shout at people, in love. Patricia will say yes. You love. Even to kill rākshas you have to have love for them.

Audience: Mātājī, [Marathi].

Shri Mataji: Raga ra manje energy and ga manje gayete manje gana so raga cha artha s, they ask very nice and deep questions. There is a subject called weet raga a person who has gone beyond attachment, beyond mum, beyond attachment. [UNCLEAR] explained how you achieve that kind of thing mammtav.

Ra is energy, ga gayete ga means sanchara la kaiye sanchar? Braman? Movement, movement of energy.

So the movement of energy is Raga. Ra is energy and ga is, this is sympathy you can call it because when the movement of energy gets locked up. You see like a tree has got the energy with in itself in the sap, the sap is moving and it gets, suppose it likes one flower it gets locked up there, then it has gone into the state where it is locked up. Now, never it happens in the nature, no tree likes one flower never, it's only human beings, they will like one child, would not like another child. This is my child, this is yours.

This is only human style and animal take also and say this is mine child but we even get attached to our things, to our possessions, to material things also we get attached, or we attached to some times so many nonsensical things, which has no meaning you know. These identification takes place because the energy gets locked up. Energy is there to nourish, to look after, to encourage and to get out because if it is locked up the energy is dead and the thing is dead too. If the energy is dead a tree is locked up in a flower, the flower will die and the tree will die also. That's why they said you should become a weet raga you should be able to detach yourself weet! Weet manje kaiye mada. Is above it's above that means you do not get attached you see. Now this is my daughter and this is my son this is my house, this is my, my, my, my, then I, I, I, I. Today only I was telling about Kabīra. Kabīra has said these goat all the time goes on saying mai, mai, mai, mai means I, I, I, I when she is living then when this goat dies and they take out the intestines of the goat and make it into strings and the people who use a kind of an instrument in India, which is used for cleaning the cotton dhunki they call it. When it is tied to that, it says tu hi, tu hi, tu hi, it's you it's you, it's you. It requires that kind of happening it's a, in Sahaja Yoga you become the spirit. Spirit can be attached to anyone.

So you become the weet raga.

Audience: [Marathi.]

Shri Mataji: [Marathi] unsurmountable it's Nirmalā, it cannot get attached, it cannot be blemished, it cannot catch anything, it is not attached, you become your spirit. That's how you become weet raga [UNCLEAR] thousands of year ago they told keep cleansed, to keep your attention away all these things were told but they didn't work out very well. Specially Jainis were told so many things and they made a mess of every thing you know that. Same about Christians and same about any thing.

So, I thought it's better a to give them realisation.

Audience: Bolo Nirmalā Mātā ki Jay!

Shri Mataji: Let us start their bath then they will their self see where the defect is and will themselves try to improve it. Make them into the spirit. Once you become the spirit you will enjoy the light of the spirit and the light of the spirit is. All right so don't be paranoid about catching.

Audience: No I wasn't talking about catching but how to open the heart more and more.

Shri Mataji: Not to have any fears about it.

Audience: It opens.

Shri Mataji: Just open; be nice to everyone and kind to... you see this is Freud, he has give you all sorts of nonsensical pictures. Such perversions and nonsensical things that exists, doesn't exist in India you never think like this. You have seen how people are clean. They don't even know these things happen or exist. I was shocked when in England I heard such things happen, I didn't eat My food for days got such a cramp in My stomach. Couldn't understand how could people be so stupid. Just let go. All right? Italians have done it Italians I must say are real [UNCLEAR]. They just saw My photograph and they came they saw? On My face. It is some thing great isn't it? Just seeing My photograph. Nowhere I have seen in the west. I don't know about the Australians. But nowhere in the west people are impressed with My photograph as the Italians were. They could see the serenity.

So many told Me. That we saw Your photo and we knew that You were the one, we knew You were the Mother.

Something remarkable about the Italian isn't it? They understand the Divine beauty. Ha what's that? Who is that? Audience: [UNCLEAR] importance of collectivity and collective evolution in Sahaja Yoga.

Shri Mataji: You see we build up our barriers with the ego, superego, fears, pride, the things we have conditioned ourselves, we have read about things, we are so frightened about other and all those things like that. But after realisation you become collectively conscious, you actually become. Now the first thing that happens to people who get realisation is that they are aware that they are collectively conscious and they know that somebody is catching. Now those who are not realised Souls you will catch from them, much more, naturally because they are not even realised Souls.

So the company of such people starts changing, but one could not be very much anxious or this is know anguish, say paranoid about it.

Because in appearance if people start showing about that others will run away. But you must understand how far to go with people. Now the collectivity is to be understood that you become part and parcel of the whole all right. Now this nose has to know about the eyes and the eyes have to know about the ears and the ears have to know about.

So now say supposing liver is in France and Sahaja Yogis from France will form a group separately, still. They will sit together. English, the heart will sit together. Others will sit together, which is not healthy sign because we should know about each other. It's a complete growth of the body. Nose must know about the ears. The ears must know about the heart. Otherwise nose will start going like this and ear will start going like that, out of proportion.

So collective growth has to be so commonsense, its common sense. Now what happens with the collectivity is the, there are many barriers, which are like the, one of them as you said is ego; is the worst of all. I have seen people; if somebody comes and stays will Me say people get jealous of that person. It's most surprising! That person is in a very big danger zone, coming nearer Me is not an easy thing. It's quiet dangerous you see. That person is tested much more than a person who is away from Me.

So thank God you are not so near because there are one tiger and one lion sitting and the one who comes near Me also gets this feeling that he is something great.

All such nonsensical things are, nobody is nearer circulation is on. Those who think are very close to Me can be dropped down just like nails you cut them. Any outgrown people will be dropped down just like that from Sahaja Yoga.

So what is there to be jealous? If you are jealous be healthy about it that you try to be like a person who understands Sahaja Yoga better, be like that person more. You should treat that person as an ideal who understands Sahaja Yoga better than you, who has better vibrations, who has more surrender and who talks less than you and understand more and appreciates you, instead of that if you are jealous what are you going to gain? This is the ego side.

Ego can be anything, many people I have seen they talk big, Sahaja Yoga, brain trust we are going to have now. Then in the brain trust some people are answering the questions and some are asking the questions and I see the play, is all right, but nobody should think that by doing this thing you are closer to God. You are only closer to God if you are closer to God. It is so simple as that. If you are closer to God you are closer to God otherwise you are not. How far is the distance between you and Me makes no difference.

So one has to know how far you are closer to God, how far you are understanding God, how far you are surrendered because when you are surrendered only collectivity will work out ha? If say your mouth is not surrendered to your brain, you will become like mad people. I have seen some people, in France I saw, they were just talking all the time, they got into the bus they were talking, they got down they were talking, they had no control on the brain, so you become like that.

So to become closer to God you have to be closer to God that's as simple. I mean somebody will say how will I know how I know that I can drive a car. I mean you know. How do I know I can drive a bike? For example how can I know I can use a bike? I mean when you are that you are that. I mean is there any other way out? How will I say I have got eyes? When you can see finished. I mean it is so simple as that.

So how can you say you are nearer to God? You yourself will know that you are nearer to God because the joy of being that. You need not be close to Me you need not be touching My feet you could be anywhere in the forest you could be very close to Me and those who thing that they are very close to Me because they can make a little face and behave in a very artificial way or some dramatic styles are very far away. And those who cannot understand the commands of the brain are useless things. Now supposing one nail starts growing big and piercing inside the skin, we will take it out isn't it? It's not listening to the brain, we will have to throw it out. Any malignant growth is that growth which goes beyond the control of the brain, of the central nervous system. If the parasympathetic cannot control a growth of a particular cell that is the malignant cell.

So if you become malignant in Sahaja Yoga you may think you are a very great person a you are very some thing. You may think you will be thrown out because you are a disease, you are a diseased person, you will be thrown out.

So to be relevant is to be relevant. There is no alternative for that. Paryay nahi [UNCLEAR].

Audience: no compromise.

Shri Mataji: No compromise. If you are in the body you are moving with the same pace, same coordination, same understanding with all the other moves of the cells, isn't it? Any thing that becomes big or small is useless.

Some people think that if they show afraid and this and that no what's the need? It's the other side of it so both the thing are no good for your growth and are no good for the collectivity.

As the whole body has to grow it's a collective growth. We have a collective growth otherwise as a tree grows collectively or not? When it grows outward it has to grow inward or not? Otherwise it won't stand the weight of the outside. That what is has happened. Now to people who are over developed they can't bear it any more they have to find out their roots. But the whole thing grows. Even the tree has everything grows in proportion like for example if you have a mango tree it won't grow like a coconut tree will it? It has its own swabhava [nature] in the same way the human beings must grow like human beings and not like animals.

So you grow according to your style. You human beings cannot be tall like coconut trees and cannot be dwarf like what you call like bushes. If they become like that they are diseased, they are abnormal.

So you have to grow as human being and you have to grow collectively all together and you all have to be very normal there is nothing abnormal needed in you, there is nothing to show off, just like normal people you have to be. Actually those who try to show off actually have an inferiority complex in them so they try to show off that they are very great seekers or something. I know everyone.

So what is there to show off for whom? It is for you, you show off yourself. It is for your own growth, for your own understanding, for your own joy, for your own power, for your own property that is your spirit. Inaudible? So cheer up. If you be one with the whole you grow better you get more nourishment otherwise you are cut out and after some time you die, you are finished. If a nail grow beyond a certain limit you cut it off.

It's not needed, it's not needed by the body what use is of that. All right? This is what is the problem of the collectivity that we don't understand that we are all one body.

Just come in. Sit on it. Sit on that facing Me. That's perfect.

You all put yourself left to the right. [Marathi.] Morning time they had made a very special lunch for Me. Very special lunch it was na? Where? Audience: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I think you better export all your eggs to India. Egg powder, eggs quite a lot is jammed there. Specially the egg powder. Cheese an other. I was about to tell you to get the cheese from there.

Audience: I don't know what to do Mother.

Shri Mataji: Same thing happened last time you remember? You brought the cheese and no body ate it. Because they all had liver so the cheese was kept there whom to give the cheese so it was taken to Delhi.

Anybody who has good liver can eat cheese. Who has good liver? I have an excellent one I tell you.

Now all right? Now think of the moon. I can see. Moon is your uncle Mama he tumche [your maternal uncle] My brother.

So think of the moon now.

Twameva sākṣhāt Śhrī Chandrama! Audience: Om Twameva Sākṣhāt Śhrī Chandrama sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ..

Shri Mataji: Again.

Audience: Om Twameva Sākṣhāt Śhrī Chandrama sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ..

Shri Mataji: Again.

Audience: On Twameva Sākṣhāt Śhrī Chandrama sākṣhāt Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ.

Shri Mataji: See the vibrations. All right? Much cooler. That's your uncle in the very sutra [UNCLEAR]. You can always ask for help from him. He is sitting on top of his brother-in-law's head, that is Shiva. Always the brother-in-law see like, moon is the brother-in-law for Shiva sits on the head of the sister's husband always ready. [Marathi.] Jiska bhai ho andar Jiske bahen ho andar uska bhai ho sikandar [Hindi].

You say whose sister; the wife He married is a great person Alexander. Sikandar is Alexander's name.

Because you see Alexander was a brother-in-law for Indians. You know the story of Alexander? You don't know? You are not reading My... listening to My... Ha.

This Alexander the Great. He is from Greece. He invaded India and when he came up to Punjab and where he was you see attacking and also capturing many peoples and many kingdoms. And then once when he was defeated by a king called as Puru and this king arrested him and put him in the jail and that was the day when auspicious day when it is a full moon day and that day a sister ties a thread in the hand of the brother and anybody who wants to have a help from anybody can tie in the hands of a brother. See the auspiciousness of this. See how delicate this is.

So the wife of Alexander was an Indian, he had married an Indian lady. After coming to India he had married an Indian lady and so this Indian lady was very cleaver because that was the day when a she could call somebody as a brother.

So she sent that thread called the rakhi in a plate covered with a nice cloth to this king when he was on his throne in the court. When it was offered to him. He saw it and he said “who is this sister of mine who has sent me today this?" So they said “she is the wife of Alexander!" “Oh God!" He said “I didn't know, I locked up my brother-in-law inside." Immediately he went to the prison. He brought him outside and said “I am sorry, Sir. I am very sorry. You come along." He brought him and put him on the throne. And he said “I am sorry you take everything what you like, you can arrest me, do what ever you like. You have married my sister I cannot arrest you." Alexander was quite shocked at his behaviour. He couldn't understand this mad chap. He said “he is offering me this thing I will give out all his country. Luckily he caught me." He couldn't understand this. Then he gave him lots of money everything and sent him home you see. And this lady was smiling at home. She said “What did he do?" She said “I just sent him a plate." She showed him this is this kind. This thread! What do you mean? She told him “today is such an such day and if somebody sends like that then you are bound you see to save your sister." You see then you become a sister. And that's your duty. He said “Oh God I better go back! I can't look after these people they are so subtle and so on. It is beyond me how can they leave an enemy like me? Only on a thread!" And he went back. That's why we call him great because he realised that there is auspiciousness. Can you imagine? This would be stupidity according to many.

Audience: Mother [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Jeremy I think I better not do it now. All right? Because then the attention will be there more. Just now you try to build up your Ardha Bindu. Then I will tell you about this. You see you might run away half of you. I don't want to tell you, you see truth is also quite startling you know. If I tell you, you have to carry the weight of an elephant on your back. You will all run away you see. But if I prepare your back then you will agree. That's why I am not telling you. Let Me prepare you to face that then I will tell you about Poorna Bindu. All right.

Audience: I am not sure what is Ardh Bindu?

Shri Mataji: Nutshell you where outside. I have told them in a big shell. He wants to know in a nut shell what is Ardha-bindu. It's the Chandrama on top of the head of Shiva is the Ardha-bindu. On top of the Omkar is Ardha-bindu. All right Jeremy? I will let you know. Is too much of a perfection and you say I am going home. No sorry. Like an American went to England and he saw the spellings of things are so different like Wostershire and this and that and he got really upset you see. When he saw an advertisement for some picture for gas like or whatever gas like and pronounced success. He said pronounced for success gas like, he said “I can't, that is too much." That's how I don't want to tell you that's how I don't want you to go home. How are you Rustom? Kya hāl hai tumahara. How are you now better? You sleep in two dormitories.

Don't see each other and don't talk.

I think you better share with Barbara. It will help both of you Who is the lady who has come from Vancouver? How are you Lorrie? Are you all right? Because you see we have just started a work in Vancouver. You see I want you people to really feel the responsibility. It's a very big responsibility; out of the way post I should say I am quite worried about Canada. All right? You can start Vancouver site, because French is difficult. As it is French is difficult and then French in Canada is even more difficult. Only trouble with French is that they want to do everything in a different way. Everything! Some how or the other they want to do. They will have hats they will have some sort of a tail. If they will wear pants then they will have some thing different. I mean every way. They do not want to have any thing in common with any one else. It's a great problem with them.

After saying this to French are you better? How are you? Audience: Much better.

Shri Mataji: You have been sending some French? Who is that? You should talk French! No No. It's true I can't speak any French. Ha that's how you got your Viśhuddhi. Now I know. There is no word for awareness in that language now you see. They have a dictionary of all dirty things but no word for awareness. Chatenat shabd he nahi hai. French madhe [UNCLEAR] can you believe it? See what are you trying to learn French? Audience: I am not trying to know.

Shri Mataji: French should learn English for heaven's sake. Learn English. French language how can I speak. Moreover now the God's understand English language now as they are with in Me. But they don't understand French and French doesn't have even the word awareness. What are you going to do about it? Just think of it. The supremacy of French has been, in stupidifying every man, something nonsense.

I can tell you. I don't think there is any thing special about them except a few great writers who came as a blessing and... is great but mostly egoistic people and immoral people. Very immoral, isn't it? Very immoral. There is nothing to learn from immorality Audience: Why is Vancouver is the place?

Shri Mataji: You tell Me. You see it is a country which is affluent but it has not finished the epic of affluence you see. Like English have now. I mean they are the fed up with themselves. Still they Canadian people think that they are great. They are trying to copy the English.

So they are still to copy the English.

But English are now fed up with themselves. That maturity is not there. As I was saying the other day like other developing countries or communistic countries like we can say Poland or, I am sorry to say but I don't mean anybody here but I am saying Polish people are like that Christians, Polish, Canadian all of them lack. The thing is all these countries are not yet developed enough, to realise that this is no good for them, see. Same with Canadian. I see they are trying to copy the British still in a way. To them I mean the British Canadians still think that we should become like British. But where the British are lying in the mud, they don't see. But these are the ones who have hit their head back. They don't want to be there. Little difference little bit they have gone down or may be they have to come up that's why I think, you can mature off course. They attack Me a lot, when I went there. On the television, on the radio they attack Me. They said all kinds of things. Nowhere they did that. They attack Me very much.

And with all the expense and all that we put in we spend so much money that. They want to make homes like English home and like that. What Australia was doing now say fifty years back, Canadians are doing that now. That is the way.

Audience: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: See your vibrations. Through your vibrations, vibrations are the cooling things and through your vibrations. That's the only way, it's very simple. Through your vibratory awareness. Must use your vibratory awareness more and more. But not for small things you know. This is for bigger things, our bigger vision of life. Use your vibrations for solving the bigger problems like people who live here have lost their something; they give a bandhan, that's not proper. For small small things not but for bigger things use your vibrations. You can now give some thing to the nature. Now you can give to the consciousness of the people. Now, where some Sahaja Yogis are sitting it's all vibrate. You being there is all going to change the history. Already it is changing. Since I am there banking laws and everything is changing.

So much is coming [Marathi]. Take the children there. They will feel sleepy; let them have their food. Go! All right take them. [Marathi aside.] I hope you have rested well and it's a very nice place and a pleasant place. You will like this place very much. Mother speaks in Marathi.

Child: [singing].

Shri Mataji: He is singing a song for God. Let her also go, you also go. All of you have your food.

Children should have their food also.

Audience: What about Sahaja Yoga in America?

Shri Mataji: We have one already here. One and two. One is Roger, where is she, she was sitting here. Other.

Audience: She has gone out.

Shri Mataji: Gone out! For? Audience: gone out for a walk.

Shri Mataji: She has gone out for a walk; American Sahaja Yoga is gone out for a walk. [Audience laughs.] Other one is here, 50% is here! Thank you! They believe in walking, jogging and what else. According to Roger, America does not a Mātājī, requires a sinner. It's horrible! What about America? They are asking? American Sahaja Yoga? Aai? What did she say? Audience: They believe in principle of mother is God, sibblies.

Shri Mataji: Sibblies, they believe in America, is that so? Houston was very good.

Audience: In the country they believe in blessed Virgin.

Shri Mataji: They believed in Blessed virgin! Houston was very good, I must say, Houston was very good. Houston I really liked. It was so sweet. Very sweet and I told them about Christianity because I spoke in the Churches. Houston in that Unity Church, where they have unity of all the bhoots of the world.

All the horrible people whom I did not even know, I found them also in the Unity Church.

Audience: [laughs] Bhūt Union.

Shri Mataji: Bhūt Unity Church. But I told them off. And now I am told in their regular service they are soaking the feet, without My photograph, doesn't matter.

[Everyone laughs.]

Shri Mataji: What an apology! Sahaja Yoga is a big joker. Isn't it? Next year we hope to have some thing better. If you did not destroy it before that. Already I am told Los Angeles is having a pang of My visitation there. Los Angeles had a bad time. First time when I went to Rome they really misbehaved there and they had a big earth quake there. Now it's better. It's all right. This visit was good, isn't it Pablo? People are better off now. I mean, they are good people. I think French, they are much better than French. They are very sensible, still.

Audience: In Rome.

Shri Mataji: Italians are more sensible people as far as God is concerned. First of all they are fed with the Pope.

Audience: We have too much church heat.

Shri Mataji: No, no most of them don't have faith in him. With the Pope. No no. Most have don't have. They have understand it. I think you are very sensible. You see those who are away from the pope think no end of himself, those who are near them can see the donkey hat. That hat only a donkey can wear. [Audience laughs.] Because what's the need to have it like this? There are ears coming out. [Everyone laughs.] Isn't it? I mean I don't understand why this shape? Specially, this way. This is what? It must be the donkey. I mean this must be the donkey Christ must have rode on. They can't explain why to have a donkey hat like that? It is going like this and like that. I mean you can have a hat like this but every way is possible. This kind I have never seen. Have you seen this kind before? Out of proportion it is. Must be for the ears to be hidden. No no that way I must say people know him much better in Rome than they know in say Argentina or any place. They know him much better. They know what wealth they have got and how they lead their life and how they are sucking the money of the people. Everything they know very well. Rome is a very positive place like that. But if you go to Switzerland the Swiss, Catholics are the worst of all, I think, in the whole world. They cannot be. You see they have got money and they are capitalist. If they were poor they can see things. But they have money and they are Catholics. God save them! They are the worst I think. They may be the worst one of the worst, because Jews I don't know. Jews I can't say. Equal share. Jews have money and they are stupid. Same with the Swiss people.

They are very stupid Catholics, extremely stupid Catholics in Switzerland I tell you, very stupid. Ask him, he will tell you how stupid they are. She can't believe it. They have no brains, brainless people.

They have money but no brains. Now they are doing charismatic movement, charismatic movement in the church. [Marathi] manje bhoot Vidyā karte hai church me, ha, parach hoi, bhoot Vidyā asuri Vidyā, Absolutely asuriya. I mean we Indian know, they don't know poor things they don't know. That is Varjit: that is to be given up, that is not to be accepted. That is Virjit, in our Shāstras. It is varjit, we know so much about these things which you do not know, what can you do also? I mean in spirituality I would say you are at least thousand years back may be more. This we knew long long back. Kaide maiyte asuri Vidyā [UNCLEAR] Chauda hazar varshe purvi mayte. Since 14,000 years back we are talking about this horrible. I mean we knew about it long time back.

So how much backward you are.

Audience: Mother, what should we be reading?

Shri Mataji: What should we read? Audience: [UNCLEAR]. We have all grown up from Catholic education or Protestant education so apart from the bible what else should we be reading?

Shri Mataji: Must you read? Must you read? Better give up reading. As it is your eyesight is very weak. Better not read. What is the need to read? You read your sum, you read in Sahaja Yoga. What is the need to read? If you have to read, read Khalil Gibran, you read so many things of the Goddess.

These things you must read if you have to read. But try to read less. I think you people are read, over read. First it should be emptied then you should read some thing sensible. Because they read read read read read. They read too much in the west. Any thing sells, which ever is printed. You should reduce reading. It is too much. I never read. I have no time to read any thing. What is there to read? You can read within ourselves, there is a library within ourselves.

Audience: Mother, you talk about diary, I try to start it but I found difficult to, not to... [UNCLEAR] your ego or your miseries.

Shri Mataji: It's all right to keep a record of your ego because when it will be lost then you will know you had it. It's all right. Whatever it is you face yourself. [Everyone laughs.] Dili is enjoying this. Because he has lost more or most of it now.

It's one good thing, backward page, to see what we were, it's very nice so you feel happy with yourself not others, which is very good. Now, what I would suggest that we should do little work. See because these people have been working very little to fold this thing which you are sitting and sit on all these things that are there. You better have it then you know what they have done mistakes.

Audience: It's not really necessary to go to India if they can do it here [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: If of course I mean, Americans and Russian don't interfere with that. You see if they come and interfere with us and tell us how to develop. Then we may go astray, possibly. That is what it is, they are all trying to teach us how to develop. It's true, I mean, it's a big interference, isn't it? Audience: But is there a power to resist that?

Shri Mataji: See, that what I am thinking that, unless and until our people are at the helm of affairs understand, it will stop. That mean you have to develop on your own lines. Our cultural background is so strong. We are very stuck into them [UNCLEAR].

Audience: I mean if there a proper plan to resist that?

Shri Mataji: All right [UNCLEAR]. Sit down.

Audience: What about New Zealand? New Zealand, Mother? The country New Zealand. Is there much chance... Would you come to New Zealand?

Shri Mataji: New Zealand was part of India as Australia was also. All right? [Aside.] I would like to discuss with you people, that is the first time I am really talking to you about the marriage. First one should know that I would love you to be married because there are great Sahaja Yogis to be born. And they will be born to the people who are married only. What happened.

Audience: Some thing jumped on him.

Shri Mataji: [Marathi aside].

Those who want to get married, I have asked Warren to find out. On the very outset I must tell you that some people are very ego-oriented and they don't understand that marriage is an auspicious thing and about marriage their attitude is very funny. They don't want to interfere with that, at all, because they know how to make a mess out of it. They don't know how to make a good out of it but how to make a mess out of it. Which is a fact.

So you see the interference is not there from My side, neither I am going to take a decision for it, of any kind but I would say there are girls who want to say some English girl want to marry, some Australian boys want to marry and some Australian girls want to marry but some.

So we should make a list of people who want to get married, all right? Now those who want to get married should give Me the message and we should circulate and you should have a selection of your own, without My interference, to Me everybody is all right. But one should not do any thing drastic. You see if it is not feasible it is there is no need to get into drastic state.

Some thing in a very Sahaja way, simple way is the marriage that's place is all right. All right? So there should not be too much of a [UNCLEAR].

So I think best thing would be to circulate, there is going to be a marriage in Delhi. In that marriage if other marriage can take place then in sense it is much easy and those who want to get married can get married.

And there is no force of any kind. There is no need to be shy those who want to get married should really give me your names. Problem with them is they get little worried, with the vibrations now also how long you have been in Sahaja Yoga, that's the problem with them. If they have not been with them for a long time then they get a little worried about them. It is for you to decide. Patrick, I will speak to you a little later. [GAP]... place and we will have our picnic with you and then you proceed further, so that you will have very light food tomorrow night there, when we go there some fruits or some thing light.

So you come back home, sleep and next morning you get up early and go to that place. Mother speaks in side. You sleep very early about 10 o'clock.

[A few Sanskrit sholakas in the end, with translation.] Good Night.

Contents: 1982-02-10 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Question and Answers about America, Maharashtra, India

Shri Mataji: Did you hear Me? I said there's nothing to learn from India on the gross and nothing to learn from the west. Both are in the same melting pot, one is developed another is developing. What do you say? Gentleman: On the spiritual difference?

Shri Mataji: What do you think of India on the spiritual level? Zero? What is it? Gentleman: Well the aspirations of what is still preserved in this country.

Shri Mataji: You see if I am to talk to Americans you know they are ego-oriented they'll feel hurt.

Better not say India is anything greater then they have.

Gentleman: Your being the diplomat of the diplomats, Mother.

Shri Mataji: You see our main object is to get them into Sahaja Yoga isn't it? Not to blast them.

So let us avoid subjects which are really, which challenge their ego. Why to challenge their ego so they just get out of Sahaja Yoga.

Gentleman: What we are trying to answer Mother, why do say a hundred and thirty Westerners come to India and undergo the sort of, the discomforts of India. What is it that they are looking for that they feel they can find here, from that point of view?

Shri Mataji: Then don't put learn. You see you can put that what is the difference between an Indian seeker and a Western seeker. That's a better one it doesn't give them a seeking at a gross level. Because as long as they are seeking they are at a grosser level we can compare what is the difference between the two is. But if you come to the subtler thing then there is no difference. What else? Gentleman: This last one was what we thought was a suggestion you made to us that you also talked a bit about the Gurus. And so what we were going to ask is that there are so many paths why is it that only Sahaj goes to God? And what is the aim of the other Gurus? It's also controversial so...

Shri Mataji: Oh all right, what I will do in this I will choose. This way will be better. This will be about the Gurus I would like to put it separately.

Gentleman: It's really up to you Mother however it works out.

Shri Mataji: It will work out. But what you said was what is vibrations you have put it? Gentleman: That's there yes that's second thing.

Shri Mataji: ll right I'll forget [UNCLEAR]. There you are get an American now he's got an American accent. Better wear some sweater. Don't leave children you know without sweaters it is very treacherous. Where has she gone without a sweater? How are you mate? Problem? What's the problem with you? Want to look like American? What do you say? Is it all right? All right let's see what you have to ask Me. Who is going to ask now? Gentleman: I'm asking.

Shri Mataji: All right come this way. Better remove Gaṇeśha otherwise they may question this. No? All right.

Gentleman: What is the importance of receiving Self-realisation?

Shri Mataji: In the evolutionary process a human being has come out of a small little unicellular animal called Amoeba as they say in the science. But what is the purpose of this becoming a human being? The purpose of his becoming a human being is that he has to become the spirit. This vehicle of a human body, mind, is to express the spirit within you. Self-realisation is the epitome of our evolution.

So we all have to become Self-realised. Without self we are in darkness. We are not aware of the All-pervading Power which is doing all the living work. All kinds of living work things we can not do. What we do is the dead work or the mental projections which recoil back upon ourselves. We must get to Self-realisation that's the goal of human ascent from amoeba to this stage.

Gentleman: What are vibrations? Vibrations are the feeling of the All-pervading Divine Power within yourself on your central nervous system. You can feel this Divine Power for the first time after Self-realisation on your central nervous system ending up into your fingertips where the sympathetic centers are located.

So you start feeling on your hand the universal language which is spoken by the hand the different centers. And thus you know a rapport is established between the spirit and yourself. Because when you ask a question about any fundamental problem you either get a Cool Breeze flowing into your hand or you just stop it.

Sometimes you might get some blisters also if the person is suffering from some sort of a very great maladjustment.

You might get numbness if the person is on his way to death or could be very freezing cold.

So the hands start speaking as said by Mohammed Sahib; that your hands will speak when the time of resurrection.

And this is the time of resurrection because Kuṇḍalinī resides in the sacrum, which is the Aquarius. And this is the age of the Aquarius; this is the age of the Kuṇḍalinī.

Gentleman: So this is a double question. The west has received from India a lot of Gurus and each with seemingly a different path. And it's believed in the west that all the paths lead to God. Many, many people believe that it doesn't matter how you go that you are going to get there. Is that what India has to contribute to the west and the seekers of America?

Shri Mataji: India has to give the knowledge of the roots while the west has the knowledge of the tree. But those who are exported from here I wonder how many of them are really genuine or they know anything about the roots.

So I just can't say that those who are going there are the people who can deliver the knowledge which is not yet known to the west. What ever is unknown is not Divine. To understand logically the difference between India and the west is this that India has still retained the fundamentals as the goal of life. The fundamental is that one should get Self-realisation that one should try to lead a life of balance of Dharma. Because there's so much of knowledge of the roots in this country people can become very hypocritical. They can be very dishonest and can misuse that knowledge to exploit the Western people who are naive about this knowledge.

My idea of bringing some of the Sahaja Yogis from the west to India in the villages of India was to make them understand that comfort is not the goal of life. Because we have villagers who are realised Souls, who do not have any comforts which are so important to the Western people, but are very happy, satisfied and peaceful people and are extremely good yogis. But that does not mean that you give up your comforts and you become godly. It's all a mental behaviour if you think by negation is not the way.

But when you come to India you understand that this habit of seeking comfort must be given up. If you have any it's all right, but let not the comfort sit on your head. Let your spirit rule and not the idea that you should be comfortable or affluent. That idea should not rule you.

Gentleman: The other thing we wanted to ask You. One or two of the questions for the American press. A shorter [UNCLEAR] American press wanted to ask...

Shri Mataji: But I haven't said anything about the Gurus so far. As I have said it that many fake people have gone to America because they know you are all naive. And anything bombastic will impress you very much. Because American life is now become very money oriented and ego-oriented.

So they have developed all the methods of pampering your ego and getting money out of you.

So that you feel that you can purchase the Guru. I was the first to go to America and then all of them followed. And so many Americans suggested to Me that Mother why do you not get some money for yourself? And also ask for money for what you are doing for these people, because you are doing the real thing. Because Americans will not understand anything that is free and is precious. But I said that money can only buy whatever is lower than you. It cannot buy something that is higher than you. But they said you will never be successful in America you have to fix some money. I said I don't want this success. I want Sahaja Yogis.

I want Yoga to grow.

One day will come that they will realise that those Gurus whom they have purchased have exploited them. Have exploited completely and have used them for their own purpose and have run away. Let them realise because if I tell them they are not going to realise. One must know whatever is vital in life you can not purchase it. In all humility human beings also must realise that you have done nothing to become human beings, God has done everything. How much have you paid to him? But still they have to learn the lesson. And once you get into the clutches of these Gurus it is very difficult to get out till you get into big problems like heart attacks, or lunacy, epilepsy, all these things. But even if you get it you cannot connect that with this. You must understand that if you have a real Guru as your master then at least your health should be all right. Your wealth should be intact. While they are only interested in the purse Americans have lots of money. And I think they are more interested in Americans then in Indians because Indians don't have any money. It is as simple as that.

Gentleman: Can anybody gain their realisation here?

Shri Mataji: Yes most of you can, I mean I would not say I can give realisation to Hitler. See that anybody means even Hitler will stand before Me and say that `I'll shave my mustache now give me.' [Laughter.] That's too much for Me. You must seek truthfully, honestly. If you have all your own preconceived ideas about yourself, then God says `all right go ahead, try your luck.' But if you think that you haven't yet found out and that you have to seek, then if you are humble about it, it works out; it does. I think in the West all those who came to Me got realisation except for one, who is not married, who doesn't believe in marriage. Who doesn't think that women are any way good or something like that.

But he'll also get married and get his realisation.

Gentleman: Why is it dangerous Mother to experiment in the occult? Aren't we learning something when we do those experiments?

Shri Mataji: Because it is unknown to you, you don't know what you are up to. Now we can divide this occult business into two sides one is the right one is the left side, the movement of your attention to the right or to the left and is achieved by many blockades put into the Chakras. Because if there's a blockage then the attention cannot move upward it starts moving sideways. And they can block your Nābhī Chakra or Āgñyā Chakra, any one of them. And can take advantage of your position when you are not in the center but either on the right or the left. If you go to the left then you run into the area called subconscious and then into collective subconscious, where all that is dead from the creation is there. Now it is said that cancer is caused or triggered by proteins. They call it proteins they don't say dead souls as we say. 58 and 52 trigger cancer and these come from the area which is built within us in subcreations means collective subconscious. All kinds of these diseases, this mellitus, this leukemia all this comes from the left side.

Now the right side movement physical gives physical problems absolutely. Right side if you move then you get very elated. And you meet people who are in the supraconscious and then into the collective supraconscious, where all the ambitious people are dead and still hovering around. Doctors do not know about them much. But these people can work out these spiritual centers where they can cure people, do operations and all sorts of things through these dead spirits. And they can also work out things like Hitler did because Hitler used supraconscious forces from the lamas. He learned all these from the Tibetan lamas.

He used them and he enticed people with this idea of a superior race and he killed so many Jews.

So the supraconscious or the collective supraconscious has forces which are extremely dominating and they take you away from your heart and give you a very bloated idea about yourself and could be very violent and injurious to the whole society such a man. Such people suffer from heart attacks of the over activity, then they can suffer also from diseases like diabetes, liver all those diseases which look very simple like cirrhosis of liver. But the worst is that they are extremely harmful. They become very powerful gathering such ego-oriented people and try to put very aggressive ideologies. They are mostly heading, they are at the helm of affairs, mostly they manage to reach there. Their only ambition is to be the heads.

And when such heads are there they can take countries into disasters.

So anything is possible if they are into collective supraconscious state where these other forces act on them. These dead souls act on them and give them sinister ideas. And all kinds of dirty politics can come out of it. All political problems may come out of it which has no control over themselves and they get lost into that. And the people are harmed who cannot control it that force acting on them as what has happened in Germany.

So is a very good example. Then fanaticism also could be leading you to the same area.

So it's not only the occult that takes you to the supraconscious area but fanaticism or any sort of over martyrdom idea of nation is mine and I can dominate anyone. As Americans definitely believe in freedom they must know that they are rendered absolutely slaves by these souls which attack them either from the left or the right.

I must give one incident to explain this. That some people came from America to see Me three of them they told Me they were scientists. I don't know their names I don't remember. Long time back, about ten years back. And they asked Me that they have come to Me to learn how to fly in the air. I said who sent you here of all the places. They said you please tell us how to fly in the air. I said I don't want to tell you that, it's not proper because this is only done through souls which are dead, ambitious, who try to give you a feeling that they are taking out your souls and is a very dangerous thing. Tomorrow they'll take out some child's soul away you'll talk to the child and you'll feel what a communication we had with the child. And next day the parents will find the child is dead because the soul can't return back to the child. It's a very common phenomena these days people find that suddenly the child is dead while asleep.

It is because of these tricks people are trying on so many souls that they try to take out the souls and use them and then some soul cannot return back so the child is dead.

But they would not be convinced when I told them that you'll be enslaved by this because they said Russia is doing the same I said if Russia is doing something wrong why do you want to do it? You'll be enslaved you believe in freedom so why you want to do it? They said no because Russians are doing we must out beat them and all. I said this is a very short term policy. It's very short sighted. You must not think on those terms because it is very dangerous. It's dangerous for them, they'll get possessed, you'll get possessed we'll have set of two nations possessed. What is going to happen to this world? So why do you want to do it? But then I asked them you have to tell Me who sent you here. They told Me the name of one Patanjali, he is a journalist in Bombay [Mumbai]. He came to see Me because he was suffering from a disease like that. His body used to go out and his soul used fly out and his wife was so much worried. And she gave Me lots of proofs of what he was talking was true. Then I had to treat him for a month regularly every day to get rid of that problem. I said he could not have told you to come here. But if he has I don't understand if I can remove the disease can I put back that disease into you? But they would not be happy with Me. Because if I told them that I can teach you flying I'm sure they would have been very happy.

But it is rather difficult for Me to tell lies. Even if I want to please you, I don't want to tell you lies, because ultimately it turns out to be a horrible thing.

Now the worst thing that can happen to human beings who get into occult is they get epilepsy all mental diseases are from occult, from occult practices. People can commit suicide. People can become violent you can make a complete mob a very violent mob. Like you know an organization called Anand Marg tried to kill people and now we have many disciples from Anand Marg who are coming to us. And what you find in them they built in a kind of a system within themselves that violence is the way you worship God. In occult you can take people to such a retched state that you can teach the people that sex can take you to God. I mean imagine Christ who said thou shalt not have adulterous eyes. They people who start teaching you that sex will take to God you have to accept against Christ.

It is anti Christ it is anti God. How can people accept such a nonsensical thing, see, which is not religion? If they read any book any traditional book about God they will know this is not religion.

So occult can take you to these things. But the worst is that is dangerous for people in America. Is that they believe that we should get to traditions and if they do not see to the subtler side of the traditions they may fall, a very great chance is there that they may fall, prey to occult. Because apparently occult seems to be the tradition to them.

Or sometimes they depend on certain Gurus who were here about fifty years back or so talked about Upanishads, about Gītā this that. They talked, but we are not realised Souls. And they establish themselves even they went to America some of them and talked about these big big things with big big mouths. And people believed that they are traditional, is not true. Tradition of Indian life has been as I told you is to get Self-realisation, this Kuṇḍalinī awakening. That's what Ādi Shañkarāchārya has repeated in the sixth century and I am repeating it again.

So the tradition of this country has been through out that a person must get his second birth, which is the tradition of Christian religion, tradition of Islam and tradition of Buddhism tradition of Jainism of Tao of Zen. I can't think of any traditional real religion who has not talked of Self-realisation.

And even when they talk of Kuṇḍalinī they say such horrible things about Kuṇḍalinī that one can't believe it has anything to do with Divine things. If it is the Kuṇḍalinī which gives you Self-realisation how can Christ talk about a Kuṇḍalinī which was harmful which was troublesome? Because these people don't know the way or method and they have no right to the Kuṇḍalinī they are doing something else which is occult. Occult is the most dangerous thing because it is coming from the Satanic forces. When a person dies if he is a normal person he just dies and lives in the other world till he has to take another birth. But if a person dies and if he has Satanic forces within him one of sadism he sticks back at the supraconscious area and who is a masochist stays in this collective subconscious area.

So they are Satanic forces so going to occult is just enslaving yourself to Satanic forces.

There was a Guru who went to America who died there and was very much influential with very parapsychology and all that. Now if I tell parapsychology it is Satanic they are not going to believe.

Dealing with spirits is not allowed in Christianity at all. I mean that is correct. Not only in Christianity but in any religion it is not allowed. If you read Kabīr Das [UNCLEAR] has written pages after pages.

But this Guru has collected six crores worth of diamonds and the two disciples are fighting for that.

Another Guru has collected six thousand crores by telling you that he'll make you fly. I mean you must use your brains. Americans are supposed to have brains. But I don't know what happens when it comes to human machinery they don't understand and this is what it is that if you want to ruin yourself you take to occult. It sounds fantastic to begin with. It sounds very mad to go there. But is all advertising department of the helm.

Gentleman: Well ask them well ask to go along with the Australian tour so we have them in different settings.

Shri Mataji: Australians to ask Me? Gentleman: Yes or it's all right because the questionnaire will be on the film, just, just your answers.

Shri Mataji: As a mother I see that people are drowning themselves into trouble. All your problems of vandalism, hooliganism, of dopes and things that you take of violence of bad marriages all those social problems come because you have allowed the occult to grow there. And ultimately it comes to poverty.

So be careful.

Gentleman: For example we sing praise and it does open really our Viśhuddhi. What is the right way to have devotion and using our Viśhuddhi, so it's related to America.

Shri Mataji: You must know that it is the Virāta.

So once you become one with the Virāt. Then if you sing any praise to him it goes to him directly. Any praise is sufficient. But you should not be one-sided all the time singing praise also one gets tired you know.

So what you have to do is to also go meditate.

And sometimes when the heart is full you must sing. But specialisation is not the way we have in Sahaja Yoga. I would suggest that some people really sing horridly; so they should not sing. They must try to improve their Viśhuddhis try to have a better voice. I'll tell you Christine she said she had a very bad voice. After realisation her voice has become very sweet.

So please try to improve your Viśhuddhis so that whatever you sing is melodious at least to the ear. That's the best way.

But your all right, you are melodious. But it should not be sung with aggressiveness to God but with surrendering. See sometimes music is sung in such a way that you are just drowned inside and you don't know how many are on top of you. It should be sung in such a way that there is no aggression of the music but a kind of a soothing effect for everyone. And every style should be sung every style is good and try to find out also better styles if possible. It should not be pleasing to you but pleasing to Gods. The best judgment comes through vibrations. Now we have one American lady with us I would like you to give her her realisation. Is she there? Gentleman: No she's gone. She had to leave at twelve.

Shri Mataji: So she's gone away. She'll come back. She's worried about the women of India.

Gentleman: The Michael Angelo statue in Rome of Moses as the Ādi Guru.

Shri Mataji: You see it means that the open Sahasrāra. And that a Guru always uses these horns to hit his disciples to clear out their left and right side. That's why a mother Guru is a simple thing. You know she cannot get angry more than ten minutes. They have two horns and they go on pushing into your.

And should not pay so much attention to those things; everything will work out. You have to depend on your Mother. Now those who are going to England who are they? So you have to take one [UNCLEAR mine], one suitcase and one very light painting. Will you do it? Will it be too much? Not much heavy.

And Linda you take the carpets for Me. You'll take the carpets for Me. But if you can't take, if they have any objection then leave it, I'll take it. You must do one thing is to put My photograph on top of your luggage. That's all. All right? The big ones, borrow them from Australia. In any case we are not smuggling anything. Last time I came was very simple. Like I've got things brought out of My own money everything is there. But they said that I cannot send it with Linda. You see India has so many qualities.

One of them is tremendous intelligence. And we have pick pockets you see.

In India everything has an institution so pick pockets institution is there. And we have some very good ones in Lucknow who boast of their pick pocketing. And some in Bombay [Mumbai] who say they are the best pick pockets.

So one fellow came from Lucknow boasting that I am the greatest pick pocket and nobody can pick pocket me.

So he came to Bombay [Mumbai]. And he was wearing an ordinary what you call kurta with a coin he put it in his kurta in his pocket, which you can see very clearly gold coin.

So he went round and round and around and nobody pick pocketed it.

So he went near the one pan shop where this gossip is there. He said see these people in Bombay [Mumbai] they could not pick pocket my coin. It is openly visible left there they could not pick pocket.

So the pan walla told him please see that coin of yours it has been pocketed thirty two times and every time there's a new mark. Because it's a coin which is not real coin so they have returned it back.

So he felt very hurt he said all right now I'll out wit these Bombay [Mumbai] wallas. He said all right let some Bombay [Mumbai] walla come with me. I'll take him to Lucknow and see if he can pick pocket something. I'll try to pick pocket something and I will see. The other way round I'll carry something, Let him carry something with him and I will pick pocket him and let's see if he can find out.

So they said all right.

Respected Mother and Jaswant Singh Saheb, Today, spiritualism is in a big confusion. It means different things to different people. Anything that is beyond the comprehension of the ordinary man, anything that is strange to the common place of occurrence, passes off as spiritual. Even tricksters and jugglers are called spiritualists. There are no clear-cut definitions or criteria for determining what is spiritual and what is not spiritual, what is genuine and what is fake, what is superior.

The situation is assuming alarming proportions these days. As a reaction of the dehumanizing effects of the modern industrial civilization, a large mass of humanity is turning to spiritual pursuits for mental piece and happiness. A craze for spiritualism is razing all over the world.

In fact, there is nothing wrong if Indian spiritualism spreads its benevolent wings all over the country and beyond. The troubled humanity of today badly needs a spiritual regeneration all over the world where the values of life are fast vanishing and life itself is becoming unbearably insignificant. But the question is whether there is really something spiritual in whatever goes in the name of spiritualism today.

Some of them appear obviously unrighteous and even ludicrous and there is no dearth of cases where morality and human decency are outraged in the name of spiritualism.

The situation naturally leads one to a fundamental question what is really the spiritual phenomenon? What is its nature and goal? What variety of practices it can contain without becoming unspiritual? Parapsychological happenings, extra sensory perception, clairvoyance, cases of rebirth miracles and mystical events are all in the domain of spiritualism. And all these various ramifications are crowded by followers.

Some followers want the gratification of the desires.

Some try to escape the consequences of their misdeeds and sins.

Some wish to avert their evidence or astral calamities or curses.

Some are content with the favours their Gurus bestow on them while some others strive all their life to attain the Divine bliss.

Some pray and worship.

Some appease deities by offering precious gifts.

Some spend their wealth in charity.

Some see God in man, while some others run away from, society to see God.

Some rely on their incomplete faith for all their earthly and spiritual well being, while some others plough a lonely furrow in search of the Brahman. And they all call it their spiritual pursuit.

This is the spiritual scene today. It is all confusion and chaos. It is, therefore, a matter of great concern for all those who are real seekers and who have a genuine urge for spiritual development.

We as Sahaja Yogis evolved by Her Holiness Mātājī Nirmalā Devī have a responsibility in finding answers to these questions because we care for the truth and we insist on purity of means. We are perhaps better suited for this search than many others in the field, because by the grace of our respected Mother we have vibratory awareness, a touch stone.

What happens to those who come for the program? Her Holiness Mātājī's message is very simple. She says “Do you want the truth? Come and get it." They arrive at a program of Sahaja Yoga, sit quietly eventually listen to Mātājī's exposure of Kuṇḍalinī awakening and they stretch their hands towards her. After some time, the pupils start dilating. They may feel a bit sleepy. A gentle breeze like a cool wind comes in the hand. This breeze has been described in the sacred Christian scriptures as the breath of the Holy spirit, the power of God the Almighty. It is the Chaitanya Lahari of Ādi Shañkarāchārya But, they do not know it. They just sit peacefully in front of H.H. Mātājī absolutely relaxed extremely happy watching inside. A great silence has taken place inside. In this silence everybody knows that they are noble and they are free. It is like waking up after a long dream.

I know it because it happened to Me. It had happened to us. And as Her Holiness says, it will happen to many more. It is called Self-realisation because in this experience granted by the great Goddess the self [Ātmā] is experienced. Please come and get it. “How is it possible" they argue. They hide themselves, they escape without having the courage to come. But seeking is such a nice role identified with so many engrossing emotional and mental tunes. Get it. It would put an end to all confusions.

Our quest has not been in vain. It was beautiful. It is true that dawn brings light. But dawn never comes without the sun. Our seeking was dawn. But the great Goddess is the sun.

Let us stop our game and stand in the sunrise. Behold the smile of the Goddess, the birth of the new day. Let us recognize her, the goal, the Devī, the Mahādevī.

Contents: 1982-02-20 Shivaratri Pūjā, The Establishment of Lord Shiva, New Delhi, India

Today is the day when we celebrate Mahāshivaratri. Is a great day, or we should say great night. This Pūjā should have been in the night. Is a great night when Shiva was established on this earth. Because that way Shiva is eternal.

So one would say that why Shiva, like a birthday of Shiva you can say or something, how can it be, because He is eternal, He is all the time there.

So what demarcates today's celebration, is the establishment of Shiva on this earth. In the material self.

Every matter has been created with a deity and that deity is established in that matter as you know.

So when it was thought by Ādi Shakti that first you must establish Shiva, without Shiva you cannot establish anything. First He is to be established, because He is the absolute.

So you have to establish Shiva and now what should we do? How to establish Him? He is the God of Tamo Guṇa. He is the cold, he is the God of all that is not active.

So first of all this earth when it receded from the sun which was very hot was taken very near to the moon. The moon is the brother-in-law of Shiva.

So it was taken so close to moon that the whole earth got covered with ice. And it was then gradually moved towards the sun. When it was moved towards the sun, gradually then it started melting. And the point that did not melt at all was the point where Shiva was to be established. That was and is still that spot and that spot is the Kailāśh. The ice never melts there and if you see the whole mountain is like the face of Shiva, the eyes, the nose and everything you can see clearly getting out and all the year round it keeps its shape as it is.

That is how Shiva was created and He was placed in a witness state, as a spectator of all that happens on this earth.

Facing towards the Kuṇḍalinī of the universe, which they were going to place in India, so He is facing towards the south.

He is looking at the south with both the hands like this, like a spectator watching the spectacle of the Ādi Kuṇḍalinī. That is how Shiva was created.

So, so we'll say that the heart of the universe is England, still Shiva resides on top of the Sahasrāra: this is the seat.

Like you have got the seat of Shiva on top of your head, but He resides in your heart, in the same way Shiva belongs to this place and He looks at the whole body from that, this point, so the Feet are the south, this [top of the head] is the north, this is the east... the west [right arm] and this is the east [left arm].

That is how we can see the whole map of the universe, of the world that is created.

So now...

[Aside:] You can just sit. Don't stand up. Listen to My lecture. Now don't take photographs. You must listen to My lecture attentively. In a meditative way you must listen to Me. You must make full use of Me, isn't it? You should be meditative. Then you can hear Me very clearly, you don't have to bother.

You have to be meditative.

So you are facing towards the south as a witness. Just now somebody told Me that in the south people put their head towards the south and put their feet towards the north, I mean, imagine. The feet are put towards Shiva, who is in the north. Kailāśha is in the north, isn't it? It is not in the south.

So why put your feet towards the north? I mean, one must use logic. These brahmins have told you all these stories and you are doing just the opposite that should not be done.

Sometimes I feel ‘God save this country from Brahmins’. They're everywhere now: they're our rulers, they're everywhere and they have no idea what Brahma is. If they are real Brahmins, I'm sure one day the real Brahmins will be in charge of this country.

So now when we understand that Shiva is the first thing that is established in the matter, then in us also first the Shiva is established. When the foetus takes his form, the throb in the heart is the establishment of Shiva. That is the sign that Shiva has been established.

In case of people who are born with bad heart or with troubles, one has to say that Shiva is not fully established. Not that they are bad people, but they are not supposed to live for long and have to have another heart later on maybe.

Or that there might be some sort of a problem in their previous life and if they pay attention to Shiva Tattwa, their heart can be cured.

So the most important organ in the body is the heart. If the heart fails, you cannot remain in existence.

So the most important thing is to look after your Shiva principle which is the Ātmā. We are worried about every sort of mundane thing. Worried about this, worried about that, but we are not worried about our Spirit. Which is the biggest problems with us. If you worry about your Spirit, if you pay attention to your Spirit, the whole universe then vibrates with Parabrahma which is nothing but joy.

So without, without any attention to Spirit, if we think we can enjoy life you cannot.

You cannot enjoy your life if you pay attention to other nonsensical things and you do not pay attention to your Spirit, the complete silence comes into us only through Spirit. If the Spirit is awakened within us, this silence starts working and you feel extremely relaxed and absolutely one with yourself.

There is no problem, you don't seek other things that normally people seek, you seek your own company and you want to be some time with yourself. Only thing that you seek after finding your Spirit is the company of other Sahaja Yogis who also have found the Spirit, so that there is a rapport established between Spirits, that is in the heart.

And this Spirit is the universal being within us about which I have told you that once you become one with the Spirit, you automatically become universally conscious.

There are so many qualities of the Shiva, Shiva Tattwa, of the principle of Shiva that I need not tell you, but today I will tell you another dimension which I have not touched so far about Shiva Tattwa.

The physical aspect of Shiva Tattwa is that such a person is a more a cold type of a person. In the sense that such a person is not a person who gives hot vibrations, but who has too much of heat sometimes, not in balance, over-does it, develops a kind of a temperament which can be extremely cold. Could be low blood pressure with it, could be diarrhoea also, diarrhoea also one can get with too much of spiritual strength. And also could be on the love side because of the left side. Because left side is the Kapha as you call it, is Kapha is the phlegm that is more. Because the left side is more, such a person is always apt to catch colds and has problems of the colds.

So such a person has to protect oneself from getting into colds and things like that and the methods to be employed are to be learnt through Sahaja Yoga.

But to give it a balance the Spirit itself is beyond health problems. But the left-sided person who always thinks of the Spirit also can become one-sided, when he has to live on this earth he has to be a balanced person.

So he has to take to another side and that side is the activity of the spiritual growth within himself.

A person who is very spiritually developed cannot exist as a Shiva Tattwa on this earth. He has to exist as a balanced personality. And when he starts developing that balancing within himself, the Spirit from his heart starts rising and goes on top of his head.

So this is the second stage where one has to reach. Here is the whole collectivity [touches head], so when you start taking your love and affection into your central nervous system, you can say and put it on top of your head, that means as soon as you put it in your Virāt, when it starts spreading through your Virāta Shakti, through your collective being, then only you are a complete personality. Otherwise you are Shiva Tattwa, Shiva Tattwa exists whether this universe exists or not. It exists even when the whole universe is existing; even, even it vanishes it all goes into that magnet, into that Shiva Tattwa.

So a person who has spiritual hankerings must know that to raise your Shiva above the heart level, he has to raise it gradually onto a very detached method of existing on top of the Sahasrāra. Where there is a complete balance, complete balance.

Many people I have seen in Sahaja Yoga are extremely loving, nice, very sweet persons. Like in Delhi, I would say people are not so harsh as in Bombay [Mumbai]. Bombay [Mumbai] people could be harsh, Poona people are little harsher also. But Bombay [Mumbai] and Poona people are deeper. The reason is they have balanced themselves a little and they have gone above their heart feelings like sympathies.

“Don't be unkind to somebody, don't say anything harsh to somebody” can be very, very funny also sometimes, like yesterday I was sleeping in the place where you all were sleeping. Now if I was in any Bombay [Mumbai] or Poona center, anywhere, you can't hear any voice, anywhere, nothing, like a lion, you see, like a tiger is in a forest, nobody will hear your voice. If there's a tiger, you can know for miles together there's tiger somewhere, it's so silent.

But if I'm in Delhi, then everybody's talking: somebody was talking about money, this that, the whole kind of jabbering was [on], even the Sahaja Yogis from foreign had become Delhi Sahaja Yogis. They were talking so much I was surprised, how did they take to this talking so much there: always talking, jabber, jabber, On the contrary if I'm sleeping there you all should have been in meditation, sitting down and doing meditation. Instead of that everyone was busy with all the possible nonsensical talks, as if they have no other chance to talk. And they were all jabbering, jab jab jab, I didn't know what to say and I just I didn't know what to do. [UNCLEAR].

But this is what one has to know, that unless and until you raise your sympathetic attitudes, like you tell somebody something, “I have had such a problem in this business” say example like this. I mean, what a topic, but doesn't matter. If you start, “I had a problem with this” another will: “Yes I too had..." you see, the sympathies. “I too had such a problem, these people are so bad, that happened, he had the same problem” same talk. They are all, you see, talking about things which are irrelevant to Sahaja Yoga.

Even relevant to Sahaja Yoga you should not talk when I'm there. I have to make a humble request to all of you, that the way you people sometimes behave is not good and is not congenial to Sahaja Yogis.

Even to keep your mouth open in My front is not a good thing. But I don't want to tell you in such details but it is so many things are there that you have to learn before you raise your Shiva Tattwa from your heart.

You are good at pleasing people, at organizing you are excellent, you organize very well, there are no quarrels; Sahaja Yogis in Bombay [Mumbai] quarrel quite a lot and even Poona Sahaja Yogis are quarrelsome.

But I must say Poona Sahaja Yogis are very deep and Bombay [Mumbai] Sahaja Yogis are very deep individually, they have achieved something. Now they have to go further than that, is to go little bit in the heart again. You see, the second essence [UNCLEAR] they have to have to feel more that way, because that way they are very, very strict with people.

But you see, certain amount of strictness is to be accepted. For example, if somebody is told: “Don't touch Mother's feet", one feels very bad. But this is a very mundane sort of an understanding of the Mother.

If She says: “Don't touch My feet" that's what you are supposed to do, you have to do exactly what pleases Me and not what will please you.

So you must change your attention from pleasing all the public, some people say “Those who come first time Mother, we must not say this." You must! Certain things you must say to them, otherwise you will make Me a-prasanna: that will cause problems! But when you say to others, you need not go like Poona and Bombay [Mumbai] people in their special Marathi language, but say it in a proper Urdu style, that people don't feel bad, but you must say it! You should not put those people on My head; instead of that you should tell them in such a way that people are alright.

So to go deeper into you, you must do also individual meditation and samori. I would not say all the Sahaja Yogis in Delhi are like that, but... we are very good at organizing, which our Bombay [Mumbai] Sahaja Yogis and these Poona Sahaja Yogis must learn. They quarrel among themselves and I really get fed up. And they treat each other shabbily, that I don't like. But individually they are alright, so they become individualistic.

Some people become individualistic and some people become publicist, public...

they'll please the public, now they are two extremes.

What should a Sahaja Yogi do? They have to become Mother addicts. They should do what your Mother likes.

Do you understand? Need not please the public or need not please the individual, but do what your Mother will like, that's a very simple thing which Ādi Shañkarāchārya told you, that just keep the Mother pleased. But nobody makes that study. Try to make the study: “What makes Mother pleased." Then you will see, I'm very easily pleased, you see? As a Shiva Tattwa.

Even if you make mistakes try to pull your ears alright. [Laughter.] But don't go too far with it.

You see, the mistakes to commit is alright, but don't take it for granted that you can go on committing mistakes. Because you really get a big rope, but you will hang yourself ultimately, isn't it? So be afraid of the rope also which is given to you, it will hang you much better otherwise.

So one has to understand that you should not be addicted to public opinion or to the opinion of your own. Both things are wrong. You must behave in such a manner that it should please all the deities within Me, as far as I am concerned I don't exist. I have no existence, really believe Me, I have no existence at all, I just, is an assemblage of so many existences. Otherwise I don't exist, I don't find Myself anywhere in this body, anywhere I don't find Myself, anywhere in the universe! I'm nowhere, I sometimes find, “What is all this? Is not Mine, is all foreign to Me." But still I permeate into it, enjoy it, live with it, but I'm not in it, nowhere.

If you just try to understand what pleases your Mother, you will develop your dignity because I want you to be dignified; it will develop your joy because I want you to be joyous; it will give you more capacity to achieve more vibrations within yourself because that is what I'm giving, whatever is good for you if you do that, it will please Me. But what I think is good for you, you may not think, you may have your own ideas, individualistic again. Or maybe public-wise, like I've told you that please don't arrange My program before 7 o'clock in the evening. Then you may say, “It won't suit our public." Doesn't matter: it doesn't suit Me, that's the main point.

Because I have certain timings when only I can really be very good. That time I have to give to somebody else, is fixed! So you don't fix My timings according to yours. Morning time before 11 o'clock no programs should be fixed. Early in the morning if you fix, fix at five, I don't mind. I have certain timings which I have to use for some other purpose! So you have to understand that whatever suits Me should be done, because that is for your good also. Because there are most benefficial.

I'm just telling you My own tricks so that you take more advantage of Me. But they insist on that the people who are going to the office won't be able to come, that's people should not come at all! If there is a picture at 7 o'clock they'll go at that picture or not? Then why should you make your Mother so cheap that it should suit their convenience, if there are few people it is even better for us: we'll have better accommodation in the Kingdom of God.

So don't make Me cheap! That one should understand, not to cheapen Me, keeping the dignity of your Mother.

Whatever is to be achieved, I agree, that all the brothers and sisters must be helped, all the public must be helped, but we can't get rid of the kachras otherwise if you see: there are lots of things which are to be just thrown away.

So we don't, should not worry about the kachra part. Whatever is the best we'll have, but to have that also one should not speak harshly. Again I will say not to use harsh words. The way people: “Get out, get out, get out" like that one should not talk. Change your language. You must educate yourself how to talk to people in a soft way, in a proper way.

That is very important for Sahaja Yoga, because if you go on insulting, maybe you might insult some saint! So you should not do in that way. Understand it and try to make your individual being so capable that, when you go to the public, you are able to put the right concept, the right concept, the right conduct, the right behaviour and the right knowledge. Here I do not mean right rationally, right which is absolute.

The Shiva is the absolute, He is the giver of absolute knowledge, He knows what pleases Me. The moment something will happen that will really displease Me, He will shut the show. He is just watching this to please Me. The moment he'll find that this is not working out, He'll stop the whole show and will say: “Shut it, finished." So though I may say the spectator is Shiva, but He is just the judge and He sees those things.

So try to be all right, a nice spectacle I try to make, to please Shiva so He continues to be there and this let [UNCLEAR let this] universe be a nice place to stay in, in which you rise and attain that eternal life which is promised to you.

But one has to understand what pleases Mother.

Some people have a habit of just looking at Me straight all the time: not the way to be done! Put your eyes down, all the time just you cannot stare at Me, it's stupid! Apart from stupidity it will not please Me, will it please you if I start staring at you all the time? I don't stare at you, I try to please you by doing all kinds of things: why don't you learn something from Me, how I try to please you? You can't do all these things of course, I know, because somebody says: “Mother, we went there, the horse was given to us, this, that” this help you cannot achieve yourself. For Me, if I have a difficulty, you can't solve My difficulty. Isn't it? But I can solve your difficulties.

So I can please you very easily because I have so many methods of pleasing you.

For whatever methods are there, by which one should not positively displease, that's the only thing is.

You don't do anything special, but don't do something extraordinary just to displease. If you understand this simple thing, that don't try to do anything that will displease to please Me. It is so simple. Don't have to do anything extra, just try to be loving, affectionate, dignified and I'll be very happy with all that. As it is I'm overjoyed, I'm very happy with you. But I have to tell you what one has to achieve and how one has to go above these things.

So it is necessary now for Delhi people to rise from the heart to the Sahasrāra. And it is necessary for Bombay [Mumbai] and Poona people to go from heart... to go from the Sahasrāra to the heart. I would say Rahuri people are in between. Rahuri people are in between.

They are very good organizers and they don't create problems for Me as far as individuals are concerned.

So I think Rahuri is a place, perhaps maybe it is My Mecca, that it is so good whatever it is. But we all can be like that. We all can change and inform each other and improve and educate ourselves.

All this education can come to us, if we really love ourselves and care for our evolution. We don't have to bother about it much, if we really care for. Gradually all these things will work out and the balance can be established. Those people who talk too much should not talk so much. What I feel that when you talk too much when you'll stop you just stop. In between: when it is necessary you must talk, when it is not necessary you should not talk.

So that kind of personality gradually you can develop with Sahaja Yoga, that you will develop that wisdom how far to go, how far not to go. Not to go is the quality of Shiva. He doesn't do anything, He is just sitting down there and watching the whole joke. He doesn't do anything, but He's the one who has to watch: if He doesn't watch, then the whole show is over. If you understand that in not doing anything, how much He's doing. See the contrast: He's doing nothing as such. But He's making everybody dance, to please Him. In the same way in one shot you have both the natures, as Sahaja Yogis you can achieve that kind of a balanced personality. It is for your good, for your evolution, for your development.

So today all of you have a great chance of evolving individually within yourself with Shiva Tattwa, which ultimately permeates into the whole. Kabīra has said it in a beautiful couplet, I don't know if you people have understood: [Hindi.] The compassion of my heart I will vibrate, I will bring it out; the compassion of my heart I will vibrate, I'll bring it out; [Hindi.] and put it into the five elements.

See Kabīra, do you follow him how great he is? People talk of Kabīrdas, see, he says that take it out of the heart and put it into all the five elements. This is what is Sahaja Yoga. If you understand that, then you don't have to understand anything else. You have got it in your heart, become the capitalist in your heart and become a communist outside. If you can achieve this balance properly, you have done it and we can do it, we all of us put together we will do it, we can achieve it and we can show to the world that everyone can achieve it.

All ordinary human beings so-called will can become extraordinary.

So today we have to decide about ourselves that we are going to do it, we are going to be educated about it, in a spiritual way, in a Sahaja way. And every moment if you watch yourself you can know. And not to explain yourself and to say “Oh, this happened to me, that happened to me": that's not the point.

Many people tell Me like that, that's absurd. You challenge yourself: how can it happen to you? Why don't you do it? You should do it. Why can't you do it? Like that you take yourself to task and you can work it out, I'm sure, because you've got the power to do it.

I bless you all for your spiritual development and for your collectivity. Both things must be looked after.

If you have spiritual development and no collectivity, it is useless. If you have collectivity and spiritual development none, it is useless. Combine it properly.

So we have to take Shiva and establish Him into the Virāt. This is what we have to do and if you understand this point, your relationships with others also will be good, permanent, of a very substantial nature. And the quality of Sahaja Yogis' life will be something very, very great.

May God bless you all.

[Honorable Rāja Jaswant Singh, Supreme Court Judge, felicitates Shri Mataji.] Question: How did You develop Kuṇḍalinī awakening?

Shri Mataji: This is a Divine heritage and I am only an instrument for mitigating the suffering of humanity through the same.

Question: What are vibrations?

Shri Mataji: Vibrations are a part of our heart. Ātmā is the flickering light that is burning all the time and is the reflection of Param'ātmā in our hearts. When the Kuṇḍalinī rises she opens the Brahmarandhra and there is the seat of Sadāśhiva, the Pīṭha. The Pīṭha is at Sahasrāra. The Pīṭha is created because it receives the subtle energy that is all pervading. The responsive one will catch all the mysterious hidden tunes, but for a common man, provided he has a receptive attitude, these vibrations can be communicated at any time and anywhere.

(it continues as 1982-01-30) [MISSING.] After that she sat down at least. And then she said to Me, “Mother, I must say this Chaya, what must have she done in her last life to be married to a man like that?" After that she never took his side. Always she used to come and tell Me that, “Chaya told Me that he's such a funny man." She wants as soon as he comes in the room I should enter into the room. She says, “I feel shy." I mean, [Hindi]. If they have no understanding then we [UNCLEAR can't/cannot] do anything. Do you feel shy? You shouldn't do that.

You really feel shy. I mean, there's something like shyness. She said, “I find it impossible, you know, with this man. I feel very shy and I feel very embarrassed." She wanted to, [UNCLEAR see with/show] us some nice film, she wanted to see.

So this fellow said, “No, you should only see it with me." She said, “But you are not coming. If you come [UNCLEAR then we'll go together/I will not go out]." He couldn't bear her going with other friends. Can you imagine? Such a jealous spot. [Hindi.] I mean, we are not complicated. In the same way, get rid of your complications. Like who will now get married. I mean, they must have arguing. That's important. And they come out fighting, both of them. No one can sleep there. In that Brompton Square, can you imagine, that such a supposed to be spot place. Once I was there in the evening time. Who was with Me that day? None of you. He came out of that place, from Brompton Square. About twelve o'clock in the night we were going back. And one girl and one boy came out. Not girl and boy, quite old I would say, well the girl was about and the boy was twenty-five, the girl was twenty-two or something. He was pulling her by her hair and she was beating him. I said, “What's this going on?" He said, “We are married." I said, “Really?" If they are married then they are supposed to fight. When they are not married they are supposed to love. It's a funny junction.

Find the absurdity? So you get out of this thing. This kind of madness, it's not good.

Sahaja Yogi: It's funny.

[GAP]

Shri Mataji: You see, Chaya told Me, he's such a henpecked husband. This is we call as [UNCLEAR Hindi/henpecked], who runs after the wife all the time. Looks funny, you know. Must have [UNCLEAR also/a] your self-respect.

Sahaja Yogi: [Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: So one must develop a real style. It's an education. It's an education. The women must sit together. Men must sit together. It's an education. We, too, have [UNCLEAR some men/problem] like that.

Some are like that. Actually, it's very funny. Everybody laughs at them. Very embarrassing.

The husband running after the wife or the wife running after the husband, it's very embarrassing. I mean, you are in any case married. What is there to run after? So much ado of the wife is very embarrassing.

Or of the husband also is very embarrassing. Live like normal people. Now you have gone in a tour. It's not a honeymoon trip. Not at all a honeymoon trip. It's a trip for education, education how to live with the group, how to live with each other, the other Sahaja Yogis. [UNCLEAR Understand].

So this is it.

Now for marriage, not for fun [UNCLEAR any way/anymore]. Do not take any frantic steps. Marriage should be done in a very normal way. There should be no frantic here. Take it easy. Nothing has to be done extraordinary. If you like somebody, you can have the marriage. If you don't get married this year, doesn't mean you won't get married next year.

So don't misunderstand. And Sahaja Yoga is a training and you'll be [better]. When you have come here, you have not come here just to go round like tourist[s] or to save your money [in India] by coming down here. You have come here to educate yourself, in the aspects which are not [to be for your comfort].

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [You] have to sit down. Men on this side, women on that side. Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: Make four groups. Four groups.

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: We'll make four groups.

Shri Mataji: That's it. Two groups of women.

Sahaja Yogi: [Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] Ladies first. Two English for the group.

Sahaja Yogi: Ha, ladies first.

Shri Mataji: In India that...

Sahaja Yogi: In India, always ladies first.

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] Never.

Sahaja Yogi: Never.

Shri Mataji: Never eat. No woman will eat before her husband has eaten. Never.

Sahaja Yogi: So ladies are requested to make two groups.

Shri Mataji: Never. On the contrary, men are fed first of all there. They like to pamper their husbands and husbands rest and I've told many, many times, this is the fact. Women do never eat even if you force them.

Sahaja Yogi: Woman will not take food till her husband took food, firstly. She will take after.

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] Then he must still get. Unless and until that all the menfolk have not eaten, the women won't eat.

Sahaja Yogi: First husband, then wife.

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] Then for children. When they have all eaten the food then the women will sit down and eat their food.

Sahaja Yogi: She will sit alone. [Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] Sometimes she's alone.

So she eats alone.

Sahaja Yogi: So now, you will make two groups of ladies.

Shri Mataji: But if there are many [women also this is their place, many outputs]. But here once I told only in, [as I] remember, we told someone there, that German girl. She came like Hitler [UNCLEAR on us/or not]?

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, we thought that, yes. Yes.

Shri Mataji: You remember?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, I do.

Shri Mataji: I told her that, “You better feed these men. They have to go out. Then you eat later on." And she became like, just like Hitler. Can you believe it? She was so angry with Me for this. I just didn't know that I have said something very wrong. We all do it all the time in India. And sometimes I feel, what's the matter? We never feel we are oppressed or anybody is dominating us, nothing of the kind.

How are they dominating? I mean, we are sensible people and we can look after them. They have to look after them. They are in charge of them. Yes, that's what we think. Why do we think like that?

Sahaja Yogi: Because they haven't got the ego, while Europeans have got the ego. They've got to [UNCLEAR show/shout] that they are not only in charge of them.

Another Sahaja Yogi: Both, both of them, both of them.

Shri Mataji: No, no, but the women, you see, will fight with the husbands. “Why don't you eat well? You must eat well. Have this food." If he goes away without food then she won't eat the whole day. “You must have your food." She will prepare his bath. She'll do everything. She'll look after him. Like a child she treats the husband.

Sahaja Yogi: This is degrading for a, for a Western woman. In this country it is not.

Shri Mataji: Oh, it is very upgrading. For us it is upgrading. Why should it be degrading?

Sahaja Yogi: Well, because they still have a conditioning.

Shri Mataji: Aā?

Sahaja Yogi: They still have ego.

Shri Mataji: Ego, ego. I mean, do you see, I don't know...

Sahaja Yogi: He wants to give his bath.

Shri Mataji: Aā?

Sahaja Yogi: He wants to give his bath.

Shri Mataji: Have patience, mummy, she gives you bath.

Sahaja Yogi: He likes this.

Shri Mataji: Very few.

Sahaja Yogi: Once in a week.

Shri Mataji: Ah? Sahaja Yogis: Once in a week.

Shri Mataji: Just see that, concession's coming forward.

Sahaja Yogis: Concession.

Shri Mataji: Now, I must say I've spoilt My husband completely.

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: My daughter says so. “You have really ruined him." Even he says so. “I'm so ruined." When I'm not there he's shouting at the servants, shouting at everyone and they say, “If You are not there, we are not going to stay near of him." He says, “Nothing is all right. This is wrong, that is wrong." He'll throw his shirt this side, throw that. Then, I mean [UNCLEAR we/I] really [UNCLEAR spoil them/spoiled him]. And they also stay it forward, walk off. They don't [UNCLEAR go here and there/hear anything]. They'll look forward, but not this way, you see. It's very different. I think the training it's different. Your parents would have been like this. Grandparents would have been like this.

So you are like this. But our parents have been like the other way round.

So we have learned from them, we should say. But it doesn't go to our heads, some of these things. I mean, if My husband says, “You come and eat food with me” supposing and there are five six guests are sitting and I'll say, “Who will make the rotis now, you are asking?" They say, “No, no, it's all right. You just make them and bring them along." But I'll say, “No, it will become [UNCLEAR burned/cold]." “It's all right. Doesn't matter.

What is there? We'll all eat together." They will force on Me that we should eat together and I'll go on saying all the time, “No, no, no, let Me prepare." [Hindi.]

Sahaja Yogi: There, Mother?

Shri Mataji: Ha.

Sahaja Yogi: Ladies, please stand up. Go there and sit there [if you look].

Shri Mataji: This is My experience. In America I have decided that Western ladies should stay first.

I don't want to say [UNCLEAR it so bumptious/so on workshops]. I'm not saying it.

Sahaja Yogi: Makes them more conceited.

Shri Mataji: What?...

Contents: 1982-02-22 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Lord Shiva, New Delhi, India

The creation of Kailāśha took place. We Indians worship Kailāśh as the residence of Shiva, Sadāśhiva, God Almighty who is eternal.

First, the Parabrahma, the Nirākāra, the One that is without forms was in a sleeping state. When it awakened, it is called as Sadāśhiva. At that stage his power became the Ādi Shakti the Primordial Mother, we can call her the Holy Ghost. This Primordial Mother created Her creation to please the Sadāśhiva which was no more but a witness to this spectacle. He was the spectator. I will not go into the details of creation today but one has to remember that all that is created is a deliberation and is not an accident.

Later on Ādi Shakti created three powers out of herself which you know. The power of desire, the power of action and the power of evolution or Dharma. These three powers were created out of the pure desire that She had, to be one with Her Lord, God Almighty Sadāśhiva. This desire resides within us as Kuṇḍalinī, the fourth power within us as the Kuṇḍalinī, which is sleeping in the triangular bone. As Gopal has told recently that people don't know how to raise the Kuṇḍalinī and don't know how to guide it. Actually, Kuṇḍalinī can only be risen by a person who is an authority, spiritual authority, or could be through the Ādi Kuṇḍalinī itself.

I told you yesterday how, in the ancient times also, this knowledge of Kuṇḍalinī was known to us. This knowledge was known to us that India, because India is the country where we are supposed to look after the roots of The Creation. We have to look after the roots while others have the tree, the flowers and the fruits. In India the roots grew up unknown to common masses. These roots reached that stage where Kuṇḍalinī became a knowledge of very, very few people, actually extremely few I should say. And this knowledge was not revealed for many days till I would say Ādi Shañkarāchārya himself started talking about it. Though Mārkandeya has described Kuṇḍalinī, the different powers of the Mother, but it was Ādi Shañkarāchārya who came to this Earth and he's the one who talked of Kuṇḍalinī openly. The reason was, before this it was kept secret and part of it was revealed and people used to doubt. Or if it was to be revealed, whom to reveal it [to], because there were very few people who were capable of knowing about it.

In the Bible it is written that there will be a Tree of Life and this Tree of Life is nothing but the whole Suṣhumnā Nāḍī and its branches. [It's] also written that “I will appear before you like tongues of flames." What are these things, tongues of flames are? If you see your Sahasrāra, I don't know how many of you have seen your Sahasrāra, it looks like [a] thousand tongues of flames. We call them petals. It's more beautiful to call them petals, but they are flames. When they are awakened they look like flames, very silent flames burning. And when this Sahasrāra you see, when you see the beauty of the Sahasrāra you are amazed that to a gross mind this brain is nothing but fat cells put together. But when you get your realisation then you find that the same thing that looks like just a group of fat cells and these nerves as elongated fat cells you can call them, when they are enlightened you see the light around them and they are like enlightened wicks of a candle, very long burning flames, beautiful in different colours, very silent, very beautiful. This is all, is a cock and bull story for a normal person and it's difficult for a person to talk about it.

As I told you yesterday you have to have [a] microscope to see something under your skin. It's much more than that. You need to see what's inside you because this is the area which is under the ground and not above the ground. But it's so essential to have the roots to the tree. In the same way the spiritual life is the most important thing for the existence of this Universe, existence of all the human beings. If the spiritual life is not there it cannot exist.

Now this knowledge could have been challenged by the West, by the people who are intellectuals, those who see with their gross eyes and believe into what is there. Because this is being honest about it I should say. But still we have to reach certain conclusions that when these people talked of the Spirit, that the Spirit exists in your heart, that there is a Spirit, that you have to be born again to be that; all these things that even when Christ has talked so much about it then one has to think that they could not been lying to us they are not befooling us. They didn't want anything what did we give them like something like crucifixion, torture. Then why did all of them talk of this spiritual life, about eternal life, about the Spirit, about the rebirth of a human being? Every scientist must honestly look into it and reach a conclusion that at least there has to be something about it. Of course scientifically you cannot reach there, mentally you cannot reach there. For example, if I have come in the car I have to leave My car there and come inside. It has its own limitation. In the same way your intelligence and science has its own limitation. It has to happen in a way that its spontaneous living happening takes place. We cannot, with scientific research, sprout a seed. We cannot transform a flower into a fruit. Actually, we cannot do anything living whatsoever. The other day there was an argument, a lady stood up she was a scientist and she felt very hurt. She said “Oh, we are creating two babies." I said “But the living thing that you get for the two babies is coming from somewhere else you cannot create life." So one has to understand that this process of life we have not understood through science nor through mental activity and so we are not going to understand Kuṇḍalinī through our mental activity. But once you get your realisation everything becomes logical. Example could be like this, a man is blind, he cannot see the colour of this wall, he cannot see the colour of these curtains, he does not know the dimension of this room. Supposing you tell him something about this it's a myth for him, it's a myth. But by some chance if you can open his eyes then the whole myth becomes logical and he starts understanding it through his logic which was blind before and now is open to this new experience.

A complete science of Divine laws are placed within you. Tomorrow your children may challenge your science, of course they will challenge all the religions also. But science can be challenged: for example, many laws of science which were regarded as laws have been now challenged and re-challenged. But the laws of God once you find them are not challengeable. For example, once you get your realisation, once you become the Spirit you become the absolute. There is no relative relationship left everything else is relative to the Spirit. The Spirit is the Absolute Point where you reach. The rest of it is all relative and that Spirit emits the power called as Brahma Shakti or connects you to the power called Brahma Shakti the Divine Power of God's love. Unless and until you are connected with the Spirit, you cannot feel that Divine Power that is not explained by this brain but is seen, working, activating, doing all these living processes in the world. That we start feeling within us. It's a question of feeling it just like hot and cold, a Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost in the hand which is the real bodha, is the real feeling in the central nervous system of a human being.

So the new dimension develops within us when the Spirit is enlightened.

Now, today is a day when that Spirit was first reflected on a material thing on this Earth. Now to us we take everything for granted. For example, Earth was created out of the Sun. Alright. Then how is it, it is so? Sometimes it is iced, in places there is ice [or] there is something. What is it [that] happened? Actually, it was taken away from the Sun. Now this Mother Earth which you see today was created out of the Sun after the big bang, all that story I will tell you sometimes later, but then was taken away from the Sun and was frozen. It was taken away, very near to the Moon where it was completely frozen. Then it was slowly brought nearer to the Sun and it was found that there was a spot specially selected by this Brahma Shakti to create the Kailāśha and that spot was chosen much before all these things were done to the Mother Earth and at that spot the ice stayed forever in the shape of a face. This is the face of the God Almighty.

Now, one may say that you should not believe in the Pūjā of the statues, in the worship of the statues: is absolutely correct. I am also absolutely against the worship of the statue. But statue is different from something that is called as swayambhū, which is born by itself. In the Bible it was said, when Moses, who brought the Ten Commandments, that “Thou shall not worship anything that is recreated out of the things that are created by the sky or the Mother Earth." This is a very important point. What are the things that are created by the Mother Earth and by the sky? Instead of going into this, people just said that, “Better not worship statues." “It cannot be reproduced and worshipped" said by, of course all those who follow that, like even Islam follows the same Torah, is followed by the Jews and followed also by the Christians. All these five books of the Old Testament, the Ten Commandments are common for all these three.

But that doesn't mean that you should not worship that [which] is created by the Mother Earth. But nobody went into that. You see, human beings always try to find loopholes. Then Mohammad Sahib himself said these things that he followed this and Mohammad Sahib himself was born [again] as our great Guru, Guru Nanaka. Guru Nanak was not a human being, He was not only a Paigambar [Prophet] but he was the reincarnation of Ādi Guru, the Primordial Master, He was a Divine personality. Of course, the people who were there at His time were so useless and gross people that they actually tortured His life and nobody followed Him. After His death is a different point. He also has said that it is the Primordial Mother who has created the Universe. At that time in this country people were following a ritualistic, nonsensical Hindu religion which was very much departed from the real ancient religion of Upanishadas.

Because the so-called, paid, priests had taken over and they were taking people to temples created by them, not by the Mother Earth and making money out of it. Now these temples were just used as money making propositions. At such a juncture when he was born he had to put all his attention to this and talk about it and say that, “Better not worship any statue." But there were living points of vibrations from the Mother Earth which we call as jāgrut. The other day I went to a place called Musalwadi were it is said that, they didn't know but I told them, that a Goddess killed a great demon called Rahu with Her musal; `musal' is a `beam' and that's why it is called as Musalwadi. There I found the vibrations were tremendous and I asked them, “Is there any temple here of some jāgrut?" They said, “No Mother, there is no temple like that." I said, “Must be." They said, “Ha, there is one place” very funny, that when the British were here they wanted to make a... we call it `bund'. B, u, n, d, bund.

Sahaja Yogi: A dam.

Shri Mataji: A dam, a kind of a dam, but the dam is made with a bund.

So this was to be placed in a straight line across a lake but they just could not do it at a point about say fifty feet or so, hundred feet or so and every time they tried to build something it would just disappear and they did not know what was happening, [it would just] disappear into the Mother Earth. And they found it impossible to build it there.

So one Sādhu, some realised Soul or a fakir came that way and he said, “See this is the place which is a swayambhū place. Is a place created by itself, you'd better not do anything here. Even if you have to build something you better go round it." And he drew the line and really that dam is built with that bund which is not in a straight line but has also a circular thing gone inside. I mean, it's never done [normally].

So I went to see that place and it was so vibrating! Such cool vibrations were coming out of it. I was really amazed that it is so much neglected. I said, “You build a temple here. But don't put somebody to make money but you can make a temple just to respect that the Mother Earth has created this great thing and the vibrations are like Sahasrāra, is something so special." Now, to know about this, only a saint understands. Whether he's Muslim, Sikh or Hindu or Christian does not matter, saints are saints, means those who are twice born. It's not a saint who is certified by any organization. You cannot organize God and you cannot certify a saint. “Oh, you are Ph.D. in saintliness!" [Laughter.] Oh we have, we have you know such certificates these days, everybody is giving certificates.

“You are saint such and such, you are saint." They call themselves saints. In Hindi language it's called as `sant'.

So many call them sant, this sant, that. And there is the Kuṇḍalinī which is completely frozen down there! So it happens that people you see take to artificial things and start worshipping something that is not real.

So these vibrations are emitted out of the stone! You will be amazed.

Now, those who are realised Souls here, who could ever have a chance to see the photograph of Kailāśh, you will see the vibrations are coming. If you get a close photograph of that, My son-in-law has been there recently, you see a complete face which is retained like that [during] all the twelve months, throughout the year. All these years, it has maintained that shape, the eyes, the nose, the face and the mouth. And there is Brahma and also Viṣhṇu on one side. That face is also maintained, it's an area of twelve miles if you go round. All those twelve miles area is covered with snow and the shape of that face is maintained throughout. How can it be possible? Unless and until there is some Divine thing.

Now, many people say that in Amernath, “What is there, a water drops out like that and you get a kind of a Shiva Linga." But if you see the vibrations of that Shiva Linga, you will be amazed. It's very powerful, very powerful! Now that's also a trick of the Divine to pour so much of water down; you cannot make it. If human beings want to make it they make a mess out of it. I mean, people will sell even plastic things I have seen, they're selling plastic `Amernaths' and worshipping it! [Laughter.] Most, or 99% [of] people do that only because they are not saints. Even 1% [of] people are not saints, it is 0.0000001% persons might be, today, saints. I don't know what it is the idea, it was in long time [ago] when there were in one crore there was one [saint], they said. But in those days even the population of the whole world would not be one crore [1 crore = 10,000,000]. It was like that.

So, you can imagine that very few people, negligible people used to know that there is a place which is created by nature, which is emitting vibrations. And because he said it people started worshipping it but they made a mess out of it. I mean, you make mess out of living people also. Why of these things? I mean, see now anybody what they are doing. If you see to what we have done to Christ, what we have done to Mohammad Sahib, what we have done to Guru Nanak, what we have done to Mahāvīra or to Buddha, we should be really ashamed and should be at least aware that if we can make a mess of human beings who lived, who talked, who said: out of them we create nonsensical fanaticisms, then what about these things which are just emitting vibrations. That's why it was prohibited that you don't worship anything, let it be.

They talked of the Spirit, “Become the Spirit” because that's the first step better achieve the first step. That's why Buddha also said that better not talk of God or anything, just don't talk of anything else but just become the Spirit. I also for three years I was just talking about Parabrahma. But I found you can't just take people to Parabrahma unless and until they know all about other things. They are so much attacked by the negative forces, by the ignorance that they are to be told. For example, if I have a helicopter I can put all My children in the helicopter and take them in the kingdom of God. But you have to walk and when you have to walk I have to tell you about the serpents you'll meet, about the stones, about the curves, the false and the faltering.

As a Mother it is possible. What He said that, “Mother has to do it" because today while reading about the Goddess there was a beautiful description that She is not only knowledge, She's not only knowledge but She also knows everything about ignorance. This is something so great. A Mother knows what is knowledge and She knows what My children are suffering from. This is the beauty. And that's why the Mother can only solve this problem.

All the Gurus came, you just tortured them. They were knowledge and they didn't know what sort of upside down people, in Hindi they call `ulti khopdi', people you are. And they struggled with you, they tried to say something sensible but they couldn't reach anywhere and when they went away you made a real mess out of them. This is the children I have! And I knew that kind of children I have to meet and face. But I love them and I know they are seekers. They are to be brought round with patience, with love, with understanding and then they are to be given realisation. Without realisation, talking about God becomes a futile effort, it is of no use. It's like talking to a blind man about something that he cannot see or perceive.

Today is the great day I said of Mahāshivaratri. It's really a very great day because today is this great Kailāśha was established. Because one may ask a question, “If Shiva is the eternal thing He never changes, He never reincarnates, then why, how could you say that a particular day is so important?" Because He was reflected on this Earth as Shiva on the Kailāśha. His residence is Kailāśh. That is why He is a dakshinamurti, He is looking at the dakshin, means looking at the south. He's looking at the south because He is the man who is The Spectator of all the things that are happening. India is the most ancient land that came up and it has the Kuṇḍalinī in its triangular position where we have Eastern, Western ghats [mountains] and the Vidhya

So to watch the work of Kuṇḍalinī He's facing towards the south. And I was surprised to hear that people think that if you put your head onto the south and place your feet towards the north is a very good thing. It's the most inauspicious thing! I mean, I'm amazed something comes sometimes the way we are told to do things. Imagine you are putting your feet towards Shiva! I mean, these Brahmins also sometimes have made such mistakes that you just have to suffer for it. Imagine you put your feet towards somebody who is Shiva? But this is, I was amazed. In the same way I find people are fasting on the day the Gods are born.

Like on the day Rāma is born there is a fast, Kṛiṣhṇa is born there is a fast any God is born on that day, I hope Sikhs do not fast on the day Guru Nanak is born. [Laughter.] Yes it is possible! But the day somebody is born in our family, some child is born and that to such a Divine personality are we to fast? This we do on the day of sutak when somebody dies.

So we do such absurd things in our ritualistic life also, that we really become inauspicious and then we think our Kuṇḍalinī is not rising! There was a gentleman who had a problem of prostate gland and he came to Me and he is a Sahaja Yogi too. But still Sahaja Yogis when they become Sahaja Yogis still something sticks onto them, they don't know, we have come to an universal awareness now.

So being a brahmin he was worshipping Gaṇeśha very well, I was happy he was a great Gaṇeśha worshipper but what happened that he got this prostate gland and the prostate gland is controlled by Śhrī Gaṇeśh. I was amazed how could he get prostate gland. And when he came to see Me that was the day, I did not know it was sankashti, is the birthday of Śhrī Gaṇeśh.

I offered him My prasada, that is chana what we eat, this chickpeas, that's what I eat so I gave him. He looked at Me and the other fellow said, “Mother today is his fast” I said, “For what?" He said, “Today is sankashti." I said, “On sankashti day you fast, even after realisation?" He said, “Yes, I do." I said, “Then you must have prostate." That's evident because after realisation also if you do not accept the Truth that, that is the day He was born and you are not to fast on that day. I said, “You better take this chana." So he took it, he ate it and you'll be amazed when he went back, the doctor said there is no prostate. Yes, it is so. It is miraculous but it is so.

We make such terrible mistakes in our life, these small, small mistakes which we do not know what mistakes we are making and how we get it. For example, we'll say Catholics now, Catholics in England have a funny system of confession. I don't know from where did they get this idea into their heads! This I can't understand! Why should you confess to another human being anything? And what is the need of confession? I mean he is appointed by some theological college and he says that, “This is the mistake you've committed” and then you believe into that mistake that you have committed and you say that, “Alright, I will confess to you that this is the mistake I have committed." Now, these people have no right to listen to your confessions nor does it has any understanding as what they can do about your confessions. All such people I have seen suffer from left Viśhuddhi. Left Viśhuddhi problem is terrible. With left Viśhuddhi problem you catch cold, you have sinuses, you have spondylitis, you have guilty feelings. All kinds of problems come up with that and you can be possessed also.

So most of the Catholics I have seen are so funny in their old age, you can see them in old age. I have nothing to say against anyone, but I have seen a fact that in old age they become really lunatics. Because, if they have to go to the church, they'll get up in the morning, dress up, go to the church, come back home. But the rest of the time they are so mad that they reach a stage where they can't even recognize their own children! They become so eccentric and so fanatically funny that sometimes when you talk to them you find that, as if you are facing some lunatics. They drink so much, they are such extremists, they drink and drink and drink.

And we had a church next to us and I was amazed that in the daytime there was only one activity on, was in the church. In the church, believe Me, there was only one activity, all kinds of drums and bottles were coming and empty bottles were going. You can imagine in the church? Such absurd things people do in the name of God. Because Christ, they say did not say anything against wine, because He increased the wine in a wedding. You see in those days there was nothing like this horrible wine. Wine means what we call dRākshasa is the grape juice. That is the country of grapes and people use to just have grapes.

So now they think Christ has said, “Alright you can drink. And by drinking only you will go to God." It is such an absurd situation that unless and until you get your realisation how will you be able to know what you are doing is right or wrong. Because you have got hold of some idea. Now, this is Sikhism according to you, for example. This is Hinduism, this is Christianity this is that, this is that. But how far we are related to Truth? How far what we understand about them is the Truth? How will you know? For example I was told, I've never read Gītā, that in the Bible it is written that you are born as a brahmin. It is an impossible situation. How can you be born as a brahmin? You have to become a brahmin, isn't it? Brahmin is the one who knows the Brahma. The one who is born again, who is a dvija, is a brahmin. But it is, they said, is written in the Gītā that it is prenatal quality that you are born as a brahmin. Is an impossibility. It can be proved logically. Because Vyāsa who has written Gītā, was a son of a fisher woman, illegitimately begotten from Parashar muni. Now he is not going to write this. Try to understand! Anybody might say that, “I am a born brahmin." Is not true you have to become a brahmin.

There is a ritual at the age of eight years they do or seven years which they call, you are being twice born. But that ritual has no sense. This ritual has to be done by a Guru who is a realised Soul who gives you realisation. Actually, it's an actualisation and then one has to say that you are a brahmin. It's not an artificial thing. Once you make it artificial Hinduism looks like a foolish stupid thing. Same about Christianity which looks so stupid. Every religion looks so stupid in the eyes of people who are logical that they think, “Better forget it, have communism." To them Communism is the only solution.

In Algeria there's a big movement for the fundamentalist. And the fundamentalist, just like Khomeini [Iranian cleric] style things they are trying to work it out. Where the young people there who are architects and doctors and engineers they just thought that this religion seems to be a funny thing so better not go in for this. Better become communist, is a sensible [idea], where this complication of religion is not there.

This they could see that, this fanaticism is just taking us to madness, fighting, quarreling, “This is my land, this is my house, this is this, this." In [true] religion these things are not there! So they decided that, “We'll become communist." And when they decided that, “We'll become communist” at that junction only one of them came to London and somehow or other we got him into Sahaja Yoga. When he got his realisation he was amazed. He said this fanaticism is wrong and that communism is wrong.

Now all the fanatics who believe in fanaticism should look at Mr. Khomeini, who thinks no end of himself, he thinks he's God himself and the work he's doing is all nonsensical. There is nothing of love, compassion and wisdom in this man. In every person who is a fanatic this is what it is. When this boy got his realisation he went and told them that, “No, there is Truth, there is God. I know for definite there is God." And he gave realisation to five hundred young people in that country Algeria. And now we have people who come to England to get their realisation. We have found lots of them residing, even in Paris and that is how all these people are going to take to Sahaja Yoga.

But fanaticism is at its worst in this country of ours. Everybody's religion is in danger in this religious country, everybody's religion. There's no question of Hindu, Muslim only, everybody's religion is going to dogs! Religion can never go to dogs. It is shaswat [Universal Truth], it is sanatan [eternal]. [It] has come out of people who are sent by God who are Avatāras [Incarnations], who are not ordinary mundane people to be destroyed by your nonsense. Whatever you may try you cannot destroy them. Whatever you try to spoil their images they cannot be destroyed and spoiled. But if your religion is so weak let it be destroyed then! We ourselves, you see, prove that our religion is weak because we have not known the person who brought this religion on this Earth. We have done no justice to them because we have not found our Spirit.

If we find our Spirit then we have done full justice to them, because we become a different person, we ourself become a saint. We become people of authority like Kabīra: how he sings, how he talks! Today only I recited him a beautiful couplet that, “Mana mamat ko thirakara lau." He says there, “Of compassion of my heart I make it vibrate" “tharakara lau." “Pañcha hi tatttwa chadhaunga ka." “In all the five elements I'll put it." Just look at the authority with which he talked! And while these Sanskrit `panditas' are calling him `sadhukadi', this that, all sorts of things. They cannot understand. For them he is just a man of the ordinary street you see. And Guru Nanaka himself was so intelligent, He compiled all the works of the realised Souls in his book.

But I was amazed you see where Kabīra lived and worked in that Bihar [a very lawless region in India] where he has used the word Surati for Kuṇḍalinī, is used for tobacco! [Laughter.] Yes! Surati means Kuṇḍalinī the purity, the virginity within you. He writes that surati, description of the Kuṇḍalinī as we've seen in Sahaja Yoga and they call surati as tobacco. But this is really what we have done out of that.

Believe me! We are so absurd that it is better that all of you who are My children find the Spirit, find the Truth and then relate your religion to that Truth and don't get entangled with all the funny ideas and all the limited ideas and all the dead ideas which are clinking on to the Truth and like the sun is overshadowed by these clouds. You better get your eyes to see the [real] Sun and if you are really that and if you are a real Hindu and a real Christian and a real Sikh, get your Spirit and bring out all your people who are lost in the ignorance.

Today is a great day again I say of the Spirit being manifested on this Mother Earth and we have to, today, vow that we will also manifest our Spirit on this Earth. You have to get that Spirit awakened and once it is awakened, “Pañcha hi Tattwa chandhaunga", like that is the power of Spirit. The power of Spirit that you have, of course, you cure people, is a third rate work I should say, curing people is absolutely nothing so great. You cure people just like that, no problem. If the person is a good person, he's very good, he has no other problem, he gets cured very fast. But there are problems which are very deep, they are possessions which come from very wrong things, all these things are not so difficult but takes your patience. They make you feel sometimes that how to talk to them about it, even to talk to them they feel hurt, you know? If you tell them they don't like it. But it is true we have to tell them. If such people are cured who are saints, are going to be saints, it's such a great thing for a Mother to see.

But you would not like to cure a person who is good for nothing and that's why such people are to be realised and given good health. Then they are given a complete freedom to understand Sahaj Yoga.

Because once you have the vibrations you stand on your freedom on your security. You know where you stand you are not afraid like Jay Gopal [Sahaja Yogi] has said that, “Once you get this then you start developing and start seeing and you know what's happening." You know for definite that this is wrong, that is right. In the beginning you may make little mistakes of realisation but gradually you know, “No not that, we know that very well, no not me." The people just run away. Then they say, “What sort of saints are these?" I said, “They are the ones who have seen it that there is a big crocodile sitting and they just don't want to deal with the crocodile." They said “Alright, all right you are very good thank you very much." They just stopped at that. And then they say, “Why don't you want to argue with us?" Then they'll say, “You see you are too intelligent for us so please excuse us!" So all this discretion develops and people do not argue, they do not say anything. They say, “Alright go ahead with it!" So all discretion how to deal with people how to understand them, how to understand the situation everything develops because you've become the Knowledge, there's the light, you can see everything. That is very true that this Spirit is Sat-chit-ānanda, it is Sat-chit-ānanda. Satya is the Truth: you know the truth, it is the truth giver, is the light that gives you the Truth. You know Truth about everything. Whatever is untruth you do not get any vibrations. For example, somebody would say object, “Why Mother you speak so much for Mohammad Sahib?" Oh, there was one gentleman who came to argue against.

So I told him, “Alright you feel the vibrations, ask, `Was he not the Ādi Guru?' " And immediately he got the vibrations. I said, “Now, now you talk." You can't understand these people at this level, you will understand them at that level. You will understand all of them so well and you will be amazed that they are all related to each other. Absolutely one with each other. We are the people who are not in that relationship as yet but they are all related to each other and they are absolutely in concord and in love with each other.

With all this knowledge you know the Satya and your Chitta, your attention, which I was telling you yesterday, becomes so enlightened, it's so enlightened that you know the Satya, you can feel it: where is the vibrations, what's happening, who's catching, what is happening, what Chakra. Anybody who comes and tells you, “My Kuṇḍalinī is awakened” alright you tell him, “Where is my Kuṇḍalinī?" They will not be able to tell you. “Alright tell me, what's the matter with me?" They won't be able to tell you. If your Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, minimum of minimum you should know what is the problem with the other person. Even a little child can say that this person has this problem. Immediately they will know, they are very busy! Especially born realised children are very busy.

I can give you a conversation of My own granddaughters. The one was only three years that time, another was about seven years. And the younger one went to some school for they gave her a letter which she brought home, she said, “I don't know how to read, why they gave us?" Now imagine in the school they are sending these letters from these three year old children because the parents would read it. It was written that in such a hotel if you come on such and such date and pay a hundred rupees you can get your transformation! “Ekdum tum badal jaogi!" [Really you will be changed!] I told her.

So the little one says that, “If you pay hundred rupees how can you get your transformation? Your Kuṇḍalinī has to be awakened, isn't it!" The little one, three year old! And it was written then you have to do the course of eight days.

So the elder one said, “Oh, that's a tall story, see my father has done five courses, his Kuṇḍalinī is not awakened at all. [Laughter.] How can you awaken the Kuṇḍalinī?" This is what the realised Souls are, you see, the way they behave. Like My another grandson who was giving realisation to all the London Sahaja Yogis. He was trying to correct it and put it right and when he was giving realisation he was just sitting on their back, when they were on My feet and was sliding down like a slide and was bringing the Kuṇḍalinī downward.

So I told him, “Why don't you do in your village these thing?" So he's from Bihar so he said, “Alright, I can do it but what about these feet will You take them there?" [Laughter.] “Without these feet how can I do it?" And then he went and washed his hands and went away to school and said, “I'm not going to look at you people, now keep yourself clean." Like an old man he tells them.

“Keep yourself clean now!" This is what it is. If you have that Satya within you as a child also you know Sat-chit-ānanda and such a person is always prasannaChitta, is a happy person.

[Talk continues with questions and answers in Hindi for 20 minutes then someone asks a question in English.] Question: Shri Mataji, what is your view about astrology, Indian astrology?

Shri Mataji: I hope you are not a newspaper man Astrology is all correct, it is so. Whatever comes to astrology is absolutely correct, has been seen through great seers and whatever they say is true, no doubt.

But after realisation you go beyond it. You're beyond it. Then there is no astrology attached to it. Till you are not realised you are in that chakkar [illusion]. Like if you are in the water you are afraid of getting drowned but if you get into the boat then you see it.

So... It is like that.

[Question-answer session continues in Hindi for two more minutes.]

Contents: 1982-02-23*, Public Program, Sahaja Yoga, Free Hall, New Delhi, India

Shri Mataji: A hall has been dedicated for the work of Sahaja Yoga. It was a long-awaited blessing for the Delhi Sahaja Yogis. May God bless you all for that.

Sahaja Yogi: Require Hindi main bhi bolo.

Shri Mataji: Badme bolenge, achcha. zarur. It's a gift of God, I should say, that you got this without paying anything for it, while all the people have been running up and down, when even the Government had allotted us a land because they have approved of our utility. Still through this, what you call, `red tape' and all that, it was a big problem and because I am little a queer person because I would not allow anybody to give any bribe or any such thing or to do anything irregular, things would not work out. And if such a thing can happen, I mean, after all this is God's work. And God has to look after His work also and He has to arrange for things.

But this reminds Me of one thing: in London same thing happened. And they were all running up and down for an ashram and they couldn't find any place. It was impossible even to rent a place. Wherever they tried it failed somehow or other and nobody would accept so many people living in one house. They thought that it is useless. They paid some money. They did all kinds of things. They did it in advance.

Because they were so many people living together, it became impossible and they rushed up and down, did all sorts of things. And then one day suddenly they were invited to a lady's place who was a Sahaja Yogini. And there was another lady who had come and she said, “I will give you a house if you want and any number of people can live in that." And that's how we got our first ashram. Of course, then later on we shifted from there because some people from this Maheśh yogi came and they started jumping and screaming and making all kinds of noises.

So we got the bad name.

So we had to go away from there.

Now we have luckily, you won't believe to what extent it has been blissful for London Sahaja Yogis.

That first we got a house in LambertWay, in the ruins of LambertWay which William Blake had described, but then we got two big hotels with fifteen bedrooms and everything inside it, absolutely free. Can you imagine? Through a co-op that these people had formed. They said this never happens in the history of England that anybody could get such a big place from these co-ops which are giving for maintenance. But somehow we got it. And now the time was over for these hotels to be vacated and I have received a letter from London. Now they have got a huge big house with twenty-three bedrooms or something like that, with two, three big halls, free.

So this is what it is. I am doing all this work free and all the help is coming free to us.

So when people ask Me, “How do You manage with the finances?" I used to say, “Finances are organized somehow or other. We don't have to bother about finances too much." I'm thankful to Yogi Mahajan for arranging all this and for doing such a remarkable feat. I think now Bombay [Mumbai] people will also have some sort of a blessing because this is the year when we should really get some lands as a blessing from God. Also it is necessary that the Sahaja Yogis have to come up to a certain point of a development. Otherwise, if you give them the land, say for example, as God's blessing, then they will start, you see, having it as their possession, using it as their own purposes. I mean, all kinds of things they do with the trust and fighting for the land and which you do not take with you and they may start creating problems, you see. Once [UNCLEAR we/you] have the property, human beings go off their heads, you see. It's something goes wrong. They'll fight with their brother, father. They'll kill all the relations because the property who creates a problem.

So also the Sahaja Yogis have to come up to a certain point, rise up to certain level where they can really bear up the beauties of the blessings of God.

Even if He gives you the blessings you should be able to use it properly. Otherwise you can start using.

I have seen people, as we call them in Hindi language, [mufatkhor]. They are very easily available. They are coming to Delhi; very good. In Delhi to stay somewhere in a hotel is expensive, very nice, “Mātājī's ashram, let's go and have a nice time there” like that. It is quite possible. Sahaja Yogis may start doing that way. But you'll be amazed that in Sahaja Yoga people develop such self-respect that now we have people, say, from Bombay [Mumbai] or from Pune who have come here. All of them are paying for their food and everything. Nobody is trying to [UNCLEAR shortage] and they want to pay for everything. If the self-respect does not develop in Sahaja Yoga it's useless. It's useless to be a Sahaja Yogi.

In Bombay [Mumbai] I've seen, or in other small places like Sholapur and all that, all of them, they would pay for any function that they want to have, everything. Whatever little money they have to pay, say one rupee, two rupees, three rupees, whatever it is, it's needed, whatever they need for their purposes, without any asking, without any asking. That is one of the signs of Sahaja Yoga. You'll be surprised that we don't have to go round and ask people, “You should pay” “I'll pay tomorrow." This is the sign of a deep Sahaja Yogi. He's very responsible as to what he has to pay for this God's work. Of course, I don't need any money and, on the contrary, My husband pays Me quite a lot for My travelling and so many other things. I don't need any money Myself, but for their own purposes, whatever money they need, you see, they must understand that if you don't pay, somebody else has to pay. And it's the charges are absolutely, there's no profit, nothing.

So the charges are just that is needed and so everybody pays. Even if you say, “Achcha, let it be. Doesn't matter” they'll say, “No. You have, we have to pay, because it's Puṇyakarma." You see, this kind of self-respect when it comes into human beings, then one should know it's a real transformation coming.

Money matters also, I've seen. You see, I'm very bad at it, because I really don't understand money.

I'm hopelessly bad. I don't know how to even sign My check.

So I have to ask somebody else to write and I just sign. Anybody can really deceive Me if they want to, because I'm very bad. I trust people to the last. But you'll be amazed that Sahaja Yogis never waste a single pie. I've never seen one Sahaja Yogi paying more or less or making money out of Sahaja Yoga. I never take accounts from My Sahaja Yogis, trustees or all that. On the contrary, I just ask one of the auditors to see themselves. And they said, “We have never seen such a clear-cut trust anywhere." We have no black money, nothing of the kind. He said, “There's no problem at all because it's so clear-cut that the bank itself is being auditing for you.

So what is there?" So you see, these people are doing so sweetly and so beautifully. It's nice to see it. You see, once such people come up in this country, a so-called bhrastachār will go away. See, once you have your self-respect and you are a satisfied person, you will not indulge into all these nonsensical things, but you will become so self-satisfied and then the blessings come. As soon as you start taking to honesty and good behaviour, the blessings of God comes to you.

In our country we don't have to worry so much of morality part because that much we have. But as far as the money is concerned, we really go crazy. We just can't understand that in money matters we have to be clean, that we have to be honest. This is the money of our country and we should not try to make money out of something which is cheap, which is without self-respect. And this thing if I tell you, you can't do, but once you get to Sahaja Yoga you'll just do it. You'll be amazed that in all My ten years time I have seen people have been so scrupulously honest, so scrupulously honest that I was amazed. Not even once I've seen that people have tried to steal money or do anything like that. Except that we go to some temple, for example, you see where every sort of Dick, Tom, Harry is there, you see, in the temple, open place. Then naturally they will even take away the shoes of the Sahaja Yogis who have come from abroad.

All sorts of nonsense they do. And these people who have come here, when they see the Sahaja Yogis here they are so enamoured and they think that Indians are so high, such high people, they are so good, they are so moral, they are extremely honest and this and that. All the certificates they give. But once they get mixed up with the public they are stunned. The shoes they'll take away. [Jo bhi mil jaye utha ke le jāte hai.] They don't know what is the real public here is, but they think that we are extremely honest, straightforward, just like other Sahaja Yogis are.

Specially in the villages, you'll be amazed how Sahaja Yoga has transformed people. They have given up drinking. Thousands and thousands of people have given up drinking, smoking and tobacco. All that they have given up and now they are Sahaja Yogis. They said, “This is a new method. This is a new road on which we are." All that is forgotten now. That is finished and the way they are, you'll be amazed that from Pandharpur we had some Brahmins came for Sahaja Yoga. They got their realisation and they told us, “Mother, now we have decided to raise these Brahmins to their real position of a Brahmin. Now we realise we are not Brahmins. We are just trying to claim that we are Brahmins. We are not at all Brahmins. And we are going to raise these people to this level. What we have seen in Pandharpur is nothing but looting and all sorts of corruption.

So we pray to You that You do something about it, that in that Pandharpur temple something good should happen." They told Me like this. Within eight days the government took over.

But the desire was so sharp and so intense and so genuine that it works. If your desire is half way, is not with clean heart, then it doesn't work out. But if somebody is with that desire asks, you see, it works out so fast. I was amazed that within eight days the thing was taken away. While the people were minting money out of that temple. Every temple is like that now. Every temple has become like that.

It's all a money-making proposition. Everything is a money-making proposition and I do not think any organization is beyond corruption now. We can't blame one and say another is good. Everywhere there is corruption going on. Now, in the name of God, at least don't do corruption. You can do corruption otherwise, what you want to do, but in the name of God if you do corruption means you are not at all afraid of God. You are not at all afraid. You have become Satanic. You have become demonic. That you are doing it in the name of God Almighty, how can you do it? And on top of that they give big speeches on morality, “We should not do this. We should do not” and at the back they are taking all these things.

There's a gentleman who is giving big lectures about these things and say that you should become absolutely vegetarian, this, that and just get detached from your [UNCLEAR mundane/money]. “Give all that to me. Give your purse to me. I'll look after it. Don't worry." It's a very funny situation. But once you come to Sahaja Yoga you realise that your self-respect is the most important. In this country of ours a Chinese traveler has written that people never used to lock their houses. My father never used to lock his house. He said, “It's beyond self-respect to lock your house. Why should you lock your house?" And once only we had a theft and a fellow came in and he took away a gramophone. He said, “He must be fond of music. Let him have it." He didn't take anything else from our house. He took our... He said, “Very good. He must be fond of music and let him have it." He was very happy that, you see, he said, “He should have come and asked for it." He was very happy that he took away the gramophone because My father thought Indian music was something very great.

So for him it was a sort of an obligation that he took away the gramophone from the house.

So you see, in our Indian thinking, Indian culture as it is, you see, we are not the people who depend on locks and things. We depend on God. We depend on our Spirit. That's what we are. We don't depend on all these things, counting, banking, insurance, this, that. I mean, in England if you go, your coat is insured, your sweater is insured, your everything is insured. And I, I don't understand. I mean, in this country, at least, I can understand, but here nobody insures anything. Nobody insures. Everything is insured: there your brain is insured; your teeth is insured. It's such a place where you realise that in our country we are not bothered about these things. But gradually it may come up if you blindly follow all that.

You see, they have become so insecure about themselves, because of war, maybe. I don't know why they are so insecure, so insecure. You'll be surprised, the people who came here to rule us are now like absolutely frightened people. [Bhigi billi ban ke baithe hai.] They cannot face life. They are so insecure, you can't imagine. Even a rat will not enter into their houses. They will open a little bit of chink and see who is there and just close it. They are so frightened of the world. I don't know what has happened to them that they are so frightened.

Now, of course, we are also picking up from them and lots of safety problems are here. But was, I know about is, about even ten years back it was not so bad. Or we can say, twenty years back it never existed in this Delhi of yours; it was no problem. But we are now so much money-minded that we think everybody's a chor [thief].

So what? You said, “Everybody's a chor.

So what does it matter even if we go and do some theft?" But one has to understand that God Almighty is there to look after us. The Indians commit one sin, that is, the sin against the Father. Sin against the Father is the sin in which we do not believe that God Almighty is going to look after us, our well-being. He is going to give us the kshema, that He is God Almighty. He's above then all the wealths and all the comforts and all the well-beings of the world and He is the bestower of all that. We don't believe in that. If we believe in that, we will not indulge into all these practices and we'll be very much satisfied and we'll be amazed by thousands and thousands of [times] He will give you. This is how it has started now. Only about three, four days back I was telling you about the land, that people think I am rather a cynical person to expect to get the land without paying any bribe or black money. But see, we have got it and we got it free. This is how one should understand that one day people will realise the value of truthfulness, the value of honesty and the value of Sahaja Yoga and then we'll have no problem.

Today we are going to deal with our centers that exist within ourselves. [Hindi.] Chakras that we have within ourselves are the ones which are doing the subtle Divine work within ourselves. Now, as far as the medicine is concerned, it is such an analytical method that for psychology we have another doctor, for medicine we have another doctor, for say, surgery we have another doctor, for one eye we have one doctor, for another eye we have one doctor.

Now this I am talking about the synthesis of all these things, the source from where all this knowledge comes through. That is the subtle part. When it comes out it gets separated, divided and we can do it through analyzes. But when it is inside go in the one. Then it is synthesis. It's the synthesis of all the knowledge, synthesis of all the sources, synthesis of all the energies that are flowing. Imagine of an energy that is all magnetism, all electricity, all the Pañchamaha bhootas. It's the energy that coordinates, cooperates, activates and loves. The energy that loves it knows how far to go, how delicately to work out, how far to bring round the people, the movement and everything it knows. Can you think of such an energy that is complete Divine Love? Now we are dealing with that energy. I'm not dealing with one energy or second energy or third energy. That's why if somebody says, “Mother, can we see the vibrations?", “You may. You may see." I can't say you cannot, at a level. But I was surprised that your photographs are catching the vibrations.

The other day we had a Pūjā and they had put some gheru on My Feet and there was a photograph in which you could see very clearly the light passing through My Feet. I told them the two Chakras are very active and from these two Chakras tremendous light was flowing. That photograph is with Me. I was giving a lecture in one of the remote villages where there was a realised Soul. He was a Muslim but he was a realised Soul. And suddenly six times a light came, shaft of light came from the heavens. And it was photographed. All the six times it was photographed. When I put My hands like this it stopped. It's true. I mean, your photographs are more honest and simple than human beings. You can't see because there is something dishonest in your eyes. Can you imagine? The photographs, now the [UNCLEAR biGñyāna/viGñyāna] the way the science has improved it is taking it.

Now My vibrations pass through this, through My sound into this. When I talk to you it's working.

When I stop talking also I can put My vibrations by putting My hands on you. Supposing you are catching on any Chakra, I can rub it here and I can correct you. Can you imagine? I am using this power to pass this synthetic power onto you. Now there is nothing you can feel it, but yesterday when I was very much full of vibrations when I was talking to you and then I stopped and I just went near it and the sound started giving `huuuuuu' like that. It was nothing. I just moved nearer it. When I went back it stopped.

So even in science you can see this time [happening]. But if you say, “Just now you show me” that will never happen, because this energy also knows who is humble. “Why should I show you? Am I your servant? Why should I show you? How much have you paid for it?" The way people demand it as if they have paid for it. You see, the way they have right on Me as if they have paid for My travelling or they have paid for My food, I don't understand. If you have any demand on Me it is because you love Me and I love you.

There's no other relationship between us. Please remember this.

So when you demand anything that you show us this and I will never show you. On the contrary, you'll see something else. You see why these Sahaja Yogis laugh, because they have had experiences. All of them have had nice experiences and that's why they are laughing because they know what I am talking is absolute truth. If you try to be very smart with Me, then I can be even smarter.

So, one has to understand that this is an energy of love, of God's Love. And God you cannot get by forcing it onto you, by arguing about it, by only that it should become gracious. What we say in Hindi language is prasanna bhava, “Be happy. Be pleased with us." If you get shouting, if you start misbehaving, if you don't know how to sit, even then do you think the deities are going to be pleased? For an Indian it is an innate knowledge to know how to please the deities. It is an innate knowledge. But they are using it now for other things. For example, they know how to please a minister, how to please somebody else. They are not using it for the Gods. Gods can be pleased with very least dedication. They know everything about you. It's very simple to please them.

Now today I am going to tell you about the different centers and the deities that adorn them, if the time permits, because I am told that today is the last day of our program. And then I have to also tell you about the after realisation what is to be done, which I'll tell you in Hindi language as desired by many people here. The first Chakra is the Chakra of Mūlādhāra. I told you about it. I've also talked to you about the Chakra of Nābhī which is the Chakra of our Dharma by which we sustain as human beings, of our evolution, by which we become human beings. The third Chakra I've described is of Swādhiṣhṭhān which is in a jeopardy in Delhi, which is all the time converting the fat for the use of the brain, where people think too much and the problems created by that.

Now, with all these, these three Chakras, now we go to the fourth Chakra, which is a very important Chakra because that is the one that gives you the sense of security, that is the center of the heart, the center of the Mother of the Universe, of the Jagadambā. Now if you see around the Nābhī Chakra, surrounded are the ten great Gurus who came on this earth at different times to establish our balance, our Dharma, our sustenance. And these ten Gurus, if they are disturbed too much, then we can have a very serious problem. First of all, if you fanatically believe in them, they themselves get angry with you. I've known people, say for example, Muslims, they are very fanatic. They always have stomach troubles. The reason is Mohamed Sāhab himself is angry with them. Anybody who is a fanatic person, always gets into trouble because of these Gurus getting angry. Fanaticism is against God. It is an anti-God activity. Any kind of fanaticism is an anti-God activity.

This is one side. The another side could be that some people deny that there is any good Guru. Like I will say there is some gentleman, one gentleman who is teaching people that, “You are your own Guru.

Don't believe in anybody else." This means that you deny that there is anybody who is a good Guru, whom you should follow. Actually, the fact is this that you have to have somebody to enlighten, like one enlightened light can only enlighten another light. The light which is not enlightened cannot by itself get enlightened. You need an enlightened light to enlighten it, isn't it? It is logical. But the light which is going to enlighten has to be enlightened itself. Now the light which is past, gone, cannot enlighten you.

That's finished. That is there, that is there to help you, but it cannot enlighten you, cannot give you realisation. You have to have some living light which is just now burning before you, to enlighten you.

So when they came you said, “No, no, no, no, no, not this, not this, not this." “We believe." Say like when Rāma came they said, “We believe in Parashurama." When Kṛiṣhṇa came, they said, “We believe in Rāma." When Buddha came they said, “We believe in Kṛiṣhṇa." Very good. Not to believe in the person who has come now, but to believe in something that was there. Why? Because it helps you a lot. Actually it does not. But you can use that Guru as you like. About Kṛiṣhṇa you can say what you like. About Rāma what, you say what you like. About Nanaka you say what you like. About everybody you can say what you like. That He said so, He said so, they all feel they have become themselves the Gurus. Because you can use them also very well.

But they cannot give you realisation; that's a fact. When I die, if somebody comes after Me even you will say that, “We are the believers of Mātājī only and we don't believe you." It's wrong. The one who comes, who is living, that is the time He is going to give you realisation. But all of them, when they came you all only tortured them. [UNCLEAR Give them all/Leave alone] realisation, [UNCLEAR give them all/ leave alone] anything. You saw to it that they just got disgusted with you. I've seen some Gurus, who are really very good Gurus, who are very evolved people, who are living in the Himālayas and some mountains. I've met them. They have told Me, “Mother, don't tell us to come down. We don't want to have these wretched people. They will never understand You and they will all torture You. But You are so powerful, You don't mind. You go ahead, but we do not want to have anything to do with it." Somebody has broken hands.

Somebody has broken legs. These people have broken our legs, broken our hands. But to false Guru they'll give money, this, that, send their wives, children, all their purses, but to a real Guru they will finish him off. There's one whom I send to America. I said, “Why don't you go and see? Go to America." He came back within eight days. He said, “These Americans, they are not human beings. [UNCLEAR Where/Why] did you send me there? They'll kill me. I'm going to be killed very soon." I said, “Why?" He said, “You cannot, you see, if you tell somebody he gets cured you can be prosecuted in that country." I said, “If Christ goes there He'll be prosecuted, too." He said that they, they don't understand if you tell them, “You have to lead a good life." But same thing about everyone.

So these people are hiding themselves.

Another one told Me, “I'll come after twelve years. I'll see if you still exist." They, they, they have no faith in [UNCLEAR them/you]. They had no faith in [UNCLEAR them/you]. And they are really angry; absolutely all of them are angry. Another one sits with big stones, you see. Anybody goes there, he needs to throw stones. He doesn't want to meet anyone, have nothing to do with them. He said, “These are blind people and they'll just hit you and kill you. They are like serpents who cannot see anything.

They'll go on biting." This what they feel about you, to be very frank.

Only those who are in the market are there. And you like them because they are in the market. You think that you have purchased the Guru. Now, you go to the Guru; you say, “All right. This Guru is good?", “Oh, he is very good." Because they put up show-off. There's no brotherhood, nothing, but they will stand up like that, talk like that. You are so much impressed and you don't mind paying any money. Actually, it happens that people go on like a racecourse. “How much have you been given?", “I will give you so much." There are religions and religions where people think that [Hindi]. They announce, they put it in the paper you see, for the [kapoora] to be applied on the forehead of some god. “How much did you pay?" “Last year I paid three thousands." “Oh, this year, the price was more. I paid five thousands." They talk like that. You see, such stupid people. Such stupid people.

They'll say, “We did the seva for three thousands rupees." Another will say that, “I did for eight thousands rupees." And they tell you that, you see, last year, you see, if they have to give their bona fides you can find out. “I gave eight thousands for such and such Pūjā." This is what it is. And then when the Gurus, this is one side of the Gurus is that you start believing into wrong type of Gurus, because of your temperament, I should say.

Somebody gives you a diamond ring. What is there to believe in a diamond ring? Can't you buy a diamond ring yourself? If you can't buy it, forget it. God is not going to give you diamond rings. What is this diamond for God? It's not even the dust of His Feet. And somebody gives you something, nonsensical thing, you believe in that. Or somebody makes you take out your clothes and jump like mad. You think, “Aha, what a Guru. He's taken out our clothes." Such stupid people live in this world that sometimes, you know, I really justify these people when they say, “Mother, you go ahead with these mad people." All such funny things, you see. If you tell them to stand on their heads they will do it. I mean, there is no end to stupidity, no end to stupidity.

There's another lady who is collecting blankets. She gives it to some Sādhujis in some place, I don't know. People are sending her blankets. She is just like an agent. She's an agent; that's what she is.

She's just collecting blankets. I mean, why should I collect blankets from you to send somebody? Send it directly. Why should I do it? Why should God be brought in? Then another people are like missionaries, you see missionaries, so-called. Let them do this work. You have created poverty. You have created your problem. You solve it. Why bring God in it? To say that you are doing missionary work, do it. But it's just social work. It has nothing to do with God. Don't bring in God to this level that, you see, you collect money from these, I find this big organization and then I get this money for the poor. And do it. That's a good thing. You do it. Because you have done the problem you solve it, all right. But it's a social work, remember. It's not God's work. And do not bring in God there. God's work is said that it moves free.

If you bring a patient to Me, supposing, then it's a special. I mean, no question of charge nor anything, but just I put My hand on his head because he becomes part and parcel of Me. Who is the other to do any service to anyone? Who is the other? He's a part and parcel of My being. In that moment, I know when he is having a problem. I just put attention to deep that and if the person cures well and good. If he is worth for curing he'll be cured. If he's not worth of curing he'll not be cured. I [UNCLEAR will/am] not bothered as to the result of it. But you can't pay for it. You cannot say that, “This is some sort of a missionary work I am doing." Then I ask other people paying for it, so I give it to other poor people.

Actually, this is a very wrong idea to give free money to poor people also. I mean, if they are absolutely dying, then it's all right. But otherwise you make them parasites. You see, you must face them. Bring them to self-respect. Also, these so-called rich people, you see, they are, I don't know what happens to them. They are so blind that they think they can go on accumulating money as much as they like and then from the other [UNCLEAR hand/end] also it disappears. It's a mad world, I tell you, in which these Gurus find themselves and they run away and only the Gurus that are wrong type of Gurus are on this earth. If you have false things, if you see a piece made of a plastic, say of a flower, you must know there has to be a real flower, too. How can you deny that? You cannot deny that there is no real flower. There has to be a real flower to have so many plastic there. I agree that you may not meet the real flower. It's a different point. But there is a real flower and has to be because these plastics are created out of that.

Now the sensitivity of people as people say is not good because we are not understanding that a good Guru, a Guru who is a real Guru must have something higher than us. If he is a parasite on us, he lives on our money, then he is a parasite. How can he be a Guru? If he is a, say, Christ was a carpenter's son.

So he lived like a carpenter's son. Because they are themselves kings, they are bādshahs. They don't want anybody's money. They don't want to live on anybody's money and prosper on that. If possible, they can only give their own money to cover up the things. But they will not live on your money. That is one thing we should know about a Guru. And there are so many other things by which you can judge a good Guru.

But without a Guru you cannot get realisation.

Now in Sahaja Yoga we don't allow any Sahaja Yogi to call himself a Guru. Because all of you are My children; I am your Mother. You all become your own Gurus. You don't need any Guru anymore. Now this Guru Tattwa is also spoilt very much when you denounce God. When you also accept wrong Gurus and put this forehead at the horrible feet of these horrible Gurus, then you develop a terrible Chakra here called as Ekādaśha Rudra. That is one of the signs of starting a cancer within you. You develop that kind of a horrible thing called Ekādaśha Rudra, means there are eleven rudras, the [UNCLEAR vidhavance], the destroyers are there. And that is the beginning of the end.

So one has to be careful as to whom to bow this end. Even to a minister or to these, anyone of these people. You need not go on all the time polishing their shoes. You must have your self-respect. What is the need? What do you want to have? What do you want to become? People have no respect for a man like that. After all, you do it all for respect, isn't it? For your self-respect, isn't it? That you should be respected. But nobody respects you. You may have cars; you may have everything but people don't respect you. They say, “He is a man without any respect." An intrinsic man, a man who has got that intrinsic quality, that sterling quality, is always respected, specially in this country. He may be poor man; does not matter. Shastriji, when he died he had debts on his head, but still taking Shastriji's name people hold their hearts. Same with My father, I would say.

Those who knew him, you see, when he died he didn't even make his will or anything. But I mean, people when they think of him, they think, “Oh, what a thing." So this is what one must know that if it is so, why not stick on to it. But that can only happen if you get your realisation. You will work it out as soon as it happens. [Hindi.] Please open the windows. [Hindi.] So this is what it is.

We have to keep our Guru Tattwa intact. That is, you have to become the Guru by yourself. In Sahaja Yoga your Kuṇḍalinī will rise, it will enlighten your Guru Tattwa and you become your own Guru. Do not think of any other Guru anymore now. Later on you will know who are the real Gurus, what was their essence of teaching, why they taught it, everything you understand and then you will know how to respect them in the real way and anybody comes and challenges about them, you can tell them that this is what he was. See, you won't be in a sort of a position where you will be apologetic, but you can tell exactly about every Guru what sort of a Guru he was. Now regarding you can move in for [the relative of] others.

[Hindi.]

Contents: 1982-03-19*, Public Program, Futuristic Attitudes, Caxton Hall, London, UK

[English song.] Ah, so sweet.

It's so beautiful to come back to London to meet all of you, again, after such a big gap I felt. It's a funny feeling one gets when you leave the country and you are away and then you find other people same way when you leave them. You feel an ocean of compassion and love.

We have been very successful in India. Indian climate is, I think, changing very fast and people are finding it easier to take to Sahaj Yog than before. Luckily, some people were cured by Sahaj Yog which made people think about it. Apart from that, they found out, as you found out about Blake, that a gentleman, a very famous seer known as Bhrigu, who wrote the prophecies about modern times two thousand years back, has talked about Sahaja Yoga very clearly and he says that, not so precise as Blake is but, in a way, about Sahaja Yoga, that the Kuṇḍalinī Shakti will be awakened in a very Sahaja way.

And that it's a new system by which thousands will get realisation. According to his proportions, in one crore. Crore is how much Gavin? Hundred thousand? Ten million? Ten Million.

Among ten million people, there will be one person who will get realisation. Then these people will start giving realisation to others and so many will get their Ātmāsākṣhātkar, means Self-realisation. Also he describes about vibrations and so many things and what happens after realisation. That you can start seeing the Kuṇḍalinī and all those minute things with your naked eyes. That you can see the throbbing of the Kuṇḍalinī with this new method. And so many things he has described: that they had to take to Sahaja Yoga because they knew this was it, that's what you have to expect.

And it worked out so well that thousands and thousands of people, thousands.

Now, it is very important for these seers to see those things of the future because human beings are such that, unless and until they have something already certified, you see, the `bonafides' of a person, people don't believe and that's why it was important that such a thing was written about Sahaja Yoga.

Because what I have studied with other people who came to Me from other groups is that: most of them were brainwashed people. I mean, they didn't know what they were talking about, they didn't know what was Kuṇḍalinī, they didn't know what was Self-realisation, they did not know any one of their own powers, they did not know how to work it out, nothing! I mean they were just zeros! Just zeros you see. And they just were wearing some dresses and things like that and wearing some sort of a necklace or maybe a bangle in the hand, to say that they belong to a particular cult, but they didn't know what it was, actually nothing was intelligible to Me, to understand why were they in that cult, what were they doing there. And everybody was hoping for the future, for the future.

I concluded on one point: I think most of the Western people are futuristic. They live in the future.

Neither in the past, nor in the present, but they live in the future. And these futuristic tendencies make you hope for something better, that something will come out, something will work out. “Let me do what I'm doing, is alright." And they don't even want to think that, “What I am doing, is it correct or incorrect?" They just accept whatever they have accepted. Maybe it's also another ego trip, perhaps, that, “I have accepted this, now I don't want to change” sort of a thing. But I was surprised, they didn't know anything about God, about themselves, about their Spirit, about their Kuṇḍalinīs, about their Chakras, about anybody's Chakras, nothing! They were just in the dark, lost people. And real seekers, absolutely real seekers! I was amazed at the way they got realisation also.

Some of the foreigners who came in Delhi were wonderful people. But they said, “We think drug is the way!" I said, “But why do you think like that?" You see they have conceptions which are futuristic also, that, “We are experimenting with this we are experimenting with that and definitely we are going to reach somewhere." But, supposing, if you are coming to Caxton Hall and if you are directed towards the airport, how will you come to Caxton Hall? Maybe if you go round the whole world, maybe! If you think the world is round. But the plane of God, is not a round world. It's an ascent. It's an ascent. It's not that you can go here, there, there, everywhere and then somehow you find God. It's not like that. Or somehow you find your Spirit. It's a higher level.

It's a higher position one has to rise [to]. It's not at the same level [that] you are going to find it. This they don't understand. They don't understand. They think that on this level only if you move, with this human awareness, what we have, with our rationality, with our thinking, by our reading, we'll achieve that.

I was amazed, I mean, I didn't know that human beings think like that, that you can achieve anything with your rationality and with your intelligence. You cannot! What can you achieve? Because whatever is to be achieved, you have already achieved that.

But what is to be understood [is] that, these futuristic people think that the way they are progressing, or whatever the way they are moving, [that] they are moving the right direction. Until they are completely finished and fagged out how are they going to find out? It's a complete brainwash for these people and it's a very dangerous thing. I was Myself so much upset with all that. But I do not know what is the solution for these people if they are that futuristic.

Now we must know what happens to a person when he becomes futuristic. It's a very dangerous situation also [in] every way. Physically, mentally, emotionally, in every way, a futuristic person has lots of problems.

The first problem that arises by living into the future is that you forget the past. You completely forget the past. You just live in the future, you forget the past. You don't even remember, sometimes, your own name! We had one gentleman who came to see Me. He was the president of a Dhulia conference or something, a big man, supposed to be. He came round. And he didn't remember even his wife's name! Can you imagine? And the wife was crying, poor thing. She said, “He doesn't even remember my name Mother! It's gone so bad as that." So I asked him, “Do you remember your name?" So he said, “Well, I think... let me think, let me think." Now thinking is moving right side! You see, left side is finished! “I think..." again. He couldn't! And I found out from him that he was planning and he was doing this.

“I'm going to do this to Dhulia's city. I'm going to work out this for Dhulia city and I'm going to arrange this..." and everything was in his mind but nothing that was past. And the balance was so much upset that he was absolutely future and nothing of past. He had very high blood pressure, very high blood pressure. And imagine a person who doesn't even remember his own name, to walk about in the streets of London! One would be lost. You know, police would have to catch hold of him and put him in a jail. It's a very abnormal situation. But we reach that situation because we start enjoying that kind of a thinking, indulging into that kind of a rationality and then ending up with a life like that: high blood pressure, heart trouble, diabetes, paralysis.

Anything is possible with this kind of movement of futuristic attitude.

But future does not exist, does not exist. It is just in our mind. And whatever is in our mind is not reality. That we have conceived ourselves. Reality is what it is. You cannot conceive it. It exists. Only thing what we can do is to rise up to it and to see for ourself what reality is, actually what it means.

Now the trouble with this ego business is that it's like a balloon, you know. It's really like a balloon.

The more you start thinking about it, it takes you away from reality, like as if you float in the air and you don't know what you are doing. You have lost all contacts with the Mother Earth and you are floating in the air. This has started in us because when we became human beings from the animal stage you see, we started taking up upon ourselves the responsibility, responsibility to be ourselves, that we are something: I am something, you are something, you are Mr. X, you are Mr. Y, you are Mr. Z. But as human beings are, go to the extremes as usual, they cannot stop at a point.

So they went into such a limit of extremes [that] now they have forgotten also `I', who is this `I'. You ask the name they said, “By the way I think this, that." So all identifications are lost with the past. And one may say that it is a very good thing because they were all misidentifications [that] are lost. But even the identifications with the future are also hallucinations. That's not the Truth. That's not the Truth.

One has to be in the present. And how do you do it? Not by listening to any lecture or going to any library to find out. You cannot do it, again, with this brain that is today. You have to have a brain which has that spark in it, that light in it, enlightened brain. You are to be an enlightened person. Unless and until you are enlightened you cannot see your way through, you are walking in the dark, really you are walking in the dark. And when this light comes into you... that is the light within us, placed there all the time. Is the light of our Spirit. It has to come in our attention. And God has arranged everything for us, everything. There's a way of our germination which has to take place and when it takes place you can feel that Spirit in your attention.

Now there is another misunderstanding I find [that] people have about Spirit: they think Spirit is an energy. It is not! It's not an energy. Energy can be transformed, it can be changed, it can be evolved, it can be handled and all that. Spirit is not! Spirit is absolute! It cannot be compared with anything else that you know of. It is an absolute thing. It resides in your heart. It's the reflection of God Almighty, within ourselves. And you cannot call it an energy. Energy can be finished off, spent away, it can disappear into thin air. Not the Spirit. It's a permanent entity. It is absolute, by itself and it cannot be compared with anything else. I mean, just to give an analogy, one can say something, but that's a different point, just to give. But you cannot compare an absolute with anything that is relative.

So that's an absolute thing within you, which resides in your heart and when this residual power of Kuṇḍalinī rises it ignites the attention within you with this spark of the Spirit.

Now, supposing, this light is here, take it [as an example]. If you put on this light, of course this light is an energy so you cannot compare with anything you know, that's the trouble, but still [if] you say this is the light, now this light enlightens this whole atmosphere and we start seeing things here clearly.

But do you think that light which is there is the one that is your attention? Not at all. Your attention is enlightened by that light. The light enlightens your attention; by that attention you can feel the All-pervading Power, the Divine Power, the energy of God, the Divine Energy of God, the energy of love of God. You can feel it because it's a connecting link. Spirit is the connecting link. But it is completely absolute. It just connects you to that All-pervading Power, that All-pervading Power.

I think we have talked about Creation when we said that, the whole Parabrahma became the energy and God Almighty, which was lost in the Parabrahma, means [in] a sleeping state, became the Witness.

Now this Witness is in the heart of human beings. This Witness is all the time there. When it disappears you do not exist! So it is not an energy. One has to understand. Actually someone has written a book on Sahaja Yoga and when I was going through it I was shocked to read that he thinks that Spirit is an energy! So, energy, the Shakti, is not that Spirit and the Spirit is not Shakti. They have to meet. They have to meet so that the enlightenment in human beings, [of] the Chitta [attention], takes place.

Our ideas, whatever they are, are ideas. Even when I say to you something, I have always told that you shouldn't take Me for granted, you should see [for] yourself. You should see for yourself how it works out.

But first of all you must have that microscope, the Spirit, you must have that level of understanding.

You should go to that point, you must have the breakthrough. If you have not broken through that you won't understand anything. You are not yet connected, there's no enlightenment. Without enlightenment what's the use of talking? Now, supposing I go and tell you there are red coloured curtains here and there's a black coloured beams here, anything and if the other person is blind, they are not going to understand anything [about] what is black what is red, what is yellow. But this is the truth, that we are blind. And also this is the truth that we can see. And then we can see the real Truth.

So the truth that appears before us now is not the Truth. After realisation it is the real Truth.

I know one thing that, in the West, the rationality has gone too far. People rationalise everything, which has killed all the joy of life. Everything they rationalise, which kills the joy of life. In the East people just do not rationalise, they do not think about it. That is also going too far. But there is a meeting point between the East and the West. And the greatest [thing] of all is that the West has discovered the science.

Science is responsible, today, for Sahaja Yoga. Only through science we are going to spread Sahaja Yoga, if people understand what is the meaning of Sahaja Yoga is. It's a very dynamic thing no doubt. It's working out tremendous things. But not in the places where people are very rationally judging everything.

Like a tree has got a shoot and a root. If it has got a shoot it has to have a root, otherwise shoot cannot hang in the air! It has to have a root. Now, in the West, we are the shoots. You see, everybody can see everything. You can see what we have achieved, “This is the achievement." We have got big, huge affluent societies. People are working out all kinds of gadgets and this and that. But from where is the energy coming? Somebody must have worked the down way also, in the root, which you cannot see.

To understand the root you have to change your style. It's alright, to become the shoot was different, but supposing you have to understand the root, you have to go down and you have to change your attitude.

And that attitude is of trying to understand that we are not yet our Spirit.

All the prophets, all the great incarnations have said that, “You are to be born again” that you have to become the Spirit. We are not. Let us very humbly accept that. If you accept that, that we are not yet realised Souls, that's all, we have to know, then it's easier. But if we think, now people come to Sahaja Yoga's system, I have seen, in the West, it's very difficult to convince them. I have to sit in a particular manner I have to talk in a particular manner and I may not be that good at English manners maybe.

So they will say that, “Oh, this lady is no good, she doesn't know any English manners!" you see. And they'll judge you on some superficial things which may be good for the shoot, but not for the root.

Under these circumstances it is rather difficult to convince people about Sahaj Yoga. But you must know that I am now talking about the roots and not about the shoot. Shoot you have got, you have got it, but you have to find the sustenance of it. If you do not find it, the whole thing will topple down.

As it is very important to have the shoot, it's even more important sometimes to have a root, after some time, because if you are exhausted in your energy it's better to develop your root system, enrich it so that you sustain your society much better and achieve the fruits of your creation.

I see some new faces here and I'm very happy to see that there are some new people who have come to Sahaj Yog. For all the new people I would like to say one thing: that many people come to Sahaja Yoga out of which, of course, now we have many people who are now realised Souls here, sitting down.

It's a great thing that there are so many realised Souls in England, specially in London. But many are lost because they just judge things on their own way.

So I have to request that you must give some time to yourself and to Sahaja Yoga, because you are all seekers. I don't want you to be lost.

The other day somebody read Me out from John's Gospel that he says that only 144,444 people will be saved. I said, “This is very miserly of him to say such a thing!" “That's all?" I said, “That's all?" I mean how can it be? Only such a small number? I just couldn't believe that how could he say such a thing.

Perhaps his counting is wrong I think, or whatever it is, but I hope so it's not that bad. And how many are going to join from England, we have to see. Blake had great ideas, he wanted to build Jerusalem and he went into all kinds of details. I hope we'll be able to do some justice to him as well.

It is a great pleasure to come back to your own children after such a long stay there. I always thought of you here. All of you were in this cold, facing the cold weather of this country. And also, was thinking that, one day, this country will become a great country of spiritual life. I know this has to work out from this country only. In India of course, it's very easy, but this country is the heart, heart and we have to establish here. It's difficult I know, but we all have to work very hard. And, after this, I hope you all decide to go all over, wherever possible, to spread Sahaja Yoga. That is the greatest thing that we have to do. This year, according to astrology in India, the English are going to come up with new ideas and I would like to know their new ideas when we have this birthday celebration.

So, is it for birthday celebration today that, Gavin, you have arranged this program? Birthdays are good when you are growing, but when you are getting old they are not so good isn't it? This birthday has a special significance I feel because, in that book also, it is written that, this year, something great should happen and something great should come up. And we all have to understand that, if we lose the time, maybe we'll lose many people who are just lost because of their ignorance. And we have to save them, we have to definitely save them. There is no doubt [that] they are all seekers. They are seekers and lost. It's our duty to save them. We have to really work very hard to find out all such people and go close to them, talk to them and help them.

Thank you very much.

From the new people I would like to have some questions if there are any, because when we go into meditation I do not want your mind to come up and suddenly say, “Oh, you did not ask this question" or to think about it or to work it out. It's a spontaneous thing. As you place a seed in the Mother Earth and the warmth of the Mother Earth, which you can say the love of the Mother Earth sprouts the seed.

In the same way this germination takes place, this germination takes place within you, automatically, spontaneously. You don't have to do anything about it. We have done nothing to become human beings and we have to do nothing to become superhuman beings also.

Afterwards, after realisation, of course you have to maintain yourself. Like you have to maintain yourself to be a human being and not to become a beast. In the same way, you have to remain an angel and not to become a fallen angel, after realisation, that's all. And it works out, absolutely spontaneously and you become, again [I'm saying] you become.

You really become a different person. You start noticing that difference showing in you. With some people it takes more time. With some it takes very little. But I have seen people have to go, in that transition period, carefully. But it works out, it does work out. I haven't yet seen a person who has got realisation [who] is lost. He comes back I see there are vibrations still he has not worked it out, of course, there are problems, but still, you can maintain it, you can put it right.

So this is the Kuṇḍalinī and there are six centers above that and one centre below. Now these six centers are within us. All of us have got it. These are the subtle centers which give us our plexuses and these plexuses are the gross manifestation of these centers. These centers are pierced through. Only the six centers, because the seventh one is at the base of the Kuṇḍalinī. That's our innocence and that's the one which is not pierced through. The Kuṇḍalinī rises, passing through these centers, pierces through this Fontanelle bone area and gives us a real, actual baptism, actual. It's not that `I baptize you,' put the hand there, it's not that. You actually feel the throbbing on your head and you see the piercing, by feeling the Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost pouring out of your head. You can feel it very clearly. That's how it is.

It is surprising how people reconcile to things because they say that the Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost is there. Now where is the Cool Breeze? Ask these people. We say that, “We bless you with the Trinity." But where is the Cool Breeze? Where is the Cool Breeze? When you talk of blessing somebody with the Trinity there has to be the Cool Breeze because Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost has to be there. And there is no Cool Breeze, so how are we to believe that what they are saying is what they are meaning? And that is what is the Truth is. You have to have the Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost and where is the Cool Breeze? That's one of the points one should find out.

Now this Cool Breeze is not only a simple Cool Breeze. It definitely acts, it works, it cures. There is a case, recently, interesting, that I was actually in a village in India when a father of a son came to see Me, who, the son, was sent to America for treatment for blood cancer, And, of course, I gave vibrations from there but I asked one of the American girls to treat him and he's cured, hundred percent he's out of the hospital. Yes, it can be done! And it is so fantastic. you can do it. I need not do. You can do it. It's that girl Christine who has done it and she has cured him, completely, hundred percent. The boy is out of the hospital and is going back to India.

So all these things can be done. This has to happen. Once it works out then one has to work out a little bit more to understand how to use the power, how to use the power. It's very simple, it is so spontaneous.

Nobody told us how to see. Did anybody tell us? We have eyes, we can see. It is so spontaneous. Because we have got eyes which can see, so we are seeing it. What is there to be told about it or taught about it that, “You see that now there is a..." It is there, we can see it with our own eyes. What is there to teach? Do we teach our own nose that there's a fragrance coming in? It knows that it is coming in.

This is known as bodha. It is the knowledge by which you can feel it. It's not the knowledge that you read in the books. If you read in the books “The roses smell like this” will you get the smell? Or [if] there are some people who wear a Rolls-Royce on their neck, a picture of Rolls-Royce and they think, “We are going in a Rolls-Royce very nicely!" Do you do that way? It's stupid isn't it? But it is the stupid things people do. They carry on with such artificial things believing that they are doing it.

So one has to know that it is an actualisation, it has to happen, it has to work out within you. You cannot just befool yourself saying that, “I am that, I am this, I am that." If you say, “I am the governor” do you become the governor? It's simple as that, absolutely very simple. And, once it happens, as it is simple to you to be a human being, it will be as simple to you to be a Sahaja Yogi. Only thing: to be a Sahaja Yogi you have to know. As you have learned your language you have to know the language of Sahaja Yoga: what does this finger means, if you get the burning on this finger what does that mean, what does this mean.

Everything you have to know, just decoding and I am here just for decoding, nothing more than that.

Now any more questions?

Seeker: Yes, is it possible for the Kuṇḍalinī to be opened prematurely? Hypnotism or brainwashing or something and you can do anything good with it, constructive, is it possible to have this opened prematurely? In a non-developed state.

Shri Mataji: Kuṇḍalinī doesn't need any development it is complete by itself. It doesn't need any development as such. But, what happens, when the Kuṇḍalinī passes through these centers, the centers could be sick, could be constricted, there could be a problem, somebody may be an imbalanced person, or you may be a person who doesn't follow certain rules and regulations of sustenance, could be there.

Some sort of a thing is there.

Seeker: Could it be the person might be too open?

Shri Mataji: Yes, vulnerable type who accepts everything, you see.

Seeker: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Goes to the lunatic asylums also, wants to be with the rogues and wants to be with this, wants to be with that, all that. You see, such a person can be also in torture. But that is the path, the path of Kuṇḍalinī could be in trouble, could be. But Kuṇḍalinī is not that way. Of course, sometimes She is so hurt, I have seen her being very much hurt, passing through that path She feels so hurt. But that's a different point. Now this Kuṇḍalinī is there, just matured, sitting down there, waiting for a moment to rise.

Now what happens, when people who are not authorized by Divine Power of God, who are not holy people, we should put it straight forward, who are not really holy people but just are unholy people, or you can put any strong word you want, `hypocrites' or anything. If they try any tricks with the Kuṇḍalinī then there's a Deity sitting on the first centre, He hits them hard! And that hitting can cause big problems, like people can develop blisters. Not the Kuṇḍalinī, she is extremely kind, she is your Mother, She is not going to do any harm. But this Deity which is the Deity embodying your innocence, it can't bear any wrong entry to the Mother, so that Deity gets angry and you get problems of the sympathetic nervous system.

And such people have so many problems. They can have blisters on the body, even cancer! Because these people have no authority, they cannot awaken it. They cannot awaken it. For example, if you put a seed under a hot blanket, will it prosper? It will die out. It has to be the Mother Earth. In the same way the one who is authorized to do the Kuṇḍalinī awakening has to do it. Anybody who tries otherwise then He harms the person. And [it] can be very harmful.

So that kind of a horrible thing happens to many people when they just try to bow to wrong type of people. This head is not to be bowed to anyone who has not given you realisation. Why should you? You shouldn't bow to Me also! I have not given you realisation [yet]. When I will give you realisation, then you should bow to Me. But in India if you tell people, “Don't bow to Me” they have already accepted Me, you see, so they feel very hurt if I say, “Don't bow to Me you are not realised." But here I would say, I would prefer a person not to bow to Me till he has got his realisation. That is very important. Because after all, I may be a hocus-pocus, could be, possibly, so why trust Me that way? Don't put your head at My feet. You just have your realisation first and then.

But it is quite true, people are playing havoc with it, absolutely havoc. It's very dangerous. You see a person who doesn't know how to put on the light can burn his fingers and say that electricity is wrong.

But he doesn't know anything, he's naive. To put it very mildly we can say they are naive. But there are sinister people also who deliberately do it just to torture people.

That's why people are frightened also to hear about Kuṇḍalinī. I know a gentleman has written such a thick book and he says the Kuṇḍalinī is in the stomach! I said, “It's not there, it's not there!" I mean, it's so absurd to hear such things, but they right books without any authority. You see, anybody can talk about God! Hitler used to talk about God also! Who's going to catch hold of him? But you can see the throbbing of the Kuṇḍalinī. In these programs you can see, of some people, where there's an obstruction. On the Nābhī Chakra, you can see the throbbing; clearly you can see it. Many, all, of these people have seen, those who are sitting.

What else? It's a good question. Because it's very common. I have seen people have read about Kuṇḍalinī. You are all seekers you know, you are all seekers, so you are seeking, you are reading all these books. I know that you are reading all these books and that's how you know about all these things. But it's not the main thing. Main thing is: Kuṇḍalinī awakening must give you realisation, must give you your own power.

I may be very powerful, or whatever it is, so what? What's the use? Unless and until you have some powers of your own, why should you believe anyone? But people are brainwashed you see; there is some purpose behind it. It's money making propositions. All are money making propositions, take it from Me.

Seeker: How do you raise the Kuṇḍalinī Mother, what can you do?

Shri Mataji: Nothing! Just now we'll do it but it's nothing [that] has to be done. That's the main point. It's Sahaja. It's just spontaneous. Nothing! What can we do to make a flower a fruit? It's as simple as that. Alright? It will work out.

That's a good question [it] means you are anxious [to get it].

What about getting all the people who are new in front and all the people who are old, very old, a little backward [laughing].

So all those. Is there anybody sitting at the back who is new? Come forward, please, come forward.

There is nothing to be frightened about Kuṇḍalinī. She is your Mother, She's extremely kind.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother should we make room for people to come and sit down?

Shri Mataji: I mean, they can't sit on the ground.

So, those who can sit on the ground can come down. Yes, that's alright, yah.

First two rows is alright if they are there. Just come along! Come along! It's good.

Come here, come here, come forward, yah. Come along, come, yah.

These are all seekers.

Don't worry. Don't worry about anything. You see, even if you have been taking drugs, if you have been going to other Gurus, you might think you are a sinner or you might think you are a very guilty person. Whatever you are thinking, now forget about it! Just forget about it. Don't feel guilty, that's first thing, is, don't feel guilty. You should say, `Mother, I am not guilty,' that's very important. That's one thing: that you are not guilty. You are the temple of God. You have come here to become that, to know that.

So you are not to feel guilty at all. That's one of the greatest problems of the West is that they feel guilty.

So please tell yourself thrice, clearly that, `Mother I am not guilty.' For anything! Everything will be forgiven. What is it? It is nothing. Say there's an ocean of forgiveness, an ocean of love, an ocean of compassion. What is this? Little speck here and there? Cannot be washed off? It's very simple. Your Karmas and all that Christ can suck it. He resides here, once he's awakened he'll suck all your problems.

Just don't worry. Trust in Him.

Good. Āgñyā opening out.

Now what you have to do is to put your hand towards Me like this, because these are all the centers which are to be awakened so the news goes through this, or the message, you can say. And you can put the, both the hands towards Me like this and close your eyes. That's important. Don't open your eyes because when Kuṇḍalinī comes up here there's a dilatation of the pupils so just keep your eyes shut. But sit in a very relaxed manner, very relaxed, very relaxed, very relaxed.

Just put both the hands towards Me, just like this. Can you put? Just like this.

Put your hands also please. Why don't you put your hands?

Seeker: I only came to listen.

Shri Mataji: No there's nothing more talking.

Just put your hands, please. There's a right Āgñyā from the very beginning.

Put both the hands towards Me and close your eyes. Just close your eyes.

[Shri Mataji rubs her hands and blows.] Keep your eyes closed. If they are flickering then you can open them, otherwise you keep them closed.

And keep the face also still. No emotions or anything, just keep it still in a mood of witnessing. In a mood of witnessing you should sit, putting both the hands towards Me.

It works out, actually should work out in a second, split of a second, but the problem is, because of certain complications it takes time sometimes. Doesn't matter. But it should work out.

Contents: 1982-03-21 Birthday Pūjā, Chelsham Road, London, UK

Nice to see today so many Sahaja Yogis looking like beautiful lotus flowers, as the blossom time is filled with the fragrance of your beauty. It is such a pleasure for Me to be your Mother and to be able to communicate the Divine, the powers of Divine, the beauty of Divine to you. It was never possible before, as you know. Everyone tried their level best but nobody could achieve it, to communicate that beauty.

As you know, Sahaja Yoga, or this Mahā Yoga is a very unique system, it never existed before. It has come into existence, of course, I should say that because the Parabrahma decided to take a form, but you also all decided to come on this earth to receive the blessings. It cannot be possible to do anything with one hand. The beauty of Sahaja Yoga is great, no doubt, which I am sure very soon people will realise that this is the only way. All lost people will come back to Sahaja Yog, I'm sure and they will achieve what they are due.

You don't have to do anything about Sahaja Yoga, you just walk in and you can get Realisation. In India there was a gentleman who came to see Me and he told Me a big story about his woes, he told Me he's under debt, he has so many problems, his wife is like this, his children are like this and he has problems, political problems, all sorts of problems he had. And then he got his Realisation.

And he said, “Mother, what have You done to me?" I said, “Why?" He said, “I have forgotten all this and I'm in joy, I am in joy” you see. I said, “It could be an escape." He said, “No, I can see all that, but I am still in joy." Next time he met Me he said, “I've solved all my problems, because I was in joy and I could share it with others. Things improved a lot." That's how Sahaja Yoga works, instantaneously, spontaneously, without any effort. It's true. But we have to face certain things. The fact, that we were not so prepared for Sahaja Yog, in the sense, that we are people living in this life of turmoil, confusion, all kinds of funny ideas. And idea of Dharma is also missing, it's only in the books or in the churches maybe somewhere people talk, only talk. It's not actually existing.

Moreover, we have also not got the traditions left with us, which are required to be a person to worship the Divine. Most of our traditions we have lost because firstly we discovered that there's lot of hypocrisy and insincerity as far as religion is concerned. The people who talk of religion behave in such manner that you cannot believe that there is God.

So they denied God, they denied all the traditions, they said, “This is all useless, it has no meaning, better give up all the religions, it's fanaticism, it is nonsense." Because it did not give them any fruits, according to them, they couldn't wait for Sahaja Yoga to come in to prove that all religions are absolutely correct and their traditions are absolutely necessary if you really want to have the maximum of the joy and the beauty of the Divine.

But it so happened, that we lost those traditions, we've lost, most of the traditions are lost. It is surprising, how many traditions we have lost and we are not aware of it.

So a new education is needed for us to understand the traditions of worshipping.

It's easy to have a Pūjā, because your Mother is always available. If you just tell Her there is Pūjā, She'll dress up and come down here. But in tradition at least there should be an invitation, you have to come and receive and ask for coming, because now you see the joke of the whole thing is. But it's all right, because you don't know, it's all right.

It's not only that, I'm saying on the whole, a worship is a tradition which has come to us from great seers and ancient sages. Anybody, even, say, Moses, you can say Socrates, you can say Dattātreya, or Mārkandeya, or any one of these people have found out the ways and methods how to tune our instruments to the Divine to achieve the maximum joy. How to please the Deities, that's the main point is, how to please the Deities. But it's a crude word `pleases', but how to... I don't know what should I say, innovation they say, or what do you call that? How to spark them, invoke, invoke them, invoke them that they give you complete blessings.

And the trick of the trade one has to learn, one has to educate. There's nothing wrong in getting educated.

So we know that we have to educate ourselves, first point and secondly we have to know that for that we have to be humble. The humility should be such that “I have to learn. I have to learn. I have to educate. Nothing wrong in it." And I have told you before that in ancient times the Gurus used to be so strict with their disciples that they used to put them hanging on a well for three days, before they could enter even into the university.

So if they could stand all that insults, then only they would bring the students inside and start talking about any education.

Because, you see, in educating a person if you have no humility and understanding that I do not know, I have to know, it's a fact, because this is the new journey towards the roots, as I said.

You are the roots, Sahaja Yogis are the roots of the whole universe, do you know that? You are the roots and as roots you have to know how to journey through this deeper parts of spiritual life, to grow.

When you grow deep, the tree grows up.

It is through you only, the nourishment of the this overgrown universe is going to be looked after. And the more it overgrows, you must grow deeper. But for that you must have education, it's important. Look at the little cell at the tip of a root, how it moves with complete intelligence, understanding and wisdom.

Supposing it is hit by a stone, it doesn't feel bad, it goes back. It knows where to recede, where to go further, where to go round the thing and how to use the same stone for making the tree very strong. All this education you have to get through your experiences and by all the time saying humbly: “I have to learn." That is very important, that we have to have that humility to educate ourselves. Because with that education you'll embed this tremendous task into the minds of people, which is a very difficult thing.

The movement is outward in this shoots, in this outside tree, outward. It's easy to impress a person if you are insincere, very easy, if you can dress up in a particular way, smile in a different way, look in a different way, if you can act very well you can impress anyone, for the people who are superficial we say.

The veneer that we have so far is not needed any more. There is no need to have the veneer, because inside we have found our Self, our own Spirit, our own beauty which is going to flower out, which is going to come out.

So there's no need to have any artificial veneer at all, because I know you and the Deities know you.

There is no need to have any artificiality outside. We put on some sort of an artificial veneer. What's the use for us? Nothing, we are not going to impress people outwardly. We have to impress them inwardly.

So for inward growth all this veneer must drop out. The veneer has come through so many kinds of acceptance of norms and the, we can say, the formalities of life are concerned. That veneer is within us: if you say thank you ten times, finished, if you say sorry two times, is all right. But from inside to feel something, to genuinely feel something, to be genuine about it is our work.

But that doesn't mean that we should have no tradition. Tradition gives us that beauty to grow in a proper way. For example, you'll see, we'll find people talk here sometimes gives you a shock, I mean the way `I'll buy you a lunch today,' say, a thing like that. It's horrible to say such a thing, as to say `I'll buy you a lunch today,' you see. It's very rude and crude way of talking, isn't it? On the contrary, it's better to say that `Will you give me the pleasure of you having for lunch?' Is no artificiality: that's the way you should feel it. There's no artificiality because from your heart it is coming, you're saying it from your heart.

But if you are not saying it from your heart, it's better even if you are not saying with your heart, it's better to say that it would be a pleasure. Because to say that `I'll buy you a lunch and you buy me tomorrow.' To say another thing, you see, it's also possible, this is, this people think is being very open and there's no insincerity, because you are insincere! Because you are insincere, that's why you want to avoid insincerity. Why not be sincere? By saying whatever looks so sincere is actually vulgar. It is not proper to say such a thing. But for a Sahaja Yogi if he is traditional as well as his inner self is shining, it's like a beautiful diamond put in a beautiful ring.

So I feel that an education in our behaviour has to come in. Our language has to change. Our style has to change.

We have to live in a way that people should feel that these are decent people, very normal people. You don't have to do anything abnormal to be a Sahaja Yogi. You have to be extremely normal, decent people, who know decent language.

There is no need to put up any show, for example, you see, an artificial smile, or an artificial face, there's no need at all. For a Sahaja Yogi to become like any other person is no hypocrisy. You see, a Sahaja Yogi may think `Mother, it's a hypocrisy, because I'm a Sahaja Yogi, I'm a realised Soul, why should I dress up like other people, you see. It's a hypocrisy.' It is not. For a king to dress up like a beggar, is it a hypocrisy? Will you call it a hypocrisy? It is not.

Now, I am a, I am supposing, I am a Goddess. I'm not supposed to dress up like ordinary people. I'm to be decked up all the time, I should have this, that, but I have to dress up like ordinary person, so is it hypocrisy? Is it hypocrisy by [that]? It is not.

Hypocrisy is to claim something that you are not. It's a higher level. You see, supposing a person, who is not even a realised Soul and he says “I am a Guru." Then he is a hypocrite. But not a real Guru, behaves like an ordinary person. Is a question of discretion. One should understand, is a question of discretion.

So when you dress up like an ordinary person in an ordinary way there is no question of hypocrisy.

But maybe you are doing it for a thing not to appear something so much that other's ego is hurt.

Actually I do that only just not to hurt anybody's ego, to be very frank. I go about like that because I do not want to hurt anybody's ego, because hurting ego means they'll go down further, so maybe that is the reason you are doing, for the sake of their good if you have to take up a dress like that, doesn't matter. But hypocrisy comes in when you are not that and you claim something [UNCLEAR else].

Now for a Sahaja Yogi it is important to know that he has to improve. He has to go further, he has to grow. And for the growth whatever is necessary must be accepted in right, proper way.

Now, today is a very auspicious day that you are celebrating My Birthday. I'm sure by the time I'm sixty years of age you would grow so fast, this year I wish that you grow so fast, that when people see you they should feel a great beautiful personality standing before us, each one of you have to be great people, each one of you.

For Me that's the only thing to be seen. And it can be accelerated very fast if you understand you have to learn every moment, the humility is necessary. If you know that you have to grow every moment you'll be amazed how fast you can grow.

Every moment you have to change. For example, your style of talking, some people have a style of talking, you can see in the mirror, how would you like a Sahaja Yogi to have that kind of a style of talking? Some people have a style of, you see, laughing in a funny way, all the time they'll be laughing, giggling, while talking “he-hu" they go on, that's not the way a Sahaja Yogi should be. He should be serene, he should laugh when it is necessary, he should smile at when it is necessary.

It is so much in tune with your Spirit that whatever you do should create beauty. Even when you cry at the time when it is necessary, it's so beautiful. See, tears come into your eyes sometimes, they do. But you see somebody very sick, somebody very ill, unhappy, then the tears should come, not when something about you is bad. That's a Sahaja Yogi.

The Sahaja Yogi must feel for others, not for oneself. In the same way, when you laugh, you see, you shouldn't just laugh as a matter of habit.

Some people have a habit, whenever they talk they start with the laughter or they'll just in between “he” they'll say again “he” they'll say, has no meaning. Every time the person who laughs can be idiotic also, so one should not appear that way. Or one should not be so serious, that next moment a person wants to get away from you the way you are serious. I mean there are silent bores also, they just bore you by their silence.

But whatever you have to speak it should come from your heart. If it really comes from your heart, I tell you, it will have so much effect, because heart gives that beauty to you. That's your Spirit. Connection is with the Spirit. When you speak it from your heart, feelingly, whatever you speak, it shows so much of your feelings on your face and on your behaviour, everything and it touches another person's heart, means you touch the roots of the person. You touch the absolute innermost part of his, antakkarana as you say, innermost compartment of his life and from there the light comes.

Now this difference we must understand that our education now is going to be sincerity to speak from your own heart and not from outside. Now we have all the formalities how to say it, how to eat, these things are very, very superficial for Sahaja Yoga.

These are not so important. For Sahaja Yoga these things do not matter. But traditionally those things that are accepted must be seen, discretely used and we should behave in such a manner that whatever we say from our heart should have that beautiful cover of a tradition. That's all. But you need not be artificial at all, there's no need to be artificial.

Now the line to draw between artificiality and reality is very difficult for people.

Because, you see, if you intellectualise it, you can intellectualise everything. For example, if I say that something is wrong with you.

So you may feel that I have criticised, or something, you may feel bad. This is according to his reality, is not true. It is unreal.

Because you have come here to educate yourself, all right? Now I have to tell you something. When I tell you and if you feel hurt then it is not reality. Then what is it? It is your ego, you are playing with your ego, not with your Spirit. On the contrary, a man who has Spirit will feel happy that `I'm in the attention of Mother, that She can correct me.' So second is, that to be in the attention of your Mother. Whether She says you're good, bad, or anything is very important, is very important. Not to be away from Mother's attention is very important.

Because supposing today you might feel something bad and you may try to get out of Her attention, who will look after you? She is looking after you, She has to correct you and She has to tell you that this is not proper and this is not good, this is good.

In that you have to have faith that you will definitely come up, you will have to come up, because I am interested in you I am telling you.

So to be in the Mother's attention is very important and that Mother's attention is all the time with you till you absolutely try to get out of it.

Because I cannot force Myself upon you, that's the main point is, I cannot force Myself upon you. But if you want My attention, then I have to tell you if you are touching something, say a child is touching this fire, won't you tell the child don't do it? So every moment the Mother has to look after. And She, She loves you, not only that, but to Her you're so important. I mean, nobody would like to say anything to anyone these days, because people want to be popular, this cheap popularity. I'm not a person who is asking for popularity.

What I want, that My children should be beautiful people. Then they enter into the Kingdom of God. They should be respected as great saints, sages, more than anybody else. They're special people and that's how they have to be educated. Maybe I'm very ambitious, you might say, but My ambitions are based on reality. I'm sure I can achieve it. But you must develop that, that humility within yourself and understanding that we all have to improve, we have to be in the attention of Mother, if She has to say something to us, we are not to feel hurt. If you feel hurt, then know that it is your ego, beat yourself with shoes, take it out, because is not good. I cannot go on pampering your ego all the time, till you're completely blasted off and then you come and tell Me, “Mother why didn't you tell me?" For example, somebody asked Me, he's in love with somebody, wants to marry, I knew the person was horrible and he should not marry the person. And I said that, in a way. I said, “All right." I mean, at first it was a shock and I kept quiet. I said, now, how to say, not to pamper his ego either. But to say, how to say that no? And yes, it will be very difficult.

So I said, “All right, as long as she makes you happy, it's all right." Now the word `happy' is a double meaning. `Happy' means only your ego can be happy, not the Spirit, is joy. I did not use the word `joy', I said `happy'.

See I have to be clever about it. Now, if you have thought of it, “Why would it Mother say `happy'? She should have said `If it gives you joy.' " If I say `joy' then it's correct, but I said “happy." And I said it three-four times to him, that “Does it make you happy?" He said “Yes." “If it makes you happy, you can marry her." Now, you see, if, he's very intelligent and he should have thought of it, but he never thought of it that I was meaning that it is not going to give you joy, it will give you, “If it gives you happiness, you marry." Happiness means: is your ego pampering, is simple.

Also you have to educate yourself to understand your Mother. This is the third thing you have to know is to understand your Mother. See, I have to be clever, because if I'm not, if I am very blunt you get blasted. If I am not, you are lost.

So I have to be clever and when I'm clever they call Me Mahāmāyā.

So, at least let Me keep to one style, let Me be a Mahāmāyā, all right, accepted.

But then you try to understand that if I tell you something, you just get absolutely annoyed and angry.

And people get lost, you see, they get lost, if you tell them `don't do it,' they get lost. If you say `do it,' then they get lost in any case because they're doing a wrong thing, so it is a big problem and you should see what is good for you, Swārtha. Swārtha also means selfishness but it means the meaning of yourself. Sw-arth, that's what you have to find out for yourself, what is good for you and if Mother is saying something, then what is the meaning of what Mother is saying.

I'm too simple, but I'm very crooked, because when I tell you something straightforward, you do not understand, so I have to go in a roundabout way, see, that's the diplomacy of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa.

You see, because Mother's intentions are very simple and sincere that My children should grow into real Divine power. They should become really, actually Divinity. They should be nothing but embodiment of God's love. I'm very ambitious, I have all confidence in Myself, in you also and I'm sure you will understand, that I do not do your ego-pampering.

I encourage you and I also sometimes discourage you. Both forces are important if you have to progress properly.

So when I encourage you, you feel happy, means your ego is there. When I discourage you, you feel discouraged, means your superego is there.

So you don't have to be both. You have to be in joy, because unless and until you educate yourself fully, the feeling of joy, the feeling of Spirit, the oneness with Spirit will not be your own.

It's like, you see, My car, which didn't start, you see, it's a hopeless instrument, it can't take Me up to this Chelsham Road where I have to go for such an important thing.

So what's the use of having such a car, isn't it? That's what it is. One has to understand if this, if this habit of Mister X, Y, Z is like this, it doesn't take me there, better not to have such a habit. Better not to have this kind of a personality, better not to have this mentality, better not have this kind of attitude, better give up, it's all nonsense, I have to enjoy, I've come here, on this earth to enjoy the bounties of God's love.

So it is a very great day today because internationally we are all celebrating My Birthday. Yesterday about ten o'clock I started feeling the vibrations flowing and My husband told Me that in Australia the Pūjā must have started and then later on, about, say, twelve o'clock again it was in India I think, continuously, so I feel now when all over the world My Birthday is on, even when it will finish here, it will go to America and all over the world twenty four hours I'll be emitting vibrations perhaps because everywhere they are worshipping Me and the sun is moving, twelve o'clock, they'll be all worshipping Me. It's a great thing that such a day has come that people are feeling it round the world.

That it is a great day when the Divine decided to start this Mahā Yoga.

Now, for your education I was thinking of writing a book, an article about how to educate yourself.

But the problem is that when I write it I do not want you to feel that `it is directed towards me,' you see, because you will find something identification, your identification. It's not directed towards anyone, it's a general thing. Today you might be having that problem, tomorrow another might be having that problem, anybody, it's a general thing. With all your permission, if you say so, I think I should write it down, which will help you, which you should read impersonally, impersonally and that is going to, I'm sure, help you.

That should be really the beginning of My another book which I am thinking for Sahaja Yogis, that I should take to one book only for Sahaja Yogis.

The one I've written is for everyone, but this one would be only for Sahaja Yogis. The first one chapter would be: how to educate yourself to be in Sahaja Yoga and to grow in it and not to be deluded by ego and superego. I hope I have your permission today and I'll start that thing for you. Now, if there are any questions we should ask because we have reached the point where we can start the Pūjā now.

You should know that another cleverness your Mother has, you see, maybe the car was failed because of Me perhaps, you can't say. I'm very clever at certain things like arranging timings. You know, the thing is, we went for a... there was a Pūjā in, Pūjā in... what was that place, [UNCLEAR Andara] or some place. What was the place we were in? We stayed in [UNCLEAR Lonaura]. We had a Pūjā there. And for that Pūjā, you see, they fixed the time at nine. As usual they fixed themselves as if they never ask Me. Nine o'clock, Pūjā is fixed, Mother, come at nine. Mother should come, sit down, “All right, do My Pūjā." You see, at nine o'clock, imagine.

I said, “All right, I'll be there." So I wouldn't go for My bath till eleven o'clock. They were saying: “Mother, go for Your bath." I said, “Just a minute, I'll do... [UNCLEAR]." And without bath I wouldn't come for the Pūjā.

So they said, “Why Mātājī is not going?" They were all very upset. Sit down, they were waiting and waiting for “Why Mother has not come ji [UNCLEAR]?" I said, “All right, I'll just go for a bath." At eleven I went for a bath. And they were to have Pūjā at nine, you see. Then I came back about eleven thirty, I came down, they started the Pūjā.

So before starting the Pūjā I said, “All right, now please see the Pañchanga" where they write the dates, you see. There it was written till eleven o'clock was Amāvāsyā, is the day when there is no moon.

And nothing, no good work to be done during that time, inauspicious, you see. I said, “How could I take My bath before that?" And they were all amazed.

I said, “I never read Pañchang, but I know what is to be done what and what time it is the most auspicious time, that is the time everything else is to be done. And you don't have any Pañchang today, but you can find out about it." These things are very important, timings are, because as I have to consult all the deities, I have to consult all the stars and also you know, the stars have got all the deities on them, they're all to be consulted, they are to be put right, the whole thing is to be geared up for Pūjā so that you have the maximum advantage. I have to work very hard for all these things and it's a very big operation, so such a huge complicated operation that you do not know.

You see, when you start doing My Pūjā you get your vibrations, you think, `Oh, Mother has given us vibrations.' It's not so simple. It's a very-very big operation, imagine, to get a car done is so difficult. Now here there are so many complicated stuffs and the whole universe is involved into it, so one has to work out very carefully.

So only thing, one should have a humility, why you don't understand Mother so much, it's all right, we have to understand our Mother more and more, so that education is also important.

So far you have had faith in Me, thank you very much for that and I hope you'll have more faith in Me and understand Me better, why I do certain things and why it is necessary. These cannot be rationalised unless and until you really reach that state of rationality, where the Spirit gives you the light to understand. Then you will see that time Mother will allow some time to pass and this happens, that happens, sometimes She may come earlier, later, it's little whimsical, to an ordinary person, but it is not, it is not. It is the working of the Divine, which is to be understood from the Divine point of view. See, from a human point of view it may also look crooked, it may look vicious sometimes, may look funny, but it's not so. It has to be done like that and I really use traditions to hide all that which looks funny to you.

That's how I manage, otherwise you would be surprised, the things I'm doing, like killing the Rākshasas and all that, is a horrible thing but I'm doing it, all these things.

You know I'm doing lots of things like I gave a bandhan to this Narakasura and they had no meetings, not a single person turned for their meeting.

So all these tricks I am playing, you may call it espionage or anything you feel like. You may call it anything very serious, what can I do about it? But it is so, one has to work out in this crooked world, you have to take them out and really do something about it.

So it is a big operation on, while you are the real people on the stage, I mean, the whole opera, everything is for you, the whole dressmakers and everybody is sitting at the back, they're all working it out, you are on the stage and you have to achieve it. You are the actors and you are the real things, which are going to give the show. That's true.

So if you have any questions, please ask and then we'll go ahead with this Pūjā business.

Ah, now I must tell you. The Indian Sahaja Yogis have bought for My toe-rings something, they bought for Me and these are of course are going to be at My personal archives, I must say. And I've sent it to be worn to the, for the program. `Cause they thought that the program is going to be in India. And they had made all these things, ornaments for Me there, but, poor things, I decided to come here and have the program. And they think you are specially privileged people, that I'll go to England.

But then I told them, “How many birthdays I've had with you, how many?" Then they kept quiet, you see. They thought, why this privilege to these people, Europeans and the English? So I said, “Now, how many birthdays I've had with you?" Because they had made all preparations, they had made all these toe-rings and everything for Me and you'd be amazed, how beautifully they had made these things.

So it is all right, we have to think of them and today, on the twenty second, they are having a big program and there, where there will be some speeches and things and some music program and it is free to all, I hope it will be successful. Must have started by now, it's about five thirty, six o'clock they are going to start, so it's about that time and that's how your Mother is postponing a little bit, if you don't mind.

All right. Any questions? [Kena?] [Talking to the baby and other remarks:] Hello! Yes! How are you! All born realised? Big people? Yes, coming on this earth? Quite shocked. You shouldn't laugh. They're all, they don't understand you, all right? Sorry, sorry, sorry.

So you come on this earth, all right, to help Me out. Isn't it, isn't it? You've come to help Me? Good. What about you? [UNCLEAR Yea], isn't it? All of you. Very good. Now grow fast. Hello, yes, you also have come? She has also, she has also, oh God! She's wearing salwar! Who got this salwar? From where did you get it? From where is this? This salwar and kurta, from where did you buy? Eh, channa. Channa [UNCLEAR]. What is it? What? Water? No-no-no, your laughing [UNCLEAR makes] the child cry. That's right, it is. Oh-oh, it's all right, it's all right, it's all right, it's all right, no, no, no, no, no, no. It's all right, it's all right, it's all right, see. No-no-no, doesn't matter, doesn't matter, it's all right. It's all right, they all laugh aloud, you see. [UNCLEAR]. Now what do you want? What? Channa. Now what is the thing? Any questions? Has Rajesh arrived? He telephoned to Me, I didn't know, I said forty eight. I hope he is not searching outside. Is there anything written down outside? Did he telephone? Is there any way to find the way? Sign is there? Hm. Any questions anywhere? All right, all right, all right. He's been told? All right, all right! What has happened? Doesn't matter, they laugh too much. What? You take the baby, go and take the baby. Did you take the baby? Go and look after the baby. Little baby's crying, oh, this the baby, come here, look after the baby. What? See, the baby put her on your lap, come along? Little baby [UNCLEAR].

Ha. No question? What about some questions? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What's she say? What is the [UNCLEAR]? Venerated? And? She's recently realised? Is she realised? Did you feel the Cool Breeze? Then you feel it towards the photograph, all right? You see, you see the thing is, it comes from, the origin of this question comes, because you are born in a Christian family, you see and that's what we accept as Christianity, as Hindus are born, they say “we are Hindus." You see, they don't think that you are born in that, so we've accepted a certain situation.

Now, in the Bible it's written that whatever is created by Mother Earth, whatever is created by Mother Earth and by the Sky, or they call it Firmament, should not be reproduced and worshipped, you see? Now it's a very clear-cut writing, very clear-cut if you think about it. We should first of all think, what is created by the Mother Earth. What is created by the Mother Earth? We never think on those lines! You see, because Bible is another thing which is a very diplomatic thing I should say in a way, because it was written at a time when everybody on top of them, so they had to write in such a way.

Now, what are the things created by Mother Earth are the things that have come out of the Mother Earth, which are vibrating, like I said Stonehenge. Now, you cannot reproduce it and worship it.

In India we have many places like that from where you can just feel the vibrations, do you remember, those who came to India, did you see that place near Musalwadi [UNCLEAR]? How Cool Breeze were coming out of that place, isn't it? So that cannot be reproduced, because human beings are going to reproduce. Whatever you reproduce is artificial.

Now, supposing you make a statue out of Me, that will be artificial. But not the photograph. The photograph is a real thing. Christ was, Himself was respected, you know that when He came, people bowed to Him on Palm Sundays, they laid down their cloths that He should walk over it. But Christ is different.

If there was an exact copy of Christ as the photograph, it would have vibration. Now, do you know, Moses was buried in Kashmir. Nobody will know that, but I know, that He was buried in Kashmir. And the Jews who disappeared out of the Roman clutches went down in India and settled down in Kashmir and they're called as Jews, actually, they're called, [UNCLEAR phrase]... may be one of the Jews, she might be.

They call themselves as Jews, actually they call themselves [UNCLEAR] they call themselves. But who will know this? Unless and until you have vibrations, how will you know that Moses was buried there? So, when you read Bible without your eyes being opened out, enlightened, you read it in the wrong way.

Now what your people may say about Mohamed? You see, Mohamed was a prophet, no doubt about it. And He was nobody else but Moses Himself. Let the Jews fight and the Muslims fight. I know for definite they are the same personality.

Yes, they will break their each other's necks, let them break. They're going to reach nowhere with this nonsense, because they were the same personality reborn. Moses was reborn to teach the Jews that `Baba, we are all human beings, there is nothing like you few people and they few people. They're all one in the eyes of God.' So this is what it is. Now, if you tell somebody that Moses died in India, they'll kill Me.

But it is a fact! And I can tell you exactly where He died. It is described. All the words that are used in the Bible that Nebu and all these places where He's buried, is the place there, in Kashmir.

So when we read Bible as Christians, you see, for us it is that any photograph is worshiped then we are worshiping a sort of a statue. Is not so. Supposing, there is an exact copy of Christ photograph, then it is not, because you are not reproduced, with your hands. The statues are made out of hands of human beings, but I was surprised that some statues are also vibrating. There are some statues, which are also vibrating. Surprisingly, some realised Souls can do it. That's why, in general it was written and this kind of a stamp that we wear, you see, from our childhood we are born as Christians, Hindus, Muslims, Jews, or anything, the stamp we carry so far, when we have had no experience of anything. But we are educated that way throughout, you see, that we carry it on, even realisation comes in, still we go on. It's a surprising thing how human beings take to artificial. Is all-artificial that you were born in a thing, your parents told you, you are a Muslim, or a Hindu, or a Christian whatever it is and you carry on with it.

But you don't want to think that you have to be born again! Why did they all say that you are to be born again? Because without being born again you will not know the reality. And whatever they have said is for your good, that don't worship anyone.

I would say, one should not worship Me also. Unless and until you are realised. I don't allow you to touch My feet if you're not realised. You have no business to touch My feet, I get the pangs. If an unrealised person worships My photograph I don't know what will happen to Me. But it's better to spare God, not to worship if you are not realised, is better to spare. If somebody is not a proper realised Soul, they come under My feet, I get blisters.

Do you know that? It's not easy, you know, to deal with people who are not properly realised. You see, we think we are obliging God, here God is obliging you, to be very frank.

That's the fact. You see, a person who comes to touch My feet thinks, that oh, he is surrendering himself. It is the surrendering of the Divine, I tell you. It's not easy. The other day I was in India, if you tell them, “Don't touch My feet." Here it is the other way around, because of Christianity, there's Hinduism.

So Hindus think, you must touch everybody's feet.

So when I say, “Don't touch My feet” that was the worst curse you can give upon them [UNCLEAR].

They said, “Mother, what have we done wrong?" I mean, all the philosophy came down. I said, “All right, Baba, touch My feet." My feet became so swollen, you won't believe, I couldn't even lift My legs.

See, this is what it is, you see, whatever you are branded with you carry on, carry on, carry on like that. But why not keep yourself open? Nobody has given you realisation so far. Has any one of these priests or anybody given you realisation? Nobody has. Accept the fact, finished. Then somebody has given you realisation. A person who has given you realisation must be someone, has to be.

I don't want to tell you like Christ to be crucified by you. But that is what it is, one should find out for oneself. Actually, we don't even give photographs to people who are not realised, to be very frank.

Because it is of no use, it is absolutely insulting to God to give the photographs to anyone who is not realised, who is not [UNCLEAR] Sahaja Yogi. We don't allow them to come to Pūjās also. You know that definitely, we don't allow many people to come in, I mean, you know that definitely. Because they don't understand.

So what's the use of calling them for Pūjā? This is one of the reasons we don't want people to come to Pūjā, who are not yet fully Sahaja Yogis. And the definition of a Sahaja Yogi we have found out is that the one who has given realisation to ten people at least. Those who have not given realisation to at least ten people, will not be called as Sahaja Yogi any further.

So this is a criteria that you should be able to give realisation to ten people, then only you are a Sahaja Yogi, then only you can worship the photograph, then only you can come to Pūjā, otherwise you cannot.

If you haven't achieved that much, you cannot come to Pūjā. This is in India, but it's working, because there people have done it. And you all have to do it also. All right.

[To the lady who asked the question:] So now, you have come for the first time? You've got your realisation? Who has given you? Who gave you the realisation? Who gave her realisation? Where did you get your realisation? Is it, at the Hampstead meeting? Is it? All right.

So it is important for you to watch now, all right? And see for yourself, because you didn't get it through rationality and whatever you knew about it, isn't it? It's something, a unique thing has happened, so you must watch and witness the thing, otherwise I would suggest you should not sit for [UNCLEAR full] Pūjā. [UNCLEAR] you get your realisation! Who is the one who says? [UNCLEAR]. No? Because you will go, you see, like that, you'll go little funny, you see, because you are still identified now with other thing.

To get identified with your spirit first and then do Pūjā, because you're not entitled according to us, see? So it is better from your point of view also, not to feel bad. But have you got your Cool Breeze in the hand, did you feel? [UNCLEAR]? Then it's all right. Now you watch, you see and don't make your mind think too much, otherwise it may spoil your chances, all right? So now take it like that. Is there anybody who hasn't got vibrations and is sitting down? Please, come forward honestly.

[To the baby:] He's taking a photograph. Is there anyone here like that? No one, all right, so it's all right, because it does spoil a persons chances, I know.

Now, any other questions? Sahaja Yogis don't ask any questions. Very clever.

[Shri Mataji gives directions about Pūjā:] All right, so now what one... these are [UNCLEAR] English you better read [UNCLEAR]. Now, now Gaurī, would you, now, give it to everyone, go and give it to everyone.

Contents: 1982-03-22*, Public Program, Reality Is What It Is, Caxton Hall, London, UK (other date (Mondays) 03-29)

It's not very easy to explain Sahaja Yoga to anyone, rationally, as you must have also faced the same difficulty. Not only that we are facing this difficulty but has been faced, faced by all the saints and all the incarnations including Christ, Blake, all of them. I've been reading Blake these days and Don wrote to Me that he's writing some sort of a thesis on Blake, friends, friends of sinners, written in his poems of such friends who are friends of sinners. But they could not communicate through human beings in that way as we could communicate because we can give Realisation, we can make them feel the vibrations first of all. Like you can sprout the seed and we can show how the seed then gets developing. You see, this is an advantage we have and today the time, time has come definitely to us that what Blake has desired and asked for or pictured or visualised, we can prove it.

Now when we explain Sahaja Yoga to someone we have to talk a little at the beginning because they haven't found their absolute. It is, it can be quite difficult and frustrating in the beginning to talk about something that is such a living process of our evolution. We cannot explain how we evolved into a human being and to explain how we are going to a newer dimension is also a difficult thing. How it is going to happen, how we are going to sprout, what is going to happen is unbelievably fantastic, absolutely fantastic and we can't believe that we could achieve that. People just don't want to believe that you can achieve it in this lifetime. They live in the future. As I told you last time we are futuristic people. You always think of the future. The dangers of future also I told you what happens to people by living in the future, physically, mentally and emotionally but spiritually it happens in such a way that you think that in this lifetime you cannot get your Realisation. You are quite convinced about it that you'll get it in the future because you live in the future.

So you can't accept the present in which you can get your RealisationThis is one of the biggest problems of Sahaja Yoga that today we are facing the futuristic society, which always lives in the future.

So to explain to them at this time, at this special moment, “You can get your Realisation." This time is meant for that. In the past this was the future. And this future has been predicted by so many so that future has come now and one has to face it as a present. Every future has to be present sometimes, not imaginary, but the real future that has to face you which was seen by seers and predicted has to be materialised. Once you understand this point then one can explain Sahaja Yoga that this is the time one has to expect their Realisation.

Now a man who thinks too much and who lives in the future would first shun it. Say that, “How can we get our Realisation in this lifetime?" One may say like that. Then the same person, the same person, may accept, “All right” if you're convince that, “You can get your Realisation" so...

[Aside:] Why don't you come here, downstairs? Who's there? Come downstairs, will be good idea.

So the second point he may raise as you must have also faced, is that, that even if you get Realisation, because he's futuristic, you see he's imaginary. Everything he thinks is imaginary, isn't it? Is not reality.

Reality is what it is. Supposing you want to think about this hall and you imagine this hall, it will be like this, like that and this will happen. It doesn't happen. It doesn't happen. It is not like that. What you see, what you feel is the way that you have to understand is the reality. But the people who live in futuristic ways are never realistic because they are imagining things.

So the second point that they tumble upon is their own conception about God and Realisation. That's not reality; reality is what it is. It cannot be changed; it cannot compromise. It is what it is. Now first for such a person whether they are futuristic or they are past-istic, you can say, the people who live in the past, all of them must resolve one thing very clearly, “Are you a seeker? Are you truly a seeker? Are you seeking the truth?" Then truth has to be not rational, not imaginary, but real. If so we should be prepared to face the truth as it is.

If you prepare the seeker like that, that as it is whatever is the truth you will face it, then the task is better. You prepare the person for Realisation in a better way. Beside the second type of people are such, those who have lived in a materialistic world, in the gross life, we live in the gross life every day to day.

For example, coming to Caxton Hall means money. Taking this hall on rent is money. We think of money.

If not of futuristic things we think of money. How we can do this hall, how we can take it on hire, how we work it out, all these are problems of money.

So if somebody says that you cannot get God by paying money for it, God doesn't understand money, not at all. You have made money. God doesn't understand.

Whether you pay Him or not He will make the place rain[ed] or He can give you fertile land. He'll give you fruits. He'll give you all the bounties and all the beauties of life. Whether you do anything for Him or not He is a giver. He go on giving. He doesn't know money. He will do it for the rich. He'll do it for the poor; He'll do it for everyone. But we think of money.

Naturally, it goes easier into your mind if there is somebody who says, “You can pay two pounds for coming in." That sounds better, because it must be worth something at least, you see, because we live in relative world of money. Actually, money has nothing to do with God's kingdom. There is no money in His kingdom. And you can understand rationally that how can there be? How much did Christ charge for His sermons? We have so many great people in this country, who did not charge anything for what they said or what they gave, who were real people. And the reality is always proved in the human beings when it is done free. That's the reality. All other things that are sold out are the things which are not real.

So when you come in, in the hall, you see a big hall and all that and a money-minded person might start thinking that, “How is it without money, these people are doing? How can they do it?" Now the thing is you are not. We should be discreet about the whole truth and then understanding that you are not paying for God's Love; you are paying for this hall. That you are paying, that's your business, not Mine. You are not paying Me for that. It's your business if you want to have a bigger hall. You can pay for it; all of you put together and can take a place whatever you like, if you want. If you want we can go to Hyde Park and have a free lecture there. Whichever way you say, I'm willing to do that. You cannot pay for it but you can pay for the hall because this is material, this is gross and you have to do it.

So one should understand that you are not to pay for this. You are not to pay for what I say to you, or for My lectures, or anything, or for your Realisation, not at all, not a single pie for that. You cannot pay for it. It is so invaluable. That's the only thing that's so invaluable, that one thing you cannot bring it to the level of this gross existence that we have. It is absolutely overflowing. It's absolutely freely coming to you.

So you cannot pay for it. It's Love and Love you cannot purchase.

Now, the second type of a people who come in, who are not futuristic, are the people who believe in the past. Now they have faced another type of problem. They come here. They will think, “Oh, Mother, we are such sinners. We've done this thing” I mean all the past that they have. But love never sees any faults of a person. That's the sign of love. If you love someone then you just love that person for love's sake. You don't do it because he's such and such and such and such, then you love that particular thing.

For example, you see a rich man comes in and there are ten people running around him. They are running around him for money. Of course, he doesn't give you anything. But you want to be seen with him so that people also think that you are also rich or whatever it is. Human beings have all kinds of funny ideas of living in imaginary world. But such imaginary world exists.

So when such people who live in the past, they come in getting, “Oh, God, I've done this and how will I face Mother or how will I face reality? I'm such a sinner” this, that. Now when you say you are the friends of sinners, the first conception only I don't want to agree that you are sinners. I mean, once you come to this place you are no more a sinner. I think, to My eyes nobody's a sinner. I mean if there is so-called sin, all right; it is because of your ignorance.

So I would say, “They are ignorant. They're ignorant. They are the ignorant people." If you have no lights and it's raining and it's bombarding and if you jump into a well is not the same, is it? Maybe deliberately you've jumped into a well.

Some people do, you see.

Some people are like this, `Come, oh bull and hit me.' There are people like that. That's true. That sort of people are also there but mostly it is a mistake, which is committed out of ignorance.

You did not know that it was wrong.

Today I was reading some chapters of Bible and I found that the punishment for doing wrong in Levi's this thing; chapters were just like Shariat as they have for the Islamic laws, just like that. You see, a man who takes another man's wife should be killed. That should be done. That was the time we were like that, you see, where we had to establish our sustenance. We had to be like that; otherwise, we would never have decency in life. I mean, we could not listen to anything without fear. That's the sign of people who are still much more ignorant and absolutely under bondage. Like I would say in Riyadh, My daughter went out and she wrote a letter to Me, that, “Of course, if you see from outside you will think that these Arab people are really very cruel because they force things and they make people so much religious by force.

But to Me it's a Heaven, because I don't need any force for it, because I'm brought up this way. I like it.

Because they don't tell you do any wrong things. There are no gambling dens, there are not hooligans, there are no rapes, nothing. It's such a wonderful place to live in. Nobody troubles you. You walk into any place, you take anything, no thieves. You don't have to lock your rooms, nothing, out of fear." This is done out of fear. But for people who are evolved and independent, fear is not going to help. We have reached a state where we have evolved.

It's time of Moses that these things happened. It's long, long, long, long time back when human beings were not evolved to that extent to understand that righteousness and goodness are good. We may do bad, we may do wrong things, we may try to harm ourselves. People do it, but in the hearts of hearts they know it is not good. It's not good. They should not have done it. Is wrong even to hurt someone.

Now human beings have evolved so much. Imagine the Romans, the way they behaved and the way they treated people in this very country of ours that they would go to any extent of killing people. But all that cruelty, that violence and that ruthlessness and you can call even the licentiousness and the permissiveness that which they destroyed themselves and there was a fall of Roman Empire, we can see clearly, because they have committed mistakes, we have [been through]. Because Hitler came in we know what violence is. And that's how we are correcting ourselves through our own people who are doing wrong things. Like one cell in the body becomes malignant and teaches the whole body to behave itself. In the same way any person who becomes overactive in any wrongdoing, he comes forward later on in the history as a person who should be abhorred, the person who should never be copied. He's the person whose name is never taken. That's how we were bent on learning, learning and today we are at a stage where we are free to choose whether the hell or the heaven.

So when you reach that stage then one should not think of sinning. That's over now because I've told you many a time that Christ, when He came on this earth, He created that special spot for us which is called as Āgñyā Chakra, which is at the crossing of ego and superego, that if you awaken Him, He can suck our sins.

So before His coming there was no such arrangement. He has been predicted in our Indian Purānas and was called as Mahāviṣhṇu. Of course, they cannot connect Him with Mahāviṣhṇu because those people who went to India and talked about Christ, horrible people. I mean, I must say that the way Blake described the priests, you see, it's so surprising. He says, “Go off a child. The priest put His hand on my head to baptize” you see, “and he actually cursed me." See how clearly he says that he was not a realised Soul and “he put his hand on my head and he really cursed me" because he had no right to do it.

So because of this conversion business and this nonsensical idea of spreading, you see, conversion, because they think religion is also some sort of a political style, so they went into India and tried to convert people. They thought if all of them became Christians then they will have a democracy of Christians there and that will be under rule of English, maybe. But other people also now feel, like many Muslims now are going to India and converting them, thinking that it will become Muslim majority and majority and minority and all that. They'll think on those levels, you see, but one should know that everywhere human beings are evolving and they will always ask for the religion that is real and God that is real. Whatever you may try, like the Muslims, Hindus, Christians, all of them have tried all these tricks of this gross level.

That's not the point at all. What you have to achieve is the understanding that you are a free person first of all, absolutely free. There should be no fear and there should be no compulsion. You are absolutely free because unless and until you are free you cannot go to that realm which is complete freedom, [till] you are absolutely free, to begin with.

If you are not a free person we'll have to make you free. For example, some people are, say, come here with drugs or with habits which are not good, or maybe some people come and which are detrimental to health, with the habits which are bad for the mental side, or some come from false Gurus who have problems from the false Gurus.

So these things are to be corrected first of all. But I would not call it a sinner, because for a mother to call her children sinners is a bit too much and I just can't think of such a situation where I could ever condemn any one of My children as sinners.

So I would not say that they are sinners, but I would say they are ignorant, they are stupid, they have been naughty and they have been dangerously playing with their lives and they have been unkind to themselves. You see, I cannot feel that way that somebody is a sinner who has committed sins and that such sins are there that cannot be rectified. It would have been all right before Christ's coming, that we would have talked of Karma [UNCLEAR], that we have done bad Karmas and our Karmas are there, so we are sinners and we are born as sinners. But Christ coming has a very big meaning, which I don't know how many these preachers have understood, that it means that He came on this earth to rectify our sins.

So we are no more sinners.

I mean, if there is someone who can rectify it, why should we call ourselves sinners? Why should we worry about it? The basic problem with human beings is this, that they are ignorant. On one side they are proud of it; on the other side they are frightened of it. Both the sides to My eyes is the same. Either you are frightened or you are proud of it. Is both one. The pride leads to stupidity and the frightening might lead to sort of a destroying capacity, in you, the way you go on destroying yourself by all the time cursing yourself and saying that, “I am bad” and, “I've done this bad and that bad." One has to get out of both these things and must know that you are a human being made out so many, what you call for unit cells, genes? The genes? Genes? Genes, so many genes through which you have passed and come to the stage where you are a human being. Is a special thing that is been created for a special thing after all. A human being is a special thing created for [UNCLEAR], is a special thing. But you are not the human being at the time of Moses. You are not the human being at the time when people were not evolved enough. You are people who are free to understand the value of freedom. If you understand the value of freedom you are the right people for Sahaja Yoga. When you have freedom then you must have discretion also how to use the freedom and respect that freedom and not to indulge into abandonment, which is stupidity.

So going to extremes either on one side or the other is perhaps a sin, is perhaps a sin and the sin so-called gives you a fear and aggression which is also a sin, gives you a pride, or a kind, not pride, I would say vanity, which spoils your vision completely.

So to talking to anyone who is a new comer, one has to be careful that either they are coming from this side or that side and dealing with them we have to be extremely patient and loving. For I've told you that love does not know faults, does not know faults and when we start finding faults with others we should know our love is not matured so much. I would like any Sahaja Yogi to tell Me about other Sahaja Yogi as a kind of a recommendation. Supposing I get angry with a person, I say, “Oh, he's, he's, he should try this. He should not have done this” or something. Then if a Sahaja Yogi tells Me, “No, Mother, maybe, you see” then I like it, I like it. Maybe I'm testing you. But if you tell Me to worse even worse than that then I feel, “Oh, these people are not loving." I'll test your love also, whether you really love each other or not, because love is something that's a release. Actually, it's a release. Love is within you and say, for example, for Me when I love you it's a release of My boundless love within My heart. You see, it gives Me such a release and such a relief and such a joy that I'm loving. I mean, it's flowing to you. If it doesn't flow then I don't know how to work it out. If somebody is unkind, is not willing to receive it, then I don't know how to work it out, you see, how to go round the person and I'm not so good at conniving things and being artificial, you see. Then I try some other tricks, you see, of working it out. But if they can receive your love I'm sure they will realise that you are the people who are out here for love.

The other day we had a case in Rahuri. Actually, I'd gone to a village where about three to four cars coming suddenly in a village. I was surprised how these people are coming, from where? And they came down with their diseases; actually car people always have diseases, I think.

So they came with their diseases: somebody is diseased; somebody, another one is diseased; and there was one boy, he was down with blood cancer in New York. I said, “Now that's too much. In New York, you have sent him there in a hospital and the doctors won't be good enough." He said, “Doesn't matter, Mother. As long as You give him vibrations from here we don't mind." So I took the photograph. I gave vibrations to the child and I told them that, “You telephone to Christine” [UNCLEAR] I gave them the number, “and tell her that these things to be done and Mother has given your address." Now Christine looked after this boy, Christine and Herman and all these people who are there who are mostly new Sahaja Yogis, except for Christine, all of them are absolutely new. And they went and looked after this boy and this boy was cured.

And the doctors were surprised, you see, that this boy was going to, supposed to be, I mean, futuristically they said that he's going to die within eight days' time. And he didn't die, not at all. He survived and then there's found all negative reading there and he came down to see Me. I, of course, worked on him and saw to it that it is removed completely from its roots. I worked on him but when I saw him I was amazed that his left Nābhī which is the cause of this trouble was completely working all right. There was some problem still left but they did that. And the mother, you see, who has met with a very sad experience, her husband was killed on a highway by robbers in her presence with these two small little children sitting in her lap, when, about ten years back when this boy was hardly six years of age and another brother of his about four years of age. And this woman was so shocked and after that to get this kind of a disease for the son, you see. And what she told Me that was so heartening. She said, you see, “These are all angels, I felt. They didn't ask for anything. Day and night they came and work for this boy. They were so kind and they came all the time and worked and did so much. Mother, what have you given them?" I said, “I've done nothing. I've just done nothing. They have got their own Realisation." And they said, “We can't imagine human beings with that selfless. We are all selfish people. We are really very selfish. They are so selfless. How did they work it out? We just can't understand how it has worked out." But it has worked out and the boy is cured and they were so sweet. They spent their own money to come to the hospital and they looked after, the doctors were amazed because doctors, they had, they, The woman had to sell lots of her things, because she's a rich woman, no doubt, but she had to sell one of her factories to go to America to pay for the doctors there. And she said that, “These people would come down and they would come one after another and look after the boy every day and struggle through and they consoled me and told me that, `Don't worry. He'll be all right.' They gave me Realisation." And the heartening thing that they said was that they were so selfless. They didn't ask for any money, nothing. And they enjoyed, you see, they enjoyed their love, what they did for this woman.

And this is what it is that when you are realised you have to give it. If you don't give it then you stagnate, you stagnate and there is no fragrance about it, no fragrance, no fragrance. And you lose your vibrations. Your progress also retires.

I know it's very hard in these modern times to create a group of people who can love. You can create a group of people who can hate. Supposing tomorrow you start one big procession, “We hate God. We hate love. We hate this” you'll get thousands of them standing with you, “Yes, oh, we hate” you see. For hatred you'll get thousands of them with banners, you know. They'll pay for it and come down to show that they hate, because hatred is a very cementing force among human beings, surprisingly. Hatred is a cementing force. It looks like something, such a contrast, but it is so. I mean, when you try to collect people in the name of hatred, people join. They have never exploited the powers of love, never. I wish they had. All our wars, all our things have come out because we hate each other. Imagine, only human beings can hate that much. Animals can't hate so much as they can.

So this love, which is Divine Love, which thinks, which coordinates, which understands, which is dynamic, it's so fantastic, it's so all-pervading, it lives in every particle of the matter, of the emotions, of the mind, of the heart. Everywhere it exists that power you can have within yourself. It's too much to believe. Too much a tall story for anyone, but this is the fact. The time has come. It could not be done earlier, I agreed, but the time has come. You have evolved to that state and that's why it has to happen.

Now if people do not accept, I must say this, futuristic problem, in case human beings do not accept it in a big number and become that, we cannot avoid the third world war. By that war a new consciousness may rise where people will understand this hatred is the worse thing. Perhaps we need a third shock; we have had two. Perhaps we need a third shock, to give us that elevation, to get that position of higher consciousness, where we start realizing that this thing's based on materialistic and on hatred, gross living, is most dangerous to humanity. Then such people who really believe in love will rise and come up and they might be the ones who will be saved.

So we should at this stage try to save as many as possible from this horrible sinking māyā of hatred. Now talking about it has been done. Establishment of your sustenance has been done in the sense that if you can awaken that sustenance within you, on the void, you can achieve it. But main thing is even after Realisation to identify yourself as a realised Soul, absolutely, that you are being given something very special, that you have your Spirit, which is manifesting and that you have to make good out of it, that you have to give it to others, that you have to work it out, you have to be a collective being and not a secluded person just attached to few minds [UNCLEAR] my house, my husband, my wife, my children, my chair, you can say, my hair, my nose, everything, whatsoever. To reduce yourself to that small world but to expand yourself to that great world which is Jehovah's world, which is Kṛiṣhṇa's world, which is Virāta's world, where you become one with that primordial being, where you become an active cell of that primordial being, that's the thing one has to do. And that breakthrough has to take place.

Now one may say that all the Scriptures are wrong, everything is wrong, that all these manifestations are wrong, Christ was no good, that He was not practical, anything one may say, there's, I mean, you have freedom to say what you like. But you must have wisdom to see that if there is a way, what must be the way? If there is a way for the emancipation of human beings there is only one way; there's no other way. I mean, whatever you may be [UNCLEAR] an intellectual or, say, a emotional person or anything, whatever it is [UNCLEAR] but you will reach one conclusion. There's only one way and one way is transformation of human beings to that level where they really say what they mean. They become. They talk of worldwide brotherhood. They talk of everything. We have all kinds of organizations doing all this nonsensical work, you see. We have U.N. system and we have World Government ideas. We talk of love, helping Vietnamese, this, that. All sorts of things are there. But actually we are not. Face to face we are not. Face to face we become ourselves and that's why to become that, the becoming of it is important; the transformation is important. Once you are transformed to identify yourself with that transformed state is also important and that is only possible when you start allowing that transformation to take place within you, in thoughtless awareness where you do not think and impose things on you.

People get their Realisation, all right. Last time so many got it. I do not know how many came back.

And then they do not think that there is any further is needed, because once you get your Realisation you can be very in a joyous state, blissful state. You might feel the vibrations very well, you'll be very happy and then you'll get lost. That's not the point. You have not achieved your complete growth unless and until you have manifested your self. But such people may be very few, I do not know, may be very few who will really take to that maturity. Once you have matured is joy, is happiness. You become what you have to become, you find your absolute meaning and that has to happen. For that I'm sure Gavin must have told you that there's a Kuṇḍalinī and there are Chakras and all this is already a new place, the machinery is there. Is not a machinery as this one is which is dead, the machinery that understands and that loves you, that loves, that's the part of this loving machinery of God and that is what it manifest is the Divine Love of God through you, which you can manoeuvre. By this you may be able to manifest your voice but with that machinery when it works, when it is put to the mains, it works out that Divine Love.

So to explain things to people of different various types that they have come we normally divide them into three, as you know: the people who are ignorant; [here] the people who are aggressive and up in vanity, who are vain about themselves, they think no end of themselves; and the thirdly the people who are neither vain nor afraid.

Those are friendly, pleasant people; good people who lead a life of moderation, who do not, are exclusively. They do not ask for separate food, separate living, separate room, separate chair but those who like to share. That type of central type of people, that type of people are best suited for Sahaja Yoga and such people should be really tackled first. Then the people who are sort of humble people, they are humble down and those who think they have done some mistakes, they are better. But aggressive people, you be careful dealing with them because you might get a punch on your nose as soon as you talk of love, you see.

So be careful. Like there was a cartoon, a gentleman sitting on a hedge, you see and somebody came and asked him, “Which is the way to go to Wimbledon?" So he was sitting there and he said, “No, sorry, the last one gave me a punch, I'm not going to tell you." That's what it is. You see, there are some people whom you cannot talk, tackle, because they are so aggressive. It's better not to argue with them or deal with them. Best thing is to leave them alone as they are and let them grow, let them find out.

Because all these people will develop bombs, all aggressive people will develop problems for themselves.

First of all they cannot sleep in the night. That's one thing happens to them when they are aggressive, right-sided people. They'll have high blood pressures, they'll have hot tempers, they may have divorces, they may fight with everyone. Ultimately they'll be find they are lost, not wanted by anyone. They will be meticulous, they will develop kidney troubles and they will develop a funny trouble where they won't remember their past, even their names they may not remember. Then they will come round. See, so allow them to have their nice time but don't butt with them. I would advice all the Sahaja Yogis, to see if there's an aggressive person, you just don't go near them because I don't want My children to be hit by anyone for no faults of theirs, you see.

So such people must be avoided. Let them face life as it is. Let them get hits. They will get. They punish themselves by their stupidity that they are doing. See all their stupidness will be shown in different ways and they'll have to face it and then they'll come round. But these two types of people, one must tackle and must now do it in a big way.

Because this is a very big year for reality to be established according to certain predictions. I don't know how far to believe in predictions of modern times but olden times predictions are so wonderful that I just can't imagine that how people could see so many things about Sahaja Yoga. Two thousand years back a great seer called Bhrigu has written something so great about Sahaja Yoga, that a new method will be devised by a Mahā Yogi [UNCLEAR] they call Me Mahā Yogi [UNCLEAR] who will be Parabrahma incarnate and will give Realisation without any difficulties, raising the Kuṇḍalinī and people will get it and this will happen, that will happen and they'll be able to see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī. All the details of Sahaja Yoga he has given two thousand years back. He's one of the greatest astrologers we have in India called as Bhrigu and he's written down all these things on the lotus paper, you see, which they used to use a lotus leaves to write. In those days they had no paper.

So two thousand years back, imagine [UNCLEAR] maybe more, you see, according to English standard, maybe two thousand [UNCLEAR] but I think it's much more that he has written about five, six thousands years back. He has written about this just after Kṛiṣhṇa that this thing will happen and a Mahā Yogi will be born who will give Realisation to people and such a time will be coming.

So under these circumstances one has to see. Now I don't want to say I'm a Mahā Yogi or anything; just I don't what to say because I don't want to have a punch on My nose. But I would say that you should find out for yourself whatever it is, you see, instead of crucifying Me. Thank God you can't crucify now, under the circumstances but you will be the loser, not Me.

So I would say all those who are aggressive by temperament should know that there must be some way of getting out of it. Even aggression, you see, it's in the present state of human mind. It's very repulsive. You don't like it. You don't like those who aggress yourself. When you aggress anybody you repent after that. You don't like it, that, “Why was I so rude? I could have been better. Why should I be disturbing someone? Why should I be like that?" you see? So it is, I think, in a way recoiling on people and they don't like themselves, as others don't like them. They also don't like themselves when they are aggressive with others and very malignant by temperament. They don't like themselves. They want to change; so even this may happen. I would suggest that we must very gently go but firmly and with a speed. We have to work it out and I'm sure it will work out and many people will get Realisation and will understand Sahaja Yoga. May God bless you all.

Now for all the people who have come for the first time I have to request that after giving Realisation you must give some time to yourself. Be kind to yourself. Go with it. Learn everything. Master it. It's very simple. There is nothing much to be [UNCLEAR learned/done]. It's very simple. It's a child's play.

Even children are good at Realisation. Even little baby can do that.

So one should learn and try to give Realisations to others. And one should not waste energy in running away from it and then coming after ten months and saying, “Mother, I've caught here. This has happened. That has happened." It's a thing which is most enjoyable. You must give one day in your lifetime to God who has created you. And you [devote] little time to your Mother also who wants that everybody must get Realisation. If everyone of you wants to escape it, then who is going to work it out? I know you are, seem to be very busy people.

Some of you are extremely busy, but busy for what, business for what? What is the name you are going to leave in this world? As a man who earn little money more than the others, that's all? I mean, you cannot earn as much as Mister Ford can earn.

So why there is a competition about it? Only thing is that you'll have no satisfaction of earning money. You will be always running mad with it. You must take out some time for your growth and your meditation by which you understand yourself and you understand others and help others.

Life is not worth living for yourself. It's a useless life which lives for oneself. You must live for the whole. You must understand that the whole, if you accept, you become the whole. If the drop accepts the ocean you become the ocean. Why not we become the ocean instead of little drops, which are just evaporated by heat of the sun or by anything? You can be lost.

So why not become the ocean, ocean of love, ocean of forgiveness and ocean of compassion? May God bless you all.

Now if you have any questions please ask Me... None... What is it? Question: [about eating meat].

Shri Mataji: Meat, all right. Now, I'll tell you about meat. Very important, you see. We must have compassion for human beings. What's the use of saving the chickens? Can I give them Realisation? Simple thing. See now, chickens if you eat in compassion, you can. Because when you eat a chicken it goes into evolutionary process. It improves its evolutionary process. But you shouldn't eat animals which are bigger than you in size, because they give you troubles and problems and they make you aggressive. A person who eats aggressive animals or animals which are bigger than them, then they go more to the animal stage because they become aggressive, because they have, you see, these bigger animals have grown more than you. That's why they are animals.

So one should not eat animals which are bigger than you. And they are the animals who have the feeling of compassion. They are the animals who have a feeling of oneness with you. For example, you see, a dolphin I would say, a sailor will never eat a dolphin or kill a dolphin because it's very near human level, you see. It is just like us. It has emotions. It has feelings. It can come and entertain you and all that.

So that's a higher animal. But if he, if he's like that, you see, worried about even the worms, how far can he go? Everything must have limits.

Like there is a cult in India called Jains, you see. They try to save even mosquitoes, can you believe it? and even the bugs and they place bugs higher than human beings. They collect bugs, put them in a hut and put a Brahmin in there and pay the Brahmin. And poor Brahmin has to feed these bugs. It's a true thing and today also they are doing it. Can you believe it? And feed the bugs, compassion you know.

So they are feeding the bugs on that poor Brahmin, give him money and when the bugs are full and fall off his body they give him money and something like that. Can you imagine this kind of a nonsensical compassion? So you have to draw a line. Everything is to be not to be taken beyond the line. You see, this is called as Maryādā in Sanskrit that how far to do, how far to go with your compassion.

So our compassion should be extended up to first of all human beings. Are we compassionate towards our fellow beings? We are not. First of all, let's try there, all right? First, let's try here [UNCLEAR] human beings [UNCLEAR] and you'll be surprised we'll never end it. We can't even cross the limits of human beings. Then compassion to animals who live with us, all right? Like dogs, we can say, horses, cows, all these big animals, which live with us, dolphins, which are something evolving. Already they are evolving, it's an evolving state. But if you eat a chicken, I'm sure if I eat a chicken, I'm sure of that, it will become a better thing, something better. It will evolve, no doubt.

So the compassion that we have for bugs, it's of no use; or mosquitoes, it's of no use. But compassion for human beings. We are not even compassionate to our own children, you know. In this country I was amazed. First I used to say in England two children are killed by their parents but now I heard it is only in London city we do this. Can you imagine the way we are compassionate? They are vegetarians who are killing their children. What do you say to that? This is not compassion.

So these are ideas we have got. We must understand how far to go with things like compassion, like mercy, like peace. Peace is all right till you reach a stage where you supposing you get a devil who is destroying. Say at the time when Hitler came in, that time to be peaceful would have been absolutely cowardice, isn't it? You had to fight him out. He was a devil.

So you had to fight and that's how I say Churchill was a great man to fight him.

That's what it is, you see; so that is the limit where you go. You cannot have compassion for a person like Hitler, can you? What compassion? Did he have any compassion for anything? So compassion must have its understanding, its discretion, its wisdom. All right? Now supposing if you ask Me, `Mother, give Realisation to Hitler.' Why should I? I will not. He's destroyed so many good people. He has destroyed all the values and he has destroyed the basics of human beings. Let him go to Hell and suffer for some time. That's what I will say as a Mother, isn't it? Won't you say that for your own children? All right, I have compassion for My children, I have compassion for evil people who are doing wrong, but not for people who are so destructive, not for them because they go against the plans of God. They are anti-God. They are indulging into anti-God activities. In the laws of God they are to be punished. Definitely they will be punished. Even if I do not punish them God will punish them, no doubt of that. They must be punished. Otherwise, how are you going to be saved? All right? Like Kṛiṣhṇa who killed Rākshasas. The Goddess killed many Rākshasas. The devils, She killed them. Now, She should not have had compassion with these horrible ones, She should have? Because they were killing all the saints and all the great people they were killing. That's no compassion there, they're there to be killed. And these, these Jains do not believe in Kṛiṣhṇa because they said that because He killed those demons, they don't want to believe in Kṛiṣhṇa.

Now Christ they believe because He forgave those who were crucifying Him. All right, He did it because He was capable of that. His forgiveness itself, it's a punishment to these. His forgiveness is very great.

He knew that God is going to punish them so much that He had to put in a word for them, because they were ignorant people.

So that's what it is.

So our compassion must be dealing, must be limited to a point where our wisdom takes it. It should go to that absurdly wit where we go up to mosquitoes and up to, even mosquitoes, they don't kill, you know. Even when they go in the W.C., you see, they don't allow the worms in that to be killed. Can you imagine such dirty, filthy people in the world? This is going too far, don't you think so? So where do we draw the line? Let's draw the line. Now in a place like, say, Iceland or one, I would say Arabia, some places where they do not get a single blade of leaf, not a single blade of leaf, how are they to live? God has given them only animals to eat. Now are they supposed to die? Or if they eat are they committing a sin? First of all, you must be compassionate so yourself to exist, isn't it? If you don't exist what's the use of all the compassion of the dead? How can they be if all are deadliness, Eskimos are all dead? How can they show compassion? So they have to be living, isn't it? So we have to understand in a complete discretion. All right? You understand My point.

Now compassion has got eyes, has got understanding. It's very understanding. It knows each and every thing. Love is the thing that knows each and every thing.

So let love work it out. All the animals which are not bigger than you, which are not evolved so much, if you eat them then they can evolve but that doesn't mean you should start eating worms, you see again. You see, everything I have to tell the other side of because human beings always go to extremes of everything, isn't it? Now if I say that you should eat all the smaller animals that doesn't mean you should gulping, gulp down cockroaches down your mouth, you see. It doesn't mean that. You see, so again it comes, you see, the discretion part of it.

You see, you shouldn't go to an extreme of everything. All right? On the contrary I would say that people who have eaten too much meat should not eat so much. They should reduce a little bit. They will be less aggressive, no doubt. But like in India, you see, we eat so much of vegetables. It's not necessary. We can eat meat a little bit there. And you can also eat lean meat or meat of chicken and all that is all right. But don't eat these beef and horses and elephants and tigers and snakes. See, they are not good for you.

So people eat snakes and they eat cobras and I don't know what all they eat. I don't know.

So, lizards, I mean things like that. You shouldn't eat all these things and also animals like frogs. I don't think frogs should be eaten very much. It's a funny animal isn't it? Frog is poor thing. Frog is one very special animal. I should say. You see, out of love for the frog I say don't eat it. Really. Because I don't know if you know but people have found frogs living in ancient rocks closed up completely, absolutely. Is a fact, you see. And there is water provided for the frog by God. Frog, is a special animal, very much loved by God. And for billions of years frogs have survived.

So you can imagine how this must happen, must be something special about them. That's why out of love for them we should not eat them, I think, the frogs, you see. Or, for example, monkeys. I don't know if you eat monkeys, do you? Do one in any country do they, eat monkeys? Monkeys they eat? Where? Australia? Really? Where? Indonesia? Really? That's one place where they should not. I don't know. They are another wonderful people, these monkeys are, I mean and we should eat animals which will not be completely destroyed also. You should try to save animals, all the animals as far as possible and just not kill them and finish them off. It's like, you see, going to extremes in everything as we do it. Alright? May God bless you.

Now, any other question? It was a good question you asked because there is a misunderstanding about it, people have. Fasting also in Sahaja Yoga is not allowed, to fast. You can fast just for your health sake but not fasting for God. Please don't do it. God doesn't want you to fast or suffer. He wants you to be happy people. Why for Him? You can, you can fast for yourself [UNCLEAR] that's a different point [UNCLEAR] but not for God. Christ has done for us forty days. We need not do anything. He has done all the sufferings for us. We should not say we have to suffer. If you say that, you'll get another Hitler.

Jews said that; so they got the Hitler.

So don't say, `We want to suffer.' If you want to suffer, then have Hitler. If you want to have Realisation, then Mother can be there. But otherwise you can have Hitler if you want to suffer. Simple. Whatever you want it's supplied on a plate.

What? What? Easter? I will be speaking on it on Easter day. Will you be there? I've spoken about it twice, about Easter, the significance of egg and everything and if you have got the magazine of Nirmalā Yoga this time, there is an article. Did you get that? No. You didn't get that? Oh, I see. Maybe you see, this time, what he was saying that is difficult to send it collectively. There's some sort of an export problem. You see, every country has problems like that.

So if you send your individual names, you see, it would be easier to send them directly. Of course, it will be little more expensive for them for the posting but they said they can manage. Directly if you send is much better than to send them collectively. And Gavin can arrange that. I'm surprised that's a problem, there's a problem on that, but I have got it about eight days back and nice things I've said about Easter. And one more, was a very good lecture, I don't know if you have got it [UNCLEAR but] where I talked about the egg, what's the meaning of egg in Mahāviṣhṇu [UNCLEAR], all these things I've said in there. And again on Easter I'll speak. On the second of April. That's when is the Easter on? Eight? Ninth? Ninth. Ninth is the crucifixion, all right.

On the second of April is Ramanavi. Ramanavi is the day when they celebrate Rāma's birthday. That day also in India they fast. That's another stupidity, is to fast on a day when somebody is born in your family, to fast. It's nonsense. Why should you fast? You must celebrate. You see, it's nonsensical. And I don't know why Brahmins have given these ideas to Indians to fast. You see there because they take all the money; so they must fast a day and give all the money to Brahmins, you see. That must be the reason, fasting. Because on that day somebody's born, why should you fast? In India everybody fasts on the day Kṛiṣhṇa is born, Rāma is born, they all fast. I don't know why. What is the need to fast on that day but to celebrate that they are born? Is absurd, you see, fasting of this kind.

Food is not so important in Sahaja Yoga, it's not. Food is not at all important, you'll be surprised whatever you get.....

..... Migraine is caused by many things.....

[UNCLEAR] it's all.

So first of all you'll start talking about energies [UNCLEAR... form]. These energies are moving within us and how they activate. Then you talk of the third energy which is the one which has evolved us and that's how we are here. And you talk about your Self, the controlling part, which is controlling you, the Spirit.

So if you go on, on [an] abstract line it would be very appealing, I tell you. Then afterwards, you see once you have talked about energies, this, that... once the people... “that is within you"... you see, sort of they'll feel ego, this thing, “Oh, we have this energy, we can utilize this energy, do this, do that." And then you'll bring them down to Sahaja Yoga, later on. But to begin with, let us talk of abstract. Because Indians are different and Western people are different. They are fed up of religions, they are fed up of all these things.

So if you talk of religion, it gives, it creates a problem. That's why in the beginning, you see, Vedas, when they were written down, they didn't talk of God or Deities at all. They talked about God, God the Creator, but just about Brahmadeva throughout, Hiranyagarbha, Brahmadeva, right side, they talked, you see. And the whole thing is said, mantra is like: `Bhūr Bhuvah Swāhā', three things.

Now, Bhū is actually the Mūlādhāra, is the earth according to Me, Mūlādhāra. Mūlādhāra Chakra and Mūlādhāra itself.

Then Bhuvah. Bhuvah is the one which is called the antariksha [the whole Creation], is the one which is all-created. Then it talks of Brahmadeva. Then Swāhā. Swāhā is capacity to burn off, of the Agni, you see? It is so surprising and then they talk of Mahā Tapaha, Tapaha Ma... and Mahā. `Bhūr Bhuvah Swāhā Mahā Tapah.' So when they talk of Swāhā, then talk of Mahā. Mahā is Viṣh[n. ]u... what you call `The Great', `Allah hu Akbar'. And of tapa. Tapa is the one where you have to become a tapaswi, means a person who is going into penance, that of Christ. And they say that you have to penetrate through the Sūrya. That is this [Āgñyā].

So the whole thing is in such an abstract way and then you get to your Moksha.

So they have talked of all the Chakras. But if you talk about the abstract part of it, people have no objection, they listen to it, they say, [UNCLEAR “It's OK to listen to"/”is a very good thing"].

There's no religion as such.

So, today specially I'm talking about Vedas and this [these] havanas we do. When we do the havan it is a yagñya. Yagñya means `by which you know'. Yagñya means `to know', Ya-gñya. And this is done where you use swaha as the word. That means you use the principle of fire to burn off all that is wrong in you, `Swāhā'. And you awaken it by taking the different names of the God. And it started at the time of Rāma.

Today is Rām Navamī. I should say it was not started, we should say, but it was very much in vogue when Rāma lived and they used to do yagñyas at that time. The reason was, that the people had just started realizing that there is something higher and you have to worship that higher Self, the seers said and they thought that the best thing is to do yagñyas. The same thing.

On the left side, of course, the people started the worship of God and the dedication to God and all those things. That is `Bhakti ' [devotion]. But mainly what they did before Rāma was the Yagñyas, the Vedas, with which they prayed to different elements. Elements have made our Chakras and they tried to evoke the deities of the Elements. But actually it amounts to the same [thing].

So, as a child, Rāma was studying with a very great saint and when he was studying with him, Vaffsis.t.

ha was the name of the great saint. And Vaffsis.t.

ha had an ashram where Rāma and his brothers studied.

[Aside:] Come along! Come in, come forward. Give her a chair to sit down. Can you, is there a seat here? I think Gavin can go, lots of seats are there.

Rāma was studying with this Vaffsis.t.

ha and they used to come for holidays to father's place. Then, he had the capacity to kill a demon with only one arrow. It's called as ekabani. One arrow was sufficient of Śhrī Rāma. And he was a small little child, say about seven-eight years of age and people were surprised how he could do it.

So whenever they had a Yagñya, now these Yagñyas were created to awaken, evoke the Deities inside the spinal column, actually. And for these Yagñyas they used to sit down and do all these havanas the way we do it. But at that time the Rākshasas would come and try to spoil the Yagñya.

Because Yagñyas are to be done with a pure heart and with cleanliness and with purity. It should not be insulted. There is a protocol about it. While they [Rākshasas] thought that, “If we insult the Deities there, then the Deities will disappear and their Yagñyas will be spoiled." Now these Yagñyas were done, in the olden times even, even when Rāma was not here.

But at the time of Rāma also, there were some Rākshasas who took a special pleasure in spoiling these Yagñyas and Rāma as a child would go and protect them from the demons. And the demons would take on some sort of a funny form and come like invisible creatures and put some bones of animals and things like that in the Yagñya. And that would spoil the effects of the Yagñya. And Rāma would protect that, as a child. Imagine, as a child he used to do that! They would be doing the Yagñya and he would be sitting outside with all his small brothers around him and they would kill the demons who would try to destroy the Yagñyas. This is the early life of Rāma, in which you see... in which you see how, as a child also, he showed as amount of... expertise you can say, in arrow and bow.

So any time you see a statue, how to make out if it's a Rāma statue, is to see if there's an arrow and a bow, then it's a Rāma's statue.

Now His coming on this Earth gave us the development of the right side and so the Yagñyas were also on the right side. Because first of all when human beings came on this Earth, they were frightened of all the animals who would invade them and all kinds of horrible Rākshasas and all those people and negative forces they would trouble them.

So, in that state they needed to create a king, a ruler, who was an ideal king and he who would rule according to the laws of Dharma.

So He was the One in charge of that... era, what we call as Satya Yuga you can say, but actually, He was here in Treta Yuga and Kṛiṣhṇa came at the time of Dwapar Yuga.

And today is the time, when I came it was Kali Yuga. But now, today, the time is of Krita Yuga, the Yuga where work will be done: `Krita' means, `work will be done'. This is the time where work will be done.

So how things have moved from one to another? Now in the Dwapar [Treta] Yuga when Śhrī Rāma came, the idea of kingship, kingship and rulership started.

So the greatest emphasis was on the goodwill of the people. The people had to have goodwill: for the people and for the king and for the betterment of humanity. The will, that is the right side.

So how to create the goodwill? [Aside:] Thank you.

First the leader has to sacrifice and show how far he can go in sacrificing to keep the moral and the goodwill of the people.

So the right side was created by the advent of Śhrī Rāma because he showed a path of creating among people the awareness that they should be ruled, that they should not be anarchists, there should be one head who should be able to organize, coordinate and work out a collective thing.

You see, when we think of a king we want to oust him because we don't like the idea of being ruled by them [him]. Because he's not a good king perhaps, or he doesn't represent that will of the people which is a common will, which creates this king who rules for the maintenance of that goodwill. You see, it as a symbolic expression of your goodwill.

So when you create a law, it is also the expression, common expression, of all the common people, of the common feeling that they should abide with law. It doesn't come to you that ah... you are a slave, or you have to be dominated, or you have to be put down, but it is only your common will, which is good.

The desire of all the people which is the good, righteousness, incarnates as Śhrī Rāma and He looks after that will. Because, supposing an individual starts saying that, “This is not good, this is not good." An individual might take a different attitude about things. But you must have a symbol of that goodness placed onto someone. And those symbols were created to symbolize your righteousness, your sense of good, so that you can be saved yourself! Supposing today somebody comes and hits you. Alright? Now you can feel how bad it is to be hit by someone or murdered by someone, so you decide there should be a law protecting you. But tomorrow you may do the same thing.

So what you do is to take out your goodwill, represent it as the kingdom or a king or a governing body.

So, the governing as it is represents, should represent also, in both ways. It's not that it always represents. It may not at all represent, may not, possibly. But, that the government itself should represent the good in you, the purity in you, the pure will to be good, to be protected and that you should also abide by it. It's a very mutual thing.

But what happens that, once you start electing someone like that, or making someone like that, or appointing someone like that, as usual, he goes into an ego trip. [It's] a simple thing like that. It's absolutely a simple ego trip. The government gets into an ego trip, people get amazed how people behave.

They'll elect, supposing, a Prime Minister and suddenly you find the Prime Minister behaves like a brute and you can't understand, “We have elected somebody like a Prime Minister thinking that he will do the good to us." You see. It's possible. And then the revolutions take place while people revolt, fight it out.

Again the will of the people fights it and makes it alright.

So we have to have something absolute because all these values are changing every moment. Isn't it? We think that this government did not do so well, for example, we think like that, so we want to demolish this government. Then we bring another one and we find the same thing happening. See, whether you bring a communist or you bring a socialist or you bring a democrat or you have a monarchy, whatever you may have! But still, what happens actually is that, all these things that come up and go away...

[Aside:] Gavin come here. Can you move forward a little bit so that everybody can be seated?... all these changes that take place go on creating a feeling in a man that we should be anarchist. Why should we have any government? Why should we have any king? Why should [we] be ruled by anyone? Because you find the person who's ruling is not up to the mark and he is just trying to deceive you. At that point you have to have some absolute standards.

If you have an absolute standard then you can always judge that this king is deviating from the right path, is not doing what a king should do.

A king has to be like Rāma. He has to be like Rāma. Representing your will, your goodwill, your sense of proper judgement, fair play and righteousness. If the king is not righteous then your collective goodwill will go against the king.

Now you go and throwing one from another. Say, I've seen now for example in France: We had one kind of a Prime Minister. He did lots of things which were not good so he was thrown away.

So you had another one kind of one. Now he's doing another thing, so he's going to be thrown away. And we are just going, playing games you see. First of all we have say, Labour Government. We don't like it.

So then we have another Government, Conservative Government. We don't like it. Throw it away! Go on playing with it all the time. But in this relativity we are improving, definitely. We are more aware, understanding the value of these people and also the public is understanding. But then when too many such people come in who are negative, they also bring down the will, the collective will, very low. And people start identifying themselves with these autocrats or those people who are ego-orientated, who have no moral values, who have no fear of God, who deny religion, who deny evolution and the Government starts behaving in such a manner that you are amazed, how this is the Government? Like in Chile and Argentina, the way the Government is behaving and is putting down the people. All these things are happening. You don't know.

It's such a relative terminology. Like El Salvador, you don't know what to do over there now, whom to support. Whether to support the Americans, or to support the Russians and all that. Now, under these circumstances a Sahaja Yogi can stand and say, “Now, what to do? Should we join this or that?" All is a wasteful thing. It's just a game going on. Let them break their heads. They are good for nothing. Useless people.

So you cannot solve these problems and you are not supposed to solve them. They must get their Realisation and establish the Kingdom of God.

So [that] really Rāma rules on this Earth and not these horrible kings who change their morality every day, who change their ideas every day, those whose will is sometimes for something materialistic.

Like I would say now in our country [UK] we thought that we'll have Mrs. Thatcher. Good, very good, she's coming up well I should say, certain good things she is saying, like self-restraint and all that, those things she's talking [are] good things. But what about herself following this! Śhrī Rāma, not only propounded what was good but he followed that. He sacrificed for that and he established his own symbol as a pure symbol of that righteous will, that is within the people, which is the collective righteous will.

Now, for example, you can see clearly how the ego oriented things work out, first of all, by the misidenti fications we can have. Now if you are a communist, you have to be out and out communist! You cannot have compromise between democratic methods and communism. They can't find any integration. They think [that] if you have to be this you have to be absolutely this. If you have to be that it has to be absolutely that. But, in Sahaja Yoga, what you find is both are integrated because you have the complete capital and have now to distribute it.

This is a complete integration here. All these `isms' and all that are experiments of the artificial, of the mind, just a projection of the mind, which is, whatever [is] man-made is artificial, you know that. But what is God made is all integrated. That, whatever you have within yourself, you must give it to others.

Now see for administration also, what happens after Sahaja Yoga. Say, I am your Mother, here, sitting down. You like Me to guide you. You like Me to govern you. You like Me to correct you, you like Me to scold you and to even go to a great extend to see that your life improves. Supposing I say, “Alright, I give up. I don't want to trouble you!" You will not like. None of you will like such a situation where I say, “Alright you are a gone case, I have nothing to do. You get out." Nobody will like such a situation. You want Me to govern you. You want Me to look after you. You like that. Automatically you have started liking it. There's no domination, but you want My domination. You want Me to dominate you. You want that all My desire should be dominated, automatically. Why you feel that, “It is alright, it is very good if Mother takes interest in me, corrects me. It's a privilege"? Why do you think like that? Because by that there is a general good created. It's a general good created in you. Because you have become integrated.

Your body, your mind and your soul, all of them think the same way. They all want the same. There's no difference. Once there is integration you will find that Sahaja Yoga is the easiest way to live it. But if there is not, then it is no. For example, if you are a lazy person, say for example, or you are a very hot-tempered person or you are a sort of a dual person, or you are playing tricks with yourself, you are playing games, then you won't like Sahaja Yoga. As long as these situations are in you you will not like Sahaja Yoga. But once this situation is overcome, then you will like it because then you will know that whatever is good for your Spirit is for the well-being of you all and of all the people. Once this well-being comes in, everyone feels absolutely nourished and fresh.

So the governing part is enjoyable. The correction part is even more enjoyable. And that you are in the attention of your Mother is such a great feeling within yourself that, “Yes. No, nothing will go wrong with me. She'll look after me." “She's there to look after me." But this integration part comes very late because of ego problems.

You have built up egos because of wrong type of people administering you. From your childhood you might have had bad parents who never talked of God, of good things of life. They themselves did not lead a life of sacrifice. Very self indulgent parents can create a problem like that. They never gave you the right type of life, a proper value system which should have been there. They never educated how to enjoy righteousness, virtues, in life. Possibly, later on, the country in which you are born, the other people who surround you also might have done that. Also, your government, whichever you have known, must have done that.

So when these things change, when you find that you have achieved that kind of integration within you: that whatever your body likes is good for your Spirit also.

Like say for example, I don't like certain things Myself. I don't like drinks, I don't like it. I just don't like it. Nobody can tempt Me. I mean, no question of temptation, I just don't like. I will hate the things which are really bad for My Spirit, automatically. I don't have to tell Myself, it's just there. To tell lies I don't like because it harms Me there. I don't like it.

Whatever is good for your Spirit will automatically work out as soon as this integration takes place and this is the work of Sahaja Yoga today. That's why I said it is Krita Yuga, is to be done. And this integration must be achieved within ourselves.

So sometimes you have to make your body come to this level. Maybe you are under the influence of some bhoots

[so] your body doesn't help you. Little bit of tapasvita, or penance, is needed after Sahaja Yoga to make this possible. And then once you start enjoying it then you like it. Like driving a car, in the beginning it's difficult. Or swimming, anything, when you try to do it's rather difficult in the beginning.

If I say, “You forget it now, whatever you have done in the past you forget it now get to the new things now. You have to do it." So you have to put your mind to it with all your full zest. That, “Alright, if my body's not helping me, alright, then I'll try to improve the body because I'm not the body." “If my mind is not helping me, I must improve my mind. If my intellect is standing in the way I'll have to put my intellect right because after all I have to be integrated. If I am not integrated I'm not going to enjoy anything nor am I going to do anything good to myself or to others.

So why am I here? Why am I trying to destroy myself?" But when you are disintegrated, you will be surprised. your one action will destroy your second action and second action will destroy third action, when you are disintegrated. I'll give you an example: Supposing now I am sitting here and somebody tells me that this will burn you. This is My own Rāmāyaṇa.

But the body wants to burn itself. It says, “No, alright, don't listen to this, just burn itself." Now, when I say this it sounds absurd. But, say, the mind says you should not take to alcohol, but still you'll go to the pub, then you are disintegrated. Gradually once you start listening to your body too much, your mind just gives in. It just gives in. In every thing that you do, if you are integrated, you will be amazed that you will really become dynamic.

Integration is nothing but your complete connection with your Spirit. The Spirit starts flowing into it. In every walk of life you will be amazed how dynamic you'll become if you are integrated. Just the connection is to be absolutely achieved with your Spirit. Whenever you think of something, [ask yourself] `Is it good for my Spirit?' Some people have a habit of thinking that spiritual life is such that you hang by the shoestring somewhere, in the air and there is no connection to the day to day life.

So many people think like that. They think such a man should be a thin, miserable creature hanging onto some tree or something [laughing] and should be absolutely in a paranoid state or something. That he is frightened of the whole world; who cannot talk to anyone, who is so much exclusive that he becomes a recluse. These absurd ideas should to be given up by Sahaja Yogis.

You have to be very much there, absolutely there between all of them. But something: you should be rare, a different type, a unique personality. You are to be there with all these things that are going on.

Now people are frightened, you know, even of Sahaja Yogis. They are frightened of Sahaja Yogis. [If] they see somebody negative, they [say], “Oh, this thing, that thing." Now take a fight with that person.

Take a fight. “How could you dare to do this, such a thing? You are a Sahaja Yogi! Come up! What do you mean by this?" You have to fight it out. As long as possible you should try to salvage a person, talk to him in that manner.

The other side of it is that when you talk to others, when they come to you, then there has to be a kind of a tremendous sincerity within you. If you are doing with that sincerity people will know you are doing with sincerity. When you talk to a person they should know there's sincerity, [that] your heart is there.

For example, you may talk to that person very sweetly, but your heart may not be there and the person might think, “Oh, he's just seeking elections." Alright? But if you talk to someone with the sincerity you'll say, “How could you do such a thing? Can't you see yourself? Can't you work it out? That's what it is.

You are here for that." Now in saying so, your sincerity, which is coming from your heart, is to be seen and that's what is Śhrī Rāma's character is: that he was on the right side of the heart, means the heart put to activity.

Do you understand that, where Kabīra has said, “Mana mamata ko thira kara Lau." [Meaning] “I will make my compassion of my heart, mana, from my heart, the compassion, make it steady. “Aur Pañcha hi tattva milau", [meaning] “And put them into five elements." You see, in the same way, when you are in the left Heart, that's your sincerity. It's your heart-felt thing. But the heartfelt thing, what's the use? You see, there are many Sahaja Yogis who really feel, this world is horrible and something must be done, Sahaja Yoga must be brought in. But how many of you are really putting that to action? Absolutely into action? Without that, your Rāma's Tattwa cannot be improved. Rāma's Tattwa is only improved when you put all the things into action that exactly Śhrī Rāma did.

So in the ascent of man, when he came up to Rāma's place, the advent of Rāma was not in the centre, but on the right hand side. He moved aside.

So much so, that he forgot about his past. He's never mentioned that He's an incarnation. He never told His father. He never told his mother. He never told anybody that He was an incarnation. Of course it was evident that he was. His brother knew about it.

Now he had two brothers. Very interesting. I mean he had other brothers also, but Bharat and another was Lakshmana. These two brothers were with him. Now they show the two sides of a human being.

One was Lakshmana and he was that fiery type, you see. He couldn't bear anybody misbehaving towards Rāma. He couldn't bear anybody talking in a very mundane type to Śhrī Rāma. And he used to get so angry with all these people that he would just come out like a big thunderbolt on anybody who tried to say anything about Śhrī Rāma. Even Parashurama, who was there, a contemporary incarnation of Śhrī Rāma Himself was Parashurama. It's a very interesting story about that. But, he could not bare Parashurama in any way [GAP]... He is the Shesha as they call it. The serpent which sleeps in the Bhava-sāgara. On which Śhrī Viṣhṇu rests. The same Shesha had taken birth as Śhrī Lakshmana. Now for a Western mind, to them, snakes are sort of... if you talk about snakes for them, only they know the Adam and Eve snake that's all, they don't understand anything. And they can't understand why people worship snakes. You see, snakes are, like cobra and all that, they are like the kings. They are the kings of the underground. And Shesha is the one who supports the whole Universe.

So this Shesha is worshipped as the cobras are worshipped in many villages in India, even today, because they don't trouble anyone there. Because they are like deities, are worshipped in India. And sometimes they do, but mostly they do not bite a good religious man.

There's a story of Sāi Nāth where snake charmer was given a lot of money just to kill Śhrī Sāi Nāth.

And because Sāi Nāth, used to, in the night, suddenly goes up to his own swing he had made, about thirty feet above the ground. God knows, nobody knew how he used to go there. But they would find him sleeping up there. [Laughs.] So this snake was taken by this snake charmer and he put the snake on to Sāi Nāth. And the snake went there and Sāi Nāth talked to him and He said, “Oh God, you've come here to meet me after such a long time. What is your job?" He said, “This horrible snake charmer has asked me to bite you.

So I've come to tell you to be careful about these people." The snake charmer was looking with amazement that he was talking to him! He said, “Alright, you go now." He talked to him. These are age-old snakes, you see.

So the snake went and bit the snake charmer. [Laughter.] But then he came down you see, from his thing and he sucked his poison and threw it away. “Because, after all, you see” he said, “the snake is angry with you because you tried such a trick." So he sucked in. That's compassion. That's compassion. And he sucked his venom out and the fellow was completely changed and he said, “Now I'm going to announce it to all the people what, these brahmins tried to kill” that they wanted to kill Śhrī Sāi Nāth. And why? Why were they so frightened of this man? He used to live outside the village and they were so frightened of him because they were doing all wrong things in the name of God.

So they were all frightened that they'll be exposed.

So, this is what it is, that He sleeps on the Shesha. And Shesha is the one who is sometimes expressed in Sahaja Yogis, I have seen, as anger, when you try to be non protocolish or when you try to be funny or you don't behave yourself. That's the Shesha in them. That is also sometimes needed. You have to be a Shesha sometimes because otherwise people will start misbehaving and by that they will be harmed. Not that I will be harmed, but they will be harmed.

So that kind of temperament is also needed.

But the other one [temperament] is very interesting, is that of Bharata, the brother. He showed how Śhrī Rāma bestowed the kingdom to him because of his mother's agitation. And he didn't know what to do.

So he went back to Rāma and he said that, “You take back your kingdom. I don't want anything.

You are the one who should govern. Why should I have it?" So Rāma said, “Alright, you just be there in charge of the kingdom. I have to obey my father, I have to obey my mother because I have given them a promise." So Śhrī Rāma's another great quality was once given a promise, is to be kept. This is another quality we have to have that, if you have promised anything, you have to keep it.

If you have said, “I will do this” you must do it. You should not find out excuses to avoid it. It's absolutely an anti-God activity to avoid doing things that you have promised. Your Deities will never be happy. You must see that, whatever you have promised you must do.

Now, when Bharata was sent back by Him he said, “Alright, give me your sandals which I'll take there.

And I'll use them as if that's the symbol of you being there." And he put those sandals on the throne and he ruled that kingdom and looked after, Bharata. Though when he was going to see Rāma then Lakshmana saw him coming and he said, “Look at this! He's coming here to invade you now! He has thrown you out of the kingdom and now he's coming to invade you." So this is also, I've seen, among Sahaja Yogis, is there, that the Sahaja Yogis who are like Shesha cannot see also the goodness of other Sahaja Yogis who are very good people, extremely sacrificing, nice people but their intentions are not understood, are misunderstood, which is a very sad thing. You must see the intentions of another type of people also, who may not be so hot tempered, may not be so much angry but their intentions are very good. They have come actually to ask for the sandals of Śhrī Rāma.

So among this two type of people, I have seen [that] there is always a bit [of a] misunderstanding going on.

So both the types of people should try to understand that we both are needed for Sahaja Yoga. I cannot only do with one type of people. We have to have both types of people who will look after both the styles of the thing.

But when you are dealing with others one should go as one. For example, if a person is coming to Caxton Hall and he says something then you should weigh it whether he's a new one or an old one. If he's a new one then you must show all gentleness, kindness, all kinds of exterior things which will please him.

The reason is: he's not a realised Soul, he doesn't see your subtle thing. What he sees is what you are, outside. How you are dressed, how you talk to them, how you behave towards them. All these things they see first of all. They don't see what you have got inside. They can't see your heart, they can't feel your vibrations, so you have to be very kind to them, you have to be very sweet to them.

I received a letter from someone saying that, “The Sahaja Yogis have been very, very rude to me and have been angry." Like the other day, somebody came and was sitting at the back: they are trying to salvage, salvage what you call the people who are lost by the cults or whatever it is. He was sitting at the back and when I said, “Come forward." And and he didn't come so you said, “You get out!" You should not say! Let Me say. That time you should keep quiet. Nobody should say, “Get out! If you are not going." Because the thing is if we say, “We don't care for people who are not humble!" Then they are going to be lost in any case. Let us give them a fair chance. Let us give them a fair chance to come into Sahaja Yoga; first by your behaviour.

Now, some people have a habit of, sort of talking to them a bit too much. They should not talk. That's one thing I feel, that, while giving vibrations and all that, at the most you should ask, `Are you feeling any Cool Breeze?' in a very humble way. And this is another quality of Śhrī Rāma, is a sankoch. There's no word in English language because you have `formality' which is a very insipid word to describe `sankoch'.

Because, there is no integration between your heart and formality. But if you can think of a `formality of the heart' then what do you call that? What will you call in English language?

Shri Mataji: The formality of the heart.

Sahaja Yogini: Sincerity.

Shri Mataji: No, sincerity is different. It's an action. Sincerity is an abstract thing. But formality, from the heart. You see, how to say such a thing?

Sahaja Yogini: `Honestly' Mother. `Honestly'.

Shri Mataji: No, no. Not `honesty'. These are all abstract words. In action.

You see, say for example, now, I am sitting. Now if they bring Me a cup, alright? It's a broken cup, for example, you go to somebody's house and it's a little broken.

So, if an Indian is there, I don't know about Western style, he will drink it off. He will not say anything, `It's broken,' or anything. But maybe somebody might say, “It's a broken cup!" Or say, you go to somebody's house and you don't like a colour scheme or something.

So for an Indian person it would be not proper to immediately say like that [laughter], for an Indian person. You see, `formality of the heart'. Not to say something in such a way that you touch the wrong side of the person is sankoch.

Now to such an extent Śhrī Rāma had that there's a good story, I think I had said it before also, but again I'll repeat it to you, which is described in another Rāmāyaṇa written by Tulsidasa. Although Tulsidasa was not a realised Soul, but some points he has brought out very well. He says that: Śhrī Rāma was putting the arrows against the heads of Rāvaṇa. And he had ten heads. And he had a boon that, every head that falls off, another head will come up. He had a boon like that.

So his brother says, “What are you doing? You know that he cannot die by putting the arrows across his head. You have to put it in his heart otherwise he will not die." So the sankocha comes in Him and He said, “See, in his heart he has got my wife because he loves Her and She's sitting in his heart. How can I hit him in the heart? She'll be hurt." See the delicacy of his understanding.

So he said, “Then by hitting his head is he going to be killed?" He said, “You see, attention, once it going towards his head, his attention will be withdrawn from his heart. And once the attention is withdrawn, my wife will not be there any more, then Ill hit him and I'll kill him." [Laughter.] So see, the sankoch! You see, then you will understand that how we are rude and arrogant. This kind of arrogance and rudeness comes to us because we have no sankoch. We should not say everything to everyone. We need not. Should we say everything? Say, for example, in your Pūjā maybe you are doing something which should not be done. I know it's wrong. Unless and until it's absolutely wrong, I will not tell. I said, “Gradually they will learn." Because otherwise you become like this, you see, tensed up. You must see Linda's face if I tell her anything! She goes into... [Shri Mataji demonstrates].

So that sankocha, that understanding comes if you love someone and understand. Now, you have to love all the seekers of the world. They have done wrong, they have done all kinds of ego trips, they have done all kinds of mistakes but your Mother loves them and you have to love them. If they are to be corrected I'll do that. You just don't do that way that they feel hurt. Put a sankocha. While talking to each other educate yourself, train yourself to say things which are sweet and nice, which will make another person feel that this person is a properly brought up person in Sahaja Yoga tradition.

So we have a Sahaja Yoga tradition also, in which, when we speak to each other, we have that sankocha within us of Śhrī Rāma. And if you do not have that sankocha you get the right Heart [catch]. And that right Heart is a very dangerous thing in a country like England, where the climate is so bad, because it gives you a horrible thing like asthma. I'm not frightening you, but it's true. You get asthma if your right Heart is caught. Not necessarily that asthma comes from right Heart only, can also come from centre heart, but [if] you get right Heart you definitely get asthma.

So the attitude you see, like your father. I've heard people talking to father also in such a funny way.

You can't talk to your father like that. They talk to Me also very rudely. I mean, I have seen people, Sahaja Yogis, shockingly sometimes, on a very mundane level or you can say in a very unprotocolish way.

[Then] you will get into right Heart.

So this sankoch one has to learn, the Maryādā: means the boundaries of your relationships. You see, “We love each other” doesn't mean that we go on aggressing other's privacies. To what extent you love each other doesn't mean that you go on in way that you try to transgress all the beauties and all the privacies of another person.

You see, [if] someone walks into the bedroom directly is not the way Sahaja Yoga should be. I need not tell. But you must knock if you have to. And knock at a time when you need it! All the time to knock or to hang onto someone all the time is not proper.

The sankocha is a complete cultural stuff.

So we have a cultural tradition which we have to learn from Śhrī Rām. He's known for his sankocha. Every time, how to say this, I cannot say that. We have this very much engrained within us [in India]. The children are to be educated in that way and once they are educated that way they will learn the sankoch and that will give them a proper understanding of social life.

Like you now see, this light is here: if you put your finger to it, it might burn and you may remove your finger. But if you are with another person and if you try to take liberties with that person a day may come when that person will misbehave or will harm you or do something to you. But still you will not realise [that] it is because you have no sankoch [that] it has happened.

So this sankoch has to be worked out very beautifully in every way: in thanksgiving, in accepting some body's gratitude, in expressing your love to another person, in a way that is a sankoch.

Now Śhrī Rāma is known for his boundaries. He doesn't cross the limit. Yesterday, the other day I told you about food, that you don't cross the boundaries of food, like being compassionate to the bugs and to the mosquitoes. In the same way in every thing discretion of the heart should be there. Now, there is no word for `discretion of the heart' in the English language, which is Maryādā. Discretion of the heart is, to understand, say, example, that if you are rude to your father what do you gain? You gain nothing.

But if you are humble you might gain over, with your father alright. Even if he's a bad man! Because what happens in reaction, if you say psychologically: Supposing you are the son of a father who is doing something wrong and you are obedient to him, he will always have a fear that he will lose you if he falls in your ideals.

So by that humility you will raise him.

If you are humble, if your behaviour towards your parents is like Śhrī Rāma's, there's nothing to lose.

You don't compromise in your principles or anything. In day to day things, like that, [if] your father is sitting... I mean in India if the father is there, you won't sit down before him, you won't sit, at any cost.

Till he tells you ten times, you won't sit before him. It helps, you know. Then it reflects on the father that, “Supposing I misbehave much my son will not respect me." So the sense of respect also comes from your heart. That's only possible if you know that Maryādā from your heart, how far to go. What is the need to be rude to your father? No need at all, at any cost! What is the need? Or to your husband or to your wife? Why to say anything harsh to anyone? What is the need? What are you going to gain out of it? By saying anything harsh I have not seen people have improved. Only when a Guru is harsh or, I mean, the mother or father are harsh to the children it helps.

Nowhere else it helps you in common relationships. Like brothers and sisters, it does not and higher and lower. The lower person have to bear the harshness of the elders if they want to improve. There's nothing [so important]! After all they're not going to throttle you. Supposing even if he says something bad to you, doesn't matter. You try to. And there, what one has to remember [is] what Christ has said that, you must put another cheek.

So use the heart's discretion, how far to go to a person. In the effect of it you will be a very, very powerful person, in your family, in Sahaja Yoga, anywhere. Those people who are obedient to Me are very powerful Sahaja Yogis. You know that. And those who are not go down very fast.

I try to save them, by everything, but I have seen, those who are disobedient, who don't listen to Me, who are rude to Me, who do not understand the protocol, go down very much in Sahaja Yoga. Absolutely [clicking fingers] like that! In a second I find they are going hundreds of feet down. It's true.

Because what is lacking in you is the discretion, the Maryādā, how far to go. And that's another thing we have to learn to educate ourselves.

So the education of Śhrī Rāma as it was, I told you, that he could kill a demon with one arrow. You don't have to beat them a hundred and eight times, one beating should be sufficient. But you have to be powerful people and the power of a person increases by putting Maryādā. Supposing you have wheat and you just spread it, it will spread all over, anybody will, birds will come and eat it off, it will be finished.

But if you put them in a sack it will have a weight, it will have a size, it will rise in height and it is useful. It will have respect. But the thing that is all spread all over, which has no Maryādā, will never be respected.

Nothing works out without Maryādā. Even the light keeps to a Maryādā. You have to keep your Maryādās. That is part of our training, you see.

Say, for example, an aeroplane is there and it is not bound by any Maryādās. You see, it is not bound.

When it goes in the air it will be all finished! All our ideas of freedom are to be bound by Maryādā. If the freedom has no Maryādā it is abandonment, it is nonsense, it is not going to help us.

So we have to create out of Sahaja Yogis great politicians. It has been predicted [in the Nād Granth] that if Sahaja Yoga does not spread then the third world war is inevitable. People will suffer a lot with a third world war. It is possible to avoid it if people take to Sahaja Yoga in a big number. But if they do not, there will be a third world war and the effects of that will harm people so much that ultimately it is the Sahaja Yogis who will be called for a conference and not the diplomats. The Sahaja Yogis will be consulted and they will decide what is to be done for the world and they will become the rulers of tomorrow's world.

So we must have a full idea [of] how to be rulers like Śhrī Rāma.

We have to go too far with ourselves, to training up ourselves, educating ourselves, getting rid of our egos and understanding that we have to grow.

It's a very big task, it's a great task and sometimes you might think, “How can Mother expect us to do it?" But I think you are the people who are chosen for it and you have to get to it and work it out.

So we have to train up ourselves to be first good rulers of ourselves and the rulers of others.

First we must learn to rule ourselves. You see, here in this body only you'll learn how to rule yourself.

Comfort, if you get fond of comfort, make your body work it out that there's no comfort needed. If your body indulges into too much eating or anything, make your body learn that it's not good to indulge into it.

If you speak too much, talk too much, if you are rude, just say that, `I'm not going to say a word from morning till evening.' Take to mauna [silence].

So the tapah, is the penance time, is now ahead of us.

With that penance, the greatest thing that is going to help you is to go and talk of Sahaja Yoga, give the message of My advent and also talk about how the transformation, the blossom time has come. This you have to do, plus you have to learn how to rule yourself and then how to rule others through your heart, not through your mind. You have to rule through your hearts by learning all the qualities of the heart which I have told you.

And I must congratulate you for the article you have written on Blossom Time. I have gone through it. I have really enjoyed it, thoroughly. He's done very well. May God bless you! And I think it will have a good [effect]... I'm surprised how they published it: have they changed their mind or what happened? It's amazing! Have you seen that article? It's great.

And thank you very much for the nice creepers you have sent Me. They are so beautiful you see, they still are under a shock because I removed them from your gentle care to Mine. And Mine is a little sort of flippant one now. But today we tried to do some justice to them. I'm sure they'll. We gave them a bandhan [Laughs.] You mean you want to be more intelligent?

Sahaja Yogi: No, to get rid of the rubbish Mother.

Shri Mataji: Rubbish that is in the head? You see, the best one, in Sanskrit it is said, “Ya neti neti wachane nigamor avochus." Means, you go on telling your mind, “This is not, this is not, this is not." Any thought that comes to your mind, you go on telling, “this is not the thought. Not this, not this, not this." Then the inspiration starts coming. You see, what I feel, people are not inspired. They have got fear on one side. Suddenly, you do something to them they go into a fear, a trauma. Or else, if you try to be good to them, they go into an ego trip.

So to stay in the centre, what you have to do, is to go on saying “Not this thought” and, “Not this thought." Then you will be a deep Sahaja Yogi.

Best is this. Because intellect is nothing, so-called intellect. Only God has intelligence, nobody has! To be very frank. [Laughing.] It's a big joke, isn't it? [Laughter.]

Every one thinks they are intelligent but they are not, they are stupid. You see, all stupidity is considered as intelligence these days. For example, cunningness, it never pays you dividends. What is intellect? Is the only understanding of intellect as Ādi Shañkarāchārya had put it, “Na yoge, na sankhya” [`Viveka Chūḍāmaṇi', verse 56. “Neither by Yoga, nor by Sankhya, nor by work, nor by learning, but by the realisation of one's identity with Brahman is Liberation possible and by no other means."] All these things are good for nothing. Only service to your Mother is the best way. Ask your intellect, `Is it serving my Mother?' Intellect will tell you, the so-called intellect of human beings, to cheat yourself.

It cheats you. It gives you escapes. It cheats you. All the time the intellect is working by saying, “This may be good, that may be good" you see, but the real good, it never sees. It's a trick of the ego, trick of the ego. Is the choices. Ego likes choices, you see.

So, “This is good, this is bad, this I don't like this, this." All `I' business should be given up and say that, `Not this, not this, not this.' `We' should come in, `we', not `I'.

Now you are not anymore `I's, you are `we' now. That's how the intellect will go away. Because this intellect has gathered all kind of nonsense and it doesn't exist! That's the biggest Rāmāyaṇa! It doesn't exist! There is no intelligence at all! What is the intelligence, is just to understand that there is nothing like this intellect, you are nothing. You see, to explain His intellect would be something like explaining human civilization to an ant! Even that is easier! It's like that, His intellect. And He's innocent.

So simple. I mean, anybody is amazed how can that be.

So the most intelligent person is the one who knows that our intellect is just a ego trip. This is the sign of pure intelligence, is the sign of pure understanding, that the heart is the ruler [and] there resides the Spirit which is the most intelligent thing within us. And the inspiration of the Spirit is the manifestation of the pure intellect of God.

And what I told you today is the intellect of the heart. But of the brain, zero! But then, what's the use of the brain? Why have brain? Why not only have heart? It would be alright. But the brain is the one which acts.

Heart gives the inspiration but the brain acts on it, it's communicating. But the inspiration, the source, is the heart, is the Spirit. Again connect yourself to the Spirit. Intelligently, how will you explain Kuṇḍalinī awakening? Leave alone Kuṇḍalinī, how can you explain sprouting of the seed intelligently, through your intellect? Explain, means, explain why, how. Sprouting of the seed, a simple thing which you see thousand and one times. How will you explain? Intellect is that says, “I cannot explain." A very limited thing. It's ego, nothing but ego.

And once you get rid of it then the pure intellect starts coming in.

You see, with [Mr.] Yoga Singh, you will be amazed, you see, who is, I mean he came to us as a bhoot absolutely. He's so much changed. Now he speaks, I tell you, he speaks like a saint. I was amazed! He speaks so well sometimes that I want to quote him sometimes, the way he speaks about certain things. I am amazed how he has started talking like that.

So whatever you have to say relate it to the Spirit [and] you will talk like saints. Relate it to Spirit, not to anything else, relate it to Spirit and you will be amazed.

He told Me that, “There are many people in this world who are absurd." I said, “How do you know?" He says “Because they don't want to know anything about you. I don't know why are they here and why have you created them!" You see, he was a person with so many būts on his head. He's such a beautiful man, I tell you. He says this, “This is your servant is alright, but he has to learn certain things if he has to live well. He doesn't have neatness. Because his mind is not neat. He has to be a cleaner person. But his mind is not clean. His heart is alright. But the mind should be clean." I was amazed at him. He's not an educated man or anything, just an ordinary person. But they start talking like prophets.

I think you'd better read some of the prophets [then] you will also start talking like them. You read Kabīr, Khalil Gibran, all these people. What is Blake? He was a prophet too. You can talk like Him.

Why not? He talked through his Spirit, isn't it? Pure intelligence. Then you became Śhrī Rāma, if you can do that.

So today's a great day. I'm happy that you all could come. And it has worked out so well that this is, I was going to come here and talk about Śhrī Rām and wish you all that you follow Him up. Respect yourself! And it's your responsibility to be good, to be like that, to work it out that way.

May God bless you all! Alright. You wanted to do a small, little Pūjā? You can wash My feet. And have you got Śhrī

Rāma's anything [mantras, etc.]? [Gavin Brown reads from `Rāmāyaṇa' of Valmiki, Chapter 86.]

... Divine to work out. It's working. Because Divine can go up to a point, that's the trouble. It has no interest in your money nor in your position or anything. It has only one interest that you should take to Divine Life.....

[UNCLEAR]... To the Divine, for providing us such a beautiful place. As a name is Nightingale. I didn't expect it to be that... really that big and so beautifully done. It's all provided for... for the saints who have to live here, for the people who are chosen by God in this country to do His work. We are doing God's work and it is God's desire that we are to be looked after, we are to be blessed, we should have no worry of mundane things like a house... we can say of a... what you call a shelter and food, money... we should have no such worry. Because we have to do so many other things now, that if we go on spending our energies on these useless pursuits who is going to do the great work of God... that is the emancipation of human beings.

At this juncture when we know the crisis... great crisis... is facing us in this Kali Yuga, we have to realise that the Divine is working with great understanding of this precarious time and the dynamism of that Divine Power is so smooth and so powerful that's working out everything for your comfort, for your peace, for your blessings and for your powers by which you can give realisation to people. You can assume all the powers that are promised to the saints. In the same way, it is essential for Sahaja Yogis to know that they have to do a lot to give assistance, to allow also the Divine Power to act through you because you are chosen instrument of God.

Now, one has to understand a big problem that comes to us when we face Western Sahaja Yogis.

As I am facing you people here... I have to tell you that, that Western Sahaja Yogis have different problems from the Indian Sahaja Yogis. The basic problem is that Infrastructure in the west, outwardly is wonderful. For example, if you have to telephone to someone... is very easy here to communicate; if you have to go somewhere you can get a car, to get a house, you can get a beautiful house. The infrastructure is very good, for say... material development, this country is very well suited. Because in the west we have had outward development, the development of the shoot and the roots were neglected. And roots are the basis of our existence.

So the roots, the infrastructure of roots, if they are weak the Divine Power cannot permeate through those roots.

And those roots must be looked after and are to be put right; we have to see to it that we put them right through your powers of Divine vibrations, because in India if you have to develop something, it's a big problem.

Supposing you want to take a tractor, there is no road to take it there; if you want to... say take a ship there, the ship will be standing outside the ports for God knows how many days; if you want to telephone someone, it's always out of order. And it can be disgusting for people who have lived with all these comforts and conveniences here. But to make the Divine Power flow into the Western people is even more difficult than getting telephones to India... much more. The reason is, the structure needed to permeate this beauty, are starved, are weak, are unable to even feel the need for it. But when the tree discovers that it is going to fall down... is going to go out, then it starts looking after its roots and bothering about it why? Why are we getting destroyed? What's happening to us? We have not looked after our roots? So now how do we go to our roots? Our source is our spirit and [UNCLEAR trauma] was spirit... we get that strength. But the reception becomes weaker if our roots are not alright. And the roots are nothing but simple things, which are the Ten Commandments, which are the don'ts and dos.

Sahaja Yoga has one advantage that nobody is told, `don't do that'. You come along any time any ideas any ego anybody can come in. Raise their Kuṇḍalinī. Then they become enlightened. The light comes into the room and they start seeing all the defects of the room and then they start repairing it because they see those defects at something outside... outside. The identification with those defects falls off and people have changed overnight, we have seen them. But still the structure has to be brought forth. Actually, in Australia things are working out much faster. As somebody told Me, “Oh, Australia is a large village!" So this advancement has made people so complicated...

So dry... that talking of God itself is something people abhor. Talking of religion is not allowed, I mean people don't like it in any elite society. If you start talking about religion, they'll tell you off on your faces, “You are not supposed to discuss any religion; you can discuss politics as long as you like... but religion!" Can you imagine? So the responsibility of the Sahaja Yogis first and foremost is to improve their infrastructure. And that is we have to pin pointedly understand lies within us and within the whole of us.

The first one was that I never ever put down My foot on any disciplining, on any Sahaja Yogi. There's a complete freedom for you to rise above, to go to heaven, or you can take two running jumps and go to hell. There was no restriction of any kind on any Sahaja Yogi; if you want you can come, if you don't want, you don't come. At the most I'll enquire how are you and all that; but there was no compulsion on anyone of any kind. The reason is, now you are free people. And freedom that is enlightened should give you proper reasoning to know, what is good for you? And what is bad for you? And how you should go about yourself? The problem arises; actually, all the laws are not for people who are sensible and wise.

Not at all, they don't need any laws. But problem arises only when there are people who are licentious, permissive, who have no control over themselves, who have no will power, those who have bad habits, who try to be destructive. They do not do any constructive work towards the whole, but all the time they are thinking of something destructive. Either destroying themselves or destroying the organization, so [UNCLEAR can/called], the living organization of Sahaja Yogis.

Now, the problem with us is that we are used to this kind of a freedom so far. In the ashram, I never came up to find out, how you lived? And what was the way you were conducting ourselves? I never enquired as to what people are doing in the ashram? What is the routine they are following? We have ashram, which provides for very cheap living and cheap food. All the conveniences now, God has given you. This is your... these are your Puṇyas, he's blessed you. Now let us see what we can do about it? We have to also find out what we are doing about thanksgiving? We have to formulate certain things to self-discipline ourselves. The disciplining should come from within willingly; happily... it's for your building up and for your growth. Those people who do not want to discipline themselves must be kept out of ashram. Because they are still weak, because the people who are in the ashram are expected to be the best people among all the Sahaja Yogis because they are specially blessed! So those who are the best are specially blessed have to be the best! And to be that, what are we supposed to do? I mean, they are the generals for example and the generals, if they get up at 11 o'clock in the morning and just rush up to their work, come back home, get angry with everyone and sleep off; what are they going to do in Sahaja Yoga? So all such people have to come up to a certain maturity of understanding the spirit of Sahaja Yoga. In the spirit of Sahaja Yoga, you have to build up yourself according to the requirements of the time. It's a war on... really there's a war on, you have no idea and you have to prepare yourself for that. If people think that this is a good convenience, that we are here, you are destroying yourself. A big chance has come to you. This is all going in the history. All this will be all written down just like Bible. Everything that has happened to you will be written down. All about you people, who are the people? Who are baddies we should say. The people who do not understand the value of Sahaja Yoga, the ones who do not pay attention to their building up and to the build up of Sahaja Yoga, it will be all recorded. Because you are chosen for a work like that, everybody's name is going to be entered into that.

So first of all we have to understand, that a self-discipline, which comes from your Self has to be ascertained. For that certain rules and regulations are to be made in this ashram and those who are not staying here or in another ashram also the same thing. Those who are not staying in this ashram or that ashram also should follow the same rules and regulations, as far as their daily life is concerned. That's how you are going to purify this nucleus. By purifying this nucleus, you will permeate the Divine flow of God, the Divine Love of God, into the hearts of people. We have to educate ourselves in a way that is going to help in the construction work of God's desire. Certain rules and regulations have to be formed. There are some people who are wise, who will definitely make some rules and regulations and try to follow them.

But there will be many who are weak, who require little boosting up and pulling up. You have to do it.

You have to be trimmed out to become the beautiful pattern of that great event which is the greatest of all the events of the world... greatest event of the whole creation. And for that, you have to be equipped and educated. And that's why we have to know that the education that you are going to have, has to be done with full understanding, that you are free to leave or to stay here.

There's no compulsion on anyone. But it will be most enjoyable... I'm sure it will be. If you are of a little of that calibre you will definitely enjoy the whole education of Sahaja Yoga which is very important.

Because you are faced with a society where the infrastructure of the roots are destroyed; nobody wants to talk about God, nobody wants to know about It, nobody wants to hear about It. In such a place if you have to do something, you have to be exceptional people. And for that you have to regulate your life, regulate yourself and grow in a proper way. If you do not try to look after a tree, the tree dies out. If you do not supply water to it and proper nourishment, it will die out. In the same way, whatever you have achieved, if it has to grow, you have to learn how to nourish and bring to the maturity of that personality which is required to construct the design, which Sahaja Yoga wants to implement. We are efficient otherwise, but we are not efficient as Sahaja Yogis; it's the other way round thing.

Now we are talking of the roots. And when we talk of the roots, we have to know, that we have to suck in that power which surrounds us. And what is the main thing that is going to suck? That's your Spirit.

So first of all, the first priority should be to the Spirit. All material things are secondary. See how you got the house? “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham!" As soon as you got your Yoga, Kshema is working.

All of you have been blessed. But especially this place is a big blessing.

So one has to understand, to look after the roots, our priorities have to change. First and foremost is our spirit. What are we doing to bring the spirit into our attention? We are all the time worried, about money, mundane things, useless things. On one side there are people who are running after things, which are of no importance. On the other side I find people who think they are very spiritual, live in some ethereal world and do not come in contact with reality. Both things are equally nonsensical. If you think you are very ethereal, you are sadly mistaken. Or if you think you are very materialistic that is also not correct. You are a spirit, which shines in this body. A person who is spiritual is extremely dynamic. Dynamic in the sense that such a person has tremendous powers of activity. He doesn't get normally tired. He doesn't waste his energy into nonsensical talks because he respects himself. The self-respect! So the education may start immediately as soon as you put your priorities properly. First of all is your `Self' and then the `Whole'.

Sahaja Yogis must educate themselves, in a way to understand, are they selfish or not? For example some Sahaja Yogis are very good at sitting for prayers together. But some of them want to do it individually.

They are selfish people, absolutely selfish. It's all right once in a while, to do your own thing, but if it is available you must do it with others. It's not only selfish, but it is useless. You may go on doing Pūjā for ten hours, makes no difference. When you are together, you are in the collective. For example, supposing you are the cells in the heart of the Virāta, all of you are the cells of the heart and you find one cell somewhere twitching, what's going to happen? Is it going to work out the whole function of the heart? All the cells have to work, not only that, all the cells have to understand each other. And they have to work it out in such a way that they fulfil the function for which they are created. That is the criteria otherwise only one cell starts pulsating somewhere, it may become malignant, it would be useless, it is destructive! So any one person who is having his individual prayer, should know that in Sahaja Yoga today, no individual exist, it's the whole. It's easy to criticise others, very easy to criticise others. Because see our eyes are outward, not inward, you cannot see inside. But that's not going to help, that's destructive again; very destructive to criticise others.

[Shri Mataji is talking to a Sahaja Yogi.] Now if you try to criticise others, you are actually against yourself. Because you will find the another person is also yourself! He is the part and parcel of the same organism, which is working it out, the functioning; and how can one cell in the heart be against the another cell? Can it be? Or individualistic? It's very destructive for your self and for others.

So everything has to work as the pulsation of the ocean.

How it moves in a wave! When some have to rise, they rise, then they go down and other comes up, they rise. In the same way, understanding the movement of God's desire. Now, the roots are spoilt also because we have lost the sense of collectivity. But the worst curse of the Western life I personally feel is, alcoholism. It's really I feel that may be one of the reasons why people have become so deaden to Dharma? I mean the amount of things people do here blindfolded, without even thinking that it is wrong, I, I can only blame alcoholism. Because I think when you take alcohol, you become so money minded; you are left with no money at all. And an alcoholic, any amount of money you give is not sufficient you see. He'll live on a shoe, sting but he must have a bottle; he'll sleep on the street but must have a bottle. I have known some friends of My husband who were alcoholics. And they were getting, they were senior to My husband getting much more pay, were from very rich families and they didn't even have sometimes blankets in their house, you see an extra blanket, if you went to their house. They would have all broken cups and saucers and they had no money. All these bad habits of racing and alcoholism and which is supported by the government and all that. All these bad habits have led people to these insensitivity. Because you see alcohol is something like polishing all your sensitivities, to your Dharma, to right and wrong. Only thing that really upsets people is that they should not do anything illegal, because they will be caught and put in the prison. But if they can escape even that part, they don't mind doing for alcohol or for any such drugs.

So to bring about that insensitivity, we have to know.

Now we have a pub just outside here. We must avoid that road I think. Or one day this pub may run away from here, if they go into liquidation. Already there are so many which have gone into liquidation for your information. I heard last time they were 57, which had gone into liquidation. But I think this time the number is double, the sooner they go into liquidation, better it would be for this country, for the younger generation that is coming up. All this has worked into our nerves and our sensitivities are lost to Dharma. The only thing... the only hope we have is our spirit, which has enlightened us... which has given us that sensitivity... which has brought us back to light; the truths, the reality, how we have destroyed ourselves! This money-mindedness is also due to this alcohol. I tell you a man who is a drunkard, is very money-minded. Naturally because he has to have money for drinking and it's like an ocean he goes on.

I mean you can't drink water in that big beer thing; you can't drink water that much! I really tell you how they can drink such a big thing... I can't understand, I mean if you give Me water in that big thing I just cannot gulp it down in one sitting... it's beyond me! You see it's like an ocean it becomes! It goes into some bottomless pit I think the whole thing is thrown into something and that requires money and for that people have to be money-minded.

Of course thank God, no Sahaja Yogis drink. Now those who are drinking still, I would request them to put their will power absolutely. And will power is very simple, if you can move your right to the left seven times, you can manage it; if not, try 108 times. But you can manage it. Get rid of this nonsensical habit, which has killed your Dharma, which has killed your personality, which has made you a slave of all this nonsensical thing, so get out of it. For Sahaja Yogis I have never put a bandhan on that, that you don't drink, but you just stop it. But you can understand what a bad thing it is to drink! I mean you don't see your sisters, you don't see your mother, this relationships that have developed here they're so queer, you know so strange, you can't believe it that human beings can have such a relationships, but that is because you are drunk; I mean how will you know your sister and your mother [UNCLEAR here/even].

And that's why, one of the things we have to understand that all bad habits we have, we have to give up A to Z. Worst is drinking of course, but there are minor bad habits also.

Now Christ has talked about murmuring souls. And about them, He's been so angry, that he said that, “These people I've spit out of my mouth." He said, “Those who are hot, I will manage them and those who are cold, they are mine. But those who are in between, I'll spit them out of my mouth." Of course I don't use such language, but this is his language, which he has said it. This is they're repulsive people, the murmuring people, who are in the ashram for their convenience. And they are having their own secret things and they are talking sometimes against Sahaja Yoga, against this, why that, why this? These are very destructive people. And beware of them. As it is, we have to look after the very delicate thing, that are the roots and then these people are of no use to us, absolutely of no use, who start sitting down and saying that, “O, I am doing this kind of another thing and I am trying another thing and we have this another Guru"; and whatever is wrong is wrong. This is not a cult! You must know.

Sahaja Yoga is not a cult! It is your evolution, is your natural thing that's happening to you. It's not a cult! Where there's nothing like bad and good, every Guru is good, every pub is good, every madman is good; it's not like this. In a cult, everybody is good you see, there is nothing like bad thing, every thing is good, what is wrong? That's cult. But in natural processes, we have discretion. And we know what is good and what is bad. If you have seen a sunower, it knows which way to turns its face. The trees know which way to turn their faces, which way to move. The roots know, where to go? How to go towards the sources of water? They just don't go towards the... a... deserts! That is also good! So this is not a cult! You must know that. This is not where everything is all right as long as you give some money, or as long as you are a member or as long as you think you belong to some sort of a organization... No, it is absolutely there's no compromise. There is no compromise with darkness, with untruth, with anything that is destructive for human beings; we cannot compromise. As an evolution, there is no compromise.

One has to understand that we are human beings and we have freedom. That if you want, you can get along with compromises. But as far as evolution is concerned, you will be out. You won't be there. You cannot pass through the gates of Āgñyā Chakra. You will be thrown on sides. You will be thrown into places, where you don't want to go. You cannot pass through that. If you have to pass through that gate, then you must know that there is no compromise of any kind. You have to come up to a certain maturity and a certain adherence to the truth and identification with your spirit.

Like people will say, “Mother! They are also good people." No they are not. If they are not they are not. Of course out of compassion one may think of giving them emancipation, improving them. But today they are not good people. Today, they are not alright, tomorrow they may be; that's a different point. If they are not good today, they are not good today means, today for us they are not good. We don't talk of tomorrow. But to listen to them, or to agree with them, or to support them, or to be with them, is anti God activity. Because moment-to-moment, there is destruction working; and in the same way, there is construction going on. Any moment when you find anybody who is against, they are not with us. We cannot compromise. Especially for people who are living in an ashram. I have seen that person coming from Rajneesh walks into the ashram and with all his horrible dress and everything and with his mala and stays in a Sahaja Yoga ashram. There is no compromise with such dirty people. They are not fit to enter into our ashrams; these are temples. Not temples of ordinary people, but of realised Souls; who are chosen by God, for God's work.

We don't want anyone of that kind to come inside. If they have to meet, they can come to Caxton Hall, it's all right, there every Dick, Tom, Harry is there, it's all right. But not in the ashram, not in the ashram. You should not allow anybody temper the holiness and the auspiciousness of your ashram. For us, holiness is the highest thing; if you are not holy people, you cannot do any work of God, believe Me, you cannot. You have to be a holy man, you have to be prophets and you have to lead a life of holiness.

If you are unholy, you are no good.

So, the whole working out is in a different line. The efficiency of being holy and holy person is efficient by itself! Jason just wrote a letter to Me, saying that Mother, it's difficult, just now we don't know whether we are going to get a house or not, it's going to be difficult, so far, we have no idea. I just gave a bandhan. See, just holiness working it out and here you are! That's how holiness is going to work. The purity of heart, the purity of love, but love doesn't mean run after somebody who is a Rajneesh's fellow or something.

So, anybody coming from any Guru should be banned from the ashrams; till he comes to Sahaja Yoga, in Caxton Hall, cleanse them properly, washed, bathed and shaven and shorn, then he can enter. One has to be very careful on this point.

So I am making it extremely clear to you that in the night about 12 o'clock a phone comes in SOS, “Mother, we have three people from Muktananda." Send them back to Muktananda. They have been with them for twelve years, all right, let them carry on for three years more. The other day we had somebody who came, who was with him for twelve years. And he said, “I have become a recluse. I can't think about anything. I have no money, I have lost everything." I said, “Go, go back to him!" He said, “Twelve years I have been with him." What did he get? Now if he has to come to Sahaja Yoga, I told him, “You are going to Australia, all right, you get your realisation, you be certified by them." [UNCLEAR And then], only certified people can enter into the premises of our [UNCLEAR country]. But certified people have to be extremely beautiful people, very sweet tongued. Better try to read dictionary now; find out the sweetest way of addressing people. All slangs and all words, which are full of thorns, must be dropped; all the flowery words must be chosen. You are not a hypocrite, because you are flowers after all, you have to be fragrant no doubt! But for whom? For Sahaja Yogis and not for outsiders.

There are people who despise Sahaja Yogis. I have seen some Sahaja Yogis are like that and are very friendly with other people. They are frightened of other people and are not kind to Sahaja Yogis.

With Sahaja Yogis, you have to be very kind. But that does not mean, with outsider you should not be.

You should be! Because they are seekers! You have to be kind to them; you have to be nice to them.

There's nothing wrong in being nice and flowery. That's not hypocritical. Am I a hypocrite? It's not hypocritical, to be nice to people. On the contrary with others you should not be angry. But in a way you should tell them for example, such people walking you should say, `I am sorry, we cannot have people from Muktananda here. If you want, you can come to Caxton Hall.' That's one way of talking. There's a way of saying, `It's very embarrassing, but we are sorry, this is awkward, [UNCLEAR you/we] are not allowed.' Best thing is to write down all the rules and regulations as soon as they come, hand it over to them. Let the blame come to Me, I don't mind. That's how things have to work out. About minor things and all that I think we'll have to sit down, make rules and regulations.

But the major thing is meditation together. I've told you before also, that I have Myself lived in Mahatma Gandhi's ashram. If I tell you the conditions there, you will be amazed; I mean I would never want My children to be like that. I used to think, Mahatmaji is rather cruel on people. But the way people had to live in an ashram, absolutely [UNCLEAR spartaned], absolutely [UNCLEAR spartaned] methods.

So much so, that even a villager would be running away from such a thing, I mean it was so too much for him to live in those conditions. You have to clean your latrines, clean the latrines of all the guests that are there, with the buckets and things like that. Can you imagine? And all those things we have done and he said that unless and until you get rid of these things you will not understand what the untouchables are like? So he made us learn all that you see.

So it was all right for Me, I am quiet a tough person, but with others, I used to think it's too much! For people, say, Mahārāja's sons coming and all that, with so many servants they have and this and he made to clean the latrines of the guests, it was too much for them. But he made them and once he asked somebody to sleep on the ground, he said, “I cannot sleep on the ground on the mat, I am used to a bed." He said, “Then you go and sleep outside. For one month you sleep outside and you will be all right." And there were snakes you see, in the grounds. And the snakes never bit anyone. That's one thing good about them. They never bit anyone. But you see the fellow didn't know what to do? See... where to sleep? So he would come inside and sleep on the mat again. He thought first, it would be nice comfortable on a... grass, but then he saw the snakes you see, crawling around him so he walked back.

And it was so in the schools also, the such trainings were there before that children were asked to... were asked to go round the whole cricket ground, you see. If they would not make their beds in the morning, they were asked to take the beds on their back and go round the whole cricket ground in the schools you see. But these things must be there for you see untidiness, is something I can't understand! Untidiness as you see if, you are at this age like this, what will happen to you when you will be of My age? I just can't imagine I mean, how can you then, I mean what will be your shape? I just can't think of a person that at this age, how can you be untidy? Untidiness comes from untidy mind I think. And to be untidy is a curse! Absolute curse you know! You are absolutely a lost person! Putting everything under the big curtain and hiding this under this, this is not the way to live! I mean this is such a small thing, that I don't know how to tell you but, I mean we were in Gandhi ashram, we were not allowed to have any sweeper or any cleaner or anything. And everything had to be spick and span even the leaves had to be clean. Can you imagine? I have heard that some of the ashrams of these Gurus are kept extremely clean*[UNCLEAR]* most people are punished, not physically, but financially. The fine is fifty pounds, for one litter falling out of your hands, fifty pounds, finished! That they have done in Singapore they do like that. If you drop one cigarette anywhere, you are charged, fifty pounds.

So people are extremely careful. But we are Sahaja Yogis, we are not to learn it through; fines and strictness and fear. We have to learn Dharma through our freedom and understanding by respecting ourselves, you have to [UNCLEAR be/live]. Now sharing is very important. There are some Sahaja Yogis who do not know how to share? For example, food! You must share your food. I have told you that, those who do not share food should not live in an ashram.

And such people are not going to be called as Sahaja Yogis at all. You see if you are sick, it's all right! In a house, for an Indian house I would say, the food is cooked for all of us. And we all eat it. Whatever the mother cooks for all the children. They don't have a separate cereal in the morning, “Which one will you have?", “I will have this one"... another one, “I will have this one." Third one will think, “What will I have today?" What is there to think and why to waste your energy in all these choices? It's only ego! Nothing but an ego. I have seen it people having big, big these menu cards and reading them for half an hour and coming down, what are I am going to have? Better have all of useless same, what is there? The tongue is the same and mouth is the same. And it's going to be the same! What is there so special about deciding, what will I have today? What have you done today, that you should have something special? What is such a special thing about it wasting your energy, “O! I will have this." “I will have that." Even I have seen, when we Sahaja Yogis used to go for our dinners and all that, everybody would order, “I will have this." Now, imagine, eighty persons going to a restaurant, everybody ordering something else; no wonder that people would not accept us there because all the people who served us must have gone mad! [Aside:] It's all right take it easy. Burnt yourself, with that sarī, you need not bring the cup... poor thing. Thank you very much, thank you very much, thank you, thank you very much, thank you.

So this is what it is, that we should not have all these choices. Whatever is cooked by the grace of God, praise it that we've got the food. We eat the food with all joy and happiness and if anybody sick, [UNCLEAR we/he] can cook for that person that's all! But so much attention is paid to food, what's the use? We are so much worried about these useless things and after eating all that food also, the tongue is so horrible just like a snake. While snake eats only grass! He doesn't eat all these cereals and all that! It eats grass. But our tongues are just like snakes when we eat all the best things, with selections this, that. All things we do, clothes we'll wear with selections, we'll [UNCLEAR have] be particular about this and particular about that, but we are not particular about our roots! That's the point; we have to be particular about our roots. Because we all have to grow, we have to become great Sahaja Yogis.

Out of you, great prophets have to come! And for that there has to be single minded, complete devotion to understanding that you are realised Souls. If you have to go after other Gurus and all that, you go ahead.

You can go ahead and do what you like with yourself. If you have no discrimination of vibrations, you can do what you like! But if you have, then use it and know for yourself that you are your own Guru; you don't need anybody. Anything else like that about your roots you have to understand. That it is you who has to improve yourself it is you who matters and nobody else to Me and to God. It is you who has to be such that you should look after yourself the way you look after your clothes, look after your food, look after every choice of yours. Whether you will be that choice that God would like to have, make yourself like that; that God will pick you up, “Oh! This is my best flower, with the best fragrance." This is what I want you to do.

So when we make rules for this ashram it's a challenge. This is a challenge for My children to come up to it.

I have known many Gurus who came to Me, who are good Gurus, told Me that why have you given them realisation? Who are they? According to them you are all Dick, Tom and Harry. What have they done? We have done so much of tapasyas, we have done this, we have done that, why have you given them realisation to these people? Now the tapasya has started. We have to be tapasvis. We have to be people with penance and we should be happy to do this. But that penance make people egoistical, hot tempered; this is going to make you very sweet, nice and good and joyful... that's the difference between the two. If you, I had asked you to do this tapasya before realisation, you all would have been standing with one stick in the hand, hitting everyone who passed by. Of course you would be good, but the rest of them would be hit by you.

So thank God, now the tapasya has started with understanding that you are going to develop your self to this level. And thus I am sure this ashram, which is a blessing of God upon us, we'll prove worthy of this and create a new world.

The time has started. The breakthrough has started, I can assure you it has started. Believe me! The ways and methods, which are working out, which are very interesting, which I would like you to understand that this new style is developing. You are going to get lots of Sahaja Yogis. But first of all, you should be such that they should see you and see that the faces of this people are like sparkling diamonds. They should not find any faults in you. I bless you with all My heart, with all the powers that I have, with everything that I have, I bless you.

May God make you the best flowers of the whole universe. May God bless you.

But today is My wedding anniversary. And that is how we are here and My husband is also going to come. And we have to decide now how many are going to get married this year? Except for one or two most of the marriage has come up very successfully. And those who have been also married before and got remarried in Sahaja Yoga have come out to be very good companions. They've improved in their relationships... it's much better now. And everything is working out in a beautiful way and lots of realised children are being born. And we are being strengthened by their advent.

So this auspicious day today, is just after `Palm Sunday' when Christ was received with all jubilations and today is the time when we have to understand that married life itself is a, is a big yagñya, it's a big homa, it's a big havana in which, we have to adjust, burn off our angularities and we have to appreciate and understand each other and cope with so many things and make it a beautiful... a... beautiful... what you call the beautiful cradle for the children who have to come. And also a sustaining thing, marriage is a challenge and is very sustaining very helpful to understand yourself. It's like a reflection that you see every minute.

If you know how to really reflect about yourself because after realisation you can do that and see for yourself how you are going about? Whether you are losing your vibrations or gaining? It's a challenge! And every time you do anything in marriage after realisation, you progress. How you handle situation? How you work it out? How you understand? Everything is very important. And all these things work out so beautifully, if you know that you are a realised Soul and that marriage is a havana. And those people who teach, don't get married and all that are absolutely anti-Sahaja Yogis. You have nothing to do with such people. Who talk, don't get married like brahmakumaries and things like that. Not to get married and do what? All kinds of nonsensical things!

Marriage has been established by God. Is an auspicious thing and is to be respected. All these ideas must be given up that marriages are not important. Marriages are very important, but not more than Sahaja Yoga.

Marriages are important, because they help Sahaja Yoga. Not because they go against Sahaja Yoga.

So more time must be spent with Sahaja Yoga activities, both of you should work it out. And not that we should have a nice holiday together, or sort of a thing like that, you'll never enjoy. You cannot enjoy holiday without Sahaja Yogis being there. Now these are your holidays, these are your festivals, these are your enjoying places. I know you enjoy here much more than anywhere else, isn't it? So that's what it is! So why should we go for any special holidays separately and this and that and become miserable and come back with all catches? So I am thankful to you for arranging this program today on an auspicious day for Me, it was an auspicious day that I married Mister Srivastava and it's an auspicious day for all of you, that we... we have to understand that marriage has to be done in a proper way, in a Sahaja Yoga way and is to be lived in a Sahaja Yoga manner. I think Mister Srivastava will be coming now, before that I better finish this lecture and you have to find out about the food, just call the boy.

[Shri Mataji is talking to Sahaja Yogis in Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: You understand My thing? You like them? Good. Now if the servant is there I will just ask him. Has he come? [Shri Mataji is talking to someone.] So any questions? Or should I go and see the place? Alright, where are My shoes gone?

Sahaja Yogini: [question about reincarnation.]

Shri Mataji: They ask you question that whether there is reincarnation or not? Yes it is.

Sahaja Yogini: But how? What you say?

Shri Mataji: I mean, Christ himself has said that “I will come back to you." That's the proof. But otherwise also you see there are many cases now that have proved that there is reincarnation. That people have been talking about previous lives and when people went and tried to find out and they are verified.

It's been proved now. I mean people have accepted, those who read these books they know there is reincarnation. You see people remember about things about previous lives. But what is... it's not so important; you should say, it's not important to know. You see they will hook you on such questions.

What I am saying, they will try to hook you on such questions, which is not so important.

[Shri Mataji is talking to a Sahaja Yogini.]... [UNCLEAR] anniversary and we both want to thank you all for celebrating this and also the opening of this place was done on the same day. And we both are very much thankful. And I hope you are all going to enjoy this place and we enjoy the community living and sharing of joy.

Thank you.

Contents: 1982-04-11 Easter Pūjā, About Easter or The Creation of Lord Jesus, Nightingale Lane, London, UK

I will talk before and then at the time you can just tell Me what time is it.

The Radio is of? You can keep it. Till eight a clock...

Happy Easter to all of you! Today we are celebrating a day which is a very-very important, absolutely the most important, we can say, day when such a great happening took place. And it had to take place that way, it was all in a way destined.

In My last lectures, I've told you how Christ was created first in the heavens. In the Devī Māhātmyam, if you read that, He was created as Mahāviṣhṇu and it is mentioned very clearly that first He was created as an egg. It is written in this book, which perhaps was written 14,000 years back. It's a book that predicts about Christ and that is why people, in the West at Easter especially, offer an egg to each other as a friend.

So, first the existence came on this earth as an egg that was Christ and part of it was kept in that state and the rest of it was used by the Holy Ghost, by Mahālakṣhmī, to create Christ out of it.

In that ancient book He was called as Mahāviṣhṇu, means the greater form of Viṣhṇu. But actually Viṣhṇu is the Father and He is the Son created by the Holy Ghost. After My lecture, I would like, if you have the book, to read it out to them, the whole text of how Christ was created and when He was created. He cried for His father and He cried also on the cross once and He cried for years and then Christ, in Mahāviṣhṇu state, was blessed by His father who said your position will be placed higher than Mine and you will be the `adhara', means the support of the universe. See how from Mūlādhāra He becomes the adhara. This was all done at the heavenly stage `Vaikuṇṭha' stage. You can say then, He was given birth by the Holy Ghost who was the Mother of Christ on this earth, who was nobody else but was the incarnation of Mahālakṣhmī, means She was Rādhā. Ra-dha. Ra means energy, dha the one who sustains energy.

There are many aspects of Easter, one has to understand, but the most of all “why did He have to die and why was He resurrected?" This point I have not yet touched perhaps so clearly, that's the point I want to tell you today. It's only you people can understand the importance of the life of Christ. And when it is said that you have to get your realisation through Christ, it means that He had to pierce through the Āgñyā Chakra. He had to be there. If He had not created this gap in the gate, we could never have got realisation. That is why it is said you are to pass through the gates of heaven only with the grace of Christ. Of course, that doesn't mean churches, it doesn't mean at all churches. You have to understand as Sahaja Yogi that you have to pass through the Āgñyā Chakra. Ultimately that's the most difficult point where human beings had to pass. Because at the Āgñyā Chakra your ego and superego are fully grown. At the human stage only this ego is developed. Now, how to overcome the ego was a point and to overcome the ego Christ had to do this. When He was created in the beginning as Śhrī Gaṇeśha, you know the story how He was created; that the `mala' from the body of Pārvatī was taken out because before Her marriage She had to cover Herself for Her bath with many scented things and it was taken out, all these things and Her vibrations came out. And She created this Child just to protect Her chastity. Outside Her bathroom She put Him and you know the whole story about it. Now, there was a part of the element of the earth in that child, `prithvi-tattwa' was there. All other centers, have got some elements in them, some elements, like prithvi Tattwa is there, earth element. Then you have got water element, then you have got air element and when you come to this: it is the light element, it's the light. And, at this point, at Āgñyā Chakra, He had to cross the last element, that was the light element, that means He had to come out into the true form of only the Divine Power, the Omkāra, the vibrations you can call it or the absolute, you call it the logos or something like that, the first sound, Brahma.

So He had to become the principle of Brahma. To become principle of Brahma, He had to get rid of all other elements in Him.

So, the last was also the light element which He also had to cross through.

So he had earth element in Him as He was of the mala and all other elements within Him. But when it comes to the Āgñyā He had to give up all the elements, that He had to die the death of all these elements that were within Him, to become complete, absolute, pure Spirit. What He did in subtle form works out in the gross form and to do that He had to die and whatever died in Him was that little earth element and other elements. And what came out of Him was Pure Spirit, was `Pure Spirit'. That was resurrected, the Pure Spirit, the pure Brahma Tattwa which had formed the body of Christ which was the body of Christ and this happening came. Christ has done what was predicted about Him. That He's a Savior because He passed through that gate to take people from this bodily existence, means the one that depends on the elements, to that existence which is Spirit.

So the Resurrection is where you Become, from your attention you jump into the attention of the Spirit, when you feel your attention, when you become the Spirit. That is the happening which has happened to you also. But He became pure Spirit, pure Brahma Tattwa, when He was resurrected and the Resurrection is a happening of the Divine Power which came from Mūlādhāra Chakra as just earth element, started growing. It took its birth from there, came up to Āgñyā Chakra, there Christ was created to pass through all the elements, ultimately to enter the Sahasrāra to become a complete Brahma Tattwa. And this was a very difficult thing, was very experimental; and the experiment was a quite dangerous one. It could have failed because He had in Him that human element, the body element, which suffers. And He suffered, because this body element suffers, not the Spirit, the Spirit does not suffer, the body suffers.

So, He had to suffer that body element and to get over it, to get out of it. And to get out of it, He had to have a tremendous courage. It was such a difficult operation without Him nobody could have achieved. He knew it was predestined, but it was one of the most difficult things to happen.

I wonder how many Christians know the significance of an egg. Now egg signifies a stage where you are, before realisation. When you are in your egg shell, that you are Mr. X, you are Mrs. Y. But, when you mature fully inside, the bird is ready and that is the time you are hatched. This is the time you get twice-born.

So, the Resurrection of Christ signifies that and that's why we give that egg to people, saying you are that, an egg, a reminder of that. And this egg can become a Spirit. And also it is written that it was an egg when He came first, He was created as an egg, half of it remained as Śhrī Gaṇeśha and half of it became Mahāviṣhṇu. Then He came on this earth and He departed with all His elements and the pure vibrations formed His body. He remained there within all of you to be awakened and when the Kuṇḍalinī takes your attention through that point there you also become the Spirit. That's why He said “I'm the gate, I'm the door" because you can become Christ. That's why He didn't say `I'm the destination,' that you have to achieve Him. But, He has created this space for you. You can become spiritually awakened, you can become your Spirit.

But, Christ is an incarnation. He was the Son of God and so He's an incarnation. And that incarnation came on this earth just to pull you out of your elements to make you become the Spirit. Now, how it is that it was the most difficult thing, because human beings have created in their heads all kinds of artificial barriers. You see whatever we think and whatever we do with our mind is all dead, manmade, is artificial, because reality is beyond your mind, it is not in your mind, you cannot conceive it, you cannot hold it. Whatever is in your mind is not the reality. It is beyond.

So, for a human being to accept something that is beyond mind had become so difficult, at the time of Christ because of Romans and all these people coming up. We are repeating the history again. They were so ego-oriented, they were so full of ego that to destroy their ego somebody had to do this, to create a passage. By His death so many things are proved.

That all those who crucified Him were stupid people, they were ego-oriented, they were blind, they could not see what He saw. They could not see what a genuine personality He was. They crucified Him. I mean, this is the greatest stupidity and they crucified Him. It was all known because these people were so stupid they would have only crucified Him. What else could they do? Because they couldn't bear with their little egos somebody Who is so simple, Who is so genuine, Who is so true.

So, they crucified Him and that Crucifixion came as a breakthrough for us.

But message for us is the Resurrection part. Message for us is the Resurrection and not Crucifixion.

Crucifixion is not the message because He has done for us, this is the point where the Jews must understand. The other day I was reading, today only, some discussion with the Archbishop of Canterbury took place and the fellow was asking him questions as if he was asking questions to God. And, in a way, he said also that “I would ask this question to God. That why is it so many Jews were killed?" They asked for it! They wanted that they must suffer because they wouldn't give the credit of suffering to Christ. They thought we all had to suffer. Ego. It's ego. “How did anybody suffer for us, we must suffer separately." They couldn't give that credit to Christ. And all the later thinking was that we must suffer.

So, whatever you think comes into action on this gross level.

So Mister Hitler was born and he made them suffer; and the stupidity of human beings is responsible for all the problems that are created on this earth.

The other question was “how the children get leukemia, he would ask God." How children get leukemia.

If the parents are so frantic and speedy, children have to get it. If you are not relaxed person when you are married, when you are going to have a baby, you are thinking of divorces and all sorts of nonsense, that franticness will work on the child. Psychologically it is a left side problem and the child has to be a patient of leukemia as soon as he's born. That is what it is! So, the problems are created by human beings because of their stupidity. There is no problem that God has created for you. He has solved all your problems. All our problems He solves. You've seen in Sahaja Yoga how He solves your little-little problems even. But, we create problems for ourselves, by our stupidity, by our addiction to elements, to material things, to material habits. Matter sits on our head, that is, we can say on the level of the earth element.

Then, we have other problems, like emotional attachments: this is my daughter, this is my child, this is my..., this is mine, I'm so attached to my child, this is my country, this is your country. We create problems. This Falkland thing, what we're going to get out of this territory? God never created Argentina, Chile, England and all that. She created one homogeneous structure and it is to look after each other, like a heart is created, a liver is created, a brain is created, a nose is created. If they start fighting, say this eye starts fighting this eye... we laugh. But we human beings do the same thing. We are all the time doing it. This is the stupidity of human beings, which is creating problems. And when you become very stupid, somebody horrible takes advantage of that and comes on this earth, just like Hitler and he tries to put you right.

You don't need all that. You need only wisdom and your realisation. And that is what is done today, that you have got realisation.

So Easter for Sahaja Yogis all over the world is the most important happening: because if it had not happened it would not have been possible to give realisation to people.

I think Gavin will read it out to you later on about what is written about Christ in `Devī Bhagavat'.

This book was written about 14,000 years back by Mārkandeya.

So, imagine 14,000 years back! He knew, being a seer, just like Blake, what was going to happen when Christ was to come. But He was called as Mahāviṣhṇu. He was not Viṣhṇu. He was the Son of Viṣhṇu and how many Christians understand this about Easter? They don't. Christianity today is nothing but a mental activity which is dead, just nonsense, just like any other nonsensical religion. It has become just another foolish, stupid religion, which has no meaning. Unless and until you get your realisation, unless and until you feel the vibrations, unless and until you feel this Divine surrounding Power, how will you understand? Because that's the only thing that is truth, that's the only thing that's reality. And unless and until you achieve it how will you know about Christ? And fighting about Him! How can you fight? I can't understand. To Me it's stupid, gone to another extreme. By this thing what you do actually, is to use all these incarnations to kill each other.

Can you imagine? The things that came to elevate you, to make you into higher living are now used, the same things, the names are used, to kill, to kill each other, to bring down each other. At the most, if you reach a point where you don't understand, then they start saying “it's a mystery." What is the mystery? In Sahaja Yoga there's no mystery. It's all just there. To Me human beings are a mystery. I don't understand them. I can't understand. The Resurrection of Christ has to now be collective resurrection.

This is what is Mahā Yoga. Has to be the collective resurrection and for this collective resurrection first of all, Sahaja Yogis must decide to be collective. Because through Kuṇḍalinī awakening you cross, no doubt, you cross through. But you enter an area of collectivity and if you do not allow that collectivity to permeate into you, then you come down. Supposing you become a state beyond the elements, the state where you are a collective being. You're aware that you're a part and parcel of the Whole. You're aware that you have to help your nose and your eyes because you're a part and parcel of the Whole. You reach that stage where you understand: I'm as important as other cells are and other cells are helped by me and they have to sustain me. We are one. There should be complete concord.

This awareness comes after realisation and if you do not understand that this awareness, that this collective awareness is the only way you can stay in that area, otherwise you get out. You start having your smaller wells and you just go down into them. The more you start to expand yourself you rise higher and then you are again with your baddhas and whatever it is. But, if you think that I have to live for the whole, I'm responsible for the whole, I'm responsible for creating a nucleus of a cell which is going to look after the Whole and if I fall down the rest also suffers; I have no business to fall down because I have been resurrected to this point; I've entered into the state of collectivity where my being, which is the Spirit, is the collective being and I have to stay there, I have to be there, I cannot fall, is not the way I can live.

But, I've seen after realisation also, people cannot get out of their shells. They still remain in the shell.

They cannot spread their wings and sing and get out of their shell and just fly. They cannot do it. They still stick on to their small ways of life in a smaller way, in every way. On a holiday you go, you want to have a separate holiday. Why? This is the holiday time, holy day, as they say, Holy Day. This the holy day. When you are with other Sahaja Yogis you are really enjoying a holiday. When do you enjoy a holiday otherwise? Which is the other way? To be with them is the real holiday. That is why one should understand that you should expand your collectivity. If you do not expand your collectivity you are just a waste. You are a wasteful creation of Sahaja Yogis, which, I'm sorry to say, will go down. Such people show also, in the beginning, gradually they start getting better and better and once you are in full state you start enjoying each other's company without any fears about them, without having any possessiveness about them without having any kind of expectations, but just enjoying it. That has to happen. All our cells in our body are like that. If they can do it why not we? Because we have so much of sense, at least we think we have more sense than the cells have. At least it is expected because we have evolved so much from unicell [unicellular] to this state. And then you are the epitome of God's creation! You are the topmost people. Then why not? When you are resurrected the first thing that should happen to you is to understand you are no more an individual, but you are a collective being. You are no more an individual. All things which make you circumcise your individuality, throw that away. You are no more an individual. All problems which come to you as individual problems are absolutely useless, false, wasteful. Think of the collective problems.

I enjoy such people. Like the other day Fergie was anxious to know for Bristol which points are there which are giving vibrations from the Mother Earth. He's worried about the whole of Bristol, all the Jamaicans. Then about the British people and then of the whole world. You should be. One should not think how will my daughter get married, how can I get a ticket to go there? All these nonsensical ideas should be given up. Because you are now entered into the kingdom of God and He's going to look after you. Because that state you establish within yourself, that you are a collective being. All other things will drop out. Gradually everybody will be remolded. Even the most difficult type, I've seen, have improved. But what about you, the one who is improving everybody else, what about you? How far are you there? How far in your faith that you know that I have entered into the Kingdom of God and that action of Mine is looked after and guided by His power and I'm aware of it? I'm aware that I've entered into the Kingdom of God, which is expressed through my collectivity.

So collectivity is the nature of a Sahaja Yogi and that's what one has to realise.

May God bless you.

Is it alright now? Just timely! How I managed! Without looking at the watch. [Pause.] [UNCLEAR.] I will have some water. First some tea.

All these lectures, if you could tape, hello Athena, hello! If you could tape and sort of send some of them to France.....

.....

Yes, that is important. I agree that we must have a list of things where... You have to give it a title, you see I have no titles but you have to give a title. For example, what you can say, is today `Resurrection of Christ" or something about Easter.

Actually you can contact this bishop of Canterbury. Listen... no, poor man is not such a staunch Christian, I feel the way [laughter]. I think next time you may write a letter to him and some of you can go and see him. When Gregoire comes.....

He does Gāyatrī mantra. He becomes ten times worse than any Westerner. Think of it.

Now can you read it? Now is it started? [The Sahaja Yogis are waiting for a radio broadcast.] Sahaja Yogis: Somebody has to set the frequency... The right frequency for...

.....

You have to go through all nonsense to listen to some sense somewhere.

Mmm, Gaving what have you got? You read the Bible [UNCLEAR].

Gavin: [UNCLEAR] it's a very appropriate song we discovered Mother. Very short [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Must be, must be.

Gavin:.....

Shri Mataji: Ha? Gavin:.....

Shri Mataji: Lovely.

Gavin [reads aloud]: Psalm 133.

“(1) Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! (2) It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; (3) As the dew of Hermon and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore."

Shri Mataji: See? It's very beautifully found out, I must say.

[GAP] Gavin: “Nārāyaṇa said: `O Devarsi! The egg (born of Mula Prakṛiti) that was floating in the waters for a period equal to the life period of Brahma, now in the fullness of time separated into two parts. Within that egg there was a powerful child, lustrous like one thousand millions of suns.' "

Shri Mataji: Suns. See.

Gavin: “This child could not suck mother's milk as it was forsaken by Her.

So, being tired of hunger, the child, for a moment, cried repeatedly."

Shri Mataji: Forsaken because he had to grow.

Gavin: “The child that will become the lord of countless Brahmāṇḍas (universes)”

Shri Mataji: Countless Brahmāṇḍas. Brahmāṇḍas are universes.

Gavin: “... now an orphan having no father nor mother began to look upwards from the waters. This boy came to be denominated afterwards by the name of Mahāvirāt when he became gross and grosser.

As there is nothing finer than radium, so there is nothing grosser than Mahāvirāt. The power of this Mahāvirāt (is) one sixteenth of that of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, the Highest Self. But this boy”

Shri Mataji: That is Yehova.

Gavin: “... But this boy, (born of the Prakruti Rādhā) is the Sole Stay of all this Universe..."

Shri Mataji: Sole Stay.

Gavin: “... he is denominated by the name `Mahāviṣhṇu'. In his every pore countless universes are existing.

So much so that even Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa could not count them. If it were possible to count the number of dust particles, it is impossible to count the number of the universes.

So there are endless Brahmās, Viṣhṇus and Maheśhvaras. In every Brahmāṇḍa, there is Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśha. Each Brahmāṇḍa extends from Patala to the Brahmaloka. The abode of Vaikuṇṭha is higher than that (i.e. it is situated outside of Brahmāṇḍa), again the abode of Goloka is fifty koti yojanas [50 x 10 x 4 x 2 million miles] higher than Vaikuṇṭha. This Goloka Dhama is eternal and real as Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is eternal and real. This world composed of the seven islands is surrounded by the seven oceans. Forty-nine Upa Dvīpas [smaller islands adjacent to them] exist here. Besides there are countless mountains and forests.

Higher than this earth is the Brahmaloka with seven heavens and below this are the seven Patalas. This is the bounding limit of Brahmāṇḍa. Just above this earth there is the Bhūrloka, above is Bhuvaloka, then Swarloka, then Janarloka, then Taparloka, then Satyaloka and above that..."

Shri Mataji: Mahāloka. Mahāloka not there? Mahā, Gavin: “Brahmaloka."

Shri Mataji: Bhūr, Buhva, Swāhā? They call it Brahma.

Gavin: Bhūr, Bhuva, Swāhā Shri Mataji:, Swāhā, Tapah.

Gavin: Janar,

Shri Mataji: Janar. Tapah.

Gavin:, Satya and Brahmaloka. “The splendor of Brahmaloka is like that of molten gold. But all the substances whether outside or inside this Brahmaloka, are transient. When this Brahmāṇḍa dissolves, everything dissolves and is destroyed. All are temporary like bubbles of water. Only Goloka and Vaikun.ṭha are eternal. In every pore of this Mahāvirāt is existing one Brahmāṇḍa…"

Shri Mataji: Hmm. Pore means any, every, what you call this, pore of the skin. One Brahmāṇḍa exists in Christ.

Gavin: “What to speak of others when even Kṛiṣhṇa cannot count the number of these Brahmāṇḍas.

In every Brahmāṇḍa there is Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśha. O Child Nārada! In every Brahmāṇḍa, the number of the Gods is three kotis or thirty millions.

Some of them are the Dikpatis (the Regents of the quarters); some are the Dikpalas (the Rulers of the quarters), some are asterisms and some are planets.

In the Bhūrloka, there are four Varnas (Brahmins, etc.) and in the Patalas there are Nagas. Thus the Universe exists composed of moveable and non-moveable things (This is Brahmāṇḍa Vivriti). O Nārada! Now the Virāt Puruṣha began to look up to the skies again and again but He could not see anything within that egg except the void. Then distressed with hunger He cried out repeatedly and became merged in anxiety. Next moment getting back His consciousness, He began to think of Kṛiṣhṇa, the Highest Person and saw there at once the eternal light of Brahma. He saw there His form as deep blue like new rain cloud; with two bands [hands], garment of a yellow colour, sweet smile on His face, flute in His hand and He seemed to be very anxious to show His Grace to Devotees. Looking at the Lord, His Father, the boy became glad and smiled. The Lord, the bestower of boon, granted him boons appropriate for that moment. Oh child let you possess knowledge like me, let your hunger and thirst vanish: let you..."

Shri Mataji: See. Hunger and thirst vanish. He fasted for forty days. See, all the indications are there.

Gavin: "... let you be the holder of innumerable Brahmāṇḍas till the time of Pralaya (the universal dissolution). Be without any selfishness, be fearless and the bestower of boons to all. Let not old age, death, disease, sorrow or any other ailings afflict thee."

Shri Mataji: This is the sign of a Brahma Shakti. He Himself has said before that the Brahma Shakti, or the Spirit does not die, does not get old and all that and He's telling him all that. Nāḍī

Gavin: "Thus saying, He repeated thrice on his ear the six-lettered great Mantra `Om Kṛiṣhṇaya Swāhā' worshipped by the Vedas with their Amgas, the Giver of desires and the destroyer of all troubles and calamities. O Brahma's Son! Thus giving the mantra, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa arranged for His feeding thus. In every universe whatever offerings will be given to Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, one sixteenth of that will go to Nārāyaṇa, the Lord of Vaikun.ṭha and fifteen sixteenth is to go to this boy the Virāt."

Shri Mataji: He is Nārāyaṇa also, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is Nārāyaṇa you see.

So one sixteenth will go to Nārāyaṇa and fifteen sixteenth to His son.

Gavin: “Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa did not allot any share for Himself. Himself transcending all the Guṇas and Full, He is always satisfied with Himself. What necessity is there for any further offerings? Whatever the people offer with devotion, the Lord of Lakṣhmī, the Virāt eats all these. Bhagawan Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa giving thus to the Virāt the boon and the mantra said, `Oh child, say what more you desire. I will give you that instantly.' The Virāt boy hearing thus the words of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa spoke. `O, Thou Omnipresent, I have got no desires whatsoever, save this that as long as I live, whether for a short time or for a long time, let me have pure Bhakti towards Thy Lotus Feet.' "

Shri Mataji: That's why, always Christ has these fingers like this, one denoting towards Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa and another towards Viṣhṇu. He's talked of His Father throughout. For a short time or for a long time, He lived for a short time and for a long time.

Gavin: “In this world he is Jīvanmukta (liberated whilst living) who is your Bhakta; and that bewildered fool is dead while living who is devoid of any Bhakti to Thee. What needs he to perform Japam, asceticism, sacrifice, worship, holding fasts and observances, going to sacred places of pilgrimages and other virtuous acts if he be without any Bhakti to Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa? Vain is his life who is devoid of any devotion to Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, under Whose Grace he has obtained his life and Whom he does not now pay homage and worship.

He is endowed with Shakti as long as Ātmā resides in his body; no sooner the Ātmā departs from his body all the Shaktis accompany him. O Great One! And thou art the Universal Ātman (soul) who transcends Prakṛiti, Who is All will, the Primeval Person”

Shri Mataji: See? Gavin: “, and of the nature of the Highest Light. O Child! Thus saying, the Virāt boy remained silent. Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa then spoke in sweet words, `Oh child, let you remain as fresh as ever like Me. You will not have any fall even if innumerable Brahmas pass away. Let you divide yourself in parts and turn into smaller Virāts in every universe.' "

Shri Mataji: That's what He did.

Gavin: “Brahma will spring from Your navel and will create the cosmos. From the forehead of that Brahma will spring eleven rudras for the destruction of the creation."

Shri Mataji: See.

Gavin: “But they will all be parts of Shiva."

Shri Mataji: That is given by Shiva to Him. See, the eleven parts are given to this child by Shiva.

Gavin: The Rudra named Kalagni, of these eleven Rudras, will be the destroyer of all this Vishvas (the cosmos). Besides, from each of your subdivisions, the Viṣhṇu will originate and that Bhagawan Viṣhṇu will be the Preserver of this Viṣhṇu world. I say that under my favour you will always be full of Bhakti towards Me and no sooner you meditate on Me, you will be able to see My lovely form. There is no doubt in this; and your Mother, Who resides in My breast, will not be difficult for you to see." Shri Mataji [likely aside]: Better to save it [UNCLEAR].

Gavin: “Let you remain here in ease and comfort. I now go to Goloka. Saying thus Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, the Lord of the world disappeared."

Shri Mataji: See, it's so clear-cut. Better send it to this Archbishop of Canterbury. What does he understand about Christ? That every pore of His skin is one Brahmāṇḍa.

So He became very gross, you see, in the sense that He came down on this earth, you see and then He became the Spirit. That's why it is said, His “only Son."...

Gentleman: Mother? It's called `Resurrection Sunday'.

Stanza I: We wandered lost in this confused age You came to us like rain to a scorched plain.

We made so many foolish mistakes But You laughed and loved us even more.

We walked always seeking Messiah's return And then You came with open arms.

We closed our hearts and ran our love dry And You refreshed us with cooling Grace.

Mother, O Mother, River of Love You wash our troubles away.

Mother, O Mother, Ocean of Joy You are opening our flowers.

Stanza II: We struggled hard inside our shells You took the eggs and made the doves.

We cried for love and forgot how to be You wiped our tears and let us see.

We needed the fulfilment of Christ's words And then Mother Mary, You gave us true second birth.

We languished in our man-made tombs Divine Redeemer, You rolled away the stone.

Mother, O Mother, River of Love You wash all troubles away.

Mother, O Mother, Ocean of Joy You are open all the flowers.

Shri Mataji: Beautiful. It's like a mantra working on My vibrations.

So our programs are fixed for different days and now I've received a letter from, [GAP]... Even tell somebody “You have to get married” suddenly they... [silence]... as if somebody has stuck a pistol! That's the first reaction I have seen many a times. Pat has not come today? Lady: No, [UNCLEAR Kershan] is not very well, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Hmm? Lady: [UNCLEAR Kershan's] still not very well; in fact he's very sick.

Shri Mataji: I know, poor thing.

Lady: We'd like to come and see You next week, [UNCLEAR if we can be here for the...].

Shri Mataji: I have told... her problem is basically something different and I have told the solution and I've asked Gavin, Gavin to find out? Did you ask Sara? Gavin: I didn't get the chance just yet.

Shri Mataji: But Sara is here, you can talk to her. You see we have a, we had a doctor in India called Doctor Sh, [GAP]

Shri Mataji:... done, what? So why should we worry? Everything is done for you, I mean lucky people I must say. Like guests, you see? That others have to do everything for you and you have the fruits of it. Isn't it a good situation? But still you look so worried. As we say. There's a dog walking under a cart. He looks very worried because he thinks he's carrying the cart, you see? And the poor, the one, one, the bullocks which are pulling the cart are quite happy. Is it true that in Islam they hate dogs? Gentleman: No.

Shri Mataji: No? No. They don't hate dogs. In Iran they, I don't know why they hate dogs so much.

Somebody was telling Me that they ill-treat dogs, absolutely. I said “Surprisingly?" Gentleman: Same with Asia. [UNCLEAR] animals in general are not well treated. They're very badly treated You know?

Shri Mataji: Badly treated. Because, you see they have become little insensitive to animals, I think so. Like here people treat the dogs very kindly, but their children very unkindly. Is other way round. I mean it's... you just don't understand, it's a mystery as I said.

[GAP]... who want to see Me, can come. Tomorrow evening I'll be at home. All right? About say, six o'clock.

Then Sahasrāra Pūjā must be fixed in the evening so that everybody can make it. Say about seven o'clock, that would be good. Many people can come there, evening because it's a Wednesday or something. It's a Wednesday? So Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday, Friday, perhaps? It's a Wednesday? Are you sure? Because if second is Tuesday...

Gentleman [softly]: Second is Sunday.

Shri Mataji: Hm? Second is Tuesday.

Gentleman: No it's Sunday, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Is a Sunday. Then it's all right, Wednesday.

So one should try to have it about seven o'clock, so that other's can come in for the Pūjā. Now, is it over? Gentleman: [UNCLEAR Both/Pope] John Glower is here, he's supposed to have been...

Shri Mataji: Where is he? Gentleman: [UNCLEAR Surbiton.] [The last eight minutes of a radio interview with a Sahaja Yogi about Sahaja Yoga is broadcast, at the end of which the announcer says]: And should you be interested, She's holding a meeting at Caxton Hall on Wednesday the fourteenth of April at 7 p.m., everyone is welcome.

[The Sahaja Yogis cheer and applaud the broadcast.]

Shri Mataji: Become empowered by your own powers. You yourself know, you can feel it, the other person, you can feel yourself and you know how to manoeuvre, you see, this Kuṇḍalinī of others; you can give realisations to others; you can cure others; your power is released. Your power of your Spirit is released on your central nervous system. That would be really convincing; that is not My power, it's your own power you can feel.

Lady: [UNCLEAR] within, the people from other groups, they do all say, very much, the same as we do [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's it. Just talking is very easy. You see if you read some books, then talk. See if they read a Sahaj Yoga book, they can say, “I have a Kuṇḍalinī awakening. I can see the Chakras. I can" [UNCLEAR I don't know what to say]. Ask them, “Can you feel our Chakras?" that's all. Then what do they agree? Then what do they say; are they going to come? Lady:...

Shri Mataji: I think you should go and meet them, again and again. You see, [UNCLEAR Amar Samati] asked, he went to Santa Cruz, absolutely a new place and he met people and talked to them and told them, “See, you are not feeling anything, why are you adhering to any group, for what; for paying money, for what? Because you have been doing it, but you are not feeling any vibrations, nothing; you are not feeling anything, you have no powers." And he convinced them. And I said, “There will be at least five to six hundred people” and there were, more than that for that program. That's what you have to go and tell them, “What have you got? You haven't got any powers. We have, we can feel you. We know this is what, this your Chakra is here, that is there." That's the thing.

Lady: [UNCLEAR]... and I asked one of them [UNCLEAR actually] what enlightenment was.

And he gave me a very [UNCLEAR scary] answer. And I put it to him, “Do you think you'll get it in this lifetime?" And he says: “Oh I don't know, I think it might be possible." And I said, “Well, how will you know it when you get it?" He said, “Oh, I suppose it will dawn on me one day." And when he said that he completely [UNCLEAR changed].

Shri Mataji: It will what, it will what? Lady: He said, “I suppose it will dawn on me one day." And I... [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Good, good.

I'm also sending, you see these...

Somehow, in My husband's job, I meet people who are seekers and who are placed at the helm of affairs. I'm sending them books, you see? And I want to send one of the, one of our book, to Indonesia. There's an ambassador from Indonesia who's very anxious, so he's been writing to My husband that, “You haven't sent the book as yet." So we have to send it there.

Lady: Mother, Warren had set this cassette up, it's the first VHS copy of the Big match this Saturday.

He set it up, [GAP]

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR Shines from, looks like...] [GAP] It will become a cult once he starts tolerating everything. Just write to him that, `You become a cult then, you don't become a living church. The living things know how to discard, what to accept.' [Two snippet recordings of a few seconds each.]

Shri Mataji: What's in there? Gavin? That's [UNCLEAR]. That's too much. I don't know how you should think of all these things, really it's too much.

Lady: Mother, this is a real egg.

Shri Mataji: It's a real egg.

Lady: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: I know I can see the [few seconds interference on microphone]... must be ducks egg.

[GAP] [Then an outdoor recording, possibly a havan:]

Shri Mataji: “Many people should come to Sahaj Yoga and that Sahaj Yoga should be accepted by people and that it should spread like wildfire in the West." Ask the Agni itself, one hand towards that, one hand towards Me.

Contents: 1982-04-14*, Public Program, What is the Need for Sahaja Yoga (Integration and Collective Consciousness), Caxton Hall, London, UK

The other day, on the radio, they asked a very nice question, which I think I should handle first. The question was “What is the difference between other sects and Sahaja Yoga?" It's a very good question because it gives you a relative idea as to what is reality and what is not.

First of all, we should see what is the need of Sahaja Yoga. `Sahaja', as you know, is `Saha', means `with', `Ja' means `born'; is born with you. Means is spontaneous, it is with you. What is with you is the right to be united with the Divine, that's, to be in Yoga, to be united with God. Now, there are people who just don't believe in God, either, is quite possible, they are frightened to hear the name of God, because of various experiences they have had, the various ideologies that have prevailed. But God exists, no doubt, whether you like it or not. But unless and until you have felt the existence of God, to believe in God is difficult; one can understand that.

Now, what is Sahaja Yoga? In Sahaja Yoga what actually happens to a personality is this: that the sleeping power, or we can say unawakened power within you, which is your germinating power, rises, passes through the various subtle centers within you and pierces through this fontanelle area, and, what we call it, as a `baptism', as a blessing or the grace of the Holy Ghost, you get your realisation. It's a happening, it's actualisation, it is living, it is living. It is the blessing of the living God, not of an artificial one.

Like anybody calling you, says “Alright, let me baptize you" and just puts their hand on the head; it may not be baptism at all, because how can he, because he has not raised your Kuṇḍalinī? It's like any seed, supposing we have and the seed, we say that this seed is living, alright? How do you prove it? Unless and until you germinate it, how can you prove that it's a living thing? So the germination has to take place. Unless and until that happens, how can people believe in anything, whatever you may call it? So this rebirth has to take place, as everybody has told. Now, we need not sort of deny all that, defy all that, but we can keep ourselves open to understand what is the thing they are talking about. Now, why? What is the need, what is the need for a person to get his realisation? That's the main thing. First of all, people have said, “You are the Spirit." All right, we may be so; why? What is the need to be the Spirit? We are all right as human beings, as flesh, everything; what is the need to be realised? And once you understand the need, then you'll understand what is Sahaja Yoga and what the other sects are.

The need is this, that you are a part and parcel of the whole. Like a big primordial being you can think of and He has many cells and you are one of the cells. But you are not aware of it. You are not yet collective. Now, the difference between collective and a mass system is different. In a mass system, I mean, you can hypnotize complete mass, they'll start dancing, jumping, screaming, shouting. You can do what you like to masses; I mean, if the masses are of a weak-minded thing you can ask them to commit suicide. You can tell them anything they will do, if you just want to use the mass media. Like they become hysteric. Actually it is a special thing within us which makes you mimic others; is a very ancient thing within us, very, very ancient, that we were, as animals, we used to do that.

See, you have seen birds. Have you ever seen the birds like cranes flying out? They always go in a triangular way and as the one, the leader, turns, all the rest of them follow it, very automatically.

So that's this instinct we had to follow others, you see, to copy others. That's a very deep training to our being, that we try to follow others and that's why; what happens, we see some people going somewhere, so we think “Oh, we should also do the same thing." It's that competition between us.

See, this competitiveness has also come from the same seed within us of copying others. See, we try to copy others, like `clubbing', now, we have a club, say, club of people who dress up like white, er, suits and things. Then there are clubs with a certain type of dress, or you can find, as I last time told you, yards and yards of black suitings, you see, walking in `elite' societies. I mean, it's just clubbing you know.

They just want to club it together, put it together, then uniforms are there and then you have to wear the uniforms and you sort of feel that you are a part of the mass. It's a part of the mass, now. Again, this is a mass thing.

But Sahaja Yoga is a collective thing. People talk of collectivity, all of them talk of collectivity, but it is only rational, it is artificial. For example, a husband and wife must live together happily. Now the reason for that they give is that if they don't live happily, this will happen to children, that will happen to children, that will happen and that it may be that it won't be good for both of them, so we reason it out, go to a point, a `rational' point you call it, a logical point where we say, “Alright, we should not give up the relationship between husband and wife." But supposing husband and wife get realised. Then, what happens, they become aware of their duty as parents, aware. Awareness is a very different thing from just be in mass. Like, husband, wife feel that, you see, marriage is not thinking but you just feel it within yourself, not as a feeling of emotional style, but actually becomes your being. For example, after realisation you start feeling the Cool Breeze in the hand. But supposing the husband wife are trying to deceive each other, immediately the vibrations will go away. They'll feel no Cool Breeze, it's finished. They cannot proceed more further within.

Supposing a person has bad habits, say some dirty habits he has developed in his childhood and he's continuing with it. After realisation, if he starts indulging into it, immediately he'll find he's feeling uneasy and his vibrations are lost. He becomes aware, means on his central nervous system he can feel the bad effects of what we call as `bad'. He feels burning, he feels different centers are in trouble, I mean he can feel it just like as you can feel it hot and cold on your fingers.

So, when you become aware, then real collectivity can come. It is not a rational thing to say, “Oh, we are interdependent and we have to help each other. We must do this in a way that nobody should be harmed, that we should not be harmed." All this rationality is not needed, for, supposing tomorrow, if somebody tries to put a pin through, immediately the another hand will go there and hit the person and this hand will go back. All the body will react, automatically. The whole body will react to aggression on one side, or any kind of problem, but it is aware. It is not doing with rationality, there is no, it is spontaneous. There is no question of anybody thinking about it, but it happens just spontaneously.

So, to preserve ourselves, to preserve our body, mind, everything, is a disintegrated action before realisation. For example, before realisation, the brain will say, `All right, you do like this,' but the heart will say, `No.' For example supposing a man falls in love with a married woman, so the heart says, `Oh, carry on, she's a nice lady.' Brain says, `No it's not proper you see, disturbing her family life is not a good thing.' The Dharma, the religion part in the stomach, which is also a reality, it is not the Dharma we talk of in the church or anything.

[Aside:] The gentleman can come here, please, there's a seat here. May God bless you.

So that can be done, but the realised person does everything in an integrated way. In an integrated way, like if he is in love with a married lady, immediately he cannot fall also, he cannot fall in love with a married lady, just will not, he just doesn't do. No question of them saying, `Lead us not into temptation,' you just don't do bad things. We just don't like it, because you become aware and the awareness is not rational at all. We cannot think of awareness which is not rational, because whatever is not rational, according to us, is nonsensical, is erratical, is arbitrary, is nonsensical. But it is a sense that develops with you. It's an actual sense within you that develops, not the way it is developed with thinking, the sense with your mind, but the sense in your organs, in your body, in your being and in your heart, that you just don't do it. This is awareness and this is collectivity and those who cannot rise to collectivity cannot be good Sahaja Yogis.

And once you understand that this comes through the awakening of your spirit, then you understand all the problems of the world can only be solved if human beings become that collective being. That collective being is the Spirit and this collective being, if it is, if it is somehow awakened in our attention, then we automatically become that. Automatically we become collectively conscious. We don't have to rationalise it, just there. Means a little child will immediately say “Oh, Mother, see, this man has got problems." “Now, how do you know?" “Oh, all my fingers are burning." That person is not denounced because he's not well, whatever may be the problem. That person is not discarded, nor is told that he's good for nothing, but, immediately you feel the problem as a witness of that person and you have a power, because you are collectively conscious. As you can correct within yourself you can correct others also, because you are collectively conscious. Means you have the power to correct another person, to relieve him of the pain, troubles and everything, to help him out, to cure him, to do whatever is needed just by yourself.

Because, at the point where you are, at the Spirit point, you are one with the Spirit. I would say, like, while I'm talking to you I'm only connected with this to you, but supposing I was on a radio station, then I'm connected with many. That point of connection is the Spirit and unless and until you have achieved that point of connection, the rest of your, all your doings, are good for nothing.

Now, what is the difference between a sect and Sahaja Yoga? In Sahaja Yoga, an individual, an individual; again, we are all individuals before realisation. The other day, as I told you in Easter, we are all like the eggs and that's the sign of a human being, that he's still an egg. He lives in a shell, he thinks of himself, he thinks of his family, it's good in a way, he thinks of his country. Everything good, up to that point, because he's a shell. Whatever he tries to make himself big, you see, United Nations, everything you've been, but that shell business will remain in you. It will be there, showing results. But when you get that shell broken completely, you are a bird, you just fly out.

So, the Day of Resurrection, as I said, the Day of Resurrection, has started, is mentioned in the Koran, many a times, much more times than about the Day of DoOm This is the Day of Resurrection, where people have to be resurrected to be their Spirits, as Christ Himself has done that for us, by crossing the gates of Āgñyā Chakra.

Now this is not a sect, because there is nothing unreal about it, nothing unreal. There's no hypnosis, nothing, you are completely aware of what you are doing, you are aware that there is your power within yourself and that power is flowing and that you become that power. But that power is not of domination, or overpowering anybody, but of love, but of love of God, which is doing each and every work of this world.

For these flowers have come out from that, these flowers become fruit because of that. Because of that power people conceive children, because of that you are born, because of that power you have become from amoeba to this stage.

So, that instinct of the mass is very much now prevalent and used in this sense. They just give a mass feeling to people, that, you see, a competition is set in. First of all, in all these Western cities, Western cities especially, people are conscious of their money power.

So they use that also, so you pay some money; like on a horse, you pay a certain amount, they pay for a sect. “So much money, I'll pay." The other says, “Have you paid so much?" I mean, you'll be surprised, in the elite societies they talk like that, “Oh, these days, you know, I'm having so much of money and I want to go and join a sect, this sect or that sect or that sect." Because a competition has set in. Anywhere you see these musicians and singers when they sing. Actually, it was all manoeuvreed, it was all manoeuvreed in the beginning, that they get hold of some people who are weak-minded, who do not know their willpower, so to overpower them and use that instinct, that subconscious instinct in them to excite them and once they're excited they all go mad, all go mad and they become hysterical. And that hysteria is used today, out and out, by all the sects and that's why people are so crazy. If you look at them, you can't believe they're anywhere near God. How can they be? They all look crazy, possessed, mad people.

But this collectivity is to be understood in its own dimensions in Sahaja Yoga. This is the second task of Sahaja Yoga, which is more difficult than the first one. To give realisation is not at all difficult, because it's a natural thing, it is within you, the time has come, the blossom time is there, you get realisation without much difficulty. If not in one sitting, in second sitting you'll get it, no doubt, but to establish you as a collective cell of the whole is a very difficult thing and unless and until you are that you are thrown out of the whole. If you don't become aware of it you are just thrown out.

Now, collectivity in Sahaja Yoga does not mean that you wear some kind of dresses, all of you wearing same kind of dresses, or doing the same type of thing, or jumping or any such thing which has no sensible logic in it. It is the collectivity that you feel within yourself, that nearness you feel, not emotionally, also I would say, people think it's an emotional attachment to people. It's not emotionally also, it is beyond emotions, it is beyond thought, it is the Spirit. Because everybody has got this Spirit in them. Only thing, you have to become the Spirit.

Now anything you see, even, we can say, going to a temple. Now, in India, ladies are busy dressing up if they have to go to the temple. They'll find out “What sarī she's wearing, what sarī am I going to wear?" like we do it in the churches also. We go there with our best dresses, just watching what dress she has on, then we come out of the church, directly we ask the question, “Where did you get this one?", you see.

So the whole attention is on a social contact, a social `mass' feeling within ourselves.

So we are not individuals at all at that time, not at all. First we have to be absolute individuals and then you become a complete, aware part of the whole.

But, if you are not an individual, say that's why people who belong to these sects, or belong to some sort of a commitment, or to an organized place, they find it difficult, because they are not yet prepared to accept that individual jump into the whole. If the whole of it comes, well and good. If the whole doesn't come they are sticking on to it, though it can be very superficial also, like, you see, in England is a custom to put the fork and spoon in a particular way. In France it is different, in somewhere it is different. Now, even that can be a club-forming stuff for us, because, you see, we are Americans we'll put it this way, we are English we'll put it this way, if we are French we'll put it this way. But it is such a superficial sort of a thing and if you go into it it's all superficial. All our clubbing is superficial.

Now, if you start getting after it and reacting against it, then you are destroying yourself. You are completely destroyed. There is no need to destroy anything like that, but to be understanding that `this is superficial.' Nothing, you should not waste your energy in fighting anyone of these. There is no need to fight anything, to get out of it. There's no need to fight any such thing. What happens, that by fighting you lose your energy for nothing at all. On the contrary, you should understand that all these things are artificial and you should wait for a moment when you get the reality. But if you fight them also there's a problem. If you don't fight them and you become one, there's a problem.

So, both things are energy-sapping. We go on thinking, thinking, thinking about it, where do we reach? We reach nowhere.

So Sahaja Yoga is a system which is the system of the nature. Is not a system of human beings, which is artificial, or an organization, or a mass movement, nothing of the kind. Is the system of the nature itself, which has made you a human being, an individual, now, like an egg. Now this individual has to become, not the mass, which is an animal instinct, but to become collectively conscious, has to become.

Is a consciousness, means on the central nervous system you feel that consciousness and that is what is the reality. We go about into anything understanding that this is right, that is right, is all mental. If you understand everything whatever is mentally available, you are still in the shell. But what you feel is the point. What you feel on your central nervous system is your real consciousness. The rest of it is your mental activities, imagination, or whatever is mental is manmade, it has no meaning. Like we have written books after books, I don't know how many energies have been wasted in doing all sorts of things.

Books after books are written about this, that, all kinds of yarns and yarns of, I should say, imaginary wanderings about things.

But that's not the thing, you see, it's within yourself. That's within yourself, is your own spirit, that resides there in your heart, is your own power, which you should get. And if you can feel that power then you will be amazed that you don't have to have any United Nations Organization and all that. You really enter into the Kingdom of God in the sense that you get that power of love, which makes you extremely loving, sweet, I should say magnetic, extremely gentle and also could be very powerful if it comes to use of power. It's extremely powerful. In your behaviour you become an extremely attractive person in the sense that you do not give trouble to others. You do not, on the contrary, you are a troubleshooter, I should say, you are a person who is a peacemaker. Wherever you stand you create peace and happiness, but this is still outward. Inside, you are so tranquil and blissful and the highest above is that you are so connected that, even verbally, if you ask any question, `Is there God?' you start getting great vibrations.

The rapport is established; you can see the rapport is now established, you can talk to God.

It's easy to say that there is no God; it's very good, because then we have no headaches, people think, but all the headaches come because of this kind of a belief also, that there is no God. And also there will be headaches if you believe that there is God without knowing it. Both things, according to Me, are still the two sides of a pendulum. It is not in the center, or we can say this is how we go to the right and to the left, but do not ascend. For the ascent, this actual thing, this living thing, this germination, has to take place and that is why Sahaja Yoga transcends all these nonsensical sects, absolutely. It has no respect for them, it has no respect, because it saps the energy of human beings, it puts them down, it doesn't give them a chance to rise to their own power which is within themselves. But, with understanding that, after all, human beings are ignorant about it, they are not very sure, it's alright if they're involved with any other such things, doesn't matter.

But, in a sect, if you go, I was surprised, I went to a `Unity Church' a Unity Church, imagine, Unity Church, in Houston. They were kind enough to invite Me there and they didn't know how outspoken I was about things, you see, poor things were in for trouble I think, after My coming. But, whatever it is, I was surprised; they were selling all kinds of books there, all kinds, which are Satanic, which are mass movements, which are very detrimental to human beings and they knew they were. Like, in a church they were selling books of a man who is treating licentiousness, permissiveness, can you imagine? Such a contradictory thing, I mean either Christ was wrong or this man was wrong, how can you have both the things together? And they were saying “This is Unity." This is not unity, this is not unity. This is such a superficial unity of getting all the dust, filth everything together and gold with it and saying “Now you have it." Do you put in your food the poison and then eat it, because you want to unite it? You can only unite things which can be united. You cannot unite all the mess of the world together and say this is unity.

You cannot unite Christ with a man who is teaching licentiousness, permissiveness and all kinds of dirty tricks.

So, one has to understand the mind plays a very big trick in this, that the mind itself is a very, very tricky thing, it's a very intelligent thing and it beats you there. And you start understanding, `Oh, let it be, doesn't matter' and you start compromising. How can there be compromise between the food and the poison? Can you have strychnine with food? Simple thing as that. We have to separate, we have to say, `This wrong, this is right.' Whether people like it or not, if we have to respect human life, if you have to respect this great creation of God, if you have to see that they get what that is promised to them, are we going to play with their lives, with their body, with everything? Like there are some people who believe that drugs can take you to God. I mean, just imagine the absurdity of it. Now, thank God people know that drugs harm your attention, harm your awareness.

There was a book written, I was told, I met somebody in Vancouver, who has got a Ph.D., by a book which was written by, I've forgotten the name of the gentleman, who has described that the alcohol takes you to spiritual life. And I say absurd. The thing that goes against your awareness itself, how can it take you to awareness which is enlightened? It would be something like to cover this light, break all the bulbs, everything and that will take you to light. It is absolutely absurd. The whole statement is absurd. You cannot go to God if you try to harm your body, harm your mind, harm yourself. Even a person who has had a bad childhood, who has suffered because of something, say war, or something, even such a person is a little less blessed in the beginning; we have to work on him to put his mind at rest, put his body at rest, to see that there is equilibrium within him and then only he can get realisation. Anybody who is a disturbed man, who is upset, we have to put it right.

Now, some people have definitely felt that drugs are going to solve the problem, honestly they have felt it; I know they have been very honest about it. They have taken drugs; doesn't matter. That also can be neutralised, because you are seekers; you have just done that because you are seeking. Is that, the main thing is that you must see and that you must get it, is the main object of Sahaja Yoga, that is yours.

So, whatever may come, whatever may have happened, doesn't matter. It's going to be corrected, it's going to work out. And then, overnight, people give up because they realise that this is `it.' All problems of humanity are because we have not yet found out our Spirit, which is a collective being.

All international problems, say, all your political problems, all your economic problems, come from that one thing which has not happened to human beings; you are still in transition.

I would say it would be something like people who are still in the water, getting halfway up and halfway down. They don't know whether we are to be saved or not. But once you have reached the shores that's all right. That's a little breakthrough that has to take place and people have to establish their collective consciousness.

So there are many who get realisation, you see, many come here, they get their realisation, then disappear. I have seen. They feel very happy, everything done, now! Nothing; you have to become collectively conscious after that. Means you have to educate yourself to understand how to feel that collectivity within yourself. That is more important, more difficult for human beings, because they all like, what d'you say?, a quick happening, a very quick happening. And a quick happening takes place, no doubt, but that quick happening is just taking you to a point where you have to stay, you have to become.

If becoming is the thing, like an egg breaks into a nice little bird, but the bird must learn to fly. If it does not educate itself to fly, it remains something in between egg and bird and anybody can eat that off. It has no quality as a bird which can save itself, protect itself and can fly and enjoy. It has no quality of a bird if it is just roaming about like cock and hens, you see, when they were in the forest, they used to fly, I have seen these forest ones flying very high. They can fly just like an eagle, but if you see them on the ground, if they are settled down on the ground, they are eaten up by people who can catch them, anybody can catch them.

So to have that quality, the quality of that collective being, one has to educate and rise above that shell system, that system that has bound them, that has made them an individual, which was important, to have a shell for you. The individuality was very, very important, otherwise you would not have been matured.

So that, a time comes that shell must be broken. Like now, the car is important for Me to bring down here, but I have to leave the car to come down inside. In the same way you have reached a certain stage that, up to that point it was alright, but you don't have to carry it on any further and you have to settle down with the new dimension, a new life within you and that's what is your second birth.

For this, God has placed everything within ourselves, you see there a system, did anybody speak about Kuṇḍalinī? You should have. All right, doesn't matter. Now, you see, every time I don't want to repeat about Kuṇḍalinī and all that. And there is a system within us called the Kuṇḍalinī. All is within us. Now, it is very easy to sit down and say, “Now, Mother, how do you say it is so?" I mean, it's good, you see, because people want to know about it, how is it we have the Kuṇḍalinī in the triangular bone? And then we say that there are subtle centers which look after, I mean which manifest outside our gross centers and all these things. We do talk about it, but you can all doubt, “Let's see, how can there be such a thing? How are we to believe You?" But why not? Because I'm not taking any money from you, nothing. By believing Me, what is your loss? It's nothing. Now the people who are here, you should see and ask them.

Their lives are all changed. They have become different people. They're enjoying themselves, they've got their own powers, they can manifest them, they have become experts. They look so simple, just like you, but if you see their faces you will see how blooming they are. Apart from that, that they know all about it, they are masters and scholars and they are great Gurus, sitting down here around you and you can also become that.

So, there's nothing to doubt. But now, supposing you are a `doubting Thomas', you see, you will doubt. I don't mind if you doubt, also. We'll try to solve the doubt. The main thing is of making you the Spirit. That's our job. For that we are here and you are also for that, so it is better to cooperate with us than to argue and discuss and spoil everybody's attention. You see, some people are such reactionaries, they come, ask questions and when it comes to realisation they just run away. Mostly we have seen such people, who sit down with a very doubting mind all the time, but for what are you doubting? What are you going to lose? What are you going to lose here? Nothing. If you have a cancer you can be cured.

If you have mental problems they can be cured, all the problems can be cured as a blessing of God. It's true, and, apart from that, you become your own power. But, if it is a mass system you don't doubt. You see so, for example, we go to church, we don't doubt, just we don't doubt. We don't doubt the priest, we don't doubt anybody. We go to a temple, we never doubt the priest, we just pay as everybody's paying, it's a mass system. It is not, here you are an individual and that's why you doubt.

You are an individual now and you doubt, but I would suggest that better to have your realisation than to waste your energy in doubting. Because if you are all seekers, you are going to get your realisation, if not today, tomorrow. But only thing, why delay? Sooner the better. But if you have any questions I would like to answer them.

We have all this Kuṇḍalinī and all that and I wish Gavin had told you about it or somebody should have told you. Next time we'll have a lecture about Kuṇḍalinī, what it is, how it gives realisation, how it rises, how it pierces through different Chakras, pierces through your fontanelle bone area and also how it gives you of these Chaitanya Laharis, what we call as the `Cool Breeze' in the hand: Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost and that's what you have to see.

Now, if you have any questions, you may ask, because when you are getting realisation I want you to be free, because you have to go beyond thought and it just happens without any difficulty, there's nothing to worry. Now there are people who say that Kuṇḍalinī's very dangerous and all that. Maybe for people who do not know anything about it, like if you put your hand inside this you'll get a shock, because they don't what this means, you see, but the one who knows the job knows it, it's very simple. Even children can do it if they know it. If you have any questions, please ask Me.

Please ask, if you have any questions. [Drinks water.] You should ask Me some questions. How many of you have listened to the radio and have come? Any one of you? Is good, good. Yes, it's good.

So, you thought it was very convincing? What he said it? Is it? Good. I'm happy. That's John [laughs]. He's doing Theology and he's now fed up. He says, “Mother, theology is just talk, talk, talk, talk, talk" and er, but he should have said one more point, as I said. John and Fergy, is he here? Fergy, he's there. Both of them had gone, but he didn't say that you get your own power. You see, in a cult you do not get your power, you're just like mad, all of you, walking into some sort of a blind alley, but you don't know where you are leading to. You must know what you are doing, what it is, everything about it.

Good, I'm happy that you were so convinced by his, er, this thing, but we found it impossible to handle these people of the media. Very funny upset people, I tell you. They don't want to, they abhor truth, I really tell you, they abhor truth. Most surprising is that when you tell them the truth they are really upset. They don't want to hear, you see. If you tell them some hanky-panky stories they are very happy and they would like to help you if there's a hanky-panky story behind it, but if you say, “Oh, you can get your realisation, you are the truth, you are the Spirit” they don't want to listen to you. They're very funny people, you know. They can't believe it can be fine, why shouldn't we have confidence in ourselves? After all, are we going to seek it again next year and next year? Why postpone it? If it is so, why not have it? This is the first time the radio people have allowed somebody to speak, while Sahaja Yoga has been growing very slowly. If the media help us, you see, understanding how important it is and vital, that it should grow in these countries, because in India it's much easier, much easier, I mean thousands and thousands it's working out in the villages and all. But here, you see, media's so important and so powerful.

Thank God we are not so developed, so we don't depend on media so much in India [laughs] and the newspaper people also understand that truth has to be there and they help us, they have been very helpful in India, compared to here. Here nobody wants to even publish an article on Sahaja Yoga, nothing. Can you imagine? Nobody wants to do anything about it.

Question: Do all the Sahaja Yogis use your photograph when they meditate?

Shri Mataji: Yes, now, I don't know who told you that. I'd say it should not be told, because you see, people get frightened with the idea that why use My photograph, you see is the problem, it's this way. Now, see, the trouble is My photograph has got vibrations. Now, what to do? The problem is like this. It has tremendous vibrations, not only, but it can cure people. There was a boy in America who was down with blood cancer and the parents of the boy came to see Me in a very far-fetched village and they wanted that the boy should be cured.

So I said, “All right, give Me his photograph, I'll work on it." But in any case I sent them, asked them to telephone one of the Sahaja Yogis in New York. She has only My photograph and she used it and the boy is cured. Now, supposing if it is so, say it's a penicillin injection, or you can call it something, you see, a miracle drug, for example, say My photograph is, then should we not use it? Now, supposing it is, that's what it is. What can I do about it? I didn't know the camera would be so good, really I didn't know. Camera is much more sensitive than human beings are, I must tell you. You see, there are so many things that camera has caught up, which human beings cannot catch.

Like, one day I was sitting in a village giving lecture in a place where a realised Soul had died, a great realised Soul. And the camera caught, I mean I can feel it, but you people do not see it with your eyes, a great flood of light was falling on My head, a flood of light and the camera caught it and six times it happened and the camera caught it six times and seventh time I just did like this and it stopped. Just there, in the camera. I don't know if they have brought the photograph, but we have that photograph with us and you can see for yourself, you see. Camera is so sensitive and so honest and so deep that the way things have been shown by a camera. The other day somebody took photograph of My feet in India, with that instant camera and both My feet, you see, I was telling them that these two centers are working very much and they are on the Feet, you see and from My toe you could see a shaft of light coming out from one of the toes and one of the fingers, which I had said these centers are catching.

So, camera caught it.

There must be something about Me also, isn't it? Must be, of course. It's there, but is better to see and I always tell Sahaja Yogis not to tell about the photograph, just now to anyone, because if you tell them they get upset. You see, they think “Oh, God, is She going to dominate me?" [Laughs and general laughter.] You know, we are so frightened of domination, isn't it, because people have been very dominating. But could be somebody loves you very much, that even the photograph of hers can love you so much, isn't it? Could be.

Something we cannot think of, someone who is just love. And the photograph has that love within itself. You can use it as you like. Then there should be no objection.

None of the people before Me were photographed. Christ was never photographed, Buddha was not photographed, even Mahommed was not photographed. This is the first time you have developed this wonderful thing called camera and there's My photograph. What to do? In Hong Kong, the lady who was in charge, I mean, Chinese have very wise people and this lady, who was in charge of that TV center, she felt the vibrations and all that and she said “Mother, why not we use You on the TV?" I said, “Good idea” and she put Me there, on the TV for about three minutes, just standing and she said “Just put your hands towards the photograph and see” and so many got Cool Breeze and they wrote to us saying that, “We got Cool Breeze in our hands from Mother." And we have established a center in Hong Kong, only by these things. If your TV people ever allow Me to do that, I could help, in a very great way, isn't it? And would you not like to do it? I mean, supposing you were in My place, it would have been better, I know, but you cannot be. Anybody in My place can come and do it, I'll be very happy. But that's the trouble, you see, Christ has to bear the Cross, He had to do it, nobody could do it. We don't mind Him doing that, but why should we mind Him being the Christ? Somebody has to do it. Alright? And you will do it, too. Even you can give realisation to people. You can give realisation, all of them can give realisation, they can cure, they are all experts sitting here, one better than the other. When you talk to them you'll be amazed; they're all scholars! Somebody sitting next to you's quite good! [Laughs.] Both the sides, I should say! It is rather difficult to accept a photograph, because it is said that you should not bow to any. It was said because there was no photographs before, Nothing was there. Photograph is such a truthful thing.

And you will see yourself, later on, then you won't give up, I know that, you'll like it. Alright? Any other question? A photograph, we also have symbolic value for photographs, say, for example, we have the Queen's photograph here. We'll not spit on her photograph, will we? She's not there. Will you spit on her photograph, any one of you? Will not, because after all that photo, that thing represents something, is a symbol, isn't it? It may not give vibrations but definitely it is a symbol of something.

It is a coefficience of the whole thing that works out this. Even when I am talking to you, you'll be amazed, something is working out within yourself. The sound also carries the vibrations. You cannot see, but so many Sahaja Yogis have seen the vibrations going into it. You start seeing all these things.

So you have to develop up to that point, before that we don't tell you anything about how to become collectively conscious in a permanent way. In the beginning we just say, “All right, you let us give you the light." First you feel the light, then you start seeing everything. Nothing is compulsory in Sahaja Yoga, but you yourselves start doing things because you know it is so.

Should we have realisation? All right. Those who are new people should come forward. I would request, is better if all are on the second [row], all those who are realised should get up and these, if you look at these people, they look just like you, isn't it? But they are all realised Souls. They're all realised Souls and experts. This one is another expert. He used to sell wine before. [Laughs and general laughter.] Yes, yes! It's true, yes. They are all around you, in front of you, behind you.

Can you come forward, please? Please. It's better. Please, there are seats there. Here are some seats if some people want to come down. It's better to be in the front seat, because later on, you see, if there is a problem with your Kuṇḍalinī rising, why don't you come here, My child? Come along, you, both of you, come along. If there's any problem, then the Sahaja Yogis can look after it; they can raise the Kuṇḍalinī with their own hands, because the power is flowing from their hands, you see; so they can raise the Kuṇḍalinī and can give you realisation and then, once you have got realisation, you can give realisations to others. Is as simple as that. Today they are realised Souls, tomorrow you will be realised Soul. All of you have to become realised Souls.

How many will become, God alone knows, but there should be many, even in the West, where things are moving rather slowly compared to India. But it will, it will happen I'm sure. Now, for getting realisation, it's a very simple method. Is that you have to expose yourself, your fingers. You see, these fingertips are the ends of all the sympathetic nervous system and these two hands represent those seven centers, like one, two, three, four, five, six and seven. Seven centers, as you see in the hands there; exactly like that, you see? You can even tally it later on, you can see. For example, if you have a liver trouble you can feel them on your fingers. Everything you can feel on your fingertips, they said “on my fingertips” that's how you become an expert.

English language has many unconscious expressions, which has shown that, er, how you become realised.

Now, so, what happens, that you just have to close your eyes. First of all, you must close your eyes, because, when Kuṇḍalinī rises and pierces through this center of Christ, then there's dilatation of the pupil, so we want your eyes to be closed at that time so the Kuṇḍalinī rises smoothly and then She pierces out from here. When She pierces out from here, you can feel the Cool Breeze coming out of your head, you can feel it, but you have to have little, er, melting of the sensitivity, you see.

Some people are not so sensitive and they do not feel it. Doesn't matter. If you don't feel it today, you'll feel it tomorrow. But most of them feel it and these people, are the Sahaja Yogis, will look after you.

So we have to be wise, we have to be sensible about it and it will work out. It will work out with all of you, it has to work out, you are seekers, this is your right to have it and you are having it because it is your right.

I am just here like, I tell all these people that I am like a `bank', which is `cashing your checks'. You have done good work in your last lives and these lives and you are not wrongdoers; you are good people.

You are seekers and you are seekers of God, of ancient times. You've come here to take your realisation, you'd better get it. It's as simple as that. My job is to give you realisation. I'm `paid' for it; you can think like that and that is what it is and you have to have it.

There is no quarrel between you and Me. If you don't want to have it, it's all right. But it is with Me all the time, safe; whenever you want, you can have it. But better to have it as soon as possible.

Now, put your hands towards Me like this and just close your eyes. Just close your eyes and you'll be amazed the difference it will create. [Rubs Her hands together and drinks some water.] Just put both the hands towards Me. I mean, it is a simple method. Why you are putting it because these centers must be exposed. Is important. Very simple; it is very simple method. Please close your eyes. Please close your eyes, just close your eyes.

Now, there are problems within ourselves. They show up in our Kuṇḍalinī rising. Not to you, but to the people who are sitting here who are realised Souls and when you are realised Souls you will also feel the same. At this time the problem is on the heart, there's too much pressure on the heart.

I would request all of you not to open your eyes, not to open your eyes, but put your right hand on your heart, inside your coat, jackets; just on the heart, especial on your heart and in the heart resides the Spirit. Just put your left hand and you can ask the question, a very fundamental question within your heart, you can ask Me a question within your heart, `Mother, am I the Spirit?' Just to ask that question, because you are the Spirit; but just ask that question. Ask thrice. [Shri Mataji rubs Her hands together.] Now, while talking to you about Sahaja Yoga I might have said something that might have upset you, or you might be thinking that `I have done this wrong and that wrong,' but forget the past. In Sahaja Yoga there's nothing like `sin' when you come for your realisation; it's all washed off, so don't worry about that and don't feel guilty. If you feel guilty, of course there's a problem, but you just say, within yourself, in your heart, that `Mother, I am not guilty.' You are not guilty at all anymore now. Anything you have done, anything that you think is very wrong, forget it for the time being. Just forget it and say, thrice, `Mother, I am not guilty.' Now the third thing you have to ask is to say, `Mother, am I my own master, am I my own Guru?' Also, ask this question three times. [Rubs Her hands together.] Please put both the feet on the ground, in a straight way, you see the Mother Earth helps us by that.

Now, you may ask a question again, saying, `Mother, am I the part and parcel of the whole?' Please don't feel guilty, please don't feel guilty, please don't feel guilty. It's a fashion, I tell you, feeling guilty; is a competition, who feels more guilty. People like to have some sort of `Greek tragedies' artificially built around their lives. [Chuckles; sound of Shri Mataji rubbing Her hands together and blowing.] Please ask the question `Am I the part and parcel of the whole?' Just ask the question, please, because collectivity comes to people who are large-hearted, who are big-hearted, big people, who are not small.

[Drinks water.] [Long pause in tape.] Now, please put both the hands towards Me. Both the hands and just say `Mother, I have forgiven all the people. I've forgiven everyone.' Please put both the hands towards Me and just forgive everyone, forgive everyone. Say `I have forgiven everyone, Mother, I have forgiven everyone.' Forgive! Now, you have to say this because I cannot go against your freedom, you are free to choose, so you have to say `Mother, may I have my realisation? Will You please give me realisation?' because I cannot force upon. You have to ask for it. It's your [UNCLEAR]. Just ask for it...

... time I talked to you about collectivity outside your own shell. How after your realisation, after your second birth you become conscious that you are no more an egg but now you have become part and parcel of the whole. You realise it gradually. In the beginning only what you feel, is nothing but Cool Breeze blowing into your hands or may be little tingling sometimes or may be some heaviness, to begin with. But then, gradually you realise it.

Some people do realise it in a very quick way. But as the infrastructure within is not properly fixed, realisation comes very, very slowly. I spoke to you about our infrastructure within.

Now the faith in God or faith in anything that is Divine, also in the Divine Power, is not easy to achieve logically.

Some people have faith in God because they have been taught from childhood that there is God.

Maybe they think by relying on something like God somewhere in the air they are doing better in life.

There could be many reasons why people have faith in God. But actually, when you feel the presence of Divine Power within you and outside, it is hard to believe that it is the Divine Power and even if you know all about it, it is difficult to assume it.

It's sometimes a surprise to many Sahaja Yogis when they see around people who have got realisation, who have got Cool Breeze flowing from their hand and they disappear. They just can't understand such people. Now how it has happened that these people have come to a program, one day, they have got realisation, they have got Cool Breeze and then they have disappeared. Are they the people who are little-believers or half-baked or mediocres, or what is it? That they have no curiosity any further to go or that they are not intelligent enough to understand that there's something very dynamic, something very new, very natural has happened to them. It is not a cult, they can see for themselves, because as in a cult there's a mass hysteria or some abnormalities, there's no abnormality with these people, they are very normal. Despite all these things, all the proof to believe that there is Divine Power around us and that now it is flowing through you, is there but still people don't believe in it. Then why? What is the reason? We have to see what is the reason why we are not able to still accept that this is what it is.

The time when great incarnations were on this Earth, when people like Mohammed and people like Christ, Gautam Buddha, all these people came on this Earth, very recently I should say, nobody believed that they are incarnations or they are “Son of God." I mean this is the only problem they had, to accept that He was Son of God. I mean this was the only problem they were struggling with, all of them, whether they were Jews or Muslims and the... such communities, they could not accept that He was the Son of God. I mean what is the harm in accepting the situation. Supposing He is the Son of God, after all there's no property distribution going on; there's nothing like a will God has written that, “I'll give it to My Son” that we should contest it. But people could not accept Him.

Now one may say that, at that time that nobody felt the Cool Breeze; nobody felt the connection with the whole. But today also, today also the situation is the same. Situation is the same because of a single simple reason that we ourselves are not integrated; we ourselves are not part of ourselves. Our mind is running one side; our body is running another side; our heart is running in another direction; our sense organs are running in a different direction; our liver is functioning in a different way; we are not at all integrated ourselves. And as long as this integration is not there, even if you feel the Divine Power, even if you see the working of the Divine Power and mentally even if you accept that “this is what is happening to us” it is there and you see for yourself even the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī, the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī, the breaking of the Sahasrāra, even then it is difficult to believe that Sahaj Yoga is the only way to have your rebirth. On this point some people will puzzle out. The others will puzzle out that, “Why it's Mother who has to do it?" Then there could be other problems also with people that, “Why didn't happen to other people. They had to work very hard and why didn't they get realisation?" How the mind works it is something very amazing. And as I know all the permutations and combinations of human negativity about his Realisation, I compassionately feel that it should be explained to them why they do it. I know it's very frustrating sometimes and people feel so disgusted. I have seen some Sahaja Yogis thinking that, “It's better to give up and cancel England out of the map of Sahaj Yoga, or cancel France out of the map of Sahaj Yoga." But that's not the way. We have to understand that their own connections are not yet built in. For example, this machine on which I am speaking now, is connected to the mains, all right, but if it is not connected within itself, it will not work out. Both things are important, that it should be connected outside as well as connected within. And that connection within is very, very much lacking in the modern human beings. There are many reasons for that.

First of all, a big movement started long time back among human beings, to deny God. To keep it at the most as a formal discreet stuff. It's just a formal thing, you see, you don't talk of religion at all; you go to church, come back home or you go to a temple, come back home, sit down; you are a so-called Hindu or a Christian or a Muslim, or something like that, but don't discuss it. Because as soon as you start really discussing religion in the real way, I mean it's easy to give a sermon sitting on a pulpit, but to allow it to be discussed and logically sorted out, it's impossible to prove because it is mysterious.

It is a tremendous power that works it out. This tremendous Power that works it out cannot be understood by normal human beings. Cannot be. The working of this is so dynamic and the dimensions into which it works out is so great, that a human mind cannot understand it, a normal... Even a Sahaja Yogi, when he gets realisation, is trying to understand first the dynamism of this Divine Power and the dynamism of this Divine Power looks so simple, so simple, but they can't believe it that it could be that simple. For example, if I say, sitting down here you can find out about anyone, the way his Kuṇḍalinī is.

I mean this is something people can't just believe; it's too much for them to believe.

So, suddenly if you are exposed to something so dynamic, so great, so vast, so effective, so efficient, it is impossible for human mind to understand that there's such a great thing existed all through, because they never discussed it, they never talked about it. You are not supposed to talk about it and discuss it. That's the main thing.

You cannot discuss religion. And how far do we discuss even science? Like they'll say there is gravity in the Mother Earth. All right. What is the nature of gravity in the Mother Earth? How is it there? Why is it there? On that point finished. Science doesn't give that reason. They just say “There is a pull of gravity in the Mother Earth." Finished. Beyond that, they do not want to discuss, they just say, “All right, up to this point and beyond that nothing." So if you go to a man who is a priest or a religious man or one who is talking about religion will say, “Oh that's God's mystery. That's God's mystery, we cannot go. That's a mystery." So, one says that “You cannot go beyond that, it is so and that's why we should not worry about God." The another one says, “All right, this is the mystery and the mystery we cannot unravel.

So I'm not a believer in a thing that exists” or “I am the believer of a thing that exists but I cannot explain." If you discuss a small thing: “How is it a particular flower becomes a fruit?" That is not discussed, you see, in elite society, it is not to be discussed. At the most, you can talk about weather because there cannot be any quarreling. Even a thing like Falkland Island should not be discussed. May be some Argentinean is sitting somewhere there and he will be hurt about it, you see? Or something might happen, so we are so careful as to what to discuss. But if people sit down and discuss it they will know that there is a tremendous working of the Divine Power around. Can you count the amount of work it is doing? Is an impossibility. Like a flower becoming a fruit. Now take only one type of a flower. How many there are in the whole world? I mean if you think of it you just feel that it's too much. We just cannot. How this Mother Earth is moving with such a tremendous speed and we are just settled down nicely here. How many such suns and stars and constellations are moving? There's no end to it. If you go to the microscopic side, just see the skin and you will be surprised that it is one-sixteenth of an inch, has got such a beautiful organized layer which works out all the five functions of the skin. It is tremendous. And when seeing all these things in going into science, if man doesn't want to realise that there must be a power that is doing all these organized things and there must be one organized personality or maybe a controlling thing that is working it out, then it means that they are trying to live with a myth because they cannot solve it.

The myth is that there is no God. This is the biggest myth I have ever heard. And to believe into such a thing that there is no God is just to accept, that as you are the highest of all, the lord of all the world, how can there be anybody higher? This is one of the biggest hurdles of human beings in the modern times.

In the ancient times, olden times, it was so but it was not so much, to this extent that now man thinks that he is on top of the world and that he is the one who can guide the whole world and who can manage this and manage that.

For example, I cured a patient about ten days back. I shouldn't say, `I cured' because it just happened that she got cured, through Sahaj Yoga. And she went to the hospital and the doctors saw her. And they said, “No, it can't be, how can you be cured, how can you say you are cured?" She said, “I am cured. I have no pain, nothing. I am perfectly all right and everything is functioning all right." “But how can it be?" You see, not to accept anything comes from a fright that if you accept something, if you accept that there is Divine Power, then perhaps you may have no position, no significance.

So to be compassionate to people who get realisation, you have to tell them that, `It is not that you are overpowered by the ocean, but you become the ocean. The drop becomes the ocean, not that the ocean overpowers you.' Then it may be that you can go further with the second step where ego is little bit, you see, given assurance that `you won't be finished.' The infrastructure has this one problem that ego has separated all your inner being into different parts and anything that ego says or is pampered, is good. Good and ego's happiness are regarded as equal to each other.

Now, if you can overcome that first hurdle with people, that you become the ocean, that you become the Guru, that you become empowered with your own powers, you have crossed some areas in a personality.

And it's a fact; to begin with, it's a fact. But this area actually you get much later on. But better to promise that highest, you see; like people promise that “If you do this, you will get the Kingdom of Heaven." “All right. Then what we'll get?" “Then you will get the Kingdom of Europe." “Then?" “Then you will get the Kingdom of England." And like that, you see, it moves. But if you tell them that, “You will get the Kingdom of your own Self." They'll say, “What's there? The Kingdom of your Self! Such an insipid stuff!" So you have to start from the big stuff, saying that, “You become your own Guru. Then you become” Which is a fact; you do become your own Guru, but that happens much later on. But still if you tell them directly that, “You become your own Guru” first, it will appeal to them.

They can start thinking immediately, “All right, if we become the Guru, we'll start a big cult, you see? We'll have a big cult, we'll have so much. I'll also have Rolls-Royces, 58 Rolls-Royces and I can demand this and that." All these things may start working in the mind of a person.

Because the concept of a Guru is also so nonsensical that it is not conceivable for people when you tell them, “You'll become your own Guru." But if you tell them, “If you'll become your own Guru” they'll feel happy. And that's the point you've missed I think, John, the other day when you spoke, that, “You will become your own Guru, that you'll become." But what does that mean? Actually that means that your own religion within you, your Ten Commandments within you will be enlightened. That you yourself will be correcting yourself all the time, that means you will guide yourself. Nobody else has to guide you; you yourself will guide yourself. It means that. That you will have such a willpower that you will keep to righteousness, to correctly way, to normal behaviours, to the middle path of life, to be compassionate, to be loving, to be honest and all those things will come to you automatically that you will give up all your bad habits. “You will become your own Guru” means that. And that is what when you tell them before, it would be dangerous.

So, I would say that, first of all, if you have to say in a way that, “You will become your own Guru” it should not be very much discussed and talked to people about. But is a fact, that once our own void or our own religion within us, sustenance power, becomes enlightened, if you see the light of that, then you enjoy that light, you enjoy your virtues, you enjoy your righteousness and that righteousness when you start enjoying it, you stick on to that. But that happens later on.

The problem is, first only you feel is tingling or maybe Cool Breeze. But this enlightenment of your sustenance happens later when you start enjoying your virtues, enjoying the virtues of others, enjoying the righteousness. And that is what is a difficult thing among human beings. And because of this delayed action, people don't accept Sahaj Yog. Because they want everything in a very fast way. If they could feel the joy of enjoying the virtues and the righteousness just then, then they would not ask any questions. But in the structure of man this comes later. Though you have to unravel, that screw before, but it is put back the last. When the Kuṇḍalinī rises in the Void, it goes through this centralmost channel called as Brahma Nāḍī. Is the centralmost among the three Nāḍīs [channels] which channel in the central channel. The central channel is Suṣhumnā [central channel in our parasympathetic nervous system] and concentrically, there are three channels placed and the innermost is Brahma Nāḍī. The other two are called as Chitra [left side] and Charini [right side].

Now the first one, it just goes like a single thread of hair and pierces through the fontanelle bone area.

Now one may say that, “Why not, you see we can blame God for this, that why not He had only one channel so that we could feel the impact of realisation very fast?" But one has to understand that whatever God does is for our well-being and for our hita [spiritual good] and for our understanding.

If you go the other way round you see, that when we start hurting our central path of Suṣhumnā, we start from outside. Like, you see if you go to a wrong Guru, to a cult or to a wrong thing where you bend your head or you have faith in something that is artificial, then the first channel is broken, is hurt. Now supposing if the whole of the Suṣhumnā channel was made of only one tube-like channel, then the whole thing would have been finished.

So, the first one, the outermost is first attacked by our stupidity that we do, is to bow to someone who is a fake person. Or we go to things, we believe in things who is fake.

It is also harmed in the people who are very arrogant and think no end of themselves and they think that, “We are the lord of the whole world; that we can teach everyone and everybody else has just to learn from us; that we are the best sect or the best organization or maybe the best religion or the chosen ones." Also there, first layer of the Charini is hurt.

So, at the very gross level it is first hit by these two types of people.

Now, the second one also can be hurt by people who practice all kinds of nonsensical things. You see, like I have met many Sahaja Yogis who have been to all kinds of nonsensical things and have practiced very perverted type of practices, very perverted and all kinds of perverted ideas. Like, you see they will go to a cult, I have seen some people who have been to a cult, for example and there it is preached that you should not even look at your wife, or some sort of a thing, nonsense. And they are having relations with other women.

Like there's another cult in India, I don't know it is spreading here also perhaps, where people believe that you should never get married and you should lead a very chaste life, you should be virgins. But the virgins have, What you call to men-virgins in English language? Well whatever it is I don't know if you have any, but what you call them, men-virgins you see, we call them Brahmacharis and Brahmacharinis.

So the Brahmacharis, you see the men-virgins, I don't know if you have any cult like that, but I think the priests are here like supposed to be Brahmacharis.

So the Brahmacharis and the Brahmacharinis should lead a life of complete celibacy and should not marry. They should not marry. Not that they should lead a life of celibacy, you see, they should not marry. They should not marry, but there is no compulsion as to what sort of life you should lead. Now, it is such a contrasting thing, you should not marry for what? For leading a celibate life and then with that what is the other contrast you have?

Is that you are leading a bad life with other people. That's allowed.

These kind of perversions when we have in life, or all kinds of perverted things we are doing these days in modern times, all sorts of pervert things, touches the second Nāḍī which is the Chitra. I mean, I can't even [UNCLEAR `idiom'], I don't know so many things what human beings do, to what extent, but these are the buffer Nāḍīs outside and that's why there's the, we can say the very subtle one which is called as the Brahma Nāḍī is used by Kuṇḍalinī.

But first to begin with, when She rises She tested, She tests you and finds out what sort of an ascent She's going to have.

So, only a thread will rise first of all. Because supposing if there is a hit on say five, six threads they're hurt and then they become very weak you see and they fall down.

So, a very subtle, one thread we can say out of that, comes up to pierce the fontanelle bone area. Now this is the structure within us, which does this. Is done the same way as a seed sprouts or any living thing happens, like a flower becomes a fruit, is the same way, it's a living process.

So, when this one rises up and pierces the fontanelle bone area, that time, when there's a little touch with the All-pervading Power, which is subtle, by our subtlety, you start feeling this Cool Breeze in the hand. But still there are two more Nāḍīs surrounding it which have to expand and get more of the Kuṇḍalinī coming up.

So now we cannot blame God for this kind of doing because He knows that human beings are like this. We try all the time to ruin ourselves morning till evening, in every way possible, sometimes trying to please our ego or sometimes trying to please our superego, all our conditionings. First of all we never will accept any knowledge from anyone which is True Knowledge and, in total and we always want to try ourselves. Now anybody who talks to us with the authority, with that purity and with that holiness we don't like such a person, we abhor. But anybody who plays upon our weaknesses, upon our ego and superego, who is really harming us and we are not aware that we are harmed by these things, we are not aware at all. Like person like Freud now, Freud must be a really... the category of Hitler. Hitler was on a very gross level but Freud was a subtler one. He has ruined human beings. Absolutely you can see that in Kuṇḍalinī, how he has ruined the innocence of people. Their sense of shame, decency, decorum, which is a gross thing and by putting perversions into their heads now what we have are societies which are just like living like animals. And this is what one has to realise that the people who talk about harming us we accept them more than those who want to construct us.

Now those who want to construct us will definitely tell you that this is not the way it has to happen.

Because if they have real concern and real worry about you, they are not bothered about their cheap popularity, they are not bothered about pleasing you bar anything, because there is no gain as such, except for the satisfaction that you have told the truth to people.

So this infrastructure that is within us, the more modern we become the worse it becomes. And this infrastructure, if it gets spoiling more and more and more, then it is an impossible task to communicate with them or to inform them of the truth. Though they might feel Cool Breeze in the hand, they might get the experience and all that but doesn't fit into their head. I have known people who have done that way and sometimes it is amazing how thousands get realisation and very few remain into that state where they want to gain the deeper significance of Sahaj Yoga. Unless and until they get to the deeper significance of Sahaj Yoga, they are not going to accept it. They are not going to recognize it. It's a sad thing but it is so, that one has to touch the being very deeply because it's a beautiful being which is being ruined by various things as I have described to you. There's no end to it. All these circumstances, keeping into view, one has to be very, very careful and compassionate towards people who are seeking and who are coming.

Because these are seekers of the ancient times they have been seeking. Now, as the time has passed, of course the communication of the Divine has improved. Definitely it has improved. Because, I can give you; you have seen we can give mass realisation. People can get mass realisation, you have seen in India, it can happen.

So the communication from the Divine Power has improved, but the communication from the human power is reduced; reduced and also is very much wounded.

So if you see the Kuṇḍalinī, I don't know if you can see the Kuṇḍalinī of some people or most of you, you'll be amazed that it is really wounded, Kuṇḍalinī. She has hit many points, which has hurt Her. Because you didn't respect, you didn't respect Her. You did not know how to respect Her, nor you could meet people who guided you properly how to respect that special thing that God has given you, the special blessing of this Kuṇḍalinī which is within you. Is the primule, is a very tender thing, is so beautiful, it is eternal within you which has to rise and give you realisation.

Now this is your Mother, which is waiting for an opportunity to give you your realisation. And this Mother has no way to come up because we have hurt the path through which She has to come and She is also jarred. I would say She is coiled like a tape within ourselves. This is the structure of this Mother.

She is coiled in three and a half coils and She has to rise. Now think of a tape recorder which is put on a sea which is turbulent and sharks are eating it off and then it is burnt, all sorts of things that can be used to damage it have been done, still it is quite intact. Of course there are little problems with it. It is still quite powerful. It is still expecting that great happening for which you are born, for which you are seeking, for which you are on this Earth. She's there. You can't think of any human mechanism of that delicacy, that sensitivity, that beauty, that understanding and that strength. It's hopeful against hopes.

And that is the thing still preserved there because it is protected by your innocence which is still there little bit left.

You see whatever you may try with your innocence, as you cannot create a complete vacuum, you cannot get rid of it the whole.

So whatever part is left of your innocence is guarding that and that essence is still waiting, is there. Whatever you might have done, whatever wrongs you might have done, makes no difference because Kuṇḍalinī is intact. But what is the problem is the other way round; that the mechanism of God is perfect. The mechanism of Divine Power to give realisation to thousands is absolutely in perfect state. Absolutely, I can tell you. But to make your brains understand the importance of your Self, of your being, of your purpose, of your meaning, is difficult because it is not integrated. Your heart does not know your brain and whatever happens to your heart is not communicated to your brain. If you reasonably see certain things and logically see something happening, still your heart may refuse if it's a weak heart, if it has weaknesses. But the Kuṇḍalinī has the beauty to strengthen your heart, to strengthen your brain, to strengthen your liver, to strengthen all your being and to integrate it, but She must be given a chance.

If you don't give Her a chance, you are not fair to yourself. People are fair to others but when are they going to be fair to themselves? Ego is the not the way we are going to be fair to ourselves because ego is a nonsensical horse on which we are sitting. It's like John Gilpin's horse, you see? It takes you round and round the places reaches you nowhere for your wedding day. It's that kind of a nonsense.

So if you are playing with John Gilpin's horse and if you are satisfied with it and you think it's a big fun, we are harming ourselves.

So to get to the real point is that to understand what is our infrastructure. The outside one is all right. We import things in India. We can import anything for India but we cannot take it to the villages, we have no way to there, there's no road.

So that structure within us has to be built-in with our own coordination and cooperation.

We have to cooperate with it. As God has taken all the care to build in the structure without, outside and also inside you He placed nice thing and you were the trustee of that, you were in charge of that, but it is spoilt.

So you must give time for this inner structure to come up.

Now some people are unnecessarily frightened also. I have seen some people frightened of I don't know what.

Sometimes I think it is we are frightened of too much of purity or, all sorts of things I have heard, of holiness or... they are frightened of anything. For such people I would say they should read God's words about it, that you should not be frightened. He is compassion. He is love and these things are there.

These are not the words of somebody who is giving you a sermon, I'm telling you the Truth. It is there.

But you have to come up to that point to feel that beauty of that Truth, to enjoy that Truth and once you start enjoying that Truth, then there's no problem for Me. There are some here sitting, quite a lot of them, who have felt that way, but you have to have understanding that the inner structure is still to be rebuilt and completely integrated and for this you have to give some time to yourself, some patience to yourself and some compassion. Not to be frustrated, disgusted with yourself.

Some cases have been very difficult, I know. It's impossible, I have to be very strict with them, I have to thrash them, do all kinds of things, but still there are cases which are to be thrashed out, doesn't matter. We'll work it together; somehow, we'll manage it.

Thrashing doesn't mean real thrashing, but thrashing with love. And all these things have worked out with so many, so why not with you? But you have to know one thing that you are seekers of ancient times and this is the time that was promised and this is the way you are going to get it. There's no doubt about it and instead of doubting it, please have it. Take it within yourself, allow it to permeate, work it out and see for yourself that the power you have got is the power of God's love.

May God bless you. Thank you.

I would like to have some questions if you have any, will be a good idea.

Somebody should come here to, I'm mean sometimes you know, I can't hear some of their languages! I have a language problem. Gavin can you come down here. It's only this lifetime I have learnt English language, otherwise I never knew that before.

Just anybody who want to ask a question please ask, please. Go ahead, not to be afraid of or frightened of anything. This is a temple you are in.

No questions? It's very good.

Yes My child? Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Oh, that's true. You see, to begin with you have to have your realisation so that you get the light within yourself. But the light is not so clear-cut in the beginning, all right? Then you have to have your Chakras cleared out and you have to have your Kuṇḍalinī up there all the time, to feel the whole thing working out. And for that we have certain suggestions for you, how to clear out. Because you start feeling your Chakras on your fingertips to begin with. You see, you start feeling them.

So you know that supposing now this Chakra is catching, for example. Now in your case, this one is catching, all right? Why, because you have a weak eyesight.

Weak eyesight: if you have a weak eyesight, then the, you see here, the cerebellum becomes weak at the back, all right? Now how to get better eyesight, how to get that portion corrected, we have a particular method by which we do. See by light, you have to put the light here, then the sun's rays you have to take it in a particular way and a little exercise is there which one has to do. And you'll be amazed, you may have to give up your spectacles very soon. It's like that. What I am saying, that it is pertaining to all the Chakras on both the sides, means left and right. Now the left side is the emotional side and the right side is the physical and the mental side. Now whatever our problems on the left side and the right side, we have different methods by which we can correct. Now if one method doesn't work out with you, may be another may work out, but it does work out. As it is the upsurge of the Kuṇḍalinī itself solves many problems. Upsurge of the Kuṇḍalinī.

So the best thing to keep your Chakras clear is to first of all keep your heart clean, you see. You should keep your heart clean, means you should not allow bad thoughts to walk in. Now how do we do that, how to? Because if you are at the point this one is, at thoughtless awareness point, then there is no thought.

The first thing one has to do is to achieve that position when you are thoughtlessly aware and that's not so difficult. There are so many ways by which you just sustain that position. First of all you jump out, absolutely you get the vibrations here, but then to put it down here is important. Because unless and until the Kuṇḍalinī is kept here the thoughts start coming from all the sides and then you cannot work it out so well. But it works so fast, you can't imagine. I have known people who were alcoholics, next day they just gave up, next day just they gave up. There are people; druggist and chemist I call them and just [clicks fingers] one day over, finished, over.

It can be like that.

So you see, depends on, But doesn't matter, not to get disgusted with yourself, you must love yourself, that's the main point is. That if you love yourself as I love you and I'm bothered about you, it will work out. It will work out.

Gentleman: So love is important for us.

Shri Mataji: Beg pardon? [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You have to...? Another gentleman: Do you have to love yourself?

Shri Mataji: Yes, you have to love yourself and in love, we don't try to harm ourselves. You see a mother who loves the child, she will also tell that, “Now don't do this, is not good." Supposing the child is trying to put finger into some fire or something, isn't it? That's what happens to you, you start guiding yourself. You just don't do it. It just happens to you, you get that kind of a personality which does what is right, right for yourself.

And it is such a mutual thing, you see? But you must have patience what I'm trying to say there.

Don't get impatient with yourself. If you get impatient, then love is decreased. Love is decreased in you, all right? So you have to have patience with yourself. Because it may be, there might be some Chakra is not clean as yet, may be, possible. But when we have cured people who were suffering, say from blood cancer, who are a great Sahaja Yogis today, so why not you? I mean, it's very easy, it has to be easy because it's a living process, all right? Gentleman: But what I want to know is, now… [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Oh, it's all free, absolutely hundred percent. Hundred percent. Everything is absolutely free. Ab, Gentleman: But I myself, I'm married [UNCLEAR does that solve the problem?]

Shri Mataji: You should, because you can imagine, if you love yourself, how much fees are you going to pay? [Laughs.] See, this is that much absurd, to say to pay fees for love. You can't imagine a person who just loves you, just loves for love's sake. Can you think of someone? In our concept we can have someone, maybe. I think you had it in your concept otherwise I would not have been here. There is no fees, are you not, you don't talk of fees. All right? No question. Everything is free. All My love, everything.

I don't know. I don't understand money, you'll be amazed I'm hopelessly bad, I just don't understand.

I'm so bad, that I just don't know anything; if you ask Me to cash one check in the bank, I'll have to ask Gavin to write for Me. I really don't know, I just can't learn about it, all right? But love I know, that I know very well. And you will also know. It's absolutely free.

So just don't worry on that point. It has to be. Is this air, what do we pay for it? Nothing.

Now we have of course a place where people can stay and it's quite a nice place. And for your stay you have to pay about... they charge fifteen pounds for a week, that's all, for staying in London.

Some nice place we have got. Of course that we will, I will not pay for your stay there; that's what you have to pay for if you are staying there, for your room where you stay. It's a very nice place it's a huge big place, for that you have to pay fifteen pounds as rent for the room, that's a different point. But you don't pay for My vibrations or for My knowledge or for anything. All right? It should be made clear-cut. It doesn't mean it's a charity hospital where people can come and stay free, have food free, that's not the point. For your food and for your stay you have to pay.

[UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Absolutely. Not only but all the attention your will have, free. All the complete attention absolutely free. Is that clear now? It's amazing isn't it, but it is so.

Gentleman: Yes, it's OK.

Shri Mataji: Yes, it is so. All right, what else? Is a good question he asked, very sweet question, you know? Gentleman: Isn't there a danger if you raise Kuṇḍalinī...

Shri Mataji: Who says that, can I see the gentleman? Gentleman: It's me.

Shri Mataji: Ah, all right. Not at all.

Gentleman: Well, um...

Shri Mataji: You have read.

Gentleman: Well if it rises too fast...

Shri Mataji: You see these are the people who are naive. Not only that, but they are the people who do not know a word about Kuṇḍalinī. Now here are so many people sitting here... Kuṇḍalinī's your Mother and awakening Her, how can there be a danger? Will there be a danger if you have to sprout a seed? It's a living process, how can there be a danger? You see these are stupid people or these are unholy people, unauthorized, they don't know a word about Kuṇḍalinī, they try to put their hands onto wrong things, do all wrong things, it can be a possession. It can be anything. They don't know a word, they have no authority, you have to have authority. Divine authority should be there to raise the Kuṇḍalinī.

Like the Mother Earth, if you put say a seed in the Mother Earth, it will sprout. But supposing you open it and operate it and try to take out the primule, it will die. All right? There's no danger at all. There's no danger of any kind; how can there be, it's a living process. Apart from that, it is your breakthrough, it is your second birth.

Even when you were born, you never felt any pain, the mother had to go through. That's it. You don't have to feel anything. Of course the other Sahaja Yogis might feel your Chakras and might feel a little pain here and there. But it's very little recording to know where you have the pain. But once you become a Sahaja Yogi, when you become an expert and you start giving realisation, then you will also know about it. There is no danger of any kind at all.

Gentleman [indistinctly]: Are You, are You saying to, are you saying that there's no danger if you should, followed correctly, if you should raise the Kuṇḍalinī.

Shri Mataji: No you have to have Divine authority to awaken it it's a living process as sprouting of the seed. You understand My point? So if you are say ordained, not through any church or any temple or anything, but it's a God's ordain. You see like, we can say John the Baptist had that power when he came on this Earth. And there were many in India who had this power, who are ordained, I should say, who have a Divine Power within them flowing, who are capable of raising the Kuṇḍalinī. They do it without any trouble. Even seeing them, you might get your rising. You see from My photograph, Gavin has got realisation; he got his realisation from My photograph, can you believe it? From My photograph only.

So many got it from My photograph.

So it can happen. It is a thing which is to be understood with proper patience, that God exists and He has His own methods, His laws and the way He works out is dynamic. Once you become that dynamic being, you start seeing those working through your own hands. You do it.

Now in New York, two-three Sahaj Yogis cured a blood cancer patient and the patient went out of the hospital. I was not there, they cured. They just cured a blood cancer. You can do that yourself. Yes, it is too fantastic isn't it? But it is. It has been promised. See I was reading Koran and I was amazed that many a times it is: “The Day of Resurrection, the knowledge will be given to you." “The day of resurrection you will know all about this mystery." All this was written in there and what are these Muslims doing now? And what are the Christians doing and what are the Hindus doing, just tell Me. They are fighting over, whether they should play some music before the Masjid [Mosque] or not, that's all. It's stupid, it's all so gross that if you start thinking from that angle, I mean we really get lost, we don't know.

In the same way about Kuṇḍalinī, those people who have written, I was amazed, a big book like that you see was saying, “Kuṇḍalinī's in the stomach." I said, “How can that be? It is not." You can see with your naked eye, sometimes I will show you if somebody has a big obstruction in the Nābhī Chakra, then you see it pulsating nicely, this triangular bone.

Very nicely, clearly you can see. You can see the movement of the Kuṇḍalinī with your naked eyes. You can see the piercing of it, absolutely without any harm to the person. On the contrary, the one who gets realisation never get's any pain. That's the worst part of it. I wish they could get a little bit to know that there is problem.

Only those who are giving realisation get it a little bit, you know? Like the mother gets the pain, in the way, but not the ones who are getting it. They don't feel anything bad about it.

Supposing a madman comes here, you see and sits here and he hits you. He doesn't feel anything that he's hitting you or anything, it's only you feel that you are hit, it is like that. Anybody comes with a problem here, you see, we feel the little pain here and the little pain there, but they don't feel anything and we have to work it out on them and clear out because who is the other? They are within us. To feel ourselves all right, we have to treat them. And how can we pay for that; for treating ourselves how can we pay? You see this point? Who is the other? They are part and parcel of you. Then you can't take any money, you can't grudge anything all right? We have to [UNCLEAR grow].

It's so simple at that. Can't believe it, isn't it? Because you have read too much about Kuṇḍalinī I believe [laughs]. Actually, you see, these people have no authority to write, but everybody can talk about God, about Kuṇḍalinī, anything. You see that's the trouble, who is going to stop them? There's no legal... legal control over them. Anybody can say whatever they like. They say about Christ anything, about, I mean they write anything about anyone. I'm amazed to see all this, but what to do? There's no legal protection for God.

Any more question please? There should be no fear of any kind. The day has come for you to have realisation, you are going to get it. Only what request I have to make, is that even if you get realisation today, just don't stop it at that point, that's all. You have to go further with it; to correct yourself fully, to be the master. This is one thing you have to promise yourself. Because we'll work very hard and we'll do anything that is possible, everything that is to be done, we'll really work very hard. And it will be brought out, you will feel your realisation. But I have to make very humble request, that you should not very speedily stop coming and think that, “Oh, now I've got realisation, finished." No it's not that. That's something people feel, because sometimes they feel so elated at the first thing that they think, “Oh, now we've got realisation, finished” and then after one year they come down with some sort of a problem. That's not good.

It grows slowly. Sahaj Yoga itself has grown very slowly in this country and has taken its roots now, gradually. And I'm sure it will take its roots into the hearts of many. Because this is a special country according to My own understanding.

All the knowledge, everything is free, again I say. All right? Now should we have realisation? Let's have it.

All right? So, can you take you your shoes, will help you a little more. You have to little bit coordinate because this Mother Earth, you know, she helps to suck out lots of our problems. You just take out your shoes and I hope it's not very cold down there for you people. Just take out your shoes, that's all, just to take out your shoes.

I find some very good people today. Ah. There are some nice seekers. Better to come in front, all those who have come for the first time, Please come forward, is a good idea to come forward. Yes. Know how... not to have any apprehension, nothing. It's just you become because you are ready. It's like, as I said that an egg becomes a bird. That's what it happens. All right, very good.

Now we have to know, that as we have shown here, there are on these tips of our fingers, first we feel the centers that are within us. And these are seven centers; this is the first center, second, third and then the fourth, fifth, sixth and the seventh. No I'm sorry, sixth and the seventh. These are the centers here.

Now these centers are seven and these centers are seven. These join together to form the central path, like this, you see? So the left side and the right side. And to feel, I mean medically also they accept that the sympathetic nervous system is expressed on the fingertips, that's all, they have reached to that point and they accept that.

So when you put your hands towards Me like this, just like this... And close your eyes... Just close your eyes.

Keep your eyes shut, for one reason that when the Kuṇḍalinī rises above Āgñyā Chakra, that is where My red mark is, then the pupils get dilated.

So if your eyes are not closed then the Kuṇḍalinī doesn't rise above that.

So better keep the eyes shut for the Kuṇḍalinīs to rise above that center, just.

Contents: 1982-04-22*, Public Program, All Is so Beautifully Made, Hampstead, London, UK

Better? Good. You came before, did you, no? So to continue with the same topic we had, about the infrastructure of a human being, about which I told you, that God has made this infrastructure very beautifully.

Even in nature if you see anything that is living, see a tree if you look at the tree, you'll be amazed, how the different channels that takes the sap upwards are so beautifully placed that there's no problem for water to rise. The suction in the water takes place because the sun shines and the water is sucked in.

The nature is so nicely built up, absolutely harmonious. When it is winter time the leaves drop out because the Mother Earth requires the nutrition and the leaves are not getting so much of sunshine, so there should be less surface exposed. The same nutrition is taken up again and again, in the spring, you find again the beautiful leaves breaking through.

It's so beautifully worked out, the whole situation, the whole Universe is so beautifully made and the infrastructure is so made that it receives all the blessings of the Divine without any difficulty. It rains and the nature receives it. If you've ever been to a forest, to a densest forest that you could think of, you'll be amazed how clean it is; and the fragrance of that place is so clean, nothing stagnates. How it operates and how it works out through sunshine, through rain, through wind.

In this whole Universe, now man is created, which is a problem. The infrastructure of man can be ruined by him; it's only he can do it. The trees cannot ruin themselves, can they? They stand up like witnesses, they just give, just give. Even when they die they give their wood. When they live they give their flowers, they give their shade, they give their beauty, they are giving, giving, giving, all the time.

And the one who takes is this great epitome of creation, the human being. He's the recipient of all that.

Then, he has got intelligence to receive everything from that and to use it for one's own purpose. That's how we are exploiting, I would say exploiting, the blessings of nature. That's good, that's what God wanted that we should really have the blessings of nature; that you are the monarchs of this Universe, so [that] everything stands in attention for your needs. While man, on his own, goes mad with his extreme behaviour. He doesn't think of his infrastructure which he can ruin. The problem is, only the man can ruin that; not only that but also the outer structure which is the atmosphere. You send one man to a forest, it's alright. If you send two hundred tigers to a forest, it's alright. But if you send ten men to a forest, finished! All the beauty is finished.

On one side, the sense of beauty, only human beings have got. The sense of understanding cleanliness only human beings have got.

So they are the only enjoyers, they are the only enjoyers of all this. They are supposed to enjoy all this but there is something lacking in them which doesn't give the full enjoyment.

When you look at a tree, today cherry blossom everywhere, then the thought starts coming, “How much they must have paid for this tree? How many years it must have taken?" All these mundane type of questions come to your mind. But supposing, by any chance, if no thoughts come into your mind, you just see, witness, could witness, then the joy that they are trying to give you and express would be complete within yourself.

That state we have not yet achieved: Always we have thoughts, thoughts which are all artificial.

Thoughts that make you some sort of a imaginary person or, if you don't go to the subtler side, a very gross person. It's not reality. Imagination is not Reality and also the grossness is not. Like a poet might say that, “What a flower is there and its beautiful” and that and that. And all sort of stories he may build up about a flower and a person who is not imaginary might say, “I don't know how much it will cost, how to put it down, what is the use of this, how it can be economic." Poetry is, of course, touches, subtler side of life, no doubt. And thank God Hampstead had so many great poets. But still is imaginary for other people. What you look at and you think, may not be true for others. For example a person like Blake, who wrote all poetry, nobody understood Him. To understand Him also you have to have Realisation otherwise you can't understand Him at all.

So, whatever is rendered, on gross level or on imaginary level, by the nature, cannot be enjoyed by human beings to its full extent, cannot be. We think so. Look at the economic laws as they are that, “Wants in general are not satiable." Means that's not satisfying at all. I mean it says, it confesses. Today you want to have a car? Alright, you have a car. Then you want to have an aeroplane? Alright, you have an aeroplane. Then you want to have some sort of a thing. There's no end to it.

So it proves that the joy that you get out of material things also are not satisfying. Because at the state at which human beings are they cannot enjoy. They cannot enjoy anything, though they are supposed to enjoy everything, because they only have the capacity to enjoy. But there is something lacking in them by which they cannot enjoy anything. And what is that quality? What is that state? Because the connection for extracting joy has to be with the Spirit. Spirit is the connection which emits joy. There's no other way to enjoy life without remorse.

To be connected, first, with Spirit is the only way that we enjoy because joy doesn't have double side.

Like people go for a ballroom dancing. Supposed to be enjoying. They come home and a big fight starts with them. God knows what they have enjoyed for! The enjoyment of life is only possible if we could get connected to the Spirit. And that connection to the Spirit, is only possible if you sprout into that, you become the Spirit. As Christ has said in very simple words that, “You are to be born again." Very simple.

Looks very simple. But how? You are to be baptized, but how? Say I go to a theosophical college or some sort of a college and they say, “Now you have got a right to baptize." Now to any intelligent man does it appeal that way? Can it be possible? Baptism, if it's a living process, in which you have to get connected, connected with the Spirit, then what do you do about it? That means you have to achieve a state of mind, where you become the Spirit. That connection has to be established. If that connection is not established, then you cannot be a twice-born by certifying yourself. I have seen many people they said, “Mother, I am twice-born." I said, “How do you say you are twice-born?" “What is the certificate you have got of being twice-born?" You cannot just certify yourself. This is not a self-certification. Supposing a dog says: “I am a human being." Will you accept? No, I mean, he can go about, he can go about and say that, “I am a human being." But he doesn't become. It's a state, is a quality, which is, in evolution, has to be shown.

It's an evolutionary quality. A fish, which has to become a tortoise has to become a tortoise. She can't just say that, “Oh! I am a tortoise. Oh! I am a tortoise." This is where human ego comes in. By saying something you do not become. And this is one of the basic things we must know, that we have to become in actuality, in reality. We have to face up to it. And not believing in something because it is said. Anybody can say anything, what does it matter? You see, you raise this tongue and put it under your palate and say what you like! What does it take to write a book? You take some printer and you give him something to write, you can write any trash, any thing so-called, you can write about God, this, that and talk big, give sermons, have big organizations, but it's nothing of the kind.

Even supposing you have some animals, like dogs specially, I would say that. Now you make them dress up like little babies and this and that, make them dance and in a circus you might find they may become little bit like human beings, they might carry letters or may bring your children from the school, I mean they can do lots of such things, but will you call them human beings by any chance? I'm not saying the difference is so much but one has to understand one thing: that we have not yet become the Spirit. In all humility, let us accept this fact that we have to become the Spirit.

Now, supposing that is the only source of joy, if that is your real property within you, if that is the thing you have to achieve, supposing for that you have become a human being, then must you not all do that? It's logical that life has no meaning without it, you see. You make a candle and you put a wick in that and do everything with it and when there is darkness, you say, “What are we to do now?" Enlighten that light! It's so simple. The whole Existence itself will have no meaning if we do not become the Spirit.

We all have to become the Spirit otherwise we are useless. We are good for nothing. Our lives has no meaning.

Now when somebody says like that, I could be another what you call hypocrite, or could be what you call them false, fake Guru, I could be like that Myself, telling you big stories. Could be possible. Alright? Anybody could be like that. But why cheat yourself, is the point. Let anybody try to cheat you, but you don't cheat yourself. You accept one simple point that you have to become the Spirit, in all humility and that is one wish a seeker should have.

I have known seekers, they try all kinds of things. Like a gentleman had a very bad this center and asked him, “What have you been doing?" He said, “There's some Rompashompa man. He's written some books, of the third eye and I'm going to operate and my third eye is going to come out." I said, “What? Who has told you that?" He said, “There are books after books on this." I said, “Really?" And how dare this fellow do that thing. By operating here if you get the third eye... [laughing]. And he was doing all kinds of nonsensical things believing in that man and his, this center itself was ruined. I said, “But see the fellow what is he doing himself?" You see, that's the best part of it.

You see God has given us not only brains, but wisdom. God has given us wisdom and we should use that wisdom and judge these people on these lines to see what they are telling us. Most of them are ruining your infrastructure. I would not care for anyone of them if they were just smuggling money or making you poor, doesn't matter, in the Kingdom of God, doesn't matter. Alright, if they want money, give them away, finished! There are many smugglers, thugs and robbers and swindlers. All sorts of people are in this world, you see. There are thousand and one words to describe them. But they are spoiling your infrastructure is the problem. And when they spoil that infrastructure, then this happening of Kuṇḍalinī awakening takes time, there's the problem. People develop diseases, they develop emotional problems, mental problems, all kinds of problems with all these things.

Actually you must know that, if you are a seeker and if you seek, you have to become absolutely a normal person. All your abnormalities must drop out. If they don't drop out then you should know that you still have some horns coming out! But people don't understand that being abnormal is [means] going down. Anybody who thinks that he can paint his hair, or wear a funny dress, walk about, he'll achieve God, I don't know how to tell them that this is not the way. Or anybody who thinks that [if] he behaves in a funny manner or shouts and screams and says the prayers very loudly on the street and do all these shows, will go to God, is not possible.

Only way is to keep your wisdom intact: your steadfast faith that you are the Spirit and God is compassion and He will make you the Spirit. This is the only thing that is needed in a seeker. But without wisdom when you try any one of these things then you have to go [in] a very round circle to come to the same point but completely bruised, wounded and sometimes absolutely sick to death.

The problem today is very complex. Your infrastructure is spoilt not only by these pseudo people [but] also by so many other things which we have taken to: the society, the family life, the addictions, the habits and so many things have crawled into us and have woven such a net that to get out of it is not possible.

There's only one way to get out of it.

Once, as a child, I had read a story about some birds: A net was cast and so many birds, doves, they were caught in the net. And they discovered that, “We are misled, misguided." They saw some grains and they were misguided.

So how to get out of the net? Was impossible for them. Is an impossibility. One person cannot get out. One person tries to get out, others get more entangled and he gets even worse.

So what to do? They all said, “Why not we all fly out with the net itself? And then with our beaks we'll cut out this net and we'll be freed, but first get out from here. Put our energy together, all of us and let's fly out." And that's what they did. They spread their wings, all of them put together and took off. And off they went and they were freed.

Today's Sahaja Yoga is that kind of a trick. One person cannot work it out, is impossible. If one person has to do it, it's an impossibility. He has to go and live in a cave permanently. Any one person even endowed with powers like Christ, comes on this earth is crucified, finished! Three years, He's crucified.

Nobody understood Him.

So we have to have many more, to get out of this net, which is created through the efforts of these pseudo people, through our stupidity, our wrong doings, misguidances, all kinds of problems which are against evolution. One has to become a whole group to lift up the society higher so that you can really get rid of the shackles of this bondage.

Could be there are some Gurus in India who are good Gurus who are realised Souls, who have taken many lives to be realised and they are very clean people, all that is there, no doubt. But they are very few and they all live in the forest hiding in the caves and even I told them, “Why don't you come down from your hidings?" They said, “It's better we are safe here." Their legs are broken, hands are broken. You see people have never tolerated them.

So, according to them, after twelve years, I think during all My stay in England perhaps, they'll be better off to come down, people won't hurt them so much. One fellow was beaten up so much that all his backbone was finished.

So real Gurus are just hiding. And the ones who out are just moneymaking propositions, simple thing as that, because they know how to pamper your ego, to play upon your weaknesses, to make you more embedded into that net, into that mire and take full advantage of you, that's why they are here.

People don't like it [if I say that]. People get identified with that kind of a chain, but that's not freedom.

Freedom is when you really get your own powers which are within you. You have got your own powers.

You have to be your own Guru. You must reach that point from where you guide yourself, in such a way that the guiding lines become part and parcel of you. That means in your central nervous system, in your conscious mind you must feel the existence of the Spirit. This is what is the evolutionary process. This is what you have to achieve and all other talks are absolutely of no value.

Let us face it! There's no flowery talk needed for it, nothing of the kind. It's a doing. Supposing I tell you, alright, if you have to make such and such cake, you mix this, mix that, mix that, mix that, is alright. But when you mix that you find a poison is created out of that. Another person can say, “Alright I'll mix this, mix that and you have the cake” and there's no cake nothing, then what do you eat? So all these talks and all these organizations and everything has no meaning of any kind. It doesn't empower you to be the Spirit. I am not here to denounce anybody or to make anybody low or anything but what I think that they are wasting their energy and your energy and their energy. Why don't they accept that for years together they have been doing all this nonsense and they have achieved nothing. My main concern is that why don't they see it? Why are they so mass-minded? Why don't they see it clearly that these people haven't achieved anything and what are we going to achieve? “What my father did my grandfather did, my great-grandfather did, I am doing the same thing and I have not achieved anything as they have not achieved anything. Why not?" Every scientific-minded person should think like that. Every religious person should think that this religion, if it has any meaning, it's not giving any fruits [from] what is written in there. In the Islam, if you read, I don't know if you people have read Koran, but is written that there will be a day of Resurrection. That Resurrection has to take place, has been said by every one of them. But what about that? Nobody wants to talk. They'll only talk about the day of the doom because then they can have a nice money you see frightening you. “The day of the Doom is coming better give money." As if God understands your bank accounts. You haven't paid any money so far. Every such artificial type of thing is accepted by reasonably wise, sensible, educated, mature people and they find it impossible to get out of it. This is a clubbing, it's a mass thing.

Know you are an individual just now, to think for yourself. God has made you an individual. You are like an egg which is an individual, we can say. You have to think about it. You have to judge about it to find out. And then you become the collective and that means you become aware of your collectivity, aware. Collectivity doesn't mean mass reaction. Like ten people start dancing, “Oh that's a very good cult you know." What do they do? They just stand up and dance. I mean for that, how much do you have to pay? Only ten pounds, that's all? You just go there, take out your clothes and dance, finished. You get to God. Very simple method and people believe in it. I tell you people believe in it. They believe in all these tall stories. The simple thing they have to see, `Have we become our Spirit?' A simple question we should ask ourself, `Is it for our Spirit? Is there any rapport established with that Divine Power?' Have you felt that Divine Power anywhere? And when we are not keeping our minds steady on this point, we can be ruined. This all this structure gets spoiled, which is a very delicately made, beautifully made, God has made it the best of all, better than all the trees put together, all the animals put together, everything, is the epitome of His creation is man. Except for one thing: that he has been given freedom to choose. It had to go. That had to be done.

If you don't give freedom at this stage, how can you enter into complete freedom? If you do not know how to use your freedom... supposing a man who doesn't know how to use his freedom he goes about [with] daggers, killing this killing that killing that person or starts killing himself, it can be both ways. There are some who start killing others or start killing themselves. Will you give him a freedom? Even in a normal way we don't give him freedom to go about killing others, or killing himself.

So he has to have idea of using his freedom towards himself and towards others and that freedom we have to use. And if we have used it properly, wisely, then there's no problem because it's made so beautifully.

I told you how Kuṇḍalinī is placed. How She is placed, at the safest point and how She's coiled up and how these centers are kept so subtly within your medulla oblongata in your spinal cord. How it is protected and how this Āgñyā Chakra is placed between pituitary and pineal on the Optic Chiasma point and how the Sahasrāra is made so beautifully, is amazing. Only thing [is] the light of Spirit has to come to enlighten all that, that's all, nothing more needed. You have to just choose that, sensibly, that you have to become the Spirit.

You cannot force on the organization of God anything. He is on His own. His organization on His own.

Only thing you can do is to enter into His Kingdom and become a part and parcel of that blissful domain.

You would never like to change it either, it is so wonderful. It is so protective, is so loving, is so gentle, so kind, so compassionate, that you would hate to change that organization. But we do! We try to organize God even.

For people who think that that is the ultimate you have to seek, it's all arranged to enter into the Kingdom of God. The time has come. This is the Day of Resurrection. These are the Days of Resurrection.

What Christ did, there are many people... I read the other day one book saying that He never resurrected Himself. These human beings, I must say! They scientifically they `proved.' “Scientifically” can you imagine? Now how can you prove scientifically? I don't understand. According to them He didn't die.

Of course, He cannot die, He's an Eternal Being I know that part is correct. But He never died. He died the way a Divine has to die but He resurrected Himself as the Divine has to resurrect. He definitely resurrected Himself. But these scientists were not there to see. Then He descended again, that's a different point altogether. But He definitely resurrected His Divine Body. And He had such a beautiful, confident personality after that, that wherever He went, He left a great imprint on people.

And this is the trouble, that they try to prove everything scientifically. You cannot prove Christ's resurrection scientifically. That's why you cannot deny it either. What He did it on the gross level, at that time, has to happen, in a subtle level within you. That, he has done, that's why they say, “You have to pass through Him." He has done that for you. He has really done it and we have to see that happening within us. Not by saying that, “Now we follow Christ." Alright, you have one big ag: “Followers of Christ” “We are all Christian soldiers walking and we believe in Christ and we are all resurrected." No you are not. You are not. At the most if you are a good Christian or a good Hindu or a good Muslim, good, again I say, then you are well balanced for your resurrection. But if you are not even that, then it's a problem for Me, problem for you. But if you have been a good Jew, or a good Christian, or a good Hindu in the sense that you have kept your sustenance alright you have been a normal person, you have gone through the central path and you have kept to the central path of life, you are not an extremist, not a person who does anything abnormal, is a normal person, then you are very good for Realisation. It's as simple as that. But the way people have carried this simple method of organizing people into `better' life, into something so absurd like hating each other, killing each other or all sorts of things, you know. I mean it has nothing to do with God, believe Me. And “We are the chosen ones and we are the best and we are the selected." This is self-certificate. You see if I say, “I am the graduate of the Cambridge University” how long can I befool Myself and others? Which I am not. In the same way we have to really, really get our certificate from ourselves that we are reborn, not from anybody else.

So we boil down to this point: that we have to be really, really very honest with ourselves, because it is our loss, nobody else's, that so far we have not achieved that state of Spirit and that, in all humility we are going to achieve it, we have to achieve it and we have to accept that this should happen to us. This is so simple, it's so simple and so natural. It's just in the event, that at this time it had to happen. It's a very simple thing, there's no complication, if you have not complicated yourself much. But even if you have, the Divine Power knows how to disentangle you and work it out. This is the blessing of the Divine where you become the Spirit and then you reach your absolute from where there is no doubt about anything.

If you want to know what happens is that you just start feeling a Cool Breeze flowing into your hands, or from your hands and then [if] you ask a question, `Is there God?' and the breeze is much more. If you ask about a thug, `Is he a good man?' it stops. The rapport is established with your Spirit, which speaks to you as Cool Breeze in the hand. This Cool Breeze in the hand is the energy of your Spirit flowing by which your diseases get cured, you can cure the diseases of others, you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī of others and give them Realisation and you can enjoy the beauty of nature, not thinking about it, or grossly valuing it but just enjoying it in a full way.

This is the short and sweet [version]. But it's such a long story, started thousands of years back and today, it is just reaching its climax. The fruit is just going to be formed. It's just the blossom time has come for this story and if the seekers cooperate, I am sure it will work out. I have all the hopes.

May God bless you all.

Have you any questions for Me today? No questions? Why don't you come, there are lots of seats here, all of you can come and sit down, come along. Need not stand all the way. Children should sit in the first row. That's your child? It's good. It's born-realised.

So many great children are born in this country. I don't know how many understand it. He, or it is she? Hello. She wished Me outside.

Now there's was a gentlemen poor thing he has to look after the child, is it? Let him bring the child.

Children don't trouble. Just bring them in. We like them to be in, they just keep quietly. They enjoy it.

Yes. Why keep the child? These are all born-realised children to you. They won't trouble you, sit down, they'll be very happy here. Leave them alone. Hello, yes, come along, let them play. Just let them play. You see they know what to do they are busy people. They know what to do, they're busy people.

They're relaxed.

Alright. No question really? Sure? No questions? Alright.

So now only one question could be, that how to do it? Who'll bell the cat? It's very simple. How do you sprout a seed? In the same way, it is done. As you have seen there, that the hands denote all the centers: five, six and seven centers. There's a handbook also which you can take it and see for yourself.

Now some of the people I've seen when they take the book you see, they read it and they get worried about something. Whatever is written in that book is the truth. Now we have tried to keep away lots of it, from people because they want to have the truth, what to see themselves. Like some people only hear what they want to hear you see. The rest they don't hear. But whatever was necessary to be told, has been told in that book, which should not frighten you in any way or should not bother you.

You just see the book and read it if you want and see for yourself whether it is true or not. But just do not get worried about that. Is a wrong attitude, because I'm talking about the realm which you have never known before. This is the area which is unknown to you, so if you are entering into that area which is unknown to you, you need not just get upset about it, but see for yourself whatever is written in that book is true or not. Though we have kept out lots of things from there, not to upset you because people get upset with anything. Even if they see a candle they get upset, “Why there's a candle?" I said, “Now, what to do?" If electric light is there is alright, but no candle. If they see this they'll say, “Why this?" See everything can make you upset. You have ideas you see, that a person who is going to give you Realisation should be sitting in some black place, you see, all covered with two horns coming out. That's not the thing. I have to be the most normal person, isn't it, otherwise you won't accept.

So all these ideas you have about people, or some people think that a person who's such and such should be of this height, of this width, this face, of this, that. All this is your own imagination.

So we have to keep ourselves open because this realm you have to get into and see for yourself. Just keep yourself open and see for yourself.

Now you have got these five centers, six and seven centers in your hand. Now I'm telling you this, but it doesn't mean that I'm forcing on you something or a brainwashing is there, but these centers are there, you see. If you go to a doctor he'll tell you about things and the same way I'm telling you that there are seven centers. These are the basic centers within us, basic. And these centers are shown here, did you somebody talk here, Gavin? So they are shown on here. Now when you put your hands towards Me like this, these sympathetic centers get activated, just like as you put the seed in a particular manner it sprouts, it's just like that, there's nothing, so you have to just put the hands.

Now some people have an objection even for that.

Now you have come all the way for your Realisation. What is the harm for putting hands like this? What is the harm? But even they have objection for that. But if a Guru is there they'll bow to him one thousand and one times, give him five hundred pounds and again bow to him and go back into lunatic asylum. I mean I have met many like that. But if you tell them just put your hands like this, because after all the energy has to flow. Apart from that, you have to ask for it. It cannot be forced, because you are a free person, you are free person not to have it or to have it, alright? But if you have to have it, I mean if you don't want to have it, well and good, then we don't have anything to do with you. We don't want to waste our energy with people who don't want to have it. Just we do not want to waste our energy, because why should we? If you don't want to have it, it cannot be forced, you see. It's not a horse that you can put in the mouth and the horse eats, it's not like that, because the taste of this you have never known. You see is a new area into which you have to that is your spiritual area, for that you have to understand how to get to it. And for that even a small thing like putting the hands, if people don't want to do it means they are not seekers at all. There's nothing to be frightened. Kuṇḍalinī doesn't trouble anyone. We have had thousands of people realised, nobody had any problem, nothing. On the contrary, you feel much better and cured.

Just close your eyes, put both the feet on the ground. That also has a meaning because when I say put both the feet, it has a meaning. I won't tell you anything that is not necessary, because I have to gain nothing out of it. Is better to take out if possible but if they are there doesn't matter. But you see they just little bit you know too many reasons they are. Then sometimes they do and even the tight things in the waist. If the waist is very tight, physically, then this is not proper, you can just loosen it a little bit. But with some people the Kuṇḍalinī shoots off so fast that whatever may be the type of way you are sitting or the way you are, whatever you are doing just shoots off. Now, put your hands towards Me like this and close your eyes.

Keep your eyes shut, that is very important to keep your eyes shut, because the Kuṇḍalinī when She rises, over the Āgñyā She dilates your pupils and if it is not closed She won't rise. Just keep your eyes shut, it will work out. Keep your eyes shut please, just keep your eyes shut. This is the chance of lives, not of one life, know that. This is what you have been seeking in all your lives and you have to have it, you have to get it. You must get your own power. Close your eyes.

Contents: 1982-04-24 Conversation with Sahaja Yogis, About Children, Ruth's Apartment, Rome, Italy

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR] I thought there was a big gap in My travelling now. Coming from India, I had some rest. [UNCLEAR Where has Wilson gone?/It's very nice and warm.] London was very warm.

How are you? I asked her. She said she's here. How are you feeling? May God bless you.

Am I supposed to sit there?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: It's too much, beautiful all right. [UNCLEAR He is busy/It's beautiful].

So beautiful it is.

Sahaja Yogi: Would you like a cup of tea, Mother?

Shri Mataji: Yes, that would be nice. How are you?

Sahaja Yogini: Hmm, good, thank you, Mother.

Shri Mataji: That's good. Now, I can see that on your face.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR I never thought I would see you again/I always enjoyed to see your face].

Shri Mataji: You know you all have to expand. This time [UNCLEAR it is faster/spread much faster].

Shri Mataji: So what a welcome! What a welcome, [UNCLEAR huh/eh]! What a welcome! [UNCLEAR Arya] must have told you all her experiences that we had in India. This year maybe we may not have any group in, in India maybe, because now I am going to concentrate on building some sort of a building for [UNCLEAR to speak] these people here. The land that is given to us is absolutely beautiful.

The land is so beautiful, you people all came away, it is the most beautiful land that you can think, you know, just and from there you see the [UNCLEAR sea/three] beautiful lakes [UNCLEAR and/on] the other side you can see. And the fellow was just waiting for Me to go there and to accept, you see, that land.

So he said, “I have been a worshipper of the Goddess all my life and my forefathers have been there and I was promised that in my [UNCLEAR] in my old age. I'm going to [and I'll feel relieved how can that be], that my forefathers told me, `How am I going to see Ādi Shakti?' " Then he got his realisation and it's just beautiful and so great. He's an old man of eighty years. Can you believe it? He came all the way walking up the hill just to show Me the place. And he said, “This has been there since the Treta Yug” means since the time of Rāma this has been. They had found out relics in that area. Such a nice land we have got. Just free, can you imagine? One acre of land. It's very expensive. We have got three lands absolutely free, absolutely free. I said, “We do free work.

So we get everything free. What to do?" But it is a beautiful thing and after that, when you come there, it's really remarkable. Because it's so peaceful and so nice and such a nice thing there and very good vibrations.

Last time had a problem in Bombay [Mumbai], little bit, not much. But you people are in Sahaja Yoga. You don't mind anything; that's the main [UNCLEAR]. You don't mind any sort of a problem.

Why don't you take chairs? You'd be more comfortable. I will be very happy.

Sahaja Yogini: If you don't speak English, we don't understand Hindi.

Shri Mataji: Yeah, so you better translate it because I have learnt in this life time English language and I think I can speak it but I don't think I can ever learn any other language. But I understand little bit Italian, little bit of French. I learnt this time. I don't know how I learnt. It has something scientific.

Sahaja Yogini: When will we learn English?

Shri Mataji: Yes, you will. In Sahaja Yoga it would be possible. Now the French people were singing songs in Marathi language. Yes, in the ashram, they were singing in Marathi language. I was so surprised.

I said, “How did you pick up?" They said, “You know, Mother, we went there. You were in Poona. We asked them to teach us Marathi songs and they taught us." And they were singing very nicely with a very good pronunciation. Just imagine and the tunes are rather different from, you see, the Western style, but they did it very well. That's the work of Sahaja Yoga. It gives you a special dynamism for everything; yes, for everything. Those who have never known any wood work, ask Allen. Allen has become such a great carpenter [UNCLEAR and such a fine/fast one] we are all missing you there. He is doing very well. He has become a very precise, very good carpenter. This is a new thing they have got now to put Me on the heart. It's a good idea.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, [UNCLEAR do/would you] want to have lunch now?

Shri Mataji: What about others coming also?

Sahaja Yogini: Maybe [UNCLEAR when/by] it is time, it is ready, they will arrive. By two o'clock they will come [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What did you say? They'll be coming. Is it the same house? How did you like this present?

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, it's beautiful.

Shri Mataji: This was from Poona, all kinds, you know. When I came from Bombay [Mumbai] I ran short of liquid money. I said, “Now what to do? Better take out some money from the bank." And so somebody came to see Me. It was Mister Pradhan. He said, “Mother, you know you overpaid us six thousand pounds, six thousand rupees." I said, “Really?" “That what I have to pay now." “So better pay." Just imagine. Just like that. In the material level it works out so correctly.

You were fixing up that partition. You remember that one?

Sahaja Yogi: [Which partition was that, Mother?].

Shri Mataji: Which one is it? It was the one that you were fixing on the cupboard, in the bathroom cupboard.

Sahaja Yogi: Oh, Your bathroom.

Shri Mataji: Remember?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: How it just fixed. You see, he didn't think. He just went and fixed. Finished, it was just there. But this time, you see, in one of the rooms, you see, it was time to fix the partition. Partition had a limited [UNCLEAR tarnish/dimension]. And Noah came as usual, you see. He stands up and then measures up. Then again stands up.

So I said, “What are you doing there?" So he said, “I am trying to” he said, “work.

So I have to figure it out, still I think." I said, “Straightforward, it's the same [UNCLEAR]. You just put it straight." “Really?" I said, “Yes, it is perfect." He said, “But how do You know?" “You just see it." He just went and saw. It was just perfect. Wasting so much time, figuring it out so much time, standing there. I said, [UNCLEAR “I said it is there./it is there...]" Now he has given up, you see. If I say so, he says, “Yes." He's given up. He is fed up with Me now.

He just thinks that, “I don't know how Mother knows these things." Another we had, one Mister John. He is another great thinker.

So I told him to put the mirrors in a line. He is standing. “Whether to start? How to put it? How many?" He is counting. I just said, “You start from here and put it” and all of them fell in line, absolutely. He was amazed at it.

So I said, “You see, there is something like a fifth sense which is called as [time measure]." Hello. What's your name? What's your name? Born-realised, both of them are.

Sahaja Yogini: Daniele. He is called Daniele. You had seen his picture in this [UNCLEAR] when you came to Rome.

Shri Mataji: Yes, I remember. Both are realised Souls, great realised Souls.

Sahaja Yogini: Both?

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Sahaja Yogini: The other baby comes from Sicily, Mother and they have been meditating and been Sahaja Yogis, only the two of them and they were all alone. They came to Rome now, just to see You [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You see, yesterday I went to this. We had a program. No, day before yesterday, in Hampstead and a little boy of 4 to six years age came and his father came and said, “I don't know why.

He just saw Your photographs and he said that `I am going to see this lady and you must take me to Her,' and he was so much after My life that I had to come." And he was just too cute. “This one, this one.

This is no good. Forget it." And then everybody was laughing. He said, “What is so funny about it?" You see, he couldn't understand why they were laughing. They were appreciating the way the little boy was telling Me about our [UNCLEAR body/it]. You see, he stood up there, put his hand. Little Olympia, you should see how she works out the Swādhiṣhṭhāna and Allah hu Akbar.

Sahaja Yogini: Really?

Shri Mataji: Yes, she tells them to do Allah hu Akbar and she is showing the Swādhiṣhṭhāna. She is hardly [UNCLEAR] and she doesn't talk much.

Sahaja Yogini: She must be two years or two years and a half.

Shri Mataji: Not yet, I think not yet.

Sahaja Yogini: Would you like some milk, Mātājī?

Shri Mataji: It was really remarkable how this child has grown up. From the very beginning she was like that, but now she is coming up to the programs and helping Me out with little things. It looks very sweet, na. [UNCLEAR Adi/And] he brought one almond and put it in My hand. “You just keep for a while. Just that I am hurt. It's hurting me, all right?" Then he put it on the backbone of that person, you see and tried to take out. He said “It still doesn't crack; still doesn't crack." Can you imagine how much they understand that their [UNCLEAR fruit/...] is going to come up. But the foundation is huge. They are [UNCLEAR going to come out/all coming up]. [UNCLEAR No problems/they have no problems].

Hello. Isn't it? There is no problem at all. They are busy people, though. All right. [UNCLEAR They/You] are enjoying so much. That's the best thing. That's a really good feeling that you really enjoy.

Translate it into [UNCLEAR] so that they understand.

Sahaja Yogini: [translating into Italian].

Child: Adita, Adita, Adita.

Shri Mataji: Aditi is the name of the Primordial Mother.

Sahaja Yogini: Really?

Shri Mataji: Children know so a lot when they are born-realised. My grandson, he was only about two and a half when he started talking. And he used such big words. I mean, one day he said to Me that, “Do you know, Grandma, that in this world people don't know that there is God's compassion everywhere?" I was surprised. And the word, `compassion', in Sanskrit, `anukampan'. He used the word at two and a half years!

Sahaja Yogini: May I translate?

Shri Mataji: Yes, please.

[Sahaja Yogini translates Shri Mataji's words into Italian for the next section.]

Shri Mataji: It's most surprising. And the two, two daughters, the another girl has got two daughters, elder one.

So they went to school, the younger one. Younger one is about three years of age. She was going to school. They gave her a piece of paper, you see. And she showed Me and said, “What's written here?" I said that, “It's written here that you have to go to a hotel and there is a meeting. When you go there, then if you do a course for eight days and pay hundred rupees, then you will get your transformation." With little children, imagine, these papers were there.

You translate for them.

So the little one says immediately to Me, “How can they get transformation with anyone by paying money? Kuṇḍalinī has to rise, isn't it?" So the elder one says, “Of course." She says, “You see, my father has done eight courses. His Kuṇḍalinī is just frozen." So the younger one says, “These people who have written must be really mad people. You see, they don't understand. They are mad, you see. They are like flowls, you see." That's what she said that, “They can't see in the daytime." The elder one said, “No, they must be liars or thugs. Otherwise, how can they say such a thing?" They understand so much. This grandson's sister, his elder sister, she is another very enlightened person. She's very young, about four years or so. They went to Ladakh and there was one lama sitting with the shaved hair and big and was looking at his [UNCLEAR] and everybody was touching his feet.

Translate.

So this one was looking at that person. And My daughter was also there.

So she saw her mother go and touch his feet and then her father also went and touched his feet. She couldn't bear to see that. She just couldn't bear it.

So she went and stood before that lama just like this and with her head like this she said, “What do you mean by shaving your hair like that and wearing this kind of a long robe? You think you have become a realised Soul? How dare you ask anybody to touch your feet?" She was hardly four or five years old. “You are not [UNCLEAR], you are not realised and why are you doing like this? You shouldn't do like this." And My daughter was so embarrassed. She told Me that she was so embarrassed.

They are very powerful, you see, very powerful. But then, you know, other people try to put them down and all that.

So they become quieter. But otherwise in childhood they are very powerful.

And the same, another one, Aradhana, elder one, you see. I had taken her to one of the meeting where they had called Me as a chief guest. You know this Rāman Maharishi's hundred years.

So they had called Me as a chief guest. From this Rāmakrishna Ashram, this fellow was sitting next to Me with a big dress, choga, like that, you see. Big thing he was wearing, sitting next to Me. And My granddaughter was sitting with another Sahaja Yogini in the front row, you see. She was so young at that time; must be around four years or so.

And she couldn't bear, you see. She just stood up. She said, “Grandma, who is this man sitting with this choga?" You see, choga is rather a bad word for robe, you see. “Who is this sitting with this robe on his body, this fellow? Ask him to get out. I am getting heat from him, horrible fellow." She just blurted out and every, there were lots of Sahaja Yogis, they all started laughing. I said I was [amazed]. “Who is this man sitting next to You with this?" No, no, she didn't say choga. What she said was maxi. “The one who is wearing this maxi." It's maxi, you see. She knows the word.

So she immediately got up and said, “Who is this man sitting next to You wearing this maxi? Ask him to get out. He is giving so much of heat. Everybody is feeling heat. Why is he sitting there next to You? Ask him to get out." All the Sahaja Yogis were around and they laughed. Such things happen, you know, with these children.

[To a baby:] Isn't it? Yes, yes, he knows. He knows that. What's your name? You didn't tell Me your name. David? David, great. One great name you have. David, David, you have channa with you? They like channa, all of them. It is an international food for children, I tell you.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes, what's he said? Yes, come here. Come, let's have these flowers, see. David, come here. See these flowers are so beautiful. Come and have a look. He's shy, shy. Let him be. Just see. These flowers are so nice. Won't you have them? No, don't force; don't force. They will be friendly.

So many great children are born in these days.

Now you will be amazed; I was reading in the Quran and in Quran there is so much of it. They call it `Day of Resurrection'.

So much of Sahaja Yoga described less about the `Day of Doom', more about the `Day of Resurrection' and that you will have knowledge. You will know what I am talking about. I am talking about the Divine Power and it will teach you everything [there is to know].

And also Christ, the other day we [were looking through] the Bible, that something, that, “You will be blessed by the Holy Ghost” or something, “So that you will know My Father forever." Beautiful. This was the other day only when we were reading Bible. They found it and they were reading out. See how nicely Christ had said, so clearly. Yeah, I mean this is only possible if you know your spirit. Otherwise, forever to know Him, means you will not doubt anymore.

There is a book written by somebody which I was looking in, where they say that Christ, He died on the cross and all that. I mean, He cannot die in any case, because He is the spirit, you see.

So how can He die? It's true, but that He was carried away is not true because He did have resurrection, went into His resurrection and then He came down. Then He went to Kashmir. It's a fact. But how can you prove whether there was or not? But for Me, who else will [UNCLEAR say]. That is it, you see, that I had told them that this thing had happened: Christ had gone to India; He was there. This I told long time back. Also I had told them that Moses died in India in Kashmir. I told them and now it is, it is proved now.

But you see, that doesn't mean that Christ did not have a resurrection. Because the cloth, you see, the shroud, the [sacred] shroud as they call it, that is true. That is what, yes, it is true. But that was not, He was not carried in that. How can you carry anyone with a cloth which is sort of, full of blood? It was smuggled somehow.

Yes, the book is written by, I think he's a German or someone, I think. I don't know why he wrote that part. But he tried to prove. Perhaps maybe he might be thinking that these Jews were always blamed for the crucifixion of Christ.

So he might have been, he must be feeling guilty for all the German [UNCLEAR], whatever it is. But he found about Christ in some monastery in Leh. I will find out Myself because near Leh, My son-in-law goes there. I will find out. But there, there was, they say, a prophet was there at the time Christ was there. He was known as Isa, Isu. All these names are there and...

[Aside:] May God bless you. Come along, we have been waiting for you.

But how can you scientifically prove whether He was ever resurrected or not? The only way is through vibrations.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, you know, we were just [UNCLEAR thinking/reading] the other day an [UNCLEAR extracted/extract] in a book made by a French historian who is called [Audrey Dumas] who is quite known in France and he wrote a book called the `Jesus of Pharaohs' or something like `Jesus as king' and in that book he says, he repeats all the times when Jesus said, “You see, I am talking to them but they don't listen to Me. Send away those priests. They think they are in the Kingdom of God. They don't [UNCLEAR]." He repeats and regrets all that. And then he described, just at the end, he says, “Well, there's one thing: I believe in everything and I believe in Jesus and I had to write that thing. But still, of course, there's one thing I cannot prove: that Jesus was resurrected and this is just the only point where I cannot say anything." Because, you see, we want to think God is like us. He is God. God is God. I mean, He can do anything.

You can't even make this flower into a fruit. [UNCLEAR But if He's God, it means that he can really do it/And if he can do this thing why can't you do that?] He is God and if He can do this [UNCLEAR].

You see, when you talk to human beings, you have to have a human body and to make them comfortable, you have to behave just like them. But God is God, you see.

They do [UNCLEAR not/just] understand easily how many dimensions. It's not possible.

See, I came to Rome now and all My left foot was lame. I couldn't even lift it. The whole of it is now full of [UNCLEAR] this left side. Then I started rubbing it. Vibrations [UNCLEAR]. Then it's all gone. You see, the negative forces mostly act because of some sort of, you see, spirits on them, actually and these spirits are the ones who get threatened and they just clutch hold of My feet [UNCLEAR].

After all, I am for their liberation. See, by forgiving them and by telling them to take birth, or by rubbing them out you can [UNCLEAR]. You see, it's like a very low micro, micro, micro level working, which human beings cannot understand. But it's simple for Me. It's least complicated. It's least complicated.

Most complicated are human beings, because they have complicated themselves like that. You see, just call it, complicated.

There is no need to do all these things. What is the [UNCLEAR use/need]? Just be good human beings. That's all we need. [UNCLEAR] you cannot get the Kingdom of Heaven [UNCLEAR]. No one is going to beat this aggressiveness and this, you see. [UNCLEAR]. You cannot get the Kingdom of Heaven [UNCLEAR]. A light has to come to see reality, what is in what, what is really enlightened. The light has to come. Otherwise in darkness, there is such gross [UNCLEAR].

Let him, let him play. They are all right. They are busy people. Let them play and shout. They shouts at the bhoots also. All right, let them play. He gets into a loving face and [he gets all] that expression on his mother.

They are busy people, aren't they? Yes, he is feeling that love. He is expressing it on her because he doesn't know what to do with Me. See, all that joy he is trying to express, that's all.

You have to write down their names and tell Me, because pronunciation-wise, I think it's very much easier than French, because you speak the way you write. It's more phonetic. But this French, she calls you, she doesn't call you [UNCLEAR Why is there such a nuisance] she tries and says whose name are you taking Aai, she said you don't know. I said, “Which one is this Ruth?" I said, “What's that? Spell it." She spelt it. I said, “Oh, that is Ruth." I said, “Why you spoil your Viśhuddhi but nothing gets out?" And `R' is a very important because `R' stands for energy. `Ra' is the power of the root, Nirmalā. He said, `Nermala'. I said, “This is [UNCLEAR calling/spoiling] My name."

Sahaja Yogini: How should we pronounce it?

Shri Mataji: I don't mind. We had a [busy day in France, there was] [UNCLEAR a media/Algerian lady]. She was suffering from leukemia. She wrote Me a letter that Marie gave her My photograph and she put it [under the pillow]. She used to see that photograph and pray and she got all right. Doctors are all surprised. She has gone back to [UNCLEAR Dublin/Algeria] and there she [UNCLEAR saw/has] her children, five children and family and husband all are very happy.

Sahaja Yogi: There was a funny story that happened in Sicily [UNCLEAR]. Two friends of ours to whom we had give realisation last summer, but who were not convinced really and now they told, we met the other day, that both of them were suffering so much from their heart and left side and one of them went even to the doctor because of this heart and the doctor could not find anything. Sandro e Giovanni.

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's correct. That's how Sahaja Yoga has to work out.

Contents: 1982-04-25 Conversation with Sahaja Yogis, Ruth's Apartment, Rome, Italy

[The William Blake's song, `Jerusalem', is sung.] [UNCLEAR] prediction. Specially it's a prediction about the house. I don't know if you have read all that, this house that we are going to be building is says that at the back of Kensington Garden, then there's a brook there who was called as so Twyburn which flows just under our house.

Somewhere there, used to flow. A house will be decorated and the earth like humility will give the base as sort of very good [UNCLEAR] the whole thing is. And hearts will be thanks-giving. All this will be built. And [there] the golden gilders. You see, they are painted with gold. The golden gilders will build a monument. It's beautiful. Every word of it, it's so many things in that. As well as they are still searching it intuitively because when the things happen then they find out. Like the foundations will be made in Lambert way and [UNCLEAR a/her] sinuses will vibrate round.

[Aside:] So you tell him?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother. [Italian translation.]

Shri Mataji: And first because He ['ll be lived] in Southern Hills. I lived in Southern Hills first, you see.

So the first because he'll be lived in Southern Hills. And another one, another prediction we had in India, means it's another great thing, two thousand years back. [UNCLEAR So/See] there was a great Guru, who, very well-known for his astrological predictions, you see. He has written two books, you see.

One of them is called as NĀdi Granth and in that thing he has written about Sahaja Yoga, that it will start in 1970. I started in 1970 exactly. And he called Me a Mahā Yogi. See, that's the, the Mahā Yogi will be the embodiment of the Parabrahma and that this Parabrahma will have the power of whatever He wants to do it will do, whatever He doesn't want to do it will not do. It's [Hindi] Shakti. In 1970 it is done. And that a very big Yogi will die in 1922 and this Mahā Yogi will be born after that. I was born in '23. And a new method will start by which the sleeping Kuṇḍalinī Shakti will be awakened and people will get their Realisation. Such a lot he has written that I know, really it's most surprising and I have asked Gavin to write down the whole thing, whatever is rest said. Yes and then people will be cured of their diseases. You don't need any institutions like hospital. And then if there are sufficient number of Sahaja Yogis, then you don't need a third world war. Otherwise, there could be a third world war. And after that third world war, people will gather together. Even if you have that, then only the Sahaja Yogis will be respected and will be called to have a conference instead of these horrible politicians. It's quite a lot, but Gavin is going to prepare that and is going to send to all of you. Are you getting Nirmalā Yoga here?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother, we are.

Shri Mataji: Now, in that [context] he is going to publish Nirmalā Yoga about this. All are noted.

Then there are other predictions also he is going to [give you] there, of others' predictions also. Like what Sir John, John, you see, John [spread, gospelled that]. What then Christ has said, what John has said and other Gurus. And Quran, Quran also. That would be good then, I think will be one we have to establish it. Of the Guru. Then?

Sahaja Yogini: There was a [UNCLEAR], he's not here. Our, our purpose was humorous, he didn't know. And he was saying also, “Oh, but now we have reached the end of the whole thing. There must be somebody or someone above us who is directing the [whole thing]. We couldn't have before is changed but who knows? Maybe we have come too far and now we'll be rescued, that is He will first destroy a disciple like that because He will have to do so." And he was finishing with this interrogation [part] and we've send him an invitation to come.

Shri Mataji: Is it? That [Guru is over]. Very good idea. What about this [popularity]? What has happened? You are less bothered.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, according to the newspapers now they have [revived] there, in front of each other and they are waiting for the United States to move and to take ananya Shakti. Nothing has happened as for the newspaper this evening. We can listen to the music, Mother.

Shri Mataji: How are you feeling? She's looking much younger suddenly.

Sahaja Yogini: She says that she feels so wonderfully well that she wonders if she really deserves it.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes. I'm always here for you. These are much more. Italians are sweetheart people, isn't it? Have [indoors] life but not so much complicated. How are you feeling now?

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, Mother, she feels great.

Shri Mataji: How are you, [UNCLEAR]?

Sahaja Yogini: [Fine].

Shri Mataji: How are you, sir? He's sleepy now. You give him something to eat, I think. He plays so well; I didn't know. You must come to London.

Sahaja Yogi: Oh, Mother, I, I used to [come].

Shri Mataji: You learned this in Sicily or?

Sahaja Yogini: He's from Rome.

Sahaja Yogi: I'm from Sicily but I, I remember only I were in Rome.

Shri Mataji: But since childhood you were here? In your childhood you were here in Rome?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Sahaja Yogini: He will have a kind of public audition on piano the day of Sahasrāra Day.

Sahaja Yogi: No, the day before.

Sahaja Yogini: Or the day after. He says so. The day, the day before the purusha of Sahasrāra Day you will have a public audition on piano.

Shri Mataji: Exact here?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, here around.

Shri Mataji: Oh, it's, it's great. For his age is such a good thing. It's great. Single? Solo is? Solo piano?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: You say it's only you are going to play or somebody else is.

Sahaja Yogini: He will be a pure [daemon] playing that evening and he will play without orchestra.

Shri Mataji: Good, good. [UNCLEAR] you'll write about [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: Whenever you might phone [Smith's], Mother, [your food] is ready.

Shri Mataji: No, I'm going to cook. What's the time [I have to cook]? Twelve o'clock? It's all right.

Doesn't matter.

So you must learn how to wear a sarī now.

Sahaja Yogini: Can we [quarrel]?

Shri Mataji: And this is very traditional style sarī in India [you can get].

Sahaja Yogini: We must [UNCLEAR] want to know it.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, I think you forgot to change Your watch. It's a quarter to two now.

Shri Mataji: Is it? Oh, I see. This is one hour less, [UNCLEAR]. I'm still having English watch within Myself.

Sahaja Yogini: Do You want to eat here, Mother, or in the other room, like yesterday noon?

Shri Mataji: Yes, that it is better, to sit down there, very much.

Sahaja Yogini: They have done the basic things. [UNCLEAR Are you down there, Sylvie?]

Shri Mataji: Italian painters are also very well-known, like musicians are. But I am surprised that there have been many, many even scientists, Italian scientists. There have been lots of scientists, Italian scientists, you see. And of course painters and all, but they've got scientists later.

Sahaja Yogini: They have lots genius people, I mean.

Shri Mataji: Mmm?

Sahaja Yogini: They have lots of genius.

Shri Mataji: Genius?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, they have.

Shri Mataji: Really. As Michelangelo was an Italian one.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: And [Da Vinci]?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother, he was. And Dante.

Shri Mataji: Even Dante? I don't like these Dutch painters so much, you see. Went out of proportional too much. Italians are good. But now they are busy with [other things] and their attention is not on creativity so much.

Sahaja Yogini: And the ones who create, many go away, as here they are not appreciated and even those scientists...

Shri Mataji: They go away.

Sahaja Yogini: They will go away, yes. Then, yeah, they want to go away because here they are not appreciated.

Shri Mataji: All right.

So where do they go mostly? Whether...

Sahaja Yogini: In Belgium...

Shri Mataji: America.

Sahaja Yogini: No, Europe.

Shri Mataji: Oh, Europe.

Sahaja Yogi: United States.

Sahaja Yogis: Yes, United States a lot.

Shri Mataji: They are not appreciated so much.

Sahaja Yogini: No, not really.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, do You think this is Virginia Lake?

Shri Mataji: Yes, this is in Virginia.

Sahaja Yogini: It's among the, among the nature and they are putting flowers right on the floor.

Shri Mataji: Really?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, this is in many places. Then is one [UNCLEAR] of Virginia Lake.

Shri Mataji: Really? You see, the paints were brought. They start painting again.

Sahaja Yogini: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: Yeah. [Very good]. Approximate age. Good.

Sahaja Yogini: She's OK? [And he] looks like her Mother?

Shri Mataji: Isn't it? They suit very much.

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR] away.

Shri Mataji: Very much, they resemble.

Sahaja Yogini: So subtle.

Shri Mataji: God, beautiful. God and height.

Sahaja Yoginis: Yes, yes, yes. Yes.

Shri Mataji: That's it.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, Victor, he wants You to [come].

Shri Mataji: They are used to get it rather unconscious.

Sahaja Yogi: It's all right.

Shri Mataji: Are you all right? You gave him Realisation or not?

Sahaja Yogi: I think it crossed it, Mother, yes.

Shri Mataji: Crossed it? This is another liver patient [also]. Then we've done Sahaja Yoga so. Today we brought Sahaja Yoga books.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [Study]. You did not know? It was a [UNCLEAR]. Facing that side. Facing that side.

Sahaja Yogini: She really wants people want to see that. His only wish is [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: The [moon]. What work he gets?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: When? You get government?

Sahaja Yogi: Nothing [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Why? Somebody wants? International of the Hong Kong.

Sahaja Yogini: He was a, for a International [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Oh, I see. That's why we should also go down to see the [UNCLEAR]. Telephones are going to be improved and [UNCLEAR]...

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I don't know, the human goes on seeking.

[Aside to a child]: Can you tell? Are you [UNCLEAR Sylvie's]? It's inherited. [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Unfortunately.

Sahaja Yogini: I'll bring Your food, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Hain. Please bring the food. Hain. Great. Are you feeling Cool Breeze in the hands?

Sahaja Yogini: I am feeling, but very less, Mother, [UNCLEAR] vibrations in this moment. And it can be [on the each and everything].

Shri Mataji: This is the Romania, first visit. Yeah, close your hand. Good. [Pañch have you made it, Christine? To Kolhapur, Pañch Ganga.] Close your hands. [Long pause.] Wife is all right? You see the [UNCLEAR]. [All right?]

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: She's is a Sahaja Yogini? [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: She believes but she doesn't want to practice.

Shri Mataji: She's not granted with Realisation. She's not granted [with Self-realisation].

Sahaja Yogini: No, no, no, there was nothing at all.

Shri Mataji: She, but she is all right, [everything] all right?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: How we can feel Your [UNCLEAR]? [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: She brought up a child from [home central board], which is in Italy.

Shri Mataji: What? What is?

Sahaja Yogi: She go to the child's [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What?

Sahaja Yogini: No, she go to the child [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Want a child?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, but [UNCLEAR though/now] she's an Italian [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Oh, good for the child. How many, how many days?

Sahaja Yogini: Four months ago.

Shri Mataji: Four months.

Sahaja Yogini: Four months ago.

Shri Mataji: All right. It has that [UNCLEAR] because the children are in home centers. What's her name?

Sahaja Yogini: Sarah.

Shri Mataji: Can you yourself repeat, Sarah, please?

Sahaja Yogini: No, but is Sarah. Sarah.

Shri Mataji: Sarah. Sarah. [UNCLEAR] they are having an organization called Sarah? [This much nonsense]. He sent here [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: Yeah, you can say it English Sahaja Yoga. Today on the Times there was an advertisement, “Buy your Realisation from Tora” T O R A. [UNCLEAR]. [Then my mother thought] that we might be trying and something that he remembered how to surrender. Then it talks about the second coming of Christ in two months' time.

Sahaja Yogini: In two months' time?

Sahaja Yogini: And it asked the question to the public, “Are you ready for it?" And ready for all they said it's a crossed road, a [UNCLEAR] you see, all sort of things. And they appeared on the TV.

Then also I don't know how they found out but he also started saying that he's a Christian and spent [UNCLEAR] thousand pounds for advertising. [UNCLEAR] and all Rolls-Royce is finished. And Times has written that [UNCLEAR] newspapers don't need.

So we have other some examples here troubling round, isn't it?

Shri Mataji: These are [UNCLEAR] they took for the car and publicity.

Sahaja Yogini: And I think I can say Mother's answer to that [UNCLEAR]? Sahaja Yogi [after the translation in Italian]: In English you speak more.

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: See, only thing is that [UNCLEAR in Italy/initially] we should also know that there's something in the atmosphere. There is one thing because they all know is something in the atmosphere.

Work it here [UNCLEAR] is like a market place. This is a market for them.

So they must be marketing people, you see. They know there is something in the atmosphere. All the Sahaja Yogis must have [realised] that we are all realised Souls and got the vibrations and everything. [UNCLEAR]. They say also that the Comforter has already come to give us Realisation and we are always denigrating. Why? Are you, you saying everything for money? Are you not afraid of God? Are you ready up to the [epitome] so that one talk on the [UNCLEAR]? [UNCLEAR talk]. Ha. You also work very hard [really]?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Very hard? That's it. You are all busy people. No? Very busy.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Better? [Angel is not in the hall]. You see, instead or so they will go to church or some kind of wrong Gurus. You can, you may go to a Guru or anything who gives you Realisation. But always we [UNCLEAR] bhoots.

So we [UNCLEAR] just seekers.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You don't tell about others?

Sahaja Yogi: No, no, not magia, only spiritism.

Sahaja Yogis: Spiritism.

Shri Mataji: Spiritism.

Sahaja Yogini: He says of a patrol [level] only he left on curiosity. As is curious, more as curiosity than as a [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: How many did they come? Was she start showing the [deep part]? Then marketing will be for that, of course...

Sahaja Yogini: You couldn't easily recognize [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR] what? Expect what? Don't worry.

Sahaja Yogini: He says that [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What he is saying?

Sahaja Yogini: He says that, that he would definitely [UNCLEAR] because You [brought] just in few minutes. Instead of curiosity.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR]. Just out of curiosity. Better?

Sahaja Yogini: Right side is the heavier.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] because only I'll find.

Shri Mataji: What's he saying? [Long pause.] Ha, better? Better, na?

Sahaja Yogini: He looks like is less heavy?

Shri Mataji: How is he?

Sahaja Yogini: Less heavy.

Shri Mataji: Less heavy.

Sahaja Yogini: Spiritually.

Shri Mataji [to a child]: You stand up.

Sahaja Yogini:... Realisation done before. The Realisation they have been given?

Shri Mataji: None of them was realised. You see, the olden Gurus, they sit wherever is Nābhī but all these have [UNCLEAR]. You call Him Dhanvantari... [MISSING.]

Sahaja Yogini: When You cured him it is a main thing.

Shri Mataji: And in this stage of, I mean, this stage when they are plants there is no awareness about a competition. But when you are a human being there is an awareness of competition, but when you get realised you, you don't have that fear, competition, but you enjoy growing, becoming one to another.

It's nice to see how Sahaja Yogis grow, where I meet them after sometime, again what they have, again that they are not having. It's nice to see for Me also when I go to some place after some time how they are grown up to Me. Because Kuṇḍalinī [UNCLEAR] grossness. It's nice to see you. But if you don't cooperate with your Kuṇḍalinī and try to do something, you see, only experimentation, this, that, you see, or harm it and doing wrong things which should not be there, after some time Kuṇḍalinī also don't rise. You see, it's such as bad. Means the Realisation [fail]. You see, there is no other force within you but your own desire to be the Spirit as they have told. But to have that force properly [also] you must have reached there. But most surprising thing is that Kuṇḍalinī also gives you wisdom. She is the one who gives you wisdom. That is, they say that She gives you the oil, She gives you the, what you call, this the container, the oil, then the candle, then the wick and also the light. That She gives you.

Then, then enjoy it. It's so kind and compassionate. And the only thing She wants that you should enjoy your life.

Only we should try to understand Her problems and try to cooperate with Her, because we have created problems for Her. By our rationalities or by any other things we have created problems for Her.

So we should try to cooperate with Her. Also by conditionings. Better? He is better? How are your vibrations? How are you?

Sahaja Yogini: Better.

Shri Mataji: Other lectures [UNCLEAR] speech [must have helped you already]. How is your Nābhī? And don't think. Just don't think. Just leave it on Me. Hmm, better. Here is the [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: It doesn't satisfy this body.

Shri Mataji: Now, you never felt before?

Sahaja Yogi: No, Mother.

Shri Mataji: It's around this [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Now are You happy? Mother? OK? Must be [pulsating].

Shri Mataji: Good vibrations. You should work on Viśhuddhi more. [UNCLEAR]. Better?

Sahaja Yogi: [Hope I do not catch again].

Shri Mataji: We'll give bandhan. All right. [Long pause.] Anya, come. Gaṇeśh, come. [UNCLEAR].

Come, come, come, come, come. Very good child. [Playing and singing to a child] Better now? First I've cleaned [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: But they are listening to the bhoots right now Mother.

[Long pause.] Shri Mataji [about a child who is crying]: Got hurt? Oh, God, where did you get hurt? What, what happened? [Long pause.] Better now? When they are using candle [UNCLEAR don't/you] put right hand on towards the candle on. Put like that. And this one. And there should be something where are the [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: A different one?

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother.

Shri Mataji: Now, you just turn the right. Right hand, towards the right hand. Put this hand [to Me]. Just left hand towards Me. Is that so? And you could you sit on the ground. No, no, that side, you see. Put your hand towards Me. Right hand towards Me. Put it in the center of the Nābhī. Little hard on the Nābhī. You'll [do] your hand first. Very bad. Good [UNCLEAR] except of what I tell you. Heat coming out. Ha, is better. Pain is taken?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I beg your pardon?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What's [UNCLEAR]? You are a very hard-working man. And you think too much.

No, no, nothing is bad in you. [Hindi.] Is your hand shaking? Is there any shaking in the hand?

Sahaja Yogi: No, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Better now? [UNCLEAR] married everywhere, no?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR] all together in this process [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, one towards the light, one towards the light. You can put it on your lap, of the [UNCLEAR]. This one. And this one towards the light.

Sahaja Yogi: This one.

Somebody will put your hands.

Shri Mataji: Little higher. It's cleared out. It's feeling hot. [Long pause.] I am feeling the Cool Breeze in the left hand now. Ethan, now, let it be, [UNCLEAR]. Close them in, left in hand. Then clear that. Yes, Viśhuddhi. That shows how dangerous [in even good sight]. Even if you are not interested in any way, don't do anything, but even is building that [UNCLEAR]. I mean, somebody was working in a selecting this junk, you know, selecting these bhoots and garbage are here. Such a bad left side. Even for about four months also. What's it?

Sahaja Yogini: Situation is quite dramatic. The British had gone on the Island of Georgia which is thousand kilometre from Cortland and so they have just disembarked...

Shri Mataji: Yes, this is it.

Sahaja Yogini: And no resistance and only the last week a few English had on a secret prepared this operation and also few days ago two British helicopters attacked an Argentinean submarine. And they are two killed; people would be in a very bad state, not bad but I mean very bad. And they say now...

Shri Mataji: What are they, British or Argentines?

Sahaja Yogini: No, no, Argentineans. And they said now every moment this could turn in a real war.

Argentina has not yet released any declaration.

Shri Mataji: And not withdraw even?

Sahaja Yogini: Not withdraw and not released. The Argentinean Foreign Minister has just arrived in Washington. And in Washington this crisis started and Reagan is following everything, but no decision.

Shri Mataji: What is the decision?

Sahaja Yogini: Reagan is following everything, listening to everything, but no decision has been taken.

And Mrs. Thatcher went to the Queen and told her what have been done [mainly] and that they are ready for war and now they would say is very serious and war might begin any moment.

Shri Mataji: So, this Army ship, this boat has reached Georgia?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes and they have this [boat]. I think about a thousand or more British soldiers have gone on the island now.

Shri Mataji: On the island there are no Argentineans?

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, I think there are. They are a few inhabitants, not many, but now the British are on the island.

Shri Mataji: But I'm saying there were no Argentineans there?

Sahaja Yogini: They did not speak of any clash between the Argentinean troops.

Shri Mataji: Will not be. If they speak of any wind or anything they have to watch that it was there which I'd like to give a bandhan.

Sahaja Yogini: Wind to be? There was lots of; there was tempest but they said that despite the tempest and the bad weather the British worked out faster than they had planned to do and that everything went fine for the British.

Shri Mataji: As will be the Argentineans will be killed for nothing at all. Worthless. They should withdraw their troops from there. What's your [nationality]? Is that [Swiss]? Did the U.S.A. has done [UNCLEAR]?

Sahaja Yogi: Perhaps is not.

Shri Mataji: Really convinced? It's a democratic country? It stands for democracy, lives with democracy, [greatly] supports the democracy. These are fascists, you see.

Sahaja Yogini: They were saying that they had established a crisis department at the Foreign Ministry which were studying twenty-four round the clock all possible developments of the situation.

Shri Mataji: Aāa? How is it?

Sahaja Yogini: They were studying twenty-four hours round the clock all possible developments of the situation, how the situation could change and degenerate from the yet better. And that is what they were doing so seriously, just parley. And then, Mother, it seems it just had propagated. But in Italy, in the north of Italy, in the [UNCLEAR] there has been a big fire in a big public palace, public palace, where there was an exhibition. And it seems that many people died and many people are [injured]. And this is the biggest catastrophe Italy has had now for since You came last time at least.

Shri Mataji: Really? What was it? What time?

Sahaja Yogini: Just this afternoon and this is [average], this afternoon Mother. I told again.

Shri Mataji: How are the people in north Italy? What sort of people they are?

Sahaja Yogini: They are doing no magic like in the south of Italy but they are more busy people, more working people.

Another Sahaja Yogini: They are more on the right.

Shri Mataji: Mmm?

Sahaja Yogini: More on the right.

Shri Mataji: Right side. That fact is connected to what it's [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: It's still Italy. It's the center of Italy.

Shri Mataji: It is center of Italy?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother. It's, maybe, it's three hundred kilometre north from here.

Shri Mataji: There are no seekers first. [This is the point.]

Sahaja Yogini: It's, it's the same part of this saint, Saint Francisco of Assisi comes from. This saint who was talking to the birds.

Shri Mataji: Mmm?

Sahaja Yogini: Saying of Francis of Assisi.

Shri Mataji: Oh, I see.

Sahaja Yogini: It's more or less the same region.

Shri Mataji: He used to talk to the birds?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, he used to talk to the birds and to talk to the fire and to talk to the moon.

Sahaja Yogis: And to talk to the sun.

Sahaja Yogini: But also not far away from there they have established the center of these yellow nun, yellow people, these...

Shri Mataji: Rajneesh's.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: That's it. That's it.

Sahaja Yogini: Quite recently.

Shri Mataji: Rajneesh's are all, you see, Rajneesh's is more to place for burnt to fire. Who knows? That's it.

Sahaja Yogini: They have also established a center, Rajneesh's people in Sicily, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Really?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes. Eight months ago. Last summer, I think.

Shri Mataji: Only prospering. That's why Rajneesh's people, that's why. That's why we shouldn't worship.

Sahaja Yogini: He says that there are many people there and because now there's a center where people can go. But if these people [are] less convinced, then he go on just curious about novelty and so on.

Shri Mataji: Ha, that's all.

Sahaja Yogini: But, yes, yes and I think and also mass media had just total [attracted] and this attracts people.

Shri Mataji: And the fellow who had a paralyses attack for the [way] [UNCLEAR] about these things [UNCLEAR] paralyses attack. And that all his ashram was burnt away. He, they are all running away from all the places now. In America he ran away, just ran away. He's not now. He couldn't have.

In one night they all went away and there was a big fire in the ashram. All his ashrams were burnt away and his places were burnt away. Secretly they ran, secretly.

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, he says, it was written this in the newspaper.

Shri Mataji: Was that? Despite that, these people are not listening to anyone. They should not go.

Also this is very inauspicious [thing]. They must try to do something [wrong]. That's the reason they set fire. You see, it is Rāvaṇa. You know Rāvaṇa? And his Lanka was also burnt, Rāvaṇa's country. And wherever he will go there, there he will get this fire.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, first thing I saw when I've got the train in Rome were about ten or twelve Rajneesh's people, on the station, near the side of the station.

Shri Mataji: Here?

Sahaja Yogi: In Rome, yes.

Shri Mataji: Just imagine.

Sahaja Yogini: The disciples also get cancer.

Shri Mataji: Yeah, they get cancer, they get mad, get all kinds of things but the worst is wherever they stay there's fire caused. Just imagine. People want to become mad; what can you do? In London it is now much less.

Sahaja Yogi: Bristol's very bad [though], Mother.

Shri Mataji: Even now?

Sahaja Yogi: Oh, yes. I don't know...

Sahaja Yogini: In Italy, they speak quite often in the newspapers. Just last month they had big reports about this center in the north of Italy especially.

Shri Mataji: Is it?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, there have been big reports.

Shri Mataji: When was it? In, in, in the papers?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, about, well three months ago, two or three months ago, maybe some six months ago but regularly they have [written].

Shri Mataji: About what? About what, what are they saying?

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, they are describing the life, who is coming, describing the people who direct this center that they restored an old building.

Shri Mataji: In a general newspaper or in their own newspaper?

Sahaja Yogini: No, no, no, general newspaper, in the daily newspapers or weekly newspapers. It's a kind of fashion there was those days in Italy to speak of those things.

Shri Mataji: Then how long are living here? Yesterday so much [UNCLEAR]...

Sahaja Yogini: He says that he has begun it more or less at the beginning of '70s but really seriously as from '74 or '75. Especially a journalist who was very lefty began doing that and so he was right away lots of talking about that. But now people they are more, they felt betrayed because of his going away and they are going secretly and taking women with him and so on but they keep on [UNCLEAR] last spirit on the internal going. But they are more trying to do things concrete. But they don't feel like wearing the clothes anymore. It gets kind of strange.

Shri Mataji: Did he settle in Sicily? This is in Sicily?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Good, you can get hold of them. Is that very difficult?

Sahaja Yogini: On the concrete level they are very well-organized and they are getting help from the authorities and getting land.

Shri Mataji: From where?

Sahaja Yogini: Land. Help from the authorities, getting land and also land has been given, donated to them and they are getting churches and all concrete [terrain].

Shri Mataji: They don't belong to Rajneesh as such? They are on their own. They are starting on their own.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, they are Rajneesh's.

Shri Mataji: As far as [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: So he says that as Rajneesh turns the people over it can happen everywhere. Also local people began being impressed and going into that and there were mostly or many women and lots and lots of money and it's not very clear where from the money comes. And this is true saying. I heard that many rich people were going there and just running all money with that and he says that's why local people got involved in [UNCLEAR these theories/this].

Shri Mataji: But the theories they are following are of Rajneesh's, isn't it?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother. Because he's saying he is the last...

Shri Mataji: Mmmm?

Sahaja Yogini: He's saying that it's because he is very last [UNCLEAR] helping now. I mean, they have no guide.

Shri Mataji: That there is nobody else.

Sahaja Yogini: No, nobody else. Now, they have started putting this over, the dress on and one in a next day they [were rained all the] way.

Shri Mataji: That's true. Now what to do? How to hand that [UNCLEAR signition/ignition].

Actually, there are lots of seekers, I know. But how to do it? Yesterday I came from this place, but you can have a public meeting. Just talk about it openly to begin with. You know, from Me you [may get]. Is that [UNCLEAR], you know? Worse than him you should say. He became the Guru of people [UNCLEAR].

As if you are there, like that. I'm here in such a [UNCLEAR] man whether is [UNCLEAR] relationship between the Mother of Christ and Her son. Then he said about Mohammed Sāhab same. He said the same about, you see, Rāma and Sītā and Lakshmana.

Sahaja Yogini: He also pretends to be higher than Christ.

Shri Mataji: And that I don't know that people takes or not that he wants to bring down everyone saying that they are homosexually infected people. And he said that Maria Magdalena was a keep of Christ. Just imagine. Last filth.

Contents: 1982-04-26 Conversation with Sahaja Yogis, Ruth's Apartment, Rome, Italy

Shri Mataji: [to be convinced that] what we have to expect, what should happen to you, what Christ has said. Not what the churches are talking. What Christ has said, if you are a Catholic. Catholic means, I don't know what you know of Catholic. What does it mean? New person: No, I was brought up as a Catholic.

Shri Mataji: No, no, what I am saying, what is a Catholic, the word means? New person: What is a Catholic? Oh, the words itself, I don't know.

Shri Mataji: In our, in Sanskrit language, is called Samādhi, means something eternal. The ancient and eternal is Samādhi.

So that is what is Catholic. And what do we expect, is what Christ has said, [UNCLEAR is/means] Samādhi.

So we should really sort it out first of all in our minds. It's very much necessary. We should sort out what Christ has told, what are you to expect, what is the proof.

New person: That's my problem, because I'm already [UNCLEAR having a/agno], I am agnostic, [UNCLEAR to the point of I don't/so I'm going to find and] verify, perhaps I believe in Christ as a man.

Shri Mataji: Yes. Yes. All right. No, no but you see...

New person: I don't know if I believe in God.

Shri Mataji: All right. All right. As a man also if you believe what has He told? What has He told? You see if you believe Him as a man or anything He didn't tell lies, [UNCLEAR He didn't/did He]? New person: From what He is saying, no.

Shri Mataji: All right. Then it's all right. [Then if the truth He's said] then what did He say? What are you to expect? New person: Just to treat people the way you want to be treated, basically.

Shri Mataji: Ah? New person: To treat people the way you want to be treated yourself, basically.

Shri Mataji: That's true, but you see then, how can you treat people because you don't know yourself.

First you should know yourself.

New person: Hmm. Also true.

Shri Mataji: Isn't it? Unless and until you will know yourself, how will you treat [people]? You see, they are all laughing because they have gone through the same circle, did you see? And they have been through your circle only, that way. You see, it moves like that.

New person: That's not humanely, that's what I basically mean. It's humane, not human, just humane.

Shri Mataji: To be humane. But how will you be humane? Sometimes, you know this idea of helping others itself comes from a very big ego in you. Who are you to help him? Who is the other? New person: Makes you feel good.

Shri Mataji: Isn't it? I mean, supposing I say I'm trying to help you and if you are part and parcel of Me, I jolly [UNCLEAR well/will] have to do it. If you are My finger I have to help you in any way. If I can feel you within Myself I have to help Myself do that.

So who is the other? So Christ never taught this. The way people understand Him is absolutely wrong. I just don't understand, like looking after the poor, you see. It's a nonsensical act. That was not [UNCLEAR even/what] He has taught to look after the poor nor anything.

Of course, the poor will be helped. That's a different point altogether. But look after your Spirit. For Christ, you see, poverty and riches has no meaning. It has no meaning to Me either. To Me if you make Me sleep on the ground I can sleep. I can live in the palaces. I can live anywhere, in the same fashion, in the same Hindi way as I do.

So it doesn't matter to a person who is spiritual whether he's rich, poor or anything; doesn't go into the head of the person, you see. It doesn't go. The comfort doesn't matter. Such a person is absolutely Spartan, by any means, absolutely Spartan. He doesn't ask for any comfort, any this thing. I mean, he can live in any condition [UNCLEAR he/you] like. You can, you know, they know I've lived in villages, travelled in villages where they have no traces of comfort. And I [UNCLEAR could/can] manage [everything]. I can in live in any comfortable house; I can live there.

So this was not His idea to help the poor. I asked people why did they get this idea, to help the poor. You see, [UNCLEAR] on the contrary, to help the poor, best thing is to yourself reach your Spirit. Then you can help so many people automatically without spending any money, without any material thing that really can't help. And that is what is...

New person: By knowing your Self.

Shri Mataji: By being your Self. The first thing is [to, you] know your Self. And just now you said that “as far as myself is concerned." Now do you [yourself realise] that your connection with the Self is not done? So whatever you say, whatever you say is your mental self, that's all. All right? And the mental self is nothing but what? [UNCLEAR I mean pampering it is because of ego/Perceive a thought of it].

Whatever you do mentally is nothing, is nothing. It's not the reality.

New person: Mental, [UNCLEAR yes perfectly/is not the reality].

Shri Mataji: So whatever is the reality is your Self which you should know.

So the first step is that, what I say is that you should know yourself, first step. Unless and until you have got the light of the Self, whatever I talk is of a mental thing. You say something, I say something, it goes on, mounting up.

New person: It sounds only one has to know [UNCLEAR one Self/oneself].

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's the point. Now, so you have come to My point and I am at your point also that you have to know yourself. Now, how do we know ourselves? Let's go to that. How do we know ourselves? By thinking about it we cannot. By reading about it we cannot.

New person: I feel crazy without books.

Shri Mataji: Now what is the possibility, what must happen, what is knowing Self means, is that in our consciousness, in our conscious mind we should know ourselves. That is our Spirit. In our conscious mind. Now whatever we have achieved in evolution so far, say for example, you understand the nature of the flower, you understand the whole thing you see, as an arrangement, a pattern of all these things, music you understand, melody of it and all that. That's because you are a human being, because you have evolved as a human being. Supposing you make this music concert supposing [to a rock]. What could [UNCLEAR it mean/be the message]? New person: I don't know.

Shri Mataji: So evolution has brought you to this state when you are evolved, up to this point where you have an awareness which you know through your central nervous system. Come to the [UNCLEAR] through your central nervous system [UNCLEAR in you/you know]. Now what should happen to you in evolution? Something should happen to your central nervous system. All right? In your Self, in your Selfrealisation, something should happen that you should have a new dimension [UNCLEAR through/to] your awareness, which is just a human awareness at this point. There should be a breakthrough. And in that what should happen? You see, you visited the person of this family. He has said very clearly that you should become collectively conscious, though he does not know how he became. He does not know the [truth] because he just became. It is a spontaneous thing. The whole thing is a living process, just like a flower becoming a fruit. Like you becoming... an egg becoming a bird, the second birth is.

As Christ has said, everybody has said [that] you have to have your second birth, or resurrection. All right? Now what is that? Where should we see it? Where should it [UNCLEAR express/be expressed]? In our central nervous system, because in all evolutionary processes, is the central nervous system that really developed and expressed and manifest. And that came into our attention, all right? So scientifically when you move forward, then something should happen to your central nervous system. That means you must have a new dimension of feeling in your central nervous system.

New person: Pure [UNCLEAR attention was/things were] never felt before or discussed.

Shri Mataji: Your pardon? New person: Pure [UNCLEAR attention was/things were] never felt before or discussed.

Shri Mataji: Never felt before, [UNCLEAR na/now]... now this feeling should not be emotional.

You see, some people feel so emotional about some scene; some people do not feel so emotional. You see, it's a, it's also imaginary thing because for some people is so emotional; for some people it is not so emotional. Like, you see, it's emotional if also not necessarily is reality, not necessarily. You see, if your, somebody's background is very sadistic he may enjoy a sadistic thing.

Somebody who is another [UNCLEAR side/style] he might enjoy that.

So we, what you have to feel is exactly that everybody has to feel. All right? Supposing you see this colour as white. Image is one for all of us, all our eyes: it is [UNCLEAR one/white]. If you see this light is green, [UNCLEAR and/then] everybody sees this light is green, with our eye, all right? So in the same way, all of you must see the same thing, the same thing and whatever you feel at that level of awareness and that whatever you feel should be a collective feeling, feeling more collectivity. That must be [UNCLEAR met/united]. Absolutely scientifically you reach that point.

New person: [UNCLEAR By/Like] communication.

Shri Mataji: Beg your pardon? New person: Is it [UNCLEAR by/like] communication?

Shri Mataji: Like communication [it works]. All right? But it's not communication like you see, some people say, “Oh, I communicated with a person." When you go to then another, ask person, he'll say, “I hated that person." So isn't it? So there is no reality of feeling, you see. A girl feels, “Oh, I'm in love with a boy and the boy is this and he loves me” and when you go and ask once say, “Take me away from him." It's very common.

So the communication that is between all of us has to be absolutely real, should be felt on the central nervous system in our feeling, [it is like that] all right? Scientifically, this should happen to us.

Now, I'll tell you something. Supposing that there is a way. There is something in you that works it out. It is your own. Within you is this power Kuṇḍalinī which rises and makes you that. Supposing I tell you. Now the thing is, if I tell you that, that this happens, this will take place, what is there to doubt? [UNCLEAR And/Like] if it happens, very good.

New person: Exactly!

Shri Mataji: If it doesn't happen, it is not happening in any case. I mean, as it is you haven't got it.

So if it is going to happen, why not have it? New person: Right. Yes.

Shri Mataji: All right? That's the point. That's it.

So then what is the use of doubt? New person: That's...

Shri Mataji: Because it is only, only there are only two possibilities: one is that you are realised; or you are not realised. There is no third possibility.

New person: Yes, but that...

Shri Mataji: Now are you doubting whether you want the realisation or not? New person: No.

Shri Mataji: No. Then it's all right. [When you are with Me] then what are you doubting about? New person: I'm searching.

Shri Mataji: Aā? New person: I'm searching. Obviously, or subconsciously.

Shri Mataji: You are searching. But it's not your hobby. It's not your hobby? You mean it.

New person: Pardon?

Shri Mataji: You see, searching...

New Person: I wouldn't be here otherwise.

Shri Mataji: You, you see, that's it.

So you mean it. But you know there are some people who have a hobby also as such. Even if they find, still they are running like crazy. And run [there]. And they come back to Me after three years. They are mad people, I think. I've seen.

New person: You know it's not... it's not really worth finding something and then going away and finding it later on.

Shri Mataji: You see, because if you have found something you have to weigh it and see for yourself if it is [UNCLEAR so/sure] or not, isn't it? But if you just see it, now your habit is, supposing somebody has a habit, all right, this one, is good, like Guru shopping as they call it, you see. They go and see, come, come, no good, no good. Still they are... Gregoire was that. Can you believe it? Gregoire was like that.

He told Me, “Mother, I've developed a habit of seeking. What am I to do?" Human mind is such that it develops every sort of habits. This habitual, it gets habitual. They take to everything, you see. People wanted to have a breakthrough from all the nonsense that was going on and all kinds of things people were putting on.

So they said, “All right, anti-culture." Now anti-culture is the habit.

New person: I don't know.

Shri Mataji: So from one habit to another habit we move but to get realised and to station down you have to have a steady sitting down and settling down, [UNCLEAR seeing/see] it because it has its own protocol. This is the thing. If you are realised now, see all of them were telling Me where were you catching, what was your problem, what Chakras you were catching because you can feel it on your fingers.

These are the seven centers of the sympathetic nervous system and they all knew what you were catching, what was happening.

New person: And they'll all say the same thing.

Shri Mataji: Yes, same thing. It's just same. There's no difference at all. Even if you get a little child he'll put the finger this way. A little baby will show that. Even little, little children, you will be surprised [UNCLEAR give/with] realisation. Two-year-old children, three-year-old children, if they are realised children. There are many born realised. For we'll be sitting in My program they are running about, you see, taking care, [doing] that. They are very busy, all the time. And they do the job. They do the job for Me. And I tell them that, “Bring children. All the children should be here. They are the greatest Sahaja Yogis I have." You see, they come and tell Me like that, it's catching on the right Viśhuddhi and show Me this one, you see. It's very interesting it was, the way they manage. Olympia is so small, she's hardly two and she can't speak much, you see and she saw somebody, she said: “Allah hu. Allah hu Akbar." She said, “Allah hu." And she does everything, like this, like this... Such a little kid, two years, such a sweet thing, you know.

So interesting to see how beautiful these children work it out. I mean, this is what it is and you've seen it and you know that, that because children...

New person: Children haven't been ruined.

Shri Mataji: I beg your pardon? New person: Children haven't been ruined.

Shri Mataji: No way. The children are the ones who are realised children, you see, are tremendous, tremendous. You don't know how tremendous they are. The way they fight it out, the way they work it out is tremendous. I've seen My own grandchildren like that. All four of them are realised, great realised children they are and the way they fight it out is surprising, really, the way they fight it out. Then they are not afraid of anything. Not afraid. They are just like, you see, little great angels. They are such a help to Me. It's only the grown-ups, you see, they have developed big horns and have entangled themselves, you see. Children are very sweet. And the way they manage, you see, in this weary world.

New person: Because children are still innocent.

Shri Mataji: Innocent and apart from that they are born realised. They are ancient children. They are ancient. They're saviours. You see, this is the time of Resurrection; this is the time about your Last Judgment. And all the great souls are to be born. This is the time. It has come now. There's no time to be lost, no time to be lost. It has to happen. That's why there are so many seekers. You just think how many seekers there are today.

New person: Really.

Shri Mataji: At the time of Christ, twelve? Now where are they lost? Where are they gone? What are they doing? They don't come to prove. They are very easily influenced by people who are false. Always.

It is surprising. How they are influenced by them? These [Silvers] went to work there in Sweden. She, she came and stayed with Me in My house. And everyday she started doing morning till evening [prayers].

And My daughters will work and they said, “What is this girl you have called? We have come all the way from India and this girl is taking all Your time and doing nothing but [UNCLEAR]." I said, “No, no, she will come down. You'll see her." Then I, My daughters, you know, one of the daughters, she asked her, “Did you ask so many questions to your previous Guru?" She said, “No, we could not because he was a lama." He sent word that, “I won't come there till you make a house of [coral], marble flooring." Poor these Swedish people starved themselves because, you see, here the young people don't have much fun.

Like in India we give to our children lot of fun.

So the care here the people don't have.

So they starved themselves, made that floor of marble for this lama to come to.

And this lama used to make this lady, the one who was arguing to Me, one thousand time just bow to him for one year. [UNCLEAR She/He] would never talk to him. He was sitting there and she was bowing him one thousand times. I said, “Why did you accept?" “Because everybody was doing." But I said, “Why was everybody doing?" She [couldn't answer].

So that's why the progress of Sahaja Yoga is very slow. It has to be speed up. It has to go very [UNCLEAR fast/quick]. But say, country like India, first class, amazing, thousands after, thousands just like that. But sometimes, you know, they say I'm wasting My time in India. For one person I've spend nearly three hours, five hours, till they have their Realisation, but in India in ten minutes you can make thousands. Why are [UNCLEAR you/we] here? You are also seekers of ancient times. You, you may not know your values but I know. That's why [I give you time].

It is I who should doubt; again I say that. Though it's a different thing; it's just the other way round.

It is not going to...

So put your mind at rest a little then it will work out. Because the mind is a, you see, the mind is a donkey. That's why Christ [UNCLEAR stood on/told us] a donkey, you see. Mind is a donkey. If you go behind it, it will kick but if you go in front of it, it will put its head down, [you can hold it upon] ears and try to tame it, this and that. It's a donkey which knows, you see. If it knows you want to go somewhere [UNCLEAR then it will take it's time/they'll leave the place back].

So you just say, `I'm a seeker and I had enough of it. Now I must have my realisation.' That's what it is, as simple as that, very simple. It's simple thing to understand, but if it doesn't happen it's not My fault. It's not My fault. It's your mind. This is all your [UNCLEAR working/work to do].

New person: That's the problem I feel [UNCLEAR nearly being/very] guilty.

Shri Mataji: You see, [we are back to that Viśhuddhi]. You see you [UNCLEAR have/are] relaxed very much but you have a very bad Viśhuddhi. You must know, very bad Viśhuddhi you have. I don't know, perhaps you have been drinking, smoking and also some other problems, very bad Viśhuddhi.

[UNCLEAR If should/You have to] come to [Me again] means [I] to promise you I have to have patience and you have to have patience also. That's the position. Whatever is the position I have to work [it]. See? And this has to be cleared up. For this I have to work, not you.

So who has to have patience: Me or you? New person: [I. But] I'm the Taurus.

Shri Mataji: That means? New person: I'm the Taurus.

Shri Mataji: Oh, that is, that's what it is? Another Sahaja Yogini: Taurus.

Shri Mataji: One of the Taurus's problem I recall is [marrying a wrong]. She's [UNCLEAR].

Another Sahaja Yogini: Oh, really?

Shri Mataji: Pardon? She got married [and she was] absolutely married person. She was so crazy after her first husband who had left her, divorced her, finished her, but still she was married, you see. We didn't want to look at him. We went to Canada. He ran away. But when she got married now to this...

Sahaja Yogis: Andre.

Shri Mataji: [Still seems] that there is something problem. Or, for example, Jane.

Sahaja Yogini: This is so much problem.

Shri Mataji: All right.

So let us be obstinate about finding it, all right? We can direct our promise that we can look after.

New person: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Pardon? It's a very loving method and very delicate method that God has created for you. Actually, by our own mentally exasperation we should say we really exhaust our energy and dry out all that [creativity that is inside]. Actually, a person who is simple-hearted, who doesn't think too much, lives for the moment, enjoys everything, such a person is very suitable for Sahaja Yoga, very suitable. But you are also because you are a seeker and it is not seeker of today but of many, many, many ages, you see.

So you have to find it. Whether you find it today or tomorrow you have to find it.

So better have it today.

Why postpone? I've been told you are a journalist so I said have it. Because...

New person: I'm a journalist of sorts.

Shri Mataji: Hmm.

New person: Not a hundred per cent but I am working for the radio.

Shri Mataji: No, journalists I've met, both experiences as a journalist, you see. But it's a very sensitive area to which they deal, you see. And if they do not understand their responsibility they can be very dangerous to the cause. This is a very big costly cause. It's not a simple cause, a few people here and there. It's the whole world has to be saved, you see. The emancipation of the whole humanity is My work, you see. It's not a simple work which can be just a trivial, a trivial thing or one can just make fun of or something like that, you see. And here I find a journalist, for example, came in Lausanne who was a very nice man and was a very intelligent and he saw to it and got his realisation. He was just there. He was so good; he wrote a very nice thing about Me but he was till he was [UNCLEAR gone/going] on a holiday and we get a presenter, the editor made a big fun out of it, you see and they wrote there's an [old lady again who is coming] and was corresponding and wrote few letters in all such places.

All that, you see, created a problem for Me in Lausanne because everybody said as if I mesmerize or some sort of a thing, you know. They couldn't understand. You see, they are waiting for a happening, they are waiting for a saviour, they want somebody to do it, but when you say you are there you just have such a making fun of the person. At least settle down and see for yourself. But there was another sensible lady who came down to London and she got her realisation. She went to Geneva and she wrote a very sensible article [UNCLEAR about what she felt really/that she felt very great] what she felt. Actually I would say her realisation took about three days. But it worked out. In Lausanne [all who came to Me], first class. This lady could feel it and she stayed all the three days to see Me. Can you imagine? She got her realisation and while realizing whatever I talked to her, she wrote such a column, [UNCLEAR print out the report/it down, she told everything]. And she published that article. And how many people got realisation? You see, the same thing, just imagine in Lausanne is Sonia [and Linda] and Geneva now we have at least, we should say, about a hundred people who are very good and while in Lausanne not a single person. You see, so it's a very sensitive area, you see. This is a new type of crucifixion, I should say.

So you could be Jews or you could be, you can say you could be [the] horrible Romans, if you want to be the disciples of the truth people. See, so the area is very sensitive, this. The journalist area is the worst of all, I think, because if they are not helpful they can be very dangerous, very dangerous. And there's one Oxford award, she's achieved, [Swarna].

Sahaja Yogini: [Swarna].

Shri Mataji: She wrote an article but you know her style is very... she thought program starts because she writes about.

So she wrote like that. But she did say what she has to say about, but that doesn't have the impact on people and this is the [thing why] somebody resents about it perhaps. And she is again wants to do it again, you see, but I said, “First you change your style." Then you come to Me, because now you have to do it not in the normal way as you do it but it's a [UNCLEAR]. Of course, she did it in courageous nature but she did it in a very frivolous way. It didn't have that impact. But say in Australia, tremendous. Australians are the best. How they solved it and how they did it, I told you a miracle happened and [that's why they all believed]. But it's a money-making thing; it's a money-making thing. People can make money out of this. I don't know when [the crooks are dying], you see. They say the Dharma is in turmoil. It's a money-making thing whatever is controversial, you see, critical...

New person: If somebody can turn something nice into something nasty they do so.

Shri Mataji: Yes, same thing, you see. They can convert it into anything, whatever they want to be [virtuous]. But this is a very important point and it should not be harmed. But if somebody harms it, it's dangerous for that person also because it's God's work. And in God's work and this is very important, it's the most vital to think about. It's `the thing', is the epitome of creation. I mean, if you don't take your, say, realisation for example, you are, [UNCLEAR outer/out then], finished; that's all. As far as I am concerned it doesn't matter. But if you spoil the chances of others then it does matter.

New person: No, no, what I think is...

Shri Mataji: It's dog in the [UNCLEAR mangy/manger] point like, you see...

New person: I'm sorry.

Shri Mataji: It's like a dog in the [UNCLEAR mangy/manger] you see, who won't eat the grass as well as others doesn't allow, to catch it in the [jaws] like that. That is a very dangerous thing, [they are cunning to Mātājī].

New person: Mother, You're the wise [UNCLEAR woman/One].

Shri Mataji: Mmm.

New person: You're the wise [UNCLEAR woman/One].

Shri Mataji: No, I'm just telling you. If you tell Me that, I'll say “No, that's you see, a journalist. You have to be careful with the journalists, you see. They will [UNCLEAR think now/print out] many things nonsensical, you know, very nonsensical things they will say." Like I was staying in a place in Bombay [Mumbai] in a nine-storied, you see, so they said, “She's staying in a nine-storied house” or something like that. I mean, it was a horrible at, actually I was absolutely Spartan, nothing there, no furniture, nothing. But today you see what, what do they expect a person to be, I just don't understand. It was [scary to a fright] since they are having none like that. Any expectations are like that, isn't it? And they are also paid by all these fake Gurus [whosoever they are].

New person: [They are serious black handlers.]

Shri Mataji: No.

New person: Oh, really?

Shri Mataji: They all. All. You see, I know that's a now on front Good Tara, Good [Patilia] you know something like that.

New person: It's that fourteen year [old] boy?

Shri Mataji: No, no, this is another one, something unknown, sort of a nonsense have started now.

The fourteen years is finished now.

New person: It's all right. [He's retired].

Shri Mataji: He is retired. Not only because this, [but] his disciples have got blood cancer. I've told you, it's very dangerous. Like Hare Rāma might get throat [cancer]. I put them right, now finished.

Mmm.

Sahaja Yogini: Hare Kṛiṣhṇa, [Mother].

Shri Mataji: Hare Kṛiṣhṇa, ahā. Very bad. They did, they come to Me to help. But I mean, it is curable, not so bad. But some of them are really bad. But whatever it is, see all these, how is taking advantage they must be [heaved], pampered, think no end of themselves, you see. They never [feel] will be finished off. But this I am telling you about new one. They are giving this time hundred and thirty thousands pounds, you see, openly for the publicity of this Tara. And `Times' is writing about it and then they are expecting Christ, you see, talk to deliberately and appear on the television.

New person: Concernedly.

Shri Mataji: Concernedly. Such a thing.

New person: It's [figured].

Shri Mataji: They make a Disneyland out of France, I mean, they can make anything. It's all show.

You cannot be any show about God, isn't it and just put in Disneyland. You cannot just show it by [creative] advertising or anything. It's reality and reality is what it is. It cannot be what they want it to be.

So I am sure you'll get your realisation. That's all My work and it will be [UNCLEAR].

New Person: [I'll do it.]

Shri Mataji: All right? That should happen; that's the main thing. You are seeking not in this life but in many lives. You better then cooperate. All right? New Person: I'll try.

Shri Mataji: Just cooperate, cooperate, cooperate. It will work out. You are, you are very relaxed.

Your Kuṇḍalinī had crashed but it fell down again. It's for your kruta. Still you haven't [got].

So much [UNCLEAR]. I'll look after. I'm working on you, whether I'm talking to you or not, I'm working on you, all right? [UNCLEAR]. You see, you are against Catholicism, isn't it? New person: On a certain extent, yes.

Shri Mataji: Yes. That's, that's correct. It's a very correct attitude you have.

New person: I'm, I'm sure it is. I went to school with priest, somehow [UNCLEAR everything/he] was strict and everything was contradiction.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes, that is true. It is contradicting. You can see. That's a very correct attitude you have. I mean, I was just saying in this morning only. Imagine what have done out of all these big incarnations who have been on this earth. Like for Mohammed in Islam, nonsense they have created, [UNCLEAR] they have created. How are they going to recognize the reality going [wrong]? They have created, you see. It's all money-making propositions.

New person: Oh, certainly, certainly.

Shri Mataji: It has nothing to do with God actually. How will they recognize Christ? New person: You are right. I'm sure they'll get rid of Him.

Shri Mataji: They have some fun in lots of ways and methods. Got really bad but if they could be saved they should be. This Mister Pope [I've risen his Kuṇḍalinī] this one governing is doing now.

New person: Sorry?

Shri Mataji: When I went to Krakow, you see, I went, I went to their place because My husband it's a VIP, you see, so they made a Mass for them. And this fellow was the cardinal, was the cardinal in this Cracow. I didn't know all that but you see against this thing we should be [understanding] everything.

He is very, is very impressed by Indian people, this one. And I raised his Kuṇḍalinī. He felt that also, [and it fell down] like that. And I wrote a letter to Gregoire because Gregoire's birthday is on the 8th of September. And I wrote to him a letter and I said I'd met just someone like this, a cardinal and I raised his Kuṇḍalinī because Gregoire was sort of moved, sort of worried about all the Catholics going to hell, you see. “Oh” I said, [UNCLEAR] “are these because... But you don't worry but I don't think it will stay here. It's all fallen down and all that." And the letter [will be there].

So when he was elected he said.

I had forgotten all that. He said, “Mother is the one whom You gave realisation." New person: That [UNCLEAR would/could] have been of help to him.

Shri Mataji: Aā?

New person: That [UNCLEAR would/could] have been of help to him.

Shri Mataji: I don't know. But sometimes you know, he, Gregoire says that, one day he was talking on the radio, on the television and Gregoire said, “Now please say something about the Holy Ghost. Say something about the Mother Earth." And he has started talking about the Mother Earth and Gregoire raised his Kuṇḍalinī and [UNCLEAR]. There were two-three Sahaja Yogis sitting.

So it may work out but, you see, he's so much bound. You see, he is not spirit-oriented. He's more power-oriented, everything else but the Spirit.

New person: He's man. He's man. He's man elected by men.

Shri Mataji: Man elected by men and certified by men, not the Divine power, [he's not Divine]. And man-made things cannot be raised.

New person: No, the man destroys everything he touches.

Shri Mataji: Aāa? New person: Man destroys everything he touches.

Shri Mataji: See that... see that, he does, he does. But man is the most beautiful thing on earth. He can recognize Me. Whatever he touches, feel it, [creates] now, will vibrate, will grow. That's what Sahaja Yogis are doing, they do. And we experimented with so many things. A Sahaja Yogi in India experimented with wheat, you see. And it comes out ten times more and he has got [UNCLEAR ninety/nineteen] Star of India. And he's made such a lot of wheat in India. See, now is the time when we become really a prophet, not a saint, I would say it's hard to understand because we can give realisation first. Time has come. It is great [news]. You must have read Blake.

New Person: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Blake has described all Sahaja Yoga in such details to comprehend. He said, “The God of men will be born in those days and they will have powers, they will become prophets and they will have powers to make others prophets." But he even described where I stayed for he said that the first we're going to live is [Twyburn Brook] where I lived. Then he says that “foundation will be made in London where we laid the foundation of our ashram." Then he described the house that I now have, which will be decorated by the Sahaja Yogis. He's describing the house near we [play on] such a ground and [UNCLEAR]. And it's what My house is there now and these boys are painting it with gold, the ceiling.

And the golden diggers will be doing in it. It's such detailed, such details we got. And a sinuousness will vibrate this. Sinuousness are the nerves will vibrate that land.

It's so beautifully he has done. I don't know how he could see, like Mārkandeya. He's a seer at that point. But in this [UNCLEAR] that has happened [UNCLEAR] unless you see his [saintly way]. I think, I've only seen one exhibition that was [UNCLEAR] much. And they were just looking, “Oh, how nude this woman is. How nude is that." I said, “Look at these." We never understood [UNCLEAR].

So sad. Blake did talk of Jerusalem long back. In England, nobody can believe it.

New person: [Is it he speaks of ancient times?]

Shri Mataji: Is it, it is going to be Jerusalem.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, he knows it.

New person: And [Satan] is the Church of England.

Shri Mataji: They think like that.

New person: And then [thus he changed] international probably.

Shri Mataji: Yes, but what about this Bishop of Canterbury? He's very fond of all the fake Gurus.

Actually, he felt about the people who [are most cunning]. Now can you imagine this? Bishop of Canterbury.

He's so stupid. But still I've told these people to write to Me, same problems, [the same persons].

You are an English or American descendant? New person: I'm half Austrian half Irish, born and brought up in England.

Shri Mataji: This time I'm going to Ireland.

New person: Really? I've never been there.

Shri Mataji: Really? New person: Never. My mother is from Ireland.

Shri Mataji: She's from Ireland. Yes.

New person: Yes. In the south.

Shri Mataji: South, south of it, is it, we go to south Ireland. We have some [one deep], very sweet girl from Ireland is there. And is so anxious she's [UNCLEAR said/told], “You must come to Ireland. You must come to Ireland." But north Ireland I was told that these Maheśha yogi disciples are three percent, are three percent population of north Ireland is Maheśh yogis. Israeli there are, how much? Five percent or something of Israelis are disciples of Maheśh yogi. No wonder they have became so mad. Very destructive.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, I have a question concerning the group. Mother, what would you do [You do good] and someone of this point of view comes to Geneva because they come very often. We would like to do something very good. What is the best thing to do? We are expecting somebody for tomorrow evening just near the house where I live and we must do something against him.

Shri Mataji: Simply give a bandhan; just give bandhan. He wrote to Me a letter about a Dean, you know, from, a [doc] was written, written up, from Cambridge. And Jim and Hillary have got a, a restaurant in that medical college. And the Dean of that medical college, he is a disciple of Maheśh yogi.

So when he came down to the restaurant, he saw My photograph. Perhaps they know about Me.

So he said, “Why this photograph is here?" He said, “It's all right. It isn't doing any harm." So then he called for a very big meeting, brought [UNCLEAR], spent lot of money, this, that.

So they wrote to Me, Jim and Hillary that, “Mother, You see, please put Your attention as they are going to have a very big meeting” and deliberately I was [putting them into bandhan].

So I just put My attention and when they came back they laughed and laughed. I said, “What happened?" [UNCLEAR He/Jim] said, “Not a single person came to the meeting. He had brought [heating] such a big hall and all that, everything." He has really accumulated so much money, so much money he has [accumulated]. He doesn't know what to do [with them].

So much money. He got three aeroplanes. He got so many things he got. This lout fellow has got fifty-eight Rolls-Royce and now he got the fifty-ninth one.

New person: Oh, really?

Shri Mataji: This is their image. They came in the fifty-ninth. He, he wrote to them, “I'll come to India only if you give me the fifty-ninth Rolls-Royce." Poor this boy, you know, he did everything that he could. He sold their house and this and got him his present Rolls-Royce. But he won't come to Sahaja Yoga. John toyed with somebody.

New person: OK.

Shri Mataji: John you know, John he went to see somebody because he was to [UNCLEAR] was going to see him.

So he said “What's this nonsense? You are [doing] nothing; is all absurd, you see. All this is madness is nothing but such of nonsense." And he said, “Really?" and then they got into the car and this boy suddenly got into a tree. He got mad with all the car's articles, here, there, braking a little.

So John got out of the car. He said that, “This must be a mad fellow, isn't it?" And ultimately he was caught up by the police because he really hit him. And thank God, John got out. He was hitting and he said, “Just now he is half-mad." He's a devil. He's a demon, this fourteen years is a demon [UNCLEAR].

I know all of them one by one, what they are, who really they [are] and how to get out of [that], which you should all learn. You definitely will know. But first get your realisation. That is the first condition in Sahaja Yoga that you must get your realisation. It's not enough. You have to get your realisation.

You make the experiment. Then you become a Sahaja Yogi. Then we'll tell you everything about, not before. That is the first condition that you must get realisation and you should feel the vibrations and you experience the vibrations of others. You should be able to enjoy and then you become a real Sahaja Yogi.

Otherwise, you see, if we'll talk to you about it you'll go mad, because it is tremendous. The knowledge is tremendous. The knowledge about Divine is tremendous. The communication power of God, of Divine is so great, it is remarkable. The fact is [UNCLEAR that/there].

Some Sahaja Yogis are now going to India and Christine [from Switzerland has to organize them, their travels].

Marie has told, “Just put a photograph there." So, that's not the way to show you that somebody [has evolved] came to see Me from [America] all the way to India, now.

So I mean whatever it is first of all get your realisation. Sit here. [UNCLEAR name] translate so.

Sahaja Yogini: [Italian].

New person: True.

Shri Mataji: I have to try again to work it out. It's discipline and effort. It's only what I feel and I trust you. I've got some people in My trust which are all with you. It's that, simple as that, clear as that.

Where is it? It's your own. Prashant? Come. There must be something about Me that you can trust as good. All right? New person: All right.

Shri Mataji: He has a void.

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, yes.

Shri Mataji: Yes. [UNCLEAR] sick to the toilet. Oh, God. His void is very much...

Sahaja Yogini: God, it's terrible...

Shri Mataji: It is to be cleared out.

Sahaja Yogini: Means, Mother, that [shall I shoe-beat him]?

Shri Mataji: Aā?

Sahaja Yogini: Means, Mother, that [I should shoe-beat him]?

Shri Mataji: It's all right.

Sahaja Yogi: It's that the void, Mother? It's void.

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's Void. Yes. Left Swādhiṣhṭhān catching. Void. No, no that's it. Come along.

It will work out. It's void and [UNCLEAR]. Certain points we have to work out, all right? Can you take out your belt? It will be better. And this black thread will do it better than that also.

New person: It's probably not going to work, you see. It doesn't undo.

Shri Mataji: Aā? New person: It doesn't undo.

Sahaja Yogini: Scissors?

Shri Mataji: But you take it off.

New person: Scissors.

Sahaja Yogini: OK? New person: Scissors.

Shri Mataji: That's little better, sit down. Sit that side. See the truth, see the truth, see. [In that, see] collectivity.

New person: Please, [UNCLEAR see/sit].

Shri Mataji: His Swādhiṣhṭhāna. Just give him more bandhans. Can you see the procedure? It's such, that you cannot become a member, there's no membership, nothing, no organization but you have to become [something]. And we have to work, not you. You are not working. [MISSING.] And these fake Gurus don't work at all. But if they don't do any work what's their [purpose]? They sit down and take the money; that's all. You see, they don't do any work. It's Heart Chakra I'm getting. Heart Chakra.

And this one is done. All right. [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: Do you want to attend to you? New person: I really want it.

Shri Mataji: Ha. Now you ask the question, `Mother, am I my own Guru?' Ask the question.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: All right, again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Again.

New person: Mother, am I my own Guru?

Shri Mataji: Ha. See. [UNCLEAR name] you see. [Must I tell you about?]. Left void.

Sahaja Yogini: I understand.

Shri Mataji: So left Swādhiṣhṭhāna it is there. Oooo...

Sahaja Yogini: Please feel the absolute truth.

Shri Mataji: Left Swādhiṣhṭhāna it is there still. Aā. Better?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Better?

Sahaja Yogi: Swādhiṣhṭhāna is still.

Shri Mataji: Swādhiṣhṭhāna? Yes. Ha, yes. He's better now.

Sahaja Yogi: [But left Heart].

Shri Mataji: Ha. Yes, left Heart is still. Put your right hand on the heart, please. Ha. Viśhuddhi, now don't feel guilty, you see. That's again economically [UNCLEAR] is very cheap. Never to feel guilty.

Now, better?

Sahaja Yogi: Heart is there [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Heart is still there. All right? Now don't feel guilty. Viśhuddhi.

Sahaja Yogini: It's really I think [done]. I must congratulate you. You are much better now?

Shri Mataji: All right? Ha. Come. [Nābhī it is]. Please put bandhan. Now there's one thing, I can't get over your own freedom, you see.

So you will have to ask for it. You say, `Mother please give me realisation.' I can't get over...

New person: Mother, please give me realisation.

Shri Mataji: Again. Again.

New person: Mother, please give me realisation.

Shri Mataji: Again. Once more.

New person: Mother, please give me realisation.

Shri Mataji: Ha. All right? Going out. Don't think. Don't think. Better, see now. All right, once more.

Sahaja Yogini: It's warm, cool, warm, cool.

Shri Mataji: You see what is it?

Sahaja Yogini: Now it's really cool again.

Shri Mataji: [It's a bit longer] Hmmm... And now even more, all right? Come along, come. Rest one moment. [UNCLEAR]. What I'm saying once you get realisation then you get correct answer. See, the Kuṇḍalinī must come up because in the seeker it will come up with the force [and it works out]. Hmm... That can't be in five minutes.

Sahaja Yogini: I can see that.

Shri Mataji: Seems like [UNCLEAR] for a time. What is it?

Sahaja Yogi: Viśhuddhi is the problem.

Shri Mataji: Viśhuddhi is. Ha. It's obvious. [UNCLEAR]. Hmm. It is there. Better? All right? Ha. It's all right? It's cool. Very [UNCLEAR]. Hmm. Better? [UNCLEAR]. All right.

New person: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Vibrations? Yes, it is more.

Sahaja Yogini: It's beyond [UNCLEAR]. Hmm, what's it [UNCLEAR], Mother?

Shri Mataji: Heart. Ha. It's heart. [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini: Finished.

Contents: 1982-04-27*, Public Program, Day 1, Rome, Italy

Sahaja Yogini: [says some words in Italian, she translates the whole speech.]

Shri Mataji: Now to cure this liver we have to take lots of carbon-hydrates. And best is white sugar, if it is vibrated. Now Doctors always say that “don't take sugar." You cannot have a general treatment like that for everyone, because everybody is different and different problems. Those people who have liver trouble must take sugar, which is vibrated. When this sugar goes into the blood-stream, then it puts the, it puts the [UNCLEAR O.H.I.] of the water, of the blood into proper shape. The [UNCLEAR O.H.I.], you see in the hydrogen and oxygen it's like this, you see, the Oxygen is in the center, say and these hydrogen's, two hydrogen's on the sides, like this, you see? But when it is imbalanced then what happens, this goes up and this comes down and it cannot receive the heat, but when you get that and this goes down and these two come up, when you take the vibrated thing, so you can receive the heat.

So that when you take this vibrated sugar, when you take this vibrated sugar your liver is cured. Normally liver patients are always skinny and they are very irritable, they could be very hot-tempered and they could be, ah, very dry in temperament. They may not even have any, any emotional feelings left in them.

Ah, I had a dentist as a, ah, who came to Me, a dentist and who had become absolutely without any feelings. He said, I have no feelings now for anything. He said, he has no feelings for his children, nor for his wife, neither for his mother.

So I said, what do you do everyday, what exercise? He says I do jogging for five miles. I said, why do you do it? He says, to keep good health. But your, your physical health is not everything, your physical health is not everything, you are not only your body, you are not only your emotions, you are not only your intelligence, but you are the spirit. And if you just look after your body, then you might become a wrestler or something, but, but even if you are a wrestler you'll come to Me and say, Mother I have no peace of mind.

Such people can get heart attacks, even those people who plan too much and think too much can get heart attacks. They are all vulnerable or prune to heart attacks, they can easily get heart attacks, such people. Because if you pay so much attention to your body your spirit in your heart doesn't like it and it gives you warnings and even then if you don't listen then it just disappears and a person dies.

So this is the problem of the right-sided people. Now the left-sided people are the people who are very emotional, they weep and cry too much and, ah, they can be very boring, ah, if one is dry, another is boring.

While one thinks of the past and one thinks of the future, but you have to be in the center.

Now people who are left-sided can drive down very much into hysteria and things like that or they can even get into possessions by the dead spirits. Even the right-sided people, if they are extremists, they can get possessed by very ambitious people who are dead, the example is of Hitler, he was a possessed man of very ambitious spirits and he was heartless, he had no feelings and he, he had such a capacity to give these spirits to others, to get others possessed also. And he possessed many people like that.

So anybody who thinks that ego is a good thing, then they should know, that they can end up as Hitlers. Now the left-sided people can get leukemia also, they can get troubles of the uterus, palpitations and frightening and fear, they can live in constant fear, ultimately they become lunatics, they are not normal people.

But a person who is left-sided is, gets the trouble to himself, but the right-sided trouble others, they are never aware that they are troublesome people, while the left-sided always feel sorry and guilty.

So to overcome all this we have to be in the center, that means we should not go to extremes. You see, the Western life is more ego-orientated, because they say, what's wrong? When an eighty year old man will carry on with a girl who is eighteen years and he'll say, what's wrong? And an eighty year, ah, woman will carry on with an eighteen year old boy and she will say, what's wrong? Ego makes you stupid.

That's the first thing that happens to egoistical people, they become stupid and they say, what's wrong? They jump into all problems, saying what's wrong? Because they lack wisdom and they get success, they think that is success, like Hitler thought. And they try to aggress and put forward their point of view.

The left-sided people may not aggress, but they can be sly. For example the breast cancer is caused to women who are left-sided and are insecure in life. For example if a woman thinks that her husband is a flirt and she has a sense of insecurity and she develops breast cancer. If the husband is right-sided and woman is left-sided then there is more danger, because the husband won't have any feeling and the wife will have too much feeling and they will going more to the extremes. But when you give vibrations of realised Souls to this center Heart, there you see that heart center, than with the vibrations the security is established. That is how bloo, breast cancer can be cured. Any kind of cancer can be cured with Sahaja Yoga and it may take hardly any time with some people.

Our president of India, he came from America, when he was operated on for cancer of lungs and he was just dying in London, in the aeroplane and actually they had made all preparations for his funeral in India. I went with My Husband to see him, because My Husband knew him very well and the High Commissioner of London told the president that this Lady is not only Misses Srivastava but She is the Mātājī Nirmalā Devī. And his wife had heard My Name, that I have cured many people, so she said “why don't you safe my husband?" And he is a nice man, a good man, I just put My Hand on his back for ten minutes. He had not slept all these days with all the injections and everything, but he felt absolutely relaxed, he wanted to sleep. And then he got up absolutely fresh and in Delhi, when they reached, he just walked down and everybody was surprised. And then when I was in Delhi he invited Me especially and showed Me that even the operation mark has disappeared. And he wants Us to have an Ashram in Delhi also so that many people can meet Me.

But We are not interested in curing people, because if the cured people are going to do some work for Sahaja Yog, than it is of some use. [To the translator:] cured people.

I mean you will not have any lamps repaired which cannot give light to others.

[To the translator:] Say it again! Now those who do not want to help others, who just want to use Sahaja Yoga for their own purpose are of no value to Me. It is a very selfish attitude and Sahaja Yoga is not meant for people who are selfish.

Those who think for others, those who want to do good to others and give them enlightenment are My proud, I am proud of such children. If a, a Sahaja Yogi is very selfish, only looking after oneself, then after some time he loses vibrations.

So one has to know, that if you are cured you must learn how to cure others and you must know how to give enlightenment to others.

Now, it's a collective happening, Sahaja Yoga is a collective happening, it is not for an individual.

Where about, ah, where more people come and sit together there I reside, there I am, but it is not a group-formation like the one We know of these mass rallies and these mass programs, it's not like that.

Because mass is nothing but a mimicry going on, doing all abnormal things. If one starts jumping, others start jumping, if one starts saying Mantras, others start saying Mantras, but they are not aware. But this I am talking about the collective, collectivity, which means you are aware. That means you, ah, you know what you are doing.

Now again, about the Mantras I must tell you that it's a big science and one should know how to take Mantra, what time, where. You cannot give a general Mantra to everyone, like a general medicine. The Mantra is according to the way Kuṇḍalinī is moving. Say the Kuṇḍalinī has stopped here, then you have to name, take the name of Christ or you have to say the Mantra of `Lord's Prayer'. Now if it stops in the stomach, you have to take the name of Viṣhṇu. If it stops around the Void then you have to take the name of these primordial Masters like Mohammed or like other People like Moses, Abraham. If it... if it stops here you have to take the name of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa or you have to say `Allah hu Akbar' with these fingers in your ears and that's how you can cure your throat troubles.

These are all Mantras, but not like everybody stupidly saying `Allah hu Akbar' or everybody saying some Mantra which has no relation to that person and before realisation you have no authority to take any Mantras. Like if I have to meet, supposing, the Prime Minister then I have to go through proper channel, there is a protocol, I cannot just go and shout his Names somewhere, ah they will arrest Me.

Now God is the Prime Minister of all the Prime Ministers, He is the highest of all, so taking His name is not such a simple thing, that anybody can take His name, just call Him as if He is your servant. And the way we pray sometimes, you see, look after my father, look after my mother, look after my children, look after everyone, that's not the way to address God. First you have to get your realisation and enter into the Kingdom of God, then He looks after you. Then He looks after you fully, in every way.

Kṛiṣhṇa has said, “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham” meaning, “I, ah, after you get your Yoga, I look after your well-being." You must get Yoga first, He said, Yoga first and than kshema.

[To the translator:] Kshema is well-being.

So even materially you are helped, but you don't become overrich, that is going to extremes, but you get a satisfaction that a King has. You get that status within yourself.

So, ah, with Sahaja Yoga you can cure many diseases and for the time being you can use My Photograph, because it has got vibrations.

Now people say, that why Mothers Photograph is to be used? Because this is the first time somebody has taken a photograph.

[A short discussion amongst the Sahaja Yogis.] [Inquires:] What's it? Yes, because you see, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa's Photograph is not available, Śhrī Rāma's is not available, Jesus's Photograph is not available, Mohammed's Photograph is not available, now only you can take photograph.

So Photography has also come at the right time, so that we can really have a collective emancipation. Many people have got realisation through photograph.

So why not do it? If you can get advantage of it, why not use it? Ah, another question people have, that why it is Mother who, who has to do it? But I said, that you do it, I will be very happy. If you could do these things yourself, I'd be the happiest person, because then I'll have some leave. But I don't know many things, I, I, I really don't know man-, things that you people do normally, like I can't write a Check, I can't go to the Bank, I can't take a photograph, I don't feel bad! Then I don't feel bad, so why should you feel bad, if I know one job? So that's how one should look at it and should get full advantage for one Self and give it to others.

Now those people who have any questions can ask Me also and I would like to talk to people who have got some diseases little later. Now if you have any questions just ask Me.

Thank you.

Sahaja Yogi: One of my friends, he just came back from India a few weeks ago and he said to me he was on the Himālaya, in the mountains and there he met a man and this man, ah, say his name is papaji and this man says he is a Mahāvatar and he says is, ah, ah, ah, Maitreya and he has many disciples and my friend came back very excited to see this being has really much power and he needed, he said, he needed some [UNCLEAR lives to reach] and he came back very much excited and he wants to do very natural [UNCLEAR]. Ah, do you know anything about this man?

Shri Mataji: Papaji?

Sahaja Yogi: He says that his name is Papaji.

Shri Mataji: I know quite a lot. That's all there, you see, there are real Gurus in India also, there are, but these Papaji is not. There are many real Gurus, but they are hiding themselves, mostly and, ah, even if somebody goes to them they are ver-, they don't like it and, because they are fed up, you see and they have told Me Mother that first you establish a proper atmosphere for us, than only we'll come down.

Sahaja Yogi [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But about Maitreya, now I tell about Maitreya. Maitreya, again you are futuristic, but doesn't matter, Maitreya is the one who is coming as Nishkalaṅka as called as Kalaki, is the last, when Christ is coming to sort out, that is the last Avatāra but when He'll come He will not talk to you.

[To the Translator:] As you tell this, My dear. [And later:] Maitreya.

Yeah, He is the one who is going to come. He is actually Mahāviṣhṇu at this stage and then he comes as Maitreya at that stage and that's Kalaki-Nishkalaṅka, is called as Nishkalaṅka, means pure and My name the same. [Shri Mataji laughs.] [To the Translator:] Maitreya.

Ha! You got it here in the Sistine Chapel, Maitreya standing there, is a... Sistine Chapel has got Christ exactly, where He is standing at the Āgñyā Chakra, throwing people left and right, you see, that is what He is going to do. That's Maitreya, Michelangelo has done that. He is not going to talk to you, council you or redeem you or anything raise your Kuṇḍalinī, He is just going to sort you out, at the end.

That is going to be the ultimate, that is going to be the ultimate where those who are useless people will be destroyed, only those who are realised will be settled in the Kingdom of Heaven. And those who think themselves to be very big [UNCLEAR dowdies] like Kings, Queens and all that, they will not enter into the Kingdom of God. It's only the Seekers who get their realisation will be there. That's why I am here, to give you realisation and to teach you how to give realisations to others. All right? First thing you must know, any Guru who meets you, anyone, don't listen to stories. The person, if he can give you your own powers through realisation is the one who is real. And those who put spirits in you, make you dance and jump and enslave you are not real. They are devils some of them are really. I know all of them very well and you should not be [UNCLEAR eluded] into their docks. You people are much higher than all of them, but you can be easily misled.

So now, is there any other question?

Sahaja Yogi: Yeah! You are talking about, ah, that Christ come here [UNCLEAR] for this time and...

Shri Mataji: What?

Sahaja Yogi:... on Sunday, on Sunday the 25th [UNCLEAR] and there is a big sign in the newspaper with he was saying, he was saying that Christ, you see, He will, He will release Himself to the next two months...

Shri Mataji: Hmm, that's another, that's a story, again a storyteller's. This one was company of called T-a-r-a, Tara and and they are going to se-, spend hundred and thirty thousand pounds. And they are going to make Christ appear on the television. Even if you spend all the wealth of yo-, this world you can't do it. [Shri Mataji laughs.] It's all money-making propositions. You see, money begets money and the spirit begets spirit.

So all these jokes and all these clowns, you should not pay attention to them. We have had enough of them. All right? Yes, it's true, that's a big amount, they are sen-, they are saying also, we are going to spend hundred and thirty thousand pounds, they are not ashamed about it. [Shri Mataji laughs.] And they'll bring some hocus-pocus there. How will you recognize Christ, tell Me? After all, realised people can, but otherwise also you can rea-, ah, recognize very easy, ask Him to walk on the water.

[Aside:] Did you feeling pain? Oh God, void, I know he has a very bad void.

[Sahaja Yogis laugh.] What's happening? Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Feeling the pain, in the void?

Sahaja Yogi: In the void, yes that's right...

Shri Mataji: Hmm. The, the way they talk about Christ as if that He is in their pockets. There are all descriptions about every incarnation and to make them out it's not difficult.

[Aside:] All right now, is it, is it any...? Sahaja Yogi [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Translator: He wants to know...

Shri Mataji: All right.

Translator:... he wants to know [UNCLEAR] recognized a special [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [Laughs.] Yes, it is so. It is so. I am here to do that job. Later on you will know about it, that's My speciality. Ah, should We? Yes there, Rāma?

Sahaja Yogi: I would like to know about another friends friend and he had an accident ten years ago and he cannot walk and he has, he is like cut here in this area, at the end of the spine, you know, but I don't know how, the feeling you know was sometimes working, sometimes sick, the walking, You know, he ah and he was afraid, you know and...

Shri Mataji: Who cannot walk, what do you say? Translator: He has a friend that had an accident and he did also [UNCLEAR] because he has his spinal cut here and he would like to see him walk again.

Sahaja Yogi: He had a...

Translator: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: Now the thing is, that sometimes that his feeling and sometimes right, I cannot, you see it, You know, but he may walks again. I would like to know You, tell us if it is possible...

Shri Mataji: All right, I teach you how to make right. Try, you are trying, what trying? I don't know how far it is broken, but what trying? You may work it out. Now, but don't pay too much attention just now to the sick. First of all you all must get well, you must become, ah, good Sahaja Yogis, you should become strong and then you should do it, because if you start doing it just now, you see, you are just now like little Babies, you see, like little seat-lings and this is very important, this month you have to be careful about it and once you are established as Sahaja Yogis then you will know everything how to do it and how to work it out, but as a Mother I have to tell you that you should be careful. Just now the Kuṇḍalinī has come up, you are just now sprouted, be careful. First you have to also learn how to protect yourself and how to properly understand all the Chakras and things so, it would be easier for you, because I don't want that you get caught up into something else.

Translator: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Is so? Translator: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hmm, is she better? Translator: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It's very good. You tell them how to do it, you see?, with the Photograph, today.

Tonight you try with the Photograph and then tomorrow again We can be here, at eleven o'clock? Translator: Yes.

Shri Mataji: All right. Yes, this photograph now, you should mount it properly on some sort of a cardboard or something, so it can be kept wherever you feel like and if you want you can frame it, even through the glass the vibrations come in. Now this Photograph has got vibrations. Now before doing anything else you have to put a light candle before the Photograph, so if there are any negative forces around will disappear.

Now what you do, you first put your left hand towards the Photograph and the right hand on the heart and saying thrice, Mother I am the spirit. When you say that, you will start feeling the Cool Breeze flowing into your hands. Now supposing you don't get any Cool Breeze in the left hand, than you put the right hand and put the left hand like this, outside. You will find that the flow will start coming in and there will be Cool Breeze. Then again put the left hand like this and see if it is coming now in the left hand. Now this means that you are taking the vibrations from there and you are letting out into the atmosphere the negativity, or the abstractions.

Now when you see that both are all right, then you can put both the hands towards the photograph.

But in the night, before sleeping you should get a little bole of water with salt, this is symbolic of the Ocean, that's the Guru and put the light again before the Photograph. And look at the Photograph with both the hands and put the feet in the water. The water should be warm enough, the water will suck in, there also you can do, the same way is to put left hand and right hand here, to begin with, then put the right hand towards the Photograph and left hand out, like that. Then left hand towards the Photograph, right hand out, you will find the movement within your Self. Then put both the hands towards the Photograph...

This is one thing, then to raise your Kuṇḍalinī yourself, stand before the Photograph and move your right, left hand like this, this is the desire and put right hand in clockwise manner and go on taking it out like this, like this. Keep this hand steady and one hand you raise. Take it on top of your head, as much as you can and take it out and [UNCLEAR]. Again, your left hand, left hand steady, yes, now with right hand should, it's better to be careful. Or you can sit on the ground if you like, one of the [UNCLEAR].

Now put it up on the head, on the head, like this, now proper you [UNCLEAR can do that, proper.

Fasten it]. Now again, third time. Then again do it with complete attention, you see, this is your desire and this is your action, you are acting on that. Now We raise it up again, now you have to give three knots here: one, two and three. Now see. [UNCLEAR This is all you have to do]. This will increase your vibrations, you see. Are you feeling vibrations now, within? Is good. Are you feeling Cool Breeze?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR Now I feel sensations, it's like...]

Shri Mataji: That's not Cool Breeze.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It will become Cool Breeze after some time, all right? All right? That's all. It has improved so? Sahaja Yogis: Yes.

Shri Mataji: So it has.

So you can give twice, thrice or however you feel like, you can do it, raising up the Kuṇḍalinī or even before sitting before meditation and then, if you feel like closing your eyes, you can close your eyes and go into meditation. You will be in thoughtless awareness, there won't be any thought.

Just try to increase that space of your thoughtless awareness, that's the presence.

Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now she is in charge here, she is in charge [UNCLEAR] like some others [UNCLEAR]...

Yogini: Antonio!

Shri Mataji: Antonio is here?

Sahaja Yogini: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: Antonio is here? And ah, ah,

Sahaja Yogini: Giuseppe.

Shri Mataji: Where, where is he? Here? Is he here? Then...

Sahaja Yogini: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: So and and you are here and...

Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR].

Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Do you want to continue? [UNCLEAR]. All right.

So all these people who are here all ready who know about Sahaja Yoga.

So you have to get to it seriously and work it out for a month and they will also contact you and after My going also they are having a conference hall where they meet you all and they will be able to guide you and tell you how to go further and gradually you will know yourself.

And once you are absolutely, ah, established you feel completely free and full of joy. All right, you all are there who are here and after you have fully done established tomorrow I will see you again. Work it out in the first [UNCLEAR] proper. And [UNCLEAR tomorrow in the] evening I will be here and tell you all about these Chakras.

Seeker [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini [translates]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: So makes no difference,...

Seeker [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... you can keep it anywhere. Even the Photograph has got lots of vibrations, this one.

And My attention is all over Italy. What did happen?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Another Sahaja Yogi [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Another Sahaja Yogi: He wants to know this, ah,...

Translator: [explains to Shri Mataji what was said.] Sahaja Yogi [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ah,...

Sahaja Yogi [in Italian]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... ah, it's the Lakṣhmī, yeah, but don't worship Her, because this is not made by a realised Soul. Oh he is all right, it's good, it is a representative of Lakṣhmī, I will talk about Her, all right? But you should not worship, because the statues are not made by realised Souls.

Sahaja Yogis: [UNCLEAR].

Translator: I am going to tell her.

Shri Mataji: You see Me, what is to be worshipped and how in the Bible was it written My Name.

Thank you very much!

I bow to all the seekers of Truth.

Yesterday I gave you an introduction [UNCLEAR to this] spontaneous happening of your Selfrealisation through Sahaja Yoga. There is no other method that the spontaneous and the living process.

As all the seeds sprout the same way, in the same manner your awakening also takes the same way.....

Contents: 1982-04-29*, Public Program, Day 3, Rome, Italy

All the seekers of truth, I bow.

I have told you before during last two days, about the different energies that run within us and also the subtle centers who manifest with those centers outside, except for two. Today I will tell you about the remaining two centers and about what to do after realisation. As you know, today is the last day and tomorrow I have to leave and next time I'm sure I'll come for a week to meet you all again.

Now the center that is placed is the center of the heart is called as the heart center, or in Sanskrit language is called as Anāhat Chakra, Anāhat Chakra. This is the center, very important, because till the age of twelve years the sternum bone which is placed in front of it, produces a kind of sense which are called as antibodies and then these antibodies travel all around the body and protect us from any invasion from outside. This is the center that informs the antibodies about the invasion and how to fight it. This center is bestowed upon the deity Allti; Mother of the World. She's the Mother of all the seekers and of all the saints and prophets and She protects all the seekers who are mislaid or carried away by fake Gurus and false Gurus. She also protects the seekers when they are trying to achieve their realisation and some negative forces try to pull them down.

This center is the center of security, so the first thing any one of these organizations, whether they are religious or of fake Gurus, they try to put insecurity into a person: “If you don't do like this, this will happen, if you don't do like that, that will happen” so the person is insecure to begin with. Or it can also be that they might say, “This is due to your Karmas, you've been a sinner, you have been this and you must confess, something wrong with you..." all these things build up the insecurity within you.

Now if this insecurity is developed in a person the diseases are caused like palpitations, fear, nervousness, frustration, can be very cranky, hysteria, could be epileptic... can go to any extent. When a person sees a sign of danger, this center starts pulsating, by its pulsation the heart starts beating more and the antibodies are alerted to see what is the danger coming in.

But a seeker should never forget that he has a very powerful Mother, the most powerful Mother and She is capable of handling any kind of situation, whatever it may be, for Her children's sake. If this security is built in a person, he is not afraid of any kind of endurances or any kind of attacks.

In the very gross level also this center is very active. Say a woman loves her husband and she has her security with her husband and if she finds that husband is a flirt or a man carrying on with another woman, if her security is disturbed, she may develop a disease called breast cancer because it is a mother's center; it is very, very powerful in a woman, but when women forget their potential powers they can develop a very weak center.

The potential power of the woman is a motherhood, not the way women flitter away their energies in doing all childish, cheapish things. They should not give away their chastity, sense of chastity so easily because then they will have no strength in their Center Heart and they can easily get to problems.

Today only somebody asked Me, “Mother, what do you think if the women want to work as the men and what is the need to work like that?" Actually, in the affluent country there is no need for women to work, I mean to earn money. Whether you work or not you get your money, but building up of children is the most important thing. Even the men must realise that if a woman is not respected as a housewife and as a mother, they are going to have the backlashes of this kind of system. It is the most important thing to give sense of security to your children.

In the West, people will give lots of presents and lots of things to the children to play and make them mad with it. I have seen seekers who come to Me from such mothers who are very demanding or who are very cruel or who are working outside, not paying attention to children, are difficult to get realisation. Even the heart organ which contains the Spirit also gets into problem if the mother sense or mother security is not established in a person. Of course the children must not be spoiled, but they must know that their mother loves them. This work can not be paid for. It is the most vital thing today to look after your children.

I have seen in America which is such an affluent country, the boys, young boys and young girls are just like vagabonds, hooligans, absolutely they have no discipline of any kind. They are just wasters, they are good for nothing, they can never get realisation, they've ruined themselves. If home is the blissful place of love, nobody will leave the home. After Sahaja Yoga, after realisation, I have seen people settle down very nicely in their married lives and have very nice children who are disciplined.

There are so many things now happening in this world, I mean we are so precariously placed that God knows what day it could be that the atom bomb can be released from somewhere, that can we could be quite harmed in such a way that all security and everything will be finished once for all.

So whatever is happening outside is also happening inside the human beings. Outside is the reflection of the inside and that inside is being destroyed at a very early stage.

In Sahaja Yoga, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises and goes through this center, She establishes a kind of sense of security by which a person neither aggresses nor recedes. On the right side of the center is the center we call as `right Heart'. This is the center of the father and Śhrī Rāma resides on this center.

Now He was a benefactor and a benevolent king. A person who is not a good father or a son who is not a good son gets a problem of this center and the result is asthma.

If your father is worried about the son or a daughter, he can get asthma. If a father dies very early also a person might get asthma. We have cured asthma of thousands of people and this is a simple thing that there is something lacking in the sense of the father; in the Spirit of the father.

Now the, because there's short time, I have to cover a lot so I don't tell you about the other centers, this is not one of the seven centers, but is a sub-center between the Āgñyā and the Viśhuddhi; this one and this one is called as `Haṁsa'. Means it is the center that balances; She's the balance that is within you. If the left and right side energies are working in a balance, then this center keeps alright. If it is too much on the right hand side, then this center becomes dried out and if it is too much on the left hand side it becomes full of mucus and people have problems with their face, pains in the face, both ways.

Now the Āgñyā Chakra which is placed between the Optic Chiasma in the, where the two optic nerves cross, that point, a very subtle center which controls pituitary and pineal body which I have told you already.

Pituitary is the king of all the glands within us because it is for activation, ductless glands, of the ductless glands, ductless glands and this pituitary also controls our ego.

So this one can control ego and superego through pineal body.

So when Christ who is bestowed upon this center is awakened then it sucks both these balloon-like structures, thus it removes all our conditioning and all our Karmas, all our actions.

So Christ is the one, one has to cross come to, otherwise you can not get your realisation, no doubt about it, because if He does not suck the ego and superego, the door that is this Brahmaranda that is the fontanelle bone area won't open and to do that we have to take Kuṇḍalinī up to the Āgñyā Chakra.

The Lord's Prayer is the mantra to open the Āgñyā Chakra. Everything that is said in Lord's Prayer is required to please Christ there to be awakened, but this prayer should not be said by a person who is not a realised Soul; who is not connected with God, otherwise it has no meaning because there is no connection.

Supposing there's no connection between the telephone and you telephone: what's the use of telephoning? In the same way, all these prayers they do so loudly and everybody can put up such a show and all that, has little meaning to God. The idea we have about God is rather funny because we think that we are already connected with God and whatever we say to Him He just listens to us, but actually the way we believe into things is so mythical that if somebody tells you that it is not so, one feels hurt, but I hope you won't feel hurt if I tell you the truth.

For example, I am not an Italian and if I apply for, say, a loan from your government they won't listen to Me. I have to enter in the kingdom of Italy. In the same way, you have to enter into the Kingdom of God and be enlisted there, but when people start telling lies it becomes like truth to them. If you go on saying same thing, same thing all the time, you start thinking that you are telling the truth and if some coincidence takes place, then you just start believing, “Oh, God was very kind to me especially." On the contrary, we have to, we have to think that, “What have we done to receive the grace of God? What have we been doing to be in the book of His Knowledge?" That is the way, if our approach is, I'm sure one day it happens that you get your Self-realisation.

As I told you before, these are the days of resurrection. These are the days of Last Judgement and lots of seekers are born. That's why the population is so big. How are we going to be judged? You won't be put in some sort of a measuring cup or in a balance to see how you are, but you have a system within you, built-in, where this Kuṇḍalinī, the residual power within you, rises and shows what are your problems.

So this is the time of redemption and counseling and comforting so that you realise what is the Spirit.

For example, when Buddha got His realisation He didn't even want to talk of God. He just talked of the Self or the Spirit, because He thought if He talked of God again people will think they have become gods.

So He went further than we can say Christ and Mohammed to delimit the search.

For example, first people talked of the Deities and people got lost with the Deities, like talking about the flowers. Then they started talking about the honey and they got lost with the honey, means with the formless God.

So Buddha just said that better only have the taste of that, just a little taste of the honey, but every religion is going against its own teachings. Buddha told them not to worship anything because He knew the problems that would come out of it so Buddhists worshipped everything; all sorts of things they worship.

Christ said, “Don't have anything to do with the dead because they are Spirits." He took out the Spirits and put them in the pigs but in every church you find a churchyard. All dead bodies are put there in the church. And Moses has told that one should not take hard drinks. If you go and see Jews, the first thing they will do is to offer you a champagne. You see the Muslims have been told not to smoke and to drink, not to drink, yes, because at that time there was no smoking and Guru Nanak told that one should not smoke and drink because at that time this was a problem but now I have seen in England the Sikhs, His followers, drink more than even Scotch people. It is such a situation with which one has to deal.

Now the main problem with us is how to become one with the Spirit. That is not a difficult problem because Kuṇḍalinī, I know how to handle it and you will also know how to handle it and now the Divine has decided to get you to His Kingdom. If God's creation has to remain, people have to get realisation to know Him, so the Divine Power itself is anxious to get you to the Kingdom of God.

There has been many predictions of these times; in India, in the Bible and in England also, by one great poet Blake, but the trouble with the people is that they are already lost and mislaid into wrong paths and they are misidentified because realisation is not a hysteria or a mass happening; it is not hypnosis. It is something by which you get your own powers. It is not the power of the Guru that you admire but it is your own power starts manifesting and it is a living process of breakthrough which is now the end of our evolution. It is a living process, that means human beings can not do it. Only God or the realised Soul can do it.

We can make people dance like mad, we can make them wear some sort of a, a garland, we can make them nude, or do all kinds of mass hysteric things even murder them together; all sorts of things they are doing now. This is simple mesmerism. There are some people who materialise things, bring out some diamonds and things like that. God is not there to give you diamonds. If He has to give you something, He'll give you something that you can not have. He will do something that you can not do and He'll give you something that is of the highest value, so invaluable that you can not pay for it and that is what you should expect when you are seeking.

It is very saddening sometimes to see that how in seeking, in frustration, people have gone into things which they should not have gone into, but I have seen after realisation there is such a transformation.

Apart from the appearance the whole being changes so much. All the priorities change so, so quickly and the whole behaviour becomes so collective. Not mass, means individual is aware, that great harmony and bliss resides among them.

First the thoughtless awareness is the state you achieve. That happens when Kuṇḍalinī crosses this spot.

When the thought rises from a point it goes up and comes down. We see the rising of the thought but not the falling of the thought and then another thought rises and again falls off.

So either we are in the past or in the future. In between [this] these thoughts, there is a space and that space is the present and we have to stay in this present and in this present we are thoughtless but aware. If you want to think you can think, but if you don't want to think you need not think. This state is your fort where no one can attack. All negative thoughts or thoughts of aggression do not, can not enter into this pure, holy area of present. All the present moments are full of dynamism, every moment is full of joy and dynamism.

When the Kuṇḍalinī touches the Spirit and crosses this fontanelle area when you get your real baptism that time you feel the, feel Spirit within yourself in your attention, that you become collectively conscious.

That means you can feel yourself and others on your fingertips. Now if somebody wants to know a particular person if he's realised or not it's very simple for a realised Soul: he just puts his hand and thinks of the person and immediately he can feel whether he is realised or not.

Now for you to establish that collective consciousness you have to work in the collective. Means you have to feel the vibrations of others and you have to know your own vibrations. You have to practice. You have to practice very diligently and you'll be surprised how scientific it is. Even if you have ten children tied up their eyes and if you ask them to feel somebody they'll always say, “He is catching on the heart” and if you ask the gentleman, “Did you have any heart attack?", he said he had two already.

But where does lie the problem? The problem is, there are so many fake that one can't keep [UNCLEAR time/track] of another fake but all fake people take money from you and they have a big sort of a what you can call an iron curtain around them. For which you know I worked; you don't have to work.

Other Gurus will tell you, “You give me money and start jumping for three hours" or, “Give me money and stand on your head for two hours." If you can't do it he'll say that, “You're no good; you better give me more money” and such people appeal to people I don't know how.

One thing one has to know that the time is precarious and important and very serious. In the Bible John in his revelation has said, “Only 144,000 people will be realised." Can you imagine what a number? I'm sure already I must have given realisation to about 35,000 people already.

Mostly Indians of course, but what about the rest of the world? Are they all going to be left out? But why? Only because of ego problem. Ego makes you blind. I can not pamper your ego, I'm sorry. Nor am I harsh with you, harsh. I can persuade it to a point.

If I have done the cooking, I can invite you to have your dinner. If you are not hungry you'll just argue with Me. I would like you to know so many other things like how did I make it, from where did I get it, all those things, but if you are hungry you will have it. Not only have it but you'll taste it. I can not taste it for you, can I? I am already tasting it and enjoying it and enjoying it. I want you to enjoy also and I hope that you will accept this invitation with love and take your realisation.

I think there's no end to this knowledge as I've told you I have given hundreds of lectures everywhere and there are tapes, but we don't give these tapes to people who are not Sahaja Yogis. Also, we have books which we do not give to people who are not established in Sahaja Yoga. First you have to get your realisation; grow into your realisation. You should be able to give realisations to others and once you become doubtlessly aware, which is a state, then you are a yogi and then only we see that it is worth giving the book into your hands.

I am very happy that in My last two days I have seen so many Italians getting their realisation.

Though Italy is the last place I have touched in Europe and we have very strong Sahaja Yogis in Paris and in Geneva, but I have a feeling that we may have a much stronger center in Rome because the people are very spontaneous.

I've been very happy to meet you all. I'll miss you, every one of you. You can always write to Me; if it is necessary to answer, I'll answer, but in any case I will know and somebody will answer you. It's very hard to say goodbye, but I have to say. After again I give you a session of Self-realisation today, I have to say goodbye to you. After that we have Sahaja Yogis here and we have a some sort of a center also you should contact and we also have a program after this in a place where you can sit down and decide how to start a proper center in Rome.

Now, somebody has asked Me questions about the pope and it's a little embarrassing thing to answer.

Only thing is if you all get your realisation, then you can find out whether he is a realised Soul or not and whatever he's doing is of a political nature, not of a spiritual nature. You see, we think that these political things can solve the problem of human being is absolutely wrong. Now, say I have think, I have the powers, so I'm the capitalist, but I can not enjoy them unless and until sharing it, so I am the absolute communist. All this forty crews as they say in Argentina or Chile or in other places like Pakistan and all these things are also not solving the problem. Any kind of government is not perfect. That is a fact.

Now, the problem is the human being itself. If you give freedom to human being, he runs like a madman. Half of the Western people are little funny there, because they think “What's wrong in doing this? What's wrong in taking drugs? What's wrong in taking so much alcohol? What's wrong in killing yourself? What's wrong in killing others? What's wrong?" Such a stupidity of a showing off that they love each other and all that and while walking the steps of the say, a divorce case, they are kissing each other. What is this? Husband is killing the wife, wife is killing the husband, the children are killing the great-grandparents, the grandparents killing the... what is this? This is human beings. What kind of anarchy is this? We had a, we had a Sahaja Yogi about twenty-six year old and one day he came and he became very serious. I said, “What's wrong with you?" He said, “My mother was forty-eight years of old, she has eloped with my friend who is twenty-two years” and the mother came to see Me and she said, “What's wrong?" She had three young daughters. They have gone on their way to all wrong things. They have gone on the other wrong way because there's no [UNCLEAR]. It's a funny world, I tell you, this so-called `freedom' is, is gone into waste. Man can not hold the freedom.

Now, I have seen many communist countries, I have travelled a lot because of My husband. There the people are absolutely useless. They have no freedom to think. They have always a fear in the despotic people also they find some sort of a fighting just to divert the attention of the people and the people are absolutely unaware of where they are, what they are doing, what is the time. If you give somebody some money he will immediately go to a pub. If you give money to someone, you make him rich, he becomes the worst man that you could think of. He has all the problems of the world. That's why Christ has said that rich can not enter into the Kingdom of God.

So this political problems can not be solved. Only the human problem must be solved from its roots.

If we have many realised Souls, I'm sure it will work out much faster and that is what is the need of today; to save this humanity from complete disaster.

So many seekers are born for the same purpose and I am sure they'll find themselves very soon if they have some wisdom left in their heads because when I tell them there's something wrong with their Guru and that has stopped their Kuṇḍalinī from rising, they get so angry with Me you can't imagine.

There is one Guru, he took three thousand pounds each from husband, wife and the child and gave them epilepsy and the Guru said that, “I'm going to teach you how to levitate and how to y” and this gentleman was the head of the Scotland Academy of that flying squad and then he came down to Me with all these problems which I had to solve, now they are alright and they are perfectly doing well, but they've lost all their money, they were paupers when they came to Me and they told Me that this Guru has got already seven keeps. I think he'll have thousand if you go on giving money to him. What will he do with the money? He can't eat [UNCLEAR it].

This is what it is and that's why I have to tell you, all your misidentifications with falsehood must drop and you must ask for your own powers. Sahaja Yoga is no organization, it is no cult, we do not have any membership, we do not force anybody to come or if somebody wants to go away we can not stop.

A person is called as `Sahaja Yogi' by the quality of his or her evolutionary status and only these people are allowed to come in the inner circle of Sahaja Yoga and get the higher knowledge about Spirit. There is no money, there is no such nonsense going on.

So I think we should now have [UNCLEAR a] realisation and get to our self, that is Spirit and later on I'm sure we'll tell you some more tapes where I have described the nature of the Spirit especially and other so many things which I have not been able to talk to you.

One more question they asked about the handicapped children. The handicapped children are mostly created because the mothers do not know what to be done during pregnancy. Say, if you see an eclipse during pregnancy you will get a handicapped child.

If you see a setting sun during pregnancy for long period [UNCLEAR of/and many] times, then you will get children whose eyes that are very weak. If you get any antibiotic treatment during pregnancy you will get a child with the blue heart; as they call it a `blue baby'.

So there are many such things when it happens to the mother. Also, it is also Karma sometimes that affects the child. All, all such children can also get realisation and can also get cured, but our main interest is to give realisation to people who are normal so that they can realisation to other people.

[Disturbance in the audience...] What is it? What is she doing? What is she doing? What is she doing? What is she, why is she behaving negative? What has happened? Huh? She is mad, is she? What is she saying?

Sahaja Yogini: this woman says that uh, this woman says that [UNCLEAR Brigitte] has attacked her and something like that.

Shri Mataji: You see, why are you disturbing everyone, My child? What don't you sit down? What, why are you disturbing us? We are doing good work, we are doing God's work. If you don't want, why did you come and you are disturbing, getting up, going out, coming in... is it good? You have to be civil person, isn't it?

Sahaja Yogini: They, they said they're feeling bad because all windows have been closed.

Shri Mataji: Huh?

Sahaja Yogini: They said they are feeling bad because all windows have been closed.

Shri Mataji: So don't [UNCLEAR], what did they want, to open the doors?

Sahaja Yogini: They want to go out, is what I understand.

Shri Mataji: But you shouldn't do like, this is not a cinema hall you have come to. No, you must understand the seriousness, you see, you must understand, you just can not come and walk off... it's not proper. It's not proper. All right, now let them go, all right? Now you can go, it's all right. Now you can go. It's not proper, you see? You disturb somebody who is doing good. You see, you are not so important, isn't it? What can you do?... but you should not trouble Me. If somebody's speaking here, you come in and go out, it's not the way to behave. This is a holy place. You will not understand. You should have respect. You have no respect, no respect. No, you have no respect.

Sahaja Yogini: They say, they say they have been pushed on the floor or something.

Shri Mataji: Pushed? Please.

[Sound of commotion, arguing, etc., is increasing in the room.]

Sahaja Yogini: They say they have been...

Shri Mataji: All right, you can go out, all right?

Sahaja Yogini: They want to know if they have been realised or not, because they say they have been realised.

Shri Mataji: You see? Just see, I'll tell you. You can not command Me. You should sit down. If you are realised you won't be so violent like that. Why are you so violent?

Sahaja Yogini: She says that You can see if they can, if they are realised.

Shri Mataji: So what's the use of such a certificate? Then why don't you sit down. Sit down! Be quiet.

Sahaja Yogini: One is saying that she has been used by [UNCLEAR]. All right. What happened? They pushed you? For what? For what? Lady: Because I did not want to go out and they...

Shri Mataji: That I know, they were very disturbing. All right. Yes that's true, you see, when you come to a place like this, you have to be really in a very quiet mood. If you are in a negative way, you can be very disturbing to others. This is a sure sign of negativity. There was one man, who was sitting here and was walking outside and were coming back inside and walking out... he is a possessed man, I know, because he wanted to get well but he couldn't bear also My vibrations, you see? So he was going out and again he was coming in. I could, I can understand, but if somebody's disturbing such a nice program of ours, then there's something wrong with the person.

This is a, not a political thing going on here, or a Mafiā or anything. It's a very simple thing that we are doing is to get to God and they were going out and coming in and going out and coming in so I said, “You better to lock the door so that they do not come back." I mean, even if you have to go in any case, because you are not all right, then you have to say that, `Please may I go,' not to hit someone. It has been taken advantage by people that all the saints must be tortured and hit, but no more. It's a very different thing we are dealing with. They don't know what are they up to. May God bless them. They are very stupid, that's all I would say. All right.

So we need not feel disturbed about it. They are negative, what can you do? Now I would request you all to put your hands towards Me, like this and close your eyes. All right sit down now, comfortably. You see, if I told them that “You are negative” they would have [UNCLEAR].

They are stupid I must say.

So many people think they are realised Souls, you know. We, we are twice born and how to tell them, “You are not” because if you tell them, they'll hit you back. That's the problem. A person who is a realised Soul is the one who can feel the vibrations of another person and can feel his own vibrations. They know where the Kuṇḍalinī is. Even if they are small children of six months, they know and they show by sucking their thumb or finger what Chakras where they are catching.

So it is not proper to certify yourself with something, unnecessary. Why? You are the loser. Better to have it and then certify. Then you don't need any certificate. That is between you and your God, that you know you are realised.

All right. I would request you to put your hands towards Me like this and close your eyes. Please put both the hands and close your eyes. Please don't open your eyes, because when the Kuṇḍalinī rises through the Āgñyā Chakra you get dilatation of the pupils and if the eyes are open it doesn't rise.

At the very outset I have to say that you should don't feel guilty at all. On the contrary you have to say that, `Mother, I am not guilty.' Say it at least three times. Please say it again that, `I am not guilty. Mother, I am not guilty.' It's too much. I think you put your right hand on the heart and say that, `Mother, I'm not guilty.' Please say sincerely. What guilt can you have? God is the ocean of love and forgiveness and compassion and what guilt can you have compared to that? You are all men of God and you have come to seek God. Why should you feel guilty? Whatever I have said you'll forget that also if you should feel guilty with something I have said.

[When the French leader introduces Christine Hāge to Shri Mataji:] We are meeting again after two thousands years.

Contents: 1982-05-02*, Public Program, Lille, France

I bow to all the seekers of Truth. I've been here before, also, to Lille and it has been a place of special attraction for Me somehow. The peace in this place is very attractive and the people, I'm sure, are many, who are seekers in this place. But these are the days when all kinds of confusions have to be there and this is the time when your wisdom is going to be judged and your honest seeking and intelligence is going to be weighed.

It has been already prophesized that there are going to be many fake people on this earth, talking about God. But it is for you to know that you are seekers and you will have to find the truth, otherwise you can never be satisfied and the whole life will be a waste. The seeking that resides within you is neither your ego nor your superego. It is very easy to pamper your ego and feel happy with mundane things of gross life, or to go on indulging into all kinds of imaginary tragedies. But today the time has come for you to face the reality, which is beauty, which is glory within you, which is being promised that you are to be born again.

It is promised that you are to be comforted and you are to be redeemed and you are to be counseled about it. And, because of such an understanding of the atmosphere, many people are floating fake and absurd organizations to dissuade you. This is a special time, the greatest of all in the history of creation. In your evolutionary process, this is the last breakthrough which you have to achieve. Now, this evolutionary breakthrough is a living process, as it has been before. It is a natural process and not a man-made process.

So you cannot achieve it by your mental projections, but by some natural happening within you, so that your awareness becomes newly enlightened. That means something must happen to your awareness and not to your outside world.

For example, you may have any kind of government, makes no difference. At the most, maybe little here and there, there will be a change. You may have any economic system or social systems, it's not going to change much. If the tree is sick, you cannot treat it by treating his leaves, can you? You have to go to the roots. In the same way, the change has to take place in your roots and the root has to be brought into play by giving some sort of a substantial help to the roots.

As it is a living process, you cannot pay for it, how can you? How much do you pay for being a human being? And what did you do to become a human being from that stage? It's only the ego of man; he thinks he can even organize God. You cannot organize Him and no use also fearing Him all the time, because He is compassion, He's love and He's anxious, very anxious to emancipate the human beings to that state which was promised, so that human beings know their Creator forever. It should not be an imagination again, but a reality, a feeling in your central nervous system, in your awareness.

Some people have given ideas that if you start jumping you might get to God, or if you change your dress, you might get to God, or if you do all kind of these nonsensical things, you will get to God. This is a mass behaviour of human beings, coming from ancient times, from animal state. If one animal does something, others are supposed to do the same. They do not think about it. But in human state they think and their thinking is also limited. For example a man he spends, say, 500 pounds for getting to God.

So, another one...

So another thinks that... all right, I can pay 600 pounds to get to God. The third one will come with 6,000 pounds, why not? So human beings have a speciality for bringing down all that is Divine to gross level, but animals cannot and they are not bothered.

Somebody tells them that by giving up everything, so-called giving up, we have achieved God; people will give up their dresses, give up everything that is decency, decorum.

By changing mental attitudes, you are not going to change anything inside, or by putting any kind of an human effort, you are not going to work it out. The One who has made you man, is going to make you superman! At human level, it is difficult to believe. Animals never thought of it, while when human beings were made to think, they think we are going to do it ourselves. When we have not done so far anything about it, how are we going to do it anything about it further? So the force within us is going to do it and there must be some force that has done it and that force must be existing and that is going to work it out for us.

Now, also we have to know very clearly what are we to expect to happen to us? In the different ancient scriptures, in every religion, there are been descriptions but which are very vague and beyond human conception, beyond their understanding. For example, it is said in every possible scripture that you are to be born again. Today when we were coming to Lille, we met a bus which was written there, “You are to be born again. And Jesus is going to give you a rebirth. And it is Jesus Christ." Yes, true! It is so! But how? How? How have they taken contract from Jesus Christ? Have they given Realisation to anyone so far? Only it is self-advertisement under a false name.

How are we going to be realised? Is there anything within us that is going to work it out? Intelligent people should go about it logically. Now we know that we have become human beings, definitely, but what is our powers? Or are we to be born in this confusion and die after this confusion? Worse than the life of animals because animals never have any confusion at least. Whatever problems they have, they solve and then they [UNCLEAR die]. But they have limited problems. It's only human beings can think of the beyond and that's how the confusion and complication is there.

Now, if I tell you anything about what is within us in the system built-in, you are not to take Me for granted. And you need not believe Me even if two French have certified Me just now. First of all, it has to happen within you, then you have to settle down with you and you have to feel it yourself, you have to be the master of that Divine power and then you will know that what I am saying is the truth. Simple is the truth that you are the instrument God has created. You are to be connected to the mains. You have to feel the power that is Divine, you have to enjoy it and you have to manoeuvre it on a collective level.

It's so simple as that can be ended up in one sentence.

Now they must have already told you what is within us, have you? Gregoire: Not really, Mother...

Shri Mataji: They were just certifying Me all the time, I believe. [UNCLEAR] but the other part also they were just certifying Me. All right, thank you very much for the certificate! Now... But as a scientist, you must have an open heart to see what I have to say as a hypothesis. As you enter a university as a new student, you keep your mind open and a hypothesis has to be put before you, which has to be proved and then if you see all that, then you have to become the master of that. It is a simple proposition.

Within ourselves are placed three powers. The first power is the power of desire. That acts for our past as well for our subconscious mind and for the collective subconscious. [UNCLEAR The/Another] power is the power of action which acts on the right hand side and is responsible for the action of our mental and physical activities. These are the subtle powers within our spinal cord and in the brain, which manifest outside in the gross our left and right sympathetic nervous system. In the center is another power which gives us our sustenance. By this power, the whole periodic table of the chemistry is established.

Like carbon has four valencies and the way we become human beings with ten sustenances.

So this is the power which gives us our seeking and our evolution, ultimately. This energy manifests in the gross as parasympathetic nervous system. When any emergency takes place we go into action, or we go into our subconscious, or into emotional activities. The sympathetic nervous system of the left and right goes into action. For example, if you are frightened and you are running, the whole body goes into a state of emergency, but the central path, the central energy, of parasympathetic, brings it back to normal.

As there's very little known to the doctors about parasympathetic nervous system, because it is absolutely autonomous, works on itself. And what is this `auto', then? Just giving some branding somebody by some name you do not explain. If there is an `auto', who is this `auto'? This `auto' is the spirit in your heart. This spirit is the reflection of God within yourself. And this spirit actually looks after the parasympathetic. It is not in our conscious mind. We cannot feel the spirit. There are many people, I've seen, that, “My spirit says so." This is also imaginary, because there is no rapport established as yet with your spirit. It has to come in your central nervous system feeling, because whatever you have achieved so far is expressed in your central nervous system.

So, now, whatever is left within us is this, is to bring that spirit into our conscious mind, into our attention. This is the breakthrough. Like an instrument is created and is put to the mains. Like the car is made and it has to be started, is connected. Without starting the car, what's the use of moving the wheels? Without connecting the telephone, what's the use of talking? Now, what do we have to expect when we think we are connected? Could be only our thinking? Now, when this happening takes place, actually, the fourth power which is lying there, called as Kuṇḍalinī in Sanskrit language, is a residual power rises through these six centers, going upward, piercing through this fontanelle bone area, giving you your real baptism. And at the end of it, you see so many flame-like things are looking, is a lotus.

So, when this happens, actually all these centers that are shown here look like little flames as described in the Bible that, “I will appear before you like tongues of flames." But nobody is explaining all these things. This is the tree of life! Moreover, one becomes so one-sided with whatever one has, that one does not want to see that it should be related with something else. There is no understanding of spiritual life on a mental level. For example, the description of Christ given in the ancient Indian scriptures, He's called as Mahāviṣhṇu and He is told to be the support of the universe. But who reads Indian scriptures to that extent? Because in England people believe that Christ was born in England. I hope French don't believe like that, that He was a French.

So, they just don't want to see anything else.

Now, this is one of the facts, one can see that this kind of one-sided view of everything and fanaticism has led human beings into great confusion as far as spiritual life is concerned. Actually, up to Christ's birth, most of the knowledge of Bible was taken from various people, not from one person and it was never accepted that one could go little beyond to see what is the reference there is in the books which are much more ancient than Bible. There are books which are much more ancient than Bible and people have lived much before Christ, so there must be something written about Christ in their books.

It is said that this deity will incarnate on this earth and He will be responsible for forgiving your Karmas and your sins. When the Kuṇḍalinī rises and pierces through this center, which is the center of Christ, that's the last one, from which one it has to pass to get into the limbic area, then Christ is awakened there and once He's awakened, He sucks in the ego and superego, built in by these two energies of your desire and action. Thus, a space is created in your fontanelle bone area and you get your Realisation.

Like in Sanskrit language, a realised Soul is called as a `Dvijaḥ'. `Dvija', means the one who is born again and also the bird is also called `dvija', because he comes out as an egg and then he gets to the stage of a bird.

So, some transformation has to take place within yourself. A great psychologist, Jung, who got Realisation in his lifetime said that person has to become collectively conscious. He said that, “There is collective unconscious, which sends symbols to inform us in our dreams." And he said that you have to become conscious of that unconscious.

So, it is a happening to your awareness. Like a dog, if he passes through a dirty lane, he doesn't see anything there dirty. Human beings, when they pass through the dirt, they know it is dirty. When they are human beings; they do not know what is anti-God and pro-God activity. When they do something which is against them, they do not know they are doing something which is against. They do not know that they are doing something that will take them down into Hell and they do things collectively to bring about such an atmosphere that even their children go down: that is how we had fall of Roman Empires and many Empires and God knows now how many empires are now going to be fallen.

So, he does not know how he's behaving towards himself and towards his society, towards his nation and towards the whole universe. All his enterprises are linear in movement and they went back and come back to him and hit him. Then they say that we are, in French, `les miserables'. Create your own problems and then you say that we are very unhappy. But a realised Soul knows. Knows, as a reality, as a feeling, not as an emotional feeling, because that could be relative, but as absolute on his fingertips, on his hands, that this is wrong.

So what happens when the Kuṇḍalinī passes through these centers and pierces through this fontanelle bone area? For the feeling, you start feeling a Cool Breeze coming out of your head. Not always, first the heat comes out: heat of the liver, could be quiet a lot, may burning. And then comes out the Cool Breeze and then you feel completely relaxed in thoughtless awareness. You feel you have become a witness of the whole play now. At the same time, in most of the cases, you start feeling it in your hands, flowing that energy. But as a result of this happening, your health improves.

Recently, in New York, a blood cancer patient was cured and sent back to India. In Paris, a lady was cured of her, again, blood cancer and was sent out off the hospital. This is the minimum that happens.

This is the minimum a realised Soul can do. Many mad people have been cured. In this mad world, there are very few normal people actually and they have been cured, they have become normal, their beauty expressed in their life and in their face and in their behaviour. All their habits drop out in most of the cases.

Some of them are little possessed, so they take time. You are no more slave of any such habits that makes you absolutely lost in life. You become the master of yourself and once you become that, you can give awakening to others.

In this fake Gurus system, in the fake Guru system, they will give you big, big stories, that the Guru has this power and that power, but what about the power of the seeker? Everyone has power within himself which must be enlightened. Whatever one may say, I'm this and I'm that, has nothing to do with you, unless and until you get your own power and manifest it because if you're the spirit, you must feel your spirit and you must feel your own power. But these are not powers which are absurd, like flying in the air.

Already, there are so many planes flying, imagine human beings start flying, what will happen? I always say that the Guru who says so, should be put on tower of Pisa and let's see how he flies! So, all these absurd talks and nonsense is not what is Self-realisation is. It is the breakthrough that is promised, it is that judgment which is being told in the scriptures, it's not something cheap that can be sold! Is the most serious thing, about which we should be careful. If you have missed it, you have missed it forever. And then the last sorting out may start and you will be nowhere. Nobody's going to come and persuade you and ask you and request you that `Please, become your Spirit.' But unlike animals, human beings take to false things much faster. If you put a plastic flower and a real flower, no bee will go to the plastic flower; they're not fools and stupid things. But 99% will go to plastic if they are human beings, I'm sure. That's the beauty that, somehow, we do not know what is plastic and what is real. When the real come, you crucify them, you beat them, you torture them and when the false comes in, you give them Rolls-Royces and aeroplanes and everything.

Of course, nobody real needs even a single farthing from you. Such a person is not interested in your purse and does not require anything of that kind. Such a person is above all these nonsensical comforts and nonsensical ideas of human beings. You cannot purchase such a person, nor can control. He's a free bird and the king of his own. But He's compassion and love. And in that compassion He wants you, He loves you because He can't help it. In His love, He suffers everything. He has patience and understanding, understanding of the limitations and the ignorance of human beings.

But it cannot be forced and asked to eat something, if you do not want. Actually, so many Gurus say that we take money because otherwise people don't take things seriously. Like you pay some money for a show and it's a bad one, still you go through it, because it's a bad show, but doesn't matter, because you have paid for it. And then you pay more if they say, because you have paid less, you go on like this, like mad. That's why reality will grow very slowly. It has taken thousands of years to come to this mass level, or say, collective level. But plastic flowers are very easy to create.

Now, with this happening, as I told you, the physical and emotional side is absolutely balanced. And all such diseases like epilepsy and others, like lunacy and all that, which are torturing the minds of people, are cured. Even the physical problems of people who have indulged into wrong type of habits, like bad diseases for men and women, they can get cured. The other day, same happened in Rome. That all gets cured, but the only thing is that you have to ask for your Realisation.

God has given you freedom to decide. If you want to go to Heaven, you can go, if you want to go to hell, you can. The other day, one mad boy asked Me, “Mother, how do you go to Hell?" Nowadays they are planning in the other way, because they have failed this side... ascent, so they are trying to have a descent. I said, “You take two running jumps and you can go there." But for your ascent, you have to allow your Kuṇḍalinī to rise and break the Sahasrāra, or the break... the Brahmarandhra, the whole...

the Divine whole to the subtle... to the Divine power which is surrounding us.

We have taken this Divine power for granted. This is the power that pulsates in every atom. This is the power that transforms flowers into fruits, seeds into trees. This is the power that has made you human beings. This is the power that gives you children of your temperament, of your style, it sorts out. This is the power that controls exactly if there's a mango tree, you will get a mango and nothing else. The total living work is done by this power. Either there is this power, or the power of man who has made an atomic bomb, because he has tried to separate something that was done by this power. Even the destruction power that is assimilated there is the anger of this power. Man can only transform matter, which is dead.

He cannot do any living work.

This is the Divine power, which is the Holy Ghost; we start feeling on our fingers, as Cool Breeze. Is described in the Bible and described in many books, specially by Ādi Shañkarāchārya, he's called them as Saundarya Lahari, “The waves of beauty." The first thing is to feel that. Like you come in a dark room, you just put on the light and then you verify everything and see for yourself. It is very easy to say what is there in this Cool Breeze feeling. Have you felt it before? What is this? How it works? How it helps you? How you become the master of it, is the knowledge you have to have.

In this short time, I'm sorry, I won't be able to elaborately tell you all about these centers and all these, how to awaken them and what happens, because the time is rather short. In London, I must have given about six, seven hundred lectures and everywhere in the whole world, I don't know how many lectures.

When you get established in Sahaja Yoga, when you become absolutely master of this Divine power, as there are many now we have imported from outside France, then alone, you will be given all the further knowledge about it. That is first to be judged how far you are capable of handling this Divine power. But it works out in a very simple way.

For today we have two little children who are born realised. One is, I think about three years, two years, isn't she, Olympia? “One and three quarters." One and three quarters and another is, how much is she? About eight years or so. And the one who is not even talking, shows the finger which is burning, to denote the different centers by putting in the mouth. There are many children who are born like that in every country today. But how will you understand even those children, if you haven't got your Realisation? So, this time is the most important time and all human beings, all those who want their Realisation, should take it. And the rest of the people, who do not want to have it, can have their own way and then I'm not responsible. John's revelation, he has limited it so much. He says only 1,044,000, no, 144,000 people are going to be realised. Imagine what a limited number it is! Better enlist yourself fast! I hope today it will work out with all those who are here and you will feel very nice. But that does not mean that you should think now you have got Realisation, so you are now finished with it.

Like the other day in Rome, one journalist came and he felt. He said, “I've never expected this, I'm fantastically good and all that and vibrations I'm feeling, Cool Breeze I'm feeling" and then he never appeared on the scene. And he said that, “I'm enjoying my Self-realisation." It is very selfish, I think.

Just to enjoy for yourself. Imagine the light enjoying its own light and giving no light to others. Why to give enlightenment to any such selfish personality? He will lose all his vibrations, I can assure you and then he'll come back to Me, after one year and say, “Mother, I've got a headache here and my foot is like this and I met with an accident..." And those who were with him, now will go too far and maybe giving Realisation to so many people.

God has no interest in such wasters. Do you repair the lights which are never going to give light? God is the source of all the common sense and He's not going to do something to waste His energy on people who have no value for their own lives.

So, I tell you again, that you are important, very important creation of God as a human being. And in His compassion and love, He has decided to give you this emancipation, so that you enter into the kingdom of God and reside with His bliss. You are the most important than among all the evolved things and the grace is absolutely openly flowing. You don't have to confess anything, you don't have to feel guilty, you don't have to worry what you have done before, you don't have to pay, or jump, or do any mental or physical exercise, it works out.

But the transition from working it out and developing into its full scale is a dangerous place. Like a bird which halfway comes out of the egg and still is sticking on to everything that is dirty in the egg.

Here, one has to fearlessly, completely thrash out all that is misidentification and spread the wings into this new freedom. With complete confidence and understanding that your Creator is the Almighty and that you are in His domain and that He loves you.

May God bless you! If you have any questions, I would like to answer.... It's just a real comfortable seat. Gregoire, just listen. Why don't you come here? You come here Gregoire. You come... no you come! No, you have to come because you'll translate to Me, because I won't understand.

Gregoire: He has received an initiation and he would like to know whether he can receive an initiation from you and if one can have two Gurus at the same time.

Shri Mataji: Excuse Me. If you have really received the real initiation, you don't need another one.

That's a very good thing, I would like to go and meet your Guru if you are really realised. But supposing, if you have been to a wrong one, I'll have to really work very hard on you, I must say. Because supposing a train that is derailed, has to be brought back to the... And if you want to believe still in the same Guru, if he's wrong? If he's good... very well and good... If he's wrong and you want to continue, then I cannot pull you out, because, you see...

For example, a person who knows how to swim, I don't have to bother; he'll come on the shore. If he does not know how to swim, also is easier to pull him in the boat. But some crocodile is holding his foot and he's still wanting to have his foot in the mouth of the crocodile, then what am I to do? Then you have to give up the crocodile, because you can't see the crocodile, but I see the crocodile. And if I say you are the... that he is a crocodile, you may get angry with Me. But I'm only afraid that after some time you'll find sitting in his stomach. That's why despite even if you get angry, I'll have to tell you that this is not a correct Guru. If he's a correct Guru, I would love to go and meet him, I would be very happy.

Everybody who calls himself a Guru, is... I think... not a Guru at all. I've known people who have been to Gurus, who have been got... head of the academies and all that of these Gurus, are falling on the street with epilepsy.

So, we can't have darkness and light together. Because, I'm not a Guru, I'm your Mother. Actually, I want you to be your own Guru. But if you have a nice good Guru, who has given you initiation, in the sense that he's awakened your Kuṇḍalinī, it makes My life easier.

That we'll know in one minute, even a child can say. You see, some of these Gurus can give you blisters.

All, most of the cancer patients, are initiated by some sort of a thing like this, like black magic, or Gurus, or ESPs, or what you call them, mesmerism. ESP is extrasensory perceptions. You see, all this mesmerism and also what you call hypnosis, even hypnosis, even psychologist is unauthorized, it is all unauthorized behaviour. All these psychologists really need a psychologist like Me to cure them. I've been curing so many psychologists Myself.

One of them is Gregoire's friend who is a first class, first of Oxford University and Cambridge University, a Mister Rustom. `Jungian' too... now he's all right. He's not `Freudian'. `Freudians' are more difficult.

Now, any other question? For translation, tell him to say two sentences and then you can translate. It's like a lecture, not a question. All right? Uh. Ya! Decca.

First of all... [UNCLEAR].

Gregoire: He's very happy that you are against the fake Gurus and he thank you for this. And number two, I mean the main question is: he does not believe in human freedom, because he says we are not free to be born when you want and to die when we want and to have accidents when we want and these kind of things.

Shri Mataji: I'm talking of that freedom only, I believe in it and you can have it also, [UNCLEAR then would be how].

I'll give you an example: there was a lady, you see, there was a lady, this Algerian, was told she was going to die in one week's time, doctors said, everybody said... And she is not only living, she's not only living, but she's doing very well now, she's with her children and everything.

Why, our president of India, who came to London airport and they told that he's going to die, they had prepared for his funeral and everything in India. And I met him at the airport; you know that, in ten minutes he got cured and he went there, he walked on, everybody started seeing whether if he was coming or his ghost was walking down, it was like that. And he's still there, still there.

All right, then... about accidents, you see, this...

So many accidents one and 1,001. But I'll tell you one where the bus fell down, with the Chhaya pandit coming to see Me, about eighty feet, double rumbling and it stood on it's four wheels and the driver ran away with fear, you see, but somebody knew how to drive and the key was in there. They started the thing and they came out and not one person was hurt.

Actually, even if Sahaja Yogi wants to die, he cannot die. He'll be looked after by angels. Is a fact.

Tell him that, you see, all this could be a... stories to him, but all is a fact and you see for yourself, if I say so, why not have it? It's all free. He is honest because, at this point, you see Gregoire, he is honest because at this point what he says is true, because he's not free. But I'm talking of something that has to happen to you, all right? Gentleman: You said that you made a statement that there is a direct correlation between black magic and spiritualism and cancer.

Shri Mataji: I've seen that.

The gentleman [following]: Are any statistics available on that statement?

Shri Mataji: Yes, you see, what happen, whenever I treat a patient of cancer, now I have treated...

and all these people have treated. You see, what I find, there is a center in us, which is, what we call the left Swādhiṣhṭhāna. Is this center, where we feel the heat here, on this one... Left Swādhiṣhṭhāna is the, I didn't talk to you about centers, you see. This yellow coloured one, left Swādhiṣhṭhāna, you see on the left hand side, comes to people who indulge into unauthorized subconscious areas, you see? Who deal with unauthorized subconscious areas and invariably, every cancer patient who has come to Me, had the strongest of this center catching. With others on the left, more on the left, always.

So, that's why doctors cannot cure it.

Gregoire: May I translate, Mother?

Shri Mataji: All right, say it and further also, I will elaborate it, scientifically.

I'll tell you the scientific explanation, all right? Now, about six months or eight months back I saw a film of cancer experts on cancer. About how far they have reached, you see? What I've been talking for so many years, now they are talking about it. Now what they have photographed are the elements or, you can say, the things, the proteins, they call it protein 52, protein 58, they give the names as usual, doctors give only names, you see... they don't know what it is, so they call it protein 52, 58, something like that and 59 and these proteins, they are photographed even, which looks very funny, in their photographic thing. And they have seen that these things come and attack and trigger the cancer. And they come, they have said it, very clearly, all of them, they come from the area which is built within us since our creation.

So, it is from the collective subconscious. Now when you people do spiritualism, or these wrong Gurus and fake Gurus and all these people, what they do is, that, they somehow or other take you to your collective subconscious, where there are all that is dead. And there are viruses, means dead plants and dead animals and dead human beings. Mostly these Gurus use dead spirits. Even the mesmerism and ESP, all is that. Of course, some of the Gurus put you also through your ego, pampering on the right hand side, into supraconscious, on the right hand side into collective supraconscious and you develop other diseases because of that collective supraconscious. Like Hitler, would be there waiting for anybody to jump into, if you go to collective supraconscious.

So, it could be both ways, but mostly, a cancer is left-sided. It may start with the movement towards supraconscious, you may move to supraconscious, but as a momentum, you see, you might as a swing, go to the left too much, you see? So, it is an oscillation, but when that, it is settled, I mean when it is triggered, it is the left, of that I'm sure. But, you will see yourself, once you get Realisation you will immediately see. All this will be your own knowledge. Say, a person has cancer, say, of say. Viśhuddhi, of throat. Now, he must have right Viśhuddhi, left Viśhuddhi and... special... This one.

Now, this left Viśhuddhi, is coming from feeling guilty. It's very dangerous to feel guilty. Is absurd.

What guilt can you have? It is the ocean of love. Unnecessarily you are just imagining, like little children.

All right, are you satisfied, now? Gentleman: No.

Shri Mataji: Why? Because, no, you are not, no, no, no... I agree, you won't be satisfied, because you are not yet realised. Once you are realised, this is a thing to be experimented and seen, isn't it? Supposing I'm telling you the truth and the laws of Divine, you have to enter into that realm and see yourself, isn't it? Like a scientist.

Gentleman: I can accept that, but I still didn't get an answer to my question.

Gregoire: But may I just say, that we... there are some doctors in Sahaja Yoga, one of them is here and they have started... He was asking about statistics...

So simply statistics...

Shri Mataji: Ah! Ah. Ah. Ah... Yeah... yeah...

Gregoire: The answer of Mātājī has gone more away of your question, but they are now working out some basic data, but it's a process which has just started, so we cannot provide you statistics as such.

Shri Mataji: Statistics,... Yeah... yeah... yeah... But I, one thing I will tell you, Gregoire. You see, it's a headache, you know, to keep statistics. We are not going to do that, I'm telling you. I'm fed up, you see, we don't want to keep files of this, why should we? You see like... I'll tell you, I went to this Medical College, because I've cured people now and I cured the President, so they have to ask Me, how I did it, isn't it? He understands? And I told doctors all about sympathetic, parasympathetic and everything and they asked Me... for... then they sent Me... “How many people you have cured and give their names and this and that..." I said, “I do not know how to keep files. And it is disgraceful. That you give somebody out of your love and you record it, it's disgraceful, isn't it?" And for what to do? For why? Because, we are not here like doctors, mercenary...

No, we are not here to cure people. We are here to give you Realisation, but as a by-product people get cured. But we are not interested in curing people as patients in the hospital, not at all. Because what's the use of curing these useless people [UNCLEAR but Gregoire's translation indicated “if you cure these people, they are not interested in their spiritual Realisation."] There are most of them are useless people, I tell you. There was one [UNCLEAR] who met Me in that [UNCLEAR] six thousand people out of that got hold of Me, because he had angina. I said, “Well, all right, I am going away now to Pune” he came to... he was living in Pune, a very rich man and all that. I cured his angina. He got at least twenty-six people to Me. Then I cured all of them, then again they brought twenty each... and I was just exhausted for nothing at all.

So I told him, “Have you got any friend who is able-bodied, or are all of them like this?" So then he said, he arranged a very great program in Pune and he gave Realisation to many people [UNCLEAR].

So I told all these people there were, you yourself may get Realisation, become masters and doctors and cure your relations, why bother Me? I do not want to take any credit or discredit of that. I just want that you get all the knowledge and you do it yourself. Every time it happens, you see, one to five hundred, I decide I will not take anyone, but again something happens, they catch hold of Me, again you see this starts. Because I feel now that the person has suffered, but the person has no consideration at all. I cure him, he gathers the old people, fourteen people will fly out to, say, London, to get cured. That's what it is. They won't come for realisation.

What's the use having all such healthy people, so-called, if they are good for nothing for Sahaja Yoga, for God? At least you should never say you've been cured, because I've seen doctors might get after your life.

Better let them cook their own stew. But when the doctors have failed, they come to Me! [UNCLEAR] sitting down there. He had the same left Swādhiṣhṭhāna problem. He will tell you.

So why go to that extent, you better have it, now why worry about everybody else? Tomorrow you can talk to doctors. Yes, you can please them. You can become knowledge. All right? May God bless you!

Contents: 1982-05-03*, Public Program, Day 1, Paris, France

[French introduction by Gregoire. It starts with questions and answers.]... Seekers of truth. At the very outset, I would like to apologize, because I could not attend the session the other day. And also to apologize for this small hall which we could arrange. Please, forgive the organizers for this little hall which has put you to inconveniences.

I was very happy to hear your questions, which gives Me a little idea as to what you are seeking. Today, we are standing at a position in the history of time, where the Day of Resurrection has come. This time was to come, was prophesized. And that prophecy has to be fulfilled by someone. At the very outset, one has to understand what are we to seek and what is our resurrection.

This is the enlightenment, this is the Self-realisation, but... what is it? [UNCLEAR]. People may talk: “This is that, this is that, this is that..." Thank God in the modern times, people have logic. Now, if you see to the history of evolution, you will realise that evolution has taken in the awareness of person, or the seeker. And the higher was the evolution, the lesser was the modulation in the body and the outward side.

So, now, if there has to be the evolution, what it is going to be? In the awareness has to be seen.

Because whatever has happened to us, in our own evolution, we have achieved it in our awareness. For example, for us, it is a truth that it's a small hall. Because we can see with these eyes. In the same way, this is... the colour of this curtain is a fact for all of you, it's a truth. Because you all have eyes. Say, for a dog, to go trough a dirty lane is not difficult, but to a human being it's very difficult because he's aware of the filth.

Because in his evolution he has developed a nose which can smell filth.

So, to understand it fully, logically, is that something has to happen to your awareness. Now, on this point, there have been lots of confusions, on this point itself. The confusion comes, because we can think what we like. Rationality is that moves the way we want. Evolution is not a thing that we can achieve through our rationality.

We did not think of our evolution to be a human being, or a donkey, or a, say, a monkey did not think that he has to become a human being. He just became. Neither he... it had any concept of what he is going to be. Neither it had any capacity to concept... conceptualised. But human beings have that capacity. But that capacity could be imaginary, because human beings can go on imagining things.

So, the concept of anything that we have built up may not be true.

So, if we are honest seekers of truth, we have to face the truth as it is. One has to adore it and accept it and allow it to permeate. It may not be according to your concept. It may challenge your ego also. For example, a gentleman came and sat before Me and he started jumping like a frog.

So, he told Me, that he has read in a book, which is quiet authentic... even in modern times, that, when you get your Kuṇḍalinī awakening... you hop like a frog.

And I saw that book Myself and I was surprised that it's written in there. But, logically, are we going to become frogs now? What are we going to become logically? That is some new dimension has to come into our awareness. Many psychologists like Jung who were realised Souls have indicated that one will become, become, again the becoming is the point, collectively conscious.

Means something should happen to our consciousness. In which we become collectively conscious.

So, when this Kuṇḍalinī rises and pierces through the Sahasrāra and is established there, you start feeling a Cool Breeze in your hand. With this Cool Breeze, some people might think it's a psychological case... it's a psychology...

Something...

Some people can say...

Because human mind has a special capacity to escape the truth and accept the falsehood. That we have done before, but now you cannot miss it. Now, with this, as you have asked Me a very right question, that in the hand you see the same colours repeated that are on these centers. Now, these are showing that, on your hand... In the Bible it is said: “Your hands will speak." So, on your fingers... fingertips are these seven sympathetic nervous... sympathetic Chakras... one-two-three-four-five, six and seven... six and seven.

On the left and on the right. These are accepted by medical science that sympathetic nervous system reaches your left and right extremes... is accepted by medical science up to that point. These fingers, these hands then can tell you what centers are in trouble in you, as well as in others. For example, just now, in the whole audience that they are sitting here, they are mostly catching on this center. Call a child and call... the child will also put this finger in the mouth.

Sorry left Heart [GAP]... this is very common with the Western people. They sap their energy sitting down and cursing themselves for nothing at all. But Sahaja Yoga is the system or technique of Divine Love. And love that is the ocean... is the ocean of compassion... that washes off all these so-called specks of things that you think to be great sins.

So, while listening to Me, you should know that you should not feel guilty about anything whatsoever.

And be relaxed. Now, when you become collectively conscious, means your fingers, means your central nervous system, is showing the result of your Self-realisation. Means your conscious mind is aware of what has happened to you. Not only that you feel your own Chakras and the Chakras of others, but you get your own power to correct them, you own and others.

The powers starts flowing through your fingers to begin with or maybe begin with in some people from the head. And you can use that power for curing people of their centers. Centers... All the problems coming from the imbalances and the maladjustments of the elements that have made these centers. And to adjust them, to... and to put them right is a very easy thing for a person who has got this power just flowing through him.

Now, when you are a realised Soul, actually you are connected with your spirit. The spirit has its seat on top of your head. But it resides in human heart. In the heart organ itself. And when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, [She's] touches that subtle point, then the information goes to the Spirit and it starts manifesting through this connection its own existence in your central nervous system.

So, you start feeling this Cool Breeze. But Cool Breeze is not from the spirit. You get connected through the spirit and that is what is important. Because through the connection of the spirit... just like this is connected to the plug... in the same way, you get connected through your Kuṇḍalinī to the `plug'. And the plug is the spirit in a very gross way I would say.

Now look at that... he has written a big book on Sahaja Yoga...

So, the connection is established through Kuṇḍalinī, trough the... `Being' within us, which is collectively conscious, all the time. That is present all the time within us. It is conscious all the time aware, about our everything that we are doing.

..... Connection when it is established with the Divine, then that electricity, or that power we can call it, the power that is all-pervading, starts pulsating in the conscious mind. Now, we can say that, I... if I take the name of God if you are not disturbed, that God Almighty is the One whose power is separated from Him. And His power is the Shakti or the Ādi Shakti, or the Primordial Mother.

And the light of this power, the... covers all the universes, covers the minutest of atoms and molecules.

While God Almighty is like a witness and is watching the play of His power. As man is made in God's image, God Almighty is represented by the spirit in human heart. And its power, which is the representation of the Ādi Shakti or the Holy Ghost, is represented by the Kuṇḍalinī.

So, when the Kuṇḍalinī gets connected with the spirit, we start feeling the collective consciousness, because we get connected through the Kuṇḍalinī, to the collective being within us. And that's how we become collectively conscious. For example, say... this is the image of God... we can say, then Sadāśhiva, the God Almighty resides in the heart. And his power creates the whole universe.

Now, how does it create? First of all, He has to desire.

So, we have within us, the power of desire within us. Now, this power of desire is active without any effect. Visual effect. For example, if I desire to be the president of France... I won't... I do not become.

So, whatever we desire, does create an activity of a type, which is not apparent. But the activity that takes place, through our brain and through our physical efforts, is apparent. If we think that we want to, say... go to Mother's lecture, if we want, in the desire, you may, you may not.

But, if you come to the second type of activity, then you will have to think how you are going to do it.

So, you go to the future side and plan it out how to do it and you use your physical body for that as well. That's why we call it an activity that is as a... not inactivity, but you can say non-activity. I don't know in French.... And that is activity...

That is the past, for example, somebody is sitting and thinking about the past. Then what is the activity? The activity is of emotions and all that, but there is no production out of it.

So, the foremost thing is to desire. If God Almighty does not desire, nothing will be created.

So, out of that power of desire, the another power of creativity comes in. In our Sahaja Yoga language, we call the first power as Mahākālī power and the second as Mahāsaraswatī.

And the central one, we call it as the Mahālakṣhmī power. It is the power that manifests the parasympathetic nervous system within us. This is the power that gives us our evolution. By this power we sustain.

By this power, God has created... you can say, the chemical periodical laws to give them different quality of valence.

We can say at the lowest Chakra, below the Kuṇḍalinī, is the carbon atom, which started combining with others to form life. As it has got four valences, this one also has got four... This is the power that we have got from the Mother Earth, which is innocence. And the magnet within us is placed in this one.

Look at the animals, how they have got their magnetic fields properly adjusted and so well understood.

The birds, from long distances, cross... across to southern hemisphere and then back again with proper direction, because their magnets are intact and pure. Till' the animal stage, this magnet is quiet intact.

But, at the human stage, you are given freedom to do what you like with this center.

Because at the stage when you are a human being, when you [UNCLEAR have/are] raised your head at this center [Shri Mataji must be showing Viśhuddhi Chakra], you have to become independent and free people to decide. As soon as you raise your head like that, a new system starts growing into you from your right side, like this and covers up the whole area up to this. Because when human beings indulge into any activity, they develop a feeling that `I am doing it,' that is mister ego. Before that, there is only a growth of one side, a left side and that too very rudimentary in the human... uh... in the... in the animal stage.

So the ego goes on pressing on the superego too much and superego also develops then and that's how you get cut off from the mains.

That is how you become a shell and a separated personality, a free personality, to do what you like.

We can say like an egg. When the calcification takes place you become completely an egg of your own. It has to be an egg if you have to become a bird in a free world of God. Because evolution cannot go any further than this, unless and until the people who have to enter into the Kingdom of God, have to realise the value of freedom.

But the word freedom itself is again confused. If you are very ego-oriented, you think whatever you do is your right. Any kind of nonsensical things people do, they'll say: “What's wrong?" I had a disciple, who was twenty-six year old and he came one day, he's very good and intelligent boy and he was very sad. And he told Me that: “My mother who is forty-nine or so, or fifty years of age, has eloped with my friend who is twenty-two." So she came to Me, the mother and she said: “What's wrong?" The laws are so absurd, that she sold her house and the husband had to live in another house, she had to live in another house and she had three children who just became like prostitutes. Her own daughters. And they also came and told Me: “What's wrong?" With ego a person becomes absolutely unaware of the collectivity.

That means he becomes malignant, he becomes a cancer cell in the body of God Almighty... Malignant... The left-sided person is a person who start getting all kinds of conditions upon himself. They are another type of dead people. Because there is no wisdom in choosing your conditionings. Such people can be fanatics, could be mad people, could be hystericals.

The other day, I saw, some people in the bus; I was travelling with `Mary', who were just talking to themselves and they are all of the same style, like mad... I mean lunatic. Now, the nature has its own way of controlling and giving you balance. For example, if you are too much ego-oriented and only working out the right side, then what happens, that to replace the fat cells from your brain, the liver has to work very hard. The...

the Swādhiṣhṭhāna... is the Chakra... is the Swādhiṣhṭhāna...

When you go on planning everything, all plans go waste, no doubt. But apart from that, your brain also goes waste. Because you do not know what Divine plan is. You have to know the Divine plan, to fit into your planning.

So, whatever planning you do, can create problems not only for your liver, but also for all the organs which are important in the... in the abdominal area, because that has to be looked after by the same centers.

So, you develop diabetes, because your pancreas is out of care. You may develop blood cancer, because your spleen is out of care, you may develop kidney troubles and also high-blood pressure and you may also loose completely your memory at a young age, without knowing what's your name is.

So, this can happen to you, if you're right-sided. But still nature goes on giving you warnings by many ways. But, if you do not listen to the nature, then you get an attack on your heart. Because your attention is away from the spirit. And your spirit is in the heart, which gets angry and recedes. Now, see the balance, the heart is for emotions. Not for mental activities. But when you do mental activity, your heart goes out. But if you do your emotional activities like weeping, crying and becoming very sulking type and receding type, then your brain goes out.

..... which we can call as our break and our accelerator. Now, we have to use both of them, keeping ourselves in balance. Another great capacity of human beings is to go on the extremes. We cannot be one-sided in ordinary life... We cannot be one-sided in ordinary life. Supposing we have one leg, we can't stand for long time. A car cannot go on one wheel like this in an angle, does it? Even on the bicycle, you have to balance. This balance comes from wisdom that you have. And this wisdom tells you how much to listen to others and how much to yourself. Like today, I had somebody who gave Me a very good... a... good report of what happened to her. She was telling Me about the psychoanalysis, the madness of it. Which suggested that she has bad relations with her father or her mother, or some sort of a nonsense like that.

In her wisdom, she could understand that she has pure relationship with her parents and this is nonsensical, this [UNCLEAR is] some sort of pathological case they are describing. Like Freud was himself a psychopath. Himself died of cancer. Not only but he had relationship with his mother, such a perverse man he was. He did not know what chastity is, what purity is, what holiness is, what sublimity is.

If the psychologists are dealing with pathology, all the time, with pathological cases, they become pathological cases themselves. They have no way of protecting themselves. And these pathological cases, which are one in a billion, they make it a general rule for all of you and you accept them. You are created in your dignity and in your glory to become the spirit.

And while they want to reduce you to your a sex point and how on earth any man with self-respect can accept such a nonsense as that.

So, what is it that [UNCLEAR our] we go to the extremes in everything? Either we go to the right side, or to the left side. If you go to the right side, you can also become like an ascetic, a very dry personality, devoid of any feeling. Like husbands who are hard working, women who are hard working, can be very funny human beings.

Very strange things they can do. Because they have lost that balancing factor. In England, no I should say England then itself, statistically it is proved that two children are killed by parents. Children! And there the parents want to become vegetarians and save the animals and save the mosquitoes and save the bugs. They are sending money to Afghanistan and all those things, but they cannot look at their own children who are suffering.

So, these extreme behaviours on the left side can also create terrible problems. One of them is cult formation. Cult formation. This weakness comes to us from our heritage as animals. There is a kind of a phenomena called... there is a kind of a phenomena called mimickery [mimicry] that takes place among animals, so that they copy others and go along together. Now, if there is a very strong personality, like Hitler, then he can impress on people, by pampering their ego to begin with, that they are something `chosen' people.

[UNCLEAR For/But] Hitler also used the same methods that these false Gurus are using. He got help from these Lamas in Tibet, the parasites, who told them... who told him the secrets how to control human beings. Now, beyond this area of your subconscious, there lies the collective subconscious where all that is dead lies. Even the cancer, which I've seen has been there, because people have been driven into collective subconscious.

A person who gets cancer is always a left-sided person. The doctors have reached a certain conclusion about it. I saw a film the other day, where they showed some doctors experts on cancer, telling that the cancer is triggered by proteins which they named as `52-58', anything you can name, but they can't explain, which enter into the area of human consciousness.

And these proteins, according to them, are coming from the area which is built within us, since our creation, means collective subconscious, that... they don't know.

So, that's the sects are formed, because, say, you call some people and tell them you pay five pounds each. And become the member of this... not sect... but a very `enlightened' group. How can you pay for your enlightenment, it's a sensible thing to think of! But as soon as they pay five pounds, they become a club.

Then they have to go through all the rigorous imprisonment, because they have paid for it. They don't understand that this is a mass action that is going on. A...

Somebody will say: “Oh, I'm feeling very nice” another says: “I'm feeling very nice” “I am feeling very nice” and here the cancer is developing inside. But, what has happened to your awareness? What powers have you got? What have they given you? I may say anything about Myself, what does it take? For Indians specially, they tell lies morning till evening.

I've known Indians, if they don't tell thousand lies everyday, they won't eat their food. And they want to amass money and are trying to befool. But there is a subtler thing which is happening there: the white race tries to overpower the others by their right side. And tried to press them.

So, now the left side is attacking you. There are befooling you. I went to China with My husband and I told them that there are so many people who are become; now, drug addicts and they are just cured by Sahaja Yoga. They said: “Why do you do that? Why do you cure them? Because they gave us opium, for days together, we were under opium and they just killed all our essence and they ruled here and now, that's what they have to pay for their sins... let them have it." But for the Divine, whether it is East and West, it does not understand directions or skins. It's all stupidity going on among children. The only interest now Divine has, to give you emancipation and to take you into the Kingdom of God and nothing else. And for that, I have to counsel you, I have to give you comfort from your diseases and you are to be redeemed. That has to be done. Specially for you, those who are seekers, who are the epitome of creation.

They are the one's who are going to enter into the Kingdom of God, not these kings and all these [UNCLEAR philosophs]. They have no place the so-called rich and the so-called poor and the so-called quarrelsome people.

So, it is you who have to get enlightenment in the body of the Primordial Being.

So, that is how the sects are formed and in general I have told you I don't want to criticise...

You see, even when I am always surrounded by so many of you yogis, actually I am all alone, because I am like a big tree and you are the little flowers at the foot of the tree. Even if the big tree is surrounded by these little flowers, the big tree is alone.

Contents: 1982-05-05 Sahasrāra Pūjā, Opening the Primordial Sahasrāra, Ashram, Le Raincy (13 kms E of Paris), France

It is a great day for all of us, the seekers, that the last work of the Divine, of opening the last center in the Great Primordial Being, was done on the 5th of May 1970. It is the greatest event of all the spiritual happenings of the Universe. It was done with very great care and great adjustments.

It is not in the limits of human understanding, how things are worked in the heavens. It is your fortune and God's love that has worked out this wondrous miracle. Without this happening, there could not have been a possibility to give mass realisation to people. One could have done it for one or two persons here and there, but to give such a mass awakening could not have been possible.

As you know, in the Sahasrāra there are the seats of the seven main Chakras. There are 1,000 Nāḍīs or, as they call it, flames and they all have each 16,000 powers. Every Nāḍī deals with a particular type of a person and, with the permutations and combinations of all these Nāḍīs, human beings are looked after.

As soon as Sahasrāra was opened, the whole atmosphere was filled with tremendous Chaitanya [vibrations] and there was tremendous light in the sky and the whole thing came on this Earth as if a torrential rain or a waterfall, with such a tremendous force, as if I was unaware and got stupefied. The happening was so unexpected and so tremendous that I was stunned and I became completely silent at its grandeur. I saw the primordial Kuṇḍalinī rising like a big furnace and the furnace was very silent but burning appearance it had: as if you heat up some metal and it has many colours, in the same way, the Kuṇḍalinī showed up like a huge furnace, say of a, you can say, of a furnace which is like a tunnel, where you see these plants you have for coal burning to create electricity; and it stretched like a telescope one after another, it came out, shoot, shoot, shoot, like that. And the Deities came and sat on their seats, on their golden seats and then they lifted the whole of the head, like a big dome and opened it and then this torrential rain completely drenched Me and I started seeing all that and got lost into the joy. It was like an artist seeing its own creation fulfilled. I felt the joy of great fulfilment.

After coming out of that beautiful experience I looked around and I saw human beings so blind and I became absolutely silent. Then I desired that I should get the cups to fill this nectar but I saw all stones.

Sahasrāra is the most beautiful part of your being. It is a big lotus with one thousand petals of different colours appearing like inflated flames. It is a thing which is seen by many people but to see it pour that torrential rain was like these flames becoming a fountain, fountain of colours and of fragrance. Can you think of a flower pouring its colour and its fragrance around? People have written very little about Sahasrāra because whatever they have seen is from outside and it's not possible for them to go from inside. Even if you reach from inside, if the whole Sahasrāra is not opened out, you cannot see its beauty; because when it is closed, the whole of it, the total, then you just pass through a little aperture and get out of it. But just imagine a huge big petaled, thousand petaled lotus and you are sitting inside, in the corona and looking at all these petals, all very beautifully coloured and fragrant and pulsating with the bliss and the joy.

To remain into Sahasrāra, on that position, is the ideal situation. But then, after the silence, you are filled with tremendous compassion and love and you are drawn out to people who haven't yet known what is having eyes. And thus you try to put your attention to the Sahasrāra of millions of people and then you start seeing the problems that exist in the Sahasrāra. And even if you desire to open the Sahasrāra it is a very difficult thing because the channelizing from the Divine to human beings has to be through human beings. The power could be with you but it has to be channeled through human element.

All My life I had not known many realised Souls. How to get them? How to work it out? So I started looking out for people. And I met one old lady of 70 years and she was very perturbed about something very gross and when she came to Me she felt very peaceful. Her Sahasrāra was very worn out. And in My company she would think of something else, not of the Spirit. And her brain would be covered with clouds and darkness. Again and again I had to enlighten it but she did not get her realisation.

Most of the people who came to Me in the beginning came to Me for getting cured. This capacity I had from childhood. And I could also give realisation to [a] few people before, but they had to be very earnest, ārtha. I didn't meet anyone of that quality because I was not living in the forest, I was living as a normal human being among other normal human beings and they were not that earnest, that ārtha and I had to do this work among them.

How to talk to them about the real world that exists and the false [one] in which they live? And one lady, the first one who got realisation, just came to see Me because she was possessed with the idea of seeking, she thought and it worked in her. That was not the happiest day, because she's one of those who get individually realisation. With this great happening many should get at a time. We had a program in Bordi in '70 and there, first, one gentleman got realisation in the evening. Next day there were negative forces acting [in the] morning time and they started talking of favouritism. I could see in the atmosphere the vibrations were going wrong. In the evening I took up a very strong, firm attitude. I was in a great fury, I had never gone into such a fury before and I lashed all of them. Surprisingly, twelve of them got realisation, That was the greatest moment. Then many got, one by one. Three of them who were travelling back got realisation suddenly, in the train they felt the vibrations.

So the mass evolution started.

Sahasrāra is your awareness. When it is enlightened you get into the technique of the Divine. Now there are two techniques: the technique of the Divine and the technique that you follow. You cannot act as Divine, but you can use the Divine power and manoeuvre it. For example, Divine looks after all the Universal happenings. Every minutest particle is controlled by Divine. When your Sahasrāra opens out and your Kuṇḍalinī touches the Fontanelle bone, sort of a igniting force is ready in your Sahasrāra and as soon as the Fontanelle bone area opens up through the Brahmarandhra, the Grace of your Spirit ignites that igniting force and your Nāḍīs get enlightened. Not all of them, quite a lot of them; not all the length, but quite the peripheries. That's how you get your enlightenment.

So many things happen because, also, of your seven centers being in the Sahasrāra. With the light you see their relative positions. I mean you do not see, but it works in your conscious mind. Your conscious mind feels that integration within you. The rationality which is separated from the heart becomes one with the heart. It becomes one with your attention. Wherever your attention goes you act in a collective way. All the activities of your attention are blessed. The attention itself is effective.

Your attention is very important, your desires are even more important. Because it is such an integrated thing, your desires and your attention become one. Whatever is good for the Spirit you desire and your attention goes to the thing, whichever is emitting the Spiritual power. The priorities change very fast.

Those people who are primitive and not evolved may not find that happening but those who are over mentally developed, they actually have an attention which they try to test. They first want to see how to raise the Kuṇḍalinī. That want to see that it is logical.

For a balanced person there's no questioning at all, we have some people like that among us. They just became and they never questioned. They just settled down. They are innocent, they are intelligent, above all they are spiritual. But whatever may be the defect in the quality can be corrected through your Sahasrāra.

First of all you have to put down your ego because if ego is there it presses the Sahasrāra. Also the superego must be reduced because it also presses the Sahasrāra and gives pain.

So to keep the Sahasrāra in its healthy state one has to understand that the priorities are to be changed.

Some people take time, so they have to put some deliberate effort. There are many books, if you read them, they suggest anti-God activities. An enlightened Sahasrāra doesn't like it, it closes back. That's like a poison. It doesn't like any poisonous thought to come in the mind. If you go about with the poison then it again closes.

In the same way the people who are hot tempered, very much hot tempered and all other problems of the ego, if they try to suppress the Sahasrāra [then] also the Sahasrāra starts closing down. Those people who have had conditioning from wrong Gurus and wrong books, from wrong parents maybe, from a wrong country, from a wrong livelihood also do not allow the Sahasrāra to grow in it's healthy way.

It is only the Sahasrāra [that] has to grow, not the Spirit. The more sensitive the Sahasrāra is, the more it receives the Spiritual qualities of the Spirit. Actually the peace is felt in the Sahasrāra. The bliss is also felt in the Sahasrāra because that is the brain and the brain is the epitome of the nervous system, central nervous system, our consciousness itself.

So only, merely, by opening Sahasrāra, the work is not done. We have to have more and more channels who will act on these Nāḍīs with their different powers and who can work it out in a proper systematic manner. But those people who indulge into wasteful habits after realisation, obstruct the flow of the Nāḍīs and really are very harmful for the Virāta. Such people should really leave Sahaja Yoga and spare [us]. Or such people should be asked to leave and one should severe relations with such people who is standing against such a great work of the Divine.

The one who wants to develop on Sahasrāra should know that he should not have bad company, but always have the company of the other Sahaja Yogis. He should not have his own holidays and her own time, but most of the time he should spend in the company of other Sahaja Yogis. After the Sahasrāra, when you are above Sahasrāra then you can see that it is very important that all these Nāḍīs must be kept together. And all the centers and the Deities must be kept awakened and integrated. This can be done even with a conscious effort by watching yourself, your thoughts. You will start seeing your ego and your superego. If you are going to see how you cheat yourself and you are dishonest to yourself, how you are convincing yourself that you are very good, how you are enjoying a ego trip.

Sahaja Yoga is for people who are Spirits so all other things must drop out. All misidentifications must be dropped out. One can do it through conscious mind, as I said, that you can really correct yourself because after realisation whatever you desire becomes part of the Divine desire and whatever you do becomes a part of the Divine action.

So one has to remember that with conscious effort we can find out ourselves and see if we are really honest about it.

If one is honest one can see that collectivity is the only way to expand your Sahasrāra. For that tolerance is needed, wisdom is needed and a stature is needed of a prophet, which you are and you should talk like a prophet. Actually, you have to educate yourself. How does a prophet speaks? How does a prophet speak? This is not insincere or acting because now you are awakened. When you are not awakened then whatever you do like this is artificial.

Sahasrāra is the controlling, guiding, evolving force and so to keep it absolutely ready for growth and expansion one has to watch one's own growth. Never justify your wrongdoings. If you start justifying, you are actually thinking about that. We have no time to think about oneself. You have to think of others because others are also in your brain; and when you start thinking of others, talking to them about their resurrection, your Sahasrāra will definitely increase in its size and in its sensibility. The sensitivity will also increase, the depth will also come in. It is just like a tree, when it grows, its roots spread very strong.

So you have to come out of your shells and spread your wings. All small things of mind must be given up. You have to live like a very, huge, big personality which has to give support, guidance, help and awakening to thousands.

If this Sahasrāra Day in France, establishes a new dynamism in this country, I am sure that it will catch up with the thought of the people. It will resound into their brains, their unconscious will transmit it into their being and they will start thinking afresh. Now, new breakthroughs will take place and people will start going towards Truth logically. They'll come to right conclusions. They'll drop out all that is useless and wasteful.

Sahasrāra is the throne for the Spirit and the bigger is the king, the bigger is the throne. The way you treat your Spirit is expressed in through the way you have your Sahasrāra. As it is the seven Chakras are seated in the Sahasrāra, you become the master of all these seven Chakras and that's how you can do realisation, you can give realisation. And then you can become a subtle being. Through your conscious effort, you can enter the beings of others and raise their Kuṇḍalinī and correct them. Enlightenment of the Sahasrāra also gives you a new sight to see all the sukshmas, all the subtle things in the atmosphere.

When you start developing higher and higher, you can see the vibrations as lights around you.

You may not have any interest in many things but you'll be amazed how you become the master of so many things. As if your brain is materializing whatever you have been desiring. And this is what is Kṛiṣhṇa promised, who is actually the Virāta.

So you become the master of your brain because actually the Spirit [Jīvātmā] is master of the brain [Mastishk].

The more you start bringing Spirit into your attention, the more the Sahasrāra increases in its size.

And the light of that expands and you become [a] more powerful Sahaja Yogi. This is the greatest thing also for God Almighty to see that this has happened, so that He can, for the time being, postpone His anger and wrath; so that He can forgive human beings for their mistakes, their obstinacy and childish pranks.

Let the man rise to see the glory and the greatness of his Father. Let him have so much of power that he can bear the compassion of God. Let the Sahasrāra develop into such dimensions that it can execute the working of the Divine through his own conscious mind.

The Sahasrāra has one mantra, that is `Nirmalā', meaning: must keep it clean, pure and immaculate.

That is what is your job, is [to] try to keep it pure and clean. And this will definitely mark another step, another accelerated jump into a new dimension of many more human beings.

It is a very great pleasure to be in Paris today, so that the whole world attention should be on Paris, on France, on this country which is really being cursed; neglected by all the deities, because human beings really went very wrong.

Let all the Deities be settled down in this country because this is the attention and attention, whatever attention we pay, is reported to us through Sahasrāra.

So the Sahasrāra of France may be opened out, so the attention of France should be directed towards Spirit and towards the eternal life. Is [a] very important country, that's why I decided to have this day celebrated here. Now the responsibility on the French Sahaja Yogis is much greater. They have to change their methods and styles. They should be very mild, gentle and healthy people but at the same time they should be very strong Sahaja Yogis, so that when others see them [they] find that superiority in them.

Before the Sahasrāra day we have had such a successful session. I am very happy about you. May God bless you all.

Now I bless all the other centers, who have prayed and are praying; to give them a very developed Sahasrāra, an enlightened one, that will separate them from their small shells. Let them expand so much, that they become one with the whole.

May God bless you all.

Contents: 1982-05-11*, Public Program, Understanding the Love of God, Caxton Hall, London, UK

For the last so many lectures we have been saying that you cannot pay for God's Love. It makes Me laugh sometimes. Human beings can never understand His Love because they live in a very limited sphere.

His Love is unlimited. His forgiveness is unlimited. Even this word `unlimited' and `infinite' we do not understand because we have not known anything like that and to say that something is genuine is also like certifying something which is genuine. You don't need a certificate. Even that human beings do not understand.

We live with artificialities. We try to find the Truth. Again we accept artificiality as Truth. Again we go on fighting. Then we think this is the Truth. Again that turns out to be something, artificial thing or some sort of a mental projection.

All these limited endeavours of human beings and experiences they have made him so conditioned that it is not easy to understand God.

He made all this universe in His compassion and love. He created you also as human beings in His Love. He doesn't need anything. But He loves. And you can't understand a person who loves beyond any reason, without any reward, just love because love for love's sake.

We can't think of one human being like that who can love only for love's sake.

Only after realisation, as you grow more and more, you realise that loving gives is the greatest joy.

And then you cannot think of money in relation to Him, it's something you say, but I think even to say this “we don't need money" or “we don't take money” itself is so low level, it's so much gross. Because money and all these concepts are your own.

He didn't make this world to get any fruits out of it. Nothing. He just made it because He loved and He wanted just to express His Love. Just to manifest that Love, He made this world. There's nothing else expected and to put the human mind at that level is an impossibility, I find, in the beginning. But gradually they start understanding how forgiving He is, how kind He is, how nice He is.

So the first problem I have to face in the West, always, even in Paris this was the problem I faced, was that human beings feel guilty. And this guilt is such a big problem in the West, I just don't understand! You see, why to feel guilty so much and that is one of the hurdles of Sahaja Yoga, I have seen, that people start feeling guilty to such an extent that they don't believe that they can get realisation. They think they are sinners, born, outright, permanently branded as sinners and they can never get their realisation.

I mean just they brand themselves. It is beyond self pity also. I would say it's even self-destructive.

Today I have taken the subject of left Viśhuddhi, because I felt that I must one day speak on this subject “That this is absolutely not intelligible to God that you are guilty." For what? Guilty for what? If you ask yourself you say “Oh, we are guilty, because we crucified Christ." At the most. That is the maximum guilt a human being can say on his head.

“We crucified Christ, we tortured all the saints"; alright. But by being guilty what do you get? Do you get Him back? Can you go back and correct that situation? You cannot.

But harping upon that, you do get into your subconscious mind. You get into a position where you are no more normal to receive the love of God. You recede into a corner of your mind which is darkness, which is ignorance, which is blindness, where you cannot receive that beautiful ray, that eternal flow that is coming in. You hide your Self at the back and then you say “What about the sun? I cannot receive it, because I don't deserve it." Behind all this ego-orientation in the West, though I think I wish they were purely egoistical, they're not. All this ego recedes back into that little pouch, what we call the guilt. You say something to someone. It's not saying that point at that stage that “I've said it, all right, I've said it and I take the responsibility, it's good” not that. But you come back home and “Oh God, I should not have said that." So you wobble between one kind of action into another kind, from say, into an aggressive to the another one of a receding type. And this wobbling really is very very troublesome. It can go on too much, the oscillation could be so much that it can make you absolutely frantic, diffident and sometimes useless.

On the contrary, God wants to find human beings who are cheerful people, who are happy people, who are thankful to Him for His blessings. The most unhappy animal in this world is a human being.

Can you believe it! Animals don't know happiness and unhappiness, is also a good point. But the most unhappy human being and the most complicated human being has become so over self-destructive that a destruction force is built within himself. Now think of that force that has built you up into a human.

How with care and love, without your knowledge, without troubling you, even when you were born you never knew what was the pain of the birth, your mother took over., He has made you a human being, so carefully, delicately built you up. For what? What is the fruit of this beautiful flower? Why the flower starts eating itself? Have you ever heard of anyone like that? This is the worst disease with which we in the West suffer. French, yes. We had at least double the number of people that we have here today surprisingly. But all of them had the same problem and I think all their psychologists, psychoanalysts, we can say all books, all the writers, the philosophers, `everyone' has done to them. They have given these ideas and everybody accepts them; and they curse themselves morning till evening, walking with so many wrinkles on their forehead. And if you ask them they will say, “Mother, we are very unhappy people." Just like asking unhappiness to come and decorate you.

But it has a subtler meaning of which people are not aware. These are the times when you have to get your realisation, this mass realisation has to work out, is all prophesized., And these are `very' important times. All the stars are acting to help us. The whole universe is helping us. All the elements are helping us. We are on the stage. But when the actors arrive on the stage they are finished, they can't act, they can't do anything, they can't play their game. They are so involved with their different roles.

And that is why one has to understand the subtler effect of it, then only you will get rid of this guilt.

You are playing into the hands of negative forces. They are not less than any atomic bombs built within yourselves. Now what is the way it works out. I think people don't realise; it's a very subtle method.

Let's see, the atomic bomb, Hydrogen bomb, what do we do with that? They will separate something which should not be separated. We break atom, which is not divisible, into it's divisible parts.

So we put a pressure to break them and when that breaking force, that's aggression I would say, is worked out, that becomes another destructive force.

So whatever effort we have put into that, multiplies, it's not the same force and that we use for our destruction. I mean, this only human beings can do, to create things to destroy ourselves. But this force which works within our minds, within our selves within our being, where we actually really hate ourselves sometimes I feel, the way we are destroying ourselves. This force we build within ourselves, thanks to many nonsensical writers and conditioners and people who talk of conditioning, really condition you much worse. You should be singing and chirping like a bird, you should be laughing and enjoying like a flower. While you find human beings all looking so very unhappy. What's the reason? The reason is you are `separated' from your own being. The being that integrates you, you are completely disintegrated. When you disintegrate an hydrogen atom, you form a very big force built into it. In the same way you are disintegrating your being, your physical being on one side, your mental being on another side, your spiritual being on another side. There's no integrating part. And when you cannot feel that integration, you feel guilty, but that guilt is just a symptom of a very big destructive force built-in.

This is the way we are going to destroy ourselves. No other way. Our destruction is not going to come to us from outside, that can be controlled. It's going to come from within, within ourselves. Everything we do now after disintegration, is further disintegration, or further building up that negative force within ourselves.

But to integrate it, to make you feel complete integration with all your being, is only possible if you can somehow or other get to that integrating force which is still there and it's quite dim. That's the last chance, I would say, now, that has to be. The way the negative forces have set in motion, of which you may be not aware at all, you may not be aware, you don't know what darkness is there. And to fight it what one has to do is to bring in that light of the Spirit which integrates.

Darkness always disintegrates. For example, there is complete darkness, alright? I can't feel you. I don't know who you are, where you are sitting, we are all so separated, I can't see I don't know who the people are who are there, I would not know where is the window, where is the door. I will hold this and say this is the truth. All disintegrated personalities; and disintegrated people always see aberrations, they see different things, different auras, different things. Now it's a very vicious circle. Just think of it. It's a very great vicious circle we have. The vicious circle is, that we try to think about it, which is limited.

Supposing I have a limited vision, there's darkness, what will I feel? You start thinking about it and thinking about it, pondering over it. The more you think about it, the worse it becomes. Another way could be people may try to solve this problem; to think that we are disintegrated, is to talk of big things.

“We are all brothers and sisters, let's form UN council, let's do world organization." All blind people doing world organization will end up at the most as a labour... What you call, labour department. That's all.

With all these institutions working in the big name, where are we? Actually when we become aware, we don't need them. We don't need at all.

So this awareness is nothing but is the light of the Spirit within you which is missing. The Spirit is watching you alright. It goes up to a point. It sees your stupidity and your limitedness, and it goes up to a very great extent I should say and it's finished. It disappears and a person dies, or he gets into trouble. He becomes crazy, mad, whatever you call it. He develops other diseases like cancer, which are caused by another problem here, as you know of Ekādaśha.

So these forces are built within us of negativity, when we go to the extremes of negativity.

So in the Kuṇḍalinī Shāstra [Science] we can say that the left and right side when used too much, you build up these forces in the head, of eleven rudras, of the eleven destructive forces. A cancer patient develops it, but even before developing cancer, people can develop it. And there are `so many' things that can create this, that sometimes one would feel in this vicious circle, that how are you going to patch up the whole sky? And there's `only one' thing that will save the situation, is Selfrealisation. All other things are destroying, are absolutely confusing. But there is only `one' thing if you can do it saves the whole. Like putting on the light, finished. But people don't understand the importance of Self-realisation because some people ask Me, “What's the use of getting the Cool Breeze in the hands?" Now see the big canvas of the whole thing, the whole cosmos is in a jeopardy. See what's happening to human beings today and if they are to be saved no use being unhappy. Like in France they said “Mother, you cannot say you are a very happy person” I said, “Why?" “Because that means you are ignorant, of the shocks." You see I have to say I am very unhappy, you see! I had to paint some lines here to show that I am very `deeply' concerned, you know, `worried' about the whole world! But what is the solution have you got? You want Me to weep like you only? Is that the solution? That if ten people are weeping you also join them weeping. Is that the solution? And the `one and only' method that we have, which has been already told and prescribed and has been prophesized, nobody seeks it. No one seeks it. See now in the Bible. “You have to be born again, Christ is to be born in your heart." I mean, they do it, even before solving the whole drama they do it, of giving you second birth, by `Christening' you so-called. Hindus believe that without Yoga there is no sense, “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham" Kṛiṣhṇa has said, that all the time that you seek Yoga, what are you seeking? All these treatise and all the big books and all these scriptures are aiming at what? Even those who talk “you must live with Dharma, you must live balanced lives." For what? Why do we do it? What is the destination? And the destination is the Spirit. And today the background is so black and so dark that this solution is the end of everything. But do we realise this? On the contrary the vicious circle builds in within us. All the time, “Oh, see how the world is miserable.

How can I be happy. I am so unhappy in life." I have yet to come across a person before realisation saying that I am a happy person. May be ego-oriented people might say I am happy, meaning my ego is, you see if he goes in a smart car or something like that, he is very happy, on top of the world. After ten minutes you see him.

And this vicious circle is set in. This ego-oriented circle, or another [UNCLEAR word/one], is set in.

Another vicious circle and another vicious circle and another vicious circle, we go on from one to another, moving on the wheel after wheels without realizing from where we are going. And this vicious circle has to be broken by one faith, by one understanding that God is forgiveness, God is Love.

When we feel love for anyone, without any lust and greed, then that is God's Love within us, that he is the embodiment of that pure Love which just loves, which has given you this beautiful human life and wants to make you even more beautiful.

He created all this creation for you and that He wants you to enjoy the bounties of this creation. He wants you to enjoy the citizen of His Realm and the Kingdom of His Grace.

Do we go to see someone who is highly placed with a morose face? Do we? That they will specially brush our hair, see, make our hair into a beautiful thing, make our face nice, dress up well to look that we are well, see. That's outside. Inside, if you just feel how He is, how He has worked out meticulously this blissful life of a human being. But think how much He has done for us. Instead of that, if you are all the time to say, “I am very unhappy in life." I mean, think of someone who does everything for you and you just come back saying, “Oh, I am just a very unhappy person." What is he going to feel about? No gratitude. Count your blessings one by one. That's what one has to do, is to have complete understanding that He is God Almighty. He can do anything that He likes and we are the recipient of His Almight. He is the Ocean of Love and we are the recipient of His Love. Let us feel that within ourselves and understand logically with wisdom. If this sets into your mind, that's the best conditioning that I think human beings can have.

What you call in sanskrit the `suSaṁskāra', means the auspicious conditionings. You see we don't have only conditioning and ego, we have a third thing also called good conditioning. The conditionings that have ruined your chances of enjoyment, let it be brought round and see for yourself. Logically you can see how much He's done for you.

I mean, none of the animals were that comfortable, as you are, they don't know the idea of comfort, I mean they've never had even chairs to sit down. It's easy to say nice to be like animals, but just go and see the way they live, poor things. You know, even the King of the forest how he lives, one should go and see. But he's happy, he's full of joy. Oh, he has to kill an animal he'll kill it, with his dignity eat one or two days, finished. Then he lives for ten days without food. Whenever he feels hungry, he goes. He's not bothered. He doesn't feel guilty for killing anybody, he's hungry, he has to eat, he eats, finished. But human beings are, they will eat someone without the need and then feel guilty. This is the problem. He has made you in His own image. He has done everything beautifully. After realisation you start understanding your Self and enjoying your Self as you enjoy others. The fragrance of others you start enjoying. Self-realisation is the `only way' you can get the light in. Enlightenment. Everybody talks of enlightenment.

Enlightenment for some people is that you start jumping. Is it enlightenment to be abnormal like that? Or take out your clothes? I mean, just think how does it go into their brains. I can't understand.

That doing all these nonsensical things how can that be enlightenment? Or taking to alcohols, drinking, or drugs, or anything, how can it give your enlightenment? Has it given to anyone so far? It might to be some sort of funny strange experience you might get, but not enlightenment. In enlightenment you get integrated, you see your way through, you know where you are standing and how you are moving in relationship to others.

So the illogical method, I would say, unwise method, the way we deal with life, becomes a kind of a possession and we are possessed by that negative force which is eating us off. And we go on living with that idea, enjoying that idea that we are miserable people, or we are unhappy, we are helpless. I mean, I have seen people sitting on the streets and discussing, “Oh thank God! there are going to be eight stars coming in and we will all be destroyed." I mean, just imagine! But we have to think about the one who has created us. Is He waiting for your destruction? Will He be happy with that? How much are we cooperating with Him? With what care and love He's created us, with what hopes, whatever it is. What does He want to do for us, that we are sitting down feeling guilty. And now I have to tell openly, that it has come to you also through other vehicles, apart from the psychologists, psychoanalysts. Psychoanalysts! The other day we had a girl. She came to see Me. She is French, her English was wonderful. And she said “The psychologists, they made me mad." I said, “Why?" “They said I have bad relationship with my mother, bad relationship with my father, bad relationship with every third person. I don't have, I have absolutely pure relationship. They tried to put that idea into my head that there's something abnormal, pathological about me, which I'm not. And they are making my brother's relationship also funny by telling him that I have bad relations with him." This is it. She hit at the point of pure love. Disintegrate. You can't have good relationship with your own mother, with your own father, with your own sister, with your brother, nobody. Because you cannot love except that you are sex-points, you have just relationship of sex. Even animals have better relationships than we have, if you have to accept these psychologists and they take money to suggest all these nonsensical ideas into your head. There are some sitting here, I will face them later on. This is how they put in ideas into your heads that you are a person who has no purity and that you are a sinner, you are a damned person and any person you look upon you have only sex relationship, nothing else. I mean are we sex-points? With `all' this evolution God has made us into a sex-point, that's what we have done to ourselves. Reduced ourselves to that point only.

He has created you in your own glory and in your own dignity. He's not created you to be only wasted like this.

Then the second thing that disintegrates us very much more is the idea that we are here to live in a gross way.

Somehow fighting, political economic, all this nonsensical progress that we are making. And everything is explained, all destructive forces are explained in the name of political or economic growth.

I don't know if it is growth, or whatever it is, but definitely it is not love. Take it from Me. It is not love. That is why the economics of God is to be understood. Politics of God is to be understood. And for human beings to understand it they must have Self-realisation.

In His economics, generosity is the key note. He enjoys His generosity. Material things are to express your generosity, isn't it? What are they for? The most enjoyable thing is to `give' and when you give you will see your economic problems will be solved completely. Because you are here to give not take. No problems. The problems are because you want to grab. And once you start giving you get it as much as you want, because if there is no outlet, there is no joy, there is no happiness, there is no relief from the material domination on you. But giving is the way you can get rid of that material domination on your head that you give away. Give away everything that you have and you will be surprised how it flows. Now when I say it is fantastic the way it acts, fantastic the way it acts, I mean it's easy to sort of say that Mother is saying something which is something miraculous. But what do you think of Moses crossing the sea? You mean it was miraculous, or it was a false story, what do you think of it? It was absolutely true, that he did cross the sea, with the help of God, he could do it. What about Christ walking on the water? He did, because by His nature he did it. What about all the miracles that were done by these incarnations.

It's absolutely true. I am here to prove all of them. But you must get your Realisation. Not before that, I can't prove it. You must enter into that realm of awareness, otherwise I cannot prove it. It's true. The other day somebody was saying that Rāma is a fiction. I said, “How do you say?" He said “Because he looks like a fiction." I said, to human mind they cannot understand God, who has millions and millions of hands and eyes to work out his plan.

So naturally Rāma is a fiction Kṛiṣhṇa is a fiction, everybody is a fiction. Because we ourselves are fictions, I think. It's not that it is a fiction but we are `incapable' of grasping that is miraculous, which is Divine and that's why he just call it, “Oh! Yes." No. Everything is true. Believe Me, everything is true. Now Rāma's case let us take. Simple thing like Rāma's. Alright? Rāma is a fiction. Many of our Indians are very anglicized now very westernized.

So they want to say “we don't want to believe in all this fiction” so they become English you see. For them to become English is the last epitome, you see, the last word.

So we don't believe in Rāma nothing, you see, it's all our old style of thinking. But He exists and He is within us. Can be proved with your Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

A person who has got Asthma, catches on the right Heart. You have to take the name of Rāma to cure him, nothing else can cure him. It's simple. The Kuṇḍalinī stops here. Many people don't believe in Christ. “We don't believe in Christ." You don't believe in Christ, but under what circumstances? Why? Why don't you believe in Christ? “Because we don't think he existed. How can it be possible? We do not believe in Moses, we don't believe in Christ, we don't believe in anyone." Alright. Do you believe in yourself? Perhaps that is missing. Because the Self is not there. If you know your Self, you will believe in them.

Because when Kuṇḍalinī rises, at this point, you will be amazed, at this point whether you believe in Christ or not, at this point the Āgñyā Chakra, where you see the crossing of it, you have to say Lord's prayer. You have to take the name of Christ, otherwise Kuṇḍalinī doesn't rise. Now most of the people who are here, who are realised know this. It has been proved to them. In the Nābhī, in this Void if it is hanging, you have to take the name of Moses, whether you are jew or not or you are hater of Jews or whatever you may be, you have to take the name of Moses. The whole movement of the Kuṇḍalinī is to integrate all the truths which are treated as miraculous.

Some people think it's falsehood, is good for nothing, useless, all these things are proved by the movement of the Kuṇḍalinī in your central path. And the greatest and greatest thing that is proved is that God exists, not only exists but He is active, that he does `everything' for us, that it is He who is the truth and is His Power, the Brahma is the truth. The rest is all falsehood and nonsense. It works in all details, in small details also. Now Sahaja Yogis have seen the miracles of Sahaja Yoga. They cannot explain.

You cannot explain also. When you become realised you are surprised how you are helped, how you meet people, how you get to things, how things work out and how it works out so smoothly, you just can't imagine. Even to the smallest detail it can work out `beautifully'.

But you have to be establish your self in the kingdom of God, not with these fanatical ideas. Like you go to the catholic church and they say, “Now you must confess." I don't know where did they get this idea. I don't think that Christ would have ever said that you better go and confess to these priests who are even not realised Souls. What are they going to do by confession? And then the answer came to Me from a priest. I asked him. He is a nice man, he is a realised Soul now and he is working for Sahaja Yoga. But he told Me, “The reason is, in the Bible, it is written, that whatever is corrected on this earth will be corrected in the heaven, that's why you better correct it by telling to the priest." Now, by `any' logical means, do you think this priest can correct you telling them anything? Whatever is to be corrected on this earth is your Kuṇḍalinī and your Chakras. The language of the Bible has been, specially the Old Testament, has been extremely guarded. It was a security measure.

Like `The Tree of Life' is nothing but the Kuṇḍalinī which is enlightened. Absolutely it is that, it looks like that, like a tree.

The other day they were having a program, I think today only, My children showed Me, “Look, the Kuṇḍalinī." I went and saw. They were describing about Moses something perhaps and this was the tree of life they said. And My grandchildren said, “See the Kuṇḍalinī." The language used may be, for security measures may be, but not a word, if it not changed by human beings, is false. Human being can change also. That's a different point. But you can see, in Sahaja Yoga you can see what is changed, what is wrong, which is falsehood, you can see all these things.

So to disintegrate you, these things are again created in the name of religion so-called. I mean these people are here for God or for making you feel guilty? Like, say, Jews think that Christ was not a saviour. They are still waiting for two hundred years.

It's not true. He is the one without him you `cannot' raise the Kuṇḍalinī. One should understand that he is the Mahāviṣhṇu described.

But if I say something, that doesn't mean that you should believe Me, not at all, but you should see for yourself. Because if you are interested in the emancipation of the whole world, you should not get stuck on to one idea, stuck on to one thing and say, “This is the truth and this is the truth." No, see for yourself what is the truth and you will be amazed that they are all One. Like Christ has said, “Those who are not against me are with me." Who are they? Moses and Christ are one, which can be proved. Same in other religions.

So religion is another way to disintegrate you. You hate each other, fundamentalists fighting. For what? Fundamental difference, you know! Can you just imagine what is the fundamental of these religions? Is the Spirit, isn't it? Is there difference between the Spirit of one and another? Fundamentals are: “That God is one. He has created us." And what are you fighting about? Fundamental difference, you know fundamental difference! where there exists no difference at all.

So we have psychologists, we have `religious' leaders teaching us how to fight and hate God and you and fellow beings, in the name of God. This is another disintegrating thing that sets into us.

So you people who are thinking, should understand that anything that creates such limitation within us, any kind of fanaticism, is dangerous not only to you, but to the whole society and if you support it even this much you are supporting that destruction. With Sahaja Yoga we can establish this that anybody who is a fanatic has problems, suffers from many diseases which normal people don't. Then there are another type of people who say that “Alright, we don't believe in God, because how can God create this fanaticism." How can you blame God for fanaticism! I just can't understand. He never created it. Actually He never created any difference between you people, just a variety, just to make it look beautiful, that's all. See He didn't create England separately, this separately, to `that' extent the way you think. But he created them because they are different organs in the body of God. Do we take out an eye and say “This is an eye” so I do not have anything to do with it. Can we? It is like that! It's simple as that, it's so simple! The truth is so simple and so starkingly before you.

That we are doing all these things; fighting, quarreling, all the time within ourselves and without. Now for that, Self-realisation, God has placed this wonderful thing Kuṇḍalinī within us, very beautifully, in the best possible position. It could not be better anywhere. To create this happening within us, in our awareness, the Kuṇḍalinī has to rise and give us realisation. Now people ask questions to God also can be. They can say, “Why did He do it? Why didn't He make us wise to begin with?" There are many like that. He should have just made us wise, just from monkeys dipped into some wisdom powder and pushed us out, as `wise people living in the kingdom of God.' “Why didn't he do it in our evolution, why did he make us so stupid? One can say to God, you see, why did he create these problems?" But who are we to ask him questions? He does what He likes. But, there's a reason. If you have to enter into that `complete freedom' you must know how to be free. If you are just abandoned people, you have no sense of freedom you don't know how to be choosy about the good and the bad and you do not understand the value of your own wisdom, and if you are put in charge. Imagine some mad people put in charge of a government, what will happen? So you have to `grow' up to that point, to feel your freedom, that in your freedom you are righteous, in that freedom you are kind, in that freedom you are absolutely balanced. And where that happens to you, then only the higher freedom is given to you. Because that is `completely' free. And once that higher freedom comes into you, then you can feel the responsibility. The responsibility to be responsible for your freedom. To put this beautiful responsibility onto you, you have to know how to use your freedom.

This is only transition which has led all of us into this feeling-guilty business or this aggression, can you imagine? If you could have waited for a while without feeling so sick, I mean sometimes. I feel the people are going for a funeral, the way they look. Miserable. The rest are busy creating such people.

So there are only two types of people one sees, some who are being victims and some who are victimizing.

So to have the balance in the centre, to stand in the centre, God has created this little time where you have to just learn how to weigh your freedom. He gave you freedom to know. And this freedom is the only thing that has created all the problems you face, not God. God has not created any problems for you. No, He wanted to make a very smooth ascent. He has made your machine so beautifully.

Despite all this you do get your realisation, no doubt. But because of habits, you may run down again into it, again you may have an ascent, again go down. It happens with some people, doesn't matter. But if you are steady, it is going to work out. It has to work out. God has to save His creation. He has to do it. Only thing, how many are going to cooperate and take advantage of His compassion is to be seen.

That is the most important thing, how many are going to be `wise', to see to `their own' advantage, to their own ascent, is the only choice.

May God bless you.

Contents: 1982-05-13*, Public Program, Day 1, The Left Side: Problems of Subconscious, Christchurch House, Montpelier Road, Brighton, UK

[The first three minutes are without sound.] But as I told you there could be good conditionings. In the way, in the same way, you can have good habits and bad habits. If habits inhibit or obstruct your ascent, they also can help to stabilize you. The conditioning comes to you from the matter with which we are dealing every day. When a human being sees the matter, he aggresses it and he wants to use that matter for his own purpose. He changes the forms of the matter for his own purpose. He starts getting used to matter as comfort, or as a help or a guide in life.

The more you start depending on matter, the more your spontaneity is finished, because you're dealing with the dead. Matter, when it is dead, then only we deal with it. When it is living we are not so much bothered about it.

So the deadness of that matter settles within us when we start using that matter for our purpose. But how are we to otherwise exist? Is the question people can ask. If God has given us this material things and this matter to be used, are we not supposed to use them? And are we not supposed to enjoy them? But we don't enjoy. We... before Realisation you cannot enjoy any matter. You can only form a habit and may become a slave of that matter, before Realisation.

It's a principle of, fundamental principle of economics that wants in general are never satiable. Means today you want to buy something like a carpet. All right, you bought it.

So now that carpet becames a headache, because it's your possession, you have to look after it. You have to insure it, you have to worry about it that it doesn't get spoiled, first of all. And secondly you really get into another mood of buying something else. Now you have bought the carpet, finished. Then you have to have something else, then you have to have something else, then you have to have something else.

So it does not satiate you; it does not give you the joy. Matter can never give you joy. It's the Spirit that gives you joy. And when the ascent takes place, when you become the Spirit, then matter takes another value system within ourselves, the value system of matter is very different.

As I'm sure Jason must have told you that when you get your Realisation, then you start feeling the Cool Breeze in the hand. In relationship to matter it's very helpful to be a realised Soul, because immediately you know what is good for you and what is bad for you.

For example, you eat something that's not good for you. Immediately you'll lose your vibrations and will become hot. Even looking at it, it may happen. You want to sit on a chair on which somebody who is a very wrong type of a person has sat, immediately you'll feel, “Oh, something wrong in this place." With your vibrations, which is a definite thing, an absolute thing.

And this conditioning can only be over, these habits can be overcome only if you become the Spirit because Spirit is always dominated by the matter. And the Spirit has to overcome that domination of the matter.

Actually, Spirit cannot be dominated by anything. What I mean is that it is covered, like the sun can be covered with clouds. In the same way all our domination, or we can say all our enslavement of the matter, makes us dominate our Spirit in the sense that we cover it up. The clouds are there, we can't see the Spirit. We can't feel It. The spontaneity which is the beauty of the Spirit we do not feel, in a person.

So, in judging a person, what do we judge? How that person looks, what dress he's wearing, how he walks. What are his formal ways, does he know how to say `Thank you', `Sorry' or not. You see? All these things impress us very much. What sort of a car he has, what sort of a house he has. Maybe we may miss, we may miss a saint. We may miss Christ again because He was a carpenter's son. How are we to know who is Christ? Is there any way of finding out who is Christ? Many people are now talking “Christ is going to come, He's going to come on the television." You can put up anyone there as Christ. How are we going to make it out? By His dress or by some sort of a thing they have done? Most of the paintings of Christ and most of His statues that I've seen are no where near Christ, no where near Christ, you see. They are horrid things. I don't know what are they.

So how will you make it out that this is Christ or not? Or this is some sort of a hocus-pocus fellow or some sort of a person who has come just deliberately to delude us from reality. There is no way out, to find out what is the truth because we are so much used to material forms that we have. For example, our idea of art also is in the same way molded. We like this kind of art.

If you ask them, “Why?" “Because, you know, this has this kind of a thing, harmony." Or maybe, “This is more proportioned" and all that.

“But how do you know?" You know because you've read certain books or maybe that you have understood from somebody else that this is art, this is beautiful. I mean, you brand something as beautiful, but is it really? If it is beauty, it should be Spirit, because Spirit is beauty and beauty is Spirit.

So is it, is it beauty? How do you make out that this art is beautiful or not? For example, according to all normal ideas of womanhood, I don't think Mona Lisa is a beautiful woman. I mean, these days you see mosquito-like women are regarded as beautiful.

So how they call Mona Lisa so beautiful? What's going on? Thousands of people would be assembled to see that painting. Why? What is that? Only vibrations will tell you that it emits vibrations. It appeals to your Spirit without your knowledge. You're not aware of it. It appeals to your Spirit. That's why universally that painting is appreciated.

But when this conditioning becomes collective, any such conditioning becomes collective and you accept, “This is the form that is beauty; this is the form that is reality; this is the form that is spontaneity” then the confusion starts. The confusion starts at that point, when it becomes a collective thing. For example I met some people of some Gurus.

And I asked them, “What makes you think that your Guru is truthful, what has he given you?" He said, “Because sitting in my chair I just start jumping by myself. I don't do it but it happens, it's spontaneous." And in My presence, the way his body was moving was so horrifying. Anybody would have tremendous compassion and concern for such a person, that you can't sit for five minutes straight...

A woman in the audience: Excuse me, it wasn't spontaneous, it was nerve...

Shri Mataji: Yes, that's what I'm saying...

Lady: You're wrong in what You talk.

Shri Mataji: What? Lady: About everything.

Shri Mataji: From where do you come? Lady: Up the road.

Shri Mataji: That's it. Better go.

Lady: Don't worry. I am.

Shri Mataji: Look at that. She'll go to the pub now.

Must try to understand the subtleties, you see? If you are confirmed it what.

Now supposing somebody starts jumping in the thing. As she says it's true, nerves. That means you're not in control of your nerves, isn't it? Don't you think so? You're not in control. You have not controlled. Spontaneity is a thing which is not the thing that makes you a slave. This is the point I'm trying to bring. It doesn't; it makes you a master. Spontaneity must make you a master and not a slave of anything.

She must have come from TM because TM people jump like that. And they end up as epileptic people.

I have cured so many of them. I don't know if someone has come from there. Even the head of their academy in Scotland who, flying squad academy, as I call it, where people pay three thousand, now this gentleman sitting here is one of them who suffered. When they suffer then they know what it is. The other day we saw somebody with epilepsy of such frequency. The poor child, he was hardly twenty-six years of age, young man, supposed to enjoy his life, was going into such trauma, you can't imagine. And if this is happening to somebody going to a Guru, you paid for it, how can it be anywhere near Spirit? This is what I'm trying to tell you, that Spirit gives you spontaneity in which you are the master. You are the master of yourself, complete master, no enslavement of any kind, no habits formation coming. All habits drop out. You become so, so spontaneous that I don't have to tell you. You just drop out all habits and you become a master of your self.

That should happen to you. Instead of that, if you indulge into things which enslave you, you will like it for awhile because you can't help it. But, if you really sit down you will know that it's not the thing that you wanted. You wanted to be the master of your self.

Now here in this map as we show we have two powers, left and right powers. The left power is the power that gives us conditioning, left side, the subconscious, the collective subconscious. That gives us the conditioning. Now, if you try to deny all that, then the right side is even worse. It gives us action, but with action we can become very ego-oriented.

So both ways it can be troublesome.

Supposing you say that “All right, I'll have no conditioning from anytime. What's wrong in doing this? What's wrong in doing that?" And if you just move with that idea, with that freedom, it will be abandonment, it may not be freedom. Because freedom must have wisdom behind it.

So both the sides, the movements on both the sides are wrong.

So what is all right? In the center is not to get conditioned by anything and not to be ego-oriented.

But how to do it is the problem. The problem is how to do it. To be spontaneous is to be absolutely free.

Now I would consider these two powers as, say, a brake and an accelerator in a car. Now you use both the powers. You use the brake first, you use the accelerator. You try to control these two powers. But, first of all it is difficult to understand how you can use these powers. Gradually, with practice you'll do it.

You know how to drive the car, you become the good driver. After becoming the good driver, still you are not the master of the driving, but then you become the master.

So, today the master within us, within us is the Spirit. But before Realisation, you are not the master because the master has not come in our conscious mind. It is not expressing in our conscious mind. In the sense that we are not empowered by Its powers.

The Spirit exists; It has Its own powers. But we haven't felt those powers within us. Once we feel the powers of the Spirit, we are empowered by our own powers which are there. The powers are within us.

These are our own powers. We don't have to borrow from anyone, ask from anyone, they are in ourselves.

The Spirit is within us, only thing that Spirit has to bring light in our, in our consciousness. It has to come in our consciousness.

In simple medical terminology we can see, say that the Spirit must manifest Itself in our central nervous system, in our central nervous system so that we should know what we are doing. Not that we start just jumping on the chair, or some people said, “Oh you, we just start doing it." It is hypnosis. It's not correct.

You're not in conscious mind. You are doing it out of hypnosis. Hypnosis may be coming from outside force. It's not your force, your awareness, your understanding, your power. It is somebody else's because you're not doing it.

As matter has a power to overpower us, in the same way there are some material things, I should say, which are very dangerous, which are placed. For example now cancer, take cancer, cancer overpowers. It's a very serious thing. Cancer overpowers you; you cannot overpower cancer. Take a very concrete example.

Now how is it caused? Doctors say this way, that way. We, Sahaja Yoga can cure cancer, definitely a hundred percent it can cure, it has cured. Many Sahaj Yogis have cured cancer. How? Is very simple.

That you become master of yourself and you master the disease also, you master everything. Because the master is within you, it has not come in your conscious mind is the only link is left and when that happens Yoga takes place, union takes place.

We should now completely keep ourselves limited to Self-realisation, about God I'll tell next time.

Self-realisation means to bring your Spirit into your conscious mind. Now how cancer is caused? Let's see here what happens. It is caused by left-sided activity. Now left-sided activities are emotional traumas, emotional problems, emotional upheavals, emotional insecurities, any kind of insecurity can take you to the left side. Little more movement can be these horrible Gurus because they hypnotize you. They put you to the left. They put some spirit in you or I don't know what they do, but they put you to the left.

Any one of these activities which are not authorized by God, taken to, you go to the left side, because you cannot ascend in the center.

So either you go to the left or to the right.

When you over-do these things, like black magic, you have another thing here I've heard, some sort of a organization had and the fellow you see he used to, everything he saw moving in the house. He came to Sahaj Yoga and his water jug was moving there and this was moving there and he couldn't explain what was happening in his room. He was sitting down and he found something moving from here to here. It happens. What is that? What is that doing this kind of a thing which you cannot control. Again we come to the same point, something you cannot control.

So you enter into the realm, into the realm where you are controlled and you are not under your own control and that realm, when you enter in, I have always seen all the cancer patients are the ones affected by this. Most of them.

They're not aware; they do not know how they get into it. For a lady, supposing, say she's suffering from an insecurity about her husband or maybe something, or maybe she thinks that her husband may leave her any time. She loves him. Whatever it is, such a woman might get a breast cancer, because the insecurities set in, in one of the centers there which you can see here, the center of the Heart, center Heart, as we call it. Now if this center goes out of order, if a woman feels insecure for anything whatsoever, she's capable, she's vulnerable to be attacked and she can get into cancer.

So we have to understand life in totality and not in one way. The total impact of life, the total effect of life, the total relationship with life must be understood. Now no doctor knows this. Will he know, when he treats the patient for, say, breast cancer will he know that this lady is insecure? There's another disease, anorexia, many girls suffer from it. They don't just eat. They just give up eating. Now, you do not know why it happens. Doctors can't cure it; nobody can cure it. What is the reason? The relationship of a girl, of a daughter with the father. Say father dies and the daughter doesn't see the father, or in heart she loves the father but she doesn't express it, or there's some bad relationship that comes between the father and the daughter, you get this trouble, anorexia. You'll be amazed but it is impossible for doctors to get, we have some doctors sitting here, it is impossible for any medical science to go near it. Because we do not see a human being in its totality. It's a very delicate instrument God has created. The way we are harsh with others, the way we sometimes try to trouble others, try to make others feel insecure or unfair, unjust. Without our knowledge we really give them a tremendous insecurity and such insecurities can work out incurable diseases of which we are not aware.

So to understand the totality, what should happen to us? We should achieve that state where we can see the totality. Like if I have to see now, for example, the whole of Brighton, what should I do? I should go on a plane and see it from that height. I can see the whole. In the same way in your awareness, in your understanding, you should rise to that point from where you can see the whole. If you cannot see the whole, the partial vision, or we can say, a little that you see can create confusion, can create problems and some of them could be of a very, very serious nature. Because as human beings, we do not know what are we. This is the greatest problem of human beings, that they'll say, “I don't like it." Now which one is this `I?' Is that your Spirit, or is that your ego? What is the part that is not liking it? Or is it your conditioning, because you're brought up in a particular way so you don't like this? Which part of you is not liking it? And you'd be amazed that it is not your Spirit because if Spirit likes, how will you know? It's only through your vibrations.

When you can feel the vibrations, then only you will say, “Yes, my Spirit likes it” because the vibrations have emitted.

So we are still in a transition state as human beings. We have not achieved that state which is called as the state of Self-realisation where you become the Spirit, the becoming is the point. Where you become the Spirit you know what you like. You really know what you really like, because you are now the reality, you are not any conditioning, you are no more an ego, but you are what you are really and that is your Spirit.

And, surprisingly this Spirit is a collective being. Is no artificial collectivity within us. That also “All right, we belong to all Brighton so we are one" or “We belong to one street so we are one." It's not like that, but is something that you are, absolutely you are a collective being and you start feeling that collectivity within you with these different centers working it out. And you can feel it, others, you can feel others on your finger tips. Can you believe? In the Bible it's written that your hands will speak. The description of these days is that your hands will speak. Why not people go and find out how does it happen? How can your hands speak? This is what happens that on your finger tips you start feeling and understanding what is reality, what is beauty, what is joy, what is love.

This is the left side which we get and ultimately with this left side problems we get physical pain. It's very painful to have left-sided problems, it's very, very painful. The pain cannot be explained, no one can understand, nobody can cure it, you can't tell anyone and people think that you are fussing, they give you psychological treatment, you just don't understand why this pain is within you. And this pain comes to you from left side, the subconscious.

But beyond the subconscious is the collective subconscious and this collective subconscious is the one where whatever is created from the beginning up to today in the creation is within. And once you go to the subconscious, you just get lost there. You are so overpowered by this power of subconscious that it is beyond you to understand it, beyond you to get out of it and beyond you to, not to succumb to it. And it goes on increasing.

Like I asked some people, “Why did you go on doing it when you knew that you were not doing it, somebody else was doing it? Still why did you continue to do it?" They said, “Mother, we were under the blanket, it was darkness, we didn't know where we were moving and were just going on and on and on." And as I told you last time, feeling guilty is the biggest blockade. Is the biggest blockade because once you start feeling guilty that this center on the left gets blocked and the, it's very difficult. And you don't know why you are feeling guilty. All the time you're feeling guilty but you don't know why you're feeling guilty, why these ideas of guilt are coming to you, that this feeling of guilt keeps you away from joy, from enjoying anything, from being spontaneous. Why? And this explains why we sometimes are miserable for nothing at all. Actually, God has not created us to be miserable. He has made us so beautifully, so carefully. He has created us with such love and compassion, not to make us feel miserable, not for anything. He doesn't give us any diseases, no problems. But we have done these things to ourselves by going to extremes on the left or the right. As I am today talking about only on the left, I would say that to feel miserable for nothing at all is also wrong, is being unjust to yourself.

The people who are left-sided must know that they are the Spirit, that they are that beauty which has to come, which has to express itself. That they are not the people who have to suffer all the time and to live like miserable people. They are not. But because they take so much upon themselves, bear so much upon themselves, they become like that. And to avoid that bearing up they may take to some other habits, you see. Many people take to alcohol also for reason because they can't bear the pangs of life, they can't bear it. That's why they take to it... but once the Spirit is awakened within you, you become so strong.

You become so joyous, so spontaneous that all these things drop out, all those things, so-called diseases, so-called habits, just drop out and you become a new, blooming personality.

Now the basics of having this center within you, you can blame God for that, “Why did He give us these centers on the left hand side, what was the need? He should not have given these left-sided ones, so we would have been just in the center to go." But the trouble is the human beings have to know in their own freedom, how to deal with themselves. They have to learn little hard way the wisdom. They have to learn by going to extremes they have suffered. They have to realise it because if they have to become truly, absolutely free they have to rise in their wisdom. If they're not wise people, then they cannot enter into the Kingdom of God, because they'll be abandoned people. Say, people who are abandoned, who don't understand any laws or regulations, if you get them in England, we'll have to put them in jail.

In the same way, human beings who have not got that wisdom within themselves, through sufferings only one learns, but we should not ask for suffering. When we ask for sufferings, we are asking actually for mistakes to begin with. How will you suffer if you do not commit mistakes? So, when we ask for sufferings we are committing mistakes.

So what we should ask for is nothing but our Spirit and if you ask for your Spirit, it is your own and you have to get it. It is in your own right that you're going to get it.

It's no way that I'm obliging you or doing something special for you. It's all there. You are like a light which is just to be enlightened because I'm an enlightened light and you become an enlightened light, you can enlighten other lights also. It's very simple. If you become an enlightened light, you can enlighten others. You don't have to bother about anything else then. You become an enlightened light yourself, that's the point. It is all there, it is all your own, you have to just have it. It is as simple as that, there is nothing very complicated as these people make it or anything that these philosophers have put before you, nothing of the kind. It's very simple, it is within you, it is spontaneous, it is a living process as in living process you have become human beings, you are going to become super human beings.

It's absolutely spontaneous, you can't pay for it. How can you pay? I mean, absurd it is! If it is a living process, how can you pay? How much do you pay to the tree to grow up? I mean in anything living, do we pay anything? How much do we pay our nose to breathe? Can we pay for it? It's absurd, it's ridiculous.

We cannot pay for it, we cannot, it's a living process, you have to become, an egg has to become a chick.

Now how much do you pay an egg to become a chick, or how much does the egg pay to the mother for becoming a chicken? It's that ridiculous, but we never understand that living things are so spontaneous.

We never see living things, we live with matter, we live with the dead, not with the living things. If you start watching a tree, you start watching a flower, how it becomes a fruit. You can't even watch because it does it so slowly, you can't even watch a flower becoming a fruit. Suddenly you find all coming up. Like when I came to London from India I found all the trees were bare, absolutely like dry sticks, absolutely like dry sticks. Within a week, what I find is the green coming up; and within second week it was all lush, you can't believe it.

We never even notice, we take it for granted. It's happening. How does it happen? It's a miraculous thing. If you see it, it's miraculous how these flowers, for example the particular flowers are only on a particular tree and others, another, are on another tree. How does it happen? Who chooses them? Who puts them in proper shape? Who organizes all that? And this is what one has to realise and that is the All-pervading Power of God that does all the living work. And once you become that, the Spirit, then this power starts flowing through you. You feel the power through you as Christ was touched and He said some power has gone to someone, like that. You just become a medium of that power flowing. But you are empowered to manoeuvre it, to manage it, to understand it. You know completely about it, you know how to give it, you know to how to work it out, you know how to cure others, cure yourself. You know the complete working of your machinery. Apart from that, you get the powers to overcome all the problems of your own machinery also. It's so fantastic. Whole thing sounds very fantastic because we have never seen this before. But to us it doesn't sound fantastic when we see all these flowers suddenly turning into fruits. It doesn't sound. But we see human beings turning into fruits, then it sounds very fantastic, “How can that be?" It has never happened before. Only one person would get Realisation and it was such a difficult thing and nobody got it. How is it today? I say it is the blossom time which is been promised which is been already prophesized. Even a great poet in your country, William Blake, has prophesized it. He said these times will come when men of God will become prophets and these prophets will have power to make other prophets. I mean nobody could be more precise than Blake, I tell you. He was so great to say this will happen and this is what we have to expect when we go to anybody for seeking. Have we become prophets? And what is a prophet? Prophet is a person who is a collective being and who knows all about it, who is the master. We call prophet a master. And that's what you have to become, the master. And that mastery is very simple because it's all built within you, just it has to be connected. Like, anything like a television set is to be connected to the mains, it's all built in, it's there, it just starts working. In the same way, you are that, you are that. Just it is to be connected. Whatever may be your caste, community, race, nationality, shapes, heights, anything, whatever you may be, makes no difference because all of you have got this great thing within you, this power of a rebirth and you are to be born again and you will be born again. Why not today? There's nothing to get angry, because people get angry sometimes because they don't like anybody telling them about something which of which they themselves are feeling bad. They don't like it. For example if there's a drunkard and he drinks too much, he's an alcoholic, he doesn't like it and he feels bad and if somebody tells him, even in the most gentlest way that “You'd better give up drinking” he doesn't like it. But what I am saying is not that you should not do it, I said it will happen that it just drops out. I don't say, `You don't do this' or `Don't do that' but it just happens. And you must first understand what is the problem and how the problem is overcome. That's why I have to talk, otherwise there's no need to talk about it all, it just works out, it just works out because you are just ready to have it and you just get it. I don't do anything. I'm just a catalyst, I should say that it works out.

I hope you'll ask Me some questions about it first, before we go in for any Realisation. If you have any questions, please ask. You must ask.

Yes? Gentleman: Is there any difference to what You are saying and what Guru Mahārāji...

Shri Mataji: Who? Gentleman: Guru Mahārāji.

Shri Mataji: Now, I'll tell you one thing. When you talk about any Guru I don't want to go into any controversies. All right? That's first thing I'll tell you, but I will tell you to ask yourself or ask anyone, “What has he done for anyone?" Has he been able to give you any power, or anyone the power? All right? Now, I can tell you all these who are here who are realised Souls who are here. They are just like you to look at. Of course from face you can make out that they're very relaxed and very happy people. But they can cure people, they can give Realisation to people, they understand everything that is wrong with you and with themselves, also.

So what has he done to your awareness? Nothing. Now, his disciples, what have they achieved? You ask them, “Where is the Kuṇḍalinī of this person? What is the problem of this lady or what is weighing upon her mind?" They won't be able to say. If you cannot even make out what's wrong with another person or with yourself, how are you going to help? All such people, what do they do? Let us see.

Simple thing is that they can mesmerize you. You may feel happy for awhile, it's just like drinking. You know, if you drink, you feel happy. But, by drinking, what have we achieved? Have we become masters? All of them are like that. You see and this gentleman is so obviously because he asked for Rolls-Royce.

What is a Rolls-Royce for a prophet? I mean what does it matter? You see My point? This is so obvious, I mean this is so logically obvious. First of all, anybody who takes money from you is a parasite, simple as that. And to ask for Rolls-Royce of all the things, you see.

You have got Christ. You can see from Christ's life, will He care for your Rolls-Royces? To such a person, He's a King, He doesn't bother whether He has a Rolls-Royce or not, whether He sleeps on the ground or not, makes no difference. Such a person doesn't care for anything, because He is in comfort, He's got His own comfort. He is a man of self-respect. Do you think He would ask for anything whatsoever? I mean it's so obvious, for you people it is so obvious.

But when I talk to some people of this Guru, the particular one you are telling Me, they said, “Mother, we give him the metal and he gives the Spirit." Can there be an exchange? Can you purchase your Spirit? Use your logic, all right? God has given us brains to understand, logically we can use that. Can you purchase, can you purchase the Spirit? Isn't it so simple? You cannot pay for it, My child, you cannot.

If you want to give Me a flower, all right. It's just an expression of your love and that's all. But you can't purchase Me. You can't. Your love can purchase Me, all right, that's different. But you can't purchase Me with metal and money, can you? What is a Rolls-Royce? I mean I don't know what are all these crowns and things. What are they good for? They don't give you joy. Go and ask the people who wear the crowns.

The other day I was with Mrs. Thatcher. Poor thing, she was so miserable. Yes, she was! You know I tried to sort of put her down, her vibrations. She was very miserable.

We were just across the table talking to each other. And what I was doing was to balance her, poor thing, she was very, she's very upset.

So, you must understand, you are too simple people, you are seekers of ancient times. You are not seekers of today, you are seekers of ancient times. And this time has been promised to you before, also.

And now you have to find it. Now you must keep your logic straight forward. I mean anybody who asks for Rolls-Royce, I mean this is one of the stark examples I would say, cannot be any Guru. It's the starkest one, absolutely one of the... But there are subtler ones. He's not so subtle. You will get out of it in no time, I know, all of you. But the subtler ones are even worse.

Some of them may not even ask for money.

May not. I don't know of any, but there may be some because I heard about someone who doesn't now take money, in India. He has made money here and now he's gone to India and he doesn't take money from them. But the one who has really not taken money, one person whom I know, has been using women. He's not interested in money part, he's using your women. You see so this is what it is, you must understand.

His interest is not in your Spirit, but in your purse or in your women. Imagine. How can holiness be combined with these dirty habits of people? That means they themselves are under the control of their desires which are anti-God. These are all anti-God activities.

And you people being so simple hearted, I tell you, you're so simple hearted! If you tell an Indian that a Guru takes a Rolls-Royce, he said, “Eh." Immediately they'll answer.

They don't want this kind. How can they? Nobody will give to any Guru in India. Gurus have to pay people sometimes. First to entice them. Westernized Indians, it's different; but those who are real Indians you see they are. People live with the mothers and they know what is what. You know? Nobody can befool them, they're very practical people.

Yes, My child? Lady: [Asks a question about faith.]

Shri Mataji: The faith is two types, what we call in Sanskrit is Śhraddhā is different from what you call as faith. In English they use it as `blind faith' and another as `faith'. All right? We can make it like that. Now, the blind faith is this, that “I have got faith in God and God will heal me." This is one faith.

All right? Another is a faith which is enlightened where I say you are the Spirit when you are connected.

Now, if you say that “I have faith in God” you shouldn't feel hurt when I tell you the truth, all right? Because if it is a blind faith means that you are not yet connected with the power. Not connected. See, now supposing I start saying, “Christ, Christ, Christ, Christ!" Christ is not in My pocket. I can't even meet a prime minister or a queen without having a protocol or a connection or some sort of a, you see, position or, we can say, a authority. Isn't it? Now when we talk of anyone like that, some people go on saying, “Rāma, Rāma, Rāma. Kṛiṣhṇa, Kṛiṣhṇa." You see These are all Incarnations and Christ is the Son of God, He is the Son of a King and you just can't meet Him. You can't just call Him. He's not at your beck and call, He's not your servant. All right? Now to having faith like that when you are not connected, if you are healed, you are healed by some other agencies, not by Christ. But if you are a realised Soul and then you are healed, then it is done by Christ.

I'll tell you a difference, a very clear-cut difference of healing. We have in England, we had, I don't know now if you have that one, it's an organization called a International Curative Center of Late Doctor Lang. Now this Doctor Lang was dead, I mean he was late [laughter] but he had a curative center. You see and this gentleman died and he possessed a man in Vietnam, a soldier, not his own son but a soldier.

Now this soldier was told by this fellow, I mean, they're very honest people, being English, they are honest and they tell the truth, you see. They don't say that `we do it through God' or anything.

So he told that there are many doctors, I hope the doctors won't mind, who have died and who were very ambitious are still wanting to cure people. And he should “Go back to my son and tell him all the story that I've come in you and my son will believe." So he said, “How will he believe me?" He said, “No, no. I will tell you some secrets which only he and me, both of us share.

So he'll definitely believe you." So this fellow agreed. He was a very healthy fellow, actually this spirit entered into him when got into a sudden shock, something he saw which shocked him in the war and this spirit entered. And he was carried by that spirit somehow or other to England where he met his son and he told the whole story. And the son had to believe because he knew so many secrets. And they started this curative center.

Now how do I come to know of late Mister Lang is the thing. They cured a lady who was in India, long time back it was 1970 I'm telling you and she came to see Me and she was all shaking, nervous, she's like this.

I said, “What's this?" She said, “I was sick with a certain disease and I was afraid of an operation and I came to know about this organization, I wrote to them and they wrote to me saying that `At this time on this date we'll enter into your body.' " Openly, I mean they don't say that “We are God" or anything.

“We'll enter into your body and you'll feel a little shaking, doesn't matter and you'll sleep off and we'll work it out." And she said, “I got cured of that disease." But after three years or so, the whole body started shaking and she couldn't bear it anymore and she came to see Me. That's how I came to know about Doctor Lang, you see, that he had, this poor lady was tortured for three years, she suffered so much and then she came to see Me.

So after Mister Lang entered into her body, Doctor Lang, it was after six years that she came to see Me because three years she was all right and after three years it started. And that's how I came to know all the spirits that had entered into her, the doctors and all that. It was a horrible case. Of course she got cured later on, no doubt. Because when you become the Spirit, you are in your fort, nobody can enter into your body. You become something which doesn't get contaminated, doesn't get over powered, nobody can dominate. And that's how she got cured.

So with faith, if somebody says, “Oh, you will be healed" you see [snaps Her fingers] and they start shouting and screaming and this and that and suddenly you might feel, maybe there's a spirit. They replace also sometimes these spirits, it's very surprising. They can replace a spirit from one to another.

I've seen such cases also. All kinds of things I have seen in spirits.

The other day, only about eight days back, wasn't that, Marie, when this charismatic fellow came in? Eight days back in France a gentleman came in. Young fellow, must be about twenty-four or so, he got into such a big agitation and started crying and funny type of a thing that I've never seen a spirit enter into him. Whole body was shaking. And I mean he fell down, he started crying, weeping, all sorts of things happened.

And he said that “I went to charismatic movement where I got it." And then they get it and they think Holy Ghost has entered into them. Now just imagine. How can Holy Ghost make you miserable? I don't know from where these ideas come in. And poor child, you know, he suffered so much. Now he's all right.

But he couldn't believe it that you could be all right because he thought... and then they say, “These are your sins and you have to get over your sins and this is why you are, what's happening to you, you still have done bad Karmas” and this and that. But your bad Karmas and all those things can be solved when the Kuṇḍalinī rises. There is a center for this specially which is really being adorned by Jesus Christ here.

[Shri Mataji asks a Sahaja Yogi:] Did you tell them, about this center? All right.

So this is the center and when the Kuṇḍalinī passes through that, that's why they say that you have to pass through it. He gets awakened and when He gets awakened all these two pouches you see there of ego and superego, your conditioning and all your left-sided problems and right-sided problems are sucked in. That's why they said that He died for our sins.

He's described in the ancient Indian scriptures as Mahāviṣhṇu but you see very, the missionaries went to India they gave a very wrong picture of Christ, absolutely wrong picture, so they were still expecting Mahāviṣhṇu to come in. And this is what it is. He's supposed to be, according to missionaries, Somebody Who sort of converts people and all that nonsense. See? It's not the real thing, that He is to be awakened within you. He said that. He said, “I have to be born within you." And that is what it is. When Kuṇḍalinī rises, She awakens that center within us and all our conditionings and egos are sucked in, a space is created here in the fontanelle bone area through which the Kuṇḍalinī comes in and you can feel the Cool Breeze from your head coming out. That's what it is and you feel it in your hands. It's not just that you're mad after someone, you see? It isn't like that. It's not that way, you see, nothing of that kind. You become a self-respecting, normal, dignified personality of great spiritual value which you are. All right? So this is what faith is and what is blind faith is.

Yes, My child? Gentleman: It seems very difficult the concept that Self-realisation doesn't involve some personal effort.

Can it really come to anybody in effect of how materialistic they are? Am I understanding this?

Shri Mataji: Yes, it appears on the face of it very difficult and how people are materialistic is also true no doubt, but Spirit is much stronger than the matter and when It has to express, It completely crushes all that and It comes. Now we have here, most of you are English people, I should say, westernized, very materialistic people they are there. I should say I mean living in that world, they may not have been that materialistic because if they are not seekers, they would not come to Me. But a new being has been born.

If you look at an egg you feel, “Oh, what a hard stuff is this!" But if it is broken at the right moment, with the right understanding, it becomes a bird. Because a living process is all, only the last breakthrough has to take place. Apparently it looks difficult, but to Me it is not. Perhaps I know the job. All right? Yes, it looks... many people have said all kinds of things about Kuṇḍalinī, also. I must say some books I have seen have horrified. You see if you don't know the job, everything, supposing if somebody else doesn't know how to drive a car, you see and he gets into the car the way he'd describe it would be horrifying. You'd never get near a car, isn't it? It's like that. The one who is not authorized and does not know the job should not do it. But that's what happens to you, that you become the Spirit, you become your own master and you become the master of this art, the master of this art.

Yes, My child? Lady: You mentioned hypnosis earlier and You also said that You regarded Yourself as a catalyst and don't You think that the hypnotist also regards himself as a catalyst?

Shri Mataji: Yes, Yes no doubt.

Yes, yes that's true, but the difference is this, that the hypnotist brings you under his power, he doesn't give you any power or no dimension to your awareness, you see? There's a tremendous difference between the two. You see, you have got your own power within you. Say, for example, all right, your Spirit there.

Now I'm a catalyst, you see, you can use a spoon for giving a poison or could use it for giving a nectar, all right? So if you give the nectar, then it's a great thing; and if you give the poison, it's horrible. It's like that. Now the hypnotist uses hypnosis, how does he hypnotize is the point. What he does is to push you into your subconscious, into your collective subconscious where he overpowers you. You are under his power. He says, “You become like a child” you become like a child. “You suck a little bottle” you do it.

What's all this? But here you become the Spirit in the sense that you become collectively conscious. It's no hypnosis because you, yourself, can feel it.

Now, say example you take ten children who are realised Souls. There are some children who are realised Souls, even little children. And you take them near a person who is suffering from some trouble, all right? Now you tie up their eyes and ask them, “What's the problem of this gentleman?" They will raise the same fingers, all of them will raise the same fingers and say, “This is burning” because the sensation you feel, of burning of numbness or of Cool Breeze, a new awareness of a vibratory nature is born within you. Not with hypnosis, on the contrary, after hypnosis you feel so tired and finished as if somebody has been riding your horse. It's just the other way around. And you start growing into you and understanding, you can cure people you understand what are the centers that are catching, you understand what are the centers of another person that are catching.

In the beginning sometimes people have confusion, I have seen, that they don't know “whether these are my centers or your centers." Now we have ways and methods by which you can discriminate. You can see which are your centers catching and which are the centers the other person catching. You also know how to get them all right, you also know how to give Realisation to others and to empower them with their own powers. It's just the opposite. But catalyst could be horrifying and catalyst could be just heavenly.

Gentleman: Can some people Self-realise themselves with their own effort?

Shri Mataji: With their own effort? I don't think it's possible, you see, because like a light which is enlightened can only enlighten another light. But what I'm saying, that even supposing like Buddha, you see, He got His Realisation when He was absolutely tired and He had to have it. Of course the Holy Ghost did that. He could not have done it on Him, but He got the Realisation there because it was a different circumstance which He had to live, He didn't have to talk about God, He didn't have to talk about the whole thing, because people were so much engaged in talking of big things like God and about all kind of deities, this, that, there was a big confusion. And somebody was to be realised at that time who would just localise it and say, “Only Self-realisation, don't talk of God or anything, forget it." That's why He got Realisation like that. But you cannot get Realisation just like that, only possession you can get. You cannot.

Somebody who is an enlightened soul, such an enlightened soul doesn't take money from you. Normally, you see, people don't want to give you Realisation, ninety-nine percent of those who are really realised, they'll throw stones at you, they won't have anything to do because their experiences of human beings are horrifying. If you go and talk to them, they'll tell Me, they told Me that “Wait for twelve years.

See, Mother, they will all finish You off, they'll kill You, they'll do this." It's very venturesome to deal with human beings because they'll be very egoistical and they will never accept you. But if you take like this, like somebody who knows is a help, isn't it? And Realisation is not possible, is not possible to be done by yourself. It's not possible, because if a, say, a candle which is not enlightened wants to get itself enlightened, the light has to be brought, isn't it? It's so simple like that. But one should not feel bad about it, actually.

See, I don't know how to drive, somebody drove Me down here. I didn't feel bad that he had to drive Me down, did I? And I only know one job. I don't know many. Many jobs I don't know, I don't know how to operate bank, I don't know how to write a check, I'm hopeless in many things. I don't know how to open a can, maybe. But I know how to open the Kuṇḍalinī. All right? So if I know one job, why should you mind? After all, we depend on each other for everything, isn't it? So why not, if I know the job, what's the harm? And you will know, too. You will know, too. But it cannot be done by yourself. But actually in this you're not obliged for anything.

I just do it because I love it. It's just emits, I don't do anyway, I'm just flowing, I don't know how it happens, just it's flowing. I just love for love's sake. You can't believe such a person can exist, but I do really, I am like that.

Sometimes you might even, some of the Sahaja Yogis do feel that I'm too compassionate and that I should be rather strict with people and things like that, you see. They come and tell Me some wisdom about it. [Laughter.] You see they think I'm not so practical, but this is the most practical thing.

Yes, I know they make mistakes because they don't know they are walking in darkness. If you are walking in darkness, you will bang at something. Then only thing you can do is to have compassion for them because they can't see, they are blind. Isn't it? How can you have any anger or temper? And moreover, I would request you not to have any misidentification with anyone whatsoever. You have to get to your Spirit, that's the main thing. If you still think of somebody, you see, like the lady, I don't know, somebody might have sent her here, maybe. I don't know why she got angry. I didn't say anything to hurt her. Maybe she's possessed. I don't know why she has got angry with Me and she just got up and just walked off saying that “You're telling everything lies." Why should I tell you lies? I don't have to get anything out of you. But why it happens? Because she's not sensitive, she's not sensitive to Divinity. She doesn't understand who's Divine, who's... I don't blame her. She hasn't got the sensitivity.

It's a calibre. I have seen Sahaja Yogis now of different varieties have come to Me.

Some of them are of such a calibre you can't even believe. They get into Realisation, they know what it is, they have the pattern just like a diamond, they get it and they get to it. They're tremendous people. There are some who slog behind.

Some of them who get Realisation but still they go on doubting. All kinds. Doesn't matter. I love all of them.

Yes, My child? Gentleman: If before Realisation we were such a horrible person that we gave cancer to everybody we met or something like this, after Realisation does the effects of that get taken away, or what happens?

Shri Mataji: Yah. I know it, so many things have happened. We had somebody in Brighton, you remember, he's here right now, I think, who was drunk when he came in. He was very angry with Me, you see, to begin with. He said, “How can I get rid of this trouble? I can't believe You” and all that.

And he's all right, perfectly all right. His change is so beautiful, you can't... is he there? [Laughter].

He's so sweet now. The other day he came to see Me. I said, “Look at that. He's so sweet." He was a very sweet man, wasn't he? But something had put him up, made him upset, you see, that he became alcoholic, you see. He's all right. The compassion can only make you understand that there's a reason for this, He is a very sweet person, very sweet person no doubt. But something had gone wrong with him.

It's all right.

So this happens, it's true.

Sahaja Yogis realise this.

Some, of course, I must say, go little bit. Doesn't matter. They'll come up, all of them will come, I'm sure of it. Everyone is made for it. Actually, the Divine is anxious to give you Realisation, much more, much more anxious than you are. If there were thousand people today, I would have given them Realisation better. But very few people take to reality, you see now. That Guru Mahārāji, thousands are like mad after him, isn't it? He's given nothing to the poor people. But for reality, there are very few.

Like other day somebody asked Me a question, “Mother, why don't You do it to everyone?" I said, “Where are they, everyone?" They are busy. Where are they? In this Brighton, how many there are? How many are here? All right? That's the problem. It takes time for people to love reality. Time.

It's such a beautiful thing. And even they get realised, then they drop out, you see.

They say, “Oh, I'm all right now. I'm all right." After one year they'll appear. That's not the way.

You have to master this art, absolutely master it. It is all free, absolutely free. Now they are all sitting down here, they can say that.

Gentleman: Would You talk a bit more about Self-realisation and what's necessary to enhance that.

Shri Mataji: Yes, Yes, I will be in My next lecture, one by one. Now I'm talking the left side, the right side and then the center and then also, of course, about the Spirit. Definitely, hundred times, that's what I have to do. But gradually I have to build you up. All right? I will definitely. You won't believe, I think I have given five hundred lectures already in London, at least. And it doesn't end. Every time, they say last time I spoke they said, “Mother it was absolutely a new dimension You talked about” you see. I don't know, Kerry told Me first time he touched his vibrations so much with My lecture I don't know what I touched him so much. Yes, it's surprising. He's from Australia. Australians do well. Very fast work.

So, all the questions are over now? Should we have it? Gentleman: What are Karmas?

Shri Mataji: Karmas are when you do any work or anything with your right side action then the effects of that accumulate within you as an ego because you think you are doing it. Actually, we don't do anything substantial. What we do is a dead work like as I said we make a chair out of a dead, a tree.

That's all we do. What work we do is an idea we have we are doing work. What work are you doing? Can you convert this into a fruit? We can't even put fragrance into it.

So this myth, you see, works as ego within us as shown here, which I will be speaking tomorrow about, all right? And this is what is that we think we are doing this work, that work and this ego thinks that if you have done bad work or good work we have to suffer.

You see, a tiger doesn't feel that way. If tiger has to eat, it must kill. It kills the animal, eats it, finished. It doesn't sit down and sulk, “Oh, God, I shouldn't have done it. I should become vegetarian." [Laughter.] It doesn't accumulate any, any, any Karmas in it, all right? But we human beings do. Why? Because we are closed. We are closed. See here, we are closed. They are open. Whatever they do, they are not bothered. But we are bothered about what we do because we think we do. And when, as I said, this center is opened out He sucks our Karmas and the so-called Karmas are nothing but sins, you see, in a biblical language we can call it as sin, you see. And they're all sucked in by this powerful Deity of Christ awakened within us.

And you get beyond it because it is the ego that does the Karma. When your ego is finished, where are the Karmas? They are finished, too. Then you don't say, “I did it." What you will say, “Mother, it's not working out. It's not going up." Now what is this `it', it becomes a third person. “It's flowing. The vibrations not coming." You see, you don't say, `I, I am doing this Realisation. I am raising the Kun[dalini]...', they don't say so. They say, “It's not rising." You become a third person. That third person is the Spirit. Where you do not say that `I should do it.' Even if it's your son, you say, “Mother, it's better he gets Realisation." All right. You'll see. Try it. It didn't work out? All right, then should I give a certificate? He said, “How can You give certificate, Mother, how can anybody, Kuṇḍalinī has not risen." Everyone knows, you see, whether it's your father, mother, sister, anyone, if they're not realised, they know they're not realised, so what.

They just know. This granddaughter of Mine, who was... she's here now, she is a born realised and she was hardly about five years of age, I think, when they went to Ladakh. There was one lama sitting with a shaved head and all that, wearing and all that. Everybody was touching his feet and the parents also not realised, My daughter is not realised, so she also touched his feet.

She couldn't bear it anymore now, it was too much for her. She was sitting in a higher block, she went, put her hands back and looked at him, you see, told him.

She says, “What do you mean by asking everybody to touch your feet? You're not a even a realised Soul. By wearing this dress of yours and shaving your head you think you can ask people to touch your feet?" Little child of five years, yet she understands.

We had once a program in India when they invited Me as a chief guest and for this [UNCLEAR Rāmanmash], she was a realised Soul; and one gentleman from Ramkrishna ashram from the head of that was sitting with his big orange robe, you see, sitting there. And My, another granddaughter, she was sitting in the front row. She couldn't bear him anymore so she shouted from there, “Mother, the one whose wearing a maxi dress, Grandmother, please ask him to get out, he's giving heat to all of us." So you see, there were many Sahaj Yogis who were feeling the heat from this fellow and he thinks he's a very spiritual man. She said, “Ask him to go, he's wearing a maxi." She didn't understand it was a robe or thing. Even children know who are realised Souls and who are not, if they are born realised. There are many children who are born realised these days. The time of judgment, this is the time of judgment. Of course about this I'll tell you later.

Gentleman: Do You mind if I ask You a few questions?

Shri Mataji: It's all right, I don't mind. But what happens, if you ask too many questions sometimes it becomes mental activity and may delay further Realisation sometimes, so I would advice you, if it is not so important, better keep it out because, you see, answering the question is only on mental level. I'm talking something much beyond, you see.

So, it is something logically if you have understood Me, all right, let's have it. If it will work out, work out. If it will not work out, doesn't matter. I'm here for three-four days and we are going to work it out. All right? So it's better to keep your mind at rest. Tell the mind, “You have asked many questions before, you have thought of many things, now the time for you to receive the blessings of your own being." All right? If you tell your mind, it will rest. It's a, it's a wonderful thing mind is. If the mind knows what you want and if it is the reality, it supports you and helps you very much. The same mind which can go astray, you see, it's like sometimes I say it's like a donkey, like Christ used donkey just to suggest the mind that if you allow it to go astray it will take you to all kinds of things, but if you control it, it takes you there where you have to go. You just make him keep quiet. It's better to keep quiet at mind level. And that's why I answered your questions because later on when the Kuṇḍalinī's rising, at that time, the mind should not stand up, isn't it, to say that “I haven't asked this question." That's why. Just to soothe it, there's no need, but, just to soothe it down, I do it. All right? So best thing is to get your Realisation is the best thing, otherwise this mind is quite a disturbing stuff. It can come at the right time when you are going to achieve your last breakthrough, it may stop.

All right? So if you have any immediate question by which you are really oppressed then you must ask Me. But if it is not so important, just give up. Is it very important? Then it's all right. He has realised.

Now, I have to just request you for one thing if you don't mind, we have to take out our shoes, because the Mother Earth helps us a lot, you see? So we have to take Her help in every way possible. Just to keep your feet on the ground, it helps a lot. You need not take out your socks, but it helps a lot to put your feet on the ground as they are and just to put your hands like this because, as I told you, that this is all sympathetic centers, as he must have told you also, you feel the flow in here moving without... I mean it moves, but you don't feel it so much till you get your Realisation. Just put your hands like this and close your eyes.

You have to keep your eyes closed. This is the opposite of hypnosis. Just keep your eyes closed because when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, She dilates your pupil. When She dilates your pupil, then little bit there's a difference in the vision for second, split of second. But, if your eyes are open It won't rise, It won't rise at all.

So keep your eyes closed, absolutely closed.

Now the first thing as it is, we have always seen it happen, is that this guilt business is coming from something unknown, so better to put your right hand on the left side of your neck and left hand towards Me, without opening your eyes. Left hand towards Me. Left hand towards Me. With the palm upwards.

Left. Yes, like that and you should say that `Mother, I'm not guilty.' That is very important because this is a very big obstruction. Just say, `Mother, I'm not guilty.' Seekers: Mother, I'm not guilty.

Shri Mataji: Again, please.

Seekers: Mother, I'm not guilty.

Shri Mataji: Again, please.

Seekers: Mother, I'm not guilty.

Shri Mataji: Now we can put the same hand on the other side of the whole back, neck. This is very important center is, I'll talk about it later on, the way I'm doing it, if you want you can see yourself. The way I'm doing it, left hand towards Me and right hand on the back, on the complete vertebrae at the neck, the base of the neck, you see. This is a very important center about which I'll tell you. Yes, that's how.

Try to press it and put your head back. Little bit.

Now you put this right hand at the heart level, little higher and press with your fingers. Left hand towards Me, all through.

Now you have to say, `Mother, I am the Spirit' thrice.

Seekers: Mother, I am the Spirit. Mother, I am the Spirit. Mother, I am the Spirit.

Shri Mataji: Now, same right hand, you push it down on your stomach, on the left hand side. And now you say, `Mother, I am my own Guru, I am my own master.' Just say that.

Seekers: Mother, I am my own Guru. Mother I am my own master.

Shri Mataji: Again.

Seekers: Mother, I am my own Guru. Mother I am my own master.

Shri Mataji: Five times. Again.

Seekers: Mother, I am my own Guru. Mother I am my own master.

Shri Mataji: That will do. Now if you put your right hand on top of your head, on top. Not touching it, little on top slowly, [Aside to a woman in the audience:] Are you feeling? [Aside to a Sahaja Yogi:] She'll see.

[Aside to the woman:] Are you having problem? Lady: Yes, I've got...

Shri Mataji: Oh I see, just put your right hand towards Me...

[Aside to a Sahaja Yogi:] you need not, she'll work it out. Yes. I'll put it right. All right? Just, yes, like this, it will work out.

All right. Now you might feel the Cool Breeze coming out of your head from the fontanelle bone area where it is soft. Cool Breeze. First the hot might come in. But you have to ask for Realisation because I can't cross your freedom, you see? This is your freedom whether you want to be Self-realised or not.

So you have to say, `Mother, please give me my Realisation.' You have to ask for it. Just has to ask. Just ask for it.

Seekers: Mother, please give me my Realisation.

Shri Mataji: Again, please.

Seekers: Mother, please give me my Realisation.

Shri Mataji: Again, please.

Seekers: Mother, please give me my Realisation.

Shri Mataji: Now just feel it. Are you feeling it on top of your head? Umm.

Contents: 1982-05-14*, Public Program, Day 2, Advice on Right Side, You Must Become the Spirit, Brighton Pavilion, Brighton, UK

Shri Mataji: Oh, I would suggest that first let them ask questions today.

So I keep Myself there... If you have any questions, it's better to ask Me first.

So that your mind is at rest. I'm glad to stand... better to see people better. Am I better here or on the ground? Now, first of all it's better to ask the questions because yesterday when we started this question session people got little deviated. It's better to ask questions now, what you have, because you are all seekers.

You are all seekers and you have been seeking so is best is to ask questions now so I'll be able to put the answer in between My lecture.

No questions? That means Sahaja Yogis have become quite capable of explaining Sahaja Yoga and I'm very proud of them. When I went to Australia the newspaper people asked Me, “Mother, are all Your disciples scholars?" I said, “No, they are very common people. They have to be very common and normal people." But they said, “The way they know things, surprisingly we feel they are all scholars." I said, “All scholarship is within yourself." All the knowledge is within yourself. If you only can get light there, you can see all that knowledge is within you. You don't have to go anywhere for your knowledge.

It's all inside, everything is built in. You are built in so beautifully to become your Spirit that I don't have to do much about it. It just works out. Only thing is that one has to know what we should expect; to be the Spirit, what should be our expectation. And that also logically you must understand. It should be a logical conclusion. Not just because I say something, because you have become a member of some group, because you have paid money somewhere. It's not that way. Reality is what it is. And logically it has to be reality.

The other day I told you about the left side, about the past, about the subconscious, about the collective subconscious and the problems of the subconscious and the conditionings we get from material things, from matter. Matter is always trying to overpower the Spirit. And this matter is overpowering us because we come from matter to begin with. But how does the Spirit come out of it? What happens that we become the Spirit? People have talked about Self-realisation.

So many people have talked about second birth. Everyone has said that you are to be born again. There are many people who go about saying, “I'm twice born” self certified. You can find all kinds of people in this world, who are knowing that something has to happen, some breakthrough has to take place, something we have to seek. Imagine at the time of Christ there were not so many people who were seeking, nobody could talk to the disciples also much. They were just ordinary fishermen, very simple people. But today is the time when you find so many of seekers all over the world. Seeking what? What are you seeking? The seeking is of your Spirit. Now this is also a very vague term to say you are seeking your Spirit. Now what is this Spirit supposed to be? And why should we seek this Spirit? In our evolution we are human beings, our awareness is that of human beings and this awareness of human beings is not the ultimate. If it was we would not have been seeking. It's not the end of it.

We have to reach at a point where something more has to happen. Now how do we approach the subject logically? In our evolution, what has happened to us? We were animals, from there we became human beings. What is so special about human beings compared to animals? In the awareness of man there's a new dimension. For example you can take a horse through a dirty lane he doesn't feel anything, the dirt or filth, or beauty, colours, nothing. Makes no difference.

But if you take a human being through a dirty lane or a dirty house, immediately he understands, he doesn't like it.

So what has come into us is nothing but in our awareness a new dimension compared to animals, or we can say in very scientific way is that in our central nervous system we have developed a new awareness.

Whatever is in our central nervous system, we are master of that. Supposing I feel this is hot, everybody will feel this is hot. If I say this is the colour of this particular bird, everybody will say the same thing.

So whatever is the awareness of one human being, awareness I am saying, not the myth, not the hallucination, but the reality as far as his organs are concerned, sensory organs are concerned is just the same. A person who feels hot does not say that he feels cold, nor the other one will come and say it is cold, they all will say it is hot.

So one thing is there, the truth is one, it cannot be two and that whatever has to happen now in our evolution has to be in our awareness.

Like a fish became a turtle. If a fish became a turtle, what happened to her? It is in the awareness of the turtle, it started feeling the Mother Earth. It lost something that fish had and it started feeling something new.

In the same way, in our evolution if something has to happen, we have to be something more in awareness, more dynamic. For this we can take help from the writings of so many people.

For example we can consider Jung as one of them who has talked about it. Jung has said that when the breakthrough will take place, the human beings will become, will become, collectively conscious, will become.

He didn't say that you'll all start doing the same thing or you will start behaving in the same manner.

No, he said you will become, you will be aware of it, not unawares.

So when you are seeking the Spirit, if the Spirit has to enlighten you, in your awareness you are going to know something more than you have known so far. For example, you might feel it hot and cold today but maybe with that awareness you might feel something different about it. He has said it very clearly that you have to become collectively conscious.

So the becoming is the point in our evolution, nothing else, we become something.

In Sanskrit language for example they say, for a realised Soul, for Indians it's very common knowledge it's nothing so much difficult to understand, he's called as a dvija, the one who is born again. And also a bird is called as a dvija, because a bird is born first as an egg and then it grows, matures and then suddenly it becomes a bird. And that is the parallel of Realisation. You also know that on the Easter Day we give eggs. It has the same symbol, that we are eggs and we have to become the birds.

So just now, at this stage when we are human beings we are just limited like an egg to grow up to a point where you can become the bird.

All other sort of things people talk of is not the Realisation. Like I may say that “All right, if I mesmerize you very well, I can give you bottles and you might start sucking the bottles just like children." Even knowing that you are doing something funny, you are doing it. You'll be compelled to do it because you are mesmerized. Any such activity that you fall into is not Realisation because whatever has happened to you as human beings that you are, you have done no activity whatsoever.

We didn't cut our tails as monkeys to become human beings. It has happened spontaneously like a flower becoming a fruit. It's a living process. One does not realise that whatever has to happen to you is a living process, is not a dead process. What we can do is all dead. For example we can stand on our heads, we can jump, we can run, we can do all kinds of things but that is not the living process.

The living process is when you become something and that becoming must be asked by all honest seekers. If you are not honest, then it's difficult or even if you are honest and you are misidentified with certain ideas you have read because you have paid for the book or you have paid for an organization or paid for someone, that's not going to help you.

What we have to see what we become and that's what yesterday I told that you become the master.

You become the prophet as Blake has said that, “God of men [Men of God] will become prophets and they will have powers to make others prophets." So to be very honest with yourself you should say, “Have I become a prophet and can I make others prophets?" This is a very simple way of looking at our Realisation and this what you are capable of, that you become the prophet, because everything is within you, the whole machinery is within you, you are like a computer, you are just to be put to the mains, it will start working.

You have to just become that. And if you do not become that, then all other things, forming an organization and any such thing, is of no use, is of no value, is all, I can say, misguidance. What have you got yourself? Supposing, I mean, if Ray has to say something: “Oh, Mother saw a light and this happened and that happened; She has these powers and those powers” it's all useless. What is it to you? I may be the king of anything, so what does it matter to you? What has become of you is the important thing and for that becoming if I say there is everything placed within you I have to prove it that's all.

This knowledge is not unknown to us, actually. Is all been described from the time of Moses. Like He says, “The Tree of Fire." Now what is the tree of fire? Nobody knows, they just say there was tree of fire.

But if you see the Kuṇḍalinī completely enlightened, if you can see it really looks like a tree of fire.

And then it is said also in the Bible that, “I will appear before you like tongues of flames." Now what is that? No one explains, nobody knows, these tongues of flames are nothing but these centers when they are enlightened, you see them just like tongues of flames. But you need not see them because when you are outside the pavilion you can see the pavilion; when you are inside you don't see, you just see the hall.

And that is why one should understand that it is not what we think should happen, but it is what will happen actually we should accept.

So first we should get rid of all misidentifications with our ideas that this will happen, that will happen and this should happen. I should see a light, I should fly in the air. There are many people who are paying money to fly in the air. I mean it's absurd. Why do you want to fly in the air? I don't understand. Paying much more money for that than they would have to pay to go round the whole world. I really tell you by plane if you travel it won't so expensive as you are paying for this flying business, this Flying Squad business. And what is that, we have to understand, what is that? When we go for this flying what are we getting into? And this method of mesmerism is so subtle that you cannot understand. You just go on into it. Like the same Flying Squad business, we had a gentleman who was the director of the academy, down with epilepsy, his wife down with epilepsy, the child down with epilepsy; and they all came down to Me, they lost their houses, they lost everything, penniless. This is what has happened to the flying of the whole joke.

Now, one must realise that you cannot pay for your evolution, you cannot pay. It's very simple to understand. As I told yesterday that if you pay to this flower will it become a fruit? It's a living process for which we cannot pay, it doesn't understand money. Living processes do not understand money. I've not known any human being, supposing he's suffering from indigestion, he'll put some money there saying that “Now I pay you, my stomach, now will you digest my food?" Do we do like that? In the same way it is the highest of highest living processes for which you cannot pay. It's a very subtle thing to understand for human beings because they believe that for everything one has to pay otherwise it doesn't work out.

You see you go to a machine, you want to have a good, say, machine, you must pay. Which works, you see. If doesn't work, you can have free. But the one that works you have to pay. Any motorcar, it's free, means it's all a junk, you can't have it. We have to pay to take it to the junk shop, so it is always in the minds of human beings that one has to pay. And this is very wrong. That you cannot pay. I'm talking of the processes, which are beyond human, the human beings are not doing it.

For example we cannot transform a flower into fruit, the living process itself is beyond human reach.

But when you become, when you become a superhuman you can handle them. And this should happen to you. If it has does not happen to you all the rest of the things are wrong. I'm telling you with great concern because the people who are in the market, who are selling goods, are doing it very well.

They know how to entice you, they know how to put ideas through you, how to give you misidentiff cations and you just get identified with them till they completely drop out. And then you are left high and dry. You say, “Oh, God, what has happened?" One thing is there, that your Spirit is not lost. It is there. Despite whatever the mistakes, whatever may be the seeking, but the Spirit resides within you despite everything, till you live. And this Spirit is to be brought into your conscious mind, means into your central nervous system, you should feel the powers of the Spirit in your being. This is what is Sahaja Yoga is. Sahaja, as he must have told you, means born with you.

Now, yesterday I told you about the left side, which is the power of desire and through this power we have our all conditionings and all the deception from the matter, materialistic things and also what you can say we collect all our past, the past then extend up [UNCLEAR through/to...] the collective subconscious. I also told you yesterday that cancer is a disease caused by the left side extreme behaviour of people. Those who go into the extreme behaviour on the left side get the disease called cancer and it can be cured if you can bring such an extreme case in the center, it can be cured, no doubt about it.

Now, the second side is the right side which today I have told that I will tell you about. The gentleman is not here who asked so many questions, is he here? He was just busy asking questions, that's all, yesterday.

He's not interested in seeking, I think.

All right, now the second side on the right hand side, is the power by which we act. First we desire and then we act. Now this power, right side power, is expressed within us as right sympathetic nervous system. Science has come from the same, science is in the gross, these are all subtle things that are within us.

Now this right side power which exists within us, gives us the power for our mental and physical capacity to act. Now this action takes place when we desire something, we want to implement that desire then we go into action. One has to understand what sort of a power is this. This power is called as Prāṇa Shakti in Sanskrit. Prāṇa and the another one, the left one as mana Shakti is the power of the emotions or can say of the mind, but you see English language is not so clear-cut about it.

So I would say mana Shakti and the Prāṇa Shakti, these are the two powers that exist within us and we start using them as left and right, we can say like a brake and an accelerator and then we become the master of driving. But while becoming that we make mistakes.

The human mind has a specialty to go to extremes. Supposing I tell somebody, “Now, you have to meditate." They'll meditate for five hours. There is no need to meditate for five hours or anything. But if you tell them that you have to stand on your head, they'll do it for ten hours.

So there is no need to go to extremes, we have to be just in the center, be kind to our body, be kind to ourselves. There's nothing to be frantic about; there's nothing to be so much exasperated about it. It's just very simple thing that has to happen to you.

For example, think of a seed which is sown in a very loud music or, say, a place where everybody is rushing, shouting, screaming, what will happen to that seed, will never sprout. If it is in a peaceful place, is a properly placed one, or not in a tilted pot, then it will definitely develop into a beautiful tree or a beautiful shrub, whatever it has to develop into. In the same way if we are too much on the extremes, we go to the left and to the right.

Now going to the left, I told you yesterday what happens that all these things like hypnosis and ESPs and most of these Gurus try these tricks, you see, like they just make you hypnotized and people become absolutely mad over the Guru, “He's our Guru” and they behave just like absolutely people without any brains. “Oh I feel now, feel great” I see that the reason is that you feel there's a sort of a sense of security built-in in this gentleman and, “If I'm following him, you see, he is going to Heaven and I'm going with him to Heaven." It doesn't happen like that.

You have to individually go into Heaven yourself and you have to become your own Guru and you have to know everything about it. It's not that anybody can put a trailer behind and put some people into it and say, “Now come along, I'm going to Heaven." Most of these are people are really going to Hell and you will follow them very fast.

So it is never so, believe Me, that anybody who says that following a certain Guru you'll go to Heaven is absolutely wrong. You must follow in the Principle and every Guru who is a real Guru will always tell you, will always tell you that you have to become something. He'll never just say, `All right, you've given me the money, all right, you are the member, now you are my child, now you are my disciple and I give you my love. Let's have love.' Where is the love? “And give more money, give me Rolls-Royces, give me this, give me that." And like mad we are doing it thinking that we can exchange these things.

Now, as we are seekers we have every right to find our Spirits and we are not to be deluded by any such tricks and pranks of these people or I would say very sinister methods that they are employing.

[UNCLEAR Not only to initiate/it's not only they] deceit [UNCLEAR] you for money, I don't mind they are smugglers, let them have money, what they want to have; but they spoil your chances of Realisation which you do not realise.

And once they are spoilt, it's very difficult to give you Realisation and if you do not really, positively work it out it's going to be impossible situation. I've seen people who have suffered on account of this.

Now this action within us acts for our mental and physical capacities on the right hand side. Like we think of the future, now the planning will start, this planning, “Now we must do this tomorrow, or day after tomorrow we have to do it." And we start sitting, “Now, I'll go there and I'll find this and then I'll take a ticket and then I'll go there." I mean, our mind is working for the future.

So much so, we, we become absolutely futuristic, to such an extent sometimes I've met people who are futuristic they even forget their own names. Can you believe it? I mean they don't even remember their father's name. That's all right, but even their own names they forget.

I mean they are like mad people because they don't remember their own names and they don't know where are they, what are they doing. I have met people of that kind who are really sick people because they have become so futuristic now that they do not know anything about their past. Now this futuristic behaviour starts in a society where people always think of the future. “What will I do, what am I to do tomorrow, what am I to achieve tomorrow?" And all these things, when they start doing their attention goes to the right extreme.

Now, in this place we are very dangerously placed, very dangerously placed, when we start looking for the future and the future seeing is a imaginary stuff, is absolutely imaginary, because what you think of the future doesn't exist. What exists is the present, you have to be in the present not in the future.

But people will say you have to be in the present, but how? We cannot. Either we are in the past or in the future. Because when the thought wave rises, it comes up and goes down. Another thought wave rises, goes up and comes down. Now, this thought wave which comes up we go with it but we don't see it's going down. Another thought wave that rises we see that but don't see where it goes out. And so we are jumping on the cusp of these thoughts and we do not know perhaps we are with the past or perhaps with the future. But in the center of these two thoughts there is the present and we don't know how to take our attention there, which is a very difficult thing and just to say that you should be in the center is not possible. All these things, “You should do this, you should do that” is not going to work out unless and until there is light. For example, there is no light in this room and you say, “Walk straight” you cannot walk because you can't see where is the passage, how to walk. Even if you order, do whatever you please, you cannot just walk straight without touching any of these chairs because there is no light, you can't see.

So one has to understand that in the futuristic life when we live and we plan too much for the future actually what we are doing, we are living in an imaginary world. We have many stories of people who lived in imaginary worlds and how they found that everything was destroyed. And there are people who work it out through their physical efforts and when they go into their physical efforts they create another problem for them because they just become physically oriented people. And if you are just physically oriented, the Spirit gets angry with you.

So the right side movement is for the people who are very meticulous, you see, which you can call the people who are very particular about the time and who are very firm about things, who are very dry people and who are very straight and they won't tolerate any nonsense. One sort of people, you see, that you find normally and that sort of people become a headache and they are very boring, you see. You can't just bear their company, they can be very boring people. And they give you big lectures about how to be straightforward and how to walk straight absolutely. In the nature nothing is straight, it all moves so beautifully because the nature is created out of varieties and variety brings the beauty. They don't think of beauty, they don't think of love, of compassion, nothing. For them it is a very meticulous world and that's how they live. Such people are developing a big ego within themselves, as you see there, is a yellow stuff in the head called as ego.

By the action of the left side, emotional side, we develop a superego, but by the action of the right side we develop a ego. Now this ego is not easy to be seen. Because if you have a superego you have pains in the body, you are a miserable person, you have wrinkles on the face and you look absolutely worn out. But if you have ego then you look so dynamic. We can say that Hitler was the extreme of this ego business.

And he got into his head that he is some sort of a god incarnation and that he has to save the people and he was the one who knows about races and everything and he is supposed to save some race. This kind of idea comes from these people who are right-sided, they are very aggressive, they may be very good to talk to, they may be very humble to look at, could be very good business men, could be anything but they do not know that they have this Mister Ego coming up on their heads just like a big balloon and they are floating in the air. The end of ego is stupidity. You'll be surprised, the end of ego is stupidity. Such people indulge into all kinds of stupid things and they say, “What's wrong?" For example I've known old people behaving in so stupid ways and they say, “What's wrong?" You know, an old man, say of ninety years, who can't even walk without a stick, takes to these dances you do and then he falls down, you see and he thinks, “What's wrong?" Like a lady I knew, she was about eighty-five, she died from a horse falling down. Naturally I mean what else you expect at eighty-five, that's what is evident, for a lady of eighty-five she should settle down at home, look after grandchildren, maybe she might have great grandchildren, you see. Instead of that why does she want to be twenty-five year old lady to climb on a horse? So all such stupid things they do and then they will say, “What's wrong? Is nothing wrong in stupidity, what's wrong?" But such people are a nuisance to the society, to others.

The people who are superego are troublesome to themselves, but those are egoistical are troublesome to others. They are all the time correcting others, torturing others, putting their ideas on to other people and such people can be very, very successful because nothing succeeds like success.

They go on hammering things into the heads of people, saying, “Now this is true, this is true” and when you go on saying it, this suddenly you believe, “Yes must be so." And such people are much more dangerous I would say from the superego type.

But for people who do not know the tricks of the superego they can be very, very, very dangerous because they are very subtle, you cannot see them, they mesmerize and they can possess you and they can be very sly and they can work out all sorts of methods which you are not aware.

So it is not easy to choose which is better, which is not better. Both things are wrong to go to extremes, on the right or to the left.

Now let's see what happens physically. As I told about the cancer on the left hand side that we do, physically what happens to people who are futuristic? We have a center specially for futuristic behaviour called as Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra which is in the gross manifesting the plexus called the aortic plexus within us. Now this Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra is very important for human beings, specially for people who are developed people.

With this Chakra actually we convert the fat of the stomach for the use of the brain. Now this is the center of the Sūrya, of the sun. Now when we start thinking these cells are converted in such a way that they become useful to the brain.

Now, if you are thinking all the time, all the time you are thinking, then what will happen? I mean the horns are not going to grow out of that, you are consuming all that and then you are consuming all those cells, you have to have replacement and for that replacement this Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra has to work very hard to convert the cells for the use of your brain.

Now, when it is doing that there are other things which this Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra has to look after, for example your liver, your pancreas, your spleen, your kidneys, all are to be looked after by this center and also uterus for the ladies. Now, when there's only one work is given to this Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra and it cannot do any other work, then other things are neglected, so you develop a terrible disease called liver trouble.

Now liver trouble is another thing that you do not feel yourself, others know that you are liverish the way you are hot tempered, the way you are fussy, the way you always snarl at people and the way you are never satisfied with anything, the way you criticise others, all this is liverish and such liverish people are never happy with themselves because liver looks after your attention and those who have liver problems, their attention is horrid, that goes like this, you see, you cannot keep your attention straight. On the street you'll walk straight into a car because you are looking at something which you are not supposed to look.

But all the time you are looking at like this, you cannot walk, I mean you won't find any animal like that who walks like this, but only human beings do it. If you see them on the street you'll be amazed. Where are they walking? They don't walk straight, they don't look straight, but their eyes are going this way, that way, because the attention is wobbly, the attention is wobbly because of a bad liver.

So this liver is a very, very important thing. Now, this liver has a special capacity to extract all the poisons from the body as heat and the heat in the body is to be transformed or should be conveyed to the blood, or the water in the blood and that has to be taken out of your body maybe as perspiration or in another form. But what happens that when this liver is out of gear it cannot do it, it cannot pass this heat into the blood stream and the heat remains in the body and you really become heated and that heat makes all these problems for you.

So in Sahaja Yoga what happens that when Kuṇḍalinī rises, She changes the form of the blood. The hydrogen and oxygen which are placed because of this heat and all that in a very funny way, like this, get like that [indicates up, then down] and they start receiving this heat within them.

That's why those people who have bad livers feel little heat when the Kuṇḍalinī rises. But one can cure it by giving it that peace and comfort to that liver organ and you can definitely cure your liver, no doubt about it.

Then the second thing that happens to you is the pancreas which gives you diabetes. Only a person who thinks too much gets the diabetes. For example, an Indian farmer doesn't know what diabetes is. But then you stop your sugar, but that's not the way to stop your diabetes. Diabetes comes to you because you think, think, think, think, think, too much. The doctors won't understand this, that's why they say it is incurable, because they cannot connect thinking with the disease. And this is what happens when you are all the time thinking like mad, then diabetes takes place. And this diabetes is also curable if you get your enlightenment. You can cure also the diabetes of other people, but because this vital power, which is integrated of all these three powers flows through you and you can replenish, you can give more to other people who are exhausted of it and sort of you can fill them up with this power and you can cure.

But the third one is the worst of all that happens to people is blood cancer because of spleen. Spleen is one thing very important that it is the center of peace within us.

The one who doesn't have a proper spleen cannot be peaceful person. Now, it's a very simple thing but doctors cannot connect it, nor all science-oriented people can connect it, to something very, very simple.

And the simple thing is that when we eat our food, if we are frantic we are out to get trouble with the spleen and we can get blood cancer. Now if the mother is of that temperament or a father is of that temperament, the children might be born with blood cancer. Now, we'll be happy to tell you that in New York we had a case of blood cancer and when I was in India, in a village, somebody came and told Me that such and such boy is sick, he's only sixteen years with blood cancer and doctors have declared that he's going to die within two weeks time. They always declare, they are good at declaration only.

And when this case came to Me, I told them that “I cannot do anything, I'm in a village, but you can telephone to one of the Sahaja Yoginis. She was in England, now she is in New York and she will look after this case." You'll be amazed that the boy was cured completely, he came out of the hospital, he came to see Me and now he's gone back to studies.

I mean like that we have cured many cases of blood cancer but here we are not to cure people by any... or healing anyone, that's not our job. It happens spontaneously as a by-product of the Kuṇḍalinī awakening. Main thing is we have to make you doctors, we have to make you knowledgeable people, we have to make you collectively conscious human beings who have to enter into the Kingdom of God, to reside there in His peace, bliss and joy.

Now this trouble of also of kidney, of high blood pressure, all that is due to this. People worry, they are frantic, you see and this franticness comes to us just as a matter of habit. I've known people, as soon as you say, “Oh, you have to go by airplane somewhere” suddenly the airplane word, triggers that frantic, “Oh!" They get mad. They don't know what they are up to. They will forget their passport, they will forget their luggage, they'll forget this, they are frantic. At the airport if you go you'll find this left Nābhī as we call this center is, the spleen goes frantic.

Now, when you eat your food or do any such work there is an emergency created and more blood needed to digest that food.

So this spleen, poor thing, works very hard to create that extra amount of blood cells. But at the time you are eating, you are also, say, reading a newspaper, that's the worst thing one should do in the morning. Horrible. You read the newspaper, you are eating the food, your spleen goes off because another emergency comes up.

Then you get on to your bicycle with a sandwich in the hand is even worse than that. And you are rushing to your work, suddenly you find a big jam on the way, then you are even very badly placed with the situation and you get so frantic and you don't understand and the person who is in front of you go on saying, “What's wrong with this fellow, why can't he drive fast?" and the same fellow is saying something exactly the same to the another fellow who is going ahead.

So this madness is on, this rat race is on and if you are eating your food in such a hurry and in such franticness, you develop this trouble which is very dangerous called as blood cancer and among young people is very common.

Now, the last and not the least is the trouble of the heart. When you pay too much attention to all these outward things, to material things, to your all material advancement, to your physical advancement and to so much of a computerization of your brain, then you neglect the necessary attention to your Spirit which resides in your heart and so the Spirit recedes and when the Spirit recedes you get a heart attack.

Only a person who is right-sided gets a heart attack and never a person who is a left-sided. I told this to a doctor and he told, surprisingly, that in a mental hospital you never need a cardiogram, you do not need it. They never get a heart attack. A mad man never gets a heart attack, surprisingly. A person who is mad is using his heart more, his left side, his emotions and his heart should go out, but no, his brain goes out. Can you imagine? And the one who uses the brain, his heart goes out.

This is a balance created by the nature in us. See how cleverly the nature is trying to guide us in the center: don't go to the extremes, keep to the center, keep to the center and then when you are absolutely in the center, then you get your evolution very quickly.

So this is the right side that we have, the futuristic side and as you know we are all very futuristic by temperament. This futuristic-ness cannot be cured by telling, “Oh, now, don't think” you cannot do it, you just cannot do it. If I order you that “Now, you better stop planning” you just can't do it, you can't help it. You have to do that kind of planning.

And you find all these plans fail because these plans are not related to the plans of the Divine. Divine has some other plans while you have some other plans and they never combine together and that's how you find all your plans fail and you are just frustrated left high and dry. You don't understand how it has happened.

For your understanding, one has to know that there is a Divine Power. You may like it or not. All this living work that is done, millions and millions flowers which are becoming fruits, a seed becoming a tree, a particular seed becomes a particular tree, all the choices that are made, the whole organized way the chemical acts, the way the chemistry is made of periodical laws, everything you see in this world is all so well organized, there has to be somebody doing it.

So there is a Divine Power which is surrounding us, no doubt about it. But we have not yet felt it, that's all. If we have not felt it that doesn't mean it doesn't exist. It does exist and it works out. We have seen with our own experience that so many living things are happening. We just take it for granted, we are not bothered. See, in human life itself, a child is to be born, then a foetus is held in the body.

Normally the law of medical science is this: that anything foreign, if it enters into the body, is thrown away immediately, all the forces are built up to throw it away.

But what we find that when a foetus is built up the whole system works out to nourish it, to look after it, to really to bother about it. Very carefully the water is created around it so that it is not disturbed and every sort of a care is taken by the body to look after the foetus and when the foetus is ready, it is thrown out. Who does that? Who does that? We must ask these questions to ourselves sometimes. After all why have we become human beings? What was the need? What was the need? And if we haven't got the answer that means we are still in transition and we have to get there where we get the answer.

We are made humans beings to feel that Divine Power, to manoeuvre that Divine Power and thus enjoy the bliss of divinity. That Divine Power is the Collective Being, that gives us collectivity. The Spirit in our heart is the one, which is the Collective Being within us, which manifests that Divine Power to flow through us and that's how, once we are connected to the mains, we start becoming what we are for.

Like a machine, once it is put to the mains it gets its meaning; but this machine, though it is put to the mains, is not aware of the electricity, about My voice, anything. But a human being, when he gets connected with the mains, then he becomes aware and this is what you must see.

When you get realised you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī of others, you can give Realisation to others. Ray himself has done to so many. Even in Riyadh, he did it. He did it everywhere wherever he went. He's just like you, he's an engineer, he's just like you, he was just like you and now you'll be amazed that how much he knows about himself and about others.

And a complete change has come because once you get the Spirit, when you get the highest, all these mundane things drop out and you become a master of yourself. No more enslavement of any habits or anything, it just works out beautifully. But one must give a chance to oneself and one must have patience.

The worse part of intelligence, so-called, is that you can make fun of everything. That's the easiest way, to make fun of everything and get rid of it.

In olden times when they wanted to face the reality, like when Christ came in, they didn't make fun of Him. But they did at the time when He was crucified, but they just denied. But now it is not basically problem, that problem doesn't exist because to deny is... it requires more effort, so is better to make fun.

Is stupidity, again as I said.

Is stupidity to make fun of something because you are that, you are the Spirit. You are the one who has to get it and if you just know how to make fun, please go and play about with it. All your life you'll go on, all your lives you'll go on, what's the use? And if you do not get your Realisation, in the words of your judgment you have failed, you have failed and there is a chance given to you. You can be comforted and you can be counseled, you can be redeemed; but nobody can make you taste the beauty of your own being, that you have to do it yourself. If you do not want to do it, all right. It's perfectly all right. You are free to do it, do what you like. But if you want to do it, then please stop your Guru shopping and wobbling, stop and see for yourself what you need. It's a serious thing, which should happen.

Unless and until human beings are evolved, none of the problems of the world are going to be solved, none of the problems, take it from Me. Whatever they have done by their thinking, say they have created democracy, they have created communism, this, that. All this nonsense has no meaning at all in reality, it has no meaning. Because, say for example you might say I'm very powerful so I'm a capitalist.

But I can't live without giving to others, so I'm a communist. I'm a complete capitalist and a complete communist. Everything exists within Me and these ideas are all artificial that you make some set of people as democratic and some people as this thing. Because as long as they are attached to selfishness, to all these things, they are not going to do any good job out of it.

Now, the detachment takes place because you become one with the Spirit, which is not attached, which gives you that light, that detachment from where you can see the whole thing just as a drama going on.

And you work it out very well. You become so dynamic, so dynamic that you are amazed at your own dynamism. Apart from that, one has to realise if there is a Power, which is an All-pervading Power, that Power itself thinks, organizes and looks after you.

So many things have happened to Sahaja Yogis that if I have to tell you all about it, you'll be amazed. Amazing things have happened. But Kṛiṣhṇa has said very clearly, “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham” means “When you get the Yoga, you'll get the well being." After Yoga. He said Yoga first, first the union must take place, then you'll get the well being.

Now I've seen people who go to so-called Gurus and things, sick, you see their faces pale, absolutely finished, they are good for nothing, absolutely miserable people. And how such people could be in Yoga? Not only physically, mentally they are at peace, they are full of compassion and love.

And the compassion that doesn't talk, but just flows, it flows, it emits, you can give your compassion even to flowers. If the flowers are dying, you can give them this and they will live for a while. If there are, say, trees which are dying, if you give them they will prosper. If you give it to animals, they'll be different because first time, after getting this power only, you are giving back something to the nature.

So far you have been always taking from the nature. Now it is the first time you start giving something to the nature. Because the compassion just flows, it doesn't receive anything, it just flows to others and this should happen to you.

Don't be satisfied with cheap things, with something nonsensical, which is something sort of a mimicry or a mass ideas. I am talking of collectivity where every individual is aware. It's not a mass activity, it is collectivity.

May God bless you.

I hope today many will get the Realisation and become one with their Spirits and will feel their collectivity. That's only My hope is.

Brighton I place very high up in England and I always said England is the heart of the universe. It is very important that it is the heart, no doubt and that's why Blake has said that it has to become Jerusalem. There's lot of truth in what He has said.

Lot of things he has said about Sahaja Yoga, is absolutely true. But the heart is sluggish. Heart is sleeping, is a sad thing. Like I say that Europe is the liver and it is drinking, can you imagine what will be the state of affairs of this, even worse, if everything is going against one's own essences? And the essence of English is that it is the heart. That means it articulates, it circulates.

Whatever happens in England is taken up seriously. Supposing you become, all of you, stupid people, the whole world will become. The responsibility is such a lot on you, which you do not realise. It's a very important thing that we are doing. It looks very small in this country because there are very few people who really come to Sahaja Yoga and settle down. Very few people, there are very few of that calibre I think. Young little children are there, many will come up by about, say, ten years or so. I'm sure there will be a very good quality of people who will be coming and the seekers who are here, are also sort of little nervous because they want to learn from Americans and from Europeans. There's nothing to be learned from them. It is you who are going to circulate; you are going to carry the message.

I know it's a very important country and somehow it was managed that My husband could get his election done in England and we are here now for last eight years, can you believe it? And, I'll be here maybe again four years more, at the most.

So I hope something will happen and this Brighton, which is a very good place, I'm sure here also many will get their Realisation and will help in the emancipation of human beings.

Thank you very much.

May God bless you.

If you have any questions you must ask Me. In all frankness I must tell you I'm your Mother; I never feel offended you ask Me a question. Is important because, actually, I have no question. You have to ask Me, I have no question at all.

.....

You'll be amazed how many.....

Al right, should we have now the realisation, the real happening, the real baptism? I have to request you for one thing to take out your shoes.....

Tomorrow when I'll talk about the evolutionary processes, then I will tell you what Christ had said that..... Tomorrow I'll be talking about that.

I am really a proud Mother to see so many Sahaja Yogis. And one must understand that even if you get few people as newcomers, they may be few, but one has to realise that each one of you is now a realised Soul. Each one of you have grown so much that you can create a nucleus yourself. And after growing in a collective way together, now individually the seedlings have become strong shoots now and they can definitely be transferred into different places and work it out, because each one of you is a prophet. I wonder if you realise it or not. Of course you have got the joy of realisation, the bliss, everything you have got; you have grown up to that. Slow and steady you have achieved it and as you have grown as a tree now, every one of you is so important and so powerful. I know that few people come in, in a collective way and you find it difficult in the beginning how to deal with them; because they are still not grown enough, they are still not up to the point where they really realise their own importance. But you should all understand your own importance and your own quality that you have achieved.

In any other so-called fake organizations, for example, say, take the church, there's only one priest.

In the whole locality there is one priest, though he doesn't know anything about it, doesn't matter! But still there's only one person who is authorized even by church. Everyone has to listen to one person. But here now you all are dynamic people: each one of you is capable of giving a good lecture. Of course all of you can give realisation very well, no doubt about it. In all your groups you must try standing on your own legs. Try in your own groups. Think of all the dimensions into which you can shoot off. Because now you are ready, you are now the prophets. You don't have to depend on anyone as such, or you don't have to depend on your fellow beings also for that, individually you can do it. Though you are connected with each other, you all understand the same language, you have got the truth together and you are all together; but the dynamism must come individually into you and every one of you in your own sphere, in your own line can work it out, because you know all about Sahaja Yog.

Now those who are half-baked may not know. They still are rationalizing maybe something, doesn't matter, they will also be all right. But as far as you all are concerned, you are all prophets and as prophets you must stand up. Wherever you go, you talk of Sahaja Yoga, tell them that “This has come to us, this is the light. We know everything." I mean you don't have any doubts about it, isn't it? But the trouble is that you feel that the others may not understand, they are stupid people, they are foolish people, or they are ego-oriented or they're aggressive, or they'll do this to you or do that to you. It's true, but you must know that there's not only one person who's fighting it out, there are thousands all over the world who know your language, who know your thing and they all know the same thing.

So you are not alone fighting it out.

Once you know that, then you'll be amazed how much power will start flowing into you. The more you think about it, meditate upon your Self now, I would say and know that you yourself, you are prophets.

And then you'll see the dimensions into which, so many are My dimensions sitting here, I can see that.

So in every field, in every walk of life, wherever you move, you have to talk about it and tell people.

Now there are certain things, we have made certain rules and regulations for Sahaja Yoga, Sahaja Yogis. That is just to see how many are really half-baked and how many are full-baked. That's how we have made certain rules and regulations; because those who are really full-baked will accept them without any difficulties, they are absolutely there. Now as it is we know there are many categories of people who come to us. The people who are top-class get into Sahaja Yoga without any difficulties, they are top-class people. They achieve their powers, they assume their powers, they start asserting their powers, they just become that. Like we say we have the complete pattern of the ring with us and only we have to put the diamond there. You find the diamond, all right. They'll just settle down with it. But some people even after realisation go a little bit this side, that side, doesn't matter. They'll all come round.

But those who are top-class people are still, I must say, are quite a lot. I mean, I can tell you I know so many Gurus who are real Gurus, not these, these unreal you forget and the fake you forget, but the real ones also, they haven't got a single one like that, not even a single person. Like Gagan Gadh Mahārāj, he told Me very frankly, he said, I said, “Why don't you give realisation to them?" He said, “Who gave me realisation? I had to work very hard, this, that." “All right” I said, “you had a Guru who gave you realisation, so as a Guru it's your duty to give." And he said, “I've given it to one person. I worked on him for twenty-five years. I cleared his Āgñyā, I cleared everything, gave him realisation." “And what is he doing now?" He said, “Now you'll meet him, Mother, some time. You must see this fellow, he is horrible and he's the one who is now making money, running after women." After realisation, after twenty-five years of his work! He said, “I have nothing to do with this man." Now this fellow was called as Anā Mahārāj.

I said, “All right, I'll have a look at him if he comes to Bombay [Mumbai]." So he came to Bombay [Mumbai] and one of My disciples had invited him to his house. She's quite a rich lady and she said, “Mother, Anā Mahārāj has come and You had told that You would like to meet this man, so he's come here. Would You come?" Went there; he of course touched My feet all right and that, but he was smoking in My presence, just imagine. He touched My feet and sat down. He said, he started talking ill of his Guru first of all, the one who worked on him for twenty-five years, can you imagine? I mean you are very kind people, you don't talk ill of Me! I've not worked for twenty-five years on you; and look at him, he was talking ill of his Guru.

And he said that “You see, my Guru, why should he go to, why should he go to Bombay [Mumbai]? Now what is the need?" Because this fellow was making money in Bombay [Mumbai], so he didn't want his Guru to go there to tell against him. “And why should he go to Bombay [Mumbai]? He should not leave his place. He was all right on the, on top of the mountain. What was the need for him to come down?" and all sorts of things he was talking there.

I said, “Really? That is your Guru, you are not to talk ill of him." He said, “But this is true. He need not have left the place, you see?" And he was still smoking there.

I said, “All right, I have to go." With so many women around him pressing his feet, this, that, taking a lot of milk and enjoying himself and smoking and talking in a very condescending manner to his so-called disciples. Poor things, they were simple people, you know.

I said, “All right, I have to go now.

So you just put some, I'll give you some kumkum on your forehead." So I took some kumkum and put it on his forehead.

So his Āgñyā was just burning, oh, absolutely My finger went like this! I said, “That's it." “Now” I said, “all right, now can you, I'm going now, you put some on My forehead." And I sucked his finger inside, he couldn't move it. Just like that, it was all...

And he said, “Leave me, leave me, Mother. I'm sorry, I'm sorry!" I said, “Now, you just promise you'll not talk ill of your Guru. Then only I'll leave you." He said, “All right, all right, all right! Please leave me!" So I left the finger.

But see now, the Sahaja Yogini lady who was there who has been saved from so many problems because she was a clairvoyant person, to her he told a lie, is complete lie. He said, “I was giving power to Mother." See, they saw it from a distance. “So I was shaking because I was giving power", you know, means this shaking was giving Me power! But this lady should have understood that when you shake, it means there's something wrong with you. And you know, she said that “Now I will give you also such powers as came to Mother." That time it was just the beginning of Sahaja Yoga, I should say, quite the beginning. “So now you'd better have a Yagñya. HOm For that all of you must bring one and a quarter tola of gold", that's about ten grams, “and give it to me." That was the beginning of the end. Now all their money, all their property, everything he sucked in somehow.

And her sister met Me when I was travelling once from Delhi to Bombay [Mumbai] and she just fell at My feet and started crying. I said, “What's the matter?" She said, “Mother, this fellow has looted us." I said, “Who?" “The Anā Mahārāj." I said, “How? But that day you saw him shaking. That's the thing." So how she was befooled by this fellow, who told her a complete lie. If she had seen the vibrations of this man, it would have been all right. And this is what Sahaja Yogis forget. They are prophets, they have their powers; but their power is their spirit, is their vibrations and they forget it all the time that we have got a new awareness, vibratory awareness. We have to judge everything on vibrations. And that's the only failing point of all the prophets.

If it is untruth, I am very innocent, you know, I'm very simple-minded, I just don't understand things at all, you see. I don't know the crookery of man, how he goes round and tells lies and this, but on vibrations I know what it is like, absolutely. You may tell Me any stories: with all your crookery, with all your intelligence and all your special sharpness I know what you are up to, because only I know it with vibrations. But otherwise I'm very simple, I can't rationally or anything I can understand, but by vibrations I know where you are. In the same way you develop your vibratory awareness, its sensitivity and try to understand things through vibratory awareness. If you can do that, then you will be perfect prophets. You'll be perfect prophets.

Now among ourselves also you'll find there are people who are not up to the point. Such people should never be trusted, should never be trusted because they are half-baked, they might become negative, they might become positive.

So they should not be trusted and they should be treated with a little reserve.

Once they become all right, then you can take them into your own fold. For example, recently a girl married somebody who is a great Sahaja Yogi. Now because he said he loved her and all that nonsense, so I said, “All right, Baba, you marry her." But I knew that this one is no good, but what to say? And then this lady tried, actually she travelled with Me and she tried even to clutch My heart with the bhoots she had, absolutely. Twice she did it.

So cunning, the spirits are so cunning in her that when she went back to Australia, you see, she put up a show in such a way that “Oh, she is so insecure and her husband doesn't care for her and this and that..." And the whole of that ashram, just imagine, would have been lost. But I knew something was happening, so I trunk-called. Immediately I found out. I told them, “Now, see her vibrations!" They said, “Mother, we don't find anything wrong with her." That means they never saw her vibration to begin with; because what happens once vibrations are lost, you can't feel anything. She has engulfed all of them so much that they couldn't feel anything about her. Can you imagine? Then rationally I asked a question, “Can you replace Warren for his wife?" And they got a fright.

So, one has to be very, very alert about it, extremely alert as to these people who are half-baked. They will always try to pull you down. Half-baked people will always try to pull you down, unless and until you are firm enough to pull them up. Because they are not doing it, they are not aware of it, but they are under the possession of these people and when they do something, they try to do all anti-God activities.

Another one I'll tell you was in Geneva. In the beginning I don't tell openly about a person. As far as possible I don't tell openly, because it's not proper. Give them a chance, they'll come up, it will work out, doesn't matter. I can manage it. But when the nuisance becomes a collective thing, then one has to talk about it openly; you see, because these people will go to one person, say something, another person something, third person something.

So you have to be very alert. And they're not aware of it, that's the best part of it, they are not aware of what they are doing. Like this lady in Geneva would go on asking everyone, “What do you think about Mister X or Mister Y?" All right.

So you would say something: if you are negative, she would catch hold of that.

Day before yesterday I was very happy when Ray told Me something good about Pamela. He said, “Pamela is a very artistic lady." When you start seeing good points in others it gives Me pleasure, it gives Me happiness, it gives Me joy. But if you start seeing bad points in another, then I don't like it.

Sometimes of course, when you, I also test you on that point.

Sometimes I'll say something, you see, deliberately: I'll say, “All right, something wrong with Ray", I may say. I know about whether it is wrong or right; just to judge how far you can judge that person. Then if you say, supporting to the right thing that he's doing, then I know that you are right. I like it, I appreciate you, I really adore you for that. That whatever is the truth you should tell Me, because I know the truth, but I just play around with you to see what you think of another person.

So try to see the good point in another.

But on one point you should understand, if a person is quarrelsome, is trying to overpower you, Birmingham we have a problem like that, which I have not yet exposed or said so. Still I have kept a secret but I am telling people that in Birmingham there's a problem and that problem comes from one person who is not aware of it. I will talk to that person, tell that person that he should get rid of this problem.

But if he does not then I have to tell about it openly, because I don't want Birmingham center to be lost.

We would have lost Geneva, I tell you we would have lost it. Everybody went against each other and big problems were created, by one person. Though you are full-baked, still you are not so collectively aware and appreciative of others as you should be. You are all one. Not only appreciation, but you can't do without each other.

So slow and steady as the English character is, which is a very good character but it can be very slow.

Slow and steady you must rise about, above your own shells and see the beauty of another Sahaja Yogi and see the point that are good in that person so that you imbibe.

Some people have certain capacities.

And surprisingly then, I talked to Pamela about Ray and she praised him a lot and that really made Me extremely happy; though I must say Brighton may not have been so bright yesterday in the program, there were few people, but doesn't matter. This is very energy-giving, to see that Sahaja Yogis appreciate each other.

Now somebody has a problem: say, left-sided people always have a problem in My lecture, they go off to sleep, naturally, they have to! It doesn't matter whatsoever, I am working on them even if they are sleeping. But when I work on them, I have to sleep Myself to go into them, see? So that drag is there, it doesn't matter, it will come up. There are ways and methods of how to work it out. But that's not so important to Me. What is important is, are you sleeping towards your fellow men, fellow Sahaja Yogis? Are you alert about them? They are just like your hands, eyes, nose, everything. You are all one. You cannot do without each other, because you are the only people who have now got the eyes to see. You are the only people who are aware. And we are not few. We think that we are very few. You see, maybe then other Gurus they might get thousands of them, they are useless, as they go they come out, maybe added up tails and horns they might have! But they are not aware people. And you are aware. On one side you have to pull out the people who are not aware so much, on the other side you have to appreciate people who are more aware. And this is what one has to understand.

Now every quality of every nation is going to help Sahaja Yoga. Say for example, I would say that French, they have lots of disqualifications, maybe. But they have one quality: whatever they do, they do it seriously. I mean even nonsense, even nonsense.

So this quality of theirs if they use for Sahaja Yoga, if they develop that seriousness about it, they are a great asset to Sahaja Yoga. As I told you, English have the quality to, first of all they don't talk. I don't know why their mouths are shut so much. They are silent and they say less than what they should say. They are upright, slow and steady. We also need people who have to be slow and steady and upright. But the defect could be that we just allow things to happen and we do not stand up. You may be slow, but you must walk. If you say “I'm slow" that means there is some speed somewhere, isn't it? There has to be some movement somewhere. Even if something moves slowly it means there is a speed. A `slow' words means there is a speed, isn't it? It doesn't mean that you are stationary. `Slow' means a speed and some speed you must have. And that is what is, you have to get up. You have to arise. You have to shoot off.

They have been doubly blessed by Sahaja Yogis, because now I am stationed in London, we have Caxton program. “All right, we go to every Monday, like to church, listen to Mother's lectures. Very nice lectures Mother has given. We appreciate it, come back home." Done, for the whole week.

No, you are prophets and you have special responsibilities as English Sahaja Yogis. That's why I came down to this country to work it out for so many years. I told you that in India I have worked only for three years; now I have been here for eight years and maybe four years more. But why? What was the need to come to England and work, while you know in India I can get thousands like this who can get realisation, you have seen with your own eyes. I have given realisation to thousands and who are so beautifully placed in Sahaja Yoga, they are so solid. They are not the people who will come to one meeting and next meeting they are lost. They are not like that. They are steady people; they go ahead with it.

But still why I'm working here: because this is an important position. Every cell of this heart is very important and that is why you all should try to move. And do you know, the job of heart is to move things? It circulates, it must circulate. Try every method of circulation, talk to people. You being English, you will understand the other people who are not yet there. They are also slow; they can't move fast. You see, it's a quality that a bull sits down, you know, then it won't move, whatever you may try. It's just sitting down, settled down and very happy with that posture.

So you have to say, `Where are you sitting? On top of what? Volcano!' Tell them all about it, give them the big message that the Redeemer has come now. There's no time to sit down. This is the one who is here. Better get up now! Don't carry on with your old ideas and old things. Must know that this has happened. And as I told you, the predictions can be used, you can use anything that you want to use out of Sahaja Yoga. You can tell them anything out of My speeches, whatever you want. You have every right to do what you like with My speeches. There's nothing to be afraid of, or worried about.

Like the other day somebody said that out of protocol they did not do this. What is the protocol for children? Nothing. You are My children, after all. You have every right that I can give you.

So there's nothing like that.

Something was not done, what did you say, Pamela? “Because of protocol..." Pamela: So many things now that I don't know which one.

Shri Mataji: Yes, something she said, I've forgotten that. But what I would say that, because it is so obvious that you are special people. You have been enthroned. I'd better recede in the back, like the Queen Mother is and let Me see you rule! That would be much better. And don't worry about protocols and things so much, go ahead.

I mean, the interview or the thing that you have written in the newspaper is not absolutely correct, but I don't mind. Because that will suit people, that certain things I have not done, like helping Gandhiji, what could I help him, you see? He never meditated. Yes, in a way it helps but the way it is written, it's not that grossly, I did it in a subtle way. Doesn't matter. But I don't mind. Whatever you say is correct, whatever you do is correct and it can be put right. Even supposing you say that it was exaggeration sometimes, the exaggeration can be achieved. Whatever you say will be the truth, so don't be afraid of saying what you feel like.

Now another background of the English people is, this you should not be so much frightened of, that they will always say something with little less than what it is. I have to tell you, you should say it with little more, if you have to make the bull move, you see? Say little more than you can say, because whatever you say is not more and this is the Infinite. But it should not be also so much that they can't bear it.

Like Warren had an experience which I told him, “Only tell the Sahaja Yogis, don't tell anybody else because they'll never believe it." There was no petrol in his car and he had to go for a propaganda work.

And he went round and he did all his propaganda for eight days and when they came back the petrol was not available. At the petrol pump the fellow said, “Your petrol is full, why do you want to have petrol in?" Why not? That can be done. But don't tell anybody else, because they'll just say this is cock-and-bull story, you see. You see, you have heard the story of the bread and the fishes. Because in the Bible it is so, we believe it. Why not today? You have seen so many things happening like that, I mean so many things in your own lifetime. But all these things if you tell them, they won't believe.

So your wisdom is in believing that you are in the realm of God and He is Almighty and that He is going to give you everything that you want and aspire for. People won't believe it, I know. But it's true, whatever is desired you can get it, but if you tell people they won't believe. But as far as Sahaja Yoga is concerned, you have to make a statement which is not reserved but open, with confidence. The diffidence that is put into it because of this training is not good. With confidence, “Yes it is so, it is so! This is what it is." Like first when I went to India, Raul Bai, you know such an elderly lady, an Indian lady, they feel little shy about everything. She's the one, with full hand up in the air she was shouting, “Bolo Mātājī Nirmalā Devī!" And Modi looked at her; he couldn't raise his hand, you see. He was a little shy. But she went thrice and then she lifted his hand and said, “What's the matter with you, such a tall man? Why God has given you height, for what? To raise your hands only." And poor fellow, he had to raise his hand! So that's what it is. Have boldness, have complete confidence in yourself, that you are realised Souls, that you are prophets. Not to be upset or worried about things, but you are prophets now. Assumption! In Sanskrit is said viraj. That is, the energy is permeated, viraj: means, enjoy that energy within you.

Viraj. `Ra' is energy; `viraj' means, you enjoy that energy of that throne, assume it. You are the kings now, behave in that manner. It is not arrogance at all. A person who is a king is never arrogant if he's a real king. You see, if they are borrowed kings then it's different. But if they are real kings they can never be arrogant.

So with that special type of royal behaviour you will attract people. It's not putting up show, is, you are! On the contrary this is the reservation you are having, for what? You need not dress up like beggars or like dandies, but your dress should be such that you are a king, not bothered. And you'll be amazed, it will work out.

You are the people who have the greatest of My time and company and also I know your language. I have given more speeches in English than in My own mother-tongue or in Hindi, can you believe it? And so many Indians now, who did not much care for English after independence, are trying to learn English now; and they are afraid that one day English may replace Sanskrit, the way Mother knows English.

So I have to make a very, very simple request to you that assume, assume your powers. Assume! You are no more slaves. You are realised Souls now. With this personality you will really enhance the beauty of Sahaja Yoga. Unless and until there are flowers on the tree, the tree has no meaning. And the flowers have to be up! They don't hide; have you ever seen any flower hiding itself? They cover the whole of the body of the trees and fragrant, assuming their own powers. And the fragrance springs. Everybody knows the flowers are up, all the bees are round there. That's how you have to be. Assume your powers, inside, outside, both. Not only inside, outside. And they'll be amazed at your confidence, at your compassion, at your capacities; and the greatest of all, the complete Vidyā, the complete knowledge of Sahaja Yoga, the complete knowledge of Kuṇḍalinī, the complete knowledge of Divine which you have. All right? Now Gavin, whichever way you want, you can do the Pūjā.

Gavin, come along... You should have names and things. And Marcus.

Sahaja Yogi: Gaṇeśh Pūjā, Mother?

Shri Mataji: Gaṇeśha has come! So you also know Sanskrit... Both are learning Sanskrit.

Sahaja Yogi: Should all those who haven't done Your Pūjā before be called up?

Shri Mataji: All right, but not absolutely new people. Not absolutely new, but those... Come in. If they want to do it, it's all right. But you see, the problem is they're absolutely new people. But in France it was...

Sahaja Yogi: Some people have come from outside and may not have had a Pūjā.

Shri Mataji: Outside from where?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, there's a gentleman from Devon, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Is there? Good, that's nice. And also, you see, in France it really clicked there. We had the Pūjā next day and we called those people who got realisation. And they really clicked, you see, they were very sensible because they were seekers. They understood the meaning and not only... They were Muslims and how good they were, absolutely top-class. Top-class people, you know.... What's his name, that lawyer? Aychala. He's a wonderful man, isn't it? His wife... And he said, “This is the Resurrection Time; what is there to question?"... And he's a lawyer and his wife also?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes. And they've talked to so many people in Algeria.

Shri Mataji: I tell you, he brought fourteen people by plane. Yes, he did.

All right.

So if the new people do not form any barrier, it's all right. They can come and wash My feet. It helps always. But if you have barriers, don't do it. Just don't do it. You see, it doesn't help Me, it helps you.

Some people think that by washing My feet, I can save one washing or whatever it is! So it's a privilege and if you have to do it, you should do it, is good for you, you'll immediately settle down into your realisation.

So those who are new people can come. And you have to wash My feet first of all.

He understands so much, I tell you! My grandchildren, they are, they understand the protocol so much. He took off My socks and put on top of the head of, his top! They understand so much, it's...! Nick was telling Me that we have to learn from children so many protocols. He took it out for Me today, she said, for Pūjā evening and I think I'll leave it to use.

So, those people who are new, please come. They should do the Pūjā. They have the privilege, not the one who... Who has come from Devon? Great! Come along. Come along, come along. Good. As from Brighton who are the people who should come and wash My feet, because that's the best way to settle you down into your realisation. He is to be the first? They understand the privileges. Very good.

I think Paul, I think you should wash My feet, better wash My feet. Good. Aha, that's good. Better take a mantra. By the way, whom did I give that thing I had brought for you that... day? To wash My feet? Whom did I donate it? Did I give it to you people? The big thing. No, no, recently. Ask Marcus.

Marcus, we had that silver thing, big thing? Big thing like this? Which one? No, no, not that. It was from England only. I think the Lane. Must be there.

Sahaja Yogi: You gave me one at Your house, Mother, to give to Nightingale Lane.

Shri Mataji: Did I? Where is it? You must bring that. You see, that's a very good one. It's surprising that, that I had it with Me, this was from England and I brought it back for you. Made in England, can you imagine? In Sheffield! So I brought it back to you, that you can use it.

So next time you bring that, because stainless steel is not so good as that thing is, you see? It's all right, it doesn't matter.

So now, you will say the mantras, no? With Śhrī Gaṇeśha's, first of all. Have you got that?...

So how will you do it on My feet? On My feet you use the ghee with this. Little bit of this coconut should be saved for after this... All right. Hundred-and-eight names. But he has got translation, necessary too, oh, that one. Let him read his translation of, because this is for the new people.

This is the Śhrī Gaṇeśha who incarnated as our Lord Jesus Christ and this was written fourteen thousand years back. It's been translated, so you can see now how His coming was already there and how the things that are written in here show the complete picture of Christ, which He is, which people do not know, you see. They talk of Christ, Christ, Christ, what Christ is? Let's see. Now, Gavin, can you stand up and read it? No, no, that's all right, forward it, just forward it. Now, who will, why don't you ask somebody to read, because we have to come... Jeremy? Read it, loudly.

Now, where is... Who will we get? Marcus? I think you are... Where are all the... They're that side.

So you come this side. Marcus, you come this side, so you have to hand all the...

Let all the children to wash My feet. Let the children do it first. That's better. Shona!... Let Olympia come in. Olympia, come here. Come, come. Who else is there? You'll have to wash My feet. All right? Everybody has to wash My feet. Come along. Now sit down there. Everybody's going to wash My feet.

All right? That's it. Now come along. Get the water. Amit, sit down. Take out your shoes. Must take out shoes... Sit down, sit down... Sit down, sit down. Sit down, sit down. Sit down here, just like that.

Please sit down. Now will you sit down! Sit down! Sit down. Now put the water, come along. You put the water, just come along... Now see everybody's doing it. Come along. Aha! Who will do it? Oh, oh, all right. Give him that hand. Where is that, Katie? Just call her. Right hand, right hand, you give the right hand. No, no, no, don't cry. Don't cry. Don't cry. Where is Katie? Call Katie.

Now wash it, wash it. Come along, come along. Come along, come along. She can do it. She can do it. She's big now. She can do it.... It's all right now, see, it's Cool Breeze coming. Good, good, good.

Come along, Katie, come along. Katie has come, see? Now Katie has come. Come along, Katie. Come along, Katie, you do it.

Sahaja Yogi: “Let our ears hear that which is true..."

Shri Mataji: See, everybody's doing it. All the children are doing it. All right.

You see, this is what is the point, that when you get realisation the spirit is awakened, that is Christ and that you listen. “His presence in you": with that you listen. Means with the spirit, you see, the point is. That's what He said: the Comforter will come and He will, or She will, whatever it is, will make you comfort in such a way that you will reside forever in My Fath[er], or would remember My Father forever. That's the spirit you remember.

That's the spirit, you see? See now, hear this.

Who are others?... You never? You too?... Can you imagine, he's here! You have never washed it... Grace, you rub with your hands in the water. Just rub it. Come along. Just rub it, in the water. Rub hard. You have to rub with your fingers. You see, My feet are perfectly all right. Nothing happens to them. Rub as hard as you can.

Sahaja Yogi: The names of the Goddess, as Śhrī Lalitā.

Shri Mataji: Now, you stand up and... Would you do it? Good idea, because... Can you put it for him?... All right, just stand here... Translation, otherwise these people won't understand.

Can you sit down, would be better. We can... Mother Earth... vibrations. Very loudly now.

Can you put `sākṣhāt', that would be better... Not too much.... `Mātājī Nirmalā Devī' would be better... At the beginning you say... Once you've said it, it's all right.

Now you'll be sure of it, all right? May God bless. She's sure of it. It's better now.

These are all the secrets of... All right, but you don't see that... All the horrifying things you have chosen there to read!... Ra, Ra-dha: is to... means the one, `Ra' is the energy... which permeates, permeates. Rādhā is... Ra is energy of Rādhā.... Again horrifying things now! In the beginning they'd say all horrifying things to settle you down, I think, that's why... All right. All right, now go ahead....

Sugarcane now! She's the causal elements. Causal elements, you see? Causal... Like the causal of the Mother Earth is fragrance. Fragrance is the causal of the Mother Earth.

You see, the emission of vibrations through the aura engulfs all the other auras into it... All the Mother Earth.

With the Nābhī... That means... She's full moon of musk. They, you see, they have tried to put all poetic ideas to describe something.

You see, the thing is, it's a difference: it's beauty and auspiciousness. Auspiciousness is the face, you see, that gives you shubha, shubha means `that brings good luck'. The face you see brings you good luck.

That is known as auspicious. Of course, I mean, modern people don't believe in such a face like that, that there could be a face. But there can be a face which if you see, then it brings you good luck. Auspicious.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her, the diamonds of whose nose outshine even the stars.

Shri Mataji: That's why I don't wear anything there!... It's of the joy of beauty.

So the Sahaja Yogis enjoy the beauty of those flowers which She wears.

Because of vibrations, it's that. You see, it's a simple thing is that anything You touch becomes vibrated and if you see that particular flower you are more happy, because it's had vibrations. Vibration is the one which only gives this.... Yes, there are.

Lotus of, the lotus of love....

Which means, which comes out of the kapol. It is the description. Kapol is this one, so this is the part they are describing.... See, Padmarāg, Padmarāg is the fragrance of the lotus. Is the rāg, means the energy of the lotus is coming out of Her forehead.... No, from this, kapal and this is kapol. Kapol is, I'm sorry: this is kapal, this is kapol, cheeks. The energy that flows from the cheeks is the energy of the rāg, means, rāg actually means love, compassion, of a lotus.

Like the new leaves. Vidru is `new leaves', you see. Like the new leaves.... What is the translation? It's a very big thing, but it's very poetic, it's rather embarrassing. It's rather embarrassing! All right....

Blue. Like the blue leaves, you see, of that colour. You see the colour of the new leaves, isn't it pinkish-red, isn't it? So Her lips are of that colour, which will put shame to even those blue leaves, newly-born leaves, you see, pink ones.

Yes, but they are the controller of the Nirmalā Vidyā; Shuddha Vidyā, Pure Knowledge. These are, teeth are the manifestation, they manifest Pure Knowledge. It's the primules of all the Vidyās. Primules.

Camphor is to be applied. And betel is to be eaten, which I don't eat, you see.

Sanlap means `auspicious'. Alap is the report, report. Report.

So... You see, to be very frank, it's very embarrassing. You'd better read it.... No, no, that's what is written there: like the music of vīnā, Divine music of vīnā.... Saraswatī.

[Aside:] Maybe just one more towel...

See, in a subtler form you must see all these things. You don't see that, all the strains, you see. In a subtler form, diamonds are the things which radiate, they radiate, you see.

So when they say the diamonds around the neck, it's not question of wearing it outside; it's a question of radiating that love.

So the necklace, necklace is useful. But now, you are My diamonds in My necklace, so why should I wear any diamonds anymore?... Cosmic, that's it. You see, when She didn't have Her own diamonds and the one that She did have, She used to wear those diamonds, all right. But now you have living diamonds, so what's the need? They were used to radiate Her power. Now you don't need anything; you are the ones who are going to radiate the powers. Right?... That's it... All built-in! I think we'd better not translate it, better not. It is more about the breast of the Mother. Because the children are worried about the breast, so it's described here, so it's better not. No, no, no, better not.

You see, this is written by, for people like Mārkandeya and they described Mother in and out. I don't know how they found the Mother like that, you see, because they are children. You see, so they were the children.

So the children know everything about the Mother in and out, see, so described the whole birth.

That's the... There are three folds. The Mother is... three folds. That's why it's called as... Very embarrassing! Kamesha is... He's the God of all the desires. `Kama' is `desire'. That's why He's placed in the Heart.

Too much of an arch. Can't wear modern shoes!...

They took a photograph, you were there, no, no, but one of the photographs where they just saw the flames coming out of My feet... Mahāshivaratri.

You see, all this is being said because by saying these things you excite these powers, you see, they feel happy, they get excited. And it is nothing special for Me because if it is Mine, it's nothing special. It's just there. But one has to know that why you get realisation so fast, because must be something special about Me. Why you got realisation so quickly? I look like you, behave like you, everything is like you.

But there's something very subtle with it, which is very dynamic and you must understand the cosmic nature of the Mother. That's how it will explain how you all are getting realisation, how you are giving realisation to others. That's why all these description are being given by the seers, who are of a very high quality people, you see. They are very subtler, but the subtler you grow, the more you understand My powers and your own powers too. But it's such a mutual understanding, you see; like the more you open your eyes, the more you see the sunlight. In the same way it is. But there must be something about Me, that you are getting realisation and that something is this description.

Sahaj Yogi: They say that the Goddess is so great that even Lord Gaṇeśha looks only at Her feet. He never looks up to see Her face.

But not Sahaja Yogis, are all right. They are excused. They are meant more than any other deities and they are treated like that. First with children, you see, the deities also are very, very good, very, very kind. They know they are on the stage and they are to be looked after and they are therefore My favourite ones.

[Sahaja Yogi says there is another description that the Goddess's toenails do not need to be cut, because they are clipped by the jewels of the deities' crowns as they bow at Her feet.]

Shri Mataji: It's true, I seldom do that. But sometimes I think I have to, because when you people come on My feet, you are not Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśhas, you should not get hurt. See, you don't have any crowns!... See, at the right time! Brighton married ladies... Brighton. Brighton married ladies.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her, whose Lord is within Her power.

Shri Mataji: Hm. Just imagine!

Sahaja Yogi: The meaning of this is that one can only approach the Absolute through Mātājī.

Shri Mataji: That's Her power. You see, even the, even the control of the Shiva, Sadāśhiva, is in the hands of the Mother is not true, to that extent.

Sahaja Yogi: But you are His, the manifestation of His power.

Shri Mataji: It's true; but you see, My love is, compassion is quite a lot, much more. I'm not wrathful.

But if you people misbehave too much, then He's wrathful. I may not be able to control. Then I have to witness the wrath of God. He's compassion, He's love, He's innocence, everything is there, but He's wrathful.

So be careful what you want to do.

You see, actually in subtle form it's this. That thing which is a, which is Kailāśh, part of His domain.

Kailāśh is a very big space, you see... Peak of... Kailāśh.

You must see the pictures of Kailāśh. It looks like a human face, absolutely, so wonderful. And three little heads, can you see? Absolutely clearly you can see this. And the vibrations are tremendous. And what about the day we had Shiva Pūjā? That day it was frozen completely.

Heroine.... Nayika is the commander, that's correct. Śhrī Chakra: it's the Chakra with which the whole world is created, everything; creative Chakra is Shrī.

Chintamani is the jewels which is, which emits the fulfilment of your desires. Whatever you desire, your worries, your desires are fulfilled by that jewel, by Chintamani.... She is the one who fulfils all your desires. You must desire.

Brahmas, five Brahmas. Five elements.

Loudly.

Vaibhava, is the glory... combines... Manatma. What is translated, read it. You see, this is because of samasas; vigraha is not correct, that's why. Now you read the...

Ātmanas. Manatmanas: the ones whose minds have become Ātmās. Manatmanas....

See, they are Her dignity, that's the point. That's Her vaibhav. Vaibhav means, we can say, the majestic pulsation She emitted.

Something, vaibhava can be, bangles can be My vaibhav, means they're ornaments which add to Her majesty. Vaibhav, you see.... Rishis are My vaibhavas, see; now what I've told you is true. You're My vaibhavas.

This Bandhasur, this what's his name is, was yesterday that lady was entangled by him... Muktananda, is Bandhasur.

Sahaja Yogi: The asura who ties you up.

Shri Mataji: Very difficult to get rid of these people. Muktananda, see is the one who makes you absolutely bound to him and he says, “Have muktananda."

Sahaja Yogi: The opposite!

Shri Mataji: This lady is down with tuberculosis, but she can't give him up, you see. She has both the Hearts catching very badly, she's going down and she can't give up because he's tied him, he's Bandhasura. But Bandhasura has this quality: you have to tie up people, you see and even if they are dying they cannot leave.

Sampatkari. Sampati means `property' and is represented by elephant.

This is the main point. See, ashwakoti, crores of ashwas. Ashwa means horses; so, white horses, crores of them.... Do you know that? Ashwarudha. The ones who are on the horses, white horses, are representative of the Shakti, of the Power and they are the ones who are part of the Kalaki. Crores of them, crores. `Crores' means ten million, one.

She's the action; action Chakra is Śhrī Chakra, through which one acts. It's the right side, Śhrī Chakra.

... Geya Chakra. `Geya' means `by which you know'. Geya is the, by which you know. She is the one who is in possession of that center by which you know. Knowledge is that Chakra only.

Those who are served are the mantrinis. You have, your mantras are enlightened mantras. Whatever you say is mantra.

Kiri? Kri, kri. Yes, that becomes `Sa'. Kri is Karochita, is Śhrī Chakra only.

So Sahaja Yogis must be careful, you see, also. A little bit frightening. Madhyaga. Blazing garland, Jwalamalini. Jwalamalini is... Horrible Bandhasur.

What is the valor of Nitya? Is crucifixion of Christ. It's the valor of Nitya, because He's eternal Being, so you can see Him crucified; otherwise for a Mother to see Her Child crucified is horrific. But because He's the valor of Nitya, that's the valor of Nitya, the valor of eternity. You see the valor of eternity, how He is killed actually and He resurrected. But when you see that valor, it is so beautiful.

Sahaja Yogi: We must know that the same thing is in us.

Shri Mataji: Yes, of course.... Bala is Kārttikeya. It's Kārttikeya. And He kills, because at this point the Kārttikeya works out, you see, at this point. And this is one, this horrible fellow Bandhasur, creates your...

Was terrible lady, that night! Is there not going to be... now. Now it's done or not? It's done now.

I gave it to Pamela. Pamela, where are those ornaments I gave you? Where is that?... Yes, where is it? Both things are there.

From Her... fingernails. Karanguli. Anguli is `fingers'.

Pashupati's Shiva and She's Mahāpashupati.

Burning the cities, is just like Rajneesh's city was burnt.

Madhyakuta. Middle part.

Kula is, you can say, it's a dynasty, dynasty; house, house.

Sahaja Yogi: Mātājī's kula is all the Sahaja Yogis.

Shri Mataji: Of course... See, it's very delicate. See, what are the symbols of, say, now, Gavin has given Me a little crown as a symbol of England, you see, which I really look after very much, you see, kept it very carefully. Also Kulangana is a word used for a lady who cares for the kula, means for the house, for the dignity of the house, dignity of the family, of all the dignity. She cares for the dignity of all the members of her family. To her, the dignity of her family is the most important thing.

She enjoys that.... There's another word is kaul. Kaul is this thing where they ask whether it is correct or not for the kula, that is; and if the flower falls on this side or that side, they say, “Yes, kaul, yes, yes. The Goddess has said yes to me." So Kaulini: She's the one who is the, of course the mistress of the kula; but She's the one who gives you yes and no, the indications which way to go.... Akula. Akula means `the one who is beyond any disturbance'. Kula also mean `banks of the river', kula, so also can mean `the one who has no banks'.

Samaya means `time'. She's the one who knows the time when to start Pūjā, when to do what, She knows, She knows the timing, because She is inside the time. This is very important. What is it? Samayāchāra, samayāchār means whatever is to be done in a particular time. For example now in modern times, see, that particular, that whatever is to be done, auspicious thing for modern times, one should do.

For example, learning English is important for us. But apart from that, samayāchār means mannerism of a particular time, you see, certain mannerism of a particular time which is good, auspicious, must be done: like putting the belt, see, while sitting in the car you must put the belt, samayāchār, whatever it is.

You see, for Devī it is not necessary. For example, if you give Me some money, I need not put it in the bank. I can lose all that up and say that I've finished, there's no sin for Me. I can take away all your properties, everything, there's no sin. But I must do according to the time, to prove what is good for you, how you should behave towards money, towards collectivity; and accordingly I behave. And there is no need for Me, because I am beyond it, isn't it? But samaya, whatever is necessary for according to the time, I have to do.

And that's what you should understand. Not to be abnormal people, you see, behaving in an abnormal way.

Even I tell you that you need not put on this red thing, because it may not be samaya kul at this time, you see, people won't understand, so you need not put. It is wisdom to behave in a way that you lead normal, you behave in a normal way, do something that is normal. But God need not. For God it is not necessary because He's beyond, but when you have disciples who have to come up, who have to deal with other people, they must know how to behave. Like to say thank you is not necessary for Me to you, at all. If you give Me a glass of water it's a privilege to you, all right? But I say thank you ten times, because you must also say thank you. Samaya kul, samaya kul.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her as the only one who lives in the Mūlādhāra.

Shri Mataji: Nobody can enter in. Brahma-granthi.... See, you can't enter inside the center unless and until your Kuṇḍalinī rises and the Kuṇḍalinī is the representation of Holy Ghost. And She's the only one which can enter into it. And also She resides, the Devī resides there as Mahālakṣhmī or as Lakṣhmī, in Maṇipūra.

Now see, without coming to Sahaja Yog you would not understand all these things, isn't it? Because it's not known to you that there are granthis within us, there are centers within us, that these centers are to be broken, then there's granthis are formed between the centers, all this knowledge is impossible.

If you are not realised what's the use of talking about it to you, because you cannot see that. But in a person you can see it, that at a certain point you find it is between two centers this Kuṇḍalinī stops, you see. There is the center, say, of Maṇipūra and Swādhiṣhṭhāna, in between the two the Kuṇḍalinī stops.

Now what is that? That is the granthi of Viṣhṇu, so that's the Viṣhṇugranthi vibhedini. If you say the mantra of `Viṣhṇugranthi vibhedini', then only the Kuṇḍalinī will rise. But before realisation, before the movement of the Kuṇḍalinī, it is what? It is just talk, it has no sense at all.

Here, at the Āgñyā Chakra. Antaral. Antaral means the innermost core. Antaral, in the innermost core of Āgñyā Chakra She resides.... Rudra... `Sahasrāram bhuja' means in the lotus of the Sahasrāra, ārudh, She is bestowed upon that. Ascend, ārudh. All right. Actually when you go onto a throne or onto a horse is what you call mounted: She is mounted upon, She is mounted upon, ārudh.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who is slender as a lotus stalk.

Shri Mataji: That mean you should not be harsh with Me.... Bhavāṇī. `Bhāva' means `to manifest'.

Whatever is manifested.... Known.... You must have feeling. If you don't have feelings for Me, you won't know Me. Rationally you will not know. Those people who tried to know Me rationally can never know Me. You have to have feelings.... Forest of... [UNCLEAR]. You see, if you have to become, there's a big mesh on and She's the one who cuts that and makes you the spirit. See, whatever is manifested is created, is nothing but a forest, isn't it and She takes you beyond that.

`Bhadra' means actually `gentlemanly', see? She likes people who are gentlemanly. She doesn't like arrogant people, people who have no sense how to behave, ill-mannered sort of people She doesn't like, you see, except for Shiva, who is His own style, you see. He's very kind, but He's so innocent, He's so sweet. Imagine, He comes on a bull, He's not very bhadra! Not very gentlemanly to come on a bull, isn't it!... I mean, She's a lady. She's ladylike, you can say.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who gives all good things to Her bhaktas.

Shri Mataji: All good things, not bad things, supposing you ask for a whisky, I will not!

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who loves Her devotees.

Shri Mataji: Definitely. You must know this in your hearts, that I love all of you very much, all right? So you won't be diffident at all. I love you, every one of you, much more than you love Me.

So that you love yourself and each other.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who can be approached only through devotion.

Shri Mataji: Through devotion.... You can only control Me through Bhakti .

Sharada is Saraswatī.

Shatodari doesn't mean that. Shat means hundred. She has hundred, hundred, udara means stomachs, see, udara means the wombs. She has hundreds of wombs. Otherwise how will I do the work? [Aside:]... is going to make Me red! Should be also unrufied type. There's nothing to be rufied, it's all a joke going on.... That means completely integrated personality.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who is beyond desire.

Shri Mataji: That's why I say you must desire. She's purposeless, you see, purposeless. This Prapañcha means `purposeless', you see. All the elements are the ones which create the purpose. If the elements are not there, there's no purpose.... I mean, if you become abode of everyone, how can you have abode? If you become the support of everyone, how can you have any support? Imagine the situation! Nirupadhi... upadhi means there's no upadhi. Means, see, see, additions, an addition, you see. A upadhi is, you see, like they say “Sir this and this” “Lady this and this", you see, these are all upadhis.

This is additions; which, if you are complete, you don't need this thing, attributes.

I mean, if you have passions, how can you destroy passions? But it's so natural, you know. There's nothing special. Nothing special about a person who didn't take to these passions...

Naturally.

These are called as dual names, you see: that the first they give the quality and then what does that quality do. Say, if they say `Nirmama' it's a person who doesn't say `this is mine,' who doesn't feel `this is mine, this is mine.' Such is the person only, that's the quality. Nirmama quality itself destroys this attachment in you when you say `this is mine, this is mine, this is mine.' You see, like a soap has the quality to cleanse, all right? The soap has to cleanse, now nobody cleanses the soap. That's how it is.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who has no doubt.

Shri Mataji: About anything. See, this is what it is. If I had doubt then you would be doubtful also.

But you know Mother has no doubts about things, so when you come near Me your doubts also vanish, automatically.

That's it... Very good...

`Bhava' means whatever is manifested. You see, whatever is manifested is bhava; and whatever is manifested is this flesh, this body, this everything, see.

So you just get above it, that you deny it, the denial of the flesh, as Christ has said.

So Bhavanashini means the one who takes you away from this world of illusions, the world of manifestation, in which you think “Now this house is mine, that is mine." All these ideas go away and you become one with the reality.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who has no plans, no mental activities.

Shri Mataji: Not at all. But what to do? The mental activity I don't understand. I sometimes say “I think" because of samayacha, you see; but to be very frank, I never think. I don't know how to think. It's impossible. It's a funny machine, you know. That's why for you I have more respect and concern, because whatever I have I have, it's nothing so special, you see? But you are achieving it, so it's something special about you. If you have everything, what is so great? If somebody is achieving it, it's a greater thing, much, much greater.

That's all right. But for that I cannot take any credit, because it's automatic people take it. I don't know how to take the credit, you see. That capacity is also not there, you see, to take the credit. I've tried, but I can't! I never feel, you see, that a very credible about it that I should take a credit and come and “this is My doing." I just don't feel it that way, I don't know how to feel, I mean, there's something's missing in the personality. The ignorance is missing. All right? Now this is the integration and non-integrated, you see. When you are integrated there's no problem, you see, about it: you are integrated.

So whatever your body is, it will eat what is good, everything is integrated; no problem, there's no quarrel about it. Within yourself you are at peace. Let others do what they like, whatever they think about themselves doesn't matter. But as far as you are concerned, you have no problem because you are so integrated, you see and supported: there's no left Viśhuddhi feeling-guilty business. I don't feel guilty for anything at all, you see. If I scold somebody, all right, I had to scold, I've scolded, finished. I don't sit down and start feeling My left Viśhuddhi. I am completely integrated.

Whether I am in peace or in turmoil, or in anger turmoil I'm never, but I deliberately take anger upon Myself. Because it is deliberate, what is there to feel bad about it? Because you get, you see, blown into it: that's why you feel bad, “Oh, why I did it?" But this I do it deliberately. Then what is there to feel bad?... Yes, yes, of course. I do.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who destroys death.

Shri Mataji: The other day I used the mantra of Mrutunjaya. Did you hear that? That is should be used for people who are possessed by sort of a cemetrey business, see.

So imagine a complete cemetrey possesses a man; then what to say? It's Mrutunjaya: that “You are victorious over the death."... That's what I said. I don't do anything, I am lazy person.

Sahaja Yogi: Salutations to Her who takes nothing.

Shri Mataji: Yes, who takes nothing. Really, to be very frank I cannot take, you see, that doesn't work out. You see, whatever comes to Me goes with a double speed.

You know who is Durgā? Durgā is the one who is that fellow who did Anand Marg.... All right, now give some rice on top. This is what it is. Now if I take this, it will blossom into thousands.... And you see, what is this ritual? What does that mean, that's all, what does that mean? Now this is the expression when you do like that, is that now we have, making this auspicious, with this rice and, what you're calling?, turmeric. Now the turmeric is a very special thing which is very auspicious, created by Mother Earth. Is a very auspicious thing. You cannot say why, it is.

So mix it up with rice, rice is also a favourite of Mother and make it auspicious with your hands. You have put it there, by which you say that “Mother, this we give it to You." But actually, to put this akshatas, akshata; akshata means `this cannot be destroyed'.

So while doing this what you are suggesting, that “Let us detach ourselves from these fruits, which we are giving to our Mother." All right? The detachment. By that detachment, you develop a detachment within yourself. It's a simple thing. That is, to give something to Mother is something not needed; but when you give it, by that you develop a detachment. That's why you have to give: you develop a detachment from that. Of course you get it back, hundred times more back, but that detachment is developed within your heart; and even if you get thousandfold more, you are not attached to it. See? Then you become generous, you start giving to others. And when you are blessed by the same type of fruits, you don't enjoy it alone, you only enjoyed it with others.

You see, human beings have a capacity to enjoy everything all alone. They can sit down in a room, close the door and peel out a fruit and eat, themselves. I mean, they can do it, quite capable. Even the crows cannot do it, the animals can't do it, but human beings have a capacity: they can do it. I don't know how, it's an impossible situation for Me, impossible. Even to eat food sitting alone is an impossible situation. But to sit down and enjoy yourself alone is possible. But by doing this, what you are saying: that we make it auspicious, give it to Mother. By that, you develop a detachment that whenever you will eat these fruits, always shared with others and they'll be bountiful, bountiful: meaning when you have more, give it to others. All right? So I'll just touch it, all right? That means I have accepted. May God bless you.

And when you eat these fruits now, you will develop that detachment in your Nābhī Chakra, that you will not hanker after fruits of the season, but you'll be satisfied. That is auspiciousness, that you feel satisfied. And what satisfies you more is giving: that's the sign of a realised Soul, you see. When you understand the joy of giving, then you are a realised Soul, otherwise you are not. May God bless you....

Whichever you think I should eat it, I'll touch them... Strawberries? Strawberries I like. It's the easiest to eat. You must eat strawberries always with a little bit of salt for the throat. Thank you. Now what else? This Pūjā is done now...

See your scholarship! Absolutely is true. Now as you have done the job of the unmarried girls, let the unmarried girls do this. Come along. Unmarried girls from Brighton. Brighton is a nice place, very few unmarried girls! Unmarried men, all right. Let unmarried men and unmarried girls! Come along.

Unmarried men of Brighton. Only two? Three? Mike, you are supposed to be Brighton fellow. All right, come along. You become one. You can include Ānand if you want. He's from Shicarpur. And Sonu.

Sonu, you can join us, all right? Open the sarī.

Gavin, that's too much. Who has done, this is too much! See, these are very expensive in England, you should not buy them. Bought in India?... Open it out. It's beautiful, isn't it? It has got fans, I think and what else? Real Bengali sarī. That's the blouse piece. It's complete with the blouse piece. Now, the bachelors must know which side is right side. Is correct, you're right. This side is right side. Now bring the sarī round. It's a training! Ah, how nice! So can you take the photograph of all the bachelors and the spinsters?... All girls. In India they are called as kanya, kanya.... Are you not a bachelor? A bachelor...

Start now?... This is from London. All right.

It's very beautiful. This one is from Brighton. Let Jeremy put it, the Brighton, all right? Jeremy. The sarī. Get this out, it's too much. Let's put the sarī on both the sides. Is that for the arms? Now come along, come along now. Bachelors have a special, they're blessed today. They are called as kumaras, kumar. And the, I suppose what they call spinsters are called as, but what do you say in English? This is the word, but you use for old women!... When it is the marriage is announced? I see.

So, they are called as kumaris and the boys are called as kumars. I think Sanskrit has more decent names, isn't it? That's because they respect the unmarried men and unmarried women very much, they're very much respected. This for arm? Arm, here. And here, it's too small, too loose, too loose. Better make it tight.

Tie it up. Must tie it tight, otherwise it doesn't stay, you see. This is for Śhrī Chakra, or you can say the right Nābhī and Shrī. Why his hands are shaking, with vibrations! Ah, great, it's a great task you have done. Yes, it is. Just pull it, pull it out. First tie it that way. Give him a hand.

Come along, tie it up properly. Come along, come along. Tie up... right. What's that?... No, when you have done it with these daisies, you have done it. All right now. It's all right, done; it's a great job, no? It's not easy. It's only because you are Sahaja Yogis you can do it. No, no, it's not easy. Ask anyone.

These flowers in front. These are all Viṣhṇu's powers. Done? Such fragrant! Look at this one, has such a Sahasrāra open. See these daisies, see what a beautiful Sahasrāra they have! See these, look at this one.

Just see it, all of you. Only the daisy flower have this kind of... in them, have you noticed? And now you will know why My name is Daisy. See, one better than the other, see?... Yes, really! Yes, that's it! And the fragrance, you should see the fragrance of the daisies.

All right, I think the boys put the sarī in such a way...

May God bless you. May God bless you.

I would suggest that all these should be given to the sea here. These flowers can be thrown into the sea.

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, may I read a prayer? This is a prayer for collectivity.

Shri Mataji: All right. Read it loud. Stand up.

Very good. Viśhuddhi is a very big fight, I must say, to work it out as Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. This left Viśhuddhi is a big problem, very sly. Right Viśhuddhi is another problem. We have to fight it out.

May God bless you all.

So havan we'll do, after lunch, would you do with Gaṇeśha's names? Unfolding is easier than to fold it. Give it to the bachelors to do!

Contents: 1982-05-15*, Public Program, Day 3, The Creative Power, Central Channel, Brighton Pavillion, Brighton, UK

I am sure Phil must have explained to you the mechanism of our evolution. As you see before yourself that there are different centers at the different level of the body and all these centers denote or different stages of our evolution. These centers cannot be seen. There are subtle centers placed in the medulla oblongata, means in the spinal cord and also in the brain.

As I told you yesterday that God has created us that purpose and the whole thing has been done very beautifully, with freat compassion, care. Is done very delicately and all these centers denote within us the kind of the growth that has been manifesting one after another.

But at the human stage we are still in the transition stage because we do not know the meaning of our life. The meaning of our life will only be known when we become connected with that power which has created us. The power that desired for our creation, that activated for our creation and the one that evolved us. These three powers are indicated in those three lines. The left side is the power of desire, the subconscious and the collective subconscious and the another one which activates is on the right side which looks after the action, the activation, the creation up to a stage when life started taking its form.

Then comes in the carbon atom. Carbon atom is a very important pivotal element that was created at a point where it had four valences which it couldn't depart or put [UNCLEAR]. This came as a special catalyst, you can say, which started creating life.

Now, the life was created, but, after creating that life as a unicellular animal, we had to become human beings. The chairs do not grow, this hall will not grow, nothing is going to grow which is dead. But, whatever is living grows and evolves. We have become human beings at a stage where that center is near the neck. Where we have raised our neck up, where the animals put their head up. A new system started building up within themselves, by which a crossing took place and this crossing of the energies created these two pouches called ego and superego. Because there was no outlet. The animals have both the feet and both the hands on the ground which comes from the hind legs and goes through the forelegs. But in the human beings, when he raised his head, then a new system developed within him by which he created ego. When he worked, when he took action through his mental and his physical capacities, he developed a system called ego.

Actually ego is a complete myth. Because we really do not do anything. As I said, we only do dead work. We cannot do one living work. We cannot do any living work. And so the ego that is within us is just a myth that we are doing it.

So this myth rises and the superego at the animal stage is pressed back and when both of them combine on top of your head, till about the age of twelve years, the calcification takes place and you become yourself, you become completely independent. The `I'-ness develops. That means you become like an egg. Now you are a separate entity, a free entity, which can work out the left and the right side, which is like a brake and the accelerator of a car and learn how to use them to develop balance within you by making mistakes, by experimenting, you develop your wisdom in the center.

Sometimes the human beings go to the extremes, as I told you yesterday, how they go on to the right side into the extremes and what diseases they develop and what problems they develop. In the same way, I told you a day earlier that when you go to the left, how you develop your problems of emotional side and even a disease like cancer comes to you from the left extreme. Now, in the center is the evolutionary process, is the power of evolution, is the power of your sustenance. For example, carbon has four valences, that means, the carbon has got the sustenance of four. Human beings have ten sustenances which are expressed in the Bible as the Ten Commandments. These are for the sustenance of human beings. When Moses was on this earth, that time it was too early to talk of Self-realisation, about Spirit. As the tree was growing, the tree of life, he talked about the tree of life, tree of [UNCLEAR], about Kuṇḍalinī he did talk. But, he more talked about the sustenance, about the maintenance of the balance, of the being. He was more particular on that point, because that was the time where people had to learn to be in a balance.

He didn't talk of baptism, for example, Jews don't believe in baptism. But he did say that somebody is going to come, Maseeha and He is going to give you the Spirit. He is going to give you the Realisation.

But, Jews as you know, denied Christ, they didn't believe in Him and that's how Christ was crucified.

Now Christ is a very, very important advent on this earth. Apart from other advents, first of all, I'll tell you about Christ, how important He is and how He plays a very important role in the human beings.

People just talk of Christ, Christ, Christ. We should go to the church, say Christ, Jesus Christ is the one I see.

So many posters saying Jesus Christ is within you, Jesus Christ is coming, Jesus Christ is here, but where? Where is He? Where does He reside within us? He resides in the center which is the sixth center called as Āgñyā. This center is placed between the pituitary and pineal body, is a very subtle center and has got two sub-plexuses. He incarnates there as the embodiment of innocence. That's why He is such a powerful deity who incarnates and settles down in that area. His coming on this earth was very important because the ego and superego had crossed each other and there was no space for the Kuṇḍalinī to pass through. That is the cross where He was crucified.

And when He came on this earth, four thousand years before that, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa described that the power which is Divine cannot be destroyed. The Spirit cannot be destroyed, it cannot be burnt, it cannot be blown off. And that's why Christ had to come on this earth to establish that truth. He was one who was `Om', the one who was the Primordial sound and that's why He could walk on top of the water. Only the sound can travel on top of the water because it has no gravity to fall down. It was a special creation of Jesus Christ in the heavens, it's described in many books, Indian books, scriptures, He is described as Mahāviṣhṇu. Of course, the people who call themselves Christians got their Christianity from various sources and they interpreted it the way they wanted to.

For example, St. Paul in the Bible is not a realised Soul, nor he has got anything to do with Christ.

Nothing. He never met Christ, he had nothing to do, he just came forward, he was killing Christians, he was a half Jew and a half [UNCLEAR] and he had bribed people to get a Roman visa or something like that. And he was there as a Roman soldier. And he was killing people, he was killing Christians.

And suddenly he says that he saw a light and he, a self-appointed man and I don't know why he is in the Bible, he should not have been there. He is a misguiding personality and that misguidance is today acting against Christ. Actually, I have a feeling that always, when such a great man comes in on this earth and His work starts, some negative forces become very subtle and come forward to help the cause and actually they are against God. This I will prove it you later on, why I am saying so.

But, Jesus Christ Himself, He came on this earth because we had a problem, the problem was of ego. The problem was, whatever work we did, whatever bad things we did created an institution of sin, we became sinners that made us a personality which was sinning. And He came on this earth to suck all the sins from [UNCLEAR]. It is all promised in the ancient scriptures that such and such personality will be coming and when He comes, He is awakened by the Kuṇḍalinī and if He will be awakened in the Kuṇḍalinī, then He will suck your sins.

So, there will be no Karmas, there will be no sins, not at all.

So He came on this earth for sucking our sins, to take our sins, He died for our sins, we all say this. Then why do you have the idea of sin anymore? Why do you go and confess about your sins? Because if Christ is there and if He is awakened, He will definitely suck our sins.

And the second idea people had that we have to suffer. This was the idea which came from the Jews, that we have to suffer. Several years have passed that this Moses was there and that it was promised that somebody is going to come who will suffer for you, once and for all. And all your sufferings He will take.

Such a great personality was that of Christ. He came on this earth, He went through all the sufferings and still even Christians go on saying, we have to suffer. Why? Has He not suffered sufficiently for you? Are you going to suffer little more than Him? Why have you to suffer? Only thing what has to happen in you is that Christ is to be awakened. If Christ is awakened within you, you will be amazed that all these so-called sufferings disappear just like that.

There are no sufferings anymore left. We have seen patients of cancer who are suffering very much, who are told by doctors that you will die within two weeks time. Is a fact. Now, if their Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, their cancer disappears, all their pain disappears, all their agony disappears and they feel very light and they feel that they have become collectively conscious, that they are saved. They all know that they are saved. Once it happens, then immediately, the lightness of the whole mind, the lightness of the body, the lightness of your being is felt and you feel so light as if you are floating in the joy of God. And this is what was promised and we should have expected.

But what we did was to go back to the same old stuff, which was thousands of years back without understanding that if it was the growth, if it was the living process, the living process always transforms one from another stage to another stage. Like we can see a seed, seed becomes a root, the root then has the shoots and the shoot has other parts one by one till it becomes a blossoming flower, flowering tree and then that tree bears fruits. And then these fruits also fall off. In the same way, if life has to grow through evolutionary process, there has to be stages by which we have to move, it is not that every time that somebody comes, he starts a new religion. How can it be? Christ has said, those who are not against Me are with Me. Now, who are those people who are with Him? He said it very clearly. Even Mohammed accepted Christ as a very great soul and He has said that you must wait for the day of resurrection. But who is talking of Day of Resurrection? Among Muslims, nobody talks of that, they only talk of the day of doOm I don't know why human beings are so anxious to go to that day of doom without going to the resurrection. We are here to be resurrected and redeemed and that is what is Sahaja Yoga. Sahaja Yoga not only counsels you, tells you all about it, it gives you redemption and a comfort, a comfort that is, from the sins and from the worries of life. This is what is Sahaja Yoga.

Now there are other deities who are settled down in other centers, about which you can read in the book, it's given very clearly. But people get shocked about it, when I told them that these are deities are placed here, there and there. For example, if I talk to Indians, they think I am preaching about Christ, I am supporting Christ; I am making everybody Christians, that's how they started looking at Me. And when I tell you about Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, you will say the same to Me, because human beings have a habit to form a club. Now if you are following Christ, then you cannot see anything beyond, you see, you just get closed like that. But you don't see even what has these Christian church done to you. I was born Myself in a Christian Church and I know they have done nothing whatsoever. Same about Hindus, what have their temples done for anyone? Go to these Muslims, what have they done for these Muslims? Nothing.

Except for building big, big, huge mosques and churches and temples and half of the England, I am told that the church is owning. How are they going to recognize Christ? When Christ comes in, are you going to recognize Him? How can you? Which is the way? There are many who say, we pray to God, we say God, give us some job now, we use God for every third person. God is not in your pocket. You have to be connected to God. You have to be one with Him. Otherwise, you will be arrested. As without connection, you cannot approach anybody in authority, how can you approach the One who is the Authority of all the Authorities, without even having any connection or protocol? So all these people who are supposed to be in charge of Christ, in charge of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, in charge of Śhrī Rāma, are all just I must say, are telling lies. Because they are not. They have nothing to do with them. None of them can really deliver the goods.

On the contrary, if you go and tell them that this is the time of judgment and this is the time where you must accept that you are to be redeemed, that's the main thing, you are to be redeemed, if you are not redeemed, then all those things are absolutely useless for human beings. The emancipation of human beings has to be brought in, if it cannot be done, then give up all these nonsensical ideas and dogmas and fighting things and come up and see for yourself what is reality. But they'll not do it, because they exist on our ignorance, they exist we are ignorant about it. The force exists within you, the Spirit exists within you, you don't have to go to these places where there is no talk of Spirit at all, no talk of Self-realisation.

In every religion, it is said that you have to get your Self-realisation, you are to be born again, you must be born again. In America, I met so many people and they told Me, I am twice born. I said, how? We belong to an organization that is twice born. I said, the whole organization is twice born or what? And they believe in such mythical things that they are twice born. I said, what is the sign of a twice born? How can you make out a twice born? Anybody can stand up and say, I am twice born. Are you going to believe that person? Some people are so simple that anybody says anything, they just believe them, but that's not so. A `twice born' has to be collectively conscious person and a twice born has to give you the power of your Spirit and that when you become twice born, you should be able to do that to others.

Like Blake has said, that Men of God will become Prophets and these Prophets will have powers to make others Prophets. He said it so clearly for you English people, but I don't think you people like him very much. Because very few people I have seen, who really appreciate Blake and some of them have said that he is mad. Naturally, among all the mad people, a sane person may look mad also. But he is the one who has so clearly said and in this country, this great man should be born and should talk about Jerusalem is remarkable. Because you cannot think, in England, where people just believe in dominating other countries and using their power to dominate others, you could get Jerusalem established. But what he said was of these days, when those false ideas have dropped off, when people do not think of domination, they do not think of materialism, they are fed up with all these things and they are seeking today. And who are these seekers? These seekers are the men of God.

So recognize yourself. First of all, you must recognize yourselves before recognizing anybody else that you are seekers and that you are men of God.

Unless and until you have found God, you are not going to be happy by all these nonsensical alternatives people are giving.

The other day, I said that there are some people who are just jumping, dancing, is this the way you are going to become twice born? Is absurd. How can you be? How can you believe that such absurd thing that you can otherwise also do it, if want to jump, what is there, you just lift your leg, you can jump.

What is so great? Is it jumping and screaming and shouting and talking nonsense, is it what you are going to achieve? On the contrary, you are going to achieve something that will make your awareness much more alert, the awareness that will be collectively conscious. In your awareness, you should be able to feel others. You should be able to feel yourself, your own being. And that is what is important. Now, these other methods impress people. I don't why this circus impresses them. If they say ten people dancing on the streets, Oxford Street with a dhoti, they are singing `Hare Rāma Hare Kṛiṣhṇa', people say, “Oh, ho, oh, what godly, Divine people are." They are not to advertise it on the streets of Oxford street and other street and wear those funny dresses and funnily dancing, is that the way are you going to God? Use your brains. You are one of the brainiest people in the whole world. Use your brains and find out, is this the way are you going to do it? Something has to happen within you and that within is just now, the time is today, you have to get it.

I am so very happy to see that so many people came today and that they are so anxious to get to their Realisation. Now, after Realisation, when this ascent takes place, when the Kuṇḍalinī rises and you start feeling the Cool Breeze coming out here, people may say, what's there in a Cool Breeze, now this is the Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost. It is all over, all-pervading. You can feel it all over, actually some people start looking at the window, is it coming from the window, if the window is open. That is clear-cut to some people. Now, when you start feeling it, you must use it. You must establish it. If you start using it, then only you will know the value of it. If you have not used it, how will you know what is that? This is the Spirit manifesting and you have to find out whether it is true or not by using it.

Supposing I give you hundred rupees which is Indian money, then you don't know what rupees are.

You must use them in the market and then only you will know the value what it is. In the same way, when I say that the Realisation only takes place by only one method and that is the method of Kuṇḍalinī awakening within you, like a primule in a seed rises only by one method, there are not ten methods that a seed sprouts. The seed has got a primule which has to germinate and it creates that tree which you see. Whatever may be the type of trees or anything, the only the way it germinates is through primule, in the same way, when your actualisation has to take place, this Kuṇḍalinī which is placed at the triangular bone has to rise. And when She rises and pierces through your fontanelle bone area, you really get your real baptism. Not artificial. You cannot give an artificial baptism. Actually, Blake has said, “The priest cursed Me on My head." It's true, because he has no right to touch his head. He is not a realised Soul.

Priest is not a realised Soul, they are self appointed. You cannot become a priest in a theological college or anything man made stuff, it's all artificial. Whatever is man made is artificial, isn't it? Whatever is God made is real and God made things are within you.

But after Realisation, when you are established, you yourself have supreme powers, you can do so many things after that, that you are amazed at your own powers. You are surprised at yourself, that you are so glorious, so beautiful, so wonderful and so blissful, you become like a magnet for others. People are surprised at you, all your priorities change, all your habits drop out, all kinds of nonsensical things that were so much bothering you just drop off. And with that, all these centers are enlightened. And every center has a blessing to give. For example, the Nābhī, that is in the center here, navel center, has a blessing that Kṛiṣhṇa has said “Yogakshemam vahāmyaham", that when you get Yoga, first Yoga, He didn't say kshemaYoga, then when you get the union, you get the well being. Now well being is your achievement.

Not that you become very rich like Ford, that's extreme, that's nonsensical, it's a headache. But you get a satisfied person. You are looked after, God looks after you. We don't believe in God the way He is really.

He is God Almighty. He is God with all the powers and His power is doing all the wonderful things that we see, which are living things. Every second, billions and billions of flowers are coming out and you cannot imagine to what extent it is powerful. And this power when you feel within your reach, you can manoeuvre it, use it. And be glorified by that.

Sahaja Yoga is here to establish all the religions of the world in one thread, to integrate all of them and integrate all the great incarnations of the world in one. Because they are within us, they are not separate, they are all together, they are one family, only we come at different levels of our evolution. And have misjudged them, misunderstood them and we are fighting. As I have said many a times, that from the trees, we remove the beautiful flowers, which are nurtured and nourished and developed by one sap in the tree. And then we fight for these flowers which are dead, ugly that this is mine, this is mine. And that is what is very important to understand that God has created this world not to hate each other, He has created you not to hate each other, but to know how boundless is His love, how eternal is His compassion, how great He is and that with what care He has built you up. You'll be amazed when you get your Realisation to see the inner side within you, how it works, how it shows, how it indicates, you can make it out, a person supposing when you ask the person, this finger is burning you find, you are a realised Soul and you ask the person, “What about your father?" “I have nothing to do with my father now, you see, I am very angry within" they said. This finger is burning, this is the father's finger. You have to tell that “You have to forgive your father. Unless and until you forgive your father, the Kuṇḍalinī won't rise." She has recorded everything about you. You have no business to be angry with your father, just forgive. Then the Kuṇḍalinī rises.

Now, we say Lord's Prayer. Why? For what? What is Lord's Prayer? It is a mantra. It is a chanting at this center. Without saying Lord's Prayer, if your Chakra is caught up, you cannot make the Kuṇḍalinī rise. It's most surprising, how we are made, all of us together and how we are part and parcel of the whole.

It's very surprising, how it acts on us and how it convinces us that what we are doing is the way we have to be. It's not like any other, so-called God's organization where you can pay some money, become members and you are finished there. Or you dote upon your Guru. Your Guru is great and this and that nonsense, this is not that. It is you who has to become. It is you who has to know. It is your own power. And that's what one to understand. Of course, you cannot pay for all these nonsensical things, I mean, I just don't understand that how you pay for these useless people. When you cannot pay for God, why should you pay these horrible people for anything? There is no need to pay, but you do, you do pay them. You think that you are purchasing your Guru, any Guru who is accepting such a thing, who is purchased, is not a Guru but a parasite, he is a regular parasite, nothing but a parasite. There are many parasites out now. Because you are so simple. You are naive in a way that you don't understand a person who belongs to God only gives. He cannot take. He cannot take anything. Even if you give one thing, He will give you ten things as a reward of that, so He cannot take. And this is what is so simple to understand. Everything is extremely simple, but human beings have become rather complicated and those complications definitely create a problem for the Kuṇḍalinī awakening, no doubt. But doesn't matter. Whatever may be the complications, we know all the tricks now. All the permutations and combinations and I am sure, we will be able to work it out.

Thank you very much. I would like you to ask Me some questions before we go further with this. May God bless you all. You should not be afraid of Me or should not be in any way be embarrassed. But of course, you should not try to be rude or ridicule something, that's not good, there's nothing to ridicule or to be rude. That's not very good, not very helpful for your Realisation. Questions, if you have anything, otherwise, we will start with the Realisation program.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You have to work very hard. You thought that. All right. It's a good idea, because all of us think that way. Nothing new. Everybody thinks that how can you get it so easily. Now, you do get it, no doubt. But how? May be I know the trick, must be something special about Me, I am supposed to do this. I know it. All right? They talk, talk, talk.

Some man, somebody was in California.

He cut their tongue, can you imagine? To push it back into here, that's called [UNCLEAR] Avastha.

Imagine, cutting their tongue here. And now these old people are wagging their tongues just like dogs in India. They are still there. The fellow is dead and gone. He was talking of Kriya Yoga and all that. He's gone now, but those people have their tongues down below, no Self-realisation, nothing. People have been standing on their heads, no Self-realisation, nothing.

Now, I'll tell you one simple thing. One must know that we did not do anything to become human beings, did we? So if I have to become super human beings also, you don't have to do anything. Because it's a living process. What do we do for living process? Very simple thing. If you want to germinate a seed, you put it in the Mother Earth. She knows all the job and She does it for you. Do you do anything? Do you stand on your head or do you run? Or do you have any sort of a physical exercise to see that the seed germinates? Nothing. It's a living process. For living process, you don't have to do anything yourself. But, after Realisation, this is a unique thing. After a human being gets his Realisation, then he feels the power, so he is no more an animal, no more an inanimate thing, like this machine doesn't know I am speaking in it. It doesn't know it is carrying the electricity, least of all, it cannot do anything by itself.

But here, you know the power is flowing through you. You will know how to manoeuvre it, also, you will be completely in charge of it. That's what I am saying, it's fantastic, isn't it? But for [UNCLEAR], what's the harm? It's for [UNCLEAR]. Yes, I agree, it is said that you have to do this, even Kuṇḍalinī awakening, God, I have read a book so big as that, I couldn't read all that nonsense but, in that book, they said that Kuṇḍalinī is in the stomach. Can you imagine? You see, about God, Hitler can write. Napoleon can write, anybody can write. But I have to deliver the goods, I have to. Say, I am banker and I have got the key with Me, which I have to return to you, that's all.

Another simple example I will say that this candle is enlightened and that one is not, supposing. Then just this light has to go near that because it is ready made. But if I can't see, I don't know anything about it, I may take this enlightened light or may not take this enlightened light, do all kinds of things which may be absurd. And that's why you go on like that. Like, from the village, Indian village, those who have not seen electricity, they come and you tell them “Put off the light." They'll go and start blowing at it.

And the whole night they will be blowing and they will say that it is very difficult to blow off this light.

Because they don't know the trick.

That is the mystery, mystery of the Christian Churches. They'll talk of mystery. What is the mystery? Because you don't know anything, so call it a mystery. Very nice. There is nothing mysterious. You will see everything clearly. You will see everything happening clearly. You can see the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī, you can see flowing of it, but they don't want to accept, they are too vain, that's what it is. Same with every sort of religious person, it's not with one, but they are also vain and they do not want to accept it.

They do not want to accept it. And they will losing all the chances. The chance is now, the time is now.

Because they want to carry on with that state.

Yes, you must know that in India, in the villages, there are thousands of Sahaja Yogis, thousands, you see. The more westernized you are, the more developed you are, you are less prone to reality. You prefer plastic mode than reality, I think. And that's how there are less people, but very good quality of Sahaja Yogis we have in the West, very good quality. Because they intelligent, logical, once they have found the truth, they stick on to it. And they work it out. They are very intelligent people. You really need pure intelligence to understand this. But if you have a biased mind, then it is rather difficult. But still when it works out, how far can you go on denying? Best thing is that you are a seeker and you must seek it.

Supposing, I have done the cooking, forget it how I have done it, better have it. If you are hungry, you will eat it isn't it? You have to taste it, not Me.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Is going to be extremely simple. Even the word `simple' may be complicated. Tatkshana.

In Sanskrit, it's Tatkshana. That moment it happens. But, sometimes you are so complicated that poor Kuṇḍalinī cannot rise, you are so complicated.

So that is also simple. We have to clear it out.

Some people who came yesterday to get their Realisation are today sitting here quite entitled to give Realisations to others. They are going to give Realisation now. It's extremely simple. Not to worry about it at all.

But you have to also understand that you get your Realisation because compassion of God has decided to do that. But, you also must understand your own value, that once you get Realisation, you should not disappear, you must try to grow more into it and master this art of Kuṇḍalinī. That way, in Brighton, I think we gave Realisation to quite a lot of people. But they do not take to Sahaja Yoga because they do not want to give Realisations to others. They just want to keep it to themselves, after one year, it all is lost. Then again they come to Me, “Mother, we have lost the vibrations." But vibrations were given to you to give it to others, you have to help others. You cannot, it's not an individualistic thing. You have to share. This is like I make you the capitalist and you share the capital with everybody else, otherwise you cannot enjoy. Unless and until you give to others, you will never enjoy.

Christ has said that “You do not enlighten the light and put it on the table." Exactly, that is the situation. Of course, we have some very great Sahaja Yogis here in Brighton who are doing wonderful work and all of you, I am sure will get Realisation and do the purpose for which you have got it. And not just get lost. It's very wrong, I think its ungratefulness towards God who gives you Realisation, then you must try to give Realisation to others, otherwise this movement will not spread, it will just remain up to you, it won't go further. You have to learn the method, it's very simple. Even children can give Realisation.

So, it's not difficult, but you must come forward, spare some time for it. And must go forward with it. That would be very selfish, just to get Realisation for yourself or if you are sick, to get yourself cured. It's very selfish.

The other day, we had a lady, she had a dislocated arm, you remember that? And she got cured. She never showed her face again. She came just to get her arm cured. Tomorrow, she has something else, she'll come back again. This is not the way to extract and exploit God's compassion. Because human beings are in complete deprivation of the spiritual wealth and as God has given us means and methods, we must try to give them what we have received.

All right, let's have it now. It's very simple as I said. That's the best way. Give them a hand. See now, this is the kind of people you get. This is the kind of people. Just think of it. They don't want Realisation. They don't want it. These are alright. Look at those four people who came in. Just look at them. They don't want it. They must be tied up with some other Gurus or something, till they are completely finished, they are not going to come to Sahaja Yoga. They have to come down to that level where you see no way out, in that condition then they come to Sahaja Yoga, which is something too much for Me also, isn't it. When you are healthy, when you are alright, better to get to it.

All right, take out your shoes. The main thing is we cannot give Realisation to people who do not want it. To be very frank, we cannot. It is your complete freedom which is respected. If you do not want it, it is better that you go away. The other day, yesterday, there was one gentleman, who came here. I told him just to put hands like this, he would not do anything, he was sitting like that. I said, why are you here. “I've come here to see." I said, what? There's no observer needed here, you have to come to get your Realisation. And they don't understand, that if it is free, that doesn't mean you should take liberties with us, that's not proper, that's not being just and fair to us. Just come here and trouble us like this is not a good thing. Because if you don't want your Realisation, it is better to go. But if you want it, you must sit down and take it. Because, it's a big load for us with such people who obstruct, who obstruct the movement of the Kuṇḍalinī, they just obstruct. They cannot get Realisation, they cannot go ahead, it's better that they go away and don't trouble others. It's a very much better idea than to have them here who do not want it. Because, you see, also the deities don't like such people, who come here just to sit down. They don't like it. They don't like such people at all and it's very hard to continue with the work if there are people, who do not want reality.

Please put your hands like this, just like this. Take out your shoes please. And just put your hands now. Why to take out your shoes is very simple, because when you take out your shoes, you touch the ground, the Mother ground. Just put it like that on the ground. Put both the hands straight. And close your eyes, that's all. Just close your eyes. Keep your eyes closed. Because when Kuṇḍalinī rises above the subtle centers, then there is dilation of the pupils, that's why you have to keep your eyes shut, because Kuṇḍalinī won't rise if you your eyes are open.

So, one thing sure, there is no mesmerism.

Now please don't open your eyes. Put your left hand towards Me as it is there and right hand you put it on your heart, because in the heart resides the Spirit. And ask a question, `Mother, am I the Spirit?' You need not ask loudly, but you can ask within your heart. `Mother, am I the Spirit?' Now take this hand higher, at the end, at the point of your neck on the left hand side and just say `Mother, I am not guilty.' It's simple. Just go on saying, `Mother, I am not guilty.' This is very important.

`Mother, I am not a sinner, I am not guilty.' You must say that.

Now without feeling guilty, you put the same hand again on your heart. Without feeling guilty, again I say, without feeling guilty, you should say, `If there has been any mistake, please forgive me.' Ask God to forgive you, if you have done anything wrong. According to God's plan or design, if you have done anything wrong, ask God to forgive you.

Now, as I said, that you have to give Me permission to give you Realisation.

So, you have to ask, `Mother, please give me my Realisation.' And put your right hand now on top of your head while saying so. On top. Just on top, little higher.

Now put the other hand and this right hand towards Me. You may take out your cap, because you may not be feeling the Cool Breeze if there is a cap on your head.

So better to take out to feel it.

Now put both the hands towards Me. And now see if there's a Cool Breeze coming in your hand. You have to forgive, forgive everyone. Please say, Mother I forgive.

Now the Sahaja Yogis who are realised Souls sitting among you, will just feel if you have feeling the Cool Breeze or not on top of your head. They won't disturb you at all. The power is flowing from their hands and they can make it out. And they'll tell you what is the problem is.

So, nobody should talk.

Keep your eyes shut. Keep your hands like this. And these people will see you if you have got Realisation or not. And then, they will tell you, why, what is the problem is like, let them have a look. And you will also become the same as they are today.

[Approaching the local of this Fair, which takes place only two Saturdays of the whole year, Shri Mataji asked whether there was a sanctuary in the area:] The vibrations are far too good, there must be something holy in this area. Do you have here something holy such as a tooth of Lord Buddha or some hairs of the Prophet Mohammed? Sahaja Yogis: Surely if there was something that precious we would have heard of it? It could be there is a swayambhū somewhere nearby. [Variant: Vibrations are there, there must be a Sanctuary.] [At last Her car reaches the spot where the procession is taking place and She exclaims:] That's your swayambhū, go and find out the story of this statue. [After having examined it:] It looks rather like Me.

[The guardian of the Hall told the story of the Lady of the Rock. Two children have entered a cave and found a statue of the Virgin Mary has changed the place afterwards. Nowa days this cave was a sanctuary people visited. How much was the apparition of the Virgin in Fātima talked about in the whole world and this one, true happening, was and is unknown for most of the people, in a country which is said to be so religiously catholic like Portugal. The Goddess had to come to point it out to us. How to put in words the emotion and the feelings your heart experiences when you visit a Sanctuary where the Virgin appeared longtime back, accompanying.] [People were giving money and when we asked Mother whether we should give some too, Shri Mataji answered smilingly:] You people should, not Me; after all, what is the use of giving money to Myself?

Shri Mataji: What is this woman doing here?

Luis Garrido: [replies that she is his girlfriend].

Shri Mataji [to Luis]: I don't know the meaning of girlfriend. It's something very indecent; do you really love her? Do you really love her, because if you did you would marry her rather than treating her like this. In societies like India this type of relationship of boyfriend, girlfriend is considered highly immoral.

[One of the Portuguese ladies who got Self-realisation asked blessings for her son who was in prison and led a life of delinquency from a very early age. She showed the photograph of the boy to Shri Mataji asking:] Mother what can You do for my son! Shri Mataji [closed Her eyes and after some seconds declared]: Now he is My son.

[Then She tells Sahaja Yogis that the only thing they have to do is to raise his Kuṇḍalinī.] [Later he was given freedom due to an amnesty. We invited him for meditation at home and raised his Kuṇḍalinī. Vibrations poured down very strongly and he behaved with the open mind characteristic of a seeker.]

[A lady suffering from throat cancer comes to meet Shri Mataji. Shri Mataji asks her whether she had been to any false Gurus.] Lady: Only spiritualism and that only a few times.

Shri Mataji: There you are, even once is enough to cause the development of cancer. Spiritualism is very dangerous and not an authorized practice.

Luis Garrido: But don't they perform certain cures through spiritualism?

Shri Mataji: They may perform a temporary cure of the body now and then but later on the patient will contract several serious diseases, because in the process of working with dead souls, spiritualism plants an extra source of disease in the patient.

[Luis Garrido's pain on the left forehead is cured by Shri Mataji but it returns after an argument. He tell Shri Mataji about it just before the start of the program on the stage.]

Shri Mataji: I did cure it for you but you have to do it yourself, it is not completely cured and you will have to work hard at it to master it completely. It could take you several years.

Luis Garrido: Don't you have some stronger technique to wipe this problem out for ever?

Shri Mataji: One stronger technique is, if you want, you can rub My feet, this might help.

[Shri Mataji starts the lecture with Luis Garrido rubbing Her feet.]

Luis Garrido: What I am going to do now, when You are gone?

Shri Mataji: Fear not and have faith and see this Indian Sahaja Yogi, he is staying behind and he can teach you about Sahaja Yoga.

Contents: 1982-06-02 Morning Conversation with Joseph, Jewels And Chakras, Madrid, Spain

Shri Mataji: What did he say?

Sahaja Yogi: He says, Mother, that when he was in the meeting yesterday he was listening to You and tried to touch You. And suddenly he felt this, when You went past him... he didn't get any smell from You and when You went past him he felt the sandalwood, very strong sandalwood smell.

Shri Mataji: Sandalwood?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, Mother.

Sahaja Yogi: He says You must have very beautiful vibrations.

Shri Mataji: Sandalwood and all this fragrance comes from within. Even if you remember Me sometimes, you'll get fragrance. This Mother Earth is made out of fragrance.

What is he saying?

Sahaja Yogini: He is telling a story about a friend of his, Fernando. He was a man, a very, a very advanced man for his age to reach. He talked very much with him. He's telling a story of a friend of his now.

Shri Mataji: He's getting fragrance?

Sahaja Yogini: It was two of his friends who were talking about him and suddenly when they were talking about him after he died, they felt and smelled the fragrance, sandalwood fragrance.

Shri Mataji: He might be a realised Soul.

Shri Mataji: In India only the realised Souls are buried and not other people. Everybody is burnt up. Only the realised Souls are buried.

Seeker: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: He's a quality, is he? See the quality? Bring your friend also. But I think you have are a very good quality.

I'll give you the book. And you can get it translated from them. He's going to stay here. I'll write your name.

Sahaja Yogi: Pete Kondra is a diminutive name. Joseph Kondra. [Long conversation in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Note his address also. Is he married or not? What is he saying?

Sahaja Yogini: He is a lawyer and he is married now. It is a civil wedding...

Shri Mataji: How is she?

Sahaja Yogini: She is a little bit of a saint and a little bit of a witch.

Shri Mataji: [Big laugh.]... `Meeta' in Sanskrit means `little' [half].

Sahaja Yogi: Marriage is like a contract to him.

Shri Mataji: Now, just now. But after you bring her along, we'll give her Realisation. Then it's a Divine contract.

Sahaja Yogini: He says he has to be careful what he's doing.

Shri Mataji: I tell you why it is important now, because many great souls want to be born again and they want good parents. And that's why marriage has to be good, sensible and peaceful and stable.

Sahaja Yogi: He says he is happy.

Shri Mataji: What is he saying?

Sahaja Yogi: He's a lawyer, Mother. And his speciality is divorce.

Shri Mataji: What is it?

Sahaja Yogi: Divorce.

Sahaja Yogini: A lawyer of divorce.

Shri Mataji: Is he?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: All right. Let him ask the question, `Mother, are You the source of all the laws?' Again.

Again.

Again.

All right, you get it? Now, you have to ask ten times.

Where are you catching? Here? This is the one what you have done, all this treating and all that of Kṛiṣhṇamurti and all that. He's unauthorized. They have no authority to talk of God. This one, Swādhiṣhṭhāna, left. Unauthorized, they are unauthorized. In the law of God, in the law of God, they are unauthorized people.

Sahaja Yogi: He says that all the ones that talk about love have the authority.

Shri Mataji: No, no, they just talk.

Sahaja Yogini: No he didn't say that.

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. What did he say?

Sahaja Yogini: He said that You are speaking like that because You have the authority.

Shri Mataji: Aaha, But yes, but you see them, unless and until they are realised Souls they are not, just like you are a lawyer, you can practice. They are not lawyers of love so they cannot practice love.

So that is why this is catching [left Swādhiṣhṭhān]. But it will go away. See? sākṣhāt Śhrī Gurubhyam, sākṣhāt Śhrī Gurubhyam, sākṣhāt Śhrī Gurubhyam, sākṣhāt Śhrī Gurubhyam, sākṣhāt Śhrī Gurubhyam. Aha, now all right? It's less. Still tension is there.

What is he saying?

Sahaja Yogini: He feels much better.

Shri Mataji: You give him a sort of a light. This is the only problem you have. Otherwise everything is, better.

Sahaja Yogini: He's saying he's feeling Cool Breeze now.

Shri Mataji: Ah. I'm heating them out. Now better.

Sahaja Yogini: He is noticing it. [Sahaja Yogis explain what is happening because of the light.]

Shri Mataji: Everything is practical in Sahaja Yoga. Everything that we say, we can see in the Kuṇḍalinī. Say for example the Kuṇḍalinī stops here, you have to take the name of Jesus Christ. If it stops here then you have to say: `Mother I believe in You.' Is all practical, is living. And a rapport is established with the, now, living rapport.

Shri Mataji: What he is saying?

Sahaja Yogini: That's logical. Where the Kuṇḍalinī stops we have to invoke the deity that is there.

Shri Mataji: Yes. That's what it is.

Sahaja Yogini: He said it's very simple and it takes ages to learn this, Mother. He says, “I'm like a donkey."

Shri Mataji: No, no. It will take no time because you learn it in no [time] little, little children know.

Very, very simple. Ha, there. It's better now, it's cooler.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother, he said: “Of course, because he's next to You, with Sahaja Yogis with good vibrations. And he says, if he's next to You, he feels much better."

Shri Mataji: There are. I'm always with you. I don't leave My children alone. Wherever you are, I'm with you. Good.

He should come to London. Guru Pūjā, why not call him on a Guru Pūjā day? Great idea. When is Guru Pūjā day? 6 of July or 5th... Will be good. We'll be getting all the Sahaja Yogis there. Give him the address of the London ashram also, so that he can, you take his address...

Guru Pūjā is on the 6.

Sahaja Yogini: 6 of?

Shri Mataji: 6 of July. But it will be held on the 5th I think. Come on the 4. Third is better on because third is a Friday. No third is a Saturday, 4th is a Sunday and Monday is the 5th so he can stay there for few days. We have ashram, it will not make problems. He can come on the third if he wants.

Third, third of July.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes Mother, he is coming.

Shri Mataji: Tell him perfect. Perfect knowledge! In three four day, I don't know who else know Portuguese.

Sahaja Yogini: Spanish.

Shri Mataji: Spanish. Who else?

Sahaja Yogini: In London?

Shri Mataji: Hem [yes].

Sahaja Yogini: Dom... Luis, Rodriguez.

Shri Mataji: Yes, you are all there. And Dom?

Sahaja Yogini: No...

Shri Mataji: So that he can talk to him. [Big laugh.] What did he say?

Sahaja Yogini: She was saying that if he has no money we can help him. But he is a lawyer, so he has money.

Shri Mataji: She has married an English man. And he is also writing a book, on Sahaja Yoga. They are all married here. They all have married Sahaja Yogis.

What did he say?

Sahaja Yogini: He says there are perfect Sahaja Yoginis.

Shri Mataji: No, they are much more perfect now, after Realisation. They enjoy life. Get your wife realised, get her.

They are all very happy... He can come this evening?

Sahaja Yogini: He is just thinking of bringing his friend tonight and his wife tomorrow...

Bring also wife also, friend also.

Sahaja Yogini: He says that he can bring his wife tomorrow morning.

Shri Mataji: All right, 9 o'clock then we see how we can go. 9 o'clock, because at 10 o'clock we go away so he comes at 9.

Sahaja Yogini: Mother he says that he has a car, if you want to go anywhere, he can bring you anywhere you like.

Shri Mataji: Thank you very much.

Sahaja Yogini: Do you want this afternoon? Shri Mataji [laughing]: What about him?

Sahaja Yogini: He will drive you Mother.

Shri Mataji: He will drive for us? What we can do, we have two cars if he comes, some of you can go in the same car and they can also go. And we can go to the embassy. Will be a good idea. We'll see the ambassador also, Indian ambassador, a very good man. He's a realised Soul. And then after the meeting, you see, before we just come up for here with the program and his wife will come later.

So we have two cars. We have one car. If he comes also with us, then we can take her with us to the embassy. Embassy, one program is there. And after the embassy, we can take him down to this program. All of us will be there but you people come along faster about one hour earlier. I'll come later on. I leave about seven thirty. You leave about six thirty because it is from five thirty the program.

So we have to leave at five o'clock. Now and as we know the road is very easy to reach there. Five o'clock we have to leave.

So you tell him? What's the program named?

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: I'll go with you, with some other people.

Sahaja Yogini: What time we go Mother?

Shri Mataji: We have to leave, how much s the embassy's time from here? Now we have to go when?

Sahaja Yogini: At five o'clock from here Mother.

Shri Mataji: At five o'clock from here. And she will tell exactly how to go because now, yesterday, we made a mistake, you see, So there's a very simple road, you'll tell him you how to go.

Sahaja Yogini: He is coming quarter to five here.

Shri Mataji: that's fine. Very nice. Then I'll go with him.

Sahaja Yogini: He says you are wonderful. He says when he saw your picture in the street, he can because you are a woman, that's why he came to see you.

Sahaja Yogi: He was walking on the street, Mother and than he saw the poster. And he was really amazed because it was the first woman he saw that was teaching about the spiritual life. It was extraordinary because you are a woman; In India women are supposed to stay in the house.

Shri Mataji: Exactly. But only a woman can do this job now. Only a mother can have that patience, love, affection and that handling. Then, it's a handling. Yes. Job of a woman is needed now.

Sahaja Yogi: He said a man can get lost, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Very much, in his temper.

Sahaja Yogi: But a woman is more...

Shri Mataji: He has no patience, you see. Man has no patience and he can't bear fruits, first of all.

What does he say?

Sahaja Yogi: He says a man always shoots up, Mother. He's shooting up, he can get lost. But a woman is more family attached to.

Shri Mataji: She knows how to handle the situation because, you see, in this lifetime I've seen not only with stupid people you'll be, very aggressive, very hot tempered, all kinds of people, you see. And if the man is there, he will beat them. He'll just beat them. Like so many Gurus, you know, real Gurus also, they throw stones, they beat them, they are so hard actually, you can't imagine. They throw stones at people.

They throw stones. What did he say?

Sahaja Yogi: He says that there's a magic grace. [Long talk from Joseph.]

Shri Mataji: What did he say?

Sahaja Yogi: He says that in the world people, humanity is going to be scratching and that the forces from the earth and from heaven are coming together to save, it's not coming to an end.

Shri Mataji: Yes. That's another point, very correct. The tension is so much that the person who loves must just love and forgive and not to kill. You see, this is the thing, it's too much of love and patience, tremendous patience.

A peaceful, a blissful person. This is the comforter. Is a comforter and a counselor because I'm now counseling. And also redeemer. Redeemer, the one who gives salvation.

Sahaja Yogi: He says around the power of earth and of heaven, are in You, Mother.

Shri Mataji: In the...?

Sahaja Yogi: In You.

Shri Mataji: That's true. Just now one has to bring all the powers. Without that how can you solve this tremendous problem of emancipation of the whole masses of human beings? It's not easy.

You see, to give Realisation to one person was so difficult. Now we have to give to so many. Masses, thousands, thousands there. In India thousands are getting Realisation. They have seen, they have been to India. They have seen, all these women have been to India. They have seen.

Sahaja Yogi: He says that in Spain it's very difficult.

Shri Mataji: Very conditioned.

Sahaja Yogi: Because they [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: First of all they're very conditioned by Catholicism. And secondly now by these modern ideas, you see, getting modern, nonsensical. [Long talk from Joseph.]

Shri Mataji: What did he say?

Sahaja Yogi: He says that to share the power, Mother, is very difficult. And You do it. You have the power and You share it.

Sahaja Yogini: He says that in Spain, in the time of the inquisition. It was a very hard time because spiritually, the people didn't evolve or really expand and...

Shri Mataji: Spiritually people are?

Sahaja Yogini: They didn't really evolve since that time. And also because, he said that, what you have, normally people just want the power for them or they don't want to share it.

Shri Mataji: That power is no power which cannot be shared.

Sahaja Yogi: He said that people don't share the power first of all, because they don't have it. [Laugh.]

Shri Mataji: That's the sign. That's the sign.

What is he saying?

Sahaja Yogi: He's talking about money, Mother. Money gives you a certain kind of power and nobody wants to share it.

Shri Mataji: Because it enslaves you, that's why. You see, it is enslavement. It's not freedom. If you have freedom, you share it.

Sahaja Yogi: He can see the environment, condition, heaviest condition by the environment. And he said if we were in India, we would be outside and we won't be so conditioned by society.

Shri Mataji: It's true; it is a blessing. India is a very blissful place. What he means?

Sahaja Yogini: He said that a minimum of money is necessary because we have to live, we have to go by tube, we have to eat food. But he said this is just sufficient to live and afterwards we must not get taken up by the ambition and wanting having always more.

Shri Mataji: You see, actually money after Realisation has its own value, because then you start spending for God's love, you see. For example I travelled, I have to spend money, then that is so fulfilling because every travel means so many people get realisation and it has a meaning. Otherwise what's the use of travelling? And even material possessions are for giving. It's for giving others, you see, whatever you have to express your love you give. Like you give flowers, you give, I go on giving things like that. I enjoy giving.

Sahaja Yogini: He has another friend Mother who is coming tonight.

Shri Mataji: Today, at quarter to five.

Shri Mataji: So I'll go and rest now. Will it be all right? Then I'll have some peppermint. You are very nice, you are really just there. I'm seeking people like you. [Long talk from Joseph.]

Sahaja Yogini: He said, Mother, he liked You because he can see You have the powers and because, he says, if You do not agree with him, if You said to him, “no" he says it's all right because You are the person who has to perfect him.

Shri Mataji: But he has already reached right conclusions. Rationally he has reached right conclusions.

Now spiritually he should verify them. That's all. Tell him now.

Sahaja Yogini: He said that he apologizes for anything he has said or any attitude it was wrong.

Shri Mataji: Non, non, no. I'm overjoyed, I'm overjoyed to meet him. You should say that `In one day how close we have become because you are the same style as we are.'

Sahaja Yogini: He's trying that all his negativity goes out so he would be all right.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes. Don't you worry. Absolutely.

Now in one day, imagine. Yesterday he came and how close one feels him.

Cause there is something so similar, isn't it, within us, which is so much there. And just you meet and just you become one. It's like that. It's very simple. He understood? He understood; he must be knowing English, after all.

[MISSING.]

Shri Mataji:... is used for left Heart, little bit. Now this side. But it's not a precious stone. Instead of that the Center Heart is ruby. See they have wrote down the whole thing.

Ruby. Heart. Center Heart.

And emerald for the Nābhī.

Sahaja Yogini: Sorry Mother?

Shri Mataji: Emerald.

Sahaja Yogini: For the Nābhī Mother?

Shri Mataji: That is ruby.

What is it?

Sahaja Yogini: Copper and emerald.

Shri Mataji: Copper is also green, copper is fitting with [UNCLEAR].

For the Viśhuddhi is this one. Viśhuddhi is this one.

Sahaja Yogini: Saphiro, saphiro.

Shri Mataji: Blue, blue one.

And diamond, for this. These are ideas for a present. Tell him.

I give you some, for your stomach I'll give you some emerald as a present.

What did he say?

Sahaja Yogini: He says that your are from Pluto so he will give you `granate', garnet.

Shri Mataji: Garnet, garnet. Brought from Colombia.

He knows a lot about. Do you do any business in this? How do you know so much about this?

Sahaja Yogini: He says that what he really loves doing is magic rituals. But he promised to himself not to do them anymore. Those are not ritualised.

Shri Mataji: Good. Otherwise even if you bring them, I'll make them unritualised. [Laughs.]

Sahaja Yogini: Don't you want to rest?

Shri Mataji: I want to, but I'm just finishing My tea, alright?

Sahaja Yogini: He understood that magic is very tricky. And if you commit a mistake, make a mistake, you'll pay very much.

Shri Mataji: You will always pay. Whether you commit mistake or not, because it is a movement away from the reality. Always the, you see spirits come to help you and you don't know where they will land.

But the other magic is just playing with your hands is different. But this magic with the sprits is very dangerous. Like hypnosis, all these things are very dangerous.

Because you enter into an unknown area. And you don't know how to protect yourself. Even psychologists get that problem.

Sahaja Yogini: He says besides that these forces will, these psychic forces will go to our ego and do not leave us in peace.

Shri Mataji: They will, they will come, they will enslave you. They can remove your body, just take it out your soul sometimes and you can be lost, you can be dead. They do this to children so many times.

It's horrible thing, absolutely horrible. It has nothing to do with God.

Now I teach you the magic of God. It's tremendous. Dynamic. Long pervading. That's what you should have. Sink into that, one sinks into that.

[MISSING.]

Shri Mataji: A machine for having breakfast. And he had to eat through a machine.

So the machine used to had a hand by which it used to push food into your mouth, you see. You don't have to use hand.

And there was one cake and the cake was finished in the experimentation.

So they put some bolts. And the machine started pushing the bolts in the stomach. But the worst was they put a... Chaplin makes such a fun of modern times, I tell you. It is [UNCLEAR heart].

So they said last one was they put a corn, you know, to eat and the corn used to turn and you have to eat, you see and you are so fixed that your teeth were just on the corn and you couldn't eat it. But the corn started moving, revolving very fast and people were all scared. And the corn was just, you know, it was brushing the corn against his teeth, his lips and everything was [UNCLEAR] and the corn was very [UNCLEAR]. It's very interesting. Have you seen `Modern Times' of Charlie Chaplin? You get it seeing. It's worth... the man is genius actually.

He made such fun of these modern times. And that we see today. These computers... After some time we can't use even fork and spoons, you see, you suddenly find something coming out [UNCLEAR] these computers sitting out here suddenly you'll find the whole thing goes up and down. Everything is possible and the result with these computers, I tell you, they can be very wrong, I tell you.

The other day we went to buy these things, chandeliers, you see. And then when we went to buy the chandelier, what happened, the lady made something mistake on the machine and she put one hundred pounds extra. I had calculated in My mind.

I told her, “This is wrong. This is not correct." She said, “How do You say?" I said, “I have a better machine in My head also. And this is wrong.

Again you do it." Again she did it. She got it correct.

She said, “It was my mistake. Instead of one, I pushed two." I said, “That's it.

So don't do it by machine, do it by your brains. It's much better. Otherwise I would have lost one hundred pounds." He spoke very well about Sahaja Yoga. You were not there when he spoke. He said that all these strange, crazy type of Yoga are not the real Yoga. Sahaja Yoga is the real Yoga. It was revived by Me.

It's the real Yoga of spirit and which is revived now by Mātājī Nirmalā Devī. That's the [UNCLEAR].

And She's a very dedicated wife. Despite that She's doing this great work and all that. But he said the remarkable thing is the way She's mastered the technique. [UNCLEAR And the point of that revival, you see, which was, they all come into My head]. And they spoke for quite a long time. But they were very much interested, all of them.

Some of them are foreign service people, you see. And these all foreign service people are the cream of the country.

Sometimes [UNCLEAR] start, the vibrations start coming very rhythmically.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes.

Shri Mataji: I actually [UNCLEAR]. Even when I'm tired if there's some music, I enjoy. But I don't like loud music, I don't like, because it makes you too much [UNCLEAR]. Today when you were playing this music there in the hall there was a man sitting next to Me. He was going on, on, on with the tune, he was enjoying it so much. We all were enjoying. Maybe these people will go and talk about it and tell them. You might get more people. This radio people did you telephone?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: What did she say? No time?

Sahaja Yogi: Too many programs and...

Shri Mataji: But today she just have broadcasted.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: You never heard her. You should have heard. Specially you did such a good job.

All the time you are cooking. Very good taste you have got in your hand. This tastes very well. I'm sure you [UNCLEAR] will come back because that girl comes with [UNCLEAR clappings]. [UNCLEAR] I think [UNCLEAR you] too has your quality of surrendering. And that's how as you surrendered yourself to your husband, she is doing the same thing [UNCLEAR], same mistake.

That principle of Guru establishes within us our sustenance what we Sanskrit call Dharma, our sustenance, our human quality. Actually you have to have a Guru who is a realised Soul, who loves you, who is absolutely master of Kuṇḍalinī. And he does this work out of love for you, of compassion because he wants to share his joy with you. And such a person is extremely detached as far as your money, wealth, anything is concerned. He has no relationship with your money or position. You may be a king or anything, makes no difference to the Guru. And we had at the time of Rāma,

His father-in-law was a Guru, called Janaka. I mean He was the incarnation of this Guru principle. We can say that the earliest was called as Ādi Nath.

Ādi means primordial. Primordial master or Dattātreya. The principle is the innocence. Innocence aspect of Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśha.

So Guru has to be an innocent person and not a cunning man. Now we can say like Abraham, Moses all are incarnations of the same principle and Mohammed and Nanaka. All of them are incarnations of the same principle. Now when we accept such a person who is an incarnation, is perfectly all right. But they come once in a while after two thousand years on this earth. But if you accept a devil as your Guru, then it creates a very bad problem within yourself.

There are two types of Gurus, I mean false Gurus. One puts you on the right side, one puts you on the left side. Now this Maheśh yogi puts you on the left side. And there's another fellow, Muktananda, puts you on the right side. Now see these two gentlemen [UNCLEAR]. From their left it has risen and gone to the right. See this right side is here, you see, crossed over [UNCLEAR] and his has crossed over to the left. That's how you can make out. All right? Now we have got these ten principles in our stomach as I said. All right? And you are seekers. You are seekers of truth and these are devils.

So their first attention is to capture you and attack you. And the deeper you are, the worse it is. If you are a very great seeker then they will be after your life because there is a war going on between the evil and the good. And these are the methods they use by which they really try to ruin you completely health-wise, mentally and also not only that but spiritually. They create an imbalance, while the sustenance is your balance. They create an imbalance in you. And you are not aware. You are not aware as to how it has happened. They do it so cleverly.

Now in the sustenance or these ten sustenances are represented on our head here.

So all the great saints, when they come on this earth, the incarnations, they tell never go touch the feet of anyone because they know that they are the only ones who should be worshipped.

So they absolutely forbid you. Because once you start bow to someone, then that spoilt thing goes up into the head. And this is the most important center in a way because this is the center which is for the last incarnation of Christ. Is called as Ekādaśha Rudra.

So Christ Himself is bestowed upon with eleven destructive forces Himself. Destructive, so last coming will be His destruction. This is His place, Kalki. This is called in Sanskrit as murdha, is the plate, brain plate.

Now this is what happens that we do not notice this and we go on doing it because we think something is wrong with us all the time. Then we don't achieve anything, you see. We start doubting ourselves and not the Guru. And we think something is wrong with us. And we just do not know how to find out whether we are doing right or wrong, whether this Guru is right or wrong, there is no way to find out.

One gentleman came from America, from this Muktananda, who was with him for sixteen years. And he's now become like a cabbage. Luckily he met a girl whom he wanted to marry, an Indian girl. He was an Australian. But she said, “You are a possessed person. You are a cabbage. How can I marry you?" Then it came into his head that “In sixteen years what have I achieved? I've lost my money, everything. I'm in trouble." Otherwise he was not aware. Sixteen years, can you imagine? So he came to London. See how Sahaja Yoga acts. He prayed that `Oh God, I'm a seeker, if I'm a true seeker, take me to a real person.' He came to London and he was going to India and he went to the agency of Dinesh who is a Sahaja Yogi.

Now this Dinesh is the son-in-law of the Commander in Chief of India of the army. Do you believe? Now his father was a very big man too and very big officer and his father and mother had gone to Anandmayi and he was absolutely fed up with Anandmayi because both had become zero. He lost his job, everything happened in the family, terrible things, finished.

So he told him, “Why do you want to go to Anandmayi? At least don't go there, you are already finished. You go and see Mother." So he said, “How can I see Her now. I'm just flying out in the evening time and how will I see Her now?" He just walked into My house. He said, “Mother I've come now. This is my condition. Will You please help me? I've lost all my properties, money, everything to this man and then I discovered how much damage he had done to me." I raised his Kuṇḍalinī, everything and he has now gone to Australia to our center. In Australia our center is powerful. Thank God he's saved. In the previous lives, he was called as Bandasur, this Muktananda, was killed by the Goddess. And this fellow was called as Narakasur, so he was killed by the Goddess.

So you have to say the mantra that `You are the killer of Bandasura, You are the killer of Narakasura'. If you say this mantra you can get cured. They have different names. Like this Guru Mahārāji was Raktabij.

His name was Raktabij. He was horrible. He's the 666 which Christ has described, which is described by John. He's the one, born on the sixth of June. This one is Guru Mahārāji. And the Mahishasura is that one with the fuzzy hair, what you call this Satya Sāi Baba. They are all asuras, one better than the other. Why I'm telling you this, because when I cure you, you have to know that the diseases because of these Gurus, whatever trouble is and the mantra must be explained. It is not just I take money from you and give you a mantra. It is not possible, you see? Did you follow My point? You have to know why this mantra is said, because you must know what is the problem and what is the cure. You follow My point? Because it is very confusing. If I tell you any mantra, you will say that “Why this mantra Mother?" because now you are free. You will ask Me question. Nobody ask them question but you will ask Me definitely. Because with him nobody asks why.

Sahaja Yogi: Is that mantra [UNCLEAR]?

Shri Mataji: Yes, of course, [UNCLEAR Abhishikt], because the thing is this mantra is now told by a realised Soul. Unless and until the mantra is told by the realised Soul, it is not a mantra which is enlightened mantra. But only for people who are suffering like this a particular mantra is given for the very beginning. But later on they become just like other Sahaja Yogis, cleared out and then they have to know the different mantras of the different things.

Now for any other center where I live for a longer time, I don't say all these things in the second day or third day because it is too early to say. The Satya is too harsh to understand, this truth. Because if you are half-baked you may puzzle out, you see. You make not take it properly. But as this time we have no time, I have to tell you all about it in a short time. But you take it with a proper sense. Because I have nothing to gain from you. I have come here to give you something. All right? Now, can you write it for him, Narakasura's mantra? Now come along; just sit down, put it from of it, facing it, just put your, this side.

Now for all you people who are left-sided best is the fire. Fire burns the Gurus completely. All their hubris [UNCLEAR] are burnt away by fire.

The kind of problems you'll have will be the ear trouble, neck trouble, eye trouble, heart trouble. These things people get it from this fellow.

So fire is the best thing. But fire is to be enlightened by putting before My photograph.

So it gets enlightened. It gets to its essence.

So the fire can burn away all the negative.

It becomes aware and it burns away all the negative.

Put your hand, one hand. She can't hold her hand? What's the matter? Paralyzed.

So she has got paralysis, is it?

Sahaja Yogini: In the right hand mother.

Shri Mataji: She's paralytic or she has got mental problems?

Sahaja Yogini: Mental problems.

Sahaja Yogi: After a brain operation of aneurism, she became damaged, she used to be normal before the operation.

Shri Mataji: It was done on the left hand side.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Correct. Then it's alright, that's how her mind is affected. I'll work it out, no doubt.

Are you feeling the Cool Breeze? Did you feel the Cool Breeze yesterday? Ask him.

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, Mother.

Shri Mataji: Then there's no problem, you're welcome.

[Shri Mataji is saying mantras.]

Contents: 1982-06-03 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Morning Meeting, Madrid, Spain

[Spanish translation.]... It's alright, doesn't matter. Speaking, doesn't matter. Don't get worried. Alright? See now. You better, are you alright? Are you feeling? He is feeling it now. He started feeling. Just see him also, just see his vibrations. Just see him, work on him I will just follow....

See there is a difference between an incarnation and a realised Soul. Now, incarnation among all these was Shirdi Sāi Nāth. Shirdi Sāi Nāth was.

So only you must bow to an incarnation and not to somebody who is realised Soul. You can tell. Later we can say at the time of Christ, John the Baptist was a realised Soul only and Christ was an incarnation. And His mother was a Holy Ghost incarnation. She was Mahālakṣhmī. She was Rādhā. Dha means sustenance, sustenance of energy.

So She was incarnation, He was, but not John the Baptist. John the Baptist is reborn now in India. He is announcing My coming also, but he is about 108 years of age. He is about 108, very old man. And his legs are broken, hands are broken. People have broken his hands and legs. And he moves on a tiger and lives in a very high mountain at the forest. He tells people about Me. I went to see him and cured him also. But he is a very hard task master.

He's not very kind to Sahaja Yogis. He told Me, “Anybody troubles You, send him over to me." So I sent one man to him, because he was just troubling Me with questions, questions, questions. I said, “You go and see that Guru." And he felt very enamoured; he thought he was a chosen one. And when he went there, you know, after a month he came back with his both legs absolutely dangling like this and he travelling in the...

Some people brought him like that [UNCLEAR] with his hands. He came back like that to Me. His legs were on his neck.

So I asked him, I mean, really tears came into My eyes. I said, “What has happened?" He said, “Mother, this Guruji threw me down the khud in the night." I said, “He did personally?" “No, no no, no his tiger came and threw me down. And I fell down about fourteen feet and broke my legs. After three days he lowered some bread for me through a rope. And then after sixth day he brought me up." Because, his family had reached there to find him out and he told that “Put these legs on your neck and go to your Mother. She is the one who will cure you, She has compassion, I have none. And don't say anything." So I said, “What did you do? Why did he do this to you?" So he said, “I talked against You, saying that `Mother is giving realisation to every Dick, Tom and Harry. She should not do this, giving realisation to everyone; this is very wrong.' I was saying like this to him." Just imagine, to punish him like this for that! Another doctor, a poor thing. Now I sent him there, because he was also a little bit troubling Me.

I didn't know he would be so harsh. Now, this doctor, poor thing, he made him take a bucket of water, he gave a big bucket full of water to be carried to Shiva temple, about three miles walking. Asked him to bring everyday and wash the temple with a big bucket. Two buckets like this, carry. And three miles he had to walk up the hill to wash the temple. When he came to Me back, he was in bones, absolute bones.

So he said that “This Guru has made me work like this, You see, I had to clean the Shiva's temple for a month." So when I asked this Guru, “Why did you do like that to him?" So he said that, “A donkey must do donkey's work." Like that, you know and that's very hard. Another Indian in America, I gave him realisation in America.

Yesterday you were asking Me a question: if this power can be used for something bad So this is an answer to that.

So this one, like an Indian, you see, he wanted to make money out of vibrations.

So he started an ashram. I didn't mind the ashram, but I didn't know he was making money out of it. Then he came back to Bombay [Mumbai] to see Me. In Sahaja Yoga, Bombay [Mumbai] people are great experts, Maharashtrians are great experts.

So, they told Me, “Mother, what's wrong with this fellow, he gives us giddiness?" So I asked him, “All right, let Me see your ashram brochure." In that he had written “For vibrations one hundred dollars. Vibrations. For giving vibrations, one hundred dollars and for special vibrations something like 265 dollars." I said, “How much did you pay Me to get all this? Why did you do such a thing?" So he said to Me, “How am I to live?" I said, “You were a teacher, you become a teacher again. Why should you do this? You should teach children, that's all and make your own living. You can't make money." I said, “It's all right if you have people there who are eating food. You can take money for food and all that, it's all right, but not for vibrations." But he was very angry. He started shouting at Me and one of the Sahaja Yogis said, “Now we throw him down." He got very angry. My boys, boys got very angry with him, they said, “We will throw him out." So I said, “No, no, no, [UNCLEAR let him be]." He said, “I am going to see some other Guru." There is another realised Soul living in [UNCLEAR Chandigarh/Calicut].

Another realised Soul, another Guru. He said, “I will see him." Kardika he's a realised Soul I knew.

So I said, “All right, go and see." And he came back about ten days from there.

So he telephoned to Me. He said, “Mother, please forgive me for what I have said to You." I said, “What happened?" So he talked to Me for an hour on the phone.

He said, “When I went there to see him, when I entered the gate he started throwing stones at me and torrential, You know. And I ran away from there to the station. I was sitting there and a man came to see Me. And he told Me that `The Guru has sent me to say that you have quarreled with Mother and you cannot come to me after that. If you try to see me, I will hit you hard.' " But he told to this man that “Please forgive me, I will go and ask forgiveness from Mother” and all that, because he was very anxious to see this Guru.

So the Guru called him and recited from Devī Māhātmyam something in Sanskrit. And the tape, he said, “You take it and make Mother listen to it." And this fellow, I never saw him, because he tried to meet Me, just could not meet. He came to London, he could not meet.

Somehow or other he can't. You can't make money out of love. This is Śhrī Gaṇeśha and Hitler used it the other way round, this structure.

This becomes a cross here. What happened, by the end of their war they got confused, Germans, they got confused, Germans you see and what happened they started using these stencils for making swastikas.

So they got confused.

So in that confusion, later on they started putting the other way round. And they lost their war. That is the trick of God. I went to Berlin with My husband and I saw both the types of the marks. They were using Tantrism from lamas, from all the types of lamas they used, all supraconscious. We know, Indians know. Even in Argentina they are there. They are in Argentina helping the Argentineans, hiding themselves. They are helping the regime of Argentina. Because when I went to Argentina, I saw them doing the bhoot steps, when they're parading. And I asked them, “How is it you are doing bhoot steps?" So they said that they got frightened.

I said “There are Germans, who are teaching you?" And in Argentina they have captured these people and they are building up very huge nuclear reactors there.

Some of the German scientists are hiding and they want to use that base for destruction. But this Falkland will not stop it. No, they cannot, because now what has happened that they are exposed. Germans are exposed and also now Argentineans know that. See these are material things now, so they catch your negativity, material things. You see because you purchase the cross. You see, can't purchase the cross. And while I'm the cross I can't see the cross Myself. Resurrection is the message of Christ, not cross. I can't see Him like that suffer. You see the people are also funny, they make out Christ lanky panky fellow. You have to do My work, all of you.

[UNCLEAR].

And they told Me a fantastic thing and they said their Indians, the old Indians that they had, their old people, told them that a God from India that is Bharat [UNCLEAR], country, called Viṣhṇu came on a condor. Because you see they were on the right side they could see all these things. But you don't have to see, you have to be. Seeing is not being. If you become the light, you don't see the light.

[Shri Mataji advises a Sahaja Yogini having a problem with the sinus:] And also tell her that in the night for one or two days, she should roast an onion, beat it out and foment this part, for two, three days.

Wipe the thing with some towel and sleep off. For two, three days. Her sinus will clear out.

But people are still expecting Holy Ghost to come sometime. They don't accept Me. They want to postpone the truth. They don't want to accept the truth. That's human nature. With the Pisces ending you come Aquarius. Pisces ending Aquarius. Aquarius is the kumbha, is the Kuṇḍalinī. Aquarius is the kumbh. You see all these centers are related to our science. I was born on the twenty-first of March, at the equinox. It is zero, because at twelve o'clock exactly, zero, it is zero, absolutely at the zero. When you see the earth was absolutely nearest. You will see that much more now, gradually. When you will be given realisation you will see that for yourself, so many, thousands. You will see all the miracles of God now. It is your own power that you will be feeling. I am just Mother. I want all My powers to be enjoyed by My children. You feel it on the head see, feel in on the head.

My feet are very powerful, very powerful. These are delicate, for delicate work, My hands. All together, if you see the whole Brahmāṇḍa, there are thirty-five crores deities and they all have powers. Crores are one hundred thousand, is crore, thirty-five hundred thousand, all right, is amazing you see, is amazing.

It is true, it is true, it is not some sort of a hallucination. You feel it on your central nervous system.

Kuṇḍalinī cools you down. You should first make your children, your wife happy. And get happiness from them. Create a nucleus in the family, that it's a happy place. Then the happiness spreads from a beautiful nest. Like birds the happiness sings.

Sahaja Yogi: If some of Your disciples would go astray, would You not suffer?

Shri Mataji: They don't go astray. I know how to keep them with Myself. I love them so much that they can't find that love anywhere. Love is the greatest attraction and the most peace giving. If they go astray, I know methods of bringing them back. Because then they suffer and they learn a lesson. And then they come back. All right.

So I don't suffer at all. I never suffer. Now, I am a married woman, Myself.

I've got two daughters, the elder is thirty-five years, younger is thirty-two. They are married, they have children. I look after My family. My husband is a very busy man. I look after his office people also, like My own, My family. It's very nice. For a mother never problems are solved, because every time there are new problems you are facing. That's the temperament of a mother. Now see, I solved his problems, [UNCLEAR].

Now your problem is before Me. How can I solve all the problems? You see, Mother has always problems. Because, one is done, then She thinks another is to be done. Her mind is all the time at the people, who are yet suffering, you know. She is getting more suffering when

She is looking after this problem and that problem. Cancer is a very good sign. My ascendance is Cancer. Where I was born, that place was just on Cancer, Tropic of Cancer. You will be amazed on Cancer there are very few places.

Only Mecca is on tropic of Cancer.

So it is not easy to be a Mother.

Sahaja Yogi: Why to be a Cancer?

Shri Mataji: You chose it. You made your own choice to be a Cancer before taking your birth.

Yes of course, it's your choice. You wanted to be. You are a seeker and seekers have their own choice.

You choose your father, you choose your mother, you choose your place of birth, you choose everything.

There's nothing to be frightened of in marriage, they're women not devils. There is a center for it you see, Gṛuhalakṣhmī is the center of the house wife. There's no psychology it's the center, is the center. You don't have to do psychology, for that nothing is needed. Just you know it is so. Psychologist break all the marriage.

Seeker: I'm a child psychologist.

Shri Mataji: Now you better learn Sahaja Yoga and learn a new psychology. We have one now in Portugal, somebody who has come with Me, doctor of psychology and also a doctor of... he's a Jungian.

Seeker: I am a Freudian psychologist.

Shri Mataji: Horrible Freud, horrible. He was very one-sided.

He the one that destroyed. He was a devil. He destroyed people by his nonsense. He was a very halfbaked people, Freud. Jung was a realised Soul. Jung talked to people of Universal Unconscious. Freud was very half-baked. Only he knew about psyche. He didn't know about the right side. He never prayed over his Spirit, he bothered more about matter. We are not sex-points, are we? He makes us into sex-points.

Sex has nothing to do with our evolution, nothing. Kuṇḍalinī is protected, ChitaShakti is protected, only protected by Gaṇeśha and Gaṇeśha is a holy thing. He missed the holy point. He missed the auspicious point. Sex has to be auspicious. He's the one who introduced this perverted sex. He brought in all these dirty ideas. He himself was having relation with his own mother, with his own mother, Freud. Incest, it's sinful [UNCLEAR] anti-God activity. Now Freud had so many complications here you see. Just come and see.

His hair are standing, just see his hair are standing up like that because center [UNCLEAR] you see.

They're just standing up like that. Because you see this center is very bad. Now forget that horrible Freud all right, don't use him at all. According to Me, he was a rākṣhasa. What is this science of sex, nonsense? You see, animals do sex they don't have to come to some science. What is the science of sex? I just don't understand. Nonsense, it is. There is no science of sex. Animals, you see, they do sex without knowing any science. There is no science of sex, nothing. Sex anybody can do. Nothing so special, what is, you are not sex-points you are human beings. Sex is not bad, I didn't say that. Sex is all right, but with your own wife, in a proper way. No not bad, not bad no, no never. In a correct way, with all due respect to yourself and in every holy.

Not to fritter yourself away like an animal. We are a human being. You see, we don't do sex on the streets even now, when we are so shameless. We still don't do that.

So we have innately built within ourselves that sense of respect. We are human beings and glorified. In Sahaja Yoga, you can have sex with your wife. You should have. In Sahaja Yoga it's not prohibited all right? No not at all it's very good, all right. Not in the religion that is nonsensical religions. Christ himself attended a wedding, supported.

What more certificate you want?

Contents: 1982-06-03 Conversation With Joseph, Lunch Meeting, Madrid, Spain

[The seeker Joseph will be speaking in Spanish and a Sahaja Yogi will translate.]

Shri Mataji: Hello.

Joseph [seeker]: Hello.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes. You give him bandhan.

Something or you give the booklet.

May God bless you.

Just a minute. We'll come, we'll come. Now the second center of Swādhiṣhṭhān. Swādhiṣhṭhān, second center moves all over.

No, No. That is third center. You see the second center.

Give him, give him that. You write it in it.

What he is saying?

Sahaja Yogi: He says this is very interesting. The most interesting thing is to know You. He says he is very materialised. But he hopes to dematerialise himself.

Shri Mataji: God is in everything. On physical level if you have problems then you have to use the gems.

Alright.

Too much. Today I will tell about. Today I will tell you all the sides.

Sahaja Yogi: He is going to [UNCLEAR London].

Shri Mataji: Knowledge is within yourself. You don't need any book.

Sahaja Yogi: He is just saying he is very angry with himself. Because he was meant to come at 9 o'clock and he had to work and he is going to.

Shri Mataji: He is good. Whatever he has done is good because now we are free to talk.

Second center, Swādhiṣhṭhāna. Swādhiṣhṭhāna is the second center.

It's written down. It is for the creative, for creativity. It also transforms your fat cells for your brain.

No. Umbiligo [navel] is third [center]. Swādhiṣhṭhāna actually comes out of umbiligo [navel].

This one is the one that goes on this. This one moves like that.

This one is Swādhiṣhṭhāna. This one is Mūlādhāra. Mūlādhāra Chakra. This is Mūlādhāra. This is where the Kuṇḍalinī rest. This is the one, is the virgin here. She is the virgin.

Sahaja Yogi: He says is the vital force within us Mother.

Shri Mataji: Yes, this is the force of desire to become one with God. One with Divine. One with the whole, this is the desire here. Sacrum bone.

Sahaja Yogi: He says that in some people they have a very pronounced sacrum bone. Does he mean that they have a?

Shri Mataji: They have a bad Kuṇḍalinī.

It's frozen.

Now, because you see the people who have a very pronounced coming out, any bone coming out is that Chakra is bad. Any bone coming out.

And this coming out, you see. Outside.

Sahaja Yogi: He says why the Kuṇḍalinī is frozen? Is it because he has forced himself though this life through nasty connections through eating habits?

Shri Mataji: You see if the Kuṇḍalinī gets completely frozen if you are on extremes, either on the left or on the right. If it is on the left then it's absolutely frozen. If it is too much on the right then it is burning.

Sahaja Yogi: He says what, practically, naive, what does it mean to go to left? Does it mean the one,

Shri Mataji: It means that you go to the subconscious and Collective Subconscious.

Sort of the person who cries, weeps, thinks of his past and is very much all the time sly.

Inactive.

And the right side is over active, over ambitious, thinking of the future.

So these are two extremes. But when then the Kuṇḍalinī, [Joseph speaks in Spanish and Shri Mataji answers directly; he says something like `negative mental'.]

Shri Mataji: Aah. That's it. That's it. He understood.

Joseph [repeats in Spanish]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes.

Joseph: [Goes on in Spanish.] Shri Mataji [answers without translation]: Emotional. Emotional and this side is your physical.

Physical and here is the thinking part, what you call, with the brain.

Sahaja Yogi: On the right side.

Shri Mataji: Right side.

Mental, mental word is very confusing because, you see, mental actually means with the brain, if it means that. Mental activity is with the brain. And emotional activity is with the heart.

With the heart. But what happens that, when you act too much with your heart, your brain goes out.

You act too much with your heart, means you go emotionally too much, it drags down, then your brain goes out. You become mad.

Means the balance you know, see the balance. Now when you work too much with your brains, your heart goes out.

Mad people will never have a heart attack.

Ego. Ego comes from the right side to the left [part of the brain].

And other side is the superego, the conditioning.

To the conditioning.

Sahaja Yogi: He says a friend of his told him, that depends on people whose hands shows if they are left-sided or right-sided.

Shri Mataji: When they shift.

Sahaja Yogi: The way they put the hands, Mother, show them and if they are left-sided or right-sided.

Shri Mataji: Not important.

You see, whatever is there is there. What you do, makes no difference.

Do they have tea? Joseph: Yes a little bit...

Shri Mataji: What did he is say?

Sahaja Yogi: Without sugar.

Shri Mataji: What he is saying?

Sahaja Yogi: He says that he has had very deep experiences because he has been to lot of places. But just to look. And every time he meets people they very negative he feels a pain here.

Shri Mataji: You are very sensitive.

That's the place of your Guru principle, of your master principle. Sat...

Yes, his Dharma. It's your religion. It's your sustenance. It is the sum of Ten Commandments. And when it is enlightened, it knows what is, who is wrong and who is right. That's why it happens to you because you have it, you see. He's a balanced person.

So this thing, this thing acts you see, this thing acts and this guides you, stomach guides you.

You find with negative people, if somebody is negative and gives Me food to eat and I will just vomit it out.

Sahaja Yogi: He says there is an old saying in Spain, that any food that is made with love, will feed well the stomach. [Shri Mataji laughs.]

Shri Mataji: It's true. Love is God and love the religion.

And hatred is anti-God activity.

Sahaja Yogi: He wants to know Mother. He says that there is, in the universe, a great force that is coordinating everything.

Shri Mataji: Yes, that evolves.

Sahaja Yogi: That is coordinating and thinking the whole process of evolution and then everything that goes against, is actually what we call evil.

Shri Mataji: Is destructive.

This All-pervading Power, the power of God's love, rules everything.

Sahaja Yogi: He calls evil what men do wrong. Evil doesn't exist by itself.

Shri Mataji: Evil?

Sahaja Yogi: Evil is caused by what men do wrong.

Shri Mataji: Yes. A man, human beings have got the freedom to do wrong or to do good, because they have to learn this. They have to learn the wisdom. That's why we, sometimes, do wrong and then they learn. If they improve themselves, they're all right. But if they go on doing wrong, then they go towards wrong and then they create evil.

Sahaja Yogi: He wants to ask Mother, if there is, in this flowing of God's power, if man creates evil, he wanted to ask if there is evil by itself, that it is outside human beings that is going against God.

Shri Mataji: Yes, you see what has happened is when man started creating evil then this evil becomes malignant on its own and starts acting on its own. Just like a malignant cell in the cancer.

I'll explain now how. Say, this is the center of our spinal cord. Alright? Like these you can say. Now this is the left, this is the right. Now you go too much on the left.

So it is pulled out. Now the connection is broken with the whole.

So you start going on your own. And you start using that destructive power and that's how you become malignant. And then the cells on this side will become big and start hitting others.

In the same way in the whole, the Primordial Being, same thing happens. At different stages of our evolution also, some animals became like that, some vegetables became like that. That's how we have viruses, from the vegetables.

Some animals became like that. They were thrown out of evolution. But some of them became [evil] and they incarnated as human beings. In the ancient times, they were killed many a times. Like a fox; a fox became very cunning and then he was thrown out of the evolution. Then he became an asura called Kolhasura. Then there are men, human beings also who did the same thing like Rāvaṇa and then, they became malignant on their own. And they have come back now as false Gurus.

For him, it's clear [UNCLEAR is this?].

Sahaja Yogi: It's so complicated Mother.

Shri Mataji: I followed him. What he says, that all these things aggregate as a ego part of the ego you see. On that ego, you see, is the thing that, the question I did not follow but I followed what he was saying: “Does that aggregate, attack or something? And do they form and aggregate?"

Sahaja Yogi: If those aggregates are forming the ego in our evolution and do these things attack the unity?

Shri Mataji: Of course, very much.

Joseph: It's true.

Sahaja Yogi: It's true.

Shri Mataji: See what happens, ego puts a circle round your heart. And in the heart resides the Spirit.

So the light of the Spirit cannot come. Like Hitler is an example. Hitler became ego-oriented.

Then he got other ego-oriented things, aggregated together. And they touched anybody, they became ego-oriented. See the aggregation added more strength to that. And they walk hand in hand and they never quarrel. Satans never speaks against themselves.

A fake Guru will never speak about another fake Guru.

And I am the only one who speaks.

Sahaja Yogi: He says he is very happy about that because you have opened a new door.

Shri Mataji: But you see I have spoken about them in 1970, openly, everybody's name and what Rākshasas they are, what asuras they are. I said their names. But nobody challenged Me. Nobody put Me in the court. Nothing.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR The day... mark...]. What is he saying? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that you are very protecting.

Shri Mataji: I am protection Myself. I don't need any protection.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that he is very much impressed by you. You are very much like woman yet so Divine!

Shri Mataji: And certainly like it.

Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: So Divine as well.

Shri Mataji: See there are two sides to your Mother. She can be very cruel and She can be extremely mild.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Because all these horrible Gurus are to be killed one day.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: They are already finished. They are finished because they are found out. Most of them are finished now. You can use their brains they will finish of. Because you see they can be finished in no time. But they have gone into the brains of the seekers. They are My children.

So if they are killed they will also take with them all these people who are My own, whom I want to save.

So it is a very delicate work.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says, Jesus, the good cross and the bad cross where Jesus says so like weeds in there. They can't wait in case there.

Shri Mataji: It's true, true. Whatever Christ has said can be proved. He said also your hands will speak. He said I will send you a comforter and a counselor and a redeemer.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that at least when [UNCLEAR] we are at the end of time.

Shri Mataji: What is it? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that if this is true he means we are at the last judgment.

Shri Mataji: This is last judgment. You have reached the right conclusion. You'll be judged by Kuṇḍalinī. And now, that's it.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: That's why so many people are taking birth who are realised Souls. And also the ones who are seekers. This is the time they are to be judged.

So the population has to be maximum.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says he accept Mother, all the people the population has grown just to be judged.

Shri Mataji: That's of course. Of course and they are mostly born in India because they are safe there.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Because in other places you see they are ill treating children and they are giving wrong ideas to children. They are ruining them. There is no love.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says these people are not in union. These people that ill-treat the children they are evil.

Shri Mataji: They are evil. They are evil. They don't understand the value of children now. There are some great children are borne. Great sages are born.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Even in Spain there must be many born like that.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says this is last time Mother. Last opportunity, like a baker when he puts the bread in the oven. This is the last bread to be cooked.

Shri Mataji: That's very true. Very true. But what are they doing like mad people. See how many few come for judgment.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says everyone that comes will be judged.

Shri Mataji: Of course and they will be given the place in the kingdom of heaven. But they don't do.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says everyone will be judged not only difference between realised and non realised.

Shri Mataji: Everybody will be judged in a way those who will come. Will be given realisation and they will go into the kingdom of God. And all others will be destroyed whether they come or not.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: All. The Ekādaśha is coming big, great. You see the Christ is going to come with eleven destructive forces. Eleven destructive forces! [Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that if Jesus is the comforter.

Shri Mataji: Not at that stage.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says Jesus came with love and forgiveness and was crucified.

Will He come back to destroy?

Shri Mataji: He will not come now to Love. He will come to destroy. I have come to Love you first, to give you comfort.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: You can't crucify Me.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Because I am very powerful.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: He will shake before Me, before you.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: What's he saying? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says he knows that you see at nine.

Shri Mataji: That's true. There are one thousand. Show him the Lalitha Sahasrānama. Have you got in Portugal? Portuguese? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: In English.

Shri Mataji: In English. All right. There are one thousand powers.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: described in one book [Lalitā Sahasrānama]. In the Indian astrology they have described from 1970 I will start this work. That's what I have done.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: These are all the different powers described. One thousand powers and this is the one of the Śhrī Chakras. One of the Śhrī Chakras, `Lalita Śhrī Chakra'.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: My one name is Lalitha according to My sign. And the another is Nirmalā meaning `Nishkala finka', means without any spot, pure, immaculate.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: But My surname is Salve.

So, Immaculator [Immaculate] Salve. In Spanish was translated for Gabriel when he met Virgin.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: And now My surname, My husband's surname is `Srivastav', means Holy Ghost in reality.

[Shri Mataji laughs.] [Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: And English name is Daisy. My mother gave Me an English name Daisy. If you see the Daisy is the Sahasrāra, whole.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Just like that. You see thousands, thousand things said in India.

So it all combines.

And there are prophecies made by this, made for the for Sahaja Yoga.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Even recently in a hundred years. William Blake in England. He prophesied My coming.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: He says that, “The prophets, the men of God means seekers, will become prophets and they will have power to make others prophets." He also described where I lived when I first came to London. He said England has to become Jerusalem, is the place of pilgrimage. And when I first came, came to London, I stayed in Sarah Hills.

So he has described that. The first because to be lived in Surrey Hills.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: And the second, our ashram was laid, the foundation was laid in Lambert Vale. He says, “The foundations will be laid in Lambert Vale. And Her sinews will vibrate the love", sinews is the nerves.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Also this new house I have is also very clearly described.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: And the Sahaja Yogis have painted it with gold. You see so He calls them the golden builders. You also have some lunch with Me. Please. Please have.

Some lunch.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: No, in the Mothers house you have to eat.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says he is [UNCLEAR] some of you [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's good. You are such a great [UNCLEAR fan...]. I am so happy to meet you.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: You are very positive. You must come to London and meet others like you.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: To Me, of course but there are so many of your brothers and sisters. You show him the advent that is written by Gregoire, Gregoire. A book for you, it's too much, much too much.

[Shri Mataji talking aside to a Sahaja Yogini.]

Shri Mataji: Got it? What did they say?

Sahaja Yogini: First I went to [UNCLEAR]. Then I went to embassy of Portland and they say well there is no place in the passport to put the visa. And then I said well...

Shri Mataji: I travel too much. You tell him.

[Sahaja Yogini translating in Spanish.]

Sahaja Yogini: So they found a place to put it Mother.

Shri Mataji: Tomorrow we will have. This is the book. One person like you has written in English.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: We wanted to be translated in Portuguese.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: These are symbols. See people get a fright here if we tell them about swastika.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Gaṇeśha. See what happened this Hitler used in the opposite direction.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: He used in the opposite direction, Hitler. That's it.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: That's Me.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: That is `Sūrya', sun.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Zen.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: That is his Symbol. His Symbol is Christian. These are Sahaja Yogis, are realised Souls.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: But the Kuṇḍalinī is done there. All the details you see of Viṣhṇu. And he has dealt with all subjects like Tantrism, false Gurus everything.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Tantrism? [Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: All this different. This is very good book.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: About who has written, he is a scholar. He is a same type you know. He is a... that kind. Same style.

He must come from some family. What family he is from, ask him.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: She is Aragorn.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that he is middle class. His father is from Aragorn and his mother from Casteria Center. He is coming from Madrid. And he says he is to be different, I mean [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: She is Aragorn.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: She is from Madrid.

What is he saying? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says this is a very beautiful place.

Shri Mataji: But he has never been to Madrid? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: That I don't. I don't think so Mother. He...

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: But mother is from where? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Casteria. But he is Austrian.

Shri Mataji: Oh God. Then father is from Portugal.

Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He is Aragorn, the other part of the Spain Mother.

Shri Mataji: I see. Then how you are called Aragorn? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Because of his studies.

Shri Mataji: So this Catherine of Aragorn was Spanish? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Yes Mother.

Shri Mataji: Then your mother side is Portuguese, is it? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Yes Mother and French and Austrian Shri Mataji: Mother is French and Austrian. Mixture. He is from Chili.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: There is an Indian guy here. He was a disciple of Kṛiṣhṇamurthy.

Shri Mataji: There was a lady who came to see Me. She has been to Adriad. And she started seeing My past, Lakṣhmī, this thing, that thing. I was so surprised, I don't know. And her daughter is a great dancer there in Argentina.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: I forgot her name. She is famous daughter in Argentina. She learnt all her thing from Adriad. And the mother went there. And they are so much and on their subconscious she started seeing all My past.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: What is he saying about Kṛiṣhṇamurthy? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He is saying that by teaching we have to go beyond Rāmāyaṇa.

Shri Mataji: How? He just talks.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says not to get involved with more Rāmāyaṇa.

Shri Mataji: He just talks. You see there is a background. I will tell you the background of Kṛiṣhṇamurthy.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: He was first with Plabasky. And Plabasky wanted to create something artificial out of him. She told that he is Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa and he carried on with that joke for some time.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: But Kṛiṣhṇa has certain powers. And people, some realised Souls at that time some saints challenged him and said you are not Kṛiṣhṇa. For if you are Kṛiṣhṇa you should have this powers or aura.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: So he got this illusion. And actually he was really blasted by people.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: For being Kṛiṣhṇa.

So that he accepted that he was not. But he could not, you see, reconcile to the situation that is nothing. For research that, there is nobody who can guide you. There is nobody who can guide you. All Gurus are false. You have to guide yourselves. Because he himself was deceived by this lady. He pampered his ego.

So you see there are false Gurus, then false Gurus must have reality somewhere. If they are false flowers there has to be real flowers somewhere.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Now, since he denied all of them then he told them you seek within yourself. You do this, you do that, again kriya, it is a kind of a Kriya. But this Kṛiṣhṇamurthy's disciples you see started mentally thinking that they have become something great. But it was just a mental projection. It was not a reality. And with that mental projection you see they just talk like him, “You are very big." But they are not beyond Māyā or anything. I mean now if you see, if he cannot guide people, he should not talk.

A light which is not enlightened cannot get enlightened by itself. It is another light which is enlightened.

You cannot make the light get enlightened by itself. This is simple thing. But that's how he pampered the ego of the people that you can do it yourself. But if he cannot do it, how can anybody do it? This point you tell him that if he cannot do it. And why should a blind lead other blind? [Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says Kṛiṣhṇamurthy says you have to pay complete attention on your all the sense organs.

So nothing can deceive you.

Shri Mataji: But if you pay attention to your sense organs, what will you achieve? Because your attention is not enlightened. See the point. This is the point. You see the point? [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Cannot be enlightened? He says we have light inside Mother.

Shri Mataji: We have. The light has to come into your attention. That is the Yoga.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Alright, only after realisation that happens. Your attention, you see. He is following the point. But never mind.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in Spanish]: Zen? Shri Mataji: This is Zen. Sahaja Yoga is Zen. But real `Zen'. They do artificial thing. In every religion they have done artificial thing. Like in the Zen it was said that now you have to become a `Kaśhyapa', means a realised Soul.

So that you are enlightened and whatever you do has started enlightenment. But they start moving their hands without enlightening them, without any force flowing from them. What is this? They do all the movements, as I said yesterday before starting the car if you move the wheels, the wheels will break and the car will break and you will be finished.

[Discussion.]

Shri Mataji: That has happened.

[Discussion.]

Shri Mataji: Now Mohammed Sāb told us to do Namaz. It's nothing but the Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

Like a stone in Mecca is described in the old Indian scriptures as Makkeshwara Shiva.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He is asking where in India.

Shri Mataji: in the scriptures, in the Purānas.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] Unknown: Does the Gītā says? [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: What kind?

Shri Mataji: There are two Purānas. Shiv Purāna.

Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: And so she said that [UNCLEAR] and all these Namaz is nothing but Kuṇḍalinī awakening. But they do it without understanding. He also talked of the resurrection time, all the time, all the time. Very little about the `doom'. But Muslim just talk of the doOm Not of the resurrection.

Fanatics.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says soon they will be coming to Spain and Europe.

Shri Mataji: No, they are finished by themselves. They are fighting. We have now many Muslims as Sahaja Yogis from Algeria. They have become Sahaja Yogis now.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: They are trying to [UNCLEAR] overtake Europe.

Shri Mataji: Even if they come to Europe it should be a better Sahaja Yogi. Because they are all interested in themselves.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He thinks that the Arabs, the Muslims are going to overtake Europe. It was predicted by Nostradamus.

Shri Mataji: By what? Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: As it was predicted by Nostradamus.

Shri Mataji: But also he has said that they will be destroyed. That's all. Don't worry. In Paris we are getting them into Sahaja Yoga. Then we will get them in Spain. First the Spanish should be alright.

You see the best way is to get them into Cancer. Sahaja Yoga had everything thing that cures cancer and so they come to Sahaja Yoga.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says through Yoga you get the union and you get united with the whole.

Shri Mataji: That's how your cancer get cured. We cured of a cancer, one Sahaja Yogini, actually by My photograph, cured the cancer of one lady from Algeria, blood cancer. And now she prays to Me and to Śhrī Gaṇeśha. She does her Namaz before My photograph.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He has got a friend. A Friend of his has in his house a known God when he worshipped Shiva and Gaṇeśha and he has given him an introspective of Shiva.

Shri Mataji: But without connection what is the use? [Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says he has also got an altar a different one.

Shri Mataji: Doesn't matter. But now you will know from vibrations without reaching Gaṇeśha you will [UNCLEAR] reach Shiva. Now what happens that once you are connected then you understand better.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: And then you know how to worship, where to worship, everything you know.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: That's My planet, Pluto.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says he knew it was your planet and before Mother he was saying that you were from Pluto.

Shri Mataji: It came on this earth when I came in.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: No, No, is Ruby. But this is we wear in the glass.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: I wear all the jewels.

Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says Ruby is related to the planet Mars.

Shri Mataji: No, No. Coral.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Effects Mars can be controlled by Coral. [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Neptune. According to us, it is, Coral is from Gaṇeśha.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Luna Pluto is what? [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] [Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] Unknown: Only Neptune he is saying clairvoyance.

Shri Mataji: Clairvoyance, Lunar and Neptune? Pluto is the Pluto. It is not, the Lunar and Pluto combination is Yoga. It is Yoga. See Lunar and Pluto, because Lunar is the spirit.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: You see planet of Kuṇḍalinī is Mother Earth.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Planet of the Swādhiṣhṭhāna is Buddha, is the Mercury.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] Shri Mataji: And the stone that is to be used is yellow Sapphire. Yellow Sapphire, for the Swādhiṣhṭhān.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: It is like diamond.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Sapphire is not a precious stone.

So the Sapphire which is yellow colour, we call it as `Pukhraj'. Which is actually like diamond, above diamond. No, that is yellow Sapphire. It is above that.

You see it gave you the impression of a diamond. We call it as Pukhraj. Good for the Guru principle. He knows how to cast things come, is it? [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: He knows how to pass the horoscope. [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: His friend the one who worships Gaṇeśha. He knows how to pass a horoscope.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Ask him to pass through My horoscope. I was born at zero hour.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says he is going to his place to meet him Mother.

Shri Mataji: Let him see. I was born at the equinox between Pisces and Aries. At the zero hour, twelve o'clock. 1923.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Place Mother.

Shri Mataji: Place is in center of India. In India, in all center. [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: Which town Mother?

Shri Mataji: Chhindwara. [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He is saying that his friend, Andrew is his name, is a very spiritual person and he needs some kind his ego to be pampered. And he will do it. Not him Mother. But he will do it and it would be impossible to bring him tonight.

Shri Mataji: All right! Give him a bhandan.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: You will have more knowledge and he will run, Andrew.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Andrew, his ego will be reduced. He asked because you are a special person.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: This friend says he knows everything. And whatever other people know is because he is teaching them.

Shri Mataji: He told you only half truth.

[Sahaja Yogi translating in Spanish.] [Seeker speaking in Spanish.]

Shri Mataji: Now you teach him.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He is saying whatever his friend needs he has to ask him to get him because the other one cannot. Śhrī Shiva's statue it was him who found for his friend. And the mandal of Śhrī Gaṇeśha he found it for him. And the cup full of water almost pure crystal, it was him who found it too. And he says, he says he knows everything, it's me who does the things for him.

Shri Mataji: Now we have to do for you. [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He says that [UNCLEAR]. In the north Mother Earth and south Fire. And east the Air. And west, Water.

Shri Mataji: What is in the center? [Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: It must be wood he says.

Shri Mataji: In the center is the ether, firmament. And this is upside down. This is upside down.

Earth is down below, Kuṇḍalinī. What is this on your left side? Down below is Earth. Earth is in the base. See, I will show you here. This is the Earth, this is fire, this is water, this is ether.

So this is the ascent.

[Seeker Speaking in Spanish.] Sahaja Yogi [translating in English]: He saying all this is from down upwards. He is seeing from side to side.

Shri Mataji: Like this also you can have side to side, that's the same. But you see this is all this is right side. All this is right side. Five elements are on the right side. Everything is on the right side.

Left side is the emotional side. That is mana. This creates `Para Shakti'. And this creates `Icchā Shakti', `Mānas Shakti'. Manush, psyche. This creates psyche. This side creates all the five elements are here. All the Vedas have worked on the right side. And all the worship and dedication is on left side. In between the two is the power of evolution through sustenance. You get sustenance.

Here you have carbon. Here you become all the universe, matter. Here lies stars, that evolves. Here to be a bhakta, Gods devotee. Then on the right side if you move you become a good king. The kingdom and all that the politics on the right side. And the left side are the people who sings and the one who worships God and sort of what you call, worshippers. Then you go up here, from here to here. Here evolution takes place actually, takes place in the sense that you raise your head the whole. This is the Virāta. This is the work of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. But at this stage, he is just a Leelā, is the play. He came on this earth six thousand years back. Rāma came on this earth eight thousand years back. Then came Christ here at this point about two thousand years back and now it's Me. I have all of them within Myself. This is the door through which you have to pass. And in the heart resides the Shiva. But the seat of Shiva is here, Sadāśhiva. But he resides there.

So when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, She pushes the attention like this, see like this and touches Shiva. And then the spirit starts flowing into you. And then you start feeling on your central nervous system of Cool Breeze. Then you start feeling all these centers on your hands. That is what is Sahaja Yoga, so this is all the knowledge of the right hand side, is of no importance to us. Because you go beyond. You become the spirit, you go beyond. You have to have the knowledge of the spirit and the Divine power and it's yours. As I come to say, I must know, knowledge about Spain roots. If I go to the Gods kingdom so you have to now.

[Shri Mataji enjoyed very much meting a Spanish lawyer Joseph and at the airport She was anxiously looking up and down to see if he could come and say goodbye. Her face lights up when he shows up. She is putting Her coat on and he lifts Her hair and helps Her.] Spanish lawyer Joseph [in Spanish]: There, now I have touched the hair of the Goddess, I can never die.

Shri Mataji: You see, he knows who I am.

Shri Mataji [to Luis Garrido in the car or already at the rented house after arrival]: I was hoping to meet you again and I have ben told that since I left you have been learning and practicing Sahaja Yoga assiduously. It's only being a week, but you become a Sahaja Yogi.

[Towards the other Sahaja Yogis:] You have been asking Me to send you a new Sahaja Yogi, well here he is, your new brother.

Luis Garrido: Yes Shri Mataji I really would like to join the organization and I'm going to get some photos for a Sahaja Yoga identity card.

Shri Mataji: We don't have identity cards or application forms for joining Sahaja Yoga, you are already a Sahaja Yogi.

Luis Garrido: In Portugal to be a member of any organization one has to fill in an application form, give photos for the identity card and pay a joining fee.

Shri Mataji: Sahaja Yoga is free to all.

Shri Mataji: [comments that it is better for the hand to perish than the whole soul].

Luis Garrido: Shri Mataji, do You believe in Christ?

Shri Mataji: But of course, He is the Son of God.

We had a very good session, I should say and a very successful trip in Portugal and even better in Spain.

Portugal is a place where Gurus have touched very nicely because people are too simple I think and because they are too simple they are affected too hard. And I was really confronted with so many sick people there who have been to Gurus, who have been only for two, three years with them are badly affected and surprisingly how the whole thing is exposed, that we may be able to do much better in Portugal.

Now, the Portuguese people get lot of wine. They drink a lot; they really drink. I mean, they have all kinds of wines in their country. Is a very big problem of that place, is it that has many wines and I think the drunkenness make them extremely lethargic and that lethargy brought down that empire. We can see it's a very huge place. I mean the buildings, if you see, are very beautifully done, lots of buildings with lots of architecture and all that is like a desolate place. The reason is: the people who were at the time quite affluent, were doing well... Gradually unemployment started settling down, lots of strikes, just the same thing as I feel is happening in this country and unemployment and amounting to starvation.

First they used to get doles and all that, as we get here; gradually it stopped. Now it's so bad that all of them have to depend on their parents. There's no way. They have no source of income, very few industries. It's one of the poorest country in the whole of Europe.

That made Me think about England, that we have to know that this country also may face a phase, if we do not get up now. You see it's all right to divert your attention to Falklands and all that, but it cannot feed you.

So, we have to understand, all the Sahaj Yogis must understand, that they all must have some sort of a degree or something on the paper; that's a very important. And though you are all realised Souls and you are spiritually so endowed, everything is there, but you have to think of the whole. If the country completely goes down in its production and its capacity to activate itself, you will go down, too.

So, your attention should be now, of course, you should not be materialistic, but towards putting more activity into you, even in Sahaja Yoga, in meditating, in working it out in yourself.

So, lethargy is not going to pay. And this is one thing, is such an inertia, such an inertia that exists, that unless and until you really put in complete willpower, this inertia may not be combated, may be very difficult, even in Sahaja Yoga. You see, it is very easy to escape and explain, you see, yourself, “Oh, I got up and, you know, this happened, that happened." But, I think the symptoms are of a very dangerous type and as Sahaja Yogis you have to be very patriotic about it and you have to think about it. After all, you are symbols of the English people. Whatever works out in you will start working out in the rest.

So, how you behave towards yourself and towards the general atmosphere is very, very important.

Now, towards Sahaja Yoga also the attitude has to be understood very clearly. You see, like a Mahārāja in India who lives in quite great comfort first of all, lives like a lord and he orders about, you see and then everything is lost. But, still he talks like a lord, he behaves like a lord. His whole thing is the same way, though, it's not that the kingdom is there, that he's the ruler, but he'll talk like that to everyone, because the habits are formed.

I think the mind also has formed a habit. The whole atmosphere is charged with such ego since long and that's why towards Sahaja Yoga also, the attitude has to be humbler, much humbler, because without humility you cannot do. That's one thing you must understand. Is no question of you rationally saying something about it or explaining about it. But, you see, basically one has to be extremely humble.

First of all, it's a very big privilege to get realisation. You know that. It's a greater privilege to go ahead and it's the greatest to be a Sahaja Yogi. Is a very great privilege that you have, which very few people have and you are the ones who are chosen specially. But, the humility part of it is still missing about Sahaja Yoga, about Sahaja Yoga. Like, we should ask, `Make me a better Sahaja Yogi, a humbler Sahaja Yogi, a compassionate Sahaja Yogi, a sweeter Sahaja Yogi. Dissolve my ego.' This is very important, we must understand, because whatever works out in you, will work out in this country.

Arrogance is something that with ego you can never understand you have been arrogant. The way you talk to others, the way you behave towards others, you will never understand, because there is ego.

If you are standing in the darkness, the light is there but it is covered with something. How will you understand where is the light? So, humility must be there, because you people have very developed brains, very developed, over-developed brains and that brain can, you see, always tell you, “Oh, you are better than others” you see, always. “The another one is no good and the third one is useless. You see, you are the best." That's typical of the brain teachings, you see. And when it starts working out, it's very difficult, you see, to see that the one who is saying this is nowhere, because from the point where you see, you cannot see what you are saying. What you see is the whole thing as if you have to command it; you have to ask for it.

Of course, the quality is very much changing now, everybody is becoming very, very, very sweet and sober and nobody now demands anything from Me like, “You must give me this, Mother. You have to do it. You have to look after Me. After all, I have been to Your Caxton Hall once, You see and how dare You do not look after my mother when she met an accident?" Something like that. That's over now. That's over.

The quality is improving now and one has started learning now how to laugh at your own ego and this and that. But I personally think that one has to realise that if you represent this country to your Mother, then it has to improve still. “Still I have to improve. I have to go ahead. I have to go further with it and have I to develop that beauty of humility." Like in Portugal they told Me Lord Byron, whom I think to be a useless fellow, absolutely good for nothing and I regretted every minute why he was created on this earth, he went and said that... he went and said, “Sintra is a very beautiful place. Sintra is too good to be wasted on Portuguese." It should have been from Mister Lord Byron, whosoever he may be. You see, typical! And it pinches everyone, you know.

Everybody feels. But think if you are the person about whom he said.

So, one has to develop a kind of a humility that “I have to still receive; I have to still get it; it has to work out." Now, when it comes to that kind of an attitude, then you turn round. Turn round upon yourself. What have you done for Sahaja Yoga? One question, simple question: what have you done for Sahaja Yoga? How many people have you given realisation? How many people have you been able to cure? How much peace have you got within yourself? How much blissful are you? How much compassion have you got? How much forgiveness and patience you have for others? How much of sharing you can do? These are the signs of Sahaja Yogis, that you break your shell. You become the collective. How much do you understand others? And how much do you understand giving [to] others? What have you given to others, even on material level? Let's see. These questions should be put to yourself. On a very material level these questions are to be asked, on a very material level, because the light comes down up to material level. How many people you can forgive? You are realised Souls. You are prophets, no doubt. You can make others prophets, but you have to be the quality, also. The quality of a prophet is his nobility. He is so noble. Nobleness. In comparison with other people, who are not realised Souls, he is nobler; he is more dignified; he is much more forgiving.

So the whole way of dealing with others will change. He is obedient. We have to obey in Sahaja Yoga. We have to obey our good will. Otherwise, you are difficult people. It's impossible. Nobody can do anything to you. If you are like a thorn, how can anybody help you? So the quality of a Sahaja Yogi is measured by another kind of a measure. Is not the way human beings measure the quality of other human beings. Like, somebody has a good taste, for example, so-called. Then people say, “Oh, he's great, with a good taste." Or if he has a big car, then: “Oh, he's a big man." Or he talks like that, or he walks like that, or says this, that and all those things. Or a question like this, “Why did you say like that?" All these words, you know. They sound very hard to Me. “Why do you do like that?" This kind of a language itself was not there in this English language.

Nowadays the language is so changed and very rude, very arrogant and very harmful.

So, first ask yourself, because Sahaja Yoga will spread, of course, slowly and steadily, I hope, only through your images. You are the reflectors.

You put My thousands of posters. I am so unique, you know. They'll say, “All right, this unique personality is taken out, no good. What about the disciples?" So, actually whatever is in the lower level animals is important, like in lower level animals the king is the one. Say, the tiger has to kill an animal, big animal. It is he who only can kill. Till human stage also perhaps it is so. The one who can really dominate others, survival of the fittest, is the ruler.

Is the other way round, now. It's changed, completely. How much free you are in your ideas, while you are still identified with old ideas.

But free doesn't mean abandonment, by any chance. Freedom means you respect the freedom of others.

First and foremost thing of freedom is that you must respect the freedom of others. Even God respects your freedom. He cannot give you realisation if you don't want it. He cannot force it.

So, respect the freedom of others. But, that does not mean by respecting the freedom of others there should be abandonment. If somebody is abandoned in Sahaja Yoga, he goes out of the circulation of Sahaja Yoga. It's not coming in so important, I've told you hundred times. It's the throwing out part of it, you see.

Sometimes I feel I should use some glues to stick on. Maybe, the wheel can turn very fast and some of half-baked may be thrown out back again into the oven.

So, I feel, in these countries where I went, Spain, they call it. Spain, still half-developing; Portugal, developing. I don't know what you think about Italy, whatever it is called. Very humble people, very humble from the very first day. Anyone who comes from the very first day, they are very humble and because they are humble, they are sensitive to Me; because you have to be really very humble to be sensitive to Me, that's a fact, because I'm too simple, naive, as if I do not understand anything. I look like that, I mean, as if I have no knowledge of anything, very simple woman, talks in a very simple way, is very friendly, all right.

So to understand Me you have to be extremely humble and if you cannot go to that level of humility you cannot see Me and you cannot understand Me. And the more you start understanding, the more humble you become, naturally, because you know what it is.

So, I have told you many a times about humility part of it, but My experience of these countries was where I went there. I mean, they are very humble people, very humble about Sahaja Yoga, extremely humble they were. Even the new people were very humble. Spanish people same thing, extremely humble.

You see, Dawn had told Me that they have a ego of a bull fighter, but the one who came this time were so humble I was amazed. Even if I could touch them, that was sufficient for them. Nobody pulled My hand, nothing.

So, this is what it is: one has to understand that we have certain tags of our past which has to go down. The language should be extremely humble language. Try to read... I don't know whose language is so humble. Maybe Mine, I don't know. But, try to read books where people speak humble language, humble way of talking. You'll enjoy it, really enjoy it. Humility is the glory of Sahaja Yogis, is the only way they will grow. It's like putting your roots down and down and down.

The people who went from here were themselves amazed at the humility of the people who were there, very much amazed, the way things are working out there, the way they helped us and did everything for us. And I am sure now in Spain we'll have a very nice, very, very nice center. Of course, the Ambassador is a very, very humble man, you know him, too humble and he might be coming here and one day I want to call him here to the ashram also. He and his wife will be here.

So, the Ambassador was very sweet and he called Me to his house, invited and he had a nice tea party. He called Indians and everything and Indians said, you know they asked Me for one thing. You'll be shocked. They said, “What about something to depend upon?" you see. “Can we have Your photographs, something? It must be having some vibrations. Should we use Your photographs for our worship?" Can you imagine? And, at first I said that “It's all right. It will work out” because I didn't want to say, “You have to take My photograph." So she was so disappointed, the lady. She said, “No, there must be a photograph or something which we can use. After all, how can that be?" Just imagine! And here, first thing comes up, like a big snake, “Why Mother's photograph? She should give us realisation, She should solve all our problems, all our sickness, everything, but why Her photograph? This is too much!" In this you can see the ego of the people.

Now, regarding ashram, I had asked Nick, I had asked him to make certain rules and regulations. And I must say that, of course, Nick should say things, as you, somebody told Me that he should have been little softer with it and all that. But, supposing somebody is not soft at all: you must know that this is sent by Mother and you must do it. You see, actually, when you say no to him, you are saying no to Me also, isn't it? Because I sent him. I told him and I told him that “You must carry out these things." If you do not allow him to carry out, he has to be perhaps strict. By softer means, supposing something fails, then what to do? But I really don't know. After realisation even if you do not do things, what should we do? Can you suggest? I mean, you should respect everyone. But say, even if you respect, people get up at eight o'clock in the morning; then what should you do? What should be done, you just tell us? John, tell Me. I mean, it is really surprising. You are now prophets. Do you understand your quality, what are you, what have I given you? Then what should we do about it? You see, these are so simple things, like children also. If you are in a hostel, you are made to get up in the morning, take your bath, get ready, walk out. I mean, if you do not listen, anyone, I mean, it's simple. Then, what should one do with prophets? You just tell Me.

This is not the problem in Australia even. But English one going to Australia, create problems. I have seen. Sally, what a problem. Ba pre. You could see in contrast, her ego. Absolutely, in contrast I could see it clearly, very egoistical. Though she said that she was in, what place she was in? Jersey and there bhoots got her. But all the bhoots were egoistical. That's the point. Such a contrast, you know.

If we have to grow as one body and you are enlightened, part and parcel, part and particle of the same body, supposing this finger says, `No, no, I will not do it.' Now, somebody is, say, putting a big attack or something and this hand says, `No, I will not work out,' then what to do? Actually, it's a very big dilemma for Me because a hand which is forced to do it will never do it properly.

If you don't force it, then what happens to that hand? I mean, just see, the diligence is very important.

We should not take things for granted. You see, we take ourselves for granted, everything for granted.

Is not proper. We have to work hard. We have to work it out ourselves. You see, even if you have ten thousand Sahaja Yogis, here, what is going to happen? The quality is so poor, isn't it? You have to get up in the morning, do it, meditation. You have to grow. You have to grow still much more. And you know you are so very few, I have to use you only. Of course, nobody can force you. And even if you force, a forced labor is not going to help in Sahaja Yoga, that is. You take it from Me. It cannot.

So, these people are nowhere, where do they stand? Now, anyone you tell the job. Say, Warren also, in Australia. There were jealousies about that, terrible jealousies.

“Why should he tell me?" Because there is nobody to tell you within yourself. That's the problem is it.

So, that which is sleeping, I put it into one man. All right, this man is going to tell, but, then that person tells you, then people feel jealous. I mean, these are not the signs of a prophet. A prophet is never jealous, because he knows he has achieved his powers now. He's in his own power and his power is of surrendering.

Is not of overpowering.

See, you cannot see the other side of it. You think power means you sit on somebody's head, then, “I am very powerful." Like a woman, if she can make her husband dance to her tune, then she thinks, “Oh, I am the most powerful woman ever living." Is the other way round, that the woman is so loving that husband can't do without her, that sort of a power. She's so sweet that the husband cannot manage without her.

That sort of a power is, should be the power of a prophet and these things are very much deeply put into us.

So face it up and take it out. The whole value system is upside down. I tell you the whole value system is upside down. See My life, own life. As a wife of such and such and such I am expected to go into diamond shops, buy diamonds, wear, become a big lady with heels like that and walk with a neck like that and do all sorts. I mean, this is the normal thing. It's expected. And shout at the chauffeur and shout at the servants and shout at everyone and behave in that manner. I mean, that's what it is, the power is.

You see, that's how the woman express their husbands' positions.

But, the other way round, is the situation of a prophet. The prophet asserts his powers through love.

“How much can you hate me? I'll love you double. Always, whatever you will hate me, I'll love you double of that." Then what will happen? But to love, one has to sacrifice, one has to give, one has to bear. Love doesn't hang in the air. That's one thing people don't understand. Love is not only talking love or if you are little gentle to somebody is not the point. But even that bearing is a joy, because ultimately you are doing it for love. If love is the joy-giving thing, then that bearing is not much. You are doing it for love's sake. See, because love, unless and until it is shared you cannot enjoy.

So, first we have to be strict with ourselves, I think would be a good idea and loving to others. That may be the way we might work it out.

By God's grace we have a very nice place as an ashram. We might get even better place. You are the God's own blessed people. No one can believe that we could have such a nice place. But, what are we willing to do for it? That's the point, we should say. Don't take things for granted. I must warn you.

I know England is the heart, but in God's realms one can create many hearts, not so difficult.

So more harmony should be brought in. Even, you'll be surprised, in France, it's so harmonious and so beautiful.

Find faults with yourself all the time.

Now, under certain circumstances I have to appoint somebody, like I would say very personally, I would say, Nick. Because Nick is doing no job nowadays, he is quite a systematic person, is all right, this thing.

He has some problems, I know. You, too, have problems, all right? But he's the one available today and he's the one who is going to do it. Take one case. Now you must understand why Mother has appointed somebody, all right? Accept it. Because...

[Speaking about the children:] It's a big dance, all that... They're trying to entertain... see, look at this dancing. They are feeling the tenseness of the situation and trying to entertain... That's it; that is love. See, they want to relax you, they want to relax you, they want you to feel nice, to be joyous. Look at them, in the same way, we should do.

I am sure. I am sure now, henceforth. I think best thing is to make some poems. That may be a solution, all right? Let's see. And let everybody start writing poems. Would be a good idea. And then that should work out. And sing the song of praises. It's very little way, just a very little way, just there in your heart, resides the source of all the beauty. It's just, turn your face towards that. That will work out.

I'm sure it will work out. It's not very far away.

[Aside:] Let her also stand there, she'll enjoy.

Now, another point was that you are going to go to that peace mission or something. What peace? What is that supposed to be? In Brighton, you are? Peace festival, all right. And I'm told Kay has written an article about it, peace. You know that peace is nothing without. It is within yourself and if you can feel your peace, then only you can start feeling peace for others. Sahaja Yoga is the only way; there's no other way out.

You see, at the level of, say, take the position of Falkland. Now, let's see, Falkland Island is a very immediate problem. Now at that level there's no solution. There's no solution. They are quite justified in attacking back Falkland, because these people were illegally there, because that's not a democratic country. They have destroyed so many people of their own.

So, English were justified. Of course My all support was for them, because they were correct on the justice point. That's true. But, justice is a little half-baked, because for whom to fight? These unrealised Souls, their right, for what? Even if you have democracy, if it is demono-cracy, what is the use of having democracy? I mean, if through democracy, you are creating only demons, this demonic reign, then what's the use of having democracy, also? What about this so-called communism? All stupid people. To My eye, everybody is stupid and they cannot achieve anything at that level. You can say little bit, `Yes, correct. After all, you see, that was their people were there under democracy. These people should have gone because they have killed so many people already in Argentina, they have no business and, of course, despotic law is against, absolutely against Sahaja Yoga.' So democracy is the best suited, no doubt. We have to support democracy. But, even democracy for what? Why to have democracy? To have the higher freedom. If you cannot have higher freedom and it just means abandonment, you see, democracy means that an old man can marry a young girl and all sorts of nonsensical things. Then better not to have.

So democracy is only suitable to people who are Dharmic, who have established their Dharma. Otherwise, you really need a communistic country which will settle down your Dharma most, to evolve out of it.

But people think that democracy is for ruining your Dharma, you have freedom to ruin your Dharma as you like.

You see, “What's wrong?" It's a very, you see, you cannot say. It's a dilemma again. I don't know which way to go. It's another dilemma.

So, to end up the dilemma you have to talk to people, that though it might be justified at this time, say Falkland thing, aggression, it's for peace, because next time they won't do such a thing again. Is really for peace, because next time such a thing they may not try, these despots and there are all these Germans have gone and settled there.

So, is a good thing.

But, still it's not peace, it has killed a lot of people. This thing has happened. Why? Because people are not realised Souls.

Come in, come in! Come inside, there's a lot of space here, move on. All those people who come first should come on this. Can you move on this side, don't stand in there.

So, all these political institutions are a big joke, without realisation. They're not yet fully human beings. They're not fully developed, because they have not found their spirit. You must find your spirit.

Unless and until you've found your spirit, no problem is going to be solved. Once your problem is solved, that is, to find your spirit, all other problems are solved. How now? What will happen? Let's see. What will happen if we establish a kingdom of the realised Souls? Let's hear... the scholar. What should happen? Of course, everybody will get up early in the morning, no doubt about it. Apart from that, that's the most difficult thing. Tell Me. Whatever you say will happen, so that's what I'm asking.

Sahaja Yogi: Nobody will attack such a state.

Shri Mataji: There won't be any states. You see, God has not made any states. It's a madness. I tell you, when I was born, I was surprised. Oh God, what has happened? You see, God has not made any one of these states. It's a very different thing than what, you see, I expected. You see, God has made a beautiful land, all right, like this one, one sarī like that.

Now, you have to have some design, pattern, so He made some beautiful mountains and some nice, you can say, areas. And some are desert, some are rich. You see, it's to create... the whole system, if you see, has worked out in such a way that you have equator and you have the sun there, so the winds start moving. You see, it's all created so beautifully, so you have different types of countries and different types of places, this that. Now, after creating that, the human beings, stupid as they are, they divided themselves. I mean, it is stupid. I tell you really there is no need to divide like that.

So they created states. There was no need to create a state. But you see it happened like this: that in the beginning they created state, because they wanted to have a, you can say, a hut to protect themselves, then a village, then a city, now a state. Now, after state what is the next situation? The whole world! The collective. This is the breaking through. Is one world. It is. I believe it is. To Me it's nonsense to see it in so many...

I can't understand walking in the, you see, this Customs and all that, carrying your passport, that criminal number so and so and apart from that you carry your photograph and then tell so many things.

Oh, by the way, My passport is completely filled now. Have to get another one. It's like that. You see, everywhere you go, you look like a criminal. They look at your face and then they stamp you. All right, you are stamped. Go ahead. It's terrible. It's in-dignified, absolutely there. That means the human beings have no dignity left in them. I mean, this land doesn't belong to you at all. This is a land of God. You are of God and the land is. Nothing belongs to you, actually, to be very frank. I'm sorry to say, it's true.

So, what is a state? This is stateless. But stateless also means there is state in it. I say this is one world.

This is, has been, is and will be.

I mean you may in your myth, you see, hallucination, think it is different and fight. I sometimes feel you are just fighting your shadows. This is the, you have created shadows and the shadows are fighting and just to make the shadows fight, you fight. Otherwise, shadows don't fight. It's all a shadow. There's no truth in it. To Me it looks like that. It's all madness. What is there to fight? This is one world.

Everybody is blessed by God. They all should enjoy His blessings to enter into the kingdom of God. He is the King. He is the one who is the ruler. In His kingdom there is nothing like a state.

So that's a very different world you are entering into.

There are no alternatives there. It's only one absolute state of mind where you become the spirit, that's all. There's not going to be any aggression. Is stupid to be aggressive. There's not going to be any suppression. Stupid to do that. Nobody's going to be suppressed and nobody's going to take any suppression. Everybody... Why? Do you find that in the nature? Nobody does that. It's a harmonious living in the nature, even in the animal kingdom. You see, they know that a tiger has to live on an animal.

It's all right. That cattle has its own life, finished. Even they can understand the need, but, human beings don't. Their need is of spirit and spirit hates, actually hates aggression. It cannot. It cannot. Even if it wants to, it cannot. It's in-dignified to aggress anyone, for a spirit, in-dignified. Absolutely, it is wretched.

So, that is what it is, that we'll all enjoy love, love of God, His blessings and all our limitations will drop off.

So-called bhoots, as you call them, they'll all run away.

It's a very different atmosphere of reality. This is all unreal, is absolutely unreal, is an illusion, I tell you, because you know that Brahma, His Divine vibrations are doing everything. They are working out everything, even material things. Everything they can achieve. Apart from that, they give you that source of joy which takes you onto that atmosphere where you exist and enjoy. All the illusions created by human beings will drop out. This is all illusion. Believe Me, it's all illusion. There is no truth in it at all. But through illusion, you can work out.

It's a very interesting thing that only through illusion you can work out, because when I'm talking to you I have to keep an illusion of being here. Otherwise, you won't pay any attention. You wouldn't see Me; you wouldn't know Me; you wouldn't talk to Me.

So, you have to have an illusion. But, I know this is illusion. That's all. Living in this world, in this illusion, if you know it's an illusion, that's done. You are going to be tomorrow's citizens, no doubt, of a very high level quality. The day will come when they will have to jolly well consult us. Already you have seen how I am playing tricks on the U.S. Did you hear the way the lady made mistakes, you see, the stupid things? Did you find that? I saw her photograph and I said, “Oh, this stupid woman." She just raised her hand like that.

Now they are realizing, you know, they don't know what happens and then suddenly how they go amok. They'll all go amok and then they will have to find out how they should be controlled, what has happened, how did it happen. All these tricks one has to play, with all of them.

Now, after the last war perhaps people may not come out with very aggressive words, perhaps, maybe, because it will be unpopular. But they'll do such stupid things, you see, to prove that they are good for nothing. All this can be done. But, you must know it's an illusion, all of you, because you are different things. You are seeing through different eyes. You know what is Brahma is.

So, you must know it. And raise your quality. Raise your quality. In normal life, supposing, you see, like I'll say that somebody is a peon, then he dresses up in a particular way. Then he suddenly becomes an officer. Then he becomes a different style, you see, walks in a different way; his gait changes; style changes.

So, now you have become prophets, whole thing has to change. Either you don't accept this position, but if you are accepted this position and you are paid for it, then better be that. I mean, you can't dress up like a peon if you are an officer, can you? It's all illusion, complete illusion. Whole thing is an illusion.

All these kings of yours and queens are like dolls there before you. Especially Mister Pope, you see, who came here. My grandson says, “Mister Poke came here." I said, “Poke?" He said, “I'm sorry, Pork. He was talking all rubbish." I said, “How do you know?" “Because all his Chakras were catching." And he is supposed to be the Pope in charge. Now, Bishop of Canterbury, see, is another funny man. I've seen him on the thing. He was agnostic about everything. I don't know about Christ also, maybe. He said, “I'm agnostic." Any question you ask him, “I'm agnostic." Is a very good escape he has got, you see. He's agnostic of about everything, because he says, “It's a mystery to me." So, what are you doing there? I mean, if it's a mystery to you, you're agnostic. I mean, I just don't understand how is he there.

So, some people have taken up upon themselves this crusade, I believe and to talk to him. I mean, how can you talk to your shadow? Can you? So, the people live in the shadow state and you should not symbolize yourself as shadows. You should symbolize yourself as reality and look at them as shadows, you see. In a way, in a very dignified way, “This is a shadow, you know." Just pick it up, but, not in an aggressive way, but have compassion about them. Say, “No, no, sir, this is not so. You are sadly mistaken. You see the shadow of life." The whole Christianity is doomed because they started running after shadows. This Mister Saint Paul, I don't know how he came into Bible. Now, you are a theologist. You tell Me, John. How did he enter? I mean, anybody who says he saw Christ, is he supposed to enter into the Bible? How did he? I mean, his saying and his words and his letters are regarded as the letters from the Bible, after Christ. Before Christ is all right, but after Christ. What is the validity? I don't understand. What is the credibility of this person entering into that as an authority? How? When nobody challenged him. He was a man who was killing so many people before. Then, suddenly he becomes something and he starts saying, “I'm doing Christ's work” and this and that and writes letter to Corinthians and all these people and all that. And why these letters that he writes becomes a Bible? Can you imagine? What did he do in his own lifetime? Half of it he spent in killing and half of it is he was an imposter. I am happy that it has come to your notice. But one can ask, “Why? Why is he there?" Now, he started this charismatic thing; he is doing all this. I first saw it in India. There's a Saint Paul's Church. They're all possessed people, you know and one of My uncles was the priest of that. He was a very possessed man, very hot-tempered, horrible. And when I saw that, I wanted to see the Saint Paul's Bible what he has written about. I was amazed. But I said, “Let you people read and see for yourself." And this horrible charismatic movement is anti-God activity, absolutely anti-God activity.

So, if you have to talk to the gentleman, you have to tell him about it, that it is possession. The Seventh Day Adventist and what other is this Pentecost, is nothing but that. Jamaicans are doing, all of them are great spiritually-developed people, spiritually in the pub. I mean, there should be certain norms, isn't it, about a person who is supposed to be a prophet or something, something to do with God, you see. The world is coming to a position where they are understanding; but you see, once they start disregarding, the danger is this: once they start disregarding these things, because they are myths and falsehood, they will disregard also God and all the truth about God. They can become communists. That's the easiest way.

Then there is no return. It's a dangerous situation. When you talk to him you have to tell him, warn him.

Already your churches are selling here. Nobody goes to church.

Now, about the environment. They are having a meeting on environment. That, too, is only solved through spirit. All environment problems can be solved only spiritual, if you have spiritual ascent. Otherwise, you cannot. You try anything; it's like patching up the sky. See now, it's a very deep-rooted thing that we don't understand that spirit is the most practical thing. You see, we think spirit, we think it's like a drunkard, you know. Spiritual man, he's a cult, he's a drunkard, he's most abnormal. He's funny.

Either he hits people or runs away from them. This is the idea we have got about a spiritual personality.

But just see you are spiritual. You will find it impossible to use plastics after some time, because you will know that the plastics give you horrid vibrations. After some time you will really find it repulsive. It's all right to sit in a train for a while on a plastic coach, all right, but, to sit in your house on a plastic all the time would be horrible and to wear a plastic coat all the time, our body will refuse.

So when people will be spiritually awakened, they'll give up all these nonsensical things.

So, they may say then, “What will happen to the machines?" Now, machines are for us; we are not for the machines. This is another concept is: whatever is created is for us and we are not for that. All right, doesn't matter. Nothing will go wrong with the machines. Machines should be used for anything that is a public work. Like for your motor cars, for your trains, trams, all public work which is outside. For houses at the most you can use machines.

But, for personal things, you must use handmade things, handmade things. For spiritual people, you like to wear something that is handmade or real. I can't wear a nylon sarī. Not that I am very fussy about things, but I just can't wear. After some time, if I do not take out My socks, which are only nylon, what to do? My vibrations get jammed, completely.

So, you won't be able to wear next to your skin, near your skin, near your body, eating your food, everything in plastics, cooking in plastics. I mean it's too much. Thank God, cooking I don't think is possible, isn't it? But aluminum is another thing. Is very bad. Aluminum, you won't be able to use. You'll either try copper or brass, I think so. Now, handmade things we may have, because they are made by hand, so they have vibrations. People would like to have handmade. It is a part, so by that we remove the disparity of the world.

Developing countries can do handmade things. You cannot beat them with computers. Can you? You go ahead, mad with your computers. You'll have to come back.

You must understand the whole. If you don't understand the whole, this is what is happening: like mad, you know computers are going ahead, ahead. Where? Into the ditch, into a big mountain. Now they have created a big mountains of plastic and they don't know what to do with it.

So and now with computer, what will they do? They'll create a greater mountains out of plastics. Maybe a Himālaya might be created, with the computer.

So the developing countries should not try to follow these mad people on one side. They should develop their hand things and all that, because they'll have to come back. Now, the handmade things in this country are so important and so expensive. You don't care whether it is pressed [UNCLEAR priced] or not. But in India you have to take nylons, because they say nylons is a symbol of development, not of over-development, perhaps, but of development.

So they must take to nylons and plastics and to stainless steel and aluminum, if possible. That's what we are doing.

When you have less things consumed like that, you use less things from your motherland, because handmade you cannot go on mad like a machine goes, like a Rākshasa eating away everything and producing more. It has to live like that. It's not economical.

So when you have handmade things you have more value for your things, you look after them better, you feel better, you are comfortable and you need not be that smart, you see, machine-made. That idea of smartness is going down.

So, the developing countries should also learn a lesson. They are going after you. They are running fast. They try to run faster; they cannot. Thank God, they cannot. But they should stick on to that side.

You see, one part of the country has to do something; another part has to do something else.

But, you people have to look after the side of machines, all right? I mean, handmade things, what can you make? Some ceramics, I think, apologies, some apologies for that. You better do what you know better and let them do what they can do better and share it. If this balance is established, there's no aggression. Unemployment can be solved. All the problems can be solved, if you take to handmade things.

We should take to handmade things as far as possible. Sahaja Yogis should use handmade things. I mean, not the cars, but for their personal use. Even I would say, soaps that you use are horrid. The soaps that you get in England are not meant for your skins at all, for Sahaja Yogis' skin. I can't bear them. What you have to use is natural soaps that you get from any country you feel like, but natural soaps, which come from natural oils.

Foods also, natural food you must eat, more natural food, than artificial. All that will give you a better living and that is called as alternative, all right. That's alternative is important, but that doesn't mean you go on a bullock cart. You can export your trains to India, or your cars to India and get khadi from there. All right? Mutual understanding, because we are part and parcel of one whole and we just cannot exist by our only growth because then we become malignant, you see. One cells eats another. You have to. If you have a machinery, you have to eat other, because you produce so much. You must find markets for them, you must supply them, you must send over and then you must have other countries to exploit them.

People have tremendous respect for Mahatma Gandhi, but I don't know if people understand what he said about machinery. That doesn't mean the people who are doing machine work should give up, by any chance, but, some of them they can close down. For example, plastic toys for children is horrifying. You can't even get wood toys now, nothing, just plastic. They are touching plastic. I mean, imagine, you cannot feel any plastic.

So, this is what a sane Sahaja Yogi has to understand. That's how you can solve the problem of environment, also. Thank God, somehow with your affluence and too much of machinery, all the Western people, I am happy to know, even in Portugal, realise the value of handmade things. But in India if you offer somebody in an handmade thing they'll say, “Oh God, they have no money." But stainless steel, “Great." In a stainless steel, glass they'll give you tea, you see, it's very big. If you give it in a ceramic, “Oh, what this, village craft?" They are to be told. But, if you create a demand, they'll be all right; they'll look after their handmade.

And here you can't do much. I've seen, you see, that neatness, that deftness is not there; that's lacking; all lost it. Very few people have that left in them. Even if they have to cut one coat with their hands, they cannot do it. They have to use a machine, which cuts twenty-five coats at a time, you see.

Then this problem of, you have to have a figure exactly because these only can fit certain figures. You can't have your own independent figure. This is all machine-like stuff, you see. You all must have that figure, otherwise doesn't fit it.

So, that is an ideal figure.

So, everybody works out for that. See, there's a new machinery comes up, you see, for that kind of a thing, then new styles come up. It's such an artificial thing, all man-made, artificial.

From your democracy, your politics to your economics, to all your so-called ideas of creativity, everything becomes so artificial. Now people can't paint. What they paint, if you see, you are just aghast. You don't know what is this supposed to be. And it is supposed to be so that it looks, “There's a hand, isn't it? Can't you see that?" “Yes, I can. It's a little bit showing." They can't do anything. We can't have Shakespeare, we can't have Gauguin, we can't have anyone of that type. We can't have, say, Abraham Lincoln. You can have only machines, you see, bolts and nuts, fitted nicely. You're fixed, you're fixed, you're fixed, you're fixed. Everybody fixed nicely. Where do, I mean, this brain go? Where will this heart go? What will it do then? It cannot collapse. I mean, as long as you are existing, the heart has to beat.

So all this artificiality has to be overcome by Sahaja Yogis. The responsibility is so great. Such a big building you have to bear on your shoulders and the foundation stones have to get up in the morning to be chiseled out properly.

So, I end up My lecture today.

May God bless you! Now I am getting self-conscious. Will you please put it off? All right. Now, today I have come specially to discuss about...

Contents: 1982-06-10*, Public Program, When Are We to Grow, Hampstead, London, UK

Very happy to be back again in Hampstead. Now I really enjoyed Hampstead, because as I have told you in London, many people who were great spiritual lived in this area. They preferred it to other places.

So I believe that many people who live in this area must be also spiritual, must have taken their birth with the idea of achieving their Self-realisation. It's very important time, when you are born. It's the most important in the history of the universe.

You are created a human being to become your Spirit. There's nothing in between. If you have intelligence, pure intelligence, you can see through all that. You have to test your intelligence on this.

Whatever we think and whatever we can see and whatever we try to organize ourselves into, mostly comes from our conditionings, not from the Spirit, because we have not touched the Spirit. But innately we have got a sense to know that these are very important times, that there must be something great in the atmosphere, that there are so many people who are seeking. It's something remarkable. I mean, if this misses your attention that means you are not alert.

There are people of all types, all kinds, but seekers of this calibre have been very few. Now England has its own problems and London has its own peculiarities. Despite the fact I have been in London for about now eight and a half years, I feel that the reception of the truth has been very, very poor. Maybe, I am luckier than others; is the conditioning again, I would say, of another type that prevails the minds.

First we had, say, about twenty-five years back the conditioning of the science, but scientists themselves have refuted it. They themselves have challenged the science and they themselves know that it's not such a happy affair just to be a scientist.

Then comes the intellectuals. The books started pouring in, in the market. All kinds of books; you can read about everything. Everyone knows about everything and once you start reading about them, you conceive something. Your conceptions are built about the truth also. The thing you have never seen, the thing you have never felt, you cannot conceive it. It is to be seen.

Like I had never seen Hampstead before and the first idea of My husband was to buy a house in Hampstead. Surprising, I was very happy at that point.

So I said, “Let's go and see." Without seeing it, if I had some conception about it, it would have been wrong. Mine, My seeing is different from others, I must say. I liked the place immensely, but he, from the point of view, distances and all of that he said, “It's not good” and naturally his ideas prevailed; doesn't matter. But seeing, itself, makes you understand. But what is Self-realisation? It's not only seeing. When you come to Hampstead you don't see it. You feel it.

You feel it.

Now many people say you can feel, but the idea of feeling is also quite conditioned. Like, you see, some children like to cuddle a little doll. They feel the doll, but God knows how far they feel it. They might be feeling it physically, or emotionally also. They might be feeling some sort of a security with the doll, maybe. Psychologically they might be deriving some joy out of that doll itself or maybe the image, which has some sort of an attraction of some sort of a thing that is built within their unconscious, that they feel so close to that. But a person who is a realised Soul does not feel a doll that way, even if it's a child. It's surprising. You must watch a realised child getting to a doll. It's very surprising. For example, I bought two dolls from London for My grandchildren and they rejected completely. They said, “What sort of dolls these are?" I said, “Why?" “They are unhappy." I said, “They are not unhappy." “No, see their lips. You see, the lips of the dolls here is all just like a duck's beak, you see." They said, “They have resentment. They are angry. They are not realised. Accept." If you are a happy person then the whole get-up of your face changes and they could see, they could feel it. They rejected. “We don't want these dolls." And then next time when I had to go I had to go round the whole places. First of all they were plastics; so plastics they don't like. They don't like plastic.

Somehow realised people don't like plastics, automatically. They wouldn't wear plastic clothes, they wouldn't wear nylon clothes, they wouldn't wear mixed clothes, very difficult. They must have cotton clothes. Even if they have one, they'll wear that the whole day, morning, evening, every time, the same thing. You see, it's a different sensitivity which we do not have before realisation. They have a different sensitivity and the coefficients of a doll which emits vibrations they like. But it's very difficult to get such dolls nowadays; impossible. Because where are these artists who are realised Souls who used to make dolls? I have seen they make their own dolls, out of some things.

Sometimes My sarīs they will use or something. And sleep with dolls.

It's something to be understood that after realisation the thing you feel is not what you feel through your heart or through your conditioning, of ages also maybe. Like if you have been living with a woman for many years with blue eyes, then you may like a doll with blue eyes. You may, because you have that image into your head. You may [UNCLEAR have/that]. Or you may have a nanny of with blue eyes; you may like a doll like that. It's all psychological. It's conditioning very deep in you, but Spirit has no conditioning. It's a free thing. What does it feel? It feels the joy of Creation, which we cannot. Before realisation we cannot feel. You see, when we see something, where is the joy? Now, for example, if some fussy man comes here he'll say, “Oh, God, what a thing! I had to take out my shoes and sit like that and the chairs were horrible and couldn't stay, very uncomfortable and the colour was all white. I couldn't bear it” and I don't know all sorts of things. The thoughts will start. If you buy something, same thing. If you see something, same thing. There's no joy. We just start thinking, or if not, to avoid that, you may start a poetry about it. It's sometimes so artificial.

Some of the poetry, so artificially put there that you can see it clearly that this man is just a sadist, wants to make you cry, like Lord Byron. You can see it so clearly that this man has no sincerity of purpose. He is not sincere.

That sincerity you cannot feel unless and until you are realised because such a poem you won't like at all, whether you understand the language or not. The whole tone of it will emit horrible vibrations; is absolutely the essence of everything is nothing but vibrations. Everything is nothing but vibrations; the rest is all zero.

We are nothing but our vibrations which are emitted because we are now connected with the Spirit.

But otherwise also whether you are connected with Spirit or not, you emit vibrations. But these are the vibrations without the light in it and you can feel the vibrations of a person out and out. You can feel, feel how, you can feel on your centers. All your center become active and you start feeling on your centers.

That means all these five centers six, seven centers you start feeling. Even you may not feel in your fingers.

Some of us Sahaja Yogis may not feel also even today after so many days because their Viśhuddhi Chakra is very bad. They must have smoked in, I think, ten lives, you see and must have been horrible Viśhuddhi Chakra and maybe that's why it's all on the [UNCLEAR minding sheet/myelin sheath] of the nerves that you cannot feel it. That's a different point. But you will feel it on your centers and the feeling on the center is emitted in your nervous system and when it comes to it you feel it on your centers and you know.

You just know and you know it as vibratory awareness. This vibratory awareness has to grow, no doubt.

The sensitivity has to grow, no doubt. But, first you must touch it. If it has not even touched, then how can it grow? But we are so conditioned that we take to things which superficially are very appealing.

Sahaja Yoga is not like that. It's truth. It's reality. Of course, you cannot pay for reality. I mean, how can you pay? If it is reality, you cannot pay for it. That's one simple thing. You cannot artificially say you are realised Soul. You cannot. Even if you say, there was a girl, I met her in Portugal, mischievous one and she wanted to stick on with the Sahaja Yogis because she was very negative and she wanted to disturb the Sahaja Yogis. She came to the program and she told Me, “Oh, I am feeling very well, Mother. I am feeling vibrations." I just looked at her. I kept quiet because I knew she was not. I didn't say anything. I didn't want to create trouble. But second day when she turned up I said, “Why are you telling me lies?" “No, no, no." I said, “Yes, you are telling Me lies. You have to be sincere. What are you going to gain? Say, you are mischievous. You are playing into the hands of negative forces. What is your game? You are the Spirit.

The Spirit is within you. You have to become the Spirit. Is your own joy, is your own property, is your own Self, which is not known to you. What not be honest about it and get to it instead of playing tricks with yourself and then playing tricks with other Sahaja Yogis. What is the use? What is the gain? Why are you playing in the hands of the Satanic force? Why don't you play into the hands of the Divine force?" She said, “No, no, no, but I am feeling it." I said, “See, don't tell Me lie. I know for definite you are not feeling it and if you are not going to be honest you are not going to come to My program at all. You have to be honest yourself. If you are not honest I am not going to have you here." But dishonesty sometimes reaches a very absurd limit, because honesty is only up to which point you can see. Say, you can see the colour is white, all right. Up to that you are honest. But if you start saying, “I know who has painted it and I know who has done the job and I know who is the company” and all that, that's not true.

So honesty is up to the point you know. Beyond that, if you start saying things because you have read somewhere something or you have heard something, that's wrong. That's not being honest.

So we have to have honesty and open-mindedness. You have to be open-minded and honest, so that you see for yourself, because as I told you it's not like other places where you can just go and become members, nothing. First you have get your realisation. Secondly, you have to grow into it. Those who cannot do, will be left out. You can't help it. How far can you move it people, how far can you tell them? You see, there's no binding force. You are completely free to leave it or to take it. If you want to take it, well and good. If you don't want to take it, no one is going to force you at all in this, because you cannot force.

You can force a horse to eat, that is possible, but you cannot force any human being to be a realised Soul. You cannot. Not only that he has to ask for it but he has to later on work for it. It is a tremendous thing you are asking for and it is the greatest thing that you are achieving. It is made easy, I should say.

The times are such. It looks easy but it's not so easy.

In Sahaja Yoga there are more dropouts than sticking people. Naturally, because you have to be honest.

You have to be very honest with it and you have to give a try. Like in Spain I met about six, five, six ladies and two men who came to see Me. When I came out I was very reluctant to have anything to do with them. But, you see, all the Sahaja Yogis were so impressed, you know. I don't know why. “Oh, Mother they are so good. You don't know, they came and looked at your photograph and they did this and all that." I said, “Now, it's all right if you want [I will drive them] somehow. I don't think much is going to work out." And they thought they had found such a great bunch of people, you see, who are real Sahaja Yogis of the thing. I said, “Did you see their vibrations?" They said, “No, Mother we were waiting for You." I said, “All right, doesn't matter. We'll have then. I'll have a look at them." And they said, first question they asked, “Mother, why is it Sahaja Yogis don't smoke?" I said, “Because they don't want to." I mean, is that a question to ask? I mean, if you smoke is it very normal? I just couldn't understand this question. She said, “No, we don't want to lose our freedom of smoking and freedom of drinking." I said, “Do you think you are free? You are a slave. You can't give up even if you want to. I can free you from that or your Kuṇḍalinī can free you but you cannot. Even if you want you cannot give up, but here they just give up. I don't tell them, I never force them, but just happens because if you get the nectar of life you don't care for other nonsensical thing. It's simple as that." But they were so frightened with the Sahaja Yogis' style of life, means they don't smoke and drink every night, they said, “It's impossible." They gave up. Can you imagine? And the first talk we had.

But then we had people with such tremendous characters. They came for the program. I was so very happy, extremely happy and joyous. Everybody said, “Mother, why?" They were little, sometimes, not so much receptive, maybe, according to Sahaja Yogis. But I could feel My vibrations sucked into them, absolutely flowing, the energy just getting into them and suddenly they said, “I've got it." And tremendous people, very well-educated also, some of them, but extremely well-versed about what we have to achieve. I was surprised, in Spain there are people who know Sanskrit so well and about everything, about Chaitanya and all that. They know so well. It's most surprising and I used to think only scholarships exist in England.

No, I was surprised. All of them knew about Chakras. They knew about what it means. Everything they have sorted it out. I said, “When did you start?" They said, “About, when we were, I think, ten years of age." I said, “Ten years of age? How?" They said, “We, we just couldn't be satisfied with what was answer [UNCLEAR easier/is here]." “Such grown-up people” I said. From ten years of age, so many of them and you should have seen the way they were and they recognize Sahaja Yoga and the tremendous effect it has and the work that it is doing. You will be amazed the way these people behaved towards Sahaj Yoga.

Then I said, “Next time, I'm not staying in London. Spain. Yeah, really I tell you." There's a kind of reception and there's no barrier at all in their minds. It's such pure intelligence, sharp, to see this is the thing, where are we running. You see and really I felt that eight years I have wasted in this country, that time. Really for a moment I just felt, “Oh, God!" But you know the importance of this country is so great because it's the heart of the universe. I have to live it through and such lethargy and such inertia and explanations, you see. Intellectuals have a very good, you see, an easy-chair way of looking at things, very easy-chair way of looking at things. Easy-chair politicians they are, you see. Well, it's very interesting. Many a times I've heard, “It's very interesting, you know, Mother what you have given us. Very nice, yes, yes." It's very common. But there, for them it was a heavenly gift because they knew what it was. What's the use of all the scholarship of Lord Byron when you can't recognize Christ, when you can't recognize the truth? What's this education for? I was amazed at these people. They never went to Cambridge and they were not Oxbridge's. Most surprising, you know. And they, they were people, great intelligence, very well-versed and in Spain. Can you imagine? Same I [UNCLEAR would/will] say of Italy. Italians are supposed to be very dishonest and this, that, I've heard. Nobody was dishonest with Me as far as I'm concerned. Very upright, straightforward and tremendous people. Just My photograph convinced them. They said, “The face shows." They hate the Pope. They hate the Papal things. They know all about Pope. Everything they know. They have sorted out everything. But to know so much about Chakras and things, I was amazed. They knew about Tantrism.

They knew that Hitler used Tāntrikas. They knew that Hitler used all these things. Actually, they told Me.

So I was amazed. How did they know? I dared not say this before because everyone who is following all these Tāntrikas would have been angry with Me. But that's what Hitler did. And so much they knew.

One of the boys was just [there]. You can call him a hippie or whatever he may be. He went on the street shouting, “Oh, Mother has come now. The Mother has come. The Holy Mother has come. What are you doing now? Come along to the program." He was shouting on the street like “Eureka!" And a learned man, in the real sense of the word. It's such a pleasure to talk to them, see. It's such a pleasure, I tell you.

I think it is time that English should come down a little, really. Australia again, just look at Australians, they are supposed to be convicts. Supposed to be; I can't understand. You see this high-handedness, or we can call it condescendingly to watch something; it's not proper, it's not proper. You must come down in humility. Otherwise things will not work out, I can tell you. You have to humble down. You see, you have, all right, we have Hampstead.

So what? We have Blake.

So what? What have you done to Blake? Can you understand him? Do you know who he was? Do you know what he wanted to say? What he wanted to communicate? Even in his program where I went to see his beautiful paintings, people were watching how many nude women and nude men he has produced. With all these and this level just, I, I just couldn't understand it.

You must understand holiness. You must understand auspiciousness. You must understand sublime things.

Something great that is beyond just now, but is within your reach because you are sublime. You are not a low-level animal. You are sublime. You are the Spirit. Unless and until you really assume that situation with that pride and glory, to God you are nothing. You are just zero, useless. And this is what I'll find always, new people coming even in your Hampstead, [Magda] and they just disappear. You see, it's like one lecture is free. “All right, let's go and see Mother." That's all. All these experiences, even in a country like Portugal. Portugal, the way people have done, I mean Sahaja Yoga is remarkable. I go there for three days only. Only for three days in a year. I must have gone there only twice so far. Look at them: young people taking up responsibility, working it out for their country.

So much they understand of auspiciousness. How have we lost all that sense of holiness and auspiciousness? We are running after people who are collecting money from you, giving you a circus. How can you? How can you not find out that this is not the truth, that you have to be the truth, that you are something great? Why can't we assume that situation? We are not our ego. No, we are not. We are the Spirit, the sublime, the great.

And that's what I find. Many new people coming, then they disappear, then they come after ten days, then after they come after one month. They have this problem, that problem. Then why not grow? When are we going to grow? When are we going to become fully that? Time is very short, My children. Time is very, very short. Believe Me.

Some people advise Me, “Mother, you have to be very strict and all that." I don't know how a Mother could be strict. What should I do? Because, you see, you cannot force it on anyone. You see, the problem [UNCLEAR I have/I'm helpless], is, you see, I cannot force it on to you. This is a big problem. You must understand this. You are seekers. You are seekers of very great times, born in this great country of yours, but so much conditioned. This is for you to take it within yourself, what you are and to achieve that. This is something cannot be forced. I cannot mischievously do something or cleverly do something or cunningly say something to convince you. It is not that. It is something that has to happen within you, that you have to be something more than what you are. It's that concern of Mine because it's My job that keeps Me here. You must know your real Self which is seeking, which is seeking the truth. It will never be satisfied with all these monkey tricks that people are indulging into. It's no monkey tricks. You don't become a monkey, like dancing, jumping, singing. This is not the thing. In your awareness, in your central nervous system you should feel the presence of your Spirit. That's it. If you have discarded Christianity, like, some people write to Me, “Mother, I have many problems. First begins with Christianity", where do you land? Even if you discard Christianity you can't do without Christ. Christ is there. I mean, Christ is our soul. We cannot do without Him.

Then you come into another thing, then you fall into another trap, then fall into another trap. You miss the essence of it every time you fall into these peripheries. The essence is in the center of it and that center is within you; is your Spirit. You may ask Me a hundred questions, I will give you two hundred answers; makes no difference at all, I tell you. It is of no value, of no availability to you or any goodness out of it you, believe Me. You have to be what you are. Unless and until that happens and you establish it within yourself, it's such a waste of life, waste of this Creation, everything I feel wasted.

So I have to request you again and again. Of course, in London now there are some very great Sahaja Yogis, no doubt, we have, but the way it has been progressing if I were in any other country, I tell you, things would have been very different. I can assure you this one, any other country. America? I've been there only once.

Can you believe it? Long time back, that too for about four, five days and this time when I went I was hardly in any place for more than three days. Say, Houston, hardly for three days and how many people there are. I mean, you don't know. Ask Gavin, he'll tell you.

What's wrong with us? Let's see. I just can't understand why we can't grow. Why can't we give up our conditionings easily and take to truth and get into it? We don't understand is it the importance of this time, the vital nature of this happening. Or have we lost that sense of seriousness where an emergency of this kind has arisen today which we don't feel or fathom? Or we just think that it's just a joke going on? Or our life we treat is just like a joke or a frivolous thing? What is it? I still can't understand what stops that truth... beyond Me. The land is fertile, beautiful. I am not sown My seeds in a wrong land; I know that. But doesn't grow; it doesn't grow. It doesn't take shape. What's the matter? Today there are new people, I am happy to know and I have to make a humble request to all of you. If you have to come to Sahaja Yoga you have to be people who have to understand that reality is not a joke. It's not a frivolous thing. You have to become a realised Soul and you have to grow in the light of that realisation and you have to master this art. We need now masters all over. Not that somebody else is your master but you become your own master. Such people are needed to channelize the energy of God.

I am sure Warren must have told you all about it. He's another great character I have; very proud of him, the way he feels responsible for the whole world, the way he came down. He sacrificed so much, so much. I mean we, I don't need any money from an, anything as such, but even money-wise I am sure he must have done something. I don't know because I have never taken any money from him as such. But even there I am sure, he established an ashram, he established people, he got them, he worked it out. I mean it's remarkable and how people followed him, seeing him the way he is. He doesn't have any private life left except for to enjoy this privacy of the Spirit with others and if you see his background he'll tell you that he knew he was a seeker but in the seeking he committed so many mistakes, so many mistakes.

But look at his sensitivity. He knows where the Kuṇḍalinī is, he knows how to correct it and not him but most of the people from Australia know it so well.

It's nothing mundane. It will be very sad and unhappy if you people get your realisation and lose it and do not develop into it. I don't know what would be the category of such people whom God has given the light and they didn't give light to anyone. I don't know what should be the position. Today I am rather concerned, very much concerned because I have come back from these three countries. I was amazed. France: tremendous. French people, I used to always say that these `les miserables' and all that.

Nothing of the kind, you know. There's a priest who got his realisation. He formed an association called `Saving the people from Gurus'. Very clever and he is a priest still, you see, but he is a Sahaja Yogi out and out. And what he does, those people who go to him and tell against the Christianity he said, “Why don't you go to Sahaja Yoga?" Anybody whom he saves, he sends them to Sahaja Yoga... all that. But the other day he said, “Mother, why should we have Pope anymore?" Look at that. And he stays in the church and works for Sahaja Yoga. Can you beat that? Because he thinks he has to save people who are misled. He does that. We have people of that calibre.

Another one we met, another one very great one, in Portugal. He told Me that the TM gentleman wanted to establish his kingdom in Portugal. He's got a very big land and all that. And he told Me all the secrets. He said, “I am going to talk to the people who are in charge here. They are sensible." I said, “Really? Are you sure?" I said, “If you want to talk to anybody here in Mentmore, they'll not listen. They are very satisfied with the yards of black suits they are wearing and with the so-called idea of sitting on a gold gilded chair, you see. All that stupidity." He said, “No, not in Portugal. They are very sensible people. They realise it. I am going to talk to them." Because they are all suffering so early. Only three years they have been doing it. They are all suffering on the left side, their ears are finished, somebody's eyes are finished, somebody's problem is on the left side, somebody has a problem on the left Void and all that. I cured, of course. But they said, “All of us are suffering." That means they are very sensitive also to suffer so fast. And they are realizing, they are reaching all of them, even their administrators and their; everybody's realizing that there's some sort of a nonsense going on in this TM. Just imagine. When I went back, so transformed and changed. The one gentleman had an eye like this. It's all opened out equally the same, everything, face so transformed. I said, “I can't recognize you, the way you are changed." Such a short time, in eight days, they worked it out.

Portugal is a country known for its escape nowadays. There are nobody, we should call, the real Portuguese have run away from that country. They are settled in Brazil. Spain, people have not much hopes from Spain, politically. It's a hopeless country, they say. Italy is the worst of all. They have Mafiā, this. And in that Māyā these beautiful lotuses to see. What a joy it was; what a joy. You can't imagine.

Even our Ambassador in Spain said, “The people here are very different, Mother." He said, “I talked to some people. They said, `When She is coming you have to call us.' " I said, “Next year you have a big program. This year let's have only the Indians. But next year, of course, you can call." You see, all of them here want to have realisation. All big people, eminent people. You just come next year and you'll see all of them. Here, do you think anybody? An ambassador, can you imagine? I can't think. Very funny people.

I've met a very big man once in a dinner party where one of the Sahaja Yogis is the chairman of the Hague High Court, of course an Indian, Doctor Nagen Singh. And he told that gentleman that, “This lady is a very well-known spiritual leader of India and She has given realisation to many and She has given realisation to me also." He looked at Me and he said, “No, I am also a realised Soul." What to say? He said, “Christ has given me realisation.

It's Christ who is going to give me." So Nagen Singh in Hindi says, “There are no vibrations, the Kuṇḍalinī is frozen and this one is saying. How can Christ give him realisation?" I said, “This is the escape because Christ is no more." Of course, Christ gives him but where is Christ within himself? So he asked him, “Where is Christ within yourself?" “That Christ knows himself." He said, “I didn't know these people were such buffoons." Really, these were his words. And My husband then couldn't bear it any more, you see. He said “Now, forget it." You see, he was such a blind man.

I mean, in India people may not get realisation, may not, but they know what is realisation. They know who is truthful, I must say. Whether they are ambassadors or Presidents, make no difference; they know that definitely. Even President of India, say, if he sees Me he doesn't sit down. [UNCLEAR They/He'll] stand up. They have that sense. That basic humility is missing. That's why we take to people who pamper our ego. We take to people who are nonsensical. We take to people who befool us. Only the egoistical can be befooled. If you are not egoistical no one can befool you. How do you befool a person? By pampering the ego.

So one has to understand that unless and until we develop that basic humility within ourselves we are not going to do very well in England.

It's for all the Sahaja Yogis as well as for people who have come here. It's a very, very, serious problem and you are placed in the most vital parts of the universe that is this England, that's the Heart. And if you now any way escape your responsibility, you will be held responsible, I am telling you now very strongly.

Because today I had big lectures from people saying that, “Mother, you don't say things strongly and people are to be frightened." I don't want to frighten you but you will be held responsible, take it from Me. You are born on this Earth, on this great land for a very great purpose, to create Jerusalem out of that. And now if you are not going to stand up, you'll be held responsible. This is what it is. It's a tremendous work one has to do, for which you must prepare yourself. Get to it. I can give realisation; that's all. But I can't give you strength. I mean, you can't make the horse stand up on his forelegs, can you? It's a very, very, desperate situation sometimes the way things happen. After all, you must know that My coming here has some meaning of. I didn't come here because I chose to come in the way people, the Gurus walk into your country. I came here because something was done spontaneously. I had to stay here, I had to work for you, I had to implore you and request you and tell you in every way possible your responsibility. But then you don't tell Me because I have not failed in My duties as far as I'm concerned.

Of that I am very sure. But now I'll leave it to you because I may not be here next year. What can you say? Depends on the moods. But we have to see what you are going to do for the whole world, for the whole emancipation of the human being.

First you have to find your own beauty and you have to give this beauty to others. This is a greatest artist's job you have to do, as a great master of art in Divine life.

You have to become Divine. It's you who has to become Divine. You don't worry about Me. I don't have to achieve anything, you see. That's the only problem. I don't have to achieve it. I have to only achieve you people. I have to only have ways and methods by which I could really make you grow. All that is possible I will do, but you must stand up on your legs, must ask for it. It's a big problem. Not for others; for Me. Because others have no such problem.

They don't want you to stand on your legs. They want you to crawl and they want you to disappear. This is a different thing. I want you to grow, not because I want, but Divine wants it. The whole Creation wants it. Otherwise it will have no meaning.

So the responsibility of English Sahaja Yogis, British Sahaja Yogis is very great. Again and again I have requested you and I have told you in whatever way possible, that establish yourself. You are [UNCLEAR lacking/lagging] behind. I can tell you Spanish people will have to come and teach you Sahaja Yoga. Already we have got somebody from Australia to teach that.

You give up your old ideas and conditioning. Every Saturday, Sunday, must you go out of the country, out of London? London is your place where you have to work. Unless and until you take it up upon yourself it's not going to work out.

Some people have to do it, someone. I am looking out for such people for whom this is their desire. We talk of big things, you know. If we talk to anyone, I see in big, big parties they talk, “Oh, what's this?" and “We must become peaceful countries. We must do this and that must happen." And even if you'll listen to the lecture of our great President of America, you see, you find, “Oh God, some angel is speaking” or what? Like an angel, you see, they speak. Angelic, prophetic, such big, big, words. I can't understand even it won't come into the mouth of God Himself but the way people talk, ultimately what remains is nothing.

So let us be that, what we talk. We can be. We all can be. It's very simple. You have to decide. You have to really decide. The time has come. I just pray may God give you strength to stand with the truth. It's not difficult. It's very joy-giving. But stand with it, grow with it.

That's what you are. Thank you very much.

Now if you have any questions you can ask Me and we should have realisation. Hello. What's that? What's that here? Right Swādhiṣhṭhāna. She's showing right Swādhiṣhṭhāna.

[Aside:] Oh, all right.

Now you take this one. [Hindi.] They are fighting. They are fighting, see, working it out. They are all fighting. How is your child, [Graham]? That same thing?

Sahaja Yogi: Much less.

Shri Mataji: Your Āgñyā? Have you brought her?

Sahaja Yogi: No, because I haven't the right, because she has [UNCLEAR just come out of/to stay in the] hospital two or three weeks.

Shri Mataji: All right. On My way back if we have time I will go for see her. That child is fighting.

What sufferings from the very beginning of life. That house also I think has problems. No questions? Are there any questions please? Yes? Questioner: I'm from Holland and I wonder whether I should try to stay in England, in London for, should I remain in England to find work?

Shri Mataji: It's difficult to find? Questioner: I am wondering whether I should try to find work here in England or, do you understand what I am saying?

Shri Mataji: You are English? Questioner: No, Holland.

Shri Mataji: Yes? Questioner: Holland.

Shri Mataji: Holland? Questioner: Yes.

Shri Mataji: Oh, we need people in Holland. I haven't yet touched it.

Questioner: Excuse me?

Shri Mataji: I haven't yet touched Holland. Haven't been there. I went there once, a long time back, but we have to touch Holland [very soon]. There are lots of seekers, no doubt, but drinking too much.

Yeah. They drink too much, they told Me, like Scotland, see...

[Aside to a child:] Channa. All right, you eat channa.

... and we have to look after them, no doubt. There are lots of seekers misled there are. In Holland we have one great soul. There's a young boy of sixteen years, I think. Careen, his name is. They asked him about his father, mother, everything. He said, “My father is just like other fathers." I said, “Really? What does he do?" “In the daytime he drinks beer. In the night he drinks whisky." I said, “Really?" “All fathers do that, Mother." “And what about the children?" “Some of us, our friends, we meditate but most of them also are drinking beer." When he was twelve years he first came. I think twelve or eight years he came here, I think. Yes and he must be sixteen now, yes. Wonderful man. He is growing up there. I told him to gather more people who think like him. He might, he is a great person. His mother is French and father is this thing and divorced and another mother, all kinds of problems. No, would be better in Holland, no doubt, but you get your realisation, you settle down here and we must start a center in Holland and next year I am coming down there, all right? Holland is one place I have not been.

I didn't go to Austria. Now, we have a very powerful yogi there.

So I am going this year. A few countries I have not tackled. We should not go away from our country. We should work there. That's the place we have to work, whatever is the condition. Switzerland now are doing very well. Switzerland is doing so well. Those who were committing suicide are now coming to Sahaja Yoga and doing very well. I said, “The way you [UNCLEAR are/were] doing suicide, if you can do Sahaja Yoga even once it will be all right." Because they did a perfect job always with their suicided things, you know. They used to plan it out so well, the suicide, in such a way, I mean, that it would not create any problems for anyone and sort of thing, you see. They used to think about it all the time, how to commit suicide, you see and they, very great planning. But look at Switzerland. It's a challenge to all of you.

So it's a good idea. You get your Sahaja Yoga here, settle down, master it and go to Holland. You would be the one of the [UNCLEAR].

I gave once a Realisation to one Mister called August Tigger. He was the chairman of your, one of your very big companies. He was a very big man, no doubt, but he told Me that, “I cannot talk about to anyone. They will think I have gone crazy." And he died. He was a very old man when I met him. He was about eighty years of age when I first met him. And a very great seeker he was, very great seeker. Holland I'll definitely come, no doubt. And now we have reached Brussels also.

So in Brussels and Holland we can do it, isn't it? From Brussels it is easier to go to Amsterdam. Where will you be in Holland? Questioner: I have no place at all.

Shri Mataji: Huh.

Questioner: I have no place [where] to go for the moment.

Shri Mataji: But you will be placed in Holland? Questioner: Then I have to go back. I have to.

Shri Mataji: Yes, you should, you should. You see, I would request you, once you become a Sahaja Yogi, you should go there and we'll send some people to help you also. There is somebody very powerful in Brussels, very powerful in Brussels, who'll help you, very powerful. You remember that Rajneesh fellow who came? Oh, he's so powerful. You must see that. He's brought about ten people from Brussels to Lille.

Can you imagine? He's already started his own center. It can only work in the democratic countries, isn't it? And I think Holland is very important. And who is there is Doctor Nagen Singh himself, is there in Holland. He's in Hague.

Questioner: Is he?

Shri Mataji: He's in Hague. He's the Chairman of your World Court.

[Aside to the children:] Hindi. Look, what? What? Anand? Anand. This is Anand. Ananad. And this is? Sonu.

Sonu.

Sonu. Say Sonu. He's a real joker, I tell you. What makes you laugh so much and look here? All right now. Sit down, you sit down there. Sit down. All right. Be a nice girl, all right? Ha, now sit down. Yes, we have to raise their Kuṇḍalinī. Ha, come along, come along, come along, come along, come along now. How is she [UNCLEAR]?

Sahaja Yogi: [All right now.]

Shri Mataji: Better? She is better. How is the baby from Australia? Is he all right? Is he all right?

Sahaja Yogini: Much better.

Shri Mataji: Much better now. I am sorry that day you had gone away. I wanted to see the baby.

[Aside to the children:] What? Ha. Ha. Hop. Hop. Ha, up, up. Hop. Hop. Now, hop, hop. Come, come. Anna, come, come. These children. [Hindi.] Give her, give her channa. Good. Give her some, give her, give some channa. Give her some channa. All right. Go and give her some channa. All right? Take this one. You give her. I told you to give her. All right, let's have it, for that. See how cheerful they are, how cheerful. All right, now we are going to keep quiet. Sit down here, sit down. All of us are going to sit down. All right? Sit down. Come here. Come here. Sit down. All sit down. You sit down. Olympia. You sit down. All right? Sit down. All right. Be a nice girl. Now, it's all right. Let her be. She is not well.

She is still little. All right, she'll come. She's, she will come. She can't leave. She can't enjoy herself, see.

That's what it is; everybody must enjoy.

All right. Now close your eyes, please. Just close your eyes. Put both your feet on the ground. Now, take out your shoes. Shoes, shoes.

[Aside whispering to a child:] Sit down. Sit down. Quiet. We all sit down. Now we are closing eyes.

Just put your hands towards Me and close your eyes.

[Aside:] Can you push this out, please? [Aside whispering to a child:] Lie down. Now, sit down, sit down. Now we are meditating. All right? Just keep your eyes shut. [Hindi.] [Aside to a child:] Go and see the aeroplane, all right? All right? All right? Keep your eyes shut, please. Don't open them. Please don't open because when the Kuṇḍalinī is rising She's working it out away through your Āgñyā Chakra which is the place of Christ and at that point dilation of the pupil takes place; that's why. Be comfortable. Be comfortable and be cheerful. Don't think of the past. Forget it. At this moment you are not to think what mistakes you have committed, what wrongs you have done. It's all finished now. You have to, on the contrary, all the time say that, `Mother, I am not guilty.' At least say it thrice. Before you start any meditation you say, `Mother, I am not guilty.' It's very important. For anything you need not be guilty. God is the ocean of forgiveness, He's the ocean of compassion, He's the ocean of love and our little bit, so-called mistakes or anything has no meaning in relation to His greatness, to His vastness. It has no meaning at all. [Hindi.] Carrie. [Hindi.] [Aside to a child:] All right, you go and sit there. We don't have now time. All right? Go and sit there.

All right. I think all have got it. Can you feel that? I think they have opened their Sahasrāra. Slowly.

How are you? Good? Close your eyes. Please, close your eyes. Keep your eyes shut. Don't look at others.

All right? Look at yourself. Just keep your attention inside and not outside. It has to happen. If it does not happen one has to work for it, not you, but these people who have got realisation will work for you first and then once you get realisation you can work for others, because the ones who know how to swim can save people who do not know how to swim. And then those who are saved can learn swimming and save others. It's like that.

So nobody's higher or lower. There's no obligation, nothing like that. Ha.

Hmm, this one. [UNCLEAR].

Contents: 1982-06-14*, Public Program, You Are All Bound by One Thread (We All Are Expecting Something Great to Happen), Caxton Hall, London, UK

We all are expecting something great to happen and the happening that has to take place has been all ready described in all the scriptures. But somehow we are mislead by other people who have a better way of manifesting their own style and we get so confused because this is the time of great confusion.

Without the confusion evolution cannot take place. Unless and until people are confused they will never try to aspire for something higher. If you see in the animal stage also, there was a confusion for the fishes to come out. And that confusion made one or two to lead the rest of them and that's how they could crawl onto this Mother Earth with confidence.

So the areas started changing gradually. That from Mother Earth then they started looking towards the sky and evolution went on like this till the human beings were created. Now all these areas are within ourselves. These are all the elements into which we had to probe into. We had to find about them and through this evolution we have been able to look into these, to fathom them, to find out their nature through our intelligence.

So we reached this point where we could understand the elements, we could understand their use for our purpose.

So far so good but that's not the end. That's not the end of our evolution. If it was then there would have been no more search, there would have been no more seeking, people would have been happy, would have been satisfied but that's not so.

So there has to be something more that we have to achieve.

At this time of great confusion we have certain lamp posts we can say or beacons to guide us and these beacons are all the scriptures. Now these scriptures are also so much being misused and misrepresented and explained in such a funny way and everything made into a money making proposition, that it adds to the confusion more.

So you get much more confused and confused and confused. Imagine the light that has to show your path becomes an illusion, how are you to find your path then. But this is the past time of human beings, you can't help it. You give them everything and they can convert it into a confusion.

You can see the results of these in our politicians, in our economists, our psychologists, all of them seem to be quite confused and they don't know what the other person is saying, what they are saying, they cannot relate it to something absolute.

So we have to find out that absolute point where this confusion drops out.

At this level only you can find it out, at this level only it can be given, at this level only that will manifest.

Before this at any other stage it is impossible. It was impossible and it is impossible.

So at human stage only it is going to manifest but human beings also must know that they have some drawbacks compared to other stages.

At the animal stage or say even earlier stages you can say, at the element stage, elements don't have to think. They don't have any choice, they don't have to bother about anything, they just exist. They're not aware of anything; they're just existing with whatever are their qualities. Say hydrogen is hydrogen, oxygen is oxygen. They're bound by different valences and different qualities and their chemical compounds and their physical powers by which they act, react and exist. Then when the life started itself at that time also, life was guided very much by nature. The evolution was very much controlled by nature. I'll give you an example of that. A gentleman who has written a very nice book, I would not give you the name because you will immediately by that book and start reading the whole. But he was experimenting with some oysters and he had them first in Los Angeles where the sea was. And he found out that when the tied was low these shells used to open themselves up, the oysters and when it was high tied they would close down because the water should not run into them. And you know that the tied time is bound everywhere, anybody can calculate it sitting down here what is the tide in Falkland.

So he removed those shells from there, brought them to Ohio which is very far away and there is no sea and he put them down there and they were opening at the same time. Now see the time changes according to the moon, so the water was acting according to the moon and these oysters were also acting according to the moon. But when the time changed, they came to Ohio, still they had that habit and they were opening. But suddenly they changed and they took to the timing which would happen if the sea was there in Ohio.

So they were so much bound still by nature.

Nature controls that, up to a great point, nature even controlled human beings. But in the animal stage one has to know that to find out the difference between an animal and a vegetable, what happened was, first the cellular wall was doubled.

So element was first put into a cell to make a vegetable and the vegetable was given a double wall to make it a human being, I mean animal. Now animal that has become a human being has a triple wall, that's why is the confusion. That we call as human freedom, that we are free to do what we like, “What's wrong?" I mean if somebody wants to commit suicide, “What's wrong?" Somebody wants to kill his father, “What's wrong?" I mean laws according to many people is all artificial, man made, is correct.

So what's wrong? So we were bound thrice, the third binding came when as human beings we started acting, creating our ego as a by product of that action physical and mental, we developed ourselves into an egg. We became just like eggs and this egg had three shells.

First one of the human shell, second of the animal and third that of the vegetable and inside that were all the elements. That's how we are made. But for what, why? Why this freedom was given to us? To get us confused because we had to go to a higher evolutionary state. And that higher evolutionary state has to give us complete freedom from all these three bondages. The vegetable bondage which makes you stick to one place, the animal bondage where you cannot think and the human bondage where you think. Man can't live without thinking, it's a bondage, you can't get out of it. Like horns it grows into your head, you can't stop it you know. Even if you cut your throat you cannot stop it some people say. It's surprising.

It's so bad; it's such a bondage in us. All the time we think, think, think. This is the third bondage of human beings. But what happens with this, when this bondage is broken? Light comes in, through the light and this light gives you enlightenment in all the three prisons into which you are imprisoned and you get a complete integration into all these different bondages within you and you start seeing the absolute truth that all this is bound by one thread. All these elements, all these vegetables, animals, human beings are bound by one thread. And when you start seeing that thread as a witness you start seeing the play of all these elements, of all these bondages, beautifully.

But there's a very great difference between the other evolution and the evolution of man at this stage.

Is a very great difference I think, which very few people realise that before the evolution up to human stage, you are not aware of it and you can't do anything about it at all. Supposing a seed evolves into a better fruit, it doesn't have to do anything about it, somebody else has to do. If you sprout a seed then you have to look after it throughout. Sprout the seeds then take the seedlings, put them right somewhere then let them grow into a tree, then you have to prune the tree. Whatever you have to do, you have to do all the time, you have to look after the tree. But after this evolution, this jumping, this happening, when you become the Self, you have to do something about it. You have to because you become the master of your being. It is you who has to work it out. In Sahaja Yoga there are many people who get realisation, it's very easy. The confusion is so great that people want to come out of it. They get it but again they are drawn back into it because that time which is so important, the intermediary time where you have to stick on to that area, to that new dimension of collective consciousness, your will power doesn't act and that is the time you require this will power. Already you are exhausted.

So many are exhausted because of seeking, because of worrying, because of thinking, wrong seeking, Guru's, this that, all kinds of exhaustions are there. Family life, married life, every sort of problem that you have faced, you have already exhausted your will power and when even you get realised, you have the cup but you have no strength to lift within yourself, to raise it to your mouth and to enjoy the nectar of your Realisation. More so in places that are supposed to be developed. In developing that part of your systems you have exhausted yourself much more. I mean it was all right up to a point but when human beings know something, they'll go to the extreme end of everything.

Now if you know electricity then everything must work on electricity, your lift will work on electricity, this will work on electricity, now computer have come all right. Now they will make human beings into electrical electrodes, I don't know what they're going to make out of that. Who's going to that extent.

Then electricity fails, finished. Now petrol started, petrol, use petrol as much as you like, all right. Now petrol is getting exhausted.

So there's a shock, future shock condition in a trauma [UNCLEAR you see].

In that confused state you are in a shocked state, “Oh God what's going to happen to us?" But why play into the hands of these things to that extent. The countries which are not so developed see, you can say countries which are a little underdeveloped and developed you see where a motor car runs and a bullock cart also runs. If the motor car fails they can use the oxes to run the motor cars, we call it `oxford'.

So one can rely on something else, there is an alternative already available. But when you cut out all the alternatives then how can you find out an alternative. For example, now we've got calculators. I was amazed in the shop they can't count one, two, three, four, five. If they make mistake in somewhere, if you tell them that there's a mistake because you know how to calculate, they say, “How can it be? The machine is not wrong." “But your fingers were wrong somewhere." They have no alternative left now, I mean they have to depend on the electricity; they have to depend on petrol. You have to depend on all these elements.

So if you find with little detachment you are already slaves of all these elements instead of becoming free birds, we have become now slaves of this.

So we start finding out alternatives. Now what can alternative we can have? We have lost all deftness to do any hand work. After some time I think people won't be able to clean their dishes, they will need a machine. As it is they can't clean their cloths I think, they can't comb their hair. What's going to happen? You will need even a machine to feed you.

Going to that extent. When we go up to such a limit that we become absolute slaves, the confusion is worse. But after Realisation the whole thing changes, all the priorities change, you become a different person. It's a tremendous change that comes within you but to appreciate it, to understand it and to use it, you have to stabilize yourself because you're still shaking and it's very easy to go back to the life which you have lead so far.

We have had people coming from all works of life. We had people bureaucrats, we had people who were hippies, we had people, I mean they must belong to some club you know. Are you a communist or a socialist? Like when I came here, they asked Me, “What is your politics?" I looked at them, I said, “Which one?" They said, “I mean what politics we have, what is yours?" I said, “I don't know." Quite confused you see. I was quite confused because I had no politics at all. There's only one politic for Me, that is the politics of Divine, of God, where He plays His tricks on all human beings. I see that every day. They don't know but He's playing tricks on everyone, on nations, on human beings on all organizations. He's playing tricks all the time to make you learn so many things but you don't want to learn. That's the only politics.

These politics are nothing but children's play, they are of no use. Just you want to play with cards and you sit down and play, that's all to Me. Otherwise there's no politics for Me. What is economics of God? That's the only economics that creates. No other economics creates for Me. His economics is that matter doesn't give you joy. He gives you something that gives you joy, that gives you compassion, love, security, health, innocence. Above all it gives you the power to love others, tremendous powers. We have never used the power of love, never. Always we have used the power of hatred. All our politics and economics is based on hatred. We create goods to sell by seeing what weaknesses people have, like England or America and all these Western countries. In India the crooks found out that there are many seekers in these countries.

All right export all the crooks, they all came out of the jail and are here back. They've got Rolls-Royces, they have got big, big huge houses, they've got huge big aero planes. And you can't see that.

This is the economics of human beings but God's economics is such that if you have any want, it looks after you. But it gives you a desire for the right type of wants because the whole system changes, the whole value system changes. A person who is a realised Soul would like to have vibrations flowing all the time.

Today I had taken My grandchildren to a shop to buy them a sweater. It's very difficult because they're realised Souls all of them.

So I gave them a very beautiful one. I said, “How do you like it?" “It's very uncomfortable. It was acrylic which you can't have." I said, “But it's quite nice and cheap." So she refused to have it. Then it was semi-acrylic, refused to have it. Then I gave her wool. I said, “But this wool will be only one when you can have ten like these if you buy acrylic." She said, “Better to have one which you can wear than to have ten which you cannot wear." The whole value system changes, to have too many things becomes useless. Have one which is comfortable to your being.

Somehow they have reached even rationally through your science and to such points that Sahaja Yoga just fits into it. I sometimes think all these things have created the beautiful ring for the diamond of Sahaja Yoga to just fit into. For example people are now realizing that there is no sense in creating plastic. But say about thirty years back people would have been proud to have a sofa set made out of plastic. We had a ship from Norway I remember about thirty years back and they were going round to show us how they had made plastic railings for the staircases you see, beautiful plastic railings you see. And we were all very much enamoured in India you see, how they had made. While we can make very beautiful carvings but we thought this was wonderful, looks so nice, washable, you can wash it, no polishing needed, no painting needed, wonderful thing you know, just go ahead with it. But now the same Norwegians are asking Indians to create some things for them out of wood.

So the whole value system changes as soon as you start feeling your Self, your being. Because your being is absolute, it is truth and its complete beauty manifests when you start with your will power accepting the new challenge that is given to you. And that is the time where this built-in ego of ages stands out: “Why, why to do like this?" So many things in the society that we have whether in India or here or anywhere in the whole world, are so shocking that only after Realisation you realise that you have been going on with it all these lives and your parents have been and their parents have been. It's absolutely shocking things.

But for that you have to first get your Realisation. That part is not so difficult as I told you because the time has come for many to get realisation. But how many will enjoy it we cannot say, because Mr. Ego is the worst enemy of human beings. First of all they cannot take it from anyone else but themselves. This is the big problem. Why I say even, “Dig that way" but it cannot be done. Now supposing somebody has to do it, it's not a very easy thing you know, it's a very difficult thing to do such a thing and it's horribly embarrassing. You have to do something which people think they can do themselves. You can imagine how embarrassing it is. Only a mother can take such a situation that she knows her children are like that, doesn't matter. But any other person would say, “Go to hell what do I care. Why should I take the responsibility of anybody and why should I say all these things to them if they are so egoistical, let them go to hell." This is what is really the situation.

But supposing somebody is nothing but compassion and love. Supposing I mean, the supposition for many people they can't believe it. Supposing someone is, then someone has to do it. And if someone has to do it why be so angry about it? This I fail to understand. Like in Spain one gentleman got realisation and he couldn't believe that it has happened. And he came to Me and argued with Me in a very funny manner. He said, “But why is it you had to do that?" I said, “You do it." That he can't do. I said, “All right now if you're angry for that” because it has happened in My presence, he was angry with Me. He was thinking, “Why shouldn't he do it." I said, “All right now you can do it but before this you could not." So he was very angry for that also. He said, “Why should God make one person do it?" I said, really horrible I tell you, “If He had given one hundred people to do it, it would be much better. I would have taken some rest Myself because I am already sixty years of age and when am I going to retire? But it's not so, what can I do?" Then he was still angry with Me. He said, “But must be something why You are doing it." I said, “Yes there is." “What is it?" I said, “Love." He couldn't understand that, he couldn't understand that.

So he went on with very great anger. Still he said, “But must be something." Then foolishly one of the Sahaja Yogis you see, brought My shoes down to put in My feet, which I never asked them, I never asked them, I've never ask them, I would not like it. But they like it because there are vibrations in My shoes. It's out of their self interest that they're doing it. And he said, “This is the reason why You are doing all this." I said, “Really? Very wise." And at that point he left Sahaja Yoga.

So there are such wise people in this world. I am talking of something very great and the wisdom of people is so limited, the quality of wisdom is poor. They're intelligent, well educated but quality of wisdom is very poor. But in a village you go, you always find villagers more wise than the city people I tell you. The reason is they live with the Mother Earth, they take all their innocence. Without innocence you cannot have wisdom. Innocence is the basis of wisdom. Normally people who are living in the city have to deal with such crooks that part of the wisdom is lost. And that's why the quality of wisdom I find, is lacking. If that is there, Sahaja Yoga works out. It gives you what is your own and you enjoy what is your own. Now take a simple question, a simple thing. You have got say for example your property, say your ornaments, kept with someone and somebody knows the keys and the ornaments. Say your forefathers have given the key to a third person and the person comes and says that, “I've got the keys with me, you take it and use your own money." Will you get angry with that person for that? For nothing at all, for giving nothing, will you get angry? But immediately they become like a bull. “Now we'll not have it." But why? “Please have and peruse it, please have it, enjoy it, it is your own, you have been desiring it, you have been wanting it, please have it." They'll say, “Why should we have it, who are you to give us the key?" I mean, “But I have it. What am I to do?" I'm imploring, “Please just have it." But they're adamant just like bulls you know. Bulls are easy, easier people I tell you, bulls are much easier. If there is a bull like that in India what we do, we take some red chilies and put to the nose and it will get up.

But what should we do with human beings? They're stuck up people and this really amazes Me. Aren't you seeking, aren't you seeking? What more do you want Me to say? It is impossible I mean I discuss with them I say, “What should we do with these people?" They come, get realisation, disappear just like that.

After ten months they'll appear, “Mother I've developed this trouble, that trouble." But why not, it's all free to you. We had in India a great advantage I should say because we know what to expect first of all.

If everyone knows, whether you go to a villager or to an educated man everyone knows what to expect, everyone. Secondly they know how to make out a real person. I mean not the westernized, the westernized I don't know but otherwise. Then also we have a great advantage of certain prophets, is made in our country so people know when it is going to happen, how to pin down the thing. Now you too had prophets is made, like a person like William Blake. But who understand William Blake here, no one. Because he's on a different plane and when he speaks no one understands him.

So it is all been prophesized that you are going to get it, this is going to happen. There's a book written thousands of year back that this is going to happen in 1970, that people are going to get transformation, that they are going to get into a system, a new system will be developed by which they will get their Realisation. There will not be any need to go to hospitals any more after that. Even the word is there that they will not go to any [UNCLEAR riguṇalhi] means a hospital.

So clearly it is given thousand of years back and people are looking forward for that. But the tragedy is most of the seekers are born in the west. It's like one has the teeth so he cannot get food and the one who has got food, has no teeth.

And that is why Sahaja Yoga takes time to develop. It will always because it's such a process, living process and this is the living process of the living God which you must ask for. You must not any more look at things which are done artificially like a baptism, like in Indian communities we will have a ceremony actually called as a [UNCLEAR ghopavita] where they say that, “Now you're a twice born." At the age of eight years it is done actually, even Muslims do that. And everybody gets a kind of a thread in India to celebrate that now you become a Brahmin, you know the Brahma, you are a realised. I mean certified, they move about like that, they think that they're realised Souls you know. And in America there are many who certify themselves as twice born. Certify, self certificate see, I'm surprised you see. In this country I'm told that people give self certificate that they're totally mad, I didn't know. But really I met some people who came to My program and I said, “Why are you shaking so much?" He said, “We are certified mad people." I said, “What?" “Yes, we are coming from lunatic asylum." But these type of self certificate that people have, they go about. How to tell them? It's impossible you know. I mean I can understand a drunkard but I can't understand a person in all sanity becoming so drunk with stupidity.

It's impossible to understand. And this is one of the drawbacks I feel in Me that I don't know how to convince people that, “Please have it now, this is yours, go ahead with it, you are hungry, this is food for you, better have it." And then after Realisation as I said that, “You are the one who can do it." All progress later on is completely done by the complete Vidyā, the complete technique, the Divine technique, how to operate the Divine technique is all told to you and you have to just see and work it out. If you want you can work it out, anyone. I have seen people who came to Me absolutely possessed, absolutely possessed, today they are great Sahaja Yogis. People came mentally absolutely you can call them half mad or some of them full mad, certified mad and they are today great Sahaja Yogis giving realisation, could be, to people, yes, yes. Yes people who were drunkards, alcoholics, drug addicts, all sorts of people came, they all have got realisation and they're settled down and are very good Sahaja Yogis. But how can you treat a person who is stupid? Ego makes you stupid I tell you, ego, the result of ego is stupidity you know. People do so many stupid things these days that even little children laugh like this you see, when they see people doing. But to them it is nothing. They think, “Oh we are very great." This ego business is really very blinding. But one doesn't have to worry about it because Christ himself has made arrangements that He sucks in your ego. He does that. Surprisingly the one who came just to do that, I don't know what a mess they've created out of Him, that those who follow have much more of it. I mean you see anybody in charge of the church he won't talk to you; I mean he's a snooty fellow you know. You don't know which way to approach. He walks with five, I feel, five revolvers around him. You say anything, he may hit you or do whatever, I mean you don't know. It is easier to face a mad man than to face a priest you know sometimes, difficult. God knows how he will attack you.

Today I had a little encounter, I was rather worried. But this is what it is you see that Christ a person so Divine, I mean there's nothing left in Him as a person excepting Divinity. He came on this earth and nicely people have cooked him, I really tell you. I mean I don't know how they could make anything out of Him this kind of nonsense. That this St Paul of all the persons was included in the Bible I was amazed. You see when I saw the Bible I said, “From where does he come?" And now they've started this charismatic movement, I'll go and have a look at them. They're epileptic, horrible things they're doing in the name of Christ. Can you imagine? He drove out the spirits from people and here the people are calling spirits. It's such a mess I tell you. You all have to help Me because you are all wise people and sensible ones. And we have to see now how many remain in Sahaja Yoga. That's the sign of wisdom according to Me. Maybe your style may be different I don't know, but My style I understand that if you have pure intelligence, pure intelligence which many have, you suddenly know what it is. As I've seen in Spain one fellow he was a lawyer, he listened to one of My lectures and sparkled, just sparkled. I don't know what made him think that way, I don't know which point he caught up but he said, “That's the truth, I can see it clearly this is the truth." There are many like that. They may not even get Realisation but rationally they just reach the point, “Yes this is the truth, cannot be anything else but the truth." You need not be very well educated for that or need not go to any one of these universities. You could be a very simple housewife to understand. But a person who has common sense which is based on wisdom should know that you have to become your spirit. All other nonsensical ideas like painting your hair, you're not going to go to God take it from Me.

By painting your hair if you can go to God then it is the easiest. Or by putting nails into your noses or by standing on your head, or by jumping morning till evening or calling God morning till evening, how can you go to God.

Something has to happen within. It's evolutionary, it has to be something living, it's a living God we are talking about. Whatever we do before realisation is all dead and dead way is not going to take you to God. Only after Realisation because you become the master of life, life starts flowing through you, you can give Realisation to others. For the first time you start doing really something that is living. You can give vibrations to the flowers, you can give vibrations to the trees, you can give vibrations to the nature, whatever you touch you vibrate. But first you must become a realised Soul and then you respect that realisation. It's a tremendous thing but it happens very quickly, very easily and that's how you get lost. If somebody is made to work for something, it's a very great difficulty, then perhaps people realise that, “Oh we must have it." But if the forefathers have earned quite a lot, they want to distribute to their children freely, everything. Why to worry? But we must have wisdom to use that with respect. It has been earned with very great difficulty. For example the crucifixion of Christ, without His crucifixion we could not have had Sahaja Yoga today, could not have. Unless and until He's awakened within us, we cannot give realisation to people whether we like it or not.

So these people have dedicated themselves completely, they have built everything within you and that's how you get it so easily but you must have respect, you must have understanding, otherwise all their efforts are lost and also your seeking is lost.

May God bless you.

I can allow you to ask Me a few questions but these Caxton Hall people are rather angry because we have been always going very late.

So I promised that I'll leave this hall by nine fifteen. Please ask Me questions in an English which I understand because I am an old fashion English knowing woman and I know this modern style I don't understand, so please. Gavin says I use 150 year old English sometimes.

Yes please? Seeker [talking to Shri Mataji]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: What's this? What's wrong? Seeker [continues speaking to Shri Mataji]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Why do you want to do without the picture? Seeker [continues to speak]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: You can't do it, I'm sorry. Really you can't do it in the beginning, just can't do it. It's made like that. The whole situation is I'm a must. I must tell you frankly all right, I've not told this to anyone but today I must confess to you something. As I've told you that your forefathers have worked it out all right. Now in this all working you never recognize them, never before. You always refused them, leave alone photograph, even bodily you never recognized. You crucified them, you gave them poisons, you beat them, did everything. But in this working you have to recognize Me, I'm sorry. This is the first time I'm saying this because it was not wise to say but now it's ninth year I'm running in this England. I kept My mouth shut, right? Of course you can't crucify Me I think, but that's a fact, you have to recognize Me otherwise things are not going to work out. People want to get their cancers cured free, they want to get their realisation free, everything done free by Me. But My photograph or anything to do with Me they don't want to do it.

So it's not possible. You have to recognize and Christ has said already about it, very clearly because I'm something special, I must, I'm really a special person but I don't want to say that because it's rather embarrassing, but it is so. Without that do you think I can give en mass Realisation to people? There must be something about Me or not. If I'm doing it, that's it.

So it is better that you recognize Me, it's better for you. I'm not going to take away anything from you, nothing whatsoever.

What are you going to give Me? Just think of it. I am here to give you something but you must recognize that I am a giver, just recognize. I'm sorry to say but it is so. You will gradually recognize when you'll have vibrations. When I say that the vibrations, see how much it flows. When I boast you know the vibrations flow more, automatically. But I'm very cautious, Christ said, “I am the light, I am the path” all right they killed Him. What did He say, what did He say so much? What did He say that people killed Him and crucified Him. And even till today these Jews are not willing to accept Christ. They want to have suffering, so have it. You will have, not Christ but you will have Hitler. You have to recognize, this is a compulsion on you. I'm sorry that's what it is. You have to recognize the Divine, you have to recognize. It's not easy to give realisation to anyone. If you had seen in Spain I cured a lady who's brain was damaged and they had removed a part of the brain and in ten minutes that lady was cured and she started understanding everything and she started moving her hand and everything. But for people you know they don't understand. How it happened? It's easy for people to understand who know what to expect. All the kinds of people have photographs, all these Gurus have. What have they done for you? What have they done? They have just taken your money. This photograph has vibrations. The first time a photograph has been taken truly authentically, thanks to your science. You don't have any authentic photograph of Christ. I haven't seen any good picture except for I would say a few like Michelangelo or someone like that. Very few, Rubens, Michelangelo, otherwise the way they make Him He was never like that, never, never like that. No vibrations on them.

So I have to tell you there is something about Me.

I'm sorry but it is rather dangerous to say in this great country of yours, you see. There people don't take things easily but you better take it now. Late, already eight years I've worked in this great country of yours because this is an important country. You do not know the value of this country; you do not know what role it is going to play for the whole humanity of the world. That's why I've come here. I've not come as an immigrant at all. My husband got a posting here, he was elected by one hundred and thirty five nations and that's why I am here. It's all organized. And that's how I'm at your service here but you have to recognize My services. I have no union for that but you have to understand. If you do not recognize My services nothing is going to work out. I'm sorry but that's how I'm made.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Because you are conditioned, you are a Jew, you are conditioned.

So you have to get out of this condition. You see you'll be surprised you can make out a Jew just like that. When the Kuṇḍalinī rises it stops at the point of Christ you see. This is the biggest problem of the Jews, where are they going to go? You have to save them.

Seeker speaking: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: This is all your conditioning My Child. How can we understand Him you tell Me, how can you understand, you cannot understand Him. Jews didn't want to. You see this is the common practice of human beings, they don't want to recognize, that's the main thing. Afterwards of course, even the Christians so-called who have built big, big churches, never recognized Him at that time, how many were there. His disciples' useless people, you ask Me, I'll tell you about them, absolutely useless. They wouldn't believe in Him until He got His resurrection then they started saying, “Oh God, Oh God." Otherwise this Mathews, he was a terrible man and he wouldn't recognize that there could be this conception and...

They can't understand Divine. What have Jews achieved? You tell Me. You just see the way they pray, everything nonsensical just like Christians, just like Hindus, Muslims, everyone just the same. What are Islam's doing? What a sensible thing they are doing? It's a different world I tell you. Really I'm... you'll understand yourself when you will come to that level and see for yourself. We have many Jews now here sitting down, many Jews who know while raising the Kuṇḍalinī you have to take the name of Christ and if it is in the stomach you have to take the name of Mosses. You don't know where Mosses is settled down and where is that David star is. Do you know that in your being? So what's the use of all this talking isn't it, when you don't know where Christ is, where Mosses is, where the star is? You don't know anything, anything at all and what are you fighting about? But we can show you in the Kuṇḍalinī but be wise and humble. Without humility you cannot go in Sahaja Yoga because it's Divine. All right? It's nothing like clubbing or conditioning. It is something that you really feel, “Your hands will speak” Christ has said, you can see, even a child can see, your Self.

All right? So do not live with any conditioning because you are born a Jew. Supposing you are born a Muslim, take if from Me, you would have hated yourself isn't it. Surprising I mean you could have been born in a Muslim before, I've seen many like that. The great hatred people are born in the other religion and they must have hated one thing in one life and in another life, they're hating another. It is all hatred.

This in not Judaism, this is not Mosses, this is not that. It's very different, it's very different.

Sahaja Yoga will teach you that they are all brothers and sisters and fathers and mothers and sons and we are just fighting against that family which is Divine. You see what these religions have done that they have put you up conditionings and into ego trips and these ego trips are funny you see. Every religion has done this. That's why this problem. And these are not a solution. If you are a true Christian, then save all of them. If you are a true Jew, save all of them. If you are a true Muslim, save all of them. That's what it is. And it will happen to you. We have an Algerian who is a Muslim, he came down here, see they were all supporting fundamentalists and the young people got frightened you know. They thought they should become communists. And this boy came down in London. When he came here he just, I don't know how he found it somewhere, he came down to see Me. He got his realisation, went back said, “No, neither this nor that. God is in the center." And he gave realisation to so many Muslims and they come down here and they worship Christ they worship Mohammed, they worship all the other people and they know what it is. And even when I went to Paris, so many came down to see Me from Algeria. We are entering into Algeria, into Lebanon, into Muslim countries. What about you people? How long are you going with Christians, Jews and Hindus, this, that? We are human beings and we are prophets now. We have to become prophets and these prophets will have powers to make others prophets as prophesized by a great poet in your country William Blake. That time has come. To better become prophets. All right? Seeker speaking: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: All right. Forget it, forget it. You'll be all right.

Seeker speaking: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But your belief is artificial. It has no meaning. If any way you believe in ten Gods, what difference does it means? In what I'm saying, I believe I suppose, I believe, here it's very common, I believe. Hi Baba. You believe someone. Whom are you obliging? If you believe what is the truth behind it? Show us where is God. You [UNCLEAR] believing in one God I say the...

Seeker speaking: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: But you may believe... No, No, you believe... No, no, but I'm not... I'm telling you, “Believe in the truth." All right? So keep your mind open. If you say, “I believe” then you are closing your mind. I'm saying you believe in the truth all right? So keep yourself open. You believe into something because you are conditioned into that's what I'm saying. If you believe into anything, you are conditioning yourself. Whatever you are believed into, is not the truth, it's [UNCLEAR so short] simple thing all right? Now think you are a believer of truth all right? Believe in truth. Now you find out the truth, I see if it is truth or not. It's as simple as that. It's nothing more or less. You should be the believer of truth. Not because you are born as Jew, you should become a Jew and not deny Christ. Only because you are born in a Jew family, you are denying Christ. While those born in the Christian family will deny Mohammed. But we do not, because that's not the truth all right? So you see for yourself, find out for yourself? A scientist, you must keep your mind open. I want you to expose to the science spot. All right? So if you believe into something, then you will be sticking on to that. If this believe is artificial, it has no proof behind it. But we can prove it that all of them are related to each other. You see they have made segments, that's how they have made different religions. If they could put them together, then they don't believe in one religion, do they?

Contents: 1982-06-22*, Public Program, Reading, UK

It was very nice to come to Reading again and to meet very nice people like your Mayor and another nice person who was interviewing Me at the radio station. I am discovering new talents in this place which is really historically very important.

But in the history of spirituality, England as a whole has to play a very very important role, which perhaps English people don't realise. William Blake has said that. That England has to become Jerusalem.

It has to become a Holy land and you all have to become holy people. He is not a liar, he would not tell you a lie. People can say that he was a visionary and he visualised things beyond his foresight. That is not a fact, because about Sahaja Yoga he has written very vividly, clearly, as to where are we staying since My arrival in England, where our ashram is going to be. It is so beautifully done that I feel this land has something special about it to produce or to create such great poets, such great seers. India of course is a country of Yoga, no doubt, but there also we had a great poet, about the same time as Blake, maybe a little earlier, Gñyāneśhwara, he did write about Kuṇḍalinī, he also described the times of Sahaja Yoga by saying that at that time, the people who are in darkness, the people who are blind, will see light. He's also gone further to say that those people who will receive light, will be able to enlighten other people. But William Blake has very clearly said that men of God will become prophets and these prophets will have powers to make others prophets. And this is the test that you should put to everyday, have I become a prophet? I mean, it's alright there are many people who are around, who are selling their things, I don't know what they are doing to attract more people. Like the mayor asked Me that as your work is so fantastic, you must have been receiving thousands of people. I said, No I don't, sometimes I receive five or sometimes 10, he was amazed he said how can that be and that is true, I receive very few people to come to My program and if they come and stick on for a while, they get their realisation alright but there are very few who come. He was quite amazed. He said, Really but I am surprised, you don't charge any money, there is no membership, I mean it really shows that it is something Divine. And still how is it few people come to you. I said, I will ask the same question to you, because I don't understand human beings. You better answer to Me that why so few people come and take advantage of this Sahaja Yoga which gives you the power that is lying within you, which gives you what you have already existing within you, which is your own, it is your own property. Still they don't come even if you tell them freely you are going to be given all your bank balances, please come, please come, but they don't come.

So I said, Instead of asking Me this question, for the first time, let Me ask you this question I can't understand.

But in Indian villages, it is a different thing, where the people come in thousands. One of the reasons may be that the people do not know much about Kuṇḍalinī, they are naive about that and they do not know what it means by the word `Self-realisation'. What it means, what is the Self and what should it happen to us, perhaps that may be the reason one of a sort of ignorance about it but despite all that, this word Self-realisation has been used since long by many marketeers and nobody has been able to give it.

Now if somebody says, yes it can happen to you, just that happens, I think there should be real interest, but still I cannot explain why, why is it that few people come and those who come, also, do not stick on.

They have no patience. “But with other Gurus?" he asked Me. I said “no, there are many no, thousands and thousands” there is one fellow, who the British people have given 58 Rolls-Royces and then they gave him a 59th one because he would not come without getting a Rolls-Royce from them.

So they starved themselves for one year and gave him the 59th Rolls-Royce. And how many people must have done it? Fifty thousands people collected that money to give it to this fellow to come down here, already now that he has 59, I think he must be waiting for the 60th. Then I wouldn't be surprised that they will be again collecting money for him.

One must understand that you cannot pay for God. You cannot buy God by giving him Rolls-Royces, he doesn't understand Rolls-Royces, he doesn't understand money, he doesn't understand bank. He doesn't know the mint, he doesn't know that you are having a new system, of this paper money. He is not aware of all these things. But some of you are so much used to these mundane things and regular things that we personally all of us feel that if it is going to be God, he has to be just like us, there should be an organization, there should be a chairman, there should be a vice-chairman, there has to be a secretary and all these organizations must be there and there only if he go, then it is alright, we are safe, we are secure, because we are used to it. But God's laws and God's domain is very different from what we understand.

We have never felt his love, we have been always working, all organized things because we were unsecure[d] about something. Every institution is for some kind of an insecurity. Because we are insecure, we think something is going to fall upon us, something horrible is going to happen, that is how we form a thing.

Otherwise our children may be spoilt or our old people may die, or something may happen, we form an organization. This is not believing in God.

Secondly we form also organizations because we hate, but we have never seen the power of Love which is the most beautiful, blissful and smoothly working. Like a flower becoming a fruit, have you ever seen a flower becoming a fruit, nobody has seen. It's how slowly it becomes, have you ever seen a bud opening into a flower, you have to put a slow motion camera to catch that slow movement. All that is done by this great power of God, this Divine Power which is called as Brahma in Sanskrit language. And to know that Brahma is the idea behind Self-realisation. It is all-pervading, it is working everywhere, but we cannot feel it and we have to feel that. And how to feel it? How to know that? The only way is to get yourself connected with your Self which connects you to that All-pervading Power and it starts flowing through you, if you learn the ways and methods you can manoeuvre it, you can use it and you can give it to others also. It is a very simple thing like putting a connection. Like you come in the room, if you have to put on the lights, you just have to switch on, it is like that, it is very simple, but when you switch on the light, you must know that there is a very huge organization behind this little switch. In the same way, behind all this there is a very great organization of God Almighty. Which we have not known, we have just heard about God, there is God, let us pray to God, all that. Where is he, what is he and what are we, we have never known that.

So first time you get connected with his power.

Now about Spirit, I mean in English language, Spirit is used for so many things, they will use it for a dead body, it is a spirit, they will use it for also spirits, alcohols, spirit for Ātmā, but where I am talking now it is about the Ātmā, the Spirit, which is the reflection of God Almighty within us which is the witness.

Which watches every moment, every action of ours. And it stays there until it enjoys. To understand this Spirit, we have to know its nature, what is the nature of the Spirit is and then when we get enlightenment, what happens to us.

Now here you have seen three powers, as they have shown you, the first power is on the right hand side, is the power of action, I mean the first one is the power of desire which is on the left hand side, the second one is the power of action and in the center is the power of what we call the sustenance which gives you our evolution.

So we have three powers. All these three powers act within us. For example the first power of desire. The first power of desire within us acts in such a manner that we start desiring for things.

Actually the whole universe is created, out of the universe, this beautiful thing like human being is created.

And this power that has created this special thing called human being is the residual power that resides in the triangular bone, for the ultimate desire to be one with the Divine. But it has not yet manifested, so that is why it is called as a residual power. It has not yet manifested because we have not yet become one with the Divine.

So that power is still sleeping within us, that is why they call it the sleeping Kuṇḍalinī.

But that desire is within us and that drives us to all kinds of seeking, we make mistakes, we do all kinds of wrong choices, does not matter. Everything can be forgiven but she resides in the triangular bone waiting for a chance when she could be awakened by somebody who has the authority to awaken. As he told you just now that it is an actualisation, you cannot just go to a church and somebody puts his hand on your head and he says alright I have baptized you. This is only just a false certificate, you know that, it is a false certificate. But when this power is manifested, that when you become one with the Divine, when Yoga, the union takes place, then only we can say that Kuṇḍalinī has manifested itself. Means your desire to be one with the Divine has been manifested.

So now there are four powers I have told you about, one is the power of desire, with which we desire other things. Like we may desire to have a chair.

So what we do if there is some steel which is dead we make another dead stuff like called a chair, which is of steel, another dead. We sit on it, we start become habituated with this, means a part of us is dead because we can't sit without a chair. The chair sits on our head, people carry chairs with them, because they just can't sit without the chairs. Like that the matter starts fighting your Spirit and starts giving you habits. Then another thing of matter is that it never gives you joy. For example, you want to have a table, alright, then you want to have a chair, then you want to have a car, then you want to have a helicopter and never [UNCLEAR happen].

So wants in general are never satiable; is a principle of economics. Why? Because matter cannot give you satisfaction.

That's why. It just plays with you. You like one thing, you jump to it, you like another thing, you jump to another one. Now this matter within us is created by the right side, that is the power that comes to us from five elements. And these five elements, when they are not enlightened, do not give joy. They are within us, we use them, we think by, supposing somebody thinks that if I go to race and if I win a big amount of money I'll be happy. But you go and see the person after six months, you'll find that he is the most unhappy person ever known because money is a headache, house is a headache, anything that you own is a headache, it is better that other should own it and you should enjoy. That is a better way of looking at things. But we think that possession is something that we can really enjoy, which is not true, because we are not going to take anything with us.

Now when these five elements act upon us, what happens to us? what do we develop? We develop in the subtle way the attention. Say there is something, a matter here. My attention can be drawn to it. If there is something material, my attention can be drawn to it. But supposing something is in the ether, I cannot see, something that is not material I cannot see it, so the attention cannot be drawn. That is how our attention is created by these five elements, within ourselves. Now this attention that we have naturally because it is created by the material things, in the sense that it is created by the causal, causal of these elements, our attention goes to material things, naturally. Because it is created by that, isn't it? Our attention is outside, if I say, put your attention inside, how can you? I mean there is no way of putting it inside. It is an impossible situation. Because anything that happens outside, our attention goes there, something material, something substantial we see and then our attention goes to that.

But how can you put your attention inside, because we are lost, we do not know where to go, how to find it, how to put our attention inside.

So this attention is within us. And when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, then the attention is drawn in, because of the happening. That's why a happening is necessary. Supposing suddenly you are listening to Me and something falls down, your attention will go to it. That is why a happening takes place, that this Kuṇḍalinī rises and she attracts the attention inside. But actually when she touches the Spirit, what happens to the attention itself? The attention becomes enlightened. Now what is that? Attention becomes enlightened, means what? Means that this attention has a light. Now supposing you have an attention which has a light, what should happen, that you look at anyone, you should be able to know that person in and out. That should be the first thing, isn't it? If your attention has a light, you should be able to see through that person just like a[n] X-ray you should know where the problem is. Then if your attention is enlightened, you should be able to help that person also with your attention. By being, enlightenment means, you see enlightenment by the Divine Power of love.

So if you pay attention to somebody, that love must act. Otherwise it is just like any other attention, you pay attention to this, nothing happens. You pay attention to that, nothing happens. You pay attention to anyone, nothing happens. But when you are enlightened, then your attention is enlightened.

And you'll find after Sahaja Yoga, if you pay attention to someone, you can cure that person. If you have reached a certain stage of, I should say maturity in Sahaja Yoga. Like there was one of the first Sahaja Yogis in England who got his realisation, who is here I think, he was little [UNCLEAR dumbfound], he said Mother you said that our attention gets enlightened, how are we to know about other people? I said, very easy. About whom do you want to know? I want to know about my father. I said, alright, his father was in Scotland. Put your hands and think of your father. Just think. He started a burning here. Now these are the centers for your father, those are the centers for your mother and this started burning, now this finger denotes this center.

So I told him he must be down with very bad bronchitis. He said, how can there be telecommunication? This is enlightenment. Into new world of telecommunication. I said, alright you ring up your father. He rang up, the father never came to the phone and his mother said, your father is down with very bad bronchitis. Now sitting down here, you can give cure to that. Now it is not a cock and bull story, I tell you. It is so fantastic, that people cannot believe it. But you can. But you have to have certain maturity to do that. If your light is a little hazy, then it does not work out. I mean, you can cure people, sitting down here, sitting down in London, I should say, most ailment I can cure, I have done it. And some other people have done it also.

So what happens is that the attention which goes there, for example, now our attention is dead in a way, it goes there, what happens, only thoughts start coming to us, on the contrary this is more dominating than ourselves, because as soon as we look at something, some thoughts start coming. I mean, you can't look at anything without having some thoughts coming into your head. Imagine the domination of the matter on us that everything gives us thoughts.

While, when you look at a thing when you are a realised Soul, then this attention acts, if it is a living thing, you can see the action working on it, but if it is dead, then what happens? Then you become thoughtless, say you see a beautiful painting, see a beautiful painting, now there is no thoughts in your mind.

So all the creation of that painting just starts pouring in you as joy. You feel that joy just pouring into you. Because there is no thought in between, otherwise normally we'll think who has painted this picture, who has done this, how much they must have paid, that's first thing, first question will be how much money it must have cost. Then second would be who is the artist. All these questions actually paralyze the beauty, the art, the creation of that painting. Like a wave-free surface of some lake, you can see the complete image, the reflection of the surrounding of that lake. The complete creation, the complete joy comes to us, in the same way you become absolutely thoughtless, you see something and you become absolutely thoughtless, because the joy is so complete, that you just get stunned and the whole thing starts pouring into you, like showers of joy, is an experience which you cannot have before realisation. It is only possible after realisation, that you can enjoy your attention and it is such a joker.

Your attention plays tricks and tells you so many things about other people. Like I was coming and I said, now let us see this gentleman I have to meet him, let us see his vibrations. I said now, his vibrations, this is catching. Alright, what does that mean? Problem with his wife. Either he has no wife, or if he has a wife, it is a wrong relationship. Or maybe there is a problem with the wife, this is wife's finger. And we discovered it was so. What? Because I knew about it, I did not touch that point. But if you say that, you'll have it, better not say that point you know already about the gentleman what the full problem he has, so better not touch that point and gradually try to remove it. Like that, it is so easy after realisation, to know about others. Like a gentleman came to see Me, he was an Indian and he knew that a person who is a seeker is not supposed to drink, when you come at least to a holy person. But he gave up his drinking for about eight days he did not drink, he had a bath everything and a nice mouthwash with everything and he came and saw Me and I said you have to give up your alcohol completely. He said, Mother how do you know this. I said, I know. Because of the centers that are catching in him, are only possible if you are a drunkard. And I said you have been a drunkard and that is why it has been there. He agreed that I was; for eight days back I gave it up. I said, eight days makes no difference, I know that you have been a drunkard and you'll have to give up that gradually. He said, I will Mother, I promise, but this is really surprising how did I know about it? So much so that once a lady came to see Me and I found that her right hand here was completely charred and this was all catching.

So I asked her what is your relationship with your father, specially this finger [UNCLEAR Oh, that... to do?...]. Normally girls in India are very attached to their fathers and it is a very good relationship. I said there must be something wrong, otherwise you can't get such horrible feelings about it. Yes but, How do you know Mother? I said, I know, you better tell. Oh no, it's alright, it's alright, we have a good relationship, nothing wrong, this, that. I said, Really? She said, Yes, we have no [UNCLEAR] it is perfectly alright. And she went away. I was wondering, I knew she was telling Me lies. Just after that, her mother came in and her father. He said, Oh that was our daughter who had come to see you. I said, Really. He said, Do you know this girl has filed a suit against me, her father? Really? Yes and on wrong basis, under the advice of a very wrong person. Her husband is abroad and some wrong person has put ideas into her head and she has filed a suit against me. Oh, I said, see, that's what happened.

So the attention gives you all the information when it is enlightened. It corrects the problems and of all the things it warns you, it warns you beforehand. For a Sahaja Yogi, supposing a Sahaja Yogi is misled, he loses the way, then it is accepted that we have to go back, there is something wrong. And just he goes that way and he finds a thing that he has lost for a long time, or he meets the friend whom he has to meet or some address that he had he gets it. We don't mind getting lost or anything because you find that this was necessary to go that way to find something.

It is so interesting and so interwoven and sometimes you start understanding, after some time, that there are angels who are looking after you. Definitely there are angels who are guiding us. Every moment, they are there and taking our attention to things which are important. Because of Spirit's quality, to be collectively conscious, our attention itself becomes collectively conscious. The priorities change. The priorities change so much, like I was going in Kashmir one day, in a car and suddenly I told My husband, there is there tremendous vibrations in this place.

So he asked the driver, he said, Is there any temple here? He said no, it is the wilderness, there is no temple, nothing. I said, about two three miles maybe, let us go ahead.

So he said, no there is some Muslim staying here, you see there is no temple, no question of having a temple. I said, is there a mosque? Oh, he said, yes. There is a mosque of Asrad Akbar, one hair of Mohammed Sahib is kept in that mosque. And I felt the vibrations at least four five miles away from it. Just imagine. And when we came about three miles, I could just tell him how to go there. And only one hair was emitting vibrations.

So the whole priorities, the attention goes to things which have good Divine vibrations. It is not bothered about things which have no good vibrations. Whatever has good vibrations, it will go to them.

Like a person who is a holy person, he touches anything, it vibrates, he touches water, it vibrates, anything you touch, anything you feel, it vibrates. For example, water, if you vibrate it, it can be a medicine. River Ganges is nothing but vibrated water. You get vibrations from that.

These vibrations are Divine vibrations, are the vibrations of the power of love of God. It is something so much out of the blue, that suddenly if you hear about these things, it sounds quite odd and fantastic, but it is not at all to Indians, they know about all it. This knowledge has not come to us, but in the Bible, Christ has said, that your hands will speak. Your hands will speak. That means in your hands you will be feeling, he said it very clearly, your hands will speak, that is what should happen to us. That our hands should speak, but they should communicate to us what they have to communicate because all the centers are represented in our hand. As shown there you can see all the centers are on the left hand side and right hand side, you can see very clearly how these centers are denoted on our hand and once you start feeling them, if you know, if you know the decoding of it, you can immediately say what the other person is suffering from, what you are suffering from. And then you have to learn how to correct them those problems of the another person.

So the first thing that happens to you that your attention becomes enlightened. This attention is so wonderful, is so joy-giving, it is so humorous, because you become like a witness, the whole thing becomes a joke. You see seriously people running up and down, or to do something and you just don't understand and you ask them, what's the matter. Oh, you don't know, it's very important, very important. Yes what? I put all my money to the race, alright and he comes back, head down, what happened? I lost all my money. The way he was running, the way he is coming back, it's a big joke, you know. But to him, it's not, he becomes serious, sometimes he becomes involved into in, sometimes he let it, but you are just enjoying the whole joke, the whole tragedy and comedy of life. You enjoy like a spectator. You become the spectator, you are no more worried, upset or intentioned. Actually I have seen people who are very hot tempered become so placid and so sweet and so poised. It's surprising how they change because they have got the balancing point, the absolute point. This is what happens to your attention when you get realisation.

But then what happens to your awareness which you get from the central path of your evolution? For example animals have an awareness, also, we have an awareness. We have awareness much higher than that of animals.

Some people say yes we can play tennis you see. That's a higher awareness than animals.

But some people cannot play tennis or understand it. But one awareness human beings have, definitely, whatever they may be, at whatever's level, that they understand what is dirty, what is filthy, they can smell it. Animals can't. They pass, you take a horse or a dog through a dirty length, it will just walk as if it is leading a parade for the queen, you see. It has no problem, but for human beings we just can't do it, we have to put something to cover our nose.

So like that, we have many other things, which we have achieved as human beings, we have sense of colour, we have sense of beauty, we have sense of balance, we have so many things which dogs may not have, horses may not have, dolphins may not have, they are so close to us, they live with us, but they may not have those senses as we have.

But now what happens to human awareness? At this stage is, that this human awareness suddenly jumps up into a new dimension. That you become collectively conscious, you become again, I say it is an actualisation, it happens to your awareness. You just become collectively conscious. Means, little children, today Olympia you see, she was interviewing Me, she came and she put her fingers in her ears, you see because, the lady who was talking to Me had a problem in her throat. Perhaps maybe she has to use her throat too much also, or maybe something else.

So she put her fingers in her ears, you see this is the mantra we use `Allah hu Akbar' by putting fingers. The little one, she is very small, about two years of age, she just put in. But still you see she felt she has not helped Me fully, so she put her both the fingers in the mouth to suggest that please look after the lady, she's got this problem.

The concern and the feeling that you get for another person is so tremendous, so tremendous, that people can't understand but it is very simple, because if you become part and parcel of the person, how can you not have concern? When who is the other, the problem is now supposing you are sitting before Me and you have a problem in your stomach, I'll also have a little problem, you see. And I'll be so concerned about that problem that it is in My stomach as if that problem is existing. It is like that, the awareness becomes so collectively conscious that it becomes part and parcel of you. Who is the other? the feeling of otherness goes away. Now people talk big things like we are all united, we are all brothers and sisters and this and this, you must have heard all these speeches and when it comes to war, they'll fight. But in this, you cannot fight, because who is the other, you can't fight your nose, you can't fight your hand, you can't fight your fingers. Nor do you help anyone, you don't help anyone, because supposing this finger is in trouble and this hand presses it, does it help it, nothing, this is neither obliged, nor this is helping. This is one, that feeling of oneness that you are part and parcel of the whole is established. Because of that feeling, that is such a tremendous feeling that you are part and parcel of the whole, that you get cured, the curing comes because of that innate understanding, by your being that you are not alone, you are part and parcel of the whole, you are a cell of the whole body of God, or you are a microcosm of the macrocosm.

This is not just a psychological or a rational thing, but you just become. You just become, you can't help it. And when you are that, you just don't feel you are helping anyone, I mean, it is just like you see one cell acting for another cell. And the whole thing works in such a homogeneous way, no fighting, no quarreling, on the contrary, you enjoy each other, you just love each other and you just see the good points of another person, you don't see the bad points, you forget the race, you forget all creeds and everything you forget, because you see a nose does not say I am higher than the hands, does it say? Or the feet do not say I am lower than the hands, the whole are equals. Supposing there is something wrong with the feet, you'll just try to help, something wrong with the nose, you'll help your nose, you don't discriminate in your body, do you? In the same way, we do not discriminate. Once you become realised Souls, whether you are from India or from Asia, or from any other place, from England, America, any place you may be, maybe Chinese, every sort of places that we have, in the cross section of Sahaja Yogis, you'll find all kinds of people are there and they all love each other. You must see the way when these people from England went to India, to the villages where I worked, the villagers you see just grabbed them and they were so happy, they said the first time that we are meeting our brothers and sisters and these people were just enjoying them and they all started dancing, of course they are very light-footed and they wanted all these people to dance with them. British are not so light-footed there so they found it rather difficult. They made them jump, jump, jump and now they have become good dancers too and they all dance together and sing together, in complete joy and understanding. You see, the whole attitude towards life changes.

You become really a princess in the sense that you don't need anything. There is no dirt, if there is a dirt, then you are beggar. If there is no dirt, you can sleep here, you can sleep in a palace, you can, if you want you can get a Rolls-Royce or if you want, you can walk, what's the harm? What's the difference? Because the joy comes from your spirit, not from outside. The whole idea of comfort changes, the whole idea of luxury changes, this all completely changes, because you enter into this new dimension and that is what happens to your awareness that you become collectively conscious.

The enlightenment gives the human awareness a new dimension, by which you are collectively conscious.

Now emotion gives us happiness, you see, if you love somebody, you feel happy and you meet that person, you feel happy and you want to bestow all your love on that person, if your children are there, you want to love them and give them love. But before realisation, this joy is limited. For example, husband wife relation I can understand, but for children like in India, you see, they love their children so much that they will even sell their country for their children's sake, the love becomes like a possession, it becomes a love hate relationship, you see, they love so much that they come to hatred. It's a funny thing but it happens.

Why? Because it has limitations. Love has limitations, it is not infinite. But when you get your love enlightened, you get joy. There is no material given thing just you enjoy each other. In Calcutta first time on My way to America, I was staying in a hotel, there were other, 5-6 Sahaja Yogis staying with Me in other rooms and one gentleman came to see Me and he fell at My feet and tremendous vibrations here. And they all rushed, who has come, who has come? I said, why? Tremendous joy started flowing on our head, Mother, who is at Your Feet? They all rushed to Me. I said, see this one, āhh they all āh what enjoyment, what enjoyment! He was enjoying, they were enjoying him. It is the first time you enjoy human beings. Because you can feel the vibrations of a person. What a beauty human being is, what a glory he is, what a blessing he is, what a creation he is, you realise only after realisation.

Before that, you judge him, oh he has got long hair, he has got red hair, he has got long nose, all that. But then you just see him in a subtle way, what he is, is his vibrations. And so many people I have seen, Sahaja Yogis also, if they get somebody, they'll all rush in. The fellow is there and they are all taking vibrations, for half an hour, I am tired, I say now finish it up, but no they are just sucking like a child. First time you enjoy human beings, the joy which has not duality, joy does not have happiness and unhappiness, happiness comes to us when our ego is pampered and unhappiness comes to us when our ego is dabbed. It is something different, we are not our egos, we are our Self and when Self enjoys something, it enjoys it, there is no remorse, there is no duality about it, there is no unhappiness, so joy is a complete thing. It cannot be described, it is just to be experienced and enjoyed within ourselves.

And that is what happens to us when we get our realisation, our idea of love changes. Like, you say, oh I love this person. Like your husband is there, alright, you have to love him like a husband. You don't love everybody like husband, alright, your sister is there, you love her like a sister, but you think all others as your sisters, then you love your brothers, you think them to be your brothers, you love all of them, the love spreads, like that, it does not rest in one place, it does not sort of stagnate, it does not coagulate.

Supposing in a plant, sap is rising and it goes to one flower because it loves it and settles down there. The tree will die and the flower will die.

So the love we have before realisation, is like that love, which dies ultimately or creates problems and it dies. But love after realisation is a love that emits, just flows. You don't get anything, what do you get, people ask Me, I mean My husband, you know, is in a different line and I have a double life and all My friends ask, what do you get out of it? I say, I am not here to get, I get out something from Me, it is just to give, is to enjoy.

As I told your mayor today, your politics will be solved, you'll have no parties. He said, how can that be? I said, see now, I have supposing all the powers so I am a capitalist, but I must share, so I am communist. I have to be a pure communist and a pure capitalist.

So how can I have two parties when both the things are the same [UNCLEAR]? That is how you solve your politics.

How do you solve your economics? All transactions areas and all those things come from a false idea that matter can give us happiness, it cannot. Only the matter that has a certain coefficient, which gives vibrations, is the only thing that gives you joy. Now we don't know if there is such matter or what. For example somebody will say Stonehenge. Now it looks funny with the druids, of course they don't know anything, I agree. But it is not. Because Stonehenge is created by the Mother Earth, it has vibrations. They can't feel anything, they are standing there, singing songs, this, that.

Somebody must have felt in their forefathers. There are many places where you get vibrations from the Mother Earth.

So many, it is written in the Bible, in the ten commandments, only that whatever is created by the Mother Earth or by the Sky should not be reproduced by human beings and worshipped. But there are many things which have come out of the Mother Earth.

But unless and until you have vibrations, how will you know? You don't know the truth.

So in the human awareness, to know the truth, is very relative. You will say that, how is it that this person is fake and that person is not fake? This is truth that is not truth. There is no way of knowing it. Unless and until you get to the absolute point, how will you know the relative? So when you get your realisation, you can ask, is he a real man? If he is, you'll get vibrations. If he is not, then, you might even get blisters. Vibrations will stop maybe, little bit blisters you might get, if he is not a right type of a person. If somebody is obstinate, you will get indication, if somebody is suffering from some possession, you will get the indication. If somebody is mentally mad, you will know. It is very very systematic and very scientific.

God's laws never fail. Various things and everything that you know through it is absolute and correct.

Only thing is you have to learn. You have to train up your mind to understand these different things. The small children are much cleverer than bigger people, because you see, they have so many hangups, they have so many complications, they rationalise everything. Children will just say this, this is it.

Now people think, that how can it be free? How can it be with money? I ask the other question, I mean, we cannot think of these things in the terms that I say Divine, because you have never known it before. How much money did Christ get? We have a life here of Christ, how much money did he take? Now Christianity as such they asked Me a question today. I mean it cannot deliver the goods? They are Christians, they go to church, but is their life Christian? Churches cannot deliver the goods.

But that does not mean that you run away from Christ. You can run away from that kind of things, but not from Christ, because Christ exists. He definitely exists within us and he is a special person because he is placed at a very pivotal point, between the center of the Optic Chiasma, where the pituitary and pineal body are there and he controls our ego and superego. And when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, then Christ is awakened and he sucks all of our Karmas, all of our sins. That is what he said, that he has suffered for our sins. They will say Christ, in the church they say and then why do they ask you to suffer? If Christ has suffered, why should we suffer any more? There should be no sufferings any more, just enjoy, rejoice.

He's done everything for us. Or do you want him to suffer more? There are Jews who said, that we don't believe in Christ and we have to suffer. Oh really, I have Mr. Hitler for you, if they want another one, they can have another one. And go on with your sufferings. It is high time that they accept Christ and give up their sufferings, otherwise, they are putting their sufferings on other people. There is no suffering needed any more, it is a funny idea, I don't understand, why people say you must suffer to become spiritual? Who has given you this idea? Actually among Hindus, it was said, it was believed that our Karmas, we have to pay for it. Yes, alright.

Up to what point? Till somebody called Mahāviṣhṇu comes in, that is Christ, is called as Mahāviṣhṇu, all the signs and symptoms of Christ are described as Mahāviṣhṇu in the Devī Māhātmyam, but who reads that, I mean Christians will only read Bible, will they read something else? So they never knew. And when the missionaries went from here, they never talked about Christ like that. Or they just said that you better get converted you see, they used to brand everyone Christian, Christian, Christian, Christian.

They would put a loaf of bread in the water and say that this is the beef and all of you have become now Christians.

So by villages they became Christians. Imagine this kind of a Christianity, how far is it going to go? They never said that Christ is the one who was Mahāviṣhṇu because they never knew. Until I told them that it was He the Mahāviṣhṇu who came, who has come already. And he is going to suck our. Oh that is done, then what, why to worry about Karmas, finished, all our Karmas are over.

But here we have Christ, but we don't know his essence. We don't know why is he there for, what was the need for him to crucify himself? It was just to create a tremendous deity within us that is Christ who will suck our [UNCLEAR vibrations]. Now we have many Jews who are our disciples. They will joyously accept Christ because Kuṇḍalinī does not rise unless and until they accept it here. But even those Christians who don't accept, say Moses, or Yoham [UNCLEAR] Yoham is sitting here. That's the Virāta, that is the Akbar. That, you have to see for yourself and the Kuṇḍalinī rises, you'll be amazed, unless and until you say Lord's prayer, it won't rise above it, if it is stuck there. And all the Christians have this problem, you'll be surprised that Christ himself is angry with them. You have to say Lord's prayer, that is why he said you will be calling me Christ, Christ and I won't recognize you. Just imagine! Then you have to say Lord's prayer in front of some holy personality, he forgives you and then the Kuṇḍalinī rises. Just imagine, he was the one who was the controller of ego, he is the one who sucks our ego and see the Christian nations, there is one thing they can't get out is their ego. Now they are realizing it, no doubt, but still to get out of it, they have to fight it and the more you fight it, it becomes like a balloon, big, big, big, big, big. But by fighting it, you cannot get out of it. Only by rising through the central path you can suck it through the awakening of Christ and you get your realisation as Cool Breeze coming out of your head.

But when it happens also, as I said, people do not know what it is. Is Brahma Shakti or what you call this Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost, what it is. Because they did not allow Christ to live long. He lived hardly for three and a half years to talk about it. I mean the way they treated him, is really so atrocious and so cruel. To whom could he talk, to these fishermen? About Kuṇḍalinī? I mean they made it impossible, same with Mohammed Sahib. Arabs could not accept Mohammed at all. And they have not yet accepted him the way they are crucifying him everyday. He could not tell people about it but he did promise that it will happen to you.

He has promised that a comforter will come, so that you will know my father for ever. Thus you will get your Self-realisation. He promised that. But how will you make him out? How will you make out the comforter? How will you find out, if Christ comes in. Now Christ has been announced. It's a big joke. You better tell this Mr. Christ to walk on the water. And you'll find him out. We had one in India. He told that he is going to walk on the water. And people mad from America, they came with televisions, telescopes and all Indian were there to see the fun of the whole thing. All of them came here and Government also encouraged people, not so for an extreme you know, for this kind of tomfoolery. They all came, they occupied premises in a very big hotel, where there was a huge big swimming bath, where this fellow was supposed to walk on the water, you see. And they had telescopes and every sort of things there and apart from that they had a television set and from America they were going to release you see, all these scenes of what was going to happen. This fellow came forward, it was on the television, you could see, he put one foot and with the second foot he was down, he could not even swim, that man. They had to fish him out! And he was put in the hospital and they found he had cancer. But imagine, when they asked why did you do all this? He said at least I have got a name, imagine. Like some hijackers, they said that at least by doing these things, we will get some name. You know there are some maniacs who want to appear in the newspaper. They say all that way.

So he said I have got a big name, in America, everywhere, everyone knows me, thank God, he is no more now to befool some. You see these tricks they play.

So these tricks have nothing to do with God. If he is Christ, let him walk on the water. If you people will be kind enough, you better write to this gentleman who has spent so much money in the newspapers, especially to the journalist I would request, because you see journalism takes to such stupid people very easily, I don't know why, they will publish, you know they published such a lot of things about this nonsensical Christ who has come, better ask him.

There is another one who was trying to teach flying. Alright. Poor things who were flying, one of them is sitting here, she was the directress of the institution, got epilepsy, the husband got epilepsy, the child got epilepsy, all of them. They lost all their money, all their property, everything. That is how they were flying on the streets of London, alright. I said, why not ask the Guru to y? Why not use these leaning tower of Pisa? Just throw him down, let us see how far he can fly. And then they even paid 3,000 pounds, to learn flying nonsense. Why do you want to y? Are you going to become birds now? All these nonsensical tricks they play on you and you believe them. It is never said in any scripture, any books, anywhere that you will be flying as religious people or as spiritual people. Never.

Nor that you will be becoming mad. Even St Paul who was I don't know how they included him in the Bible, I can't understand how was he a Christian? This is first thing, if he saw the light, well and good, who saw the light? Now supposing you go and say, I have seen the light and I have become a great Christian and you start organizing. Must you be included in Bible? He has no idea of Christ. And he has no idea of reality. Then I saw him, I said from where does this gentleman come in? He was nowhere near reality and he said, that people got like mad when Holy Ghost came, everybody started laughing and they started saying all kinds of words and all kinds of languages. It is very easy. You see, say if an Indian possesses you, you will start behaving just like an Indian, you'll speak in their language, you may be thieving, telling lies, all these things which are character. Or if you are an English man entered into an Indian, you start speaking Ox bridge English. It is possible. You have seen these things happening to people when they get possessed, they do it. It is all possession. What is the way to know what you have got? It is so much unknown, that anything that is unknown is not God, there is collective subconscious and there is collective supraconscious. Anybody can enter from that area and can possess us.

You must have seen a film shown by some doctors who said that cancer is caused by some proteins, which proteins which come to us from the areas which are built within us since the time of our creation.

That is collective subconscious. They say it clearly, protein 58 or protein 52, they say it so clearly about it. That that is what triggers our cancer. But they do not know how to control them. Of course I have been saying this for the last twelve years but nobody understood at that time when I was saying that it is the collective subconscious from where these things come in. Christ is the one who took out spirits and put in the pigs. And here they are talking of Christian movements like you have got penticostian and charismatic and this and that, where they are putting spirits into you and when they come before Me, they shake like this, you know, just like this and going into an epileptic mood and sometimes you see there are hundred spirits sitting in those people. And they have no idea as to what to do with the dead, they are so naive, in the church you are sitting on a dead body. God knows how many. They don't know how to do that. For example if an Indian lady from India comes in, she walks like this, saving her feet, oh God, they are sleeping here, they are sleeping. We know that when they are buried there, maybe their dead souls are around. But here in the church you go and there may be a very nice way of possessing a person. There is a Sahaja Yogini in Paris, her mother was about sixty years of age, not very old because I am of that age and she was so mad, she became so mad, that she did not know what was a [UNCLEAR bedian] and what was a [UNCLEAR lucean], she was a funny woman and she sometimes used to forget even her daughter, but Sunday morning she would get up in a very normal way, dress up very well, go to the church, say her prayers and come back. Really possessed person, she used to go, but somehow one of the Sundays she got lost. And she informed the police. The police said you better send her to one of these places where the old are looked after.

So this Marie told Me that when they put her there, she found there are many like this who get up on Sundays, there is a church for them. Also there are dead bodies of these mad women. They go to this church every Sunday, again they are mad for the whole week, again on the Sunday, they get up and go to the church and come back. Just imagine! How can that be God? You mean these dead spirits are God? And will you shake all the time like this, if God enters into you. How can it be, it is maddening.

Will you become more dignified and beautiful or you'll become ridiculous? Just ask a question to yourself? In the Bible, it is written that everybody said that these people are possessed and they laughed at them and they said they have gone mad. And still it is in the Bible and people read it, letters re, chapter this. Just imagine, describing mad people and that has become authentic now who is going to challenge them? They'll kill Me if I tell them that. But it is a fact. This is not what is going to happen.

What Christ has said, your hands will speak. Even Mohammed Sahib has said more about the day of resurrection. He did not talk the day of dead first, of the complete destruction first. He talked more about the day of resurrection. Christ also the day of judgement. They did not talk of the dead, while there are people sitting around and thinking of when will that day come when we'll all be finished. Imagine! We have reached that state of confusion that we are waiting for a complete destruction, trying to celebrate it, the way people are anxious about it. First of all, you all have to enter into the Kingdom of God. That is the place for you. That is the place to enjoy. That is the place God has made. He has not made you a human being to suffer and suffer and die in suffering. Then we have never understood him, he is the father of compassion, he is the ocean of love, an ocean of forgiveness. We have forgotten, what his nature is and we really misunderstand that he has made us to suffer. This is really absolutely anti-God idea, I think and I just can't understand how can we really gulp it down. It is too much, to believe that God will make you suffer or Kuṇḍalinī makes you suffer is another worse idea. She is your mother, she has been with you, she has been waiting, she is your own mother, everybody has an individual mother, she has been waiting for this day to give you realisation, is she going to make you suffer? May God bless you all.

I am very happy to be back and I hope that you'll have more people next time, I'll be able to come back again. If you have any problems, any questions, you may ask Me.

Question: You said on the radio interview today, that you were destined to come as you have come.

Are they as seekers also destined?

Shri Mataji: You have hit the point. That's it. Absolutely that's it. You're all destined to come and get realisation. Absolutely that's it. Otherwise, do you think I am at to go about. Have you ever known so many seekers in this world? Not only destined but deliberatious. You have deliberately taken birth in those days to get your realisation and to do the work of God. And to enjoy the bliss of God. It is a deliberate action on your part. Destination is of course there, but deliberations are there. You have to be all very special people to do that, no doubt. That's a quality, that's a quality. Everybody does not have that quality, that's a quality of people, only such people can stick on. I could not tell this to our mayor that it is a quality that is lacking, it is a quality, they just know that this is the truth.

Question: Is it possible to abuse the Kuṇḍalinī?

Shri Mataji: No, never, never, never, never, you cannot, never.

Question: But can you use the wrong channel.

Shri Mataji: You cannot, cannot, just cannot. It's wisdom, Kuṇḍalinī is awakened only by the permission of a deity which is wisdom. You can never misuse it. You can never sell it. I'll give you an example. There was a gentleman, an Indian whom I gave realisation in America who started his own organization, as usual, you see Indians are very good at making money, put them anywhere, they'll make money. This fellow, you see, first he behaved alright and then he started his organization and all that and he wrote to Me, I am doing this Sahaja Yoga, I am doing this and I got lots of people coming, he put a fees and all that. I did not know how he was running it. Of course, you can charge for the food alright, you can charge for your stay, but when he came you see, the people in Bombay [Mumbai] are very sensitive, they told Me Mother, we are fainting with this man, what's the matter with him, we are all feeling dizzy.

I said, don't you worry, I'll find out. When he came, I said, can I have a look at your brochure? In the brochure, he had written, for vibrations ordinary $125, for special ones $280. I said, Sir why this? He said, Mother how am I to live? I said, what were you doing? He said, I was a teacher. I said, you go and be a teacher. How much money did you pay Me to get your vibrations that you put this kind of a thing there? He said, but how am I going to live? and he got into a temper and he became very red.

Now I can't talk to you about it, you cannot take any money for it.

So he got very angry, he said, I am going to see one Guru. I said, go and see him. This is the Guru living in Kalika, actually I've never met him. But this fellow, when he came back, he telephoned to Me. He said, Mother please forgive me, please forgive me, please forgive me. I said, what happened? He telephoned, on the telephone I must tell you all what happened. I said, what happened. He said, I went there and when I reached the gate, this Guru was sitting in a hut and he started throwing stones at me. One after another, so many stones he threw that I just can't talk. He said, what do you mean? You have said those things to Mother and you think I will give you some blessings here. These are my blessings, go ahead. And poor fellow, you see, he went back, he went and sat in the station, on the platform and one of this Guru's persons went and said that, what did you say to Mother? He knows that Mother is there and how dare you say something to Mother? He said, you see because I was making money and she was angry with me and this. He said, you better go and ask for forgiveness. For three days, he stayed on the platform, you see and the fourth day, the Guru sent for him, he came. Then he said a Sanskrit shloka in My praise and all that, he said just go and read it out to Mother, that's all.

So he brought that, read it on the phone but somehow he could not meet Me, he tried, but he just could not meet Me and he read that to Me. But when this Guru, I told him that why don't you go to America? He said, I won't be able to go. He went to New York, he was there for three days and he went back. He said, they are all mad people, they are dollar-mad, I can't stay there were offering me dollars for everything.

So he ran back, he could not stay there.

So there are realised Souls, they are people who know about Sahaja Yoga, but they know that you cannot sell it. If you try to do anything like that, finished. You will lose your vibrations immediately. They are very sensitive, very sensitive. If you are ignorant, then it is alright. Then it stays. But knowingly if you do something, then they will disappear. And you won't like it, because when they are flowing you are enjoying yourself. You just stop.

Those who don't know anything about Kuṇḍalinī. They say the Kuṇḍalinī is in the stomach, this, that, they are not authorized people, they try to play tricks with Kuṇḍalinī, they get into trouble, because...

it's not the Kuṇḍalinī, because she is the Mother, but the deity, the deity that is Christ actually in another form called Gaṇeśha is sitting down there. He hits them hard, out of the sympathetic and that is how they get it, all the problems.

Question: So how do you have a Guru raise the Kuṇḍalinī?

Shri Mataji: That's what I am going to do. Once I have done it, then you will do. First an enlightened light must enlighten you, alright? Once you are enlightened, you enlighten other people.

Question repeated by Warren: He said, how do other Gurus raise the Kuṇḍalinī?

Shri Mataji: Which one? Which one? Let's have him out. I will send half of them to them. Who is the one? They just talk.

Question: [UNCLEAR about a Guru in particular, Buchtan].

Shri Mataji: You think he is raising Kuṇḍalinī or he is putting bhoots, he is putting possessions.

They'll just dance, dance, dance. Anybody can dance, what is so great? Anybody can dance, you see, what is there so great in dancing? Is there? But Kuṇḍalinī you can see with your naked eyes, the pulsation, the rising, the Cool Breeze coming out of your head. That's what it is.

So dancing, even Rajneesh does that, even takes out your clothes. Alright? [Aside:] What's this Buchtan, that's a funny man I must say.

Poor fellow, he punched his Kuṇḍalinī so badly. The other day another fellow came, who was beaten for sixteen years, can you imagine? He is good for nothing now. How to give him realisation? he spent all his money, everything, he has become so useless, at least now I feel mentally also he is good for nothing. This, I sent him to Australia, that fellow. Oh no, I am sorry, I did not mean you, I did not mean you, I sent him to Australia because he was going to Australia, I said alright, you go and see this man. But a headache, I tell you. He is good for nothing, this fellow. I know his names in his previous lives. But very difficult, horrible. They not only want to make money, it is alright, you see there are thugs, there are smugglers, alright, I don't mind. But they'll spoil your chance of realisation, they are anti-God. That is the point, the Kuṇḍalinī just does not rise in people who go to Buchtan. Rather difficult. Don't be frightened, if you have been, I'll manage. It can be worked out. But when you will meet somebody Buchtanandi, you will know, you'll run away from that person. You see, because your hands break. You get tired. The Kuṇḍalinī is tired, poor thing, she is this side, that side, I don't know what he does, this horrible, cruel man.

One better than the other, this Buchtan. Can't you see on his face, what does he talk? All nonsense.

Very easy to make out. He puts the Kuṇḍalinī in such a way that the void is completely finished, you see. The crossing point, that void, is so much obstructed that the Kuṇḍalinī does not get out of that, just wobbles there. Well, we'll work it out, alright? We'll work it out. For seekers, for seekers, they are God's own people. And you are to be saved, to let these horrible people delude you? How long will they go on? All of them has to perish one by one, you'll see that. The best part of it, that all untruth fails ultimately.

Question: How do you tell a true Guru?

Shri Mataji: That after realisation it is very easy but you can say. For example, a person, can't you say who is a sincere person? You can. If you don't get into the circus. It is simple. But a true Guru will not be worried about your purse, as to how much money you have got. And he will give you your own powers. He will not try to show off his own powers, talk about his own powers, I am this, I am that, nothing. Unless and until the Kuṇḍalinī is risen and you have got Self-realisation, nobody will give you false certificate that Kuṇḍalinī is awakened. It has to manifest, it is all falsehood, a to z, it is falsehood. Supposing for example that somebody's Kuṇḍalinī does not rise, alright, it does not rise, My own daughters are not realised Souls, what can I do about it? My own daughters are not realised Souls, but My grandchildren are.

So what can I do? I cannot force on them. If it is not, it is not. You cannot give false certificate, it has to happen.

Question: Isn't it hard to combine Christian and Hindu concepts?

Shri Mataji: No, no, it is the easiest. They are just the same, My child. They are just the same, they is no difference at all. They are all one. Christ has said, those who are not against me are with me. Who are they? They are all one. There is no difference at all. You'll find out. At different stages they came on this earth to give us a new dimension. All of them. You see like on a tree, we have different flowers at different times. But they all come from the same source, don't they? Now they pluck the flower, this is my flower, this is my flower. That's not. That's a dead flower. The same energy produces the same flowers. But they fight. You'll be surprised if I tell you the whole history of the relationship between them.

Between Christ and Kṛiṣhṇa, between Mohammed and Christ and Kṛiṣhṇa, there is a big relationship, they are all related to each other. Very closely. Which you'll find out in Kuṇḍalinī also. Very interesting how they are related, now they have played the game, they are all settled down within us, you see, all brothers sisters, husbands wife and all sorts of relationship there. It is very interesting to see. But it is not only a story but you can see it yourself. That they are within you. To say, say for example if I say that Mohammed Sahib was the same as Nanak. Guru Nanak. Imagine the Sikhs are breaking the neck of Muslims and Muslims are breaking the heads of Sikhs, you see. It is a big quarrel going on. But Nanak came after Mohammed, to teach Muslim Hindu unity. Because he was surprised the way Muslims are.

But they are one! They are one personality, born again and again. Moses, Abraham, Socrates, all of them are the same. Now if a Muslim is a fanatic, alright, he gets a cancer, normally he should, or he becomes a dry personality. Imagine Khomeini. They become a dry personality, they can be very violent people.

But supposing they get into trouble like cancer, I had one Muslim coming from Iran, who was a fanatic, he got cancer. I said, you think that Mohammed Sahib is the only person? Yes, he said. But if I say, Guru Nanak was the same. I can't believe it. I said, then I can't cure you.

You have to accept, because Mohammed Sahib himself is against you, because he came in ten forms, he wouldn't accept. His wife you see, she weighed upon him because he was very sick. And he got cured. That is how you have to prove, human beings cannot easily understand. You see, if you are born in a Christian religion, you become a Christian. It is a horrible thing like that, you see. You are all human beings and all this people have come on this earth to give you a new dimension. Only we don't understand them. They never came to make us fanatics, that at least that is too much to see. After realisation, you will know that they are all in complete unison, complete concord. That is not possible on human level. Absolute complete concord.

Yes, it is a fact. Alright, should we have realisation now, let us try. Because I have to go now to England, London and tomorrow is another very heavy day. Please put your hands.

Who's going to translate Me?... Why don't you take one of these, Gregoire?

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, that is the public address microphone, they won't be able to hear You. This is for the recording on the tape.

Shri Mataji: Then how will they hear this?... Yes. Then, how will you translate?

Sahaja Yogi: In French...

Shri Mataji: But loudly. I think, why don't you stand up and see there, you can stand up there.

Yes, there. And you can talk loudly, that's a better way. Be careful about those...

May God bless you. Hello, yes, yes! Thank you, thank you. Aradhana has come. Go and see them.

There, there! In the most auspicious time that is called as Krita Yuga, we all have assembled here to understand the ways and methods of establishing our Principle of a Master. Krita Yuga. `Krita Yuga' means the time when you have to do something, `krita: when it was done'.

So you are the channels of that doing, doing the work of God. You are the channels of God Almighty and His Power. On one side you have to carry the dignity, the glory and the assumption that you are a Guru. On the other side you have to be completely surrendered to your God Almighty. All your dignity, your authority comes from Him. And the third thing is that the way He has created this universe and you, in a mood of play, you have to see His play.

So a kind of mood that is cheerfulness should be really bubbling through you.

So far the idea of Guru was that such a person never laughs, never smiles, always in a temper. That was all right for Gurus who did not have to have any contact with the public, but hanged themselves with a string somewhere in the Himālayas. But here we are, facing the entire universe that has to receive the bubbling streams of your love. But that does not mean that you have to be frivolous, because you cannot be. The Divine play is not frivolous, it is joyful and the joy does not have that duality.

So to get to the establishment of your Guru Principle, first we should know how it is destroyed. As it is, anything that is not looked after or maintained gets destroyed.

If we do not pay attention, say, to these beautiful plants here, they will be destroyed. Even matter which is not attended to gets destroyed.

So first of all, we have to know that we must be attentive and alert that if we do not maintain ourselves, we'll be destroyed. Because maintenance is not for maintenance sake, it is for stopping the destruction of your Guru Principle. When we are negligent or lazy about it, we are responsible for destroying our Guru Principle.

So the attention that we have is to be given to the maintenance of this Guru Principle. The Gurus have the capacity to maintain themselves and maintain others. In the beginning, when the Gurus tried to establish this maintenance principle, they put very, very strong rules and regulations. If you read Bible in the Levi chapter, you will find all the Shariats that are described, which they are following now in Riyadh or in the Arabic countries. To maintain that principle within yourself, it's written in such strong languages, like “Such a person who does not do this should be killed to death. Such a person does anything wrong of this kind should be killed by stoning." That was at the very beginning, so the people now at that stage of evolution required that kind of a fear. This was not meant to in any way to insult or to harm, or to take away the freedom of human beings. But it was meant for people to give a great idea of the importance of the Principle of Guru within themselves. At that stage they used the frightening methods, I should say, horribly dangerous times. And that time people obeyed also. Then another evolutionary state took place where a stage started, people thought they must become austere and start maintaining themselves by tremendous austerity.

So it was self-projected; it was not projected towards others, but projected towards themselves. We can say that the first wave started when the Guru, the Primordial Guru said that if you don't do this, then you will be killed. The second stage was where the disciples accepted this within themselves and started telling themselves that if we do not do it we'll kill ourselves. Austerity started on the basis of wisdom and not on obstinacy. But then it became even fanaticism, so it went to one extreme. It started with the idea of maintenance. It started with the idea of maintenance. But maintenance itself became impossible, or perhaps they thought that they are not being able to maintain, they got confused and to them rules and regulations became more important than maintenance itself. Thus you find they destroyed themselves.

The wisdom or the essence of Guru Tattwa is a balance. Like when you maintain a plant, if you do not give it water, it will die. If you give it too much water, it will die.

So the wisdom lies in understanding how much water should be given to the plant, so that it comes up at its best. Now this wisdom has to be achieved through your vibratory awareness. You are placed under the most fortunate circumstances, that you are realised Souls before your Guru Tattwa is fully established. You have all the powers that any Guru can aspire, without having the establishment of Guru Tattwa. Specially you are under the complete blanket of the clouds of your Mother's love. But in no way Mother's love is going to allow you to destroy your Guru Principle. As I told you that Guru Principle is a very sensitive thing and is destroyed if you yourself do not try to maintain it. First of all, the destruction starts from the very source of our being. I mean to say that our being is created by five elements and the five elements have a capacity all the time to get destroyed. Any one of these elements if they are not looked after, they get destroyed. That is the built-in capacity of the elements or of the matter, as you can say.

So to maintain them is important.

Some people have an idea that once you become a Guru you need not maintain everything, it is maintained by itself. It is not. Agreed that the spirit definitely enhances the beauty and the health of these elements; but at the human level there is always a greater force that is trying to destroy it.

So till we have completely become the spirit, there is always a chance of this destruction working it out. One may say, why this balance needed? And this is an important question which we should be able to answer all the people who ask us. Without the balance you cannot ascend. If you cannot ascend, what's the use of our becoming human beings? For example, everything is God, but nobody is aware. At the human level you become aware: means everything exists, everything is there, but it is not aware. Say, there is a stone, that is also God, but it is not yet aware. Like say, this area is completely dark and we are blind. There is nothing to be seen, to be felt or experienced when you are in that condition. Actually one thinks that darkness is the truth, that ignorance is the truth. But when the sun comes up and the light comes in and your eyes open, you start seeing everything. You start becoming aware.

So at human level you are aware at the highest point. Now this awareness has to become the awareness of the spirit.

That has happened to you, you have felt the spirit. But the balance is not there as yet. Your Mother has pulled you out and made you that, but still there is imbalance inside. If you go slightly to the left you can be destroyed; you go to the right, you'll be destroyed.

So you have to try both the things as I have told you the methods, which I'll explain. First of all you have to be austere with yourself. Just separate yourself from yourself. Separate yourself as a spirit and look at your ego and superego. Now you start watching, you start watching the ego and superego. Do not maintain it, they are the destroying forces. Now when you see the play as a witness of these destroying forces, you will know how to also maintain yourself better. To separate yourself is easier when you take to austerity. The worst thing that elements have done to you is that you have formed habits, all kinds of hangs-up.

Some people are fond of bathing, some people are fond of not bathing.

Some people are fond of getting early in the morning, four o'clock and singing songs and waking up everyone and some are good at sleeping till ten o'clock.

Some like very light-coloured dresses, some like very loud-coloured dresses. If you are English, then you want to have English-style everything, horrible insipid food! If you are French, you want to have wine, little bit. If you are Italian you want to have carbohydrates, too much. If you are Spanish, you want to have too much fats. If you are Indians, you want to have too much of spices.

So to change this habit, you have to give first of all the extremes that you like. Now if you say that `I like bland food', bland food, then you should say `I must eat a lot of chillies.' If you say `I like pale colours,' then you wear very loud ones. Go from one extreme to another extreme, to begin with. But I've seen people, when they go from one extreme they get stuck up on the other side also.

So we have to be in the center, not to the extremes. A man who is an Avadhūta, the one who is a great master, can never be hanged up by any hangs-up. He cannot be ruled by any ideas that `I like this.' He sees beauty in the lush greenery and he sees beauty in the trees which are devoid of any leaves. Now the trend of getting to austerity in a very funny way has started in the West. Like if you comb your hair, then you are no good; if you do not smell in the body, then you are no good; if you don't look like a pig, you are no good. All kinds of funny sort of ideas have crawled into the mind, because they are going to the other extreme. But we have to learn from the nature. Nature dresses up itself when it has to greet the spring and when it is the winter it just gets completely undressed, I should say, because the leaves have to go to the Mother Earth and that the sun has to reach the Mother Earth. It is not attached to anything. Surprisingly it is much more elemental than we are; while we who are spiritual should have no attachment. But this idea is also a mental idea, which is the worst attachment. It's a very funny attachment which makes Me laugh, that's the biggest joker I've seen, that people get attached to mental ideas. It is like believing that whatever you think mentally will just happen to you. Say, for a mental person he has to go to picnic, he will mentally put in his mind he's going to take this that, that and that. He may even open a file and write it down that `I am going to take this and this and this with me.' And when he goes to the picnic he finds he's high and dry, because he has not taken anything with him, it's all in the file! Your Mother is good at speaking and She speaks to you, but it should not be your mental attachment.

Like “Yes, Mother says so” and everybody discusses with such great enthusiasm, this is that; but it's not become part and parcel of your being. But is a very common attachment nowadays, with all the people knowing about everything and having nothing. This mental attachment is to be really attacked. Becoming is seeing, becoming is experiencing; becoming is seeing, it is experiencing. Like if I have to come to this place, I must come and see it. If only I have thoughts about it and mental idea, mental picture, it is no good, I can, it's not mine, it's not the truth.

So when you become aware, actually what happens that it, you see it yourselves, so let us see. Get out of that mental conception that you know already about it. You do not know, because what you know is just mental. That should be a part and parcel of your being. Now how to do it? Some will say that “We'll just go on being austere about it." Then that will become again another obsession.

Some will say, “All right, Mother has said we should enjoy, so we'll just enjoy." How to strike the balance is the big problem, but should not be with people who have vibratory awareness. In that also you can be obsessed. I have seen people talking as if they are all great Sahaja Yogis and there were no vibrations and saying they are getting vibrations. It is so deceptive.

So one has to think that we have to grow further and see more and more and know about it. But if you then ask the French “How are you?" then under the influence of this, they'll say like this: that means they're always in imbalance. You ask an Englishman, he'll say, “Don't know." Or they say “I know", there's nothing in between. Now we have to understand that we are carrying the light in our hand and the light should not shake. We have to hold the light tight and we should have a concentrated attention towards the maintenance of the light. And then to tell yourself that we have to see, not to just understand mentally. It's to be actually aware; because you are complete otherwise, you are the part and parcel of the whole, you are. But only thing, that you have not yet seen that. You have mentally accepted, but you have not become that. Because mental projection comes from thought; that means you are at the level of the thought.

You have to become thoughtless. But if you live on the basis of thought then you are still below the Āgñyā Chakra.

So all the thought waves must be stopped to begin with and should say that `All right, let us see now.' So from the Nābhī Chakra you come up to the Āgñyā Chakra. Then above that comes the third problem of destruction, is emotional. The emotional is a very subtle one. Like some people, Sahaja Yogis, will sit down with a guitar and will start singing as if they are all lovebirds, you see! What is it? What is it? Come along. Come, come... What has happened? Why, why do you cry? Come to Me, come to Me. All right. Just take her away. She's caught up.

So the most delicate one is the emotional. This emotional one is a collectivity in a camouflage. For example, when the Sahaja Yogis will meet, they'll hug themselves, kiss each other and will be very, very nice to each other, you see and sit down and sing songs like hippies. Take the guitar in the hand and swing on the tune of love. This is actually Viśhuddhi at the collectivity point and that of course is very difficult to get rid of, because it gives you a very comfortable feeling. And people get confused with emotions, they think it is joy. Joy only can be achieved through complete detachment, the detachment which is egoless and superegoless. But now, the problem that human beings start facing is the assumption that they are Gurus. They start speaking about Sahaja Yoga, talking about Sahaja Yoga and they start thinking that they have become already Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. They have even a greater ego than the person who is actually ignorant about Sahaja Yoga. They start talking with such tremendous ego that I am Myself frightened of them: how much they know about Sahaja Yoga, I sometimes think? And they start asserting it so much that it's frightening. All this can be also said, that they feel that protocol is not all right and there should be proper protocol, so we are looking after protocol, we are the guards of the protocol and all these things there. Now those who are on the emotional side see the ego of others, while those who are on the ego side see the emotions of others.

So one criticises another, but they don't see themselves that they are falling a trap into one of the extremes.

So unless and until you are detached, you cannot see it. I will not say I did, committed a mistake, but it happened to be a mistake. For the first three years of Sahaja Yoga never talked of a bhoot. I thought I'll be able to manage without that. But a lady came in Sahaja Yoga who was possessed and who tried all kinds of Tantric tricks, so I had to tell them. Now every Sahaja Yogi is a bundle of bhoots! You ask any Sahaja Yogi, “Why did you do it?", “Must be a bhoot." If you say that “How is it that you have done such a thing?" then they will say that “I do not know, it's the bhoot who has done." They are never there, all the bhoots are there. Now I don't understand how to deal even as a Guru, because if My disciples are there I can tell them, but if they are bhoots, what am I to tell them? I can talk to Sahaja Yogis but not to bhoots, they won't listen to Me.

So this is the greatest escape that Sahaja Yogis have found now, which is the worst, which was never before.

So sometimes I feel it was a mistake I introduced this word `bhoot'. They excuse themselves by just saying, “Mother, it is some negativity." Unless and until there is something in you that contains the negativity, how can there be negativity? If you are detached, if like stone, then you cannot contain this negative water in itself, in it. You don't become more negativity, you become more a Guru. Now, when I say that you should not be negative, supposing under such circumstances you should not be a bhoot, you should be yourself, then they start feeling guilty.

So all kinds of anti-Guru tricks are working out. I am your Guru and it is anti your Guru to play these tricks upon yourself. Now you will play these tricks with Me, what's the use? You have to gain something and you are playing trick against yourself if you are playing them against Me. You have to be more aware.

You are not to be destroyed. Apart from that you have to save others. How will you do it, in case if you do not accept that it is your privilege, that it is your fortune, that you have been chosen to be the medium of God's work? Sometimes I feel all the bhoots have come to Me for realisation and I am now going to become a bhoot Myself! `Bhūt' also means `Bhūtnath', is the name of Śhrī Shankara, Śhrī Shiva, because He gets after the bhoots all the time. But you have to be the present and not the bhoot, `bhoot' means the past. Then what is there to be known? You become. Then you are in the present, you just start becoming, evolving, blossoming. Try to be in the present. Do not escape the present, face it. Don't feel guilty nor blame the bhoot; both things are going to take you away from the present. Now just see the whole nature, the whole Divine Power, your ardent desire of ages, everything is on your side. The time has come. You are just there. What have we to do? Just stand in the center, at the axis. Try to keep yourself at the axis and then you just see the periphery moving, you don't mind. When you see yourself misbehaving in any way, punish yourself. It is better that you punish than the Divine punishes you, because that's a severe punishment. But do not feel guilty because you have not done anything wrong, it's the bhoot which has done! So we come to the point that we should realise that we are Gurus and we cannot be bhoots. We have to change our outside also, to become good Gurus. For example, we have to learn good manners. Then these manners become your nature.

Sometimes, people who are very fond of food, I always tell them they should fast. Whatever you are fond of, try to give up. Try to overcome your sicknesses of attachments, your habits. Once your Guru Tattwa is established, you'll be accepted as a Guru. There will not be any need for you to say that you are a Guru, people will know that you are. We don't have to then write on our foreheads that we are Gurus, people will know that this is a Guru walking; you can see the divinity walking, you can see the dignity walking, the glory coming up. You have to change from within and the light of that within enlightenment will be shown outside. But it should not be a mental idea or an emotional idea, but should be the happening, the becoming, the awareness. You have to experience, through your own experimentation upon yourself. Even I do that. When I cannot reach you from one end because you are a bhoot, I reach you from the other. If somebody says he's a bhoot, then I see that he suffers a little and faces it, the bhoot in him. For example somebody, I tell someone that “Please do this" and he forgets completely about it and he says it is a bhoot that has done.

So then he loses his purse and then I say, “The bhoot must have taken away the purse!" But I experiment with Myself. I first see how I should approach you. If it doesn't work out I try something else within Myself, because it's a very tricky time we are with. If we had gone according to the Shariat of the chapter of Levi, all the bhoots would not have been here. Maybe no Sahaja Yogis might have been left also. And this mental projection is such a common thing that it's difficult to detach people, but only way I can play tricks with you is by experimenting Myself on you. In the same way you must play with yourself and try to put yourself in an experimental box. Today is the day of the Guru Pūjā, the day when you have to worship your Guru. You are really fortunate to have a Guru which is a Mother. And My mother and Guru is this Mother Earth, which teaches Me how to deal with human beings. And she's the one who also in every stage of difficulties helps Me to correct My own methods of Nirmalā Vidyā. She has been such a kind mother and a kind Guru to Me. And she's such a soothing personality. This, all this green, though is given to her by sun as they say, is just to soothe us all. She wears the green upon herself and the green is the Guru Principle. She's the detached personality. She's the magnetism, she attracts. When people are walking on her, she is looking after them. She creates out of her swayambhūs, the self, what should we say to swayambhū?, ah, yes, self-manifested stones. See, her attraction and her concern is so great that without her we would be hanging in the air. And she keeps Me to the brass tacks, as they say, to the reality. If I wanted I could be just the Spirit and not bother about anybody else. The way she bears our sins, the way she always looks after us and nourishes us, despite our so many defects: in the same way a Guru should do.

She is extremely forgiving; but she explodes as an earthquake and sometimes hot calcium and hot potassium can come out of her. She produces sulphur for you, for your cure. If England's soil becomes vibrated, then this soil can be used for medicine. In India people use clay for medicine, for every kind of treatment. The understanding about Guru Tattwa one can have from the Mother Earth, so let us touch the Mother Earth and bow to her.

May God bless you.

She's subtle! In the Kuṇḍalinī Shāstra, Mother Earth is the Kuṇḍalinī. Mūlādhāra is the, is the Mother Earth.

So for us Kuṇḍalinī is the most important thing. We don't have to worry about what they have talked about in the Levi, that you must not steal, you must not tell lies; what we have to worry that keep your Kuṇḍalinī up.

So the Guru has to be a person who is absolutely practical. He must have common sense and absolutely practical, he cannot be impractical person. A person who's impractical is not a Guru.

But practical in the common way is understood as a man who is cunning, who know how to deviate from right path and all that, that's the most unpractical thing to do.

Something absurd, something out of the blue is not the way a Guru has to move. There is all common sense which should guide a Guru how to deal with a person and common sense is a thing which is not cunningness by any chance. The source of common sense is the spirit. The expression of a Guru is very, very paradoxical, paradoxical. For example, a Guru will be extremely practical, supposing he has to build his own house, or a house or ashram or anything, be extremely practical. He will be very economical, he will create something out of the blue; people will be amazed how he's done it so practical. But he'll be so detached that if this ashram is to be donated to somebody, in one second he'll donate. For acquiring, say, for example, for acquiring a lamp, the Guru will be very practical, he'll get the best and the cheapest and the most beautiful. And he'll be very intense about it. But when it will come to giving, he'll be more intense about it; that when he will give, he'll give with that same intensity. He'll find out all practical methods how to donate, also to give away.

So his acquiring is actually giving. He acquires to give, that's how he is the most practical. You know that we cannot take anything with us.

Only the Guru can take with him something, nobody else can take. Only the Guru has all the disciples and disciples and disciples and disciples for ages, who sing the praise. No other relationship is that eternal.

It goes on reacting for ages and ages and ages. It's one wave that falls and then disappears; in anything that you do every wave has disappears, but not the wave of knowledge from a Guru. It's even higher than the Divine Principle, because it explains. The Divine Principle cannot explain, it's the Guru who explains it. Not that it manifests, but it's explains and it works out, so he's the master of the Divine Power.

So in a way, Divine Power is like the meaning of the Guru. Like the word has the meaning and the word, I'm sorry, the word has the meaning and the word serves the meaning. But in a Guru Principle, the Divine serves the Guru. Everything is at your disposal. Everything is at your disposal. When you are a Guru, all your Chakras are at your disposal. All the universe is at your disposal, because you are the Guru. It's like the director of the show, the stage man, the gentleman who is in charge of the lights, the gentleman who is in charge of the loud-speaker, everybody has to serve the director, because he is training the actors. But the Guru Principle has to be so much unchallenged. It should be of such a capacity that nobody can challenge that, it should be such a capable personality that nobody should be able to challenge the Guru. Then only it will work out.

So you have to work it out in such a way that you are absolutely unchallengeable. And you are specially fortunate that you can see yourself and correct yourself, which nobody could do before, you are your own Guru. This situation never, never happened. You are your own Guru and let Me be your Mother. That would be the best for Me.

So today is the day when one has to determine how far you are a Guru, first point. You have to take a pledge that you will establish your Guru Principle, second point. Thirdly, you have to pledge that you will establish Guru Principles in others. Fourthly, you have to know that there is a little snag, that your Guru is a Mother. She's too kind to be a Guru, too mild to be a Guru and extremely tolerant.

So it is better that you take up this strictness towards yourself and look after yourself.

May God bless you.

So you become your own Guru. On every Guru day I have a problem and one of the problems is, you may translate, Gregoire, still a little more, if you don't mind, on every Guru Pūjā day I think I should become a complete Guru and at least on one day I should not be a Mother. But every time I try these tricks it works against Me! Last year in India I told them that “This time I am going to be just Guru and you have to only give Me a shawl and I will not take any sarī and nothing like a Mother." And I was very stern with them and I said, “At any cost I am not going to take a sarī, whatever you may do." And they were very unhappy because they had bought a sarī for Me and they said, “We have also stitched a blouse and a petticoat and Mother, You must accept. You are our Mother also." So I said, “I am going to be very hard like a Guru and nothing doing, today nothing is going to convince Me." Because again you become the Mother, then the whole thing becomes again that soft business!

Sahaja Yogi: Mother, I can't translate that!

Shri Mataji: You'd better tell them! So I went to open the, you see, a tap, because in India we don't believe in wash-basins, you see, to wash My hands. And Indian taps as they are, you see, it gave in and I got completely drenched. And I came out and I said, “Please give Me the sarī to wear!" Today I had decided to be a real Guru and a very hard one. Then Warren came to say that “Mother, somebody has bought a sarī and this is that and that is that." He gave lots of arguments. And Rustom and Warren were trying to, you see, put Me down in My place. But then they used the greatest argument to outwit Me. First they said, “The sarī is beautiful” this, that, I was all right then. But then they said, “The vibrations are too good. Even before opening the sarī, the vibrations were there." So all My efforts puzzled out! This is the play of the sweetness of Divine, what is called as madhurya. `Madhurya' means the sweetness, the sweetness. And this is the one that's such a hide-and-seek of joy in life and that is what I have accepted.

So first we'll have the Mother's Pūjā. Śhrī Gaṇeśha Pūjā. First is Śhrī Gaṇeśha and then Gaurī Pūjā today; because of the Guru Pūjā we'll have Gaurī Pūjā.

Sahaja Yogi: All those who have never yet washed the feet of Shri Mataji and who would like to take, to have this great privilege, should come forward to do the Pūjā.

Shri Mataji: You'd better like it! Don't leave it to their freedom, better like it! If you leave it to their freedom... And somebody must tell Me their names, you see; I would like to know their names, all those who are washing My feet, that would be good. If you are on the sides, it would be better like this...

It's all right, it's twenty-one names. It's all right, if you've finished that, then they will come down. You guide them. Loudly. All right. Now, let the, you guide the coming here, one by one. Two of them can come. From the same country would be better so they can tell Me their... You want blessing?... Thank you, thank you. Olympia? Hah! All right, that's it.

May God bless you.

Hah! Good. All right. Rub My feet. All these names have to do with various qualities with which He rules the ganas. The ganas are the soldiers of the left side, who are the protectors of Lord Shiva and of the blessed Gaurī. Who get after their bhoots! Come along. Come forward, yes. Come forward please. Now, tell Me the names. Margaret. Yes, what's yours? You're from? From where?... Very hard. Rub them very hard, all right? Rub them hard. Hard, very hard. Hah! Now!... Still there. All right? Now there'll be no problem. Now tell Me their names. Catherine. From what country? Now come along, rub My feet.

Rub it hard. Harder, hard. All right? Good? May God bless you. Hah! Better?...

Tell Me your names. Now, what's the country you come from? All right, now you rub My feet. Both the hands. Hard; really hard, very hard. Hard, very hard. Harder. Good. Aha! May God bless you.

Good. See yourself. See your hands. All right. What about you? All right. May God bless you. Maria? From what country? France. You have to tell Me very clearly, because you are telling the deities, all right? Now, rub My feet. Rub My feet hard. Hard. Very hard. Tremendous!

Hah! Good. Let Me see. All right? Now tell Me your names. From where? France. Again? Again? From France. You have to tell Me, because My ears have to hear, so the deities must hear, all right? Now, please rub My feet. Hard, hard, hard. Very hard. Yes, that's it. Hard, hard... Put your hands towards Me. All right? May God bless you.

Hello, how are you? May God bless you. How are you now, better? How is the baby? Now good. Tell Me your names very clearly, loudly. Sally, from Australia. Say like this. All right. You're also from England, originally? All right, then say that... All right, rub My feet. Rub My feet hard. Very hard. Did you go to some false Guru? Hah! Better? Now you have to tell your names and the country's names, all right? Now, tell your, your name? From where? From? All right. Come along. Rub hard, very hard. See your hands now. All right? May God bless you. You have to tell them your name and your country's name. From Africa? From India, sorry! Hard, very hard. Harder. Very hard. As much as you can. Harder. Very hard.

Hard, very hard. As much as you can. Come along, how are you? Wash My feet. This one here, wash it.

Hello, how are you?... How are you? I must see you. How long are you going to be here? All right, come along. Take plenty of time, all right? Good, good, good. Now see, just see the vibrations. See how are your hands. Ah, all right? Good. Sister has got it. Now, she has got it. He has got it. May God bless you all. May God bless you. May God bless you. That's good. Now, you tell Me your name and also the country you are from. Tell Me. All right. Rub it hard, very hard. Very hard. All right? Good.

Now put your hands towards Me. All right? Great! May God bless you. Come along. They have washed My feet, but I'll have to bless the child. Ah, so what's the name? Ah, look at the eyes, ah? That's the sign. That's Me, you see, the eyes are Me, can't you see? Can I have a little water? So what's the name? James, eh? Will You give him another name? You could call him Ewan. Ewan, for English, all right? And for the Indian name... Gñyānadev. He smiled, he smiled! You are smiling, Gñyānadeva, Gñyāneśhwara. May God bless you. He's smiling, see, so very happy! All right. Can you wipe My feet? Now, you give it all there, give it all. That's all. You don't use milk. You can add it later, milk. Sadkara. Sadkara. Sadkara.

Now say the mantra of `Gurur Brahmā, Gurur Viṣhṇu...' three times. Give Me the towel. Very slowly, you should let down the air very slowly, all right? Now can it be put down, so that they can do it. Danielle, come. Take this down. Come along. Danielle is going to help you. You put the mark in, all right? Thank you very much. You all have to put something there. Come along! Thank you. Come down, come down.

[Hindi.] Sit down. Others are there? Please come.

Warren: They are coming.

Shri Mataji: Just call all of them. [Hindi.] All of them have come? [Shri Mataji asks. Shri Mataji talks in Hindi then She asks where is this group from Spain.] Answer: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: I told them he is coming. Why should they have not come? Someone: they'll be back in couple minutes

Shri Mataji: Alright, come forward.

Someone: [says something in the background.]

Shri Mataji: They'll be back pretty soon. Alright, alright. [Hindi that has Algerian and France in it.] It is better now, much better? Sit down, sit down.

Some of you can come forward a little if there is no space.

Somebody: says something in the background.

Shri Mataji: What do you want, huh...

[Aside to a little kid close by:] What do you want? Call him, call him. Say Mātājī is calling.

Is she alright now, is she alright? Then She talks in Hindi that has Gaṇeśha and Hanumāna in it.

Show him your Gaṇeśha Mother says to a little kids. Show him your Gaṇeśha, your Gaṇeśha, show him. He has kept it in his pocket. He has made all the painting of Gaṇeśha today. [Hindi.] She is gone also Marila? Is she, Marila? Someone answers that she is taking the baby.

Oh I see. The doctor's wife is here and child is here.

So ask them to come. Where is she? Then She talks in Hindi. Yes she is here. This is somebody's wife [UNCLEAR] wife. Come along. He is the one.

Come along. Mr. Ricardo, he has come from Chili here and there are lots of people from Chili. But then because he knows Spanish so he went to Spain and we started a center there and now some people from Spain have come. Ah, this the Gaṇeśha.

Background voice: Very good.

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] So now we have among ourselves a very learned personality, Doctor Singh and his very sweet wife. It is such a pleasure to have such people. His education, I don't know what it is really but I feel that he is the epitome of perfection as far as inner philosophies concerned because he has got the essence of it. And as in yesterday's, name the sat Guru learned that he has to be within, needs to be with [UNCLEAR] that he should know. That is not sufficient that you become realised Souls. It is not sufficient at all because you have to be with others. If you are just be individualistic, then it is alright to be just realised but you have to know what it is, [UNCLEAR that, you have to be with one], the one who has known all the knowledge.

His inquiry has lead it to absolute right conclusions and this is the thing that make Me surprised because normally reading too much makes a person ego-oriented, diverted, misled but his conclusions are absolutely at the right point. That has really impressed Me so much. I haven't seen any bureaucrat at his level as far as spirituality is concerned. They may be intelligent, they may be well ranked and all that but to reach the right conclusions, is only possible if you have innately built in within yourself common sense based on wisdom, is a sign of great wisdom to reach right conclusions. This is what I found about him. It is very great though you are also a learned people with Ph.D.'s sitting here and all Oxford, Cambridge and this and that. All very educated, scholarly people also here. But all the scholarship if it doesn't teach you the right, it doesn't give you that capacity to reach the right conclusion, it is absolutely detrimental to your spiritual growth. Detrimental, it is not going to be useless but detrimental. And this is something that is such a great find for Me and was overjoyed to meet with him. There is another gentleman as I told Doctor...

[MISSING 9 minutes.]... who is the same style of a person. He is not real [UNCLEAR Pañchaba] Indian philosophy and all that but he also reached right conclusions as far as norm is concerned. He studied law. In the same way, in your education if you can really reach that understanding, then one must know that education is based on wisdom and not on ego that you are going to become something better than others and show off your knowledge. But that you, yourself, develop and grow with that wisdom. That is why I am very proud of him. I want you all to listen to him and his words of wisdom.

May God bless you.

Warren: would you like to stand sir? Would you be kind enough to come here, we have limited amount of cords.

Mister Singh: Your Holiness Mātājī and friends, I don't think I deserve what Mātājī has told you about me but what... what it shows is that I have earned so much affection from Her. I and my wife always, talk about Her, remember her as an embodiment of love, compassion and the desire to help everyone to uplift himself or herself. That is the great thing about Her and we are indeed very lucky to have someone who can give us insight into those areas of existence about which unfortunately not only there is a great doubt at present but also there is very little curiosity. Mother has asked me to say something. I feel that I would put before you, how I in my own thinking have been able to understand what Mātājī has been trying to teach. How I see her teachings. That is what I like to interpret to you in my humble, limited manner. We all are very learned people, highly educated, so I would like to talk to you in a language which I hope you will appreciate. We all know and believe that there are three levels of existence. 1. One is what we can call the inorganic material level. Next to it is the organic or life level, the level of living world. And about this world of life or living, is what can be crudely called a spiritual world. Crudely I said, for the absence of no other name, some people call it spiritual world, some call it transcendental world or some call it the world of Ātman or whatever the world you want to use but these are the three levels. We also all believe that somehow or the other the three are connected.

Somehow there and science also has shown how inorganic matter at some stage life evolves, erupts in our organic matter. Science in fact is very close to unraveling that mysterious process through which matter, lifeless matter gets transformed into life. And I think time is not far when the lowest constituents of life that is cell that it is called could be manufactured through chemicals, inorganic chemicals, in a way which scientists want to manufacture it. When that stage will be reached we would have known how to bridge the material and the living worlds. In the same way at a particular point, the world of living, our life as it is which consist of physical body, our brain and our thought processes, emotions and feelings, everything, everything come under there. That gets connected with the other world, the third level which you can call the spiritual world. This unity everyone believes but how it can be established is yet a mystery. Now what is the way to connect the living world with the spiritual world? A very good answer, or I would say a good analogy, has been provided by looking at matter, inorganic matter. As you all know it is [UNCLEAR] that for scientists taught everything that is constituted of elements, basic elements whom were ultimate constituents of matter, their number of elements started with small number and went on growing growing growing till they reached their own hundred. And then came the nucleus physics age when they went still further and found out that the difference between the one element and another consists of only the difference in nucleus of the atom of that element. The nucleus differs and then there are electron moving around the nucleus and they constitute the difference between one matter and another matter. Nucleus consisted of neutron, protons and the number of neutrons and protons which existed in a particular atom determine which element it was. But science reached this stage still more higher than this some years back, think the last decade.

They don't doubt that if you move the nucleus of an atom at a very fast speed, then the neutrons and protons, they also become electrons.

So they all become one, one energy unified. And the machine is called cyclotron. The physicist here may correct me wherever I go wrong. In a cyclotron the atoms move so fast that difference between molecules, between neutrons, protons and electrons, all disappears and they all become united, become one, just one. Take the element away from the machine and they are different. It is the similar kind of thing which has to happen to make you as you are, to make us as we are, consisting of mind body and all that, get united with that other world, the spiritual world. Then the difference disappears between the body, the cell and the thought and all that. The capacity to be united exists in us in the same way as the capacity to become electron exists in neutron and proton but it is not moving, it is static.

So it is different. In the same way our body, our mind, because it is static, because it doesn't move. Because it doesn't have the capacity to move. It doesn't get connected to that world. How to do it? Science has the machine, the cyclotron. You also need that machine. What does that machine to do.

It has to vibrate you, it has to shake you. And when it vibrates you, when it shakes you, you also become like that charged particle in the atom. Then your differences disappear and unity is established. In the atom the dormant thing is the nucleus which has got to be shaken. In us human beings, the dormant thing is, what is called the mysterious power of the Kuṇḍalinī. We all have that Kuṇḍalinī in us. That is that great power, residing in each one of us. The question is how to make it, how to shake it, how to vibrate it so that it moves and in moving it takes away your whole being, your whole psycho, physical thing which you have and connects it with that other world. It has got to be plagued in. That you, this frame has got to be plagued into that big universal force. And once it is plagued in, you move, you vibrate and in that vibration the differences disappear. When you unplague [unplug] it again, like the nucleus of the atom, you are dormant only the electrons are moving. In the same way in you also, the movement is going on as in the atom, the electrons are moving in tremendous speed and the nucleus is silent, dormant. In the same way in you also that force is moving, only you are not aware of it and you are not making use of it. What is needed is that you become aware of that force, then you make use of that force. And then you try to vibrate it. How can you vibrate it? The scientists have the cyclotron. You need a Cyclotron, that machine.

Who is that machine? The machine is the Guru. The Guru is that machine. Once you get that Guru, then you yourself are the machine. Have got the machine and what is much more than that machine, you also have got the maker of the cyclotron also there. The repairer of the cyclotron is also there. The moderator and the manipulator of the cyclotron is also there.

So if cyclotron goes wrong you need to take it to the repairman, you need the inventor, the maker. But no here the Guru has all those things combined.

So he or she has to vibrate it. And Sahaja Yoga is the system by which this vibration merging, putting it into cyclotron and takes place in a manner which is in conformity with your nature. It doesn't need to bring anyone from outside. Doesn't need any force from outside. You know we have in India are three main types of equipment, people call it equipment to really vibrate you. These three are called Tantra, mantra and yantra.

These things, some people want Tantra, others want mantra and some want yantra. Yantras, are things which are visible, seen which you can see in front of you. And when you see these things they create in your mind a subtle kind of feeling, subtle kinds of thoughts arising in your mind which help you in getting this plaguing done which I talked about. Mantra is recitation, recitation of certain rhymes and verses and etc. When you recite like this your palette, your throat and all these muscles they vibrate in certain way.

And now scientists have found out that when they vibrate that way, they do cause certain dormant part of your brain to wake up. Then that is the mantra. And the Tantra is the body. You do various things with your body what is normally called Yoga, often called postures and all those things which your body get in such a way attuned, in such a way that reflex you in with the spiritual world, but beyond all these things is just the simple Yoga where you first know what you are. You know where the spiritual power in you is. Then with the help of your Guru you try to have that vibration, to have that agitation you can called transcendental agitation if you want by which you get attuned and you get plagued in. Scientists say that our brain is roughly known about 1=3, 1=4 is known and about 2=3 unknown and there is this scientist whom I met in Spain, he has a theory. He says the unknown part which constitutes most of our brain, has two parts. Half of it relates to the future and half related to the past. Half of this has all those things stored, programed and stored like you have in the computer, like you have microfflmed the history of the past 5,000 years.

So it has your entire past programed and microfflmed and kept in half of it and some day if you can awaken then you know the past, you know what has happened. Whatever your psycho-physical system has encountered during your existence in previous lives will become known to you and half of it deals with future. Future means future is nowhere, future, the reality as it is it just is, is only present, neither past nor future.

So that gives you the capacity to know everything as it is today. We have to only awaken those powers and those powers can only be awakened only by this communication by which the vibration reaches your that brain.

So this is as I see the Sahaja Yoga and you are lucky and fortunate, we are all lucky and fortunate that we have Saint like Mātājī, who have not only realised and seeing these connection from bottom going above but who have the compassion to make others also see that and you are involved in that great adventure. You are all doing the same work which those scientists have done, who found the interconnection of one matter and another, between the atom and the nucleus. Those who got and built the cyclotron because you all can become like Mātājī.

So many hundreds and thousand cyclotrons and each one of you creates many more. And that is the way the world has to evolve. Because this is my feeling, I may be wrong that this whole universe is sport of the almighty. He has a child takes small blocks of wood builds them into a beautiful building. He knows that he enjoys building that block into buildings, putting them, those blocks. He knows those are blocks and he knows when I make them this kind of thing will come. He has no other purpose, he does it and He shakes them again and builds them again. The same way I think these are the Almighty's has all of us here as living beings as many others which are just plants. There are many others things that are just inorganic matter. If he wishes everyone, every, we even the tiniest piece of earth will become like you and me. But He doesn't wish it in the same way as a child who is building the block, he wants one stone to be the foundation, he wants other block only to go on top, why? Because it is his wish. It is his enjoyment.

So there is no whys in it. There is no purpose in it, otherwise someone can say why didn't you make everyone as conscious human being? Why are plants only? why something is stone or mud? Ask that child why did you put that stone here why block there? why are you building the building here and not there? This is my wish. Only he is the omnipotent child. He is the omnipotent child. No mother to scold him, no limitation, no [UNCLEAR].

And his blocks are living also. This child has to put the blocks wherever He wishes and the blocks get placed one above the other.

So this is how I look at it but the same almighty in the form of seeing saints and teachers. We are his part... gives the capacity to them to make so many of those blocks which are not fully alive as living block.

Some which are living, the teacher as desired by God almighty can make fully conscious, can make realised as such is His wish. We are lucky as human beings, that we have that capacity. And we are also lucky that we get the masters who teach us. With these few words I like to express my gratitude to all of you for listening to me. And Mātājī has been so kind and affectionate to me and my wife and my children that to just thank her would be a crude formality. Thank you very much.

Warren: I am not quite as tall as our dear ambassador friend. It is so lovely to welcome somebody from the world of [UNCLEAR] which I touched a little but I find a little too difficult to handle at the time. Mister ambassador we respect you, we understand what Mātājī said when she referred to that great learning and wisdom which lies beneath that learning. It is very rare in the west particularly, to meet with and to hear the words of somebody as senior position as yourself, giving such a profound and I may say touching explanation of the deeper aspects and the philosophy of human existence, the aspiration of human existence. The way in which you gave the analogy, within the field of science, to that the Ātman and the Kuṇḍalinī has given us a lot of food for the thought. We now have a new approach to talk to our seekers. We now have a new dimension to open up because these things do matter sir. That we should reach seekers that we should be able to relate to them in that terms that we should be able to talk about modern science and modern philosophy, in words that they can understand where as you spoke of that force that lies within us, the Kuṇḍalinī being liken to those other energies that lie within scientific terminologies. You have given us a whole new vocabulary if I may say so. And for that we thank you.

Within the world of diplomatic and commercial counseling this field, to have somebody as profound with such understanding of the things of the spirit, as you have sir, it is such a joy. A joy to us because we have found in touching our spirit, the joy that comes of sharing with others and becoming one with the whole. This becoming one with the whole is something which we all have been seeking, perhaps, over in many many lives. And when we touch it we say this is it, this is it. This is what we have been seeking.

And with utter dismay and complete joy like little children as you said, when we touch it we think my goodness all of these highways and byways that we have been going on, all these learning processes, all of these Ph.D.'s, all of these...

Shri Mataji: M.A.D.'s.

Warren: Remedies. It's not it. A little bit like Socrates, not this not this not this. And then when you'll find it, this is it. And this is what you sir have found and were able to put it in such an eloquent words. How you in fact not only have found it but express it in your words and in your heart. We feel the vibrations of the universe, we feel the Chaitanya that was referred to as Chaitanya Lahari by Ādi Shañkarāchārya. We feel the Brahma Shakti as vibrations. We have been given this blessing by Mātājī Nirmalā Devī and unlike in the past you referred to Gurus, unlike in the past it is a little curious at the moment because, I supposed you can say the Divine is overflowing with its desire to bring all the seekers to that state of consciousness, to that state of realisation to which you were referring.

So the outpouring of the Divine a mass happening today. It is something which is taking place all over the world, there are groups of seekers, there are masses of people who just want to become the silent Ātmā, they want to become one with the Divine and Mātājī is an integrating force. She is a force which, gives that awakening en mass. You'd be interested to know that I was with the party with Mātājī in India when we visited the whole village of Maharashtra of Cabus and before that audience of not a few hundred but 6,000 people.

Every single one of those people felt the vibrations. The Divine is giving this experience en-mass. We don't ask who Mātājī is, we don't ask what she is. We don't quite know if she is Guru, whether she's this or that. To us she has given us the blessing as you referred to at the end of your remarks, not only she patch up the little problems, not only is that she has the quality of the Guru, not only she fix up things, does she soothe, does she balance up the little imbalances that happen within us, but more than that, she teaches us to be our own Guru and this is the ultimate blessing. How many of these Gurus in the Himālayas and in the mountains, how many of these Gurus have had the power to be able to give the realisation just by the desire to do it, by raising that force within us. How many of those have been able to do it? We are in a very privileged position and I don't know how we ended up in this incarnation, to be in such a privileged position, is to be able to go to a program, here in this ashram or may be out in some meeting of people in the suburb of London or coming to Madrid or wherever it was to be able to give realisation en masse to people.

And we say I am giving people Self-realisation and then we think no it is not I giving realisation, this is the power we've got. It is an amazing enigma within us that this power which we know as Kuṇḍalinī, which vibrates which touches the Ātmā, which puts us in touch with the All-pervading Power of God. It works, we can manoeuvre it. We can monitor the Chakras that you know very well. We can monitor the Chakras in our fingertips. We can know where the Kuṇḍalinī is sitting, if there is a little blockage, we have the capacity to clear those little blockages and allow the Kuṇḍalinī to rise. In fact is very interesting in India where people don't have their shirts on and they are at Mother's feet and we can watch the Kuṇḍalinī rising. And we can watch it pulsating at a certain Chakra where there is a little obstruction and by giving it a bandhan and saying perhaps a mantra, Kuṇḍalinī will move and we can watch it as a way a physical energy rising through the spine and you can see with your own eyes this happening. These things are amazing to us. Because as you well know, living in the west that we are a very rational beings, we do use a very mechanical, scientific brain to achieve certain conclusions. But as mother has said and you sir reinforced, how do you reach the right conclusion is the thing. How do you reach the right conclusion? How an ambassador to Spain, working for the bureaucracy of the India to reach this conclusion as you have sir? How to do it? This is the spiritual power that lies within you. This is the power of discrimination which we have been given.

Contents: 1982-07-09*, Public Program, Confusion the Subtle Slavery, Birmingham, UK

One has to realise that modern times are the times of confusion. You don't know what you want. You don't know what you want to ask. You don't know whatever you are doing is right or wrong. Confusion is necessary. Without confusion, we are not desperate. Without desperation we do not seek. But confusion is only visible when a person reaches a certain area of awareness, or we can say, a degree of awareness. Say, at a stage when Moses came on this earth, when the desperation was different, that they wanted to get out of slavery, it was a different style of understanding they had, how to organize a society on a particular pattern so you achieve the maximum amount of efficiency, out of that society. And it was an emergency... it was a very touch and go position for the Jews at that time.

It has happened in many countries, in many generations, that they reached a state where they felt extremely desperate. The slavery of man was very apparent at that time. But before that, people didn't feel bad about the slavery. They had accepted it. They had taken it for granted. And then a time came when they felt, “This is slavery and we are not going to have any more of it." And a leader came, that leader worked it out for them.

Today in these modern times, we have a very subtle type of slavery, which is every day eating us...

which is so self-destroying that we are not even aware of it and we get destroyed. This destruction is working, in so many ways, that, if we do not really awaken ourselves to the truth, there is a possibility that nothing will be left out of this creation.

There are people who give big lectures. I have met many big people from United Nations and from all these big, big agencies. They talk about the coming destruction, the future shock and this going to happen, they book, big books. They discuss. They sit on the street, they'll discuss. They are in a pub, they are discussing. They are in a party, they are discussing. But they do not realise what it means. This destruction is a kind of a destruction that has never taken before. Because this destruction is going to come from within and not from without.

We have reached a certain depth in our awareness and if we do not touch the source of our sustenance, this destruction is going to work out. Now for many people it is, “Oh forget it, forget it, we'll see about it." Some people are of this opinion, “All right, forget it, what destruction, all right doesn't matter, we'll see tomorrow." And some of them I've seen are sitting down, waiting, “Oh God, thank God there's destruction, so this all is finished. Ha! We don't have to bother our heads. Thank God there is destruction promised." Whatever attitude one may take, one has to realise, that these are very serious things. The creation has reached its maximum growth now. The growth is expressed as human beings. These human beings are the actors on the stage. Whole nature is working out, this new happening. Now only one thing has to happen to you is, that you have to get connected with the Divine. You have to get connected with the whole. You have to know your own meaning and you have to know your purpose. If this can happen to you, then, you are in the other world.

You are made for this. You are made a human being with a purpose. We must think, all the scientists must ask once at least this question: `Why? Why are we made human beings? From animal stage, why have we come to this stage, what is the reason?' This question is working in the unconscious of every seeker today, that's how we have so many seekers all over the world. And these seekers are just trying to find out why are we here.

Some of them find an answer sometimes in some material well-being. Say our strikes nowadays... railways. Well it's very narrow view of the whole thing, very narrow view. You want to have more pay, all right, have it. Then what? Those who talk of Communism... I've been to Moscow, I am, again, going back. I mean if you ask them they say, “Oh we haven't got joy as yet." I am not against Communism or against Democracy, both things are just jokes to Me. You are neither communistic nor democratic. Only after Realisation you can become both simultaneously, because you have no powers to be capitalistic or democratic, you have no power to vote. You don't know anything about yourself, what are you voting for? You can't see. Unless and until there is light, unless and until we can see, how are we going to vote for? For example we vote a person, for what? “Oh! He's a very nice man” all right. What is nice about him? How do you know he is a nice man? How do you know he will not be a bad man? Can you say that today the one who looks like a nice, very nice person, will not emit scorpions, or snakes all around him? A person who apparently looks a beautiful personality may turn out to be a horrid person. There is no absolute way of judging anyone.

So how are we to vote any? If you think that you know how to judge, then I think you have to still learn. Because till you make lots of mistakes, you will not admit that “I don't know." That's the point. Once you reach that stage of saying, “I don't know. I say this is a nice man but I can't say. I'm not sure about this person” that's the point where you reach, when you are unsure about it, that you want to know surely, if something is really truthful and honest.

Our sense of honesty and everything is so superficial, is so superficial. For us, honesty means if you give me five pounds, I'll return five pounds to you, is done, finished, is honest. Everything is so superficial, that's why, we can never be satisfied, even if you get ten percent more pay or twenty percent more pay.

You are not going to be happy, take it from Me. Material things do not give us happiness. Never. But, I do not say that we do not need material things. We need material things. But matter is something like a cup which has the nectar in it. If you are thirsty, you cannot take it from an empty cup, anything. It may be a cup of gold, what does it matter, difference to you? You must have something to quench your thirst and that thirst, unless and until it is quenched, you are not going to be happy. And what is that thirst? Is this: that still you have not known yourself. It's a very unconscious thirst. It comes, you don't know what you are seeking, you don't know why you are unhappy, you don't know what you want. That is the unconscious which is working it out. But the time has come that you should know, what you are and what is your glory, what is your greatness, what are your powers.

They are all built within yourself. All these days when you grew up, in your evolutionary process, all these things were built within you as shown here. They are all there. Actually I am just a catalyst, you can say. Just a candle which is enlightened.

And this candle, when touches another candle which is ready, that gets enlightened. I mean you may give it a big scientific name, this, that, a charged personality, this, that, I don't understand. It's very simple for Me. You are all ready for it, I just touch you and you get enlightened and you get the light and when you touch someone, that person also gets enlightened.

Now you may say, “Mother, how can that be so simple?" I mean so many people say that “Mother, You are too simple, how can that be?" I just don't understand, what should I have, two horns or something to make it complicated? Everything that is living is the simplest thing. That's the sign of living. Have you seen the flower? How simple it is, to grow a flower. It just works. You just get some seeds, sow them and you get the plants. How simple it is! Do we ever think, how it works out? Looks very complicated, if you start thinking about it, you will go mad if you start analyzing it. But it's so simple.

In the same way, this happening is also a very-very simple thing. It is called Sahaja. Sahaja has two meanings. Sahaja means simple, also it means the thing that is born with you. Sahaja is a simple thing because it is born with... I mean your nose, is born with you, all right, it's a simple thing. You don't have to do anything, press it or anyway do anything to it, to breathe. It's there. In the same way, this built-in process is within you.

It's just there. To Me, it is absolutely simple and to you also it will be simple, as soon as you get it.

So this argument about it being so simple, I just can't understand, Myself. Why should there be an argument? Supposing you can eat this way [puts hand to mouth], why should you ask that “how can it be so simple to eat this way?" It's so simple, because it is so vital, it is so important. All vital things are simple and easily available, like your own breathing. For that if you have to do something special, then this breathing is not possible. How many people are going to survive? Now this simple thing, this simple method, is the method of the All-pervading Divine Power, the Holy Ghost. This All-pervading Divine Power is the Shakti, the Primordial Power that works it out. Do we realise how this Shakti works otherwise? Are we ever watching a flower becoming a fruit? Who does that? Not one flower, but you must have seen millions and millions and billions and billions of these flowers, are turning into fruits and who does that? We never think. We take it for granted.

All living things are done by this Divine Power. Human beings cannot do anything that is living. What they can do is everything that is dead or deadening. Like strikes, is a deadening thing. What we can do is to make something, a table, a chair, if the tree is dead. You are doing nothing but dead work and this deadening thing, dominates us because we form habits. We form habits. With these habits, this matter sits on our head and the Spirit, which is the vibrant thing, which is the source, which is the controlling thing, becomes dormant. This dormant force, if somehow, becomes enlightened and our attention becomes enlightened, our attention becomes enlightened, we become a different person, we become a yogi. We become a person who is united with God. For that you don't have to wear funny dresses. It makes no difference what sort of dress you wear. It makes no difference how you comb your hair, or what sort of food you eat. It's something so within, it has nothing to do with these outward things.

All our ideas about even charities and about being kind to others and all these things are very super ficial. When you become that, when you become compassion, when you become love, then you don't have to tell yourself at all, you don't have to argue with it, you just become. It just flows, the compassion flows, it acts. You don't have to argue it out, you don't have to tell yourself, “I should be compassionate, I should be kind” you just become.

I went to Italy and there were three-four people who got interested in Sahaja Yogis, but they said, “We don't want to join Sahaja Yoga." I said, “Why?" “Because these people don't smoke." I said, “I never told them not to smoke, never." Ask them, did I? I never said `don't smoke.' You just ask them, “Do you smoke, or you have given up smoking, or you... your Mother has forced you not to smoke?" They said, “Nothing of the kind. We used to smoke packets of cigarettes, we used to drink, we were drug addicts.

But something happened to us, we just gave up, we don't know how.

So simple. Mother never told us, we just became like that." What is there to tell? I mean, once you have found it, once you have seen the light, you are not bothered.

Supposing you see a rope here, you might be frightened, you might think it's a snake, because there's no light, you can't see. You might be running helter-skelter, the whole house might be upside down... but once a light is there you say, “Oh! It's a rope." All right.

So all the fears drop out because you have seen it. All the pressures drop out. All the hang-ups, they drop out. Whatever is abnormal, drops out and you become an absolutely a normal person, absolutely a normal person. That's what it is that you have to become. But it is much, much more than that. This is not only that you get your physical fitness, many people have been cured, they must have told you that cancer is cured. Yes true, cancer is cured. Many diseases are cured, mental cases are cured, if you have been to horrible Gurus, you get cured.

All these things happen, but that's not the end of it, this is just the redeeming part of it. The redeeming part is that you are redeemed of all these physical, mental, emotional problems. But the another part of it, is that, you yourself get the power. You become the prophets. “The men of God will become prophets." That's what your great poet William Blake had said. “The men of God will become prophets and they will have power to make others prophet." This is the sign. He has given you the sign. You become prophets, that means you get the power to do all this, yourself. Every individual can do it. Even small children can do it. Even a little Olympia can do it. When you become the prophet, you also know everything about it: what you are doing, how you have to do it, how to raise the Kuṇḍalinī, how to cross all the different centers which are sick, how to keep it there. You become absolutely the master. Now the prophets were, we can say, like William Blake was a prophet, all right, he was a seer. He saw this future; he's mentioned everything that was going to happen to Sahaja Yoga, no doubt. I don't know how many are aware of it.

Most of them thought he was a lunatic. They couldn't believe him, when he talked of all these things that Jerusalem is going to be established in England's pastured land, nobody could believe they said, “Must be mad." But, the time has come. Jerusalem is to be established. There's a special thing about England and he saw that hundred years back, clearly, the whole picture. But nobody understood him. He was a prophet, nobody understood him, what he said. Those who understood also had an academic sort of an interest in him and some did feel that there may be some sort of a truth in what he has said and described.

So you are more than a prophet in a way, that you are not interested in seeing the future, but you come in the present. What they described, the future for them, which they did not enjoy, is your present and that you become the master yourself. All these great prophets had a big, big problem. I had a discussion with an ambassador recently, who is a very learned man from India and he was telling Me that the biggest problem was, that with rationality, with explanations, how far can we go. Supposing you say there is All-pervading Power, they said, “How, how, how are we to believe? It's all cock and bull story. Prove it to us." By argument of course you cannot prove it, but for experiencing also you cannot prove it.

So they used to give up, like Ādi Shañkarāchārya, at a point he reached, he wrote about `Viveka Chūḍāmaṇi' and all these deities and then he gave up and he started describing the Mother. He said, “I give up. That's all." And they said that he went soft in his head, because he couldn't go ahead with his philosophies and started praising the Mother. Said, “What's wrong?" The same thing happens with Bible, with Koran, with everything, that people think: either you follow them with faith, with blind faith, do not question anything, just accept whatever they are saying, become fanatics, kill each other, die, then it's all right. Or else, you just give up. You become communists, no God. If you have to have your brains alive then you better give up all these religions, you should say, `all nonsense.' Christianity is hopeless because of these churches, then Islam is useless because of fanaticism, that is useless because of this and that is, Hinduism is another nonsense. Because at this level, it looks like that. At this point, it appears like that. It has no meaning, it's nonsensical. This blind faith, people can't accept. The scientists say, “What is this blind faith? We went to moon; it's all just the same. What's there? We went to moon, we never saw God. What are you talking about God? How are we to believe there is God?" But, we have to now prove the existence of God. We have to prove the existence of this All-pervading Power. We have to prove the existence of that Spirit within you. It is to be proved. It is to be actualised.

So arguments will stop. With arguments, one cannot achieve it. With blind faith, one cannot achieve it.

Rationality cannot take it there, or this emotional adherence will not take you there. It's actualisation...

is the happening, that really makes you that.

The reality that is actually expressing within your central nervous system, that is the one is going to convince. But it is not for conviction, for example, if you are not convinced, the Divine is not interested.

Like these people were saying, “Mother, by putting up posters that these people know about You, that You are there." I said, “That's all, that's all. You have told them, you have passed the message. Now if they come, well and good." That's our job, is to inform. If they come, if they get Realisation, well and good. If they establish themselves, even better. We'll work hard for that, but we cannot force it. We cannot force it. We cannot have any artificial ways of impressing you. Like we cannot carry a circus about it. You have to have a sensitivity of your own to understand the importance and your own pure intelligence must tell you that this is the thing. Otherwise we cannot fall at your feet and say, `Oh! Please...' We cannot implore. Neither can we cross your freedom that is given to you. It's in your own freedom and in its own glory, that you have to ascend, because you are epitome, you are the epitome of this creation. Nobody can force you to do it. If you want to go to hell, all right, take two running jumps and you can go down. If you want to go to Heaven, that's also possible.

So the time we are here, we do not realise how precarious they are, how vital and the most important times for which, we have been waiting. The most important moment in the life of creation, is today, when
